اپنے کرم فرماؤں کی خدمت میں ایک اہم گزارش

السلام علیکم ورحمۃ اللہ!

اللہ رب العزت کا خاص فضل وکرم ہے کہ جس نے آپ کو اپنے پاکیزہ اور نجات آفریں کلام کی تلاوت کا شرف عطا فرمایا اور ہمیں اپنی مقدس کتاب کی خدمت کی سعادت سے بہرہ اندوز کیا۔

ایک مسلمان کے لئے اس سے بڑھ کر خوش نصیبی کا اور کون سا مقام ہوسکتا ہے کہ وہ اللہ تعالیٰ کی بابرکت کتاب کی طباعت واشاعت کے ذریعے سے اس کے دینِ مبین کے پیغام کو عام کرنے میں حصہ لے۔ اس نعمت عظمیٰ پر اس بندہ ناچیز کا سر اپنے رحیم اور کریم پروردگار کے حضور میں اظہار تشکر کے لئے خم ہے۔

FOREWORD

All praise and glory is due to Allah Almighty, our Creator and Master, Revealer of the Holy Qur'aan for our guidance, and choicest Darood and Salaams on Hazrat Muhammadur Rasulallah Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam, the noblest creation of Allah Almighty, the Holy Qur'aan personified, the absolute guide for our success in this world and the Hereafter.

The Holy Qur'aan is Allah Almighty's final message for the guidance of mankind. Before one can put its message into practice, one has to understand it. Thus, it is an incumbent duty of every Muslim to read this message, understand it and then act upon it. This task is proving very difficult for us because there is no translation or commentary in English, which is Sunni orientated, other than a translation of Ala Hazrat's translation — Kanzul Imaan. This, too, is just a translation without commentary. All the other translations and commentaries that we have in English are not only scanty, but they are full of inconsistencies. In short, they do not cater for our needs. Many renowned commentators of the Holy Qur'aan like Imam Baidawi, Imam Jalaluddeen Suyuti, Maulana Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dehlvi (May Allah be pleased with them) and the like, are of the opinion that the Holy Qur' aan can only be understood if the commentator of it has a deep love for Allah Almighty - its Revealer, the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam —its teacher, his illustrious Companions — the direct recipients of its message and the pious saints who are an embodiment of the Holy Qur' aan.

With this in mind, Hazrat Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi Saheb, the religious and educational head of the Darul Uloom Pretoria, in consultation with renowned international Sunni scholars like Flazrat Allama Shaikli ul Qur' aan and Hadith Maulana Sayed Haseenuddeen Shah Saheb, the Chancellor of Islamic University Jamia Razvia Rawalpindi (Pakistan) and Hazrat Ustadhul Ulama Mufti Gui Rahman Saheb of Birmingham (UK) showed a keen desire to have TAFSEER NOORUL IRFAAN of Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan Badayuni translated into English, as it is a brief, but comprehensive, commentary based on the Sunni way of life. After much effort, trying to convince the officials of the Darul Uloom and the Pretoria Sunni Institute, it was finally decided to undertake this monumental task. Mufti Saheb then approached me for this important work. A meeting was then arranged between the officials, Hazrat Mufti Saheb and my self, in which this onerous and highly responsible task was placed on my shoulders.

It is purely through the Grace of Allah Almighty and the Bounties of the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam that I have embarked on this huge task. How it came to my lot to be chosen for this blessed work, is beyond my imagination.

This translation is thus a humble effort made possible through the infinite Mercy and Grace of Allah Almighty, as well as through the constant assistance and guidance of Hazrat Mufti Akbar Hazarvi Saheb. May Allah Almighty and His Beloved Nabi Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam shine the torch of guidance upon me to complete the task that I have undertaken. Aameen!

Mohamed Hoosain Mukaddam
A humble student of Mufti M. Akbar Hazarvi

ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

In the Name of Allah, the Most Compassionate the Most Merciful

All Praise be to Allah Almighty and choicest blessings and salutations on the Final Prophet and Messenger, Hazrat Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam and upon his Family and Companions (May Aiiah be pleased with them).

The Holy Qur'aan is undoubtedly the Word of Allah Almighty, communicated to humanity through the Beloved Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam and is from the Heavenly Books. It is still in its original form and is protected, and will always be protected against any change, to this effect, that not even a single dot has or will be removed form it, because Allah Almighty has taken it upon Himself to protect the Holy Qur'aan. Since Hazrat Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam is the Final Messenger of Allah Almighty, the Holy Qur'aan is the closing episode of Divine revelation. It is a proclamation that, now humanity has no other choice but to receive guidance from the Holy Qur'aan. The beautiful style of language and order of the Holy Qur'aan is unique and there is none second to it.

The Holy Qur'aan challenged all its opponents, Arab and non-Arab alike, to produce a single verse like that of the Holy Qur'aan, but they had to decline. It is a glittering miracle, which removes the darkness of evil and sin.

The Holy Qur'aan is certainly the most read book in the world and its many translations and exegesis have been written hitherto. Imam Ahie Sunnah Maulana Ahmad Raza Khan's (May Allah be pleased with him) translation Kanzul Imaan is considered to be the best in Urdu translations. It deserves to be translated into other languages, particularly into English. This was accordingly carried out by Professor Shah Faridul Haq of Pakistan. Maulana Naeemuddeen Muradabadi wrote brief, but valuable notes on this rendering, which were later developed by Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan (Rahmatullah Alaihe) under the title "Noorul Irfaan". The credit for presenting this worthwhile work goes to Maulana Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi and his colleagues, especially Br. Mohamed Hoosain Mukaddam, who is the translator of this work.

Maulana Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi's origination is from Ghazi Khot in Mansehra, Pakistan. He completed his Dars-e-Nizami course at Jamia Razvia Zia-ul-Uloom (Rawalpindi) and obtained his M.A. degree in Arabic from the International Islamic University in Islamabad (Pakistan). On the invitation of the late Abdul Haq Saleh Muhammad of Lenasia (Johannesburg), he travelled with me to South Africa in 1988 and I was asked to allow him to stay on in Laudium (Pretoria) for the education of the Muslims there. This was done on condition that a Darul Uloom is established, and the Darul Uloom Pretoria, of which Mufti Hazarvi is Principal, is now doing remarkable Islamic work.

They have commenced with the publication of books and this translation is a masterpiece in this series. Congratulations must go to the translator Mohamed Hoosain Mukaddam for the sterling work he has done, as well as to Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi and Hafez Muhammad Ismail Hazarvi and Maulana Abdul Wahhab Wookay.

I pray that Allah Almighty, through the intercession of His Beloved Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam, accepts the efforts of Mufti Hazarvi, Mohamed Hoosain Mukaddam, their colleagues as well as the officials of Darul Uloom Pretoria in producing this work. May Allah Almighty always keep them safe and under His Protection. Furthermore, I advise the purchase and distribution of this Tafseer as a means of sending Esaale Sawaab on the souls of your kindred, who have departed from this world.

A Brief Profile on Maulana Shah Ahmad Raza Khan

Ala Hazrat, Imam Ahmad Raza Khan, a great jurist and a learned scholar of Islam, was born in 1858 at Bareilly (India) and died in 1921.

Imam Ahmad Raza Khan was a born genius. He read the Holy Qur'aan when he was oniy four years old. Later, he became astonishingly well-versed in more than fifty branches of learning pertaining to the Ancient and Modern Sciences, Hadith, Fiqh, Islamic Jurisprudence, Mathematics, Economics and many more. He left contributions in all these academic disciplines. He was a prolific writer and wrote about one thousand books relating to various aspects of Islam. He is considered to be the most learned and authentic authority on the Qur'aan, Sunnah and jurisprudence.

Although he was well versed in scores of branches of knowledge, yet in his later years, he restricted his interest to the following branches of religious learning:

1. To support and defend the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam.
2. To uproot and rectify the innovations prevalent in Muslim Society.
3. To issue religious decrees according to the Hanafi School of jurisprudence.

Ala Hazrat's religious works have no parallel in his time. His ability, farsightedness and depth of thought have been recognized by the Ulama of the four schools of jurisprudence. Although he has written a large number of books on numerous topics, his two most famous works are the translation of the Holy Qur'aan in Urdu and Fatawa Razvia in twelve volumes.

It is an accepted fact that the revealed Arabic words of the Holy Our'aan cannot be actually transformed in any other language. A literal translation of the Arabic Qur'aan conveying the same meaning is not only difficult, but also impossible. Therefore, the translation of the Holy Qur' aan in any other language is usually an explanatory translation.

Ala Hazrat's Urdu translation, known as KANZUL IMAAN is an explanatory translation. This explanatory translation of the Holy Qur'aan into Urdu was completed in 1910. It is the most famous and accepted Urdu translation in the world. In his translation, Ala Hazrat has tried to assign such meanings to the words of the Holy Qur' aan that there may not be any contradiction in the meaning of the words and verses of the Holy Qur'aan. The other thing which he has kept in mind while translating the Holy Qur'aan is that such a meaning should be selected that may not slight the status and dignity of Almighty Allah and His Prophets.

A Brief Profile on Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan

Tafseer Noorul Irfaan is the first complete and comprehensive exegesis written in Urdu. Its author, Hazrat Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan, the son of Maulana Muhammad Yaar Khan was born in 1906 and passed away on the 3rd of Ramadaan, 24 October 1971 in Gujarat (Pakistan). He received his primary education from his learned father and then studied at Madressa Shamsul Uloom in Badayun, India. Thereafter, he proceeded to Muradabad, also in India, to study under Sayed Muhammad Naeemuddeen at Jamia Naeemia

Besides this prominent work, he produced several other scholarly works mentioned hereunder:

1. Naeemul Ban Fi Inshirah-al-Bukhari
2. Mirat Sharah Mishkaat
3. Jaa Al-Haq
4. IlmulMiraas
5. Shaan-e-Habibur Rahman
6. Islami Zindagi
7. Ilmul Qur'aan
8. Risala-e-Noor

A true commentary of the Holy Qur'aan requires a thorough knowledge of Arabic grammar, semantics, lexicology, tradition, jurisprudence as well as various other branches of knowledge. Sheikhui Tafseer Hakeem ul Ummah, Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan Naeemi was no doubt qualified in all the required branches of knowledge. The author studied all previously written exegesis and his work sums up concisely the major points discussed in these commentaries. Further, he has particularly summarized the contents of Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan of Maulana Sayed Muhammad Naeemuddeen Muradabadi. A great number of religious scholars have paid tribute and benefited from his immense knowledge.

APPEAL TO READERS

It is the Grace and Bounty of Allah Almighty that he chooses some of His servants for His work. This has nothing to do with that person's level of education, his expertise in the field or his experience. Allah Almighty chooses whom He wills.

The task of printing and publishing is not an easy one. It is accompanied by a huge responsibility of maintaining good standards in respect of quality of work, accuracy of the subject matter, cohesion in its presentation and appropriateness of its format.

Taking into account the above requirements, we have made every possible effort to present this volume to the best of our ability. Nevertheless, no one can claim perfection besides our Supreme Lord, Allah Almighty. Thus, there may be errors terms of expression and presentation If you detect any, we humbly appeal to you to bring them to our notice.

The purpose of this effort is to make the Message of the Holy Qur'aan in accordance with the Sunni Aqaaid accessible to the Muslims globally. We therefore make a request to all our readers to make Dua that Allah Almighty, through the Waseela of His Beloved Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam, accepts this humble effort of ours in His Supreme Court so that it becomes a source of salvation for our Hereafter Aameen.

May Allah Almighty grant all of us the guidance to become active Muslims for promoting and glorifiing of Allah's Deen! Aameen

Gratitude

The Darul Uloom Pretoria wishes to place on record its sincerest Thanks and Gratitude to the Zeeshan Siddiq & Family UK, for having acknowledged this tremendous work and effort of the Darul Uloom Pretoria. An effort of 14 years could only be made possible to reach the greater masses is through publication df this masterpiece of work. Having recognized this effort and to ensure that this is shared with the English speaking Muslim communities, the Zeeshan Siddiq & Family accepted responsibility to bear the cost of the printing of these two volumes,

Says Allah Almighty in the Holy Qur'aan:

> "The parable of those who spend their wealth in the way of Allah, is likened to a grain of corn which grows seven ears, and each ear bears a hundred grains. Allah gives manifold increase to whomsoever he pleases. And Allah cares for all and He is knower of all things."

This is certainly a means of obtaining continuous rewards (Sadaq-e-Jariah). Whosoever would be reading this valuable translation and the commentary would be a recipient of rewards as well as those who made it possible for them to read. For as long as this is existent, members of the Zeeshan Siddiq & Family will be the recipients of equal rewards.

May Allahu Ta'ala aceept this efforts of the and we request you, the reader to remember them in your kind duas.

SURAH AL-FATEHA (The Opening Chapter[1])
(MAKKAN) Revealed before Hijrah

1 Section 7 Verses : 27 Words , 140 Letters

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ ○

In the Name[2] of Allah, the Most Affectionate, The Merciful[3]

1. The revelation of SURAH AL-FATEHA is connected with both Makkah and Madinah. And the "Opening chapter consists of seven Verses, twenty seven words and hundred and forty letters.

2. The Bismillah which precedes each Surah or Chapter is a complete Verse, while that which appears with Surah An-Nahl (The Bee) is just part of the Verse. It should be remembered that Bismillah was not revealed with each Surah, but at one place only. It is added with each Surah to separate one from the other. It is for this purpose that Bismillah is boldly written above each Surah and not joined with the rest of the Verses. The Imam in Salaah recites Bismillah silently, even in those Prayers in which Qira't (recitation of the Qur'aan) is read aloud. When Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام brought down the First Revelation, Surah Al-Alaq-first 5 verses Bismillah was not part of it. In Taraweeh Prayer it is important for the Hafizul Qur'aan leading the Salaah to recite Bismillah aloud once, before beginning any Surah. From this it can be deduced that to commence all good deeds with Bismillah is a blessed act. The letter, which Prophet Sulaiman عليه السلام wrote to Bilqees - the Queen of Yemen began with Bismillah from the blessing of which Allah granted him Yemen and its queen. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم commenced the writing of the Treaty of Al-Hudaibiyah with Bismillah as a result of which he was granted victory of Makkah. However, when slaughtering an animal, one should only recite Bismillahi Allahu Akbar not the full Bismillah because one is not allowed to read words of mercy at the time of any seemingly cruel act. It is for this reason that the merciful name of the Holy Prophet, صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not recited here.

3. The letter `BA` of Bismillah is a preposition which refers to seeking of help, while the preceding verb in the word is hidden therein. This would therefore mean "with the help of Allah's Name I begin. Thus, to seek the help from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or from the pious servants of Allah is acceptable as they too, like the Name of Allah, provide and proclaim the guidance of Allah.

2. All praise be unto Allah[4], Lord of all the worlds [5].

Marfat.com

4. If the article "Al" in the word Al-Hamdu is considered to be a Comprehensive Article, the meaning of word will be as provided by the illustrious translator Ala Hazrat (May Allah's mercy be upon him) i.e. directly or indirectly all praise belongs to Allah alone, because the praise of the creation is, in reality, praise of the Creator. But if this article is regarded as just a definite article, then its meaning would signify that only praise which is made in accordance with the teachings of the Holy Prophet

3. The Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

4. Master of the Day of Requital.

5. We worship [6] You alone, and beg You alone for help [7].

6. The word "We worship" collectively suggests that Fard Salaah should be performed, in congregation, for if one person's prayer in the congregation is accepted, everybody's Fard Salaah, too, will be accepted.

7. From this it can be understood that the actual or the absolute Help comes from, or is provided by Allah, just as absolute praise – direct or indirect is due to Allah. But it should be remembered, that just as all forms of worship are for Allah alone, absolute - the actual help, too, is sought from Allah. However, worldly or outward assistance can be sought from His Pious Servants. It is for this purpose that "we worship" and "we seek help" are expressed as separate entities. It should also be borne in mind that there is a distinct difference between 'worship' and 'help'. Outward or worldly help can be sought from those other than Allah. The Almighty Allah Himself says in the Qur'aan "Without doubt Allah and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are your helpers. (S5:V55) In another verse Allah says: "And help ye one another in righteousness and piety" (S5: V2). But none can be worshipped besides Allah, neither directly or indirectly. Or, in any way if the true meaning of worship would be to accept someone as a creator then worship and obey him like a creator.

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is acceptable. Hence, all endeavours to glorify Allah by the non-believers would be regarded as futile and non-acceptable as they do not conform to the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Tafseer Roohul-Bayaan

5. From this one learns that although Almighty Allah is the Creator and Master of everything . He should only be referred in connection with His elevated creation e.g. Lord of Muhammad and not Lord of Abu Jahl.

الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ ۙ

اِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ وَ اِيَّاكَ نَسْتَعِيْنُ ؕ

To give this status to anyone besides Allah is an act of Shirk - polytheism. But if seeking help from others was an act of Shirk like worship then Allah would have expressed as a single entity meaning: 'You alone do we worship and ask for help.' Furthermore, it should also be remembered, that it is for this reason that in times of one's material or religious needs, seeking of assistance from the sources or means provided by Allah is in reality, seeking from Allah's help. Thus for the ill person to seek the help of a doctor, for the oppressed people to lodge their complaint to the governing authority or for the sinner to entreat the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is certainly not against this verse. As by praising a human being for doing a meritorious deed are we really interfering with the Divine verse "All praise is due to Allah alone"? It should also be remembered that the pious servants of Allah do give assistance after their demise. On the Night of Me'raj did Musa عليه السلام not help to reduce the 50 prayers to just 5? To this day non-believers enter the fold of Islam by reciting the Kalimah through the blessed name of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Thus, in the light of the above discussion seeking the help of the pious servants after their demise is in no way going against this verse.

6. Guide us on the Straight Path [8].

8. From this verse emerge three important facts:

i. From all the Bounties of Allah, the most revered bounty is being steadfast on the Straight Path as this is sought and supplicated in every Rak'at of Salaah.

ii. This Path is identified with the Path tread upon by the Saints and other Pious Sages of Allah, for those are the ones upon whom Allah has bestowed His Favours. Allah instructs us "Be with those who are pious" (S 9 : V 119) This Path can only be obtained by following the Path of the Ahle Sunnat, for all the saints of the past and present are from this Jama'at (group).

iii. True Guidance cannot be achieved by one's effort alone; as it is bestowed upon a person by the Grace of Allah. Therefore, following the path of those who are misguided and gone astray, helps only to invite the wrath of Allah. One should at no time associate with such persons nor imitate them in any way or accept any of their customs and traditions.

7. The path of those whom You have favoured. Not those who have earned Your anger [9] and nor of those who have gone astray.

صِرَاطَ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ ۙ غَيْرِ الْمَغْضُوْبِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ لَا الضَّآلِّيْنَ ع

9. Those who earned the anger refers to the Yahud (Jews) while ' Those who are gone astray' refers to the Nasara (Christians). Two points emerge from this:

i. The Jews are non-believers on account of their hatred for the Prophets, while the Christians are non- believes on account of their love for Prophet Isa (Jesus) عليه السلام which exceeds the limits of mortality. Yet, Almighty Allah has listed the Yahud amongst "Those who earned the anger of Allah," while the Nasara are in the category of "Those who are gone astray"

ii. It is important of the believers to keep away from all types of beliefs, deeds, characteristics and friendship of the Yahud and Nasara and other types of non-believers. We should not imitate them in any way or follow any of their customs and traditions because all these acts will lead to the path of Kufr (disbelief).

IMPORTANT ISSUES:

a. It is not permissible to recite Bismillah when commencing any unlawful act as this leads to defaming Allah's name.

b. At the time of slaughtering an animal do not recite the full Bismillah but read just Bismillah Allahu Akbar for as explained in No.2.

c. To recite Hamd or Praise of Allah in the Jummah Khutbah is Wajib but rewardable to recite in the Marriage Khutbah, in dua or when doing any good . However, it is Sunnat Muakkidah to recite thanks and Praise of Allah after eating and drinking.

d. It is not permissible for a Muqtadee (one who follows the Imam in Salaah) to recite Surah Fateha or Qira't because the Qira't of the Imam is the Qira't of the Muqtadee (Hadith) as well. In terms of Allah's command it is Fard for the Muqtadee to remain silent and listen to the Imam's recitation . For further details of this issue refer to Jaa- al-haq vol.2.

e. When the Imam has recited Surah Fateha the Muqtadees should recite Amien silently because Ameen itself is dua. This is in accordance with the verse of the Qur'aan "Make dua in the court of Allah softly and with humility" (S7: V55) (The above is according to Hanafi. According to Shafa'ee Bismillah is part of every Surah and the Imam should recite it loudly in Jahry Salaah. The Muqtadee should recite Surah Al Fateha behind the Imaam softly and recite Ameen loudly).

ذٰلِكَ الْكِتٰبُ لَا رَيْبَ ۛ فِيْهِ ۛ هُدًى لِّلْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿٢﴾

الجزء ١ معانقة

SECTION 1

1. Alif Lam Meem (Individual letters of the Arabic Alphabet)

2.That Sublime Book (Qur'aan) in which there is no doubt [11], in it there is guidance for the God-fearing. [12]

11. From this verse two important issues become evident.

11.1 In the QUR'AAN there is no room for an iota of doubt of any kind. Whosoever has any doubt, it is because of his own ignorance. It is for this reason that Allah says in the QUR'AAN (S 2 : V 33) "And if you are in doubt...". The QUR'AAN cites examples of negative and positive presence of doubt in the hearts of people. Therefore, the verses are free of any inconsistency or any form of confrontation.

11.2 One will not cast any doubt on the QUR'AAN as long as one does not harbour any doubt concerning Hazarat Jibraeel عليه السلام, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his illustrious Companions, for it was Jibraeel عليه السلام who brought down the QUR'AAN the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was its recipient and the Companions were the direct receivers from the Messenger of Allah. If there is any doubt concerning any of these three it will automatically make the Holy QUR'AAN doubtful. Thus, any person who regards the Companions as transgressors will doubt the veracity of the QUR'AAN. Hence to regard the Companions as callous and impious is just as heinous as regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام in this light. All three have to be regarded as totally innocent and sinless. In addition, Allah Almighty, too, has to be regarded as absolutely infallible, for any erroneous belief regarding Allah will also cast doubt on the purity and veracity of the QUR'AAN.

12. The word (Muttaqee) denotes one who fears, or one who abstains. Hence, a Muttaqee is a person who fears Allah and refrains from all erroneous beliefs and impious deeds. Taqwa is of two types, physical and spiritual. The physical form of Taqwa is abstaining from sins and doing good deeds, while the spiritual Taqwa is the veneration of those who are dear to Allah as Allah says in the Qur'aan "And whoso respects the signs of Allah, then it is from the piety of hearts" (S27:V32). Here, the word Muttaqeen "God-conscious people" refers to the Companions of the Holy Prophet, صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم inferring that these God conscious people that you see (the Companions) are the direct result of the moulding guidance of the QUR'AAN. Is this not the greatness of the QUR'AAN? (Tafseer Azizi). The pious lives of the Companions is an indelible proof of the pristine purity and Truth of the QUR'AAN. Another important point to consider here is that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم guidance was not dependent on the QUR'AAN as he was already, a personification of Godliness before the revelation of the QUR'AAN. This fact can be illustrated by the following examples: Salaah was only given on the night of Me'raj; yet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had led the Prophets into Salaah in Jerusalem before proceeding to the journey ahead. Verses concerning Salaah were revealed before Hijra, but verses regarding Wudu came after Hijra in Sura Al-Maidah. Yet during this harsh period of persecutions in Makkah the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم performed Wudu and Salaah and taught the same to his Companions.

3.Those who believe without seeing[13], and establish [14] prayer and spend in Our path, out of Our provided sustenance.[15]

الَّذِيْنَ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْغَيْبِ وَ يُقِيْمُوْنَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَ مِمَّا رَزَقْنٰهُمْ يُنْفِقُوْنَ ۙ﴿۳﴾

13. The unseen is that which is beyond one's sensory and extemporary perceptions. The unseen is of two types:

1. That for which no proof should be established - this is known as the personal knowledge of the unseen.
2. That for which proofs/guidelines are provided - this is knowledge of the unseen which is bestowed or granted. The first type for which no proof is required refers to the Absolute knowledge of Allah. No one has any share of this, while the second type is granted by Allah to His special servants. Regarding this first type, Allah says in the QUR'AAN: "And with Him is the keys of the unseen, He only knows them" (S36 : V 59).

In respect of the second category, proof is provided in several verses. Allah says: "He reveals not His secrets except to His Chosen Messenger" (S72 : V26-27). In this verse, reference is made to the second group - knowledge regarding Personality and Attributes of Allah, Prophethood, Qiyamah, etc. Thus, without acceptance of the unseen Imaan cannot be complete, because true Imaan is belief in the above mentioned things. Belief is not possible without knowledge. Furthermore, true Imaan is implicit faith in the Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Thus, believing in Qiyamah, etc. after seeing them will be contrary to the faith in the unseen.

14. By "Establish Prayers" means to perform Salaah regularly, on its prescribed times and according to its proper method. This means the true excellence lies not in mere performance of Salaah but in establishing it as a Principle of Deen. From this verse one learns that Salaah supercedes all other forms of worships (IBAADAAT) and that one should also perform Fard, Wajib and Sunnat prayers regularly with absolute sincerity and humility.

15. This infers that not the entire wealth should be spent aimlessly, some should be given in the way of Allah and some should be spent on oneself and one's family. A detailed explanation of this is found in Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. From RAZAQNA one can infer that only lawfully earned wealth should be given in Allah's way, as Allah says in the QUR'AAN: "You shall not attain good unless you spend your favourite things" (S 3 : V 92). Furthermore, one should not only spend once but it should be a continuous practice. Compulsory charity or Zakaat is given once per year, but Nafl Charity can be given whenever one desires. Zakaat too, should be calculated strictly but its amount could be paid little at a time. Spending of wealth can also be utilized for Meelad gatherings and Gyarwee Shareef. In short, for all pious works, as they are all included in "spending in the way of Allah". It is also an appropriate way of conveying reward of virtuous deeds to the departed souls.

4. And who believe in what has been sent down to you, O Beloved Prophet! And what has been sent down [16] before you and are certain of the Hereafter. [17]

وَ الَّذِيْنَ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِمَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ ۚ وَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ هُمْ يُوْقِنُوْنَ ؕ﴿۴﴾

Marfat.com

16. "That which is revealed" refers to the entire Qur'aan as well as the complete codes of Shariah. Ahadith too is part of this, because these too are God-inspired sayings. If this is taken to mean the QUR'AAN only, then such a long and emphatic passage would not have been addressed. Furthermore, it also means that belief in all the revealed Books too is Fard, while the beliefs in the past Books should be jointly in nature. Furthermore, it should be remembered that while it is Fard Kifayah to believe in the comprehensive nature of the QUR'AAN it is Fard Ayn to believe in the synopsis of the sacred book.

5.They alone are on the guidance from their Lord and they are to attain success. [18]

18. From this it is understood that permanent guidance is bestowed upon a person through the Grace of Allah and not as a result of his personal endeavours. Also, if such a person is guided by Allah then only will he remain steadfast on it, for a person on a mere temporary guidance can go astray. This verse

6. Surely those who are infidels [19], it is alike [20] whether you warn them or warn them not, they will never believe. [21]

19. 'Infidels' include all those non-believers who fall in the category in respect of Divine Knowledge. They will not benefit from any preaching because no matter how much you wash coal, it cannot become white. An inherently unclean person cannot be purified by mere water.

20.'Upon them' signifies that instilling fear in them about the consequences of their disbelief is futile, but not for you. Although they will be deprived of the benefits of preaching, you will be blessed for your efforts. It is for this reason that the word 'upon you' is not used. A person conveying the message of Truth to the one from whom he does not expect positive

17. The word 'Hereafter' includes the grave, resurrection, Paradise, Hell, etc. and it is compulsory to believe in all these. This suggests that besides the Muslims, the beliefs of the Yahud and Nasara regarding the above is incorrect. Hence, greater emphasis and reliance is placed on "and they are certain (of the Hereafter)". In addition, implicit faith in the Hereafter can only reach completion when belief is complemented by action. Muslims unmindful of their duties are not giving a practical demonstration of their Imaan, hence prior mention is made about good deeds.

أُولَٰئِكَ عَلَىٰ هُدًى مِّن رَّبِّهِمْ ۖ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ۝٥

further illustrates that material wealth and honour are not the true means of success, true success is to receive guidance and the will to do good deeds. Allah says in the QUR'AAN : "Undoubtedly he attained to his goal who is purified" (himself) (S 87 : V14).

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ أَأَنذَرْتَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ تُنذِرْهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝٦ response shall be rewarded for his effort.

21. This verse was revealed in respect of avowed disbelievers like Abu Jahl, Abu Lahab, etc. who were destined to grope in the darkness of disbelief. Imaan (faith) was sealed from their hearts. It also hints that Almighty Allah has already given His Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prior knowledge about good and bad endings of people. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware of everybody's eventual end, because although the circumstances of its revelation is specific, the nature of expression is more general, hence priority will be given to expression.

8. And of mankind are some who say,[23] "We have believed in Allah and the Last Day, yet they are not believers.[24]

23. Man is divided into three categories: the believers, the non-believers and the hypocrites. The believer is one whose tongue and heart is manifested with Faith; the non-believer is one whose tongue and heart have rejected faith, while a hypocrite is one who has blasphemy in his heart but merely feigns expression of Islam. The hypocrite is the worst of the three. The first deceiver was Iblees (the Devil) who was inwardly the enemy of Hazrat Adam عليه السلام but outwardly feigned friendship.
"And he swore to them both that I am a well wisher of you both" (S 7 : V 21). After referring to the two groups, the believers and non-believers, Allah now makes mention of the worst group - the despicable hypocrites. A fourth group is also found They are the concealed group who have faith in their hearts but do not express it with their tongues. In extreme necessity this is allowed, in fact, when in a state of total helplessness even for uttera-

24.The reason for not regarding them as believers is either because they have no faith in their hearts; what they are uttering is mere show of their tongues, or maybe they have expressed faith in Allah and the Day of Judgement but have omitted Prophethood from it. Believing in everything else, besides prophethood does not complete ones faith, such a person will still remain a non-believer. The classical example of this is the devil, although he was a firm believer in other requirements of faith, he still became a non believer because he rejected Prophethood. All the enemies of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should take a lesson from this.

26. From this it is understood that deception is the worst type of vice and is deserving of the most heinous punishment. Any religion or creed whose foundation is based on deception is false. The deceivers without doubt deserve the most heinous punishment.

28. If the word 'People' is taken to mean Companions of the Holy Prophet then true Imaan (Faith) is that which was practised by them because the illustrious Companions are the embodiment of faith. Those whose faith is not like theirs, are imposters. But if the word is taken to indicate Muslims in general, then this would mean that the accepted way of life is that which is followed by Muslims in general. As recorded in Hadith, what Muslims choose as good practice, that is also likewise regarded by Allah as good, such as Meelad gatherings, Gyarwee Shareef, etc. are held in high esteem by the majority of Muslims, Allah too regards them likewise. From this, three points emerge:

28.1 To hurl insults at the pious is the custom of the hypocrites e.g. The Rafzis insult the illustrious Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the Kharijiya abuse the Ahle Bait (Family of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The Ghair Muqallid (those who do not follow any of the Four Imams), attack the personality of Imam Abu Hanifa R.A. and the Wahabis insult the dignity of the Saints of Allah . All these groups need to take a lesson from these verses.

28.2 That Allah Almighty Himself retaliates on behalf of His pious servants and refers to these hypocrites as thick-skulled idiots.

28.3 The Ulama (the learned) should not pay any heed to their insults because this has always been the practice of these irreligious people.

14. And when they meet believers, they say; "We believe", and when they are alone with their devils, [29] they say; "Surely, we are with you, we are only mocking at them".

وَ اِذَا لَقُوا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا قَالُوْٓا اٰمَنَّا ۚ وَ اِذَا خَلَوْا اِلٰى شَيٰطِيْنِهِمْ ۙ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّا مَعَكُمْ ۙ اِنَّمَا نَحْنُ مُسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ⑭

29. From this verse emerge three important issues:

29.1 The non-believers and the hypocrites are like the devil in the sight of Allah, hence those who show respect to please them are, in reality, honouring the devil.

Marfat.com

29.2 To hurl abusive language secretly in Muslim gatherings is the practice of the hypocrites.

15.Allah mocks[30] at them (befitting His Dignity) and leaves them to wander about in their transgression.[31]

اَللّٰهُ يَسْتَهْزِئُ بِهِمْ وَ يَمُدُّهُمْ فِيْ طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُوْنَ ﴿١٥﴾

30. Allah punishes them for their mockery (disregard or undermining the dignity), and (this) punishment of their guilt has been expressed in a most lucid and an emphatic manner.

31. To adopt a vacillating policy towards Muslims and non-Muslims i.e. to regard Islam as a true way of life from position of advantage of Muslims, and to say Kufr (paganism) is on 16.They are those people who purchased error for guidance[32] but their trade earned them no profit, and surely they did not know the right path of guidance.

32. This is so because both Islam and paganism were in front of them but they rejected Islam and adopted paganism. To them the right course from the position of wealth of the non-believers, without deciding between the two gives insight on two issues:

31.2 Allah bestows serenity and tranquility to the Muslims, while the hypocrites are confounded in perplexities. The life of the believers becomes one of bliss and purity.

lish that purpose of their creation. It is for this reason that Allah refers to the living non-believers as dead and the slain martyrs as living. Furthermore, we also learn that for the enemies of the Companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم of Allah to follow the Path of Guidance is virtually impossible, because

Marfat.com

Allah has referred to them "So they are not to return" (S 2 : V 18).

19.Or like a heavy rainstorm pouring from the sky, wherein is darkness [35] and thunder and lightning. They thrust their fingers in their ears because of the thunderclaps, for fear of death and Allah has encompassed the disbelievers.[36]

35. It should be remembered that clouds and rain are a blessing for those under shelter, but a curse for those travelling in the jungle. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the sky of Prophethood, the Holy QUR'AAN is its clouds, the laws of QUR'AAN are its rain, the verses of punishment are the thunder and verses of restrictive ordinances are its lightning. To the illustrious Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who were always within the confines of Shariah all this was Mercy, but to the unsheltered hypocrites all these are a source of punishment. What an appropriate example!

36. From this comparison it can be inferred that the Holy QUR'AAN is a spiritual rain for them. its proofs and arguments are flashes of lightning, the citing of Divine punishment is the peal of thunder for them and their blasphemous discussion are their cause of blackness. Just as darkness and thunder strike fear into the hearts of travellers lost in the jungle but which is momentarily alleviated by a flash of lightning, similar is the condition of the hypocrites. The strength of Islam makes them to lean towards them but when they have to undergo any difficulties they renegade themselves to the tormenting world of Kufr (apostasy).

20.It so seems that the lightning would snatch away their sight,[37] whenever there is some flashing they walk therein and when it is dark, they stand still, and if Allah willed, He would have taken away their sense of hearing and sight. Surely Allah has the power to do everything.[38]

يَكَادُ الْبَرْقُ يَخْطَفُ اَبْصَارَهُمْ ؕ كُلَّمَآ اَضَآءَ لَهُمْ مَّشَوْا فِيْهِ ۙ وَاِذَآ اَظْلَمَ عَلَيْهِمْ قَامُوْا ؕ وَلَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ لَذَهَبَ بِسَمْعِهِمْ وَاَبْصَارِهِمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ⑳ ع ۲

37. As a result of their evil doings, the hypocrites should really have been left in a perpetual state of darkness and deafness. Yet, this is not the case. From this one learns that the philosophy of cause and effect is solely dependent on the Will of Allah.

38. Here, the word 'thing' refers to everything within the will of Allah, excluding absurdities and obligatories. Thus, neither can any form of imperfection be attributed to Allah which is impossible and absurd nor can an eternal entity destroy itself as it is eternal. From this verse it becomes evident that to believe that Allah can talk a lie (God forbid) is indeed the height of stupidity. For further clarity on this issue consult Tafseer Naeemi.

21.O mankind! Worship your Lord[39] Who has created you and those before you[40], so that you may become God-fearing.[41]

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اعْبُدُوْا رَبَّكُمُ الَّذِيْ خَلَقَكُمْ وَالَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُوْنَ ۙ㉑

39. Before Allah can be worshipped, belief in Him is a pre-requisite Hence, worship of Allah is not the responsibility of the non-believers. Or, if you proclaim belief to be inequal to worship, in which case the true meaning would be Oh disbelievers: first believe in Allah (then only are you in a position to worship Him).

40. Expressing gratitude to our ancestors is, in fact, showing gratitude to oneself. It is for this reason that Allah has mentioned them before us. Thus, the elevated status which Allah has bestowed upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is most gratifying for us. All glory be to Allah for having created us in the Ummah of the best Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , 22.(It is He) Who made for you the earth a bed (spread out) and made the sky a canopy and sent down from the sky water [42] and brought forth thereby fruits as provision for you. Therefore do not equate anyone with Allah while you know (that there is none similar to Him).

23. And if you have any doubt as to what We have sent down upon Our (exalted) servant, then bring just one chapter [43] like it and call upon [44] all your helpers besides Allah, if you are truthful.

43.From this one can understand that there is a great difference between human invention and Divine Creation. Whatever is man-made falls under human invention, while things produced which are beyond the capability of man are Divine creation. Gas and machines are man-made as there are many factories of these, but ants and glow worms are from Divine creation as these cannot be produced by man. Hence, the above discussion is based on this principle.

a position which was not granted to the previous Ummahs (people).

41. This hope is due to man's consideration, not with regard to Allah Almighty. From this one learns that man should not be under the impression that his good deeds will be accepted automatically, rather he should hope for its acceptance and develop in him fear of Allah. This is the essence of faith. Just doing good deeds is not piety, but it is a means of obtaining piety. True piety, is developing God-consciousnes in ones heart. This state is sometimes reached through doing good deeds, but mostly it is obtained through the company of pious people.

الَّذِىْ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْاَرْضَ فِرَاشًا وَّالسَّمَآءَ بِنَآءً ۖ وَّاَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءً فَاَخْرَجَ بِهٖ مِنَ الثَّمَرٰتِ رِزْقًا لَّكُمْ ۚ فَلَا تَجْعَلُوْا لِلّٰهِ اَنْدَادًا وَّاَنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٢٢﴾

should be remembered that the previous verse made mention of creation and invention, but in this verse mention is made of obtaining permanent existence, which is the highest form of blessing.

وَ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ فِىْ رَيْبٍ مِّمَّا نَزَّلْنَا عَلٰى عَبْدِنَا فَاْتُوْا بِسُوْرَةٍ مِّنْ مِّثْلِهٖ ۖ وَادْعُوْا شُهَدَآءَكُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿٢٣﴾

44. Wherever the QUR'AAN makes reference to 'Those besides Allah' it is meant to include all the enemies of Allah as well as those who reject Allah. In this context the word supporters will refer to the idols and the supporters of the idolators while the learned here, refers to the Yahud and Nasara priests. It does not mean to call upon Prophet Isa (Jesus) and Musa عليه السلام(Moses) or Abdullah bin Salaam and Ka'ab Ahbaar, etc.

as Allah Almighty says: "Undoubtedly You and what you worship beside Allah all are fuel of Hell" (S 21 : V 98). Here, too, 'Those besides Allah refer to the rejectors of Allah and not to Isa and Uzayr although both have become objects of worship. The Nasara have given status of divinity to Isa عليه السلام and the Yahud to Uzayr .

24.But if you fail to do so – and surely you are bound to fail – then guard yourselves against the Fire whose fuel are men and stones [45], which has been prepared for the infidels.[46]

45. Here, the word 'stones' refers to the idols which are worshipped by the non-believers. This further elucidates that those trees, moon, sun, the stars, etc. which the idol worshippers took as gods will all go into Hell (not to receive punishment but as a means of providing punishment for them. The Black Stone (Hajre Aswad) and Maqaame Ebrahim at the Ka'bah are excluded from these, though they may sometimes become objects of worship by the non-believers they are not idols but heavenly stones. Isa and Uzayr fall in the same category i.e. although the Nasara and the Yahud have made them objects of their worship they are both innocent and are inmates of Paradise . Thus the AL in Al Hijaarah is just a common article.

46. Two important issues emerge from this discussion:

1. Hell has already been created - because "made already" is in the past tense.
2. The believers will not be placed in Hell permanently, while the non-believers will not be taken out of it at all.

25.And give glad-tidings to those who believe and do righteous deeds [47], that for them there are gardens under which flow streams. Whenever they will be given fruits to eat therefrom; they will say "This is the same which we were fed before" [48]; whereas it was given to them resembling (in appearance). And for them, therein, will be pure wives[49] and they will dwell therein forever.

وَ بَشِّرِ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ اَنَّ لَهُمْ جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ ؕ كُلَّمَا رُزِقُوْا مِنْهَا مِنْ ثَمَرَةٍ رِّزْقًا ۙ قَالُوْا هٰذَا الَّذِيْ رُزِقْنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ ۙ وَاُتُوْا بِهٖ مُتَشَابِهًا ؕ وَلَهُمْ فِيْهَآ اَزْوَاجٌ مُّطَهَّرَةٌ ۙ وَّهُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿٢٥﴾

47. This also clarifies further issues:

1. Belief is a pre-requisite for good deeds i.e. First Belief then Deeds.
2. After accepting Faith, no one is exempted from doing good deeds every one is duty bound to do good deeds at all times.
3. Deeds should be performed within one's physical power. For a person who dies on accepting Islam, or Muslim infants who die in their infancy, Faith is good enough for them to enter paradise without the need of good deeds. It should be remembered that a person will enter Paradise on account of Faith, while the bounties of Jannat will be bestowed in proportion to good deeds, while the communion with Allah will be granted through His special favour. Thus, is the Law of Allah that possessors of Faith will enter Paradise but doers of good deeds will enjoy its many benefits. But what will be bestowed through the special favours of Allah will be something totally different.

48. Provisions of Allah are given in this world, or in Paradise (before). However, the fruits of Paradise will seem similar in shape but they will be totally different in taste.

49. These include wives one had in the world as well as the Hoories or the ladies of Paradise.

26.Surely, Allah is not ashamed to present a parable that of a mosquito or what is[50] larger than it. So, those who believe know that is the Truth from their Lord. But, the infidels say "What does Allah intend by such a parable?" He misleads[51] many thereby and guides many thereby. And He misleads thereby only those who are defiantly disobedient.

50. The non-believers of Arabia always taunted that if the Holy QUR'AAN was really the Book of Allah it would not have included allusions of insignificant things like the bee, because insignificant examples in comparison to the lofty position of Allah are unbecoming. In reply to this, Allah revealed this verse to impress upon people that the knowledge of anything, no matter how insignificant it may seem, is not ungraceful or unbecoming in any way, even though the thing itself may be bad. This verse provides a special lesson to those who claim that poetic expression undermines the elevated positions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. If this does not underscore Allah's position how will it affect the position of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ?

51.This verse emphatically illustrates that every type of person will not receive guidance from the QUR'AAN as many have gone astray by means of it. Those who are connected with the living example of the QUR'AAN i.e. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, his illustrious Companions, the Pious Saints of Allah, etc will receive guidance through it. Those whose hearts are bereft of the love and respect of these beloved souls will not benefit anything from the QUR`AAN. The QUR`AAN is like rain. If it waters a good seed a good tree will grow from it. It is for this reason that a person is made to recite Kalimah Tayyibah at the time of becoming a Muslim and not the QUR`AAN. In his very first address to the non-believers, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم told them to understand him and his blessed personality. Recognition of the sublime personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the foremost act of perfecting one's faith. This will be discussed in the later verses.

27. Those who break the covenant of Allah after[52] solemnly confirming it, and sever that which Allah has ordered[53] to be joined and cause mischief on earth. It is those who

The believing lady in Paradise will be with her last believing husband. This also intimates that marriage with different species will be permissible in Paradise, because the Hoors are neither human nor from the children of Hazrat Adam , yet they will be given in marriage to man. However, marriage in the world is permissible to one's own kind only.

52. This covenant refers to the one which Allah had taken from the souls in respect of bringing Faith in the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم Thus, at that stage all those who did not express faith on the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم of Allah will not receive any guidance from the QUR'AAN.

53. From this, two important issues come to light:

1. The Holy QUR'AAN has provided guidance as well as apostasy, but those in the company of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم receive guidance only. Allah Almighty says: "And undoubtedly, you most certainly guide to the Straight Path" (S42 : V52)

2. The Holy QUR'AAN leads those people astray who have cut off all connection of love and obedience with the people of the QUR'AAN

28. How can you disbelieve in Allah? When you were lifeless [55] He brought you to life; then He will cause you to die; then He will bring you (back) to life once again and then to Him you will return.

55. In this verse 'dead' refers to lifeless, not to those living, who have been rendered lifeless. Allah Almighty says "And He gives life to earth after its death" (S30 V19). This refers to the process of creation i.e you were once just congealed blood then life was breathed in you then once again you will be rendered lifeless

29.It is He Who created for you all that is in the earth[56]. Thereafter He directed Himself to the heaven and formed seven heavens[57] exactly. And He has perfect knowledge of everything.

56. From this we learn that all beneficial things created by nature are lawful i.e. that which Allah and His Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم have not declared as unlawful is lawful because all lawful and wholesome things are for our benefit. There is no proof required for the permissibility of a i.e. the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم, his beloved Companions, the pious saints etc. Thus, those whose hearts are filled with love for them will certainly receive complete guidance as these august souls will be there to guide them.

54. This verse elucidates two issues:

1. Allah has commanded us to cement relationship with some, and cut off connections with some. Cement and strengthen loyalty and obedience to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and cut off all ties with the non believers.

2. To be connected with the pious servants of Allah is a source of obtaining honour and dignity while remaining aloof from them will bring nothing but disgrace and loss.

كَيْفَ تَكْفُرُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ كُنْتُمْ اَمْوَاتًا فَاَحْيَاكُمْ ۚ ثُمَّ يُمِيْتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُحْيِيْكُمْ ثُمَّ اِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُوْنَ ﴿٢٨﴾ and eventually eternal life will be granted to you. It should be remembered that the outcome of life in the hereafter is dependent on the worldly life. If our deeds are good in the earthly life we will reap the rewards in the Hereafter, but if our life is full of evil deeds we will be punished in the Hereafter.

هُوَ الَّذِىْ خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مَّا فِى الْاَرْضِ جَمِيْعًا ۗ ثُمَّ اسْتَوٰٓى اِلَى السَّمَآءِ فَسَوّٰىهُنَّ سَبْعَ سَمٰوٰتٍ ؕ وَ هُوَ بِكُلِّ شَىْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ ع ٢ thing, it is not being regarded as unlawful is a proof on its own. Even unlawful things are beneficial for a believer as abstention from them is a means of obtaining reward from Allah. To abstain from a pig with the intention of staying away from an unlawful object is an act of reward.

57. The word 'Then' is used to indicate narrational order not the factual order. In terms of occurence the earth and the things of the earth came into existence after the sky. Says Allah Almighty: "And after that He spread out the earth" (S 79 : V 30). The earth is superior to the sky for several reasons. Firstly, the earth was designed for the purpose of creation of life. Secondly it is also the abode of all the Prophets of Allah. Hence the earth is mentioned before the sky.

وَ اِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ لِلْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اِنِّیْ جَاعِلٌ فِی الْاَرْضِ خَلِیْفَةً ؕ قَالُوْۤا اَتَجْعَلُ فِیْهَا مَنْ یُّفْسِدُ فِیْهَا وَیَسْفِكُ الدِّمَآءَ ۚ وَنَحْنُ نُسَبِّحُ بِحَمْدِكَ وَنُقَدِّسُ لَكَ ؕ قَالَ اِنِّیْۤ اَعْلَمُ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۳۰﴾

30. And (remember O Muhammad) when your Lord said to the angels: "Indeed, I will make upon the earth a successor (vicegerent)". They said; "Will you place upon it one who causes mischief[58] and bloodshed therein, while we declare your praise and sanctify[59] you?". He replied: "Surely, I Know that which you know not".

58. This intimates that the angels were blessed with the knowledge of the unseen because they had made the movements of man. We also learn that consultation is a Divine habit in which everyone has a full right to express his opinion. Furthermore, this verse also illustrates that to discuss about an indefinite person in his absence is permissible because the angels had talked about Hazrat Adam amongst themselves, though it was without any premeditation.

59. From this one learns that it is in order to make every effort to establish one's innocence or obtain one's privileges as was done by Hazrat Yusuf by requesting the king of Egypt, Yusuf said: "Set me over the treasures of earth. No doubt, I'm watchful, knowing" (S12: V55).

31. Allah taught Adam [60] the names of all things. Then He showed these to the angels and [61] said: "Inform Me of the names of these, if you are truthful" [62].

60. This tells us that Hazrat Adam knew these names because teaching involves instructing and not merely informing. In a lecture the speaker merely informs the people about certain issues without the certainty that the audience will learn these issues. But teaching requires effort in the hope that the pupil will learn it.

61. From the word 'presented' one learns that Allah Almighty not only informed the names but identified each thing by its name, otherwise the word 'presented' would seem superfluous. Another important thing we learn is that a Prophet is blessed with the power of seeing the invisible, because although all these things were not yet brought into existence, yet Hazrat Adam had seen them.

62. Here, the command is not for the purpose of inconvenience but to show the submissive nature of the angels. The non-believers of Arabia were commanded "Then bring one chapter like this" (S2:V23). If you are honest about your claim for the vicegerency then provide one proof.

قَالُوْا سُبْحٰنَكَ لَا عِلْمَ لَنَآ اِلَّا مَا عَلَّمْتَنَا ؕ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ الْعَلِيْمُ الْحَكِيْمُ ﴿۳۲﴾

32.They said: "Exalted are You! We have no knowledge except what You have taught us[63]. Indeed, You alone are the All-Knowing, the Wise"[64].

63. The speech in respect of humility and submission refers to all the angels only. Iblees, or the devil, is excluded from it. He had remained silent not only because he was envious, but, in reality, he had no knowledge of these names, therefore he, too, was included in the command to prostrate to Hazrat Adam عليه السلام This proves that Hazrat Adam's knowledge was far superior to that of the devil. Thus, whosoever says that the devil had more knowledge than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does so because he is bereft of faith.

64. That is, the angels are expressing: "Oh our Lord whatever we said was not with the intention of raising an objection or criticism, but it was to obtain your Divine Wisdom".

قَالَ يٰٓاٰدَمُ اَنْۢبِئْهُمْ بِاَسْمَآئِهِمْ ۚ فَلَمَّآ اَنْۢبَاَهُمْ بِاَسْمَآئِهِمْ ۙ قَالَ اَلَمْ اَقُلْ لَّكُمْ اِنِّيْٓ اَعْلَمُ غَيْبَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ۙ وَاَعْلَمُ مَا تُبْدُوْنَ وَمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْتُمُوْنَ ﴿۳۳﴾

33. He (Allah) said: "O Adam! Inform them of the names of these things"[65]. When he (Adam) informed them the names of all these things, Allah said: "Did I not tell you that I know all the hidden mysteries of the heavens and the earth; and I know whatever you disclose and whatever you conceal?".

65. From this it is understood that Hazrat Adam did not teach the names to the angels but merely told them thereof e.g. If a lecturer merely acquaints his audience with 50 different issues he has not made them learned people by any manner or means. Likewise, the angels had not become learned like Hazrat Adam by just learning these names. Thus, regarding Hazrat Adam the verb 'He taught' is used and regarding the angels the word 'He informed' is used.

34.And (recall) when We ordered the angels to prostrate before[66] Adam. All of them prostrated, except Iblis. He refused and was arrogant and became of the infidels [67].

66. The command for this Sajdah is not like the one for Shar'ee Sajdah i.e. in terms of Islamic law e.g. Sajdah in Salaah. The reason for this is Shariah or religious laws have been conveyed and taught through a Prophet. Thus, angels are free from carrying out religious laws. Also, only this one Sajdahh was commanded for the angels - no other command of Sajdah was given to them. This verse in no way expounds that there was Sajdah in the religion of Hazrat Adam. Sajdah of respect was accepted as a permissible act because at the time of this order to the angels the religion of Adam. had not been proclaimed upon man. Hence, Hadith can in no way negate the QUR'AAN but the QUR'AANIC law negates the Hadith. For a detailed discussion on this issue refer to Surah Yusuf. From this another important fact becomes evident. Knowledge is superior to action or deeds for it was the worshipping angels who prostrated to Hazrat Adam عليه السلام. Furthermore, knowledge itself is not bad because it is the knowledge of the names which proclaimed Hazrat Adam's superiority over the angels. Even the sorcerers of the Pharoah verified Hazrat Musa's truth from their knowledge of sorcery.

67. Allah Almighty destroyed the devil after he was made a devotee (worshipper) and a learned. He was disgraced from the position of loftiness, so that it remains a lesson for all the learned and the sages that hurl an insult at a Prophet, let alone the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. They have been the cause of destruction, who have attempted this. The status and position of Prophethood is a most delicate and sensitive issue.

35. And We said: "O Adam dwell you and your wife in Paradise [68] and eat therefrom in abundance as you like, but do not approach this tree [69] lest you become one of the wrongdoers [70].

وَ قُلْنَا يٰۤاٰدَمُ اسْكُنْ اَنْتَ وَزَوْجُكَ الْجَنَّةَ وَ كُلَا مِنْهَا رَغَدًا حَيْثُ شِئْتُمَا ۪ وَلَا تَقْرَبَا هٰذِهِ الشَّجَرَةَ فَتَكُوْنَا مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۳۵﴾

68. From this emerge a few important issues:

1. That Paradise is already in existence and its fruits are made as well.
2. That Hazrat Adam's residence in Paradise was not out of reward, but for his own personal training and instructions, i.e. to raise the population on earth after seeing the population of angels in Paradise.
3. At that point in time Bibi Hawa was his only wife, not the Hoors or ladies of Paradise.
4. That his stay in Paradise was temporary not a permanent one - for he was created to be Allah's vicegerent on earth. Thus, in Paradise he was entrusted with the laws of Allah and later sent upon the earth.

69. It should be remembered that order, intention and approval are three separate entities. Here, the order of Allah was to avoid eating, but Divine intention was that he should eat and the approval was also therein so that the eating of wheat would become the means of Hazrat Adam's عليه السلام coming in the world to become Allah's vicegerent on earth. It should be remembered that Hazrat Adam at that point in time was not in Paradise on account of his reward. He was a guest, thus free of any religious obligations.

70. In this verse the word 'injustice' or oppression' does not mean Shirk (polytheism) but rather means mistake. To call a Prophet an oppressor is an act of Kufr or blasphemy because it is abusing the dignity and innocence of the Prophet. However, if the Prophet uses the word for himself he will be doing it out of humility. If Allah Almighty uses it on the Prophet He does so in His capacity as the Absolute Master, but a human cannot use this undignified word for a Prophet.

36.Then Shaitaan caused the two to slip out [71] of it and removed them out of the abode. And We said: "Get down (all of you) [72] as enemies to one another. And you will have on the earth a place of settlement and provision for a time"[73].

فَاَزَلَّهُمَا الشَّيْطٰنُ عَنْهَا فَاَخْرَجَهُمَا مِمَّا كَانَا فِيْهِ ۪ وَقُلْنَا اهْبِطُوْا بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ ۚ وَلَكُمْ فِى الْاَرْضِ مُسْتَقَرٌّ وَّمَتَاعٌ اِلٰى حِيْنٍ ﴿۳۶﴾

71 At that point in time the devil was not barred from Paradise.Although he was expelled from it, he could still move in and out of it.

From this, one learns that no one should regard himself safe from the guiles of the devil, if he could trick Hazrat Adam عليه السلام, a sinless Prophet of Allah, in a safe place like Paradise then how safe can we be from his guiles in this mundane world..

72. 'Come down' refers direct address to the progeny of Hazrat Adam who were still in his backbone. The Ulama or Islamic Scholars are of the opinion that it was not Hazrat Adam who came out of Paradise but man, his progeny, was responsible for bringing him out of Paradise. At that time his backbone was carrying his entire progeny which included the non believers, the hypocrites, etc. Thus, it was the will of Allah that Adam should come into the world to free himself of these evil wre-

37.Then Adam learnt certain words (of repentance)[74] from His Lord and He (Allah) accepted his repentance. Surely, He is the Most-Relenting, the Merciful[75].

74. These words which Hazrat Adam. was taught were to seek repentance through the intercession of the Holy Prophet and does not refer to "Oh our lord we have erred" as this dua is mentioned by Hazrat Adam before being out of Paradise as is mentioned in the other verses.

75. The word 'Accepter of Repentance' is derived from repentance. This word means to 38. We said: "Go down from it (Paradise), all of you. And when guidance comes to you from Me, whoever follows My guidance, they shall have nothing to fear, nor shall they grieve" [76].

76. That is to say those who are on the path of righteousness shall have no grief or sorrow of any sort on the Day of Judgement. Allah Almighty says in the QUR'AAN:"The great terror shall not grieve them" (S21:V103). While in this world they shall have no fear of 39.And those who disbelieve and falsify Our signs, they will be the inmates of Hell and they will abide therein eternally"[77].

tches and thereafter return to Paradise. If Hazrat Adam had remained in Paradise all these wretched beings would have been born in Paradise and they are not fit for such a pure place. Hence, the plural form of the verb is used. Later "some bearing enmity to others", should also be viewed in a similar context. Hazrat Adam was free of malice, hatred or enmity, but his progeny was part of it. Historically speaking it should be remembered that Hazrat Adam was left on a mountain in India while Bibi Hawa was left in Jeddah.

73. i.e. until their last breath they shall dwell upon the earth.

فَتَلَقَّىٰٓ اٰدَمُ مِنْ رَّبِّهٖ كَلِمٰتٍ فَتَابَ عَلَيْهِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿٣٧﴾

refer, to return. If it is used in respect of man then it would mean to return from disobedience to obedience, but when used in connection with the Divine Being then the meaning would be the return of wrath to Mercy. The word is one but referral changes its meaning. Our repentance consists of three aspects: remorse at committing the sin, firm intention of not repeating it and confession of the sin.

قُلْنَا اهْبِطُوْا مِنْهَا جَمِيْعًا ۚ فَاِمَّا يَاْتِيَنَّكُمْ مِّنِّيْ هُدًى فَمَنْ تَبِعَ هُدَايَ فَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُوْنَ ﴿٣٨﴾ any worldly things. The only fear they have is of people's mischief or the fear of Allah e.g. Hazrat Musa was overcome with fear when his walking stick was changed into a snake for the first time but this was fear of harm.

وَالَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَكَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَآ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ النَّارِ ۚ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿٣٩﴾ ع ١٠

77. From this we learn that faith in all its manifestations and doing of good deeds become incumbent on those who have fully received the Prophetic message, and their disobedience of Prophetic laws will make them inmates of Hell. However, for those to whom Prophetic message is not conveyed, belief in the oneness of Allah is sufficient for their belief because Allah Almighty has commenced both these aspects from:'Then if any guidance comes to you from me' (S2 : V38). Thus, the Holy Prophet's parents are among the pardoned souls, and sinless because they had not received message from any Prophet. Their being monotheist is enough for their salvation.

يٰبَنِيۡۤ اِسۡرَآءِيۡلَ اذۡكُرُوۡا نِعۡمَتِىَ الَّتِىۡۤ اَنۡعَمۡتُ عَلَيۡكُمۡ وَاَوۡفُوۡا بِعَهۡدِىۡۤ اُوۡفِ بِعَهۡدِكُمۡ ۚ وَاِيَّاىَ فَارۡهَبُوۡنِ ﴿۴۰﴾

40.O Children of Israeel! Remember My favour which [78] I have bestowed upon you and fulfill your part of the covenant with Me then I will fulfill My part of the covenant with you, and fear none but Me.

78. This verse is a clear proof for the permissibility of Meeladun Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gathering and for it to be an act of receiving the blessings of Allah. Meelad gatherings are a source of remembering the birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, the greatest gift of Allah to mankind.

وَاٰمِنُوۡا بِمَاۤ اَنۡزَلۡتُ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا مَعَكُمۡ وَلَا تَكُوۡنُوۡۤا اَوَّلَ كَافِرٍۢ بِهٖ ۪ وَلَا تَشۡتَرُوۡا بِاٰيٰتِىۡ ثَمَنًا قَلِيۡلًا ۫ وَّاِيَّاىَ فَاتَّقُوۡنِ ﴿۴۱﴾

41. And believe in what I have revealed (the Qur'aan) confirming that which is already with you[79], and be not the first to disbelieve therein [80]. And do not exchange My signs [81] for a small price, and fear only Me.

79. In this verse Allah Almighty is reminding the Bani Israel i.e. Yahud and Nasara that it is the Holy QUR'AAN which had verified the authenticity of their books - the Tauraat and the Injeel, which had prophecized the revelation of the QUR'AAN. Had it not been for the QUR'AAN the authenticity of the Tauraat, Injeel, etc. as the revealed Books of Allah would not have been established. Those who believe in the QUR'AAN will obviously believe in these revealed Books of Allah. Another important issue which is perceived from this verse is that neither a Prophet nor any revealed scripture will come after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Holy QUR'AAN respectively, as the QUR'AAN verifies, it does not prophesise. Past things require affirmation while prophesy is in respect of future happenings.

80. From this we understand that every non-believing leader is the first non-believer amongst his subordinates, be they parents, the learned, the chiefs, or the kings.

81. This refers to bartering of Divine Laws for money, which was the practice of the Jewish scholars. The printing and selling of the QUR'AAN receiving payment for teaching the QUR'AAN being employed as an Imam giving ta'weez etc. are not included in this. Although some of these too are forbidden under certain circumstances, but this is for different reasons - not because it is a form of selling QUR'AANIC verses. This is classified on the following verse "And confound not...." (S 2 : V 42).

وَلَا تَلْبِسُوا الْحَقَّ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَتَكْتُمُوا الْحَقَّ وَ اَنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾

42.And do not mix truth with falsehood and do not conceal the truth[82] while you know (it).

82. In this verse the word 'truth' refers to the praiseworthy qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم mentioned in the Tauraat which the Jewish scholars tried to conceal. Not only is the Holy Prophet the embodiment of truth, but so are his beautiful qualities as well as those who become connected with him.

وَ اَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاٰتُوا الزَّكٰوةَ وَارْكَعُوْا مَعَ الرّٰكِعِيْنَ ﴿۴۳﴾

43.And establish Prayer[83] and give Zakaat and bow with those who bow (in worship and obedience) [84].

83. From this verse a few important issues come to the fore:
1. Salaah is not just better than Zakaat, but it has priority over it.
2. The act of excellence lies not in the mere performance of Salaah, but in its establishment as a Pillar of Faith.
3. That man should commit himself for doing physical as well as monetary deeds.

84. Furthermore, this verse expounds that offering Salaah in congregation is an act of great virtue. There is also a hint that by joining the Imam in Ruku enables the person to be part of that raka'at, and that in congregational prayer if one person's Salaah is accepted, everyone's Salaah will be accepted as well.

44. Do you enjoin righteousness[85] upon (other) people and forget [86] yourselves while you recite the Scripture? Then will you not reason?

85. When some Muslims enquired about the truth of Islam and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from their Jewish scholars who were their relatives, they confirmed the truth of both as found in their Tauraat. In response to their confirmation Allah revealed this verse to question the hypocrisy of these scholars, i.e. why do you persuade the people to remain firm on Islam but you yourselves remain aloof from it?

86. This tells us that Allah Almighty does not like those learned men and preachers who do not practise what they preach. The best preacher is he whose actions speak louder than his preaching and whose very sight would transform people into becoming God-conscious.

وَاسْتَعِيْنُوْا بِالصَّبْرِ وَالصَّلٰوةِ ؕ وَ اِنَّهَا لَكَبِيْرَةٌ اِلَّا عَلَى الْخٰشِعِيْنَ ﴿۴۵﴾ لا

45. And seek help through patience and prayer. And without doubt, prayer is difficult but to those who are humble and God-fearing.

الَّذِيْنَ يَظُنُّوْنَ اَنَّهُمْ مُّلٰقُوْا رَبِّهِمْ وَاَنَّهُمْ اِلَيْهِ رٰجِعُوْنَ ﴿۴۶﴾ ع ۵

46.Those who are certain that [87] they are going to meet their Lord and surely they will return[88] to Him.

87. Sometimes the word "Zwan" (presumption) is used to indicate positiveness and certainty as is the case here. A person must have a firm belief in concepts like Qiyamah (The Day of Judgement), mere presumption and speculation about them is not enough.

88. Two issues emerge from it:

1. Generally people are negligent about Salaah, though they will perform Hajj or keep their fasts with greater enthusiasm.

2. Permanent commitment to Salaah is a sign of true belief and humility.

SECTION 6

يٰبَنِيٓ اِسۡرَآءِيۡلَ اذۡكُرُوۡا نِعۡمَتِيَ الَّتِيۡٓ اَنۡعَمۡتُ عَلَيۡكُمۡ وَاَنِّيۡ فَضَّلۡتُكُمۡ عَلَى الۡعٰلَمِيۡنَ ﴿۴۷﴾

47. O Children of Israel! Remember My special favour[89], which I have bestowed upon you, and exalted you over the entire world [90].

89. The Children of Yaqub (Bani Israeel) are reminded that Allah Almighty has raised many Prophets from them and granted them kingdom and leadership of the world. Thus, the greater the favour, the greater should be their expression of gratitude and appreciation.

90. From this verse two issues emerge:

1. To remember the favours and bounties of Allah is an act of worship. Thus, to hold Meelad functions and celebrate the Night of Me'raj are acts of Ibadat (worship).

2. Being from the progeny of the noble ancestors is a means of leadership and recognition. The reason for obtaining world leadership by Bani Israeel was they were children of Prophets. It is for this reason that all Sayeds - descendants of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم enjoy distinction, among the general Muslims.

وَاتَّقُوۡا يَوۡمًا لَّا تَجۡزِىۡ نَفۡسٌ عَنۡ نَّفۡسٍ شَيۡـًٔا وَّلَا يُقۡبَلُ مِنۡهَا شَفَاعَةٌ وَّلَا يُؤۡخَذُ مِنۡهَا عَدۡلٌ وَّلَا هُمۡ يُنۡصَرُوۡنَ ﴿۴۸﴾

48.And fear the Day when no soul will avail another in the least, nor will intercession [91] be accepted from it, nor will any ransom be received from it, nor will they (kaafir) be helped.

91. Non-believers are cut off from eternal salvation and intercession, while the believers will receive intercession on the Day of Judgement. The pious sages of Allah will through His permission intercede on their behalf. The non-believers will go into Hell as ransom for the believers. Hence, this verse is not contrary to those verses through which intercession is proven.

49. And recall, when We delivered you from Pharaoh's people[92] who subjected you to cruel oppression, slaying your sons and keeping your women[93] alive. And therein was a great trial from your Lord[94].

92. Followers are also regarded as family or progeny. Alhough Pharoah had no children his soldiers are referred to as his progeny, who had persecuted the Bani Israel until Allah Almighty had saved them for the clutches of those tyrants. On the basis of this the entire Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم can be regarded as his progeny.

93. Pharoah saw in a dream a raging fire coming from the direction of Jerusalem which destroyed the houses of his followers, the Qibtees, but spared the homes of Bani Israel, followers of Hazrat Musa عليه السلام . His interpreters of dreams informed him that a child would be born from the Bani Israel who will destroy him and his followers. On hearing this, the Pharoah decreed that all male infants born to Bani Israel shall be put to death, and the females were to be used to serve them. In this way 70 thousand male infants were slain and 90 000 pregnancies were wasted. When the Qibtees saw that the male population of the Bani Israel was decreasing, they advised the Pharoah to limit this carnage. In response to this Pharoah decreed that the male infants shall hence be slain in alternate years. Hazrat Harun. was born in the year when infants were spared while Hazrat Musa was born in the year in which male infants were to be slain.

94. Was Pharoah's persecution a curse or was Allah's deliverance of the Bani Israel a reward for them?

50.And when We parted the sea for you (O Musa) and saved you and caused the people of Pharaoh to drown, while you were looking on.

51. And (recall) when We made a promise [95] of forty nights with Musa (for communion), then you (Israelites) took the calf in worship (in his absence). And you were wrongdoers[96].

وَ اِذْ وٰعَدْنَا مُوْسٰٓى اَرْبَعِيْنَ لَيْلَةً ثُمَّ اتَّخَذْتُمُ الْعِجْلَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِهٖ وَاَنْتُمْ ظٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۵۱﴾

95. This verse is a clear proof of keeping 40 day seclusion. Thus, obtaining Allah's bounties through 40 days of I'tikaaf, Fasting, etc. is a way of the Prophets. Our Holy Prophet too would sit in meditation in the Cave of Hira prior to the commencement of Revelation.

96. This verse expounds the prohibition of making idols whether from sand, metal or through photography. Allah Almighty had referred to the idolising of the calf as an oppressive act.

52. Then We pardoned you after that, so that you might be grateful.

ثُمَّ عَفَوْنَا عَنْكُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۵۲﴾

53.And when We gave to Musa the Book and the Criterion to judge between right and wrong, so that you might follow the right path[97].

وَ اِذْ اٰتَيْنَا مُوْسَى الْكِتٰبَ وَالْفُرْقَانَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۵۳﴾

97. In this verse guidance refers to guidance towards doing good deeds and not belief because the Bani Israel had already accepted faith. Therefore, Prophets give guidance for Faith while the Book provides guidance for doing good deeds through the medium of a Prophet. It is for this reason that a non-believer is made a believer via recitation of the Kalimah Tayyibah and is then taught the QUR'AAN.

54. And (recall) when Musa said to his people: "O my people! Indeed you have wronged[98] yourselves by taking the calf for worship. So, now repent to your Creator and kill yourselves [99] (the guilty amongst you). That is best for (all of) you in the sight of your Creator". Then He accepted your repentance. Surely, He is the Most-Relenting, the Merciful.

98. From this we learn that the sinner, one who exhorts towards sins and one who approves of sins are all sinners. The golden calf was made by Samari, but he had involved all as its maker, as is said by "taking of the calf for worship" (S2 : V54) because some had assisted in its making while others approved of it.

99. From this verse one learns that the punishment of apostasy is death. Regarding the apostates Allah Almighty says: "Here and kill (the guilty) yourselves" does not refer to suicide but it means to submit oneself to be killed.

55. And (recall) when you said: "O Musa! We will never believe you until we see [100] Allah manifestly". Thereupon the thunderbolt struck you, while you were looking on.

100. To be desirous of seeing Allah is a good act. Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. too was desirous of seeing a glimpse of Allah. But to harbour a doubt in a Prophet is an act of Kufr (infidelity) and a cause of punishment. It is for this reason that the group that accompanied Hazrat Musa. to Mt Sinai were destroyed by lightning. It should be remembered that only after their repentance of "calf worshipping" that Hazrat Musa. was commanded by Allah to take this group of men to Mt. Sinai to expose their pretentious pleas. On reaching the place they said that they were not prepared to listen to him but would like Allah to speak directly to them. This verse makes reference to this incident.

56.Then We brought you to life after your death that perhaps you might be grateful [101].

ثُمَّ بَعَثْنٰكُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ مَوْتِكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿٥٦﴾

101. Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. supplicated to Allah to grant life to these 70 men or else the Bani Israel would accuse him of killing his group. Allah answered Hazrat Musa's. dua by bringing them back to life. From this incident we learn that the duas of the pious have great power in it. It can bring the dead back to life. Through their prayer one can get a second lease of life. Those 70 men who had been destroyed had completed their life span. Only when a person's life span is completed will he die Thus they were given a new life span through the blessed dua of Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. which goes to prove that the dua of the pious can change one's destiny.

57.And We shaded you with clouds and sent down upon you Manna and Salwa (quails)[102] saying: "Eat of the good things We have provided for you".And they did not wrong Us at all, but they wronged their own souls[103].

وَظَلَّلْنَا عَلَيْكُمُ الْغَمَامَ وَاَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَنَّ وَالسَّلْوٰى ؕ كُلُوْا مِنْ طَيِّبٰتِ مَا رَزَقْنٰكُمْ ؕ وَمَا ظَلَمُوْنَا وَلٰكِنْ كَانُوْٓا اَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُوْنَ ﴿٥٧﴾

102. On his return Hazrat Musa عليه السلام informed his people that Allah has commanded them to leave Egypt and migrate to Syria to fight the Amaliqa and establish their residence there. Eventually and sadly, they left Egypt. On their way they had to pass a jungle which had neither any shelter nor anything to eat or drink. On Hazrat Musa's عليه السلام dua Allah sent a white cloud to shelter them, manna and quails (a type of food with which the Israelites were fed during the exodus) to eat and illuminated pillars which provided light in the night. They stayed here for forty years but during this period neither their clothes showed any sign of dirt or wear and tear, nor did their hair and nails experience growth. This huge open ground is called Teeh - a place of bewilderment.

103. They were causing harm upon themselves by disregarding Divine instruction. They were told not to accumulate the manna and quails yet they gathered this in a big quantity which then rotted. Prior to this nothing had rotted. Manna is a type of sweetmeat (Halwa) while Salwa was a type of salty meat.

وَ اِذْ قُلْنَا ادْخُلُوْا هٰذِهِ الْقَرْيَةَ فَكُلُوْا
مِنْهَا حَيْثُ شِئْتُمْ رَغَدًا وَّادْخُلُوا

خَطٰيٰكُمْ ؕ وَ سَنَزِيْدُ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۵۸﴾

58.And (recall) when We said: "Enter this city (Jerusalem)[104] and eat from it wherever you will, in abundance, and enter the gate with bowed heads [105] saying: "Forgive us our sins". We will then forgive you your sins and We will give added reward to the doers of good.

104. After gaining their freedom from Teeh the Israelites were ordered to go to Jerusalem or Areeha which was inhabited by the Amaliqa. Having destroyed them, the Israelites were now able to stay in ease as this place contained many orchards laden with a variety of fruit.

105. The Israelites were ordered to enter this city prostrating to Allah. The purpose for this was to show reverence to this sacred place. It also establishes an important fact that all sacred places should be shown utmost respect as Allah Almighty says: "And whoso respects the signs of Allah, then it is from piety of the hearts (S22 : V 32) This further illustrates that the cities of the pious are sacred as Jerusalem is the city of Prophets. Says Allah Almighty: "Verily Safa and Marwa are from the signs of Allah".

Another important fact which emerges from this is that in the environs of the pious, Allah not only accepts repentance and good deeds but increases the rewards of these good deeds Thus, one good deed in Madina Munawwarah is equivalent to 50 thousand deeds elsewhere. We also learn that repentance should be in accordance with the sin i.e. and if the sin is committed openly the repentance should be likewise. If the sin is committed in secrecy, so should be the repentance. In addition, it should be known that although Allah's Mercy is everywhere, it is readily available from an appointed place. The Mazaars of the Saints of Allah are without doubt the stations of Allah's Mercy.

106. This verse points out that words of Durood or Wazeefa (incantations) should not be altered. Whatever is given to you by your Sheikh (Guide) to recite should be practised according to his instructions. These people had altered the word Hittah to Huntah. In the eyes of Allah this was an unjust and cruel act and thus became a cause of their punishment.

60.And (recall) when Musa prayed for water for his people, then We said: "Strike the stone with your staff". At once, there gushed forth from it twelve [108] springs. And every group (tribe) knew its drinking place. "Eat and drink from the provisions of Allah and do not go about corrupting the earth with mischief" [109].

108. This is the miracle of Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. which is equivalent to the incident when Allah had provided the necessities for the Israelites on their exodus to Jerusalem. He provided them with water where there was none, through this miraculous stone and the walking stick. This stone and walking stick were always with Hazrat Musa عليه السلام which he would use whenever and wherever water was needed.

109. This miracle too was performed at Teeh where the miracle of Manna and Salwa was performed. Allah responded to the dua of Hazrat Musa عليه السلام for blessing his people with water by commanding him to strike the stone with his walking stick. Lo and behold ! Twelve

61.And (recall) when you said: "O Musa! [110] We can never be satisfied[111] with one kind of food. So call upon your Lord to bring forth for us some of the varied produce of the earth, such as vegetables and cucumbers and wheat and lentils and onions". He (Musa) said: "Would you exchange what is better [112] for

107. This punishment came in the form of a bubonic plague through which 24 thousand Israelites were destroyed instantly. One should not visit a place where this epidemic is rife, but if it strikes your area you should not run from it. This is a clear warning that disobedience and excessive sins are the cause of calamities and diseases.

fountains sprang from it to provide water for them.This incident clearly explains that Prophets are a means of obtaining Allah's bounties and blessings. Hazrat Musa's عليه السلام. miracle helps us to understand the miracle of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which is greater than this because while Hazrat Musa provided for them water from a stone our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم provided water for his Companions from his fingers. This incident helps us to understand that keeping a walking stick is a Sunnah of Prophets, to make dua for rain is also the Sunnah of Prophets and that sins and "mischief mongering" causes the closure of Allah's bounties and favours.

what is less? Go back to Egypt (any town) and there you will find all that you have asked for". And they were covered[113]with humiliation and poverty and incurred the Wrath of Allah because they (repeatedly) disbelieved in the Signs of Allah and killed the Prophet unjustly[114].This was because they were disobedient and were (habitually) exceeding the limits.

110. This verse enables us to understand that it is permissible to request the pious to pray for you. Likewise it is permissible to turn to the pious in your time of need and distress. An example of this is the Bani Israel. Whenever they wanted to seek Allah's assistance they would first mention this to Hazrat Musa عليه السلام.

111. This incident took place at Teeh. When the Israelites had satiated themselves with Manna and Salwa they requested Hazrat Musa عليه السلام to ask his Lord to provide these victuals for them. This helps to illustrate that greed and covetousness are evil in the eyes of Allah and that we should turn to our Lord for all our needs.

112. Any position which can be obtained without much effort and which precludes all illegal means is a divine blessing, and is far greater than that which is obtained the hard way and through illegal means.

113. From this verse emerge two important issues:

1. Sinful deeds are the cause of worldly calamities.
2. Defamation of Allah's Prophets will bring about disgrace and misery upon oneself in this world and in the Hereafter, while respect and reverence of the Prophets will enable one to obtain honour and greatness. It is crystal clear that the word 'they' refers to the same Israelites who had committed the above mentioned transgressions, as a result of which they failed to obtain any honour and dignity or any material wealth. However, if those Yahud that came after them were to be granted material wealth or sovereignty (power) it will not be in any way contradicting this verse e.g. establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine.

114. The killing of Prophets too was regarded as unjust in their article of faith. Otherwise, as a general rule, killing of a Prophet is a dastardly act in itself. It should also be remembered that only those Prophets were martyred by these Israelites on whom Jihad was not an incumbent duty, such as Hazrat Zakariya عليه السلام., Hazrat Yahya عليه السلام, and Hazrat Shuaib عليه السلام. No Prophet was ever martyred by the non-believers against whom holy war was declared. Nonetheless, the martyrdom of these Prophets had become a means of accomplishing their mission. Hence this verse does not negate their accomplishment, as Allah says "And it is our grace to help the Muslims" (S30 : V 47) "Most surely I (Allah) will prevail and My Messengers" (S 58 : V 21).

ceptance. By faith in Allah means to believe in Allah through belief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. otherwise the Nasara and the Yahud previously too had declared belief in Allah and the Day of Judgement. But now to believe in Allah as taught by Islam has been laid down as a condition to declaring faith. Says Allah Almighty "And whoso will desire for a Religion other than Islam" (S 3 : V85).

115. This verse gives a hint that whatever charity a person has given when in a state of non-belief turns into virtue after he has accepted Islam. Islam cleanses previous sins not previous good deeds. It should be remembered that these good deeds do not include fundamental acts of Islam i.e. if a person has performed Hajj or Salaah etc. None of these deeds are acceptable prior to accepting Islam, as Islam itself is a condition for their acto accept and obey. Allah Almighty then raised mount Sinai to instil fear in them that if they fail to obey these commandments the mountain will come crushing down upon them. This goes to show how fortunate are the Muslims in relation to the Bani Israeel. By revealing the QUR'AAN over a period of 23 years, Allah out of His infinite Mercy made it easy for us to carry out the laws of the QUR'AAN in stages.

116. This incident took place prior to the exodus of the Israelites. Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. had taken a pledge from the 70 companions who had accompanied him to Mt Sinai to obey the teachings of Tauraat. It could also mean that once the Tauraat was revealed Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. proclaimed to the Israelites to obey the commandments revealed unto him. From this, one learns that the teachings of the pious Servants of Allah are in reality teachings of Allah as they are connected with Him. Although Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. had taken the pledge, Allah Almighty says "We had taken the pledge" . Likewise, the raising of Mt. Sinai was done by Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام, yet Allah says 'We have raised it' meaning that all this happens through the Will of Allah as it is His work.

117. The Tauraat was revealed at once, and all its commandments became incumbent upon the Israelites at one time, which they found difficult

118. All physical hardships which became a means of obtaining guidance is part of Divine Mercy e.g. the raising of the Sinai. The responsibility for the preservation of Tauraat was placed on the Israelites as indicated by "Hold fast that which We give you" (S2 : V63). but they failed in their duty . However the responsibility for the preservation of the Holy QUR'AAN is taken by Allah upon Himself, hence it shall remain unaltered eternally.

ثُمَّ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ ۚ فَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهٗ لَكُنْتُمْ مِّنَ الْخٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾

64.Then you turned away after that. Had it not been for the Grace of Allah upon you and His Mercy, you would have been among the losers [119].

Marfat.com

119. Allah's bounty denotes the guidance to obtain Divine repentance, or the delay in the coming of Divine punishment or the arrival of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in this world. If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had not come into this world and mankind had not sought sanctuary in him it would have been made extinct. Thus it is clear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not only a Mercy unto the world, but Allah's Bounty as well.

وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمُ الَّذِيْنَ اعْتَدَوْا مِنْكُمْ فِي السَّبْتِ فَقُلْنَا لَهُمْ كُوْنُوْا قِرَدَةً خٰسِئِيْنَ ﴿٦٥﴾

65. And, undoubtedly, you know those among you who rebelled [120] in the matter concerning the Sabbath (Saturday). So We said to them: "Be you apes [121], despised".

120. This punishment was brought upon the inhabitants of Aila a place situated on the shores of the Red Sea between Madina and Syria, during the Prophethood of Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام. During that time the Israelites were prohibited from indulging in all types of hunting on a Saturday. But they disobeyed this commandment by cunningly digging openings on the shores in an effort to trap the fish in them which they would take out on Sundays. This practice of theirs continued for 70 years unitl Allah punished them. This goes to show that even a trivial sin if continuously committed over a long period becomes a major sin.

66.Thus We made this event (of that town) a warning to those who were present and those who succeeded (them) and a lesson for those who fear Allah [122].

121. Their faces were changed into that of monkeys but in other respects i.e. in body and spirit they remained humans. Thus, this verse in no way supports the Ayrian theory of transmigration or reincarnation of the soul as they are of the belief that the soul itself undergoes change.

122. From this it is evident that religious excuses and pretentions were disallowed for Bani Israel as they used these to transgress the laws of Allah, but the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will be forgiven their minor excuses. The Israelites incurred the wrath of Allah for disregarding Allah's laws in respect of game hunting on Saturdays, as explained earlier.

وَ اِذْ قَالَ مُوْسٰى لِقَوْمِهٖٓ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَاْمُرُكُمْ اَنْ تَذْبَحُوْا بَقَرَةً ؕ قَالُوْٓا اَتَتَّخِذُنَا هُزُوًا ؕ قَالَ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْجٰهِلِيْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

67.And (recall) when Musa[123] said to his people: "Indeed, Allah commands you to slaughter a cow" [124].They said: "Do you make a laughing stock of us?" [125]. He said: "I seek refuge in Allah, from being among the ignorant".

123. Ameel, a person from Bani Israel killed a wealthy relative and secretly removed his body to a nearby village in order to loot his wealth and demand blood money. Having done this, he claimed blood money as the murderer could not be found.

124. From this verse it can be ascertained that the sacrifice of cows was practised during the times of the previous Prophets. Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام too had placed a calf in the presence of the angels.

125. The Israelites mockingly said to Hazrat

Marfat.com

Musa عليه السلام. that are you joking with us, for the wrath you are telling us about sacrificing a cow has nothing to do with our question regarding the murderer. This silly babbling of theirs was disrespectful towards Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. For whatever a Prophet of Allah says should be obeyed implicitly without making any lame excuse. Furthermore we learn that a Prophet of Allah is totally free of all forms of deceit, pranks and mockery. Good naturedness is a praiseworthy quality, but making fun of some one is a vice.

128. From this verse two issues emerge:
1. For every work that is to follow one should say "if Allah wills". It has been related in Hadith that if these people had not said 'if Allah wills' they would not have found convincing replies to their satisfaction.
2.Should not be used when intending any evil deed but only when doing good deeds, e.g. you cannot say If God willing, I will steal, etc.

127. It should be remebered that the first 'what is this' is used as a rhetorical question while the second is used for a personal question. In other words, the first 'what is this' suggests is it a wild cow, a sea cow, a domesticated cow or a deserted cow. Now they were enquiring which of the domesticated cows must they slaughter. Thus, there is no contradiction in this inquiry.

her" [129]. They said: "Now you have come with the truth". Then they slaughtered her, though they were not willing to do so [130].

129. This verse suggests that animals used for sacrifice should be free of any physical defects. Only one person had a cow which satisfied the qualities mentioned by them. This person who had lost his father in his childhood was very obedient to his mother. As a price for the cow it was agreed to stuff its skin with gold. This goes to show that obedient children are rewarded in this world and in the Hereafter.

130. Three points are clarified by this:

1. Service to your mother is an act of piety.
2. Sacrifice of a cow is given priority over other animals
3. Sacrifice should be made of well bred animals

SECTION 9

وَإِذْ قَتَلْتُمْ نَفْسًا فَادَّارَأْتُمْ فِيهَا ۗ وَ
اللَّهُ مُخْرِجٌ مَّا كُنتُمْ تَكْتُمُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ ج

72.And (recall) when you slew [131] a man and disputed over it. But, Allah was to bring out that which you were concealing.

131. Although the murderer was one but there were many accomplices, hence the plural form of the verb is used. Also, the Yahud in the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were the descendants of these Israelites, therefore they are being addressed. As an example, when we tell the Hindus we had ruled India for eight hundred years, what we really mean is that our forefathers had accomplished this feat over your forefathers. The same is the case here.

فَقُلْنَا اضْرِبُوهُ بِبَعْضِهَا ۗ كَذَٰلِكَ يُحْيِي اللَّهُ
الْمَوْتَىٰ ۙ وَيُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾

73.So We said: "Strike him (i.e. the slain man) with a part of it (the cow). Thus, does Allah restore the dead to life and He shows you His Signs so that you may understand [132].

132. From this we deduce that Allah's power is far beyond our imagination. Allah out of His infinite power gave life to a corpse, when struck by a piece of this cow's meat, who gave information about his murder, then died once again. Also, that a sacrifice is a proven means of not only remedying difficult problems but receiving bounties of Allah as well. Thirdly, a thing which is proven by means of a miracle does not require further witnesses, as is the case here - i.e. the testimony of the murdered was sufficient to prove the murderer. Similarly, Hazrat Yusuf عليه السلام.'s innocence was accepted on the testimony of a mere baby because the baby's speech itself was a miracle, and Hazrat Ayesha's R.A. was testified by a QUR'AANIC verse because the QUR'AAN , itself is the miracle of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Can there be any greater witness than Allah?

ثُمَّ قَسَتْ قُلُوبُكُم مِّن بَعْدِ ذَٰلِكَ فَهِيَ
كَالْحِجَارَةِ أَوْ أَشَدُّ قَسْوَةً ۗ وَإِنَّ مِنَ

74. Then, thereafter, your hearts hardened [133]; so they are hard like stones, nay, even worse than stones in hardness, for verily, there are

الْحِجَارَةِ لَمَا يَتَفَجَّرُ مِنْهُ الْاَنْهٰرُ ؕ وَاِنَّ مِنْهَا لَمَا يَشَّقَّقُ فَيَخْرُجُ مِنْهُ الْمَآءُ ؕ وَاِنَّ مِنْهَا لَمَا يَهْبِطُ مِنْ خَشْيَةِ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَمَا اللّٰهُ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٧٤﴾

some stones from which streams gush forth, some split asunder and water flows from them, and there are some that fall down for the fear [134] of Allah. And Allah is not unmindful of your doings [135].

133. Here, the present day Yahud are being addressed. The word 'then' is used for distinctive purpose, i.e. the present from the past, after seeing and hearing so many miracles it has not softened their hearts.

134. It should be remembered that even stones have acquired mystical knowledge of Allah and they too have fear of Allah in them. In the same manner sticks and stones too had knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم This can be seen from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saying "Mt Uhud loves me and I love Mt Uhud". This Hadith is a clear proof that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم could understand the inner thoughts of stones, is it difficult for him to read 'the thoughts of man' ? Any heart which is bereft of the love for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is certainly worse than a stone.

135. If a man's heart is pure he can surpass the angels, otherwise he degenerates to a level lower than animals and stones. We also learn that all stones do not have the same effect.

اَفَتَطْمَعُوْنَ اَنْ يُّؤْمِنُوْا لَكُمْ وَقَدْ كَانَ فَرِيْقٌ مِّنْهُمْ يَسْمَعُوْنَ كَلٰمَ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ يُحَرِّفُوْنَهٗ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا عَقَلُوْهُ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٧٥﴾

75.(O Muslims) Do you desire that these (Yahud) would believe you? Whereas a group from them used to listen to the Word of Allah, then distort it (Tauraat) knowingly, after they had understood it [136].

136. Tauraat and Injeel: Old Testament and the New Testament, both had described the personal features and good qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which their scholars and priests had deliberately distorted. Reference in this verse is to this despicable act of these Jewish and Christian scholars and also to emphasize that if they could distort the teachings of the bibles, instead of benefitting therefrom, they will not benefit from your company. Instead they will try to change your thoughts.

76.And when they meet those who believe, they say: "We have believed". But, when they are alone with one another they say: "Do you tell them about what Allah has revealed to you, so that they can argue with you about it before your Lord". Have you no wisdom to understand (even that)? [137]

137. Circumstances of Revelation of this verse :

Marfat.com

When some insincere Yahud would tell the Muslims that we have brought faith in your Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because our Holy Scriptures do speak of his Prophetic qualities, their priests would rebuke them for doing this,

77.Do they not know that Allah knows what they conceal and what they disclose? [138]

138. From this one can learn that preventing people from obtaining information about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or misleading them about this is the practice of the Yahud.

78.And among them, some are illiterate who do not know the Book (Scripture), except according to their own desires, but they are only assuming [139]

139. This verse makes it crystal clear that beliefs are not based on mere conjectures or speculations. Positive and firm faith in them is saying if you inform them about these teachings they will corner you on the Day of Judgement regarding this. It was on this occasion that Allah revealed this verse.

79. So woe to those who write out the Book (Scripture) with their own hands and then say: "This is from Allah" [140], so that they may gain [141] a small price therewith. So woe to them for what their hands have written and woe to them for what they earn [142] thereby.

140. Unlike the case of the QUR'AAN the Tauraat was not accessible to every Jew nor was its recitation a practice of the common people. It was the privilege of the priests only. They were in the position to use it for their ulterior motives. Whenever any wealthy person would commit a crime for which a severe punishment was prescribed in the Tauraat, they would change this to show lighter punishment, for a price. An example of this is the punishment for adultery.The original punishment for this terrible crime was death by stoning but they had changed this to blackening of the face (act of disgrace). Due to the Mercy of Allah Almighty, the Holy QUR'AAN , is preserved from all such alterations and distortions.

اَوَ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا يُسِرُّوْنَ وَمَا يُعْلِنُوْنَ ﴿۷۷﴾

Present day Wahabis should take a lesson from this, as they, too try and dissuade Muslims from participating in gatherings in which the Holy Prophet's praises are sung or mentioned.

وَمِنْهُمْ اُمِّيُّوْنَ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ الْكِتٰبَ اِلَّآ اَمَانِيَّ وَ اِنْ هُمْ اِلَّا يَظُنُّوْنَ ﴿۷۸﴾ needed. Also, beliefs are based on proven facts, not on blind following of customs and rituals.

فَوَيْلٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ يَكْتُبُوْنَ الْكِتٰبَ بِاَيْدِيْهِمْ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُوْنَ هٰذَا مِنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ لِيَشْتَرُوْا بِهٖ ثَمَنًا قَلِيْلًا ؕ فَوَيْلٌ لَّهُمْ مِّمَّا كَتَبَتْ اَيْدِيْهِمْ وَ وَيْلٌ لَّهُمْ مِّمَّا يَكْسِبُوْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾

141. It should be remembered that to distort verses on account of bribery is equal to selling them. However, mere printing of the Holy QUR'AAN , for commercial purposes, receiving salary for Imamat, (duties of Imam) to receive compensation for teaching the QUR'AAN for writing Taweez etc. is not included in this because this payment is not for altering the QUR'AAN but for rendering a service. The Four Righteous Caliphs; Khulafur-e-Rashideen too had received payment for rendering the duties of Caliphate.

142. A few important issues emerge from this verse:

1. The earnings from any illegal work is also illegal and unlawful.

Marfat.com

2. To write or print and publish misleading and false literature is forbidden.
3. All commentaries of the verses, termination of rukus, etc. must be clearly differentiated from the actual text of the QUR'AAN. Man made items must not be mixed in any way with the words of Allah i.e. the QUR'AANIC text. It is for this reason that divisions of the Parah e.g. half, quarter, each ruku, are clearly marked off in the margin, and the names of Surahs are written boldly before each Surah commences.

80.And they say: "Never will the fire touch us, except for a few [143] days". Please declare: "Have you taken a covenant with Allah? That He will change His covenant [144]. Or, do you say about Allah of which you have no knowledge?"[145]

وَ قَالُوْا لَنْ تَمَسَّنَا النَّارُ اِلَّآ اَيَّامًا مَّعْدُوْدَةً ؕ قُلْ اَتَّخَذْتُمْ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ عَهْدًا فَلَنْ يُّخْلِفَ اللّٰهُ عَهْدَهٗٓ اَمْ تَقُوْلُوْنَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٨٠﴾

143. From this, is suggested that to be arrogant about ones geneology and unmindful of one's actions is the practice of the non-believers, because the Bani Israel regarded themselves as children of Prophets and therefore exempt from good deeds. Furthermore, pious deeds are incumbent upon everyone. If the Prophets of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were not exempted from piety and cleanliness then who are we!?
144. From this verse we learn that Allah Almighty is free of any form of falsehood or breaking a promise. Anyone who believes in the possibility of these in respect of Allah is out of the fold of Islam. It also explains that traditions cannot be proven through speculative sources. These can only be authenticated through QUR'AAN , and Hadith.
145. Whenever fear was instilled in these distorters of truth they would proudly say that whatever wrong we do we will not be punished for more then 40 days which are equal to the days our forefathers worshipped the golden calf. Allah rebukes them in this verse for uttering this nonsense.

81. Yes, why not. Whoever commits sin, and his sin has encompassed him. It is they who are the inmates of the Fire [146], and therein will they abide forever [147].

146. In this verse there is a hint that the infants of the non-believers would not be sent to Hell because they are sinless. But Allah and His Rasool know best. People will be put into Hell on account of their sins.
147. A believing sinner will be put into Hell temporarily, because his heart is not totally immersed in sins. Alhough a sinner, he is not party to any wrong beliefs. On the other hand, a heart totally immersed in sin is not just polluted with impurity but is full of evil beliefs as well.

82. But, they who believe and do righteous deeds 148, those are the inmates of Paradise, and therein will they abide forever.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ الْجَنَّةِ ۚ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿٨٢﴾ ع ٩

148. Every opportunity one gets to do good deeds should be readily accepted. However, if a person had no such opportunity before his death his acceptance of faith is sufficient to take him to Paradise, as is the case of those who die at the time of accepting faith or slain in Jihad immediately after accepting Islam. Even the Muslim infants will be entered into Paradise on account of their parents faith. It is for this reason that the pious will be kept altogether.

وَاِذْ اَخَذْنَا مِيْثَاقَ بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ لَا تَعْبُدُوْنَ اِلَّا اللّٰهَ ۖ وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ اِحْسَانًا وَّ ذِى الْقُرْبٰى وَالْيَتٰمٰى وَالْمَسٰكِيْنِ وَقُوْلُوْا لِلنَّاسِ حُسْنًا وَّاَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاٰتُوا الزَّكٰوةَ ۭ ثُمَّ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا مِّنْكُمْ وَ اَنْتُمْ مُّعْرِضُوْنَ ﴿٨٣﴾

83.And (recall) when We took the covenant [149] from the children of Israel that you worship none but Allah, and are kind to your parents[150] and relatives and to the orphans [151] and the needy and speak well with the people [152], and establish Prayer [153] and pay Zakaat. Then you turned away, except a few [154] of you. Surely, you are the backsliders.

149. This covenant was either taken from the Israelites in the Tauraat or on the occasion when a promise was taken from every soul in general and the Israelites in particular; in respect of their total subservience to Allah.

150. Obedience to parents in their life time include showing them utmost respect, serve them physically and materially, carry out all their lawfully accepted wishes. For their service one can leave out Nafl superogatory worships but not the Fard and Wajib (obligatory worships). If one's parents are committing sin or are in apostasy one should diplomatically try to bring them on the right path. Kindness to them after their death include fulfilling all their wishes and instructions, to respect their friends, bless their souls by reading Fateha, reciting the QUR'AAN and giving charity in their name, continue to carry out their good traditions and visit their graves at least once a week. The importance of parental obedience can be seen from the fact that Allah Almighty has mentioned it immediately after His worship i.e. in order of importance parental obedience

151. In order of preference listed, is first the rights of parents, then rights of relatives and thirdly come the rights of others. In the word 'others' come destitutes, of whom the orphans are foremost in importance as they are poor as well as helpless, thereafter come the other poor.

152. Call them towards good and stop them from evil, through Islamic discourse and preaching.

153. From this one can learn that Salaah and Zakaat was obligatory in the Mosaic commandments though the method of Salaah was somewhat different from the Salaah offered by Muslims. Two Salaahs per day and a fourth of their wealth in Zakaat were obligatory upon them.

154. From this verse one can ascertain that the Israelites had not forsaken Mosaic law, some had remained steadfast on it. These were the people who had accepted Islam during the time of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in response to the dua of Hazrat Ebrahim. "And from our offspring a nation submissive to you" (S2 : V128).

84.And (recall) when We took your covenant (saying): "Do not shed your (one another's) blood [155] nor expel one another from your towns". Then you acknowledged this while you were witness to it.

دِيَارِكُمْ ثُمَّ اَقْرَرْتُمْ وَاَنْتُمْ تَشْهَدُوْنَ ﴿٨٤﴾

155. Allah Almighty had commanded the Israelites not to kill one another nor should one tribe banish another and if any Jew was held captive he should be freed through payment of ransom. But they disregarded their command as can be seen from the examples of Banu Quraiza and Banu Nadeer who would fight one another, and on finding an opportunity would banish one another. However, when they would find one from them in captivity they would try their best to free him. This verse makes mention of this.

85. Then, you are those (same ones who are) slaying one another and expelling a group of your people from their homeland, assisting them (your enemy) in sin and aggression. And when they come to you as captives, you ransom them, although expelling [156] them was forbidden to you. So do you believe in part of the Scripture and disbelieve part of it? [157] Then what is the recompense for those who do that among you? Except, disgrace [158] in the worldly life, and on the Day of Resurrection they will be sent back to the severest punishment. And Allah is not unmindful of what you do [159].

ثُمَّ اَنْتُمْ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ تَقْتُلُوْنَ اَنْفُسَكُمْ وَتُخْرِجُوْنَ
فَرِيْقًا مِّنْكُمْ مِّنْ دِيَارِهِمْ تَظٰهَرُوْنَ عَلَيْهِمْ
بِالْاِثْمِ وَالْعُدْوَانِ ؕ وَاِنْ يَّاْتُوْكُمْ اُسٰرٰى
تُفٰدُوْهُمْ وَهُوَ مُحَرَّمٌ عَلَيْكُمْ اِخْرَاجُهُمْ ؕ
اَفَتُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِبَعْضِ الْكِتٰبِ وَتَكْفُرُوْنَ بِبَعْضٍ ۚ
فَمَا جَزَآءُ مَنْ يَّفْعَلُ ذٰلِكَ مِنْكُمْ اِلَّا خِزْيٌ فِي
الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۚ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ يُرَدُّوْنَ اِلٰٓى اَشَدِّ
الْعَذَابِ ؕ وَمَا اللّٰهُ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٨٥﴾

156. The Tauraat has declared the banishment as an unlawful act and freeing of captives as an incumbent act but you practise both i.e. you banish your tribe and you free your captives. Why this double standard? You must practise your Tauraat in its entirety.

157. It is incumbent upon everybody to practice every law of Shariah. No one is exempt from any of these laws unless exempted by Shariah itself e.g. A poor person is exempted from giving Zakaat, or menstruating women from Salaah.

158. From this verse a few issues emerge:

1. Everything prophesized in the QUR'AAN, is absolutely true. As per QUR'AANIC prophecy the Banu Quraiza were killed at the hands of the Muslims and the Banu Nadeer were banished, which for the Yahud was a source of disgrace.

2. At times sins do cause the descent of worldly calamities.

3. For the non-believers, worldly calamities will not serve as an atonement of their sins. They will be punished in the Hereafter as well. This is different in the case of a Believer. For him the worldly misfortunes too are a Mercy from Allah Almighty as these are a means of cleansing him of his sins. In sins both are equal, but the treatment by Allah is different.

159. In this verse both the believers and the non believers are addressed - that Allah is fully aware of the good deeds of the pious and the sins of the evil doers. Hence, the verse is in respect of reward and punishment.

أُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ اشْتَرَوُا الْحَيٰوةَ الدُّنْيَا بِالْاٰخِرَةِ ز فَلَا يُخَفَّفُ عَنْهُمُ الْعَذَابُ وَ لَا هُمْ يُنْصَرُوْنَ ﴿٨٦﴾ ع ١٠

86.These are the people who have bought the life of this world (in exchange) for the Hereafter, neither will their punishment be reduced, nor will they be aided [160].

160. From this verse emerge two issues:
1. The punishment of the leaders of the non believers will not lessen in intensity with the exception of leaders like Abu Talib whose punishment will be lighter on account of his service to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

2. Those deprived of help on the Day of Judgement refers to the non-believers. As for the Muslims, Allah will appoint many helpers for them. He who says I have no helper is unwittingly admitting his disbelief.

وَ لَقَدْ اٰتَيْنَا مُوْسَى الْكِتٰبَ وَقَفَّيْنَا مِنْۢ بَعْدِهٖ بِالرُّسُلِ ز وَ اٰتَيْنَا عِيْسَى ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ الْبَيِّنٰتِ وَاَيَّدْنٰهُ بِرُوْحِ الْقُدُسِ ط اَفَكُلَّمَا جَآءَكُمْ رَسُوْلٌۢ بِمَا لَا تَهْوٰٓى اَنْفُسُكُمُ اسْتَكْبَرْتُمْ ج فَفَرِيْقًا كَذَّبْتُمْ ز وَفَرِيْقًا تَقْتُلُوْنَ ﴿٨٧﴾

87.And verily We bestowed upon Musa the Scripture and then appointed Messengers [161] of Allah (Rasools) in sequence. And We bestowed upon Isa, son of Mariam, clear proofs and supported him with the Pure Spirit (the angel Jibraeel)[162]. But is it (not) that every time a Messenger came to you with what your souls did not desire, you became arrogant? [163]. And you falsify a group (Messengers of Allah) and you kill another group [164].

161. After Hazrat Musa عليه السلام Allah sent four thousand Prophets who continued protecting and preaching the Mosaic Law. But becuase our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is Allah's final Prophet the task of protecting the pristine purity of the QUR'AAN, and its laws is entrusted to the Muslim scholars (Ulema). Praise be to Allah! The Ulema have discharged their obligation without fail, therefore the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has said: "The Ulema of my Ummah are like the Prophets of Bani Israel".

162. Ruhul Qud'us is the title of Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام because he is the spiritual being who had brought revelations to the Prophets of Allah. Hence revelation is the very spirit of Faith and free of all defects and blemishes. Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام. was always in the company of Hazrat Isa عليه السلام. when needed. This shows that it is not shirk to regard help from someone other than Allah. If Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام. can give help so can our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who is the most superior creation of Allah.

163. It should be remembered that show of pride against the non believers is a good act, but it becomes sinful when shown against the believers, and any show of conceit in the presence of the Prophet is an act of profanity. Highest form of respect and civility is to be shown when in the presence of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

164. No Prophet was ever killed by a non believer in any battle. Only those Prophets were martyred by the non-believers on whom Jihad (Holy War) was not obligatory. Thus, this verse does not contradict 'And it is Our grace binding to help the Muslims' (S30 : V4) 'Most surely I (Allah) will prevail and My Messenger' (S21: V58).

وَ قَالُوْا قُلُوْبُنَا غُلْفٌ ؕ بَلْ لَّعَنَهُمُ اللّٰهُ بِكُفْرِهِمْ فَقَلِيْلًا مَّا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿٨٨﴾

وَ لَمَّا جَآءَهُمْ كِتٰبٌ مِّنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ مُصَدِّقٌ لِّمَا مَعَهُمْ ۙ وَكَانُوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ يَسْتَفْتِحُوْنَ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ۚۖ فَلَمَّا جَآءَهُمْ مَّا عَرَفُوْا كَفَرُوْا بِهٖ ۚ فَلَعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ عَلَى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٨٩﴾

88.And they (the Yahud) said: "Our hearts are wrapped with covers". But (in fact) Allah has cursed them due to their disbelief. So a few among them accepted faith.

89.And when there came to them that Book (QUR'AAN ,) from Allah, confirming[165] the Book that was with them (Tauraat) and that before they used to entreat Allah for victory over the infidels (through the medium of that Prophet Muhammad) [166] and when there actually came to them the said Prophet whom they recognized, [167], they rejected him outright. So, the curse of Allah will be upon those who reject faith [168].

165. The word verification or affirmation in this verse means that it is the Holy QUR'AAN which has verified the authenticity of these revealed Books like the Tauraat (Old Testament), The Injeel (New Testament), etc because they had prophesised the coming of the QUR'AAN and all these prophesies became true after its revelation. It also means that the QUR'AAN was responsible for advocating that all these Books are indeed revealed Books of Allah because if it was not for the QUR'AAN , the world would not have known the truth of these Books. Although Allah had sent approximatley 124,000 Prophets for the guidance of man only those names are remembered which are mentioned in the QUR'AAN.

166. Circumstances of its Revelation:
Whenever the People of the Book (the true Yahud and Nasara) had fought with the heathens they would always pray for their victory and success by seeking the mediation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم "Oh Allah grant us success for the sake of the Final Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم", and Allah would always make them victorious. The previous revealed Books and the Prophets had all proclaimed the coming of the Final Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم In this verse these People of the Book are reminded by Allah that first you would pray through his blessed name, but now that he has come into the world you are rejecting his Prophethood. This verse makes it clear that seeking the Waseelah (intercession) and mediation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. is an old practice of the previous nations and those who reject this mediation are worse than the Yahud and the Nasara. Also, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم mediation was the source of fulfilment of people's desires from time immemorial.

167. The word 'him' refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because when any being is discussed or mentioned with its attributes the word 'him' is used therewith. Says Allah Almighty "And do not marry those women whom your fathers have married" (S4 V22) Further, it can be inferred that the previous non believers must have prayed through the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and not through the medium of the Holy QUR'AAN because only the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was known to them through their Books i.e. Hazrat Isa عليه السلام had said: (S61: V 6) "Convey the glad news of the Messenger who will come after me, his name is Ahmed".

168. Almighty Allah did not denounce their mediation which was an acceptable act, but He rebuked their rejection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم For this reason the word 'upon them' was not used here, otherwise some would have misunderstood this to mean their denouncement was due to accepting the mediation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

90. For what a miserable price they had sold themselves [169], that they disbelieve in what Allah has revealed. Grudging out of jealousy, that Allah out of His Bounty would send down revelation [170] upon whom He wills, from among His servants. So they became worthy of wrath [171] upon wrath. And for the infidels there is a humiliating punishment.

بِئْسَمَا اشْتَرَوْا بِهٖٓ اَنْفُسَهُمْ اَنْ يَّكْفُرُوْا

فَبَآءُوْ بِغَضَبٍ عَلٰى غَضَبٍ ۭ وَلِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ
عَذَابٌ مُّهِيْنٌ ۝٩٠

169. Their rejection of Faith is associated with their fate. Every human being is likened to a merchant, and life is his place of business. Every breath of his life is its transaction which is decreasing with time. He is using these breaths to purchase the deeds which are increasing all the time. Whosoever has purchased good deeds is a succcessful merchant, while the one who is purchasing evil deeds and infidelity is heading towards bankruptcy.

170. The Bani Israel were envious that the honour of finality of Prophet instead of being bestowed upon a Jew, had been bestowed upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم It is out of this envy that they had rejected the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . From this one can learn that at times envy can become an obstacle in the acceptance of Faith.

171. They were punished in different ways through various types of calamities which had befallen them.

91.And when it is said to them: "Believe in what Allah has revealed"[172], they say; "We believe (only) in what was revealed to us". And they reject what came besides it, though it is the truth confirming [173], that which is with them (Tauraat). Please declare (O Muhammad): "Then why did you kill the previous Prophets of Allah [174], if you were (indeed) believers (in your Scripture, the Tauraat)?

172. This verse makes it clear that it is incumbent upon everybody to believe in all the revealed Books of Allah as well as upon all the commands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. To reject any one of the above is an act of Kufr (disbelief). Such is the ruling regarding all the Prophets of Allah, as well as the pious descendants of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his illustrious Companions whose respect, and in whom belief is incumbent too.

173. All those Prophets and books which are not mentioned in the QUR'AAN , have become an unknown entity and no one has any knowledge about them.

174. This verse makes it clear that slaying or slander of a Prophet is an act of Kufr (infidelity) while showing utmost respect and honour of Prophet is part of faith, condoning acts of Kufr amounts to Kufr (infidelity). This is true of the present day Israelites. Although they had not been responsible for martyring any Prophet but they do not denounce these killers. On the contrary, they hold them in esteem. Therefore they too are listed among these killers. Similar is the ruling regarding pious deeds.

92.And surely Musa came to you with clear proofs. Then you took the calf (in worship) [175] after them, while you were (indeed) unjust [176].

175. From this verse one learns that the cow worship of the Hindus has its origin in the calf worship of the Israelites. Hence, for the Muslims to hold the cow in high esteem or to revere any holy days of the non believers is totally unlawful as this will amount to showing resemblance with the non believers in respect of the above.

176. In this verse the Israelites are condemned for their infidelity towards Hazrat Musa عليه السلام., for after having seen the miracle of 'The shining hand' they had still resorted to calf worship.

93.And (recall) when We took your covenant and raised above your head the Mount Tur (saying): "Hold firmly onto what We bestow upon you and listen". They said (instead): "We heard, but we disobeyed" [177]. And their hearts were absorbed (in the worship) of the calf because of their infidelity[178].Please declare(O Muhammad): "Most vile is that which this (queer) belief of yours commands you, if at all you are believers" [179].

177. From this verse a few benefits emerge:

1. No believer can be allowed to turn to apostasy either he remains a believer, or he is to be destroyed. The Israelites too tried to become apostates after accepting the Mosaic Law, for which they were condemned to death.

2. The law of Shariah is applicable on the external show of disbelief, not what is on the deepest recesses of the heart e.g. On the Israelites verbal response by 'we heard' the Sinai was removed as an obstacle for them, although in their hearts they had said 'we did not hear'

3. To bring Imaan or accepting faith under any duress or fear is not a means of obtaining eternal salvation.

178. From this verse we learn that the desire of evil things is a sign of infidelity e.g. the inclination of the Israelites towards the calf was due to their apostasy. Therefore inculcating love for the pious, and for good things is a sign of godliness. Every person can thus perceive his own faith from his natural inclinations.

179. In this verse faith is used sarcastically i.e. if faith can lead to things they were doing than certainly this type of faith is, in reality, faithlessness.

94.Please declare (O Muhammad) if the last home (Paradise) with Allah is for you alone and not for the other people [180], then wish for death, if you are truthful [181].

180. The Yahud were arrogantly saying that no matter what they did they are the people of Paradise i.e. they are the children of Prophets, while no matter how much good the Muslims did they will not enter Paradise. In response to this nonsensical claim of the Yahud, Allah revealed this verse to challenge the Yahud that if you are the people of Paradise as you claim to be than desire death for yourselves, as death is the means of entering Paradise.

181. It should be remembered that to wish for death as a means of receiving Allah's salvation or achieving meeting with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is perfectly acceptable in Islam. But desiring death to overcome one's physical miseries is totally Haraam (unlawful). Thus the words of the Hadith in respect of death as a means of meeting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم do not contradict this verse in any way. This verse merely talks of the desire for death.Suicide for any reason or any intention is totally unlawful.

95.And never will they [182] wish for it, ever, because of what their hands have put forth (evil deeds). And Allah is the Best Knower of the unjust.

182. This verse gives tidings of the unseen which extends to the Day of Qiyamah. The non believers were very covetous of life and thus would try all means to escape death.

However, a believer who desires life will only do so because it will afford him the time to accumulate good deeds for the Hereafter.

96.And you will surely find them the greediest of people for life, (even) more than those who associate partners with Allah. Each of them wishes to remain alive for a thousand years [183]. Yet, this will not save them from the punishment even after such a long life. And Allah is aware of what they do [184].

وَلَتَجِدَنَّهُمْ اَحْرَصَ النَّاسِ عَلٰى حَيٰوةٍ ۛ وَ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ اَشْرَكُوْا ۛ يَوَدُّ اَحَدُهُمْ لَوْ يُعَمَّرُ اَلْفَ سَنَةٍ ۚ وَ مَا هُوَ بِمُزَحْزِحِهٖ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ اَنْ يُّعَمَّرَ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ بَصِيْرٌۢ بِمَا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٩٦﴾ ع ١٠ ١١

183. From this an important point emerges i.e. love for the world, love for worldly things and the greed for long life is the practice of the non believers. The believer is in no way covetous of this. However there is no harm to desire for a long life for the purpose of accumulating good deeds for one's Hereafter, because the intention of long life is not out of greed to live longer on this earth but to prepare for one's Hereafter.

184. From this verse one learns that mere receiving of abundance of wealth or long life does in no way indicate Divine approval or pleasure until such time that they are used to gain piety. Furthermore, the Islamic practice of Salaam (greetings) is far better than the customary greetings of the non-believers because in Salaam peace and blessing is sought for this world and the Hereafter, while the greetings of the non believers are limited to the prayers of this world only. Thirdly, we learn that the punishment of the renegades is very severe.

97.Please declare (O Muhammad): "Whoever is an enemy to Jibraeel [185], it is he who brought it (Holy QUR'AAN ,) down upon your heart (Muhammad) [186], with the permission of Allah, confirming the previous books and as a guidance and glad-tidings for the believers" [187].

قُلْ مَنْ كَانَ عَدُوًّا لِّجِبْرِيْلَ فَاِنَّهٗ نَزَّلَهٗ عَلٰى قَلْبِكَ بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَ هُدًى وَّبُشْرٰى لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٩٧﴾

185. Once a Jew named Ibn Sorya had intimated to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that we do not accept the Holy QUR'AAN because Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام brings it down. If another angel was used for this purpose we would have accepted it. This verse was revealed on this occassion.

186. One important aspect we learn from this verse is that words of the QUR'AAN were revealed in the auditory manner, but the deeper mysteries of the QUR'AAN , were revealed in the heart of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from Almighty Allah. Says Allah Almighty 'Then it is upon Us, to make clear its minute details' (S 75 : V 19)

Thus no one can claim to have the knowledge of the QUR'AAN equal to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because Allah Himself taught it to His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم 187 The QUR'AAN , gives the guidance for pious deeds and the glad tidings of Paradise for the believers alone. The general guidance for mankind is given elsewhere e.g. "It is a guidance for mankind". Thus, there is no inconsistency in these verses i.e. both verses are correct in their own context.

98.Whoever is an enemy of Allah and His angels and His Messengers (Rasools) and Jibraeel [188] and Mikaeel. Then, surely, Allah is an enemy to the infidels [189].

مَنْ كَانَ عَدُوًّا لِّلّٰهِ وَمَلٰٓئِكَتِهٖ وَرُسُلِهٖ وَجِبْرِيْلَ وَمِيْكٰلَ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَدُوٌّ لِّلْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٩٨﴾

188. From this verse we learn that Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام. is superior in status to all angels as his blessed name precedes the names of all angels, as he brought down Allah's Revelation which is the spiritual nourishment, while Hazrat Mikaeel عليه السلام.. brings down rain, which is the physical nourishment. Another important thing we learn is that the status of the teacher and the spiritual guide (Peer O Murshid) is greater than ones parents because the body is provided by ones parents but the knowledge and guidance is obtained from the teacher and the Peer (Murshid).

189. Love for Allah's pious and beloved personages is showing love for Allah, and to bear any malice towards these pious sages, is in reality expressing malice towards Allah - Says Allah "Then follow me, Allah will love you".(S3: V 31) It also expounds that the true servants of the Beloved of Allah are liked by Allah e.g. Because Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام.

99.And, certainly, We have revealed to you (Muhammad) clear verses and none would ever deny them except the defiantly disobedient [190].

190. Hypocrites are among those who are sinful and disobedient in their beliefs and

100. Is it not (true) that whenever they made a promise, a party of them cast it aside? But, in fact, most of them do not believe.

101.And when a Messenger (Rasool) from Allah [191] came to them confirming that which was with them, a party [192] from among the people of the Book (Scripture) threw the Scripture of Allah behind their backs [193] as if they did not know (what it contained) [194].

191. From this verse we learn that before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم came into this world he was in the Divine environs. From here he was sent at the expressed wish of Allah. He came into this world; the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was sent; therefore, we are mere humans and not Messengers of Allah; we bear our own responsibilities, Allah is responsible for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

192. The Yahud are divided into 4 groups: The first group of people were obedient to the Tauraat and later brought faith in the Messenger of Allah. The second group consists of those who openly transgressed the laws of Tauraat to become rebels in Allah's eyes. "One party of them throws it out" (the Covenant) (S 2 : V 100).

servant of Allah's Prophets, he is held in such high esteem by Allah; that his enemy is Allah's enemy. Furthermore, to show enmity to one angel is equal to showing enmity to all the angels. The same is with enmity in respect to Prophets and Saints of Allah.

وَ لَقَدْ اَنْزَلْنَآ اِلَيْكَ اٰيٰتٍۭ بَيِّنٰتٍ ۚ وَ مَا يَكْفُرُ بِهَآ اِلَّا الْفٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿٩٩﴾

اَوَ كُلَّمَا عٰهَدُوْا عَهْدًا نَّبَذَهٗ فَرِيْقٌ مِّنْهُمْ ؕ بَلْ اَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿١٠٠﴾

وَ لَمَّا جَآءَهُمْ رَسُوْلٌ مِّنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ مُصَدِّقٌ لِّمَا مَعَهُمْ نَبَذَ فَرِيْقٌ مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوا الْكِتٰبَ ۙ كِتٰبَ اللّٰهِ وَرَآءَ ظُهُوْرِهِمْ كَاَنَّهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿١٠١﴾

The third group violated the laws of Tauraat through their ignorance, they are among those "As if they had no knowledge" (S 2 :V 101). The fourth group consist of those who outwardly remained loyal to the Tauraat but inwardly were hostile to Mosaic law and made mockery of these laws. They are among the "Nay, most of them have no faith".(S2 :V 100)

193. From this we learn that not acting upon the commandments of the QUR'AAN , is equivalent to turning away from them, even although it is recited daily and decorated in beautiful cloth. Though the Yahud did the same with the Tauraat they did not believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which was not just totally going against its teachings, but it was like turning away from it.

194. In this verse, is a hint that one should not show one's back to the QUR'AAN , as this is a sign of indifference and being offensive.

Secondly, an unpractising learned man is like an ignorant person, nay even worse.

102.And they followed (instead) what the devils had recited during the reign of Sulaiman [195]. It was not Sulaiman, who disbelieved, but the devils who disbelieved [196], teaching people magic and that which was revealed to the two angels at Babylon, Harut and Marut [197]. And they (two angels) do not teach anyone anything unless they say; "We are merely a test. Therefore do not be infidels" [198]. And they learn from them that which they cause separation [199] between husband and his wife. But, they do not harm anyone through it, except by permission of Allah. And they learn what will harm them and not benefit them [200]. And, certainly, they knew whosoever traded in it (magic) will have no share [201] in the Hereafter. And, surely, most evil is that for which they have sold themselves, if only they had known.

195. From this verse two issues emerge:
1. Witchcraft has come into existence since the time of Hazrat Sulaiman عليه السلام.
2. Those responsible for spreading this evil were the devils, not the angels.

196. From these, emerge two issues:
1. To vindicate the Prophets of all blame is the way of Allah. When people accused Hazrat Sulaiman عليه السلام of witchcraft, Allah absolved him of all blame in this verse.
2. To practise witchcraft can be infidelity, especially when words of blasphemy are used in its practice.

197. Harut and Marut were two angels who were foremost in piety and worship amongst all angels. Once they were sent into the world in human form as a governor and a judge. They hopelessly fell in love with a pretty damsel whose case they had to judge. In her love they committed many sins. This was in the period of Hazrat Idrees عليه السلام, through whose mediation their sins were forgiven, but they were imprisoned in the well of Babil and were appointed as instructors of witchcraft. From this, one can learn that when refulgent angels assume human form they can have the power to eat, drink, even to cohabit. Hazrat Musa's عليه السلام walking stick could eat when in the state of a snake. "It began to swallow their fabrications(S26 :V45). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Light (refulgence) of Allah but when he came in human state he would eat, drink sleep and be awake, but when he assumed the refulgent state he would abstain from eating and drinking as was the case during Meraj, Hazrat Isa's عليه السلام in the Fourth Heaven and the Companions of the Cave are alive for thousands of years without eating and drinking. All this is out of the manifestation of light.

198. From this verse emerge few issues:

1. The devils are the inventors or originators of witchcraft not the angels. After becoming victims of witchcraft they had come to face those who had fallen prey to this hellish practice.
2. Most forms of witchcraft is idolatory in form because either pagan words are used for it or they are paganistic in their conditions.
3. To teach witchcraft is not an act of Kufr provided it is taught to make a person aware of its evils, thereby staying away from it. But it will become a blasphemous act if it is taught to practise it as it was taught by the devils. It should be remembered that the jurists have taught blasphemous words for prevention of it. To know infidelity is not infidelity, to accept and act upon it is infidelity.

199. From this verse two issues emerge:

1. Witchcraft has harmful effects if it contains blasphemous words.
2. The non-believers too can cause physical harm through witchcraft. Thus if witchcraft can possess the power to cause harm, can the verses of the QUR'AAN not have the power of providing cure? Without doubt they have. Says Almighty Allah: "And we send down in the QUR'AAN that which is a healing" (S 17 : V 82). Likewise, when the non believers can cause harm through witchcraft, so can the pious servants of Allah provide benefits through their miracles. Hazrat Isa عليه السلام has said: "And I heal the one born blind, and the leper and I make the dead alive, by the command of Allah" (S3 : V49).

200. From this verse one can assume that witchcraft is also from Divine knowledge, the existence of which is approved by Allah (Tafseer Azizi) It is for this reason that angels were appointed for its instruction.

Islamic Issue: Any witchcraft which entails blasphemy leads to apostasy, but witchcraft which is not of a blasphemous nature but is used to destroy people is equivalent to the decree of robbery. Furthermore, it is not blasphemy when witchcraft is studied purely as an antidote to witchcraft, provided such learning does not contain any blasphemous words.

201. Two issues emerge from this:

1. Witchcraft studied with the intention of causing harm is totally forbidden, but it is allowed for the purpose of removing its harmful effects.
2. Even the people of the Book knew that witchcraft is harmful and a means of depriving oneself of the Hereafter.

103.And had they believed and followed the course of righteousness, then the reward from Allah would have been far better [202], had they but only known.

وَلَوْ اَنَّهُمْ اٰمَنُوْا وَاتَّقَوْا لَمَثُوْبَةٌ مِّنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ خَيْرٌ ؕ لَوْ كَانُوْا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۳﴾ ع ۱۲

202. The smallest blessing of the Hereafter is superior to the highest blessing of this world.

SECTION 13

104. O you who believe! Say not (to Allah's Messenger) "Ra'ina" [203] but say "Unzurna"[204]. Right from the beginning

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَقُوْلُوْا رَاعِنَا وَقُوْلُوا انْظُرْنَا وَ اسْمَعُوْا ؕ وَلِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ

عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿١٠٤﴾

listen attentively (to his discourse) [205]and for the disbelievers a painful punishment.

203. To utter the slightest undignified word about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is forbidden, even when insult is not intended, but when insult is intended, it becomes an act of Kufr blasphemy. Similarly one should avoid using ambiguous words in respect of Allah and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which could give anyone an opportunity of causing any slander e.g. Do not refer to Allah as Allah Mia because Allah Mia can mean Master as well as husband.

204. From this verse it is understood that Allah Almighty Himself is teaching us the dignified manner of addressing the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم through Divine decrees. Also, it is total blasphemy to utter any word of slight in respect of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as indicated by "For the disbelievers".

205. Sometimes the Noble Companions when in the discourse of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would say"Oh Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم show kindness towards us through clarity of speech. The word RA'INA was regarded vulgar in Jewish terminology and they would use this word to slight the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.On hearing this word Hazrat Sa'ad R.A. became inflamed and threatened to behead any Jew who would use this word. At this, the Yahud would say that Muslims too are using this word.It is on this occassion that Allah revealed this verse after which Muslims, too, were stopped from?

105.Those who disbelieve from the people of the Book (Scripture) or the polytheists. Do not wish [206] that any good should be sent down to you from your Lord. But Allah chooses for His Mercy whom He wills and Allah is the Possessor of Great Bounty.

مَا يَوَدُّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْ اَهْلِ الْكِتٰبِ
وَ لَا الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ اَنْ يُّنَزَّلَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِّنْ
خَيْرٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ يَخْتَصُّ بِرَحْمَتِهٖ
مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيْمِ ﴿١٠٥﴾

206.This verse teaches us that infidels and idolators cannot become well wishers of Muslims, and those who think thus will eventually become victims of their treachery.

106.When We abrogate [207] a verse or cause it to be forgotten, except that We bring forth (one) better [208] than it or similar to it [209]. Do you not know that Allah has the power to do everything? [210]

مَا نَنْسَخْ مِنْ اٰيَةٍ اَوْ نُنْسِهَا نَاْتِ بِخَيْرٍ
مِّنْهَآ اَوْ مِثْلِهَا ؕ اَلَمْ تَعْلَمْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ
عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿١٠٦﴾

207 Some infidels would wag their tongues when the QUR'AAN abrogated certain earlier decrees by saying that none of the decrees of Tauraat or Injeel have been abrogated. In reply to them, this verse was revealed. It should be remembered that abrogation is of three types:

1. Abrogation of recitation
2. Abrogation of decree
3. Abrogation of both

208. In the same manner as the QUR'AAN enjoys superiority over the old and the New Testaments, or some abrogatory verses of the QUR`AAN are better and more beneficial than those abrogated.

209. Some existing verses are regarded better than others e.g. to recite Surah Ikhlas three times is equal to the reward of reciting the complete QUR'AAN but Reciting Surah Lahab.

Marfat.com

300 times is not equal in reward to reciting Surah Ikhlas 3 times, yet both are Divine verses.

210. From this is meant that some verses are abrogated in respect of recitation or decree which is a change of prescription for mankind.

This is certainly within the power of Allah, an example of which is a change in prescription by a doctor in accordance with the condition of the patient. The same is the meaning of "S*hall bring one better or the like thereof* ". (S2 V : 106).

107.Do you not know that to Allah belongs the kingdom[211] of the heavens and the earth and besides Allah you have no protector nor any helper?[212].

اَلَمْ تَعْلَمْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَهٗ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ؕ وَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مِنْ وَّلِيٍّ وَّ لَا نَصِيْرٍ ﴿۱۰۷﴾

211. It is the prerogative of Allah to upkeep whichever Law He Wants in His kingdom, to whatever extent and in whatever manner He so desires. When the laws of creation can continuously change e.g. changing of day and night, which brings about all types of changes, then laws of Shariah, too, can change which is there for mankind to ponder over.

212. 'None who can save' from the punishment of Allah. This does not include the Prophets and Saints of Allah because their help is in reality, Allah's help. Thus, by 'none' is meant the idols upon whom the idol worshippers were counting on for help. Says Allah Almighty "Only Allah is your friend and His Messenger and the believers that they establish the prayer" (S5 : V55). In the verses of this nature we learn that whoso wants to help against the wishes of Allah cannot do so by defying the authority of Allah. It should be remembered that "Friend other than Allah" are different to Friends of Allah. Hence, one should not forget the difference between these two groups.

108.Would you seek to question your Rasool (Muhammad) as Musa was questioned before?[213] And whoever exchanges faith for infidelity has certainly strayed from the Straight Path.[214]

اَمْ تُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ تَسْـَٔلُوْا رَسُوْلَكُمْ كَمَا سُئِلَ مُوْسٰى مِنْ قَبْلُ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّتَبَدَّلِ الْكُفْرَ بِالْاِيْمَانِ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ سَوَآءَ السَّبِيْلِ ﴿۱۰۸﴾

213. The Yahud had come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم asking the Messenger of Allah to let the entire QUR'AAN , be revealed at once. In reply to them Allah's Messenger had said your request is just as meaningless as when your forefathers had asked Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. to let them behold Allah Almighty. From this two issues emerge:

1. Questions bedevilled with mischief are prohibited.
2. To direct meaningless questions at the pious people is an act of showing disrespect to them. The correct thing is to speak less but act more. People who talk too much are usually bereft of action.

214. Irrelevant and mischievous questions are a sinful act, as was the case with the Yahud who had asked similar types of questions to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in respect of immediate revelation of the entire QUR'AAN and Hazrat Musa too, was asked to make it possible for them to behold Allah Almighty. Such types of questions are not only meaningless, but to raise them is totally prohibited.

109.Many of the people of the Book (Scripture) wished they could turn you back to disbelief after you have believed , on account of envy[215] from themselves (even) after the truth has become manifest to them. So pardon them and overlook them until Allah delivers His Command[216] Surely, Allah has power over everything.

215. From this verse we learn that envy is a disease which can destroy one's faith. The devil was destroyed because of envy. May Allah protect us from envy. On the occasion of the Battle of Uhud, the Yahud began to taunt the Muslims that had they been on the path of Truth they would not have lost this war. In reply to the Jewish mischief, this verse was revealed.

216. Fom this verse one learns that the decree of pardoning has been abrogated from the verses in respect of Jihad (Holy War). All such verses have one decree that these verses are abrogated from verses concerning Jihad.

وَ اَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَ اٰتُوا الزَّكٰوةَ ۭ وَمَا

110.And establish Prayer and pay Zakaat[217] and whatever good you send forward for yourselves you will find it with Allah [218]. Indeed, Allah is seeing over what you do[219].

217. This verse hints that Salaah is greater than Zakaat because it precedes Zakaat in this verse. All laws of Shariah were revealed on earth but Salaah was presented to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in the heaven on the occasion of Me'raj (the Night of Ascension) Salaah is indeed Allah's cherished gift for man.

218. This verse suggests that on the Day of Judgement you will either receive the reward of these good acts, or acts equal to these. In the Hadith it is mentioned that on the Day of Judgment all good deeds will appear in a beauteous manner in front of their doers.

219. This verse hints that only those good deeds will be rewarded which were done during one's lifetime. After death certain servants of Allah are engaged in remembrance of Allah (Zikrullah) and the recitation of the QUR`AAN, but there is no reward attached to these good deeds. However, the reward of Sadqa-e-Jariyah e.g. building of a Mosque or Madressa, etc will continue to accrue to the person even after his death because such deeds were accomplished by the person during his lifetime. The benefits of such deeds are eternal. This helps to solve the question of conveying the reward of virtuous deed to souls of the deceased. Although the pious people are engaged in the remembrance of Allah in their grave, but those living people who are engaged in the remembrance of Allah for which they receive reward, can convey this to the souls of the deceased.

111. And the people of the Scripture said: "None will enter Paradise except one who is a Jew or a Christian[220]". This is (merely) their wishful thinking221. Please declare (O Muhammad) to them:

"Bring forth your proof if you are truthful"[222].

220.The Yahud of Madina would boastfully tell the Muslims that only the Yahud will enter Paradise while the Nasara would say that only they will enter Paradise. This claim of theirs was their attempt to mislead the Muslims from the path of Islam. In refutation of their claim, Allah revealed this verse which states that this idle claim of theirs is their opinion which is bereft of any proof from the Old Testament (Tauraat) or the New Testament (Injeel).

221. From this verse one learns that redemption is not dependent on ancestory or geneology. Likewise to regard anyone on the path of guidance without any concrete evidence is the practice of the infidels.

222. Furthermore, those who claim to negate any affirmation too, have to produce evidence in support of such a claim. Any claim without proof is invalid be it regarding negation or affirmation. In Kalimah Tayyibah there is a claim of both negation of all deities and affirmation of Allah the only deity and both claims are supported by concrete proof. Thus those who claim that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not possess the knowledge of the unseen must produce concrete evidence in support of their claim.

112.Yes, why not! Whoever submits himself to Allah while being a doer of good [223] will have his reward with his Lord and they shall have nothing to fear nor shall they grieve [224].

بَلٰى ۚ مَنْ اَسْلَمَ وَجْهَهٗ لِلّٰهِ وَ هُوَ

223. From this verse one understands that good deeds will not be accepted before one accepts Islam. Once the roots are destroyed it is useless watering the branches. Islam is the root, and good deeds are the water.

224. From this verse a few issues emerge:

1. All those people of correct beliefs whose good deeds are practised sincerely are the true friends of Allah. Such is said about the Friends of Allah or the Saints of Allah and similar is the reference in this verse regarding people of correct beliefs.
2. The word 'doer of good' intimates that guidance now is dependent on acceptance of Islam only. Says Allah Almighty "And whom so will desire for a religion other than Islam". (S 3 : V 85) "Verily only Islam is the Religion before (acceptable to) Allah". (S3 : V19) If one could have benefited by following any other religion the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would not have propagated and invited people towards Islam. Instead he would preach that everybody should remain firm on his own religion and do good deeds. But this was not so. Hence it is absolutely necessary to accept Islam before one's good deeds can be accepted.

113.The Yahud said: "The Nasara have nothing (true) to stand on". And the Nasara said: "The Yahud have nothing to stand [225] on although they recite the Scripture" [226]. Thus, the illiterate speak the same words as them.

contradiction.

227. It should be remembered that Allah sent down punishment upon the Nasara and then the Yahud for rejecting one another's Prophets. However, by accepting all the Prophets of Allah, the Muslims by virtue of their faith are refuting the beliefs of the Nasara and the Yahud. Hence there is a world of difference between the former and the latter, thereby removing the presence of any contradiction in the verse.

وَ مَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ مَّنَعَ مَسٰجِدَ اللّٰهِ اَنْ يُّذْكَرَ فِيْهَا اسْمُهٗ وَسَعٰى فِيْ خَرَابِهَا ؕ اُولٰٓئِكَ مَا كَانَ لَهُمْ اَنْ يَّدْخُلُوْهَآ اِلَّا خَآئِفِيْنَ ؕ لَهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا خِزْيٌ وَّلَهُمْ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿١١٤﴾

225.On one occassion the Nasara of Najraan and the Yahud of Madina heatedly debated in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم each claiming that his religion was superior to the other. In response to this, Allah revealed this verse.

226. Although the Yahud read the Tauraat and the Nasara read the Injeel both of which affirm the truth about Musa عليه السلام . and Isa عليه السلام respectively, yet both reject the veracity of one another. In this verse Allah is repudiating their 114.And who is more unjust than him who prevents the Name of Allah[228] to be mentioned in His mosques and strive towards their destruction [229]. It is not for them to enter the mosques [230] except in fear. For them in this world is disgrace and they will have severe punishment in the Hereafter [231].

228. This verse explains that it is unlawful to keep the mosque under lock and key at the time of Salaah, or deny any Muslim use of the Mosque for Salaah. However, infidels can be stopped from coming to the mosque as said by Allah Almighty: "The idolators are altogether unclean, then let them not approach the Sacred Mosque" (S 9: V 28). Similarly, even a Muslim can be denied the use of the Mosque on the grounds of any religious constraint e.g. a person in the state of janabat (impure due to sexual intercourse) a person from whose mouth a foul odour is emanating, a person whose mouth smells of garlic, onions or hookah. To keep such people away from the Mosque is like keeping dirt out of the Mosque.

229. From this verse one learns that it is not permissible to construct a new mosque near an existing one to depopulate the former. This is included in the desolation of a Mosque.

230. This verse was revealed regarding those idolators who were preventing the Muslims from offering their Salaah in the Holy Ka'bah. The occasion of its revelation is also connected with the Treaty of Hudaibiya.

231.From this verse a few benefits have been derived:

1. Every prophecy of the QUR'AAN is true as its informer has been Allah Almighty.e.g. The Holy QUR'AAN foretold that soon a time will come when the infidels themselves, would not be able to enter the Holy Mosque of Makkah out of fear, and the same took place.

2. Those who prevent the use of the Mosque for recitation of Na'at (poems sung in praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Khatmul QUR'AAN holding Meelad gatherings etc. fall under the above fearsome decree; as those activities constitute remembrance of Allah, provided they do not violate any congregational rites.

3. Lighting, plating, sweeping are activities necessary for the maintenance of the Mosque.

115.And to Allah belongs the East and the West [232]. So, wherever you might turn there is the presence of Allah. Verily, Allah is All-Embracing, All-Knowing [233].

وَلِلّٰهِ الْمَشْرِقُ وَالْمَغْرِبُ ۚ فَاَيْنَمَا تُوَلُّوْا فَثَمَّ وَجْهُ اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَاسِعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

232. Once a party of the beloved Companions travelling at night had to perform their Esha Prayers. As it was dark they could not establish the direction of the Qibla and thus faced towards the direction of their thinking. Later, when they mentioned this incident to the Holy Prophet, Allah revealed this verse in which Muslims are instructed that whenever Muslims are in doubt about the true direction of the Qibla they should face the direction which they think is the Qibla as this is acceptable to Allah. This verse also relates to the Nafl Prayers offered by travellers in the conveyances (Vide Khazain, etc).

233. This verse is abrogated from the following verse: "Turn your faces (Oh Muslims) towards the same wherever you be" (S 2 : V 150). When a traveller performs his Nafl prayers in the conveyance or when a person in a state of fear, offers his prayers then this verse will be followed.

116.And they (Nasara) said: "Allah has taken unto Him a son". Rather, exalted is He. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. All are devoutly obedient to Him [234].

234. It should be remembered that the son cannot be the property of his father, he will always be a free person. This becomes clear by the use of 'bal'. Thus, everything between the heavens and the earth belongs to Allah and as such cannot be regarded as His children.

117.The Originator of the heavens and the earth. And when He commands anything to happen He only says to it: "Be" and it comes into being [235].

235. This verse refers to the supreme power of Allah, while verses like "in seven days" (S7:V54) and "Creates you from a sperm" (S 76: V2) mention divine decrees. In essence there is no contradiction in these verses, i.e. they too expound the inexorable power of Allah. Although He can bring anything into existence by mere 'Be' but the law of nature is that the child is created from the sperm which then develops into a clot and then into flesh. The word 'command' denotes world of commands like souls etc. which all came into being through the command 'Be'. "Say, the spirit is a thing by the 'command' of My Lord" (S17:V 85) while this is the world of matter. Verses relating to this world are those mentioned above.

infidelity.However, when Hazrat Musa عليه السلام. beseeched the Lord saying "Oh my Lord, show me Your sight." (S 7 : V 143) it reflects Hazrat Musa's عليه السلام state of extreme love.

236. For ordinary mortals to desire direct communication with Allah or to see Him with the naked eye is an act of infidelity but when the same desire is based on love and devotion for Allah it becomes faith personified. The motive of the infidels was that they would not pay heed to the teachings of the Prophets but that Allah should communicate directly with them as can be seen when they approached Hazrat Musa عليه السلام Saying "We will not bring faith without seeing Allah" (S2 :V 55) This desire of theirs was sufficient for their be ascertained by Allah. But regarding our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم not even a non-believer will be able to say that there was any shortcomings in his efforts in respect of conveying the Message of Allah. This verse refers to the investigations regarding the case on the Day of Judgement. "Our Messenger a witness over yourselves. (S 2: V143) This verse could also mean that Oh my Beloved, You will not be questioned regarding the non-belief of those who would be sent into Hell.

238. The word 'bearer of glad tidings' refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a giver of glad tidings about Paradise and a warner about Hell. In this verse 'giver of news' is not connected with verification or to affirm action but with 'warner'. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not come to convey news about any Prophet but to verify their authenticity as he is the final Prophet of Allah.

239. The followers of other Prophets will be inclined to reject their propagation which will

240. The meaning of this verse is that non believers will never be in agreement with the believers. Agreement can only be reached with them on two grounds:

1. Either they become believers.
2. Or (God forbid) we become non believers like themselves. Besides these two issues any other reason for reaching a common bond will be for their selfish motives which has been proven on numerous occasions.

241. It should be remembered that not having a friend and helper is a sign of Allah's punishment. Allah has appointed friends and helpers for the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah is your friend and His Messenger and the believers that they establish the prayer and pay the poor due and bow down before Allah" (S5 : V55)

242. From this verse we learn that only he will be from the people of the Book who has been blessed with the guidance of practising it and remaining steadfast upon it. Just to be called among the People of the Book while misusing and misreading it, is sheer hypocrisy and a meaningless claim of being from the Ahle Kitaab. One who reads the Book of Allah with sincerity and devotion is a true believer in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and hence only those who have brought Imaan in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are the true followers of these Books, while those who have rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are not the true followers of these Books.

122.O Children of Israel! Remember My favour [243] which I bestowed upon you and that I exalted [244] you over all the people of the (then) worlds.

يٰبَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ اذْكُرُوْا نِعْمَتِيَ الَّتِيْٓ اَنْعَمْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَ اَنِّيْ فَضَّلْتُكُمْ عَلَى الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۲﴾

243. From this verse emerge two issues:

1. To be among the descendants of a Prophet is a great honour and a source of receiving Divine blessings.
2. To discuss and publicize the bounties of Allah and to remember these is a way of showing gratitude to Allah. This in itself is a proof for holding Meelad gatherings.

244. In those days the Bani Israel were regarded more noble than any other human race, angels and other creation of Allah because they were from the descendants of Allah's Prophets. Many pious people were found among them. Only after rejecting the Prophethood of Allah's Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and rebelling against Allah's decrees, have they fallen into disgrace. From this we learn that true honour can only be obtained by accepting the servitude of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , while those who turn away from him will certainly be in the depths of degradation.

وَاتَّقُوْا يَوْمًا لَّا تَجْزِىْ نَفْسٌ عَنْ نَّفْسٍ شَيْـًٔا وَّ لَا يُقْبَلُ مِنْهَا عَدْلٌ وَّ لَا تَنْفَعُهَا شَفَاعَةٌ وَّ لَا هُمْ يُنْصَرُوْنَ ﴿١٢٣﴾

123.And fear [245] the day when no soul shall suffice for another soul [246] at all. And no compensation will be accepted to save it, nor will any intercession benefit an infidel nor will they be helped [247].

245. It should be remembered that whenever fire has been mentioned after Taqwa (piety), it denotes a means of prevention and safeguarding e.g. save us from fire, while if after it follows discussions of Qiyamah (Day of Judgement) or Remembrance of Allah it will mean awe and fear e.g.'Develop fear of Allah'. In this verse the word denotes fear of Allah because no one can save himself from Allah Almighty or the Day of Judgement.

246. In this verse the reference to first 'soul' is to show all living things while the second refers to the infidels i.e. no one will be a substitute for the infidels. Mention of believers has been made in other verses. All the chastisements mentioned are for the infidels.

247. All these things (chastisements) are for the non-believers, Muslims are in no way connected to these. They will be held as ransom for Muslims. Help and intercession will also be provided for the Muslims, a view which is supported by other verses e.g. Says Allah Almighty: "My righteous bondsmen will inherit this land" (S 21: V 105).

وَاِذِ ابْتَلٰٓى اِبْرٰهٖمَ رَبُّهٗ بِكَلِمٰتٍ فَاَتَمَّهُنَّ ؕ قَالَ اِنِّىْ جَاعِلُكَ لِلنَّاسِ اِمَامًا ؕ قَالَ وَ مِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِىْ ؕ قَالَ لَا يَنَالُ عَهْدِى الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿١٢٤﴾

124. And when His Lord tested Ebrahim with certain words [248], then he fulfilled them. He (Allah) said: "Surely, I will appoint you the leader[249] for all the people". He (Ebrahim) requested: "And of my offspring too?" He (Allah) said: "My promise does not include the unjust [250].

248. Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام . was given certain religious duties like clipping of moustache, gargling, using water in the nose, making miswaak, cutting the nails, cleaning of armpits and removing of pubic hair, circumcision, using water after relieving onself. All of these were incumbent upon Hazrat Ebrahimعليه السلام. Other forms of tests were the sacrifice of a son, leaving the child and wife in the wilderness without food or water, etc.

249. Here the word Imamat (leadership) does not mean Prophethood because he was already blessed with this honour, but the word is used to denote those special attributes conferred upon Hazrat Ebrahimعليه السلام . like being made Khaleelullah (Friend of Allah), Prophets coming from his lineage, fraternity with other religions, etc.

250. The word tyrant can be used to denote a sinner, an infidel and a miscreant. Here the word does definitely refer to the third mentioned. If the word covenant is taken to mean Prophethood, then tyrant will be understood to mean an infidel. From this verse one learns that to pray for one's children is the practice of the Prophets. Also, a Prophet cannot be a sinner, nor can a sinner be a Prophet. Futhermore, an infidel cannot be a religious head of the believers, nor is it permissible for Muslims to follow him. In fact, Hazrat Imam Hussain R.A. gave his life by opposing the sinful Yazid, but did not surrender to his demands.

125.And (recall) when We made the House (Ka'bah) a centre of peace[251] for the people and made the standing place [252] of Ebrahim a station for prayer. And We enjoined upon Ebrahim and Ismail: "Purify [253] My House for those who perform Tawaaf and those who are staying there for devotion, and those who bow down and prostrate (in prayer)"[254].

251. From this verse we learn that Muslims throughout the world turn towards the Ka'bahh for the fulfilment of all their religious obligations, they undertake its journey to perform their Hajj and Umrah, turn towards it when offering their prayers and duas, and are buried facing towards it. Not only are all forms of killings and plundering prohibited therein; it is also a sanctuary for a believer and a protection from Allah's punishment.

252.'Maqaam e Ebrahim' is that stone on which Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام . had stood to build the Ka'bahh and is to date found near the Ka'bah. By 'Station of prayer' is meant Nafl Salaah or Tawaaf should be offered in this sacred ground as is the practice of the pilgrims to this day. From this, one learns that any stone on which the blessed feet of a Prophet have fallen is sanctified. Furthermore even in Salaah respect and veneration of non-godly things is allowed as is the case with Maqaam-e Ebrahim. Thus, the veneration of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in Salaah will not nullify it, but instead will help to reach its excellence.

Also if a mere stone can gain sanctity through the touch of a Prophet, how great must be the status of the beloved wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم? This also serves as a proof for the sanctity of relics from Mazaars (Shrines).

253. From this verse one learns that the mosques should be kept clean and pure at all times. No filthy thing should be brought within its precincts. This has been the practice of the Prophets. Furthermore, it helps to expound that I'tikaaf is an act of worship and that the Salaah of the Previous Ummahs, too, included Ruku and Sajdah. In addition, it helps us to know that Mosques should have trustees consisting of pious people.

254. This verse is a clear instruction to maintain the Haram Shareef, pure and clean for those who offer their Salaah, sit for I'tikaaf, make Tawaaf. From this one learns that Salaah, Tawaaf, I'tikaaf are being performed since ancient times, even during the time of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام.

وَ اِذْ قَالَ اِبْرٰهٖمُ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ هٰذَا بَلَدًا اٰمِنًا وَّ ارْزُقْ اَهْلَهٗ مِنَ الثَّمَرٰتِ مَنْ اٰمَنَ مِنْهُمْ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ ؕ قَالَ وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَاُمَتِّعُهٗ قَلِيْلًا ثُمَّ اَضْطَرُّهٗٓ اِلٰى عَذَابِ النَّارِ ؕ وَبِئْسَ

126. And (recall) when Ebrahim requested: "O My Lord! Make this city a region of peace [255] and provide its residents with all kinds of fruits, whoever of them believes in Allah and the Last Day". He (Allah) said: "And whoever disbelieves, I will grant him [256] enjoyment for a while. Then I will force him to the punishment of the fire, and wretched

255. It should be remembered that offering dua for the acceptance of one's good deeds is the practice of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام. Hence, dua after Janaza Prayers and at the time of Iftaar (breaking one's fast) are commendable acts as acceptance of Allah is sought there through.

256. From this verse it is understood that sometimes Allah Almighty accepts the dua of His Prophets with modification. The previous duas were selectively accepted while this dua is accepted with modification. It does not mean that this dua was rejected in any way but modification, too, is accepted by Allah.

وَ اِذْ يَرْفَعُ اِبْرٰهٖمُ الْقَوَاعِدَ مِنَ الْبَيْتِ وَاِسْمٰعِيْلُ ؕ رَبَّنَا تَقَبَّلْ مِنَّا ؕ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ السَّمِيْعُ الْعَلِيْمُ ﴿١٢٧﴾

127.And (recall) when Ebrahim was raising the foundation [257] of this House (Ka'bah) and with him Ismail saying: "O our Lord! Accept (this) from us. Indeed you are the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing [258].

257. Some noble people employ pious Muslims for the construction of Mosques. These people do this noble work in a state of Wudu. This verse is a proof for it, as Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام completed the construction of the Ka'bah reciting this dua.

258. The reference to 'city' in this verse suggests that Makkah was a city and will always remain one. It will never be reduced to a village. Also, even if there is no growth, its people will always be fed. Furthermore, the true servants of Allah are a key to immediate results as they obey Allah and Allah in return answers their call.

رَبَّنَا وَ اجْعَلْنَا مُسْلِمَيْنِ لَكَ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِنَآ اُمَّةً مُّسْلِمَةً لَّكَ ۠ وَ اَرِنَا مَنَاسِكَنَا وَ تُبْ عَلَيْنَا ۚ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿١٢٨﴾

128.O our Lord! Make us submissive to Your will and raise from our descendants [259] a nation submissive to you, and teach us the method of your worship and relent to us with Your Mercy. Surely, you alone are Most Relenting, the Ever Merciful.

259.From this it is understood that all descendants of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not go astray as they are from the children of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام for whom the great Prophet had offered this accepted dua.

رَبَّنَا وَابْعَثْ فِيْهِمْ رَسُوْلًا مِّنْهُمْ يَتْلُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتِكَ وَ يُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَيُزَكِّيْهِمْ ؕ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ الْعَزِيْزُ الْحَكِيْمُ ﴿١٢٩﴾ ع ١٥ ٨ ١٥

129.O our Lord! And send among them a Messenger [260] from themselves and who will recite to them Your verses [261] and teach them the Scripture and wisdom [262] and purify them 263. Surely, You are the Most Exalted, the Wise.

260.This verse refers to Hazrat Ebrahim's عليه السلام dua in which he had prayed to Allah to bless the Ummah with the Final Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , thus the Holy Prophet

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the prophecy of Hazrat Isa عليه السلام.and the glad tidings of Hazrat Ebrahimعليه السلام.

261. It must be remembered that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was born in the class of believers. His forefathers too were all monotheistic believers - as a result of the dua which was made by Hazrat Ebrahimعليه السلام. Allah Almighty had protected his parents and his forefathers from idolatory, infidelity, adultery, etc. For a detailed discussion on this subject refer to Tafseer Naeemi.

262. Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام had offered many duas in respect of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم all of which were accepted by Allah to the letter. These included:

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be born in the class of believers, he should be born in Makkah, he should be a Messenger with a Book; besides the Book he should be blessed with wisdom, which is Hadith; the Holy Prophet should be a universal educator from whom all should learn while he himself should be taught by Allah alone; those who sit in his blessed company should be all pure believers not sinners and evil doers. From this discussion it can be seen that those who regard the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as sinners and evil doers are most certainly rejecting the above dua of Hazrat Ebrahimعليه السلام

263. How fortunate is that group who was purified in all respects by such an enlightened instructor صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . One also learns that the Holy Ka'bah is a place for the acceptance of dua.

SECTION 16

130.And who can turn away from the religion of Ebrahim except he who has made a fool of himself? And, verily, We have chosen him in this world and surely in the Hereafter (too) he will be among the righteous[264].

وَ مَنْ يَّرْغَبُ عَنْ مِّلَّةِ اِبْرٰهٖمَ اِلَّا مَنْ
سَفِهَ نَفْسَهٗ ؕ وَلَقَدِ اصْطَفَيْنٰهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا ۚ
وَ اِنَّهٗ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ لَمِنَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿۱۳۰﴾

264. This verse teaches us that the true Religion is that which was practiced by our illustrious predecessors, as they are cogent proof of guidance. Allah Almighty, too, cites the religion of Ebrahim عليه السلام as a proof of the authenticity of Islam. Furthermore, if we ourselves are not noble who should be in the company of pious persons i.e. when a trailer is attached to a motor it is transported, thread too is sold with the beads.

131.And (recall) when his Lord said to him: "Submit". He replied: "I have submitted to Him Who is the Lord of the Worlds".

اِذْ قَالَ لَهٗ رَبُّهٗۤ اَسْلِمْ ۙ قَالَ اَسْلَمْتُ
لِرَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۱۳۱﴾

132.And Ebrahim instructed his sons to do the same and (so did) Yaqub (saying): "O my sons! Indeed Allah has chosen for you the religion, so die not except as Muslims" [265].

وَوَصّٰى بِهَاۤ اِبْرٰهٖمُ بَنِيْهِ وَيَعْقُوْبُ ؕ

تَمُوْتُنَّ اِلَّا وَاَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۲﴾ ؕ

265. From this verse we learn that real success lies not merely in being a Muslim, but dying as lims refers to the followers of Religion of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام.

اَمْ كُنْتُمْ شُهَدَآءَ اِذْ حَضَرَ يَعْقُوْبَ
الْمَوْتُ ۙ اِذْ قَالَ لِبَنِيْهِ مَا تَعْبُدُوْنَ

وَّاحِدًا ۚ وَّ نَحْنُ لَهٗ مُسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۳﴾

and without faith it is worthless of being even an offspring or son of a Prophet.

267. This verse explains that true Lord is He who is the Lord of these Prophets as they were the proof of the Divine Knowledge of God Almighty. Likewise, the true religion is that which was practised by the pious sages, and the True Lord is He in whom the Prophets and saints had believed.

تِلْكَ اُمَّةٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ ۚ لَهَا مَا كَسَبَتْ

you have earned through your deeds will help, not your ancestry. Also, bodily worships cannot be performed on behalf of another person as is evident from the word 'what they have earned.' As far as monetary worship is concerned it is permissible to deputize another to do these on your behalf, and that the reward of good deeds can be conveyed to the souls of those whom you may wish.

وَ قَالُوْا كُوْنُوْا هُوْدًا اَوْ نَصٰرٰى
تَهْتَدُوْا ؕ قُلْ بَلْ مِلَّةَ اِبْرٰهٖمَ حَنِيْفًا ؕ وَ مَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿۱۳۵﴾

one. May Allah grant us Faith at the time of our death, Ameen. In this verse the word Musl-

133.Well, were you present when death came to Yaqub [266], when he asked his sons: "Whom will you worship after me?" They said: "We will worship only Him Who is worthy of your worship and the worship of your forefathers Ebrahim, Ismail and Is'haaq. The only One God [267] and to Him do we submit"

266. The Yahud would boastfully say that Hazrat Yaqub عليه السلام had counselled his sons to remain firm on Judaism. Allah revealed this verse to discredit this claim of theirs. The will of Hazrat Yaqub عليه السلام throws light on several issues: the safety of his children is the most important act of a father; that religion is the most important entity in one's life, therefore Hazrat Yaqub advised his sons to remain firm on it;

134.That was a nation that has passed on, they will have what they have earned and you will have what you have earned and you will not be questioned for their deeds [268].

268. Whenever the Yahud would become powerless of providing any proofs in support of their beliefs they would eventually resort to saying even if their beliefs and actions may be wrong they will be redeemed by the pious deeds of their ancestors like Hazrat Yaqub This verse was revealed to disprove this claim of theirs (Vide Tafseer Roohul-Bayaan). From this we learn that in the Hereafter what 135.And they (people of the Book) say: "Be Yahud or Nasara, so you will be guided". Please declare (O Muhammad): "Rather we follow the religion of Ebrahim, inclining towards truth [269] and he was not of the polytheists"[270].

269. Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام was a true believer. A religion of pristine purity is that which is free from any form of mixture of another religion. Such was the religion of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام pure and unadulterated Just as one would appreciate pure milk or genuine gold, so is the honour given to faith in its pure form. A pure and staunch Sunni is he who is free of any beliefs of Wahabi, Rafzi, Khawarij, etc. May Allah bless us with such a type of Faith. Ameen.

270. In this verse is a refutation of both, the Nasara and the Yahud because although they would claim to be on the Path of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام yet by practice they were idol-worshippers. Allah says an Ebrahim is he who follows the path of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام and without doubt Ebrahim عليه السلام was not an idolator.

Since you are idol worshippers how can you claim to be his followers. Two issues emerge from this:

1. Allah has blessed Hazrat Ebrahim with such widespread popularity that a follower of every religion was proud to be associated with him.

2. It is not enough to be children of noble parentage, one's deeds should be like theirs too. Furthermore, differences in opinions should be dispelled by turning towards those pious personages whose guidelines are acceptable to both parties e.g. turning to the Companions and the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم when faced with juristic differences. Another point taken from this verse is that in order to show the greatness of the religion it is important to show the greatness of the founder of the religion. Almighty Allah threw light on the greatness of Ebrahim's عليه السلام religion through describing the greatness of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام The holding of Meelad gatherings is based on this same principle.

136. Say (O Muslims): "We have believed in Allah and what has been revealed to us and what has been revealed to Ebrahim, Ismail, Is'haaq[271], Yaqub and the descendants [272] and what has been bestowed upon Musa and Isa and what has been bestowed to the rest of the Prophets [273] from their Lord. We make no distinction (in faith) [274] between any of them and we have submitted to Him".

271. Hazrat Is'haaq عليه السلام and Hazrat Yaqub عليه السلام were not given new Sahifas (Scrolls), but they were preaching the SAHIFA revealed to Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام, hence in the verse the word 'has been revealed' is not used separately by them.

272. Some Ulema use this verse as a proof for regarding that all the children of Hazrat Yaqub عليه السلام were Prophets including the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf عليه السلام as his entire lineage has been included herein by Allah Almighty.

273. From this we should remember to believe in all the Prophets of Allah without specifying an exact number to the Prophets, for this (exact number) has not been conclusively proven from any definite source. We also learn that there is a difference in status between individual Prophets, but there is no difference in Prophethood.

274. We do not possess the right to distinguish one Prophet from the other. Our duty is to believe in all the Prophets without rejecting any one of them. However, we should accept whatever distinction Allah has made between His Prophets. From this verse two issues emerge:

1. All the Prophets are equal in respect of Prophethood, none is counterfeit or transitory, all are genuine and authentic.

QUR'AAN in respect of Muslims, states that

2. It is Fard (obligatory) to believe in all the Prophets To reject even one is an act of Kufr (infidelity). However there is a difference in status between them, some enjoy a higher rank than others.

فَاِنْ اٰمَنُوْا بِمِثْلِ مَآ اٰمَنْتُمْ بِهٖ فَقَدِ اهْتَدَوْا ۚ وَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَاِنَّمَا هُمْ فِيْ شِقَاقٍ ۚ فَسَيَكْفِيْكَهُمُ اللّٰهُ ۚ وَهُوَ السَّمِيْعُ الْعَلِيْمُ ۝١٣٧

137.So if they, too, believe in the same as you believe in [275], then they have been (rightly) guided, but if they turn away, then they are merely in dissension, and (O My Beloved) Allah will be sufficient [276] for you against them and surely Allah is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing [277].

275. From this verse we learn that a true believer is he whose beliefs are similar to those of the companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Those whose beliefs are contrary to the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, they are bereft of Faith and are gone astray because these beloved Companions are indeed the cornerstone of faith.

276. From this it becomes clear that it is impossible to accept all issues which are connected with faith, rejecting one is equivalent to rejecting all. Note: When Hazrat Uthman bin Affan (on whom be peace) was martyred by the dissident Egyptians, they first struck him on his hands while he was engaged in the recitation of the QUR'AAN. Blood fell in this very verse "Allah will be sufficient for you against them". While the great Caliph was cleaning the QUR'AAN he was continuously saying "I swear on the Name of Allah - it is this hand that first wrote the QUR'AAN" For a long while people had the privilege of seeing this QUR'AAN on which the blood stains were still present.

277. In this verse is a prophecy of the unseen - that although the Muslims at that stage were fewer in number and hopelessly ill-equipped in comparison to the infidels, the eventual victory will be theirs. With the help and grace of Allah this is exactly what had happened. Some Yahud of Madina were killed, some were banished. If Muslims remain true to Allah and His Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم even until the Day of Judgement, Muslims in lesser number will be able to defeat the infidels who might boast of superior might. It is the Promise of Allah Almighty: Who says: "And you are the very same who shall overcome if you have faith". (S 3 : V 139).

138.We take on the colour (Islamic piety) [278] of Allah and whose colour is better than the colour of Allah? We worship Him alone.

278.Nasara anoint their children as well as the new converts with their holy water, as is the case of Hindus at their festival of Holi. The they do not require to be anointed by such water, their very hearts and lives are deeply hued in the very colours of Islam.

Marfat.com

قُلْ اَتُحَآجُّوْنَنَا فِي اللّٰهِ وَهُوَ رَبُّنَا وَ
رَبُّكُمْ ۚ وَلَنَآ اَعْمَالُنَا وَلَكُمْ اَعْمَالُكُمْ ۚ
وَنَحْنُ لَهٗ مُخْلِصُوْنَ ۙ﴿۱۳۹﴾

139.Please declare (O Muhammad): "Do you dispute [279] with us concerning Allah, while He is our Lord and your Lord? For us are our deeds and for you are your deeds. And we are sincere (in deed and intention) to Him alone"[280].

279. The Yahud were continuously wagging their tongues that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was the true Prophet he would have been from the Bani Israel (the children of Israel). To silence them, this verse was revealed. From this it can be observed that raising argument regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to arguing about Allah.

280. By totally belonging to Allah really means total loyalty to His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم He who is loyal to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed loyal to Allah. Allah Almighty says: "Whoso obeys the Messenger has indeed obeyed Allah" (S4:V80) This loyalty to Allah cannot be achieved without being loyal to His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as is the view of the present day Wahabis (A Wahabi is one who accepts the views of Abdul Wahab of Najd in matters of religion, views which have been condemned by Ulema of Arabia and Indo-Pak)

وَاِسْحٰقَ وَ يَعْقُوْبَ وَالْاَسْبَاطَ كَانُوْا هُوْدًا
اَوْ نَصٰرٰى ؕ قُلْ ءَاَنْتُمْ اَعْلَمُ اَمِ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَ
مَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ كَتَمَ شَهَادَةً عِنْدَهٗ مِنَ
اللّٰهِ ؕ وَمَا اللّٰهُ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۴۰﴾

140.Or, do you say [281] that Ebrahim and Ismail and Is'haaq and Yaqub and the descendants were Yahud or Nasara? Please declare (O Muhammad): "Are you more knowing [282] or is Allah, and who is more unjust than one who conceals[283] a testimony he has from Allah? And Allah is not unmindful of what you do.

281. The Yahud claimed that Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام was a Jew, the Nasara claimed that he was Nasara. This verse was revealed to refute their claims, that Christianity and Judaism came after Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام so how could he be from any one of them?

282. From this one learns: to dispel erroneous beliefs from the enemies of the Prophets and to support the Prophets is the practice of Allah, while accusing the Prophets is the practice of infidels. He who accuses the Holy Prophets and finds faults in them is certainly acting on the teachings of the devil, while those who work in support of them are following the teachings of Allah, the Merciful.

283. To conceal testimony concerning religious principles is infidelity as was the practice of the Yahud. Similarly, to conceal testimony and news about acts of worship is also forbidden e.g. concealing news about sighting of the moon of Ramadaan. However, it is better to conceal some testimonies which can prove beneficial to the Muslim cause - but concealing a testimony which encroaches rights of any Muslims - is also regarded as Haraam. Under this the first category is concerning the Yahud who although they had testimony of the Holy Prophet's Prophethood in the Tauraat, they wilfully concealed and changed this. For this reason they are referred to as unjust tyrants. This categorically explains that Muslims should openly propagate their creed. When the Muazzin openly declares:
"I bear witness that Hazrat Muhammed صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Messenger of Allah", how can this be regarded as objectionable.

141.That is a nation which has passed on. They will have what they have earned [284] and you will have what you have earned and you will not be questioned for their deeds.

284. In this verse Allah tells the infidels that because you have rejected faith you will not benefit from the pious deeds of these Prophets similarly as your infidelilty was not in accordance with their teachings, it too will not harm them in any way. It should be remembered that the pious deeds of our illustrious predecessors will benefit us sinful Muslims. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had offered sacrifice on behalf of his Ummah. Furthermore, whosoever is responsible for making anyone an infidel or idol worshipper he will have to bear this sin. In the light of this discussion, the meaning of this verse is crystal clear.

سَيَقُولُ السُّفَهَآءُ مِنَ النَّاسِ مَا وَلَّىٰهُمْ عَن قِبْلَتِهِمُ الَّتِي كَانُوا عَلَيْهَا ۚ قُل لِّلَّهِ الْمَشْرِقُ وَالْمَغْرِبُ ۚ يَهْدِي مَن يَشَآءُ إِلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿١٤٢﴾

142.The foolish [285] among the people will say [286]: "What has turned them (Muslims) away from their Qibla [287] which they used to face?" Please declare (O Muhammad): "To Allah belongs [288] the east and the west, He guides whom He wills to the Straight Path".

285. This verse is revealed regarding the Yahud, or the idolators or the hypocrites all of whom were wagging their tongues, about the change of Qibla by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because they were not inclined to accept this change. The previous revealed Books had mentioned the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as the Prophet of two Qiblas, hence this change in Qiblas actually serves as a proof of his Prophethood. But the malicious Yahud in conjunction with the idolators tried to belie the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

286. It should be remembered that at all times pilgrimage was performed at the Holy Ka'bah, never at Baitul Muqaddas in Jerusalem. From the time of Adam عليه السلام up to Musa عليه السلام the Ka`bah was the Qibla (direction), while from Musa عليه السلام to Isa عليه السلام it had changed to Baitul Muqaddas. During the early history of Islam, Jerusalem was still the Qibla. Then one year and five and a half months after Hijra the command to change the Qibla came in the Zohr Salaah in Masjid Qiblatain on the 25th day of Ramadaan 2AH. Allah Almighty has in this verse expressed the objections and its reply i.e. to make both the objection and the objectors look foolish.

287. The Yahud objected to the Muslims changing their direction from Jerusalem to the Ka'bah in Makkah. From this we learn that any person who raises unnecessary objections without understanding the wisdom behind it, is really a fool, even though he may be very cunning in worldly matters.

288. The Muslim reply to this objection was we do not worship East or West, to remain stub-born in facing any directions. We worship Allah and face any direction in Salaah commanded by Him.

وَ كَذٰلِكَ جَعَلْنٰكُمْ اُمَّةً وَّسَطًا لِّتَكُوْنُوْا
شُهَدَآءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَ يَكُوْنَ الرَّسُوْلُ
عَلَيْكُمْ شَهِيْدًا ؕ وَ مَا جَعَلْنَا الْقِبْلَةَ الَّتِىْ
كُنْتَ عَلَيْهَآ اِلَّا لِنَعْلَمَ مَنْ يَّتَّبِعُ
الرَّسُوْلَ مِمَّنْ يَّنْقَلِبُ عَلٰى عَقِبَيْهِ ؕ وَ
اِنْ كَانَتْ لَكَبِيْرَةً اِلَّا عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ هَدَى

143.And thus We made you an exalted [289] community among all the nations that you may be a witness [290] over the people and the Rasool (Messenger) will be a witness over you [291]. And (O Beloved) We did not make the Qibla, which you used to face (Baitul Muqaddas) but that We might make evident who would follow the Rasool from who would turn back on his heels. And, surely, it is difficult, except for those whom Allah has guided [292], and never would Allah cause you to lose your faith [293]. Surely, Allah is to the people, Most Kind and Merciful [294].

289. The Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in relation to time is the last Ummah. But in relation to status is central i.e. superior to other Ummahs, just as the pivotal point is in a circle, an axle is in a wheel, the sun among the stars, a floral design in a necklace or the Mehrab in a Mosque. In addition, Islam is not rigid like the religions of Hazrat Musa عليه السلام nor easy going like Christianity, it follows the middle path.

290. From this discussion numerous issues emerge:

1. Whom the Muslims regard as a saint is indeed a saint.

2. Whatever act the Muslims regard (as permissble and good, it is permissble e.g. the Meelad gatherings is a commendable act as Muslims are steadfast upon it.

3. The conformity of Muslims is a proof of validity in any religious matters;

4 The rule of the Righteous Caliphs is correct as Muslims have accepted its validity and are unanimous in respect of it.

291. On the Day of Judgement the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will testify about the piety and godliness of his Ummah, as they are worthy of testimony, and not about the sinners. For this reason 'upon you' is used in this verse. In addition, this testimony of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. will not be merely hearing, because the believers have already testified about what they have heard. This means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . had seen the state of affairs of all the Prophets and is an eye witness over the deeds of his followers, be they open or hidden. We also learn that the noble Companions are all inmates of Paradise because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself has given glad tidings of this. It should also be borne in mind that on the Day of Judgement when the followers of other Prophets reject the propagation of these Prophets, it is the Muslims who will testify in favour of these Prophets and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will verify the testimony of his followers. From this we learn that the investigations and inquiries of a trial or law suit is no proof for the ignorance of the judge because Allah on the Day of Judgement will only pass judgement after all investigation. From this discussion numerous issues are deduced:

1. Under certain circumstances one can testify from what one has heard as the followers of the Holy Prophet will only testify about what they have heard from the Messenger of Allah.

2.The word "Alaikum" means an eye witness as well as informed custodian. Says Almighty Allah "Undoubtedly everything is before Allah" Hence, both these meanings of the translator are appropriate in respect of this word in the verse.

292. With the change of Qibla several people with weak faith turned away from Islam, which gave the hypocrites chance to wag their tongues about Islam. But those whose faith was strong remained steadfast and resolute. The QUR'AAN , makes mention of these resolute believers in this verse.

293. Here, the word FAITH refers to those believers who had died before the change of the Qibla. All their prayers Salaah as well as their Salaah offered facing Jerusalem are all accepted by Allah. Hence, the word IMAAN is used to indicate this.

294. The illustrious Companions enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about the Salaah of those Companions who had passed away prior to the changing of he Qibla as well as their Salaah offered before this event. In reply, this verse was revealed in which they were told that their Salaah will be rewarded by Allah.

144.Surely, We have observed you turning [295] your face (O Muhammad) towards heaven repeatedly[296], and We will surely turn you to a Qibla with which you will be pleased [297]. So, turn [298] your face towards the Sacred Mosque (Ka'bah) at once, and wherever you (believers) are, turn 299 your face towards it. Those who were given the Scripture, surely, know that it is the truth [300] from their Lord and Allah is not unmindful of their deeds.

295. It was the desire of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that the Holy Ka'bah becomes the new Qibla of the Muslims. Once, while in Salaah the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم looked skywards instead of towards the earth eagerly awaiting the revelation for the changing of the Qibla. At this stage he was given the glimpse of the forthcoming change. This verse suggests that the change of Qibla was the expressed wish of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم If Allah can make the Holy Ka'bah as Qibla to fulfil the Holy Prophet's desire it is certain that Allah will not reject the forgiveness of sinners like us as desired by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

296. In this verse Allah is joyously telling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that he had approved the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم loving gaze skywards in Salaah. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gaze skywards while in Salaah in anticipation of revelation was not a Makrooh act for him, but we certainly cannot do this while in Salaah.

297. From this it can be seen that the Ka'bah itself was dependent on the Mercy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to be made the Qibla. Thus, if the Ka'bah is dependent than the entire creation is dependent on the Messenger of Allah to receive Divine Mercy. Furthermore, we learn that while the entire creation seeks Allah's Pleasure, Almighty Himself is even ready to please the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as Allah Almighty says: "And undoubtedly soon your Lord will give you so much that you shall be satisfied". (S93:V5).

298. The command was to change to the directions of the Ka'bah immediatley while in Salaah.

299. From this it is understood that to face the Ka'bah when offering Salaah is FARD (compulsory), but for those who are away from Makkah, to face the direction of the Ka'bah is sufficient. However, it is compulsory for the residents of Makkah to face the Ka'bah as expounded by the word 'towards it.'

300. The Yahud from their Religious Scriptures knew deep down in their hearts that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was the leader of both directions, Jerusalem as well as Makkah, but on the surface they were believing this fact. Thus, the changing of Qibla is indeed an excellent proof of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Prophethood.

وَلَئِنْ اَتَيْتَ الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوا الْكِتٰبَ بِكُلِّ اٰيَةٍ
مَّا تَبِعُوْا قِبْلَتَكَ ۚ وَمَآ اَنْتَ بِتَابِعٍ قِبْلَتَهُمْ ۚ
وَمَا بَعْضُهُمْ بِتَابِعٍ قِبْلَةَ بَعْضٍ ۭ وَلَئِنِ
اتَّبَعْتَ اَهْوَآءَهُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا جَاۗءَكَ مِنَ
الْعِلْمِ ۙ اِنَّكَ اِذًا لَّمِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ۝۱۴۵

145.And if you were to bring to the people of the Scripture [301] every sign, they would not follow [302] your Qibla, nor should you follow their Qibla [303], nor would they be followers of each other's Qibla [304]. (O listeners) If you were to follow their desires, after the knowledge of the truth has come to you, then indeed you would then be among the transgressors [305].

301. This verse explains that the people of the Book were cut off from belief as they harboured envy in their hearts for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم This tells us that anyone whose heart is full of envy for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is bereft of guidance. Such a person will neither benefit from the Holy QUR'AAN, miracles of the Prophets, nor from any intellectual or assumed proofs.

302. This verse is from the Ayaate-Mohkamat-fundamently irrevocable verses in which Allah stresses that the direction towards the Ka'bah is now permanent i.e. you will not be asked to face Jerusalem. Like this is an irrevocable verse, the command, too, is likewise and will not be abrogated.

303. Both the Nasara and the Yahud accept Jerusalem as their Qibla, but while the Yahud accept the Western side, the Nasara accept its Eastern side where Hazrat Mariam had been in the state of pregnancy.

304. By this verse is meant that both the Nasara and the Yahud disagree about their Qibla and as such do not turn towards it.

305. From this verse we learn the transgression of the learned is worse than that of an ignorant person. Likewise it is absolutely disastrous for the learned to curry favour with the ignorant or be controlled by them. Knowledge is the key factor here and knowledge is above everything else.

اَلَّذِيْنَ اٰتَيْنٰهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ يَعْرِفُوْنَهٗ كَمَا
يَعْرِفُوْنَ اَبْنَآءَهُمْ ۭ وَاِنَّ فَرِيْقًا مِّنْهُمْ
لَيَكْتُمُوْنَ الْحَقَّ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝۱۴۶

146. Those to whom We gave the Scripture recognize him (Nabi Muhammad) as they recognize their own sons [306]. And, certainly, a group of them knowingly concealed [307] the truth.

Marfat.com

306. Faith is not in the knowing of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but to believe in him. To know and to believe are poles apart. In this verse the recognition of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is compared with the father's recognition of the son although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is like a father. There are two reasons for this comparison.

1. The father recognizes his son from concrete proofs while the son accepts the father by word of mouth.
2. The father has knowledge about his son before his birth while the son recognises the father only after reaching the age of discretion. These infidels knew about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم before his blessed birth through their religious scriptures.

307. There were two groups of Jewish religious scholars, one was envious of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and out of this envy would try to conceal his beautiful attributes from the people, while the second group brought faith in him like Hazrat Abdullah bin Salaam, Hazrat Ka'b Ahbaar, etc. From this one can understand that the sin of a learned person is more despicable than common people.

147.(O listener) This is the truth[308] from your Lord. So beware! Never be among those who are doubtful.

اَلْحَقُّ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ فَلَا تَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْمُمْتَرِيْنَ ﴿١٤٧﴾ ع ١٧ ١

308. The word Al-Haq 'The truth' in the verse refers to the Holy QUR'AAN the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the changing of Qibla or the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself because his eating, drinking, walking, talking, sleeping, etc. are all inspired by Allah and as such manifestations of truth. All actions of the Holy Prophet are صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are free of any blemish. The Messenger of Allah says: "Write every word I say because only Truth will emerge from it"

SECTION 18

148.For every person there is a direction [309] to which he faces, so strive to surpass [310] others in doing good deeds. Wherever you may be, Allah will bring you forth altogether[311]. Verily, Allah has power over everything.

وَ لِكُلٍّ وِّجْهَةٌ هُوَ مُوَلِّيْهَا فَاسْتَبِقُوا الْخَيْرٰتِ ؕ اَيْنَ مَا تَكُوْنُوْا يَاْتِ بِكُمُ اللّٰهُ جَمِيْعًا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَیْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿١٤٨﴾

309. By this it is meant that the Qibla of the body is the Ka'bah. The Qibla of the heart is the The Holy Prophet, صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the Qibla of the carnal life is the devil. The entire world and its people have direction towards which they turn when engaged in worship.

310. From the word "strive to surpass" we learn that it is permissable to surpass one another in religious deeds. The desire to amass virtues is commendable but greed in material matters is contemptuous religious issue. If anyone sitting in the first row in the mosque offers his place to a latecomer out of respect and religious obligation, it is permissible, but if it is done out of any other considertion, it will be a baseless act.

311. This verse "Bring you all together" intimates the following In the beginning of the Day of Judgement, first all will be together, believers and non believers alike, that's why it is known as Hashar, or towards the end each will be with his own group i.e. the Believer will be with the Belilevers, the non-believers will be with the non-believers. For this reason it is called the Day of Separation or Day of Harvest. Says Allah Almighty "And today, be separate, O you culprits" (S36 : V59).

وَ مِنۡ حَيۡثُ خَرَجۡتَ فَوَلِّ وَجۡهَكَ شَطۡرَ
الۡمَسۡجِدِ الۡحَرَامِ ؕ وَاِنَّهٗ لَلۡحَقُّ مِنۡ
رَّبِّكَ ؕ وَمَا اللّٰهُ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعۡمَلُوۡنَ ﴿۱۴۹﴾

149.So from whichever direction you come forth [312], turn your face towards the Sacred Mosque and surely, it is the truth from your Lord[313] and Allah is not unmindful of what you do.

312. From this we learn that wherever we may be, or in whichever part of the city we may be, we must face the direction of the Ka'bah when offering our Salaah. The same goes when we may be on a journey or in a settled state.

313. In terms of their holy scriptures one of the signs mentioned of the Final Prophet was that he will be the Prophet of Haramain (the two Harams) i.e. Makkah and Madina, and Prophet of the two Qibla's i.e. Jerusalem and Makkah. As it was important for him to migrate from Makkah (one Haram) to Madina (second Haram), it was just as necessary for the direction from Jerusalem to change to Makkah for these prophecies to become true. Thus, instead of accepting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and believing in Islam, the Yahud and the Nasara are meddling in meaningless arguments, although they have seen this prophecy fulfilled.

الۡمَسۡجِدِ الۡحَرَامِ ؕ وَحَيۡثُ مَا كُنۡتُمۡ فَوَلُّوۡا وُجُوۡهَكُمۡ
شَطۡرَهٗ ۙ لِئَلَّا يَكُوۡنَ لِلنَّاسِ عَلَيۡكُمۡ حُجَّةٌ اِلَّا
الَّذِيۡنَ ظَلَمُوۡا مِنۡهُمۡ فَلَا تَخۡشَوۡهُمۡ وَاخۡشَوۡنِىۡ ۙ وَ
لِاُتِمَّ نِعۡمَتِىۡ عَلَيۡكُمۡ وَلَعَلَّكُمۡ تَهۡتَدُوۡنَ ۙ﴿۱۵۰﴾

150.And from wherever you (O Muhammad) come forth, turn your face towards the Sacred Mosque [314]. And wherever you (believers) may be, turn your face towards it so that people will not have any argument[315] against you, except for those who are unjust [316]. So fear them not but fear Me alone. And it is so that I may complete my favour upon you and that you may be guided [317].

314. In this verse "And from wherever" is expounded various possibilities.
1.Oh Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم whenever you leave the home do so by facing the Ka'bah or wherever you may be in journey face the Ka'bah. Thus, the first 'whichever' of the earlier verse place is intended, while in this verse, "and from wheresoever" time should be kept in mind. 2.Or, while the first may refer to the streets of Madina the second word is used to refer to other places and jungles.
3.Thirdlly, in the first 'whensoever' Allah is addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم specifically, while in this verse Allah is addressing the believers in general. Looking at it in the above context the verse does not contradict in any way, it merely focuses our attention on the different possibilities.

315. Now, the idolaters of Makkah had no ground to grouse that Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم called himself from the clan of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام but did not face the Ka'bah of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام when offering Salaah.

316.In this verse Allah Almighty is making the believers aware that these ignorant people will still taunt the believers by virtue of following different directions at different times, but this cannot be given any credence or trust. No attention should be paid to such people whose only work is to taunt and discredit others.
From this we learn that in matters of religion

one should not worry about anyone's taunting or reproach but continue doing the good deed. He who revives one forgotten Sunnah will receive the reward of a hundred martyrs, because the martyr dies with one single blow, while this person holding firm on the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is contin-ously subjected to verbal abuse.

317.The reason for the changing of the Qibla is for the completion of bestowing Divine bounties and blessings upon the believers i.e. while the previous people faced only one direction, you Oh Believers are blessed with two Qiblas (directions).

151.Just as We have sent among you a Rasool (Messenger) [318] from yourselves, who recites to you Our verses and purifies [319] you and teaches you the Book and wisdom and teaches you that which you knew not [320].

كَمَآ اَرۡسَلۡنَا فِيۡكُمۡ رَسُوۡلًا مِّنۡكُمۡ يَتۡلُوۡا
عَلَيۡكُمۡ اٰيٰتِنَا وَ يُزَكِّيۡكُمۡ وَيُعَلِّمُكُمُ
الۡكِتٰبَ وَ الۡحِكۡمَةَ وَيُعَلِّمُكُمۡ مَّا لَمۡ
تَكُوۡنُوۡا تَعۡلَمُوۡنَ ﴿۱۵۱﴾

318.From this verse a few issues emerge:

1.The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم coming to this world is without doubt Alllah's greatest bounty for believers. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly Allah did a great favour to the Muslims" (S3 : V164).

2.The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is sent as a Universal Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, without distinction of race and creed. Says Allah Almighty: "That he may be a warner unto the entire world" (S25 : V1).

3.Mankind is raised to the highest honour because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is raised from them. Man is the highest creation of Allah, solely because of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as clarified by the words "From yourselves"

4.We have received the QUR'AAN all its laws and divine secrets, all its bounties and blessings from the Holy Prophet as indicated by "recite to you". Thus, he who has cut himself away from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has indeed cut himself from the QUR'AAN ,

5. After the QUR'AAN, Hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is foremost.

Hence the word 'Mature Knowledge' is reference to the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمfollow 'The Book' meaning. the Holy QUR'AAN ,.

319.From the word "And purifies you" we learn that one will not be purified through one's good deeds - the real purification will come from the graceful attention of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمSays Allah Almighty "O Beloved Prophet! Realize the poor due (Zakaat) out of their wealth to purify them and cleanse them therewith"(S9 : V103)

320.The last part of this verse suggests that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has taught all the unseen knowledge to his gracious companions as confirmed by the tradtion of Bukhari Shareef whether they had remembered it or forgotten thereof. It also indicates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had taught the complete code of Shariah to the Companions. The first part is more emphatic because the code of Shariah is included in the QUR'AAN , and Hadith. Hence, the word 'teaches you' refers more to the knowledge of the Unseen.

152. So remember Me, I shall remember you [321] and be grateful to Me and never be ungrateful [322]

تَكۡفُرُوۡنِ ﴿۱۵۲﴾ ع

321.Allah Almighty commands us in this verse to worship him with our bodies, with our heart and with every limb of ours. This includes all types of worship. Allah promises that if you remember Me in your lifetime I will remember you after your death. The whole world will be passionately devoted to you as can be seen from the Mazaars shrines of the Saints of Allah which have become the object of the passionate devotion of the peoples of all walks of life and of all creeds and followers. Remembrance also means that after transgressing if we turn to Allah, He will remember us with forgiveness. If we remember Allah openly and secretly he will reciprocate likewise, as is mentioned in the Hadith. In terms of remembrance this verse is very comprehensive.
322.Whenever the word infidelity is used as an opposite of gratitude it will mean ingratitude but when it is used against Islam or Faith it will mean infidelity. In this verse the word will mean ungrateful.

153.O you who believe! Seek help through patience and prayer [323]. Surely, Allah is with those who have patience [324].

يَاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اسْتَعِيْنُوْا بِالصَّبْرِ وَالصَّلٰوةِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَ الصّٰبِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۵۳﴾

323.From this verse emerge two important issues:
1.Salaah is not compulsory upon the infidels, hence it is not necessary for a convert to repeat the Salaahs he had missed while he was a non-believer.
2.It is better to offer specific Nafl Salaah when such a calamity befalls a person.
324.This verse teaches us that a patient believer is better than a grateful believer because there is a promise of increased wealth for the grateful as can be seen from "If you will be grateful, I will give you more" (S14 : V7) but for the one who is patient, Allah Almighty is with him. The word patience has different manifestations patience in calamity, patience in fulfilling Divine Obligations, etc.

154. And do not say about those who are slain [325] in the path of Allah [326] as dead [327]. Rather, they are alive, but you are unaware of it [328].

325. This verse was revealed in respect of the Martyrs. Some people were expressing remorse that Martyrdom was depriving them of the blessings of life. In this verse Allah silences such critics by informing them that by sacrificing their mortal lives in Allah's Path they are being blessed with immortality an eternal life.
326.Those Muslims who are murdered will be counted among the martyrs. However, among them those who are killed in defence of their religion achieve much higher status. Among the martyrs in basic immortality both are equal. In comparison to the martyrs, the eternal life of the Prophets is very much superior both in rank and virtue their wealth is not distributed as inheritance, their wives cannot be married, etc.
327. By 'Dead' is meant neither call them dead nor regard them as such. In another place Allah Almighty says:"And those who have been slain in the way of Allah, never think of them as dead" (S 3: V169).
328.The lives of the martyrs is not based on worldly perception. Therefore they are not governed by all laws pertaining to the ordinary deceased, e.g. burial, inheritance of their wealth, marriage of their wives after the period of Iddat (four months and ten days) etc.

وَلَنَبْلُوَنَّكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ مِّنَ الْخَوْفِ وَالْجُوْعِ وَ نَقْصٍ مِّنَ الْاَمْوَالِ وَالْاَنْفُسِ وَالثَّمَرٰتِ ؕ وَ بَشِّرِ الصّٰبِرِيْنَ ۙ﴿۱۵۵﴾

155.And We will surely test [329] you with something of fear and hunger and loss of wealth and lives and fruits. And give glad-tidings to the patient.

329.The test mentioned in this verse is regarding fear of Allah, hunger as experienced due to fasting in Ramadan, decrease of wealth in paying Zakaat, death of children who are the fruit of one's eyes. In addition, believers are tested in many other ways.

الَّذِيْنَ اِذَآ اَصَابَتْهُمْ مُّصِيْبَةٌ ۙ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّا لِلّٰهِ وَ اِنَّآ اِلَيْهِ رٰجِعُوْنَ ؕ﴿۱۵۶﴾

156. Those when they are afflicted by some misfortune say: "Surely, we belong to Allah and to Him is our return".

اُولٰٓئِكَ عَلَيْهِمْ صَلَوٰتٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّهِمْ وَرَحْمَةٌ ۟ وَ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۷﴾

157.Those are the ones upon whom are blessings and Mercy [330] from their Lord, and it is those who are rightly guided.

330. On such patient people Allah showers his special as well as general blessings and bounties. The fruit of patience is always sweet.

اِنَّ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةَ مِنْ شَعَآئِرِ اللّٰهِ ۚ فَمَنْ حَجَّ الْبَيْتَ اَوِ اعْتَمَرَ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِ اَنْ يَّطَّوَّفَ بِهِمَا ؕ وَمَنْ تَطَوَّعَ خَيْرًا ۙ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ شَاكِرٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۱۵۸﴾

158.Surely, Safa and Marwa are of the symbols [331] of Allah. Then whosoever performs Hajj and Umrah of the Sacred House, there is no sin [332] upon him walking between [333] the two of them. And whoever volunteers to do any good, then, surely, Allah is the Most Appreciative, All-Knowing [334].

331.From this verse three issues emerge:
1.Anything which is connected with the pious, gains sanctity e.g. the Hills of Safa and Marwa have been sanctified because Hazrat Hajira (on whom be peace) had run between them. They are objects of esteem in the eyes of Allah.
2.To show respect to Holy relics is among the religious teachings. It is for this reason that Saee (running seven times between Safa and Marwa) has become one of the rites of Hajj.
3.If sins are committed at sacred places, every effort should be made to eradicate such mal practices from there, These places should be regarded sacred at all times. Although these hills at one stage were associated with idolatory both enjoy a sacred place in Islam.
332.In fact, not making Saee is sinful because running between Safa and Marwa (SAEE) is a Wajib rite of Hajj. Muslims are told that they should not stop performing Saee due to impudence of the idolators.
333. In the days of the Jahiliyya (Days of Ignorance) the idol worshippers had placed two idols Asaaf and Naila on Safa and Marwa. During their season of pilgrimage while making SAEE between these hills they would pay homage to these idols. After the conquest of Makkah although these idols were removed from the hills, Muslims felt it undesirable to make the Saee between Safa and Marwa because they felt this act was resembling the act of the infidels. To dispel this doubt from their minds Allah revealed this verse in which they are told they should not think of the days when idols were kept there but think of Hazrat Hajira عليه السلام through whose blessed feet these hills became among the symbols of Allah. Because the pious Companions once regarded SAEE of these hills as sinful, Allah in this verse informs that this SAEE is not sinful, but a Wajib - compulsory rite of Hajj, and its omission is sin.

334.Any person performing Nafl Hajj, Umrah or Tawaaf will be rewarded by Allah. From this emerge two issues:
1.Performing a Nafl act is rewardable, but its omission is no sin.
2.Allah's appreciation really means Allah bestows His blessings upon His thankful servants. This is the same as Allah's repentance, meaning those who seek repentance from Allah, they will be forgiven. Hence, all these are rewardable acts.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَكْتُمُونَ مَآ أَنزَلْنَا مِنَ الْبَيِّنَٰتِ وَالْهُدَىٰ مِنۢ بَعْدِ مَا بَيَّنَّٰهُ لِلنَّاسِ فِى الْكِتَٰبِ ۙ أُولَٰٓئِكَ يَلْعَنُهُمُ اللَّهُ وَيَلْعَنُهُمُ اللَّٰعِنُونَ ﴿١٥٩﴾

159. Surely, those [335] who conceal [336] what We have sent down as clear proofs and guidance after We made it clear for the people [337] in the Scripture. Upon them is the curse of Allah and the curse of those who curse.

335. This verse was revealed to identify those Jewish scholars who were deliberately hiding the Mosaic Laws as well as those verses in which the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم praiseworthy qualities are mentioned.
336. To conceal religious instructions is a sinful act, even if one inadvertently forgets to mention these when a need arises, or deliberately misinterprets them. The Jewish priests were guilty of both i.e. they would not tell the people of the praiseworthy qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and wilfully altered the punishment prescribed for adultery from death by stoning, to mere blackening of the face.

337. It should be remembered that under no circumstances must a law of Shariat be concealed from people as this is sinful, while revealing matters connected with the mystic way of life is for the selected. Acknowledgement of sin is necessary for repentance. Regarding those who are concealing the verses it has been mentioned that they must express regret at the previous malpractice and show honesty with the future practice by revealing the once concealed verses. Then only will their repentance be accepted. A mere empty repentance will not suffice for the pardoning of their sin.

160.Except for those who repent and reform themselves and make evident (what they concealed). So, I (will) accept their repentance [338]. And, verily, I am the Most Relenting, the ever Merciful.

338. This verse gives a hint that every sin can be pardoned through sincere repentance. The word "those who repent" is not confined to any sins or time. However, at the time of death, when Divine punishment becomes visible, repentance from infidelity will not be accepted.

Almighty Allah said to the Pharoah "And what now! And you had been disobedient from before " (S10 : V91). Further it is stated:"The repentance whose acceptance has been undertaken by Allah" (S4 : V17).

161.Verily, those who disbelieved and died as disbelievers [339], upon them [340] will be the curse of Allah and of the angels and of the people altogether.

النَّاسِ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ۙ﴿١٦١﴾

339. Religious issue; If one is not certain of a person dying an infidel he should not be cursed or condemned. Similarly, do not condemn a sinner by name but by his sinful act. Says Allah Almighty: "Curse of Allah be upon the liars" (S3 : V61)

340.The word 'People' either denotes Muslims - or it refers to the Day of Judgement when infidels would be cursing infidels, when friends will turn foes.

162.They will abide eternally therein. Neither will the punishment be lightened for them [341], nor will they be granted respite [342].

341. From this verse we learn that the punishment of the infidels will be unchanged from the time of commencement until eternity, but this will not be the case with believers - their punishment will continue to lessen.

342. From this it is inferrred that the infidels will not be relieved from their punishment. It could also mean that they will not be given an opportunity to repent and do good deeds. It should be remembered that this predicament is of infidels in general. However, there are exceptions to this rule. A Hadith from Bukhari Shareef mentions that Abu Lahab's punishment lessens on every Monday, on account of setting free his servant Suaibah on that day when she informed him of the blessed birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Suaibah had breastfed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم This falls under a special decree.

163.And your God is the one God (Allah). There is no God, but He. He is the Most Affectionate, Most Merciful [343].

الرَّحْمٰنُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿١٦٣﴾ ع ١٩

343. As Allah's Mercy supercedes His wrath, therefore, on places like these, only His Mercy is mentioned. In terms of general show of Mercy He is Ar-Rahman - The Most Affectionate, while due to special show of Mercy He is Ar Raheem - The Most Merciful and compassionate e.g. Sometimes small,big, cold and hot, darkness and bright moonlight, comfort and suffering, etc.

benefit people [345], and in the water that Allah sends down from the sky [346]. And giving life to the earth after its death [347]. And dispersing on the earth every kind of creature. In the veering of the winds and the clouds controlled between the heaven and the earth [348]. Surely, in all these are signs for those who are wise [349].

344. At the time when the infidels had asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for proof concerning Allah's oneness, this verse was revealed.

345. By this it is meant ships sail to their destination carrying the cargo, the merchants as well as their heavy merchandise, without sinking. alhough heavy things should sink in water, but this is not the case here. It should be remembered, that just as iron floats with the help of wood, likewise, with the will of Allah we too will sail to our destination with the help of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

346. By sending down of water we learn a scientific law: The water of the ocean turns to vapour; due to heat of the sun vapour turns to clouds then due to condensation comes down once again as water (rain). Thus, there is no contradiction in this verse. What the verse really means is that although the actual reservoir of water is the earthly oceans, its place of origin is the sky. Thus, the rain comes down from the sky only. Says Allah Almighty: "And in heaven is your provision, and that you are promised" (S51 : V22).

347. Just as the earth is dependent on the water from the sky for its production so is the creation dependent on the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم favourable attention, as without his mediation nobody's good deeds will be accepted. Our deeds are the seeds and the approval of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the shower of Mercy.

348. The clouds, winds etc. work in obedience to Divine instructions, always ready to benefit man, likewise you, Oh man, should always work in obedience to Allah and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

349. From this verse it becomes apparent that to study Physical Science, Mathematics, Astronomy, etc. in order to understand the Mystical knowledge of Allah is good, provided these sciences are made subservient to Religion, not controlling Religion. These should help you to establish that just as the world is inconsistent, so are the things therein. Nations and leaders will always be subject to rise and fall.

165.And (yet) among the people are those who take deities, other than Allah [350]. They love them as Allah is loved. And those who believe are strongest in love for Allah [351]. And how will it be when the unjust will see the punishment of Allah before their eyes? Then they will be certain that all power belongs to Allah. And, surely, Allah is severe in punishment.

جَمِيْعًا ۙ وَّ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ شَدِيْدُ الْعَذَابِ ﴿۱۶۵﴾

350. By this verse we understand that some people give status of divinity to mortals. They love these beings as Allah Almighty should be loved because they accept these as their gods. However, true believers do not confer divinity on mortal beings.

351. There are various manifestations of love. Foremost in these is the love for the Divine Being based on the Master-slave relationship. This is followed by love for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the basis of Prophethood, for the Saint on the basis of Sainthood, for the parents on the basis of parenthood, etc. But all these come after Love for Allah.

166.When those who were followed will be disgusted [352] with their followers and they shall all see the torment [353] and all their ties will be cut off.

352. It means they will be disgusted in their graves or on the Day of Judgement i.e. if the infidels can only reflect on this punishment they would not commit infidelity. This verse also clarifies that the disgust and disappointment of the followers concerning their religious leaders is in itself the punishment of the infidels. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will, if Allah wills, not be disgusted with his Ummah (followers), but will intercede on their behalf. The Hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is reported to have said : "I will not intercede for those who default with the payment of Zakaat" refers to those people who reject the institution of Zakaat, or it is said to instil fear in believers so that they will pay their Zakaat as prescribed by Allah. Otherwise, the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself says: "My interces-sion will be for those who have committed major sins as well." Furthermore, the Hadith which says that the defaulters of Sunnah will be deprived of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم intercession is regarding the highest form of intercession and not the one for which repentance is obtained. Thus, there is no contradiction of any type in the verses of the QUR'AAN , and the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

353.On the Day of Judgement family relation and connection will not help the infidels in any way, but these will benefit the believers. The Holy QUR'AAN , says: "We joined them with their off-spring and diminished not anything from their deeds"(S52 : V21). It is for this reason that small children of Muslims will be in Paradise with their parents. The cutting off of other ties is mentioned in respect of infidels.

167.And the followers will say: "Alas! If we had another turn (at worldly life) [354] we would disassociate ourselves from them as they have disassociated themselves from us. Thus, will Allah show them their (evil) deeds as a source of deep anguish [355] to them. And they are never to emerge from the (blazing) fire [356].

354. A believer will never show any desire to return to this mundane world after his death. Death for him is an escape from the physical world. This will be the express wish of the infidels. It should be remembered that when-ever anything is mentioned regarding the punishment of the non-believers, it is in no way connected with the believers.

355. On the Day of Judgement the followers of the infidel leaders, on seeing their disgust, will wish that they were given another opportunity to come back in the world to take vengeance by cutting all ties from these leaders.

356. On the Day of Judgement the deeds of the believers will be their source of happiness, not despondency. Their good deeds will be accepted by Allah, while most sinners will be despondent, but it will not be to the extent of the infidels because even their good deeds will be rejected. Secondly, torment of Hell will not be everlasting for the believers.

يَاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ كُلُوْا مِمَّا فِي الْاَرْضِ حَلٰلًا طَيِّبًا ۖ وَّلَا تَتَّبِعُوْا خُطُوٰتِ الشَّيْطٰنِ ۭ اِنَّهٗ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ مُّبِيْنٌ ﴿١٦٨﴾

168. O Mankind! Eat of whatever is in the earth [357], lawful and clean[358]. And never follow the footsteps of the devil. Surely, he is to you an open enemy.

357. This verse was revealed concerning those idol worshippers who regarded eating of those animals like the she-camel and she goat (Saibah) offered to the idols as unlawful. They are told that they should not regard these animals unlawful to eat i.e. they should eat these animals and accept Islam. Eat everything from the earth which is lawful and clean. From this discussion emerge a few issues:

1.Eating is in accordance with Divine Command. He who starves himself to death is a sinner. Hence participating in a hunger strike or fasting unto death is totally unlawful in Islam.

2.One should eat from lawfully earned livelihood because anything obtained by unlawful means is forbidden. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم once told Hazrat Sa'd (on whom be peace) "Eat lawful food, it is a means of acceptance of dua (Prayers)"

3.Saintliness and piety does not mean to make lawful things unlawful upon oneself, but true piety and saintliness will be achieved by abstaining from all types of unlawful and forbidden things.

4.Any animal reared in the name of a saint does not become unlawful as long as it is slaughtered by reciting Allah's name.

5.An infidel converted to Islam is entrusted with Laws of Shariah. Hence, Laws of Shariah cannot be enforced upon the infidels.

358. Anything which is not made unlawful by Allah and His Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is lawful. There is permissibility given for all basic things without any conditions or restraint, as these are mentioned as good and lawful.

اِنَّمَا يَاْمُرُكُمْ بِالسُّوْۗءِ وَالْفَحْشَاۗءِ وَاَنْ تَقُوْلُوْا عَلَي اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿١٦٩﴾

169.He (the devil) only orders you to do evil and indecency, and to attribute [359] that about Allah what you do not know [360].

359. Your claim that animals like Baheerah she-camel, Saibah – she-goat - (names of sacred animals to the pagan Arabs) are unlawful, is absolutely baseless because Allah has not made them unlawful. In fact, Allah warns these idolators that they should refrain from such false accusations.

360. From this we learn that to label anything as unlawful without a clear proof is acting upon the dictates of the devil, like the infidels of Makkah were doing, by labelling animals like Baheerah and Saibah as unlawful without any substantiation. The Wahabis should take heed from this type of devilish practice of labelling Fatiha, Meelad gatherings, etc. as haraam - unlawful, without any supporting evidence.

those whom you have favoured"(S1:V7) The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: "Whatever the Muslims regard as virtuous, it is virtuous by Allah as well." Therefore Allah has used: "When we found our forefathers" (V2 : S170).

361.To follow the path of misguided ancestors in opposition to Laws of Shariah is totally forbiddden. Likewise, treading the path of our pious predecessors which is based on Islamic laws is a commendable act. Says Allah Almighty"And be with the truthful" (S9 :V119). And the QUR'AAN , further states "The path of

وَ مَثَلُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا كَمَثَلِ الَّذِيْ يَنْعِقُ بِمَا لَا يَسْمَعُ اِلَّا دُعَآءً وَّ نِدَآءً ؕ صُمٌّۢ بُكْمٌ عُمْيٌ فَهُمْ لَا يَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿۱۷۱﴾

172.O you who believe! Eat from the good things [362], which We have provided for you and be grateful to Allah if it is (indeed) Him that you worship [363].

is just as important as when getting an opportunity for worship, as seen from the use of commands in this verse - Hence the gratitude of every bounty will be equivalent to the bounty.

362. From this verse two issues emerge:
1. Like worship, eating and drinking when necessary is incumbent as the energy to fulfil our daily obligations is dependent on them.
2.One should consume wholesome and lawful food at all times. Taqwa - 'God Consciousness' does not mean to abstain form wholesome food - but Taqwa is based on abstention from all forbidden things.

2.All the decrees are for the believers, therefore the discussion begins with 'O you who believe!' If the infidel wonders about eating anything it is of no consequence, the Islamic governors cannot force him to desist from it.

363.Two issues emerge from this verse:
1.To express gratitude for receiving any bounty

اِنَّمَا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْتَةَ وَالدَّمَ وَ لَحْمَ الْخِنْزِيْرِ وَ مَآ اُهِلَّ بِهٖ لِغَيْرِ اللّٰهِ ۚ

But, whoever is forced to eat (by necessity) [367], neither desiring (it) nor transgressing (its limits), there is no sin upon him [368]. Indeed, Allah is the Most Forgiving, Ever Merciful [369].

how will its mere connection with them make it unlawful?

367. Helplessness or constraint is of different types If a person is dying of hunger and besides the forbidden food nothing lawful is available; if a person is forcefully made to eat anything unlawful, if a person is critically ill, or if a specialist doctor states that the cure lies in eating this unlawful food, then under these circumstances it becomes incumbent to eat the forbidden. If without eating it the person dies, it will be regarded as suicide. However, if one eats more than required unintentionally, Allah will pardon him.

368. From this verse we learn that unlawful things become lawful under abnormal circumstances; that under these circumstances only the necessary quantity will be lawful i.e. if 1/6 is necessary, than 1/2 or 1/4 will be deemed unlawful, as such, excess quantity should not be eaten.

369. If one cannot estimate the exact quantity, and thus eats more than is necessary, Allah will forgive him as He is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.

364. In this verse INNAMA (only these) is used to denote relative time not actual time i.e. those animals which you have taken to be forbidden, like Baheera and Saibah are not unlawful at all. Forbidden animals are those which are declared unlawful by Allah. From this verse it is not necessarily meant that a dog or a cat will be regarded as lawful. That which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has declared as unlawful is equivalent to a Divine decree.

365. Every part of a pig is forbidden e.g., flesh, marrow, kidneys, etc. Says Allah Allmighty: "It is absolutely filthy' and what is filthy is forbidden. However, it was Allah's will to make its flesh unlawful, while its other parts should be made unlawful by His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Likewise, whilst Allah made the pig unlawful, His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم declared cats, dogs, etc. unlawful.

366. Any animal which in its lifetime is likened to anyone besides Allah is lawful to eat e.g. Baheera, (she camel), Saibah, (she goat), Zaid's cow, Amar's goat etc. If the water of the Ganges is not forbidden, and the cow, which is the deity of the idolators is not unlawful then 174.Verily, those who conceal [370] the Scripture of Allah and exchange[371] it for a small price, consume not into their bellies [372] only the fire and Allah will not speak to them on the Day of Judgement, nor will He purify them and they will have a painful torment [373].

370.There are various ways of concealing the Book: to conceal the actual verses; not to explain the meaning of the verses, to deliberately misinterpret the verses or to wilfully change the Divine decrees.

371. Prior to the birth of the Holy Prophet

Marfat.com

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the Yahud of Madina were under the impression that the Final Prophet would be from the Bani Israel. Therefore, in anticipation of this, they would propoagate the beautiful attributes of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as revealed in the Tauraat (Old Testament). However, after the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم birth, the fear of the loss of their income and property in Madina, made them secretly envious of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, so they began either to conceal these verses wherein the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم 's attributes were mentioned, or to alter them. To expose this act of the Jewish scholars, this verse was revealed, in which Allah Almighty explains that these people conceal the verses of Tauraat for material gains which is termed 'small price' in this verse.

175. Those are the ones who have purchased error in exchange for guidance [374] and punishment in exchange for forgiveness. And to what extent will they endure the fire?

374. 'Guidance', here refers to that which was within their power to obtain, or which they had received on the Day of the Covenant and were 176.This is because Allah has revealed the Scripture [375] with truth. And, surely, those who differ over the Scripture are in extreme dispute.

375. The word 'Scripture' in this verse either refers to the Holy QUR'AAN , or Tauraat. In the first instance i.e. in respect of the Holy QUR'AAN, putting doubt and differences will amount to non-belief of it; in the second case i.e. TheTauraat not to believe in it in a correct

372. They 'fill their bellies with fire' by eating unlawful and forbidden food, which will send them to Hell. Alternately, these forbidden foods themselves will be transformed into tormenting Hell fire which will become the diet of these inmates.

373. From this verse two issues emerge;

1.On the Day of Resurrection, Allah's silence will be a means of torment and punishment for the infidels, Similarly, His withholding of merciful talk from them, too, will have similar consequences for the infidels.

2. The above mentioned three forms of punishment are especially prescribed for those criminal infidels who are guilty of concealing divine verses. Allah will save the Muslims from these by speaking to them, pardoning their sins and saving them from tormenting punishment.

أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ اشْتَرَوُا الضَّلَالَةَ بِالْهُدَىٰ وَالْعَذَابَ بِالْمَغْفِرَةِ ۚ فَمَا أَصْبَرَهُمْ عَلَى النَّارِ ﴿١٧٥﴾

manner. This assumption is reached because on one hand the Yahud totally rejected the QUR'AAN while though they accepted the Tauraat they did not believe in it genuinely. Had they done so, they would have believed in the Messenger of Allah.

376. If Allah is addressing the Muslims in this verse, then it would mean that it is not sufficient just to face the direction of the Ka'bah when reading Salaah, having correct beliefs is just as important. From this we learn that every follower of the Qibla is not a believer, among them some are apostates as well, e.g. the defamers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his noble Companions, etc. When Imam Abu Hanifa (on whom be peace) had said: "I do not regard the followers of Qibla as infidels", he meant those followers whose hearts are a seat of correct beliefs, and not merely those who just face the Qibla to offer prayers. This issue is dealt with in Sharah Fiqh Akbar. However, if the verse is addressed to the Yahud and the Nasara, the meaning would be now the eastern and western parts of Baitul Muqaddas - Mosque in Jerusalem - is no longer the Qibla as it used to be. Your salvation now lies in becoming Muslims and offering your Prayers facing the Ka'bah.

377. From this verse we learn that Faith has priority over action. The order is to believe, than to do good deeds, because the base takes root before the branches. Faith is the base, actions or good deeds are its branches. In the chapter of faith, the first is to believe in Allah.

378. 'Imaan Mufassil' taught to the children has its origin in this verse as well as other verses.

379. By "dear wealth" is meant to give wealth in the path of Allah which is dear to oneself, during one's lifetime, when one is still healthy and in need of that wealth. Says Allah Almighty:"You shall never attain good unless you spend your favourite things"(S3:V92). In the distribution of wealth, relatives should be given priority.

380. From this one learns that if a wealthy traveller away from home is stranded due to unforeseen circumstances, he can become a recipient of Zakaat and other forms of charity. If this verse only meant destitute traveller, than this, is covered in the word 'The needy'. It should be remembered that by the wayfarer is meant that person who is in a state of travelling, and not the one who became resident in another place.

381. From this verse emerge two issues:

1. Although begging is not always permissible, but to give alms to the beggar is allowed. Says the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم "Except the one who asks at the Mosque."

2. It is not necessary to investigate about a person's poverty. Even if the person was wealthy and you had given him Zakaat thinking he is a beggar and later he turns out to be wealthy, your zakaat is discharged.

382. The establishment of the institution of Salaah has greater excellence than mere performance of it. By this is meant offering Salaah regularly, correctly and with a degree of sincerity and humility.

383.The word 'give wealth' entails more types of expenditure than just Zakaat because a specific command for discharging one's Zakaat is discussed separately.

384. This verse refers to all types of just and permissible promises, whether, to one's Creator, to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , to one's Religious Guide, to one's wife at the time of marriage or with any 178.O you who believe! Prescribed upon you is legal retribution [387] for those murdered – the free for the free, the slave for the slave and the female for the female [388]. But, whoever is pardoned by his brother [389], then let there be a suitable payment to him (heir of the deceased) with good conduct. This is indeed a concession from your Lord and a Mercy [390]. He who transgresses [391] thereafter, then for him is a painful torment.

387. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not part of this command in respect of 'retaliation of blood' because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not liable for retaliation of blood by a follower as is stated in the Holy QUR'AAN,. "Oh believers raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet" (S49 : V2) and in another place:"Oh believers, exceed not over Allah and His Messenger" (S49 : V1) The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not included in these.

388. For only the murderer will be put to death: even if he is a free person or a slave; man or a woman e.g. if a woman has murdered a man it is she who would be put to death. It should be remembered that if a Muslim kills an infidel under protection, he is liable to be put to death for the murder. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would say in respect of people under protection. "Their blood is like one else, provided that these were just and lawful promises To fulfil an unlawful promise is forbidden.

385.This word means a crusade or war. In the context of the verse it refers to participating in a holy war against the infidels for which steadfastness will be rewarded, while terminating war between Muslims will be rewarded.

386.The word 'The god fearing' indicates that only those people are true to their beliefs and word, whose deeds are good.

our blood" The Hadith which states that a believer should not be killed for the death of an infidel is in respect of infidels in war Hence the meanings of both the verses and the Ahadith are crystal clear.

389. Forgiveness for capital punishment exercised by the next of kin is acceptable in Islam, but it should be remembered that if the father kills the son there is no retaliation for it. Likewise, if the master kills the slave there is no retaliation for it. Similarly, if a follower is killed at the hands of a Prophet, there is no retaliation. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم giving himself for retaliation was for the purpose of educating the followers (believers).

390. By next of kin accepting payment of the murder of their dear one, and they are exercising the right of forgiveness instead of seeking a life for a life.This indeed is due to the mercy of Allah.

391.By 'one who transgresses' means taking the life of an innocent person and that of the actual murderer, is tortured inhumanely in retaliation e.g. cutting any limbs of his body or by disfiguring him.

179.And there is life for you in retaliating [392] for blood, O people of understanding. So that you may become pious.

392. Retaliate against the infidels, against your inner self, against a heartless Muslim. If you have sinned, immediatley seek repentance and do good deeds. In it lies the success of this world and the Hereafter. Any nation that does not retaliate against transgression and oppression is a dead nation, because "in retaliation there is life for you" (S2 : V179).

180.Made obligatory [393] upon you that when death approaches anyone of you and if he leaves property [394] (behind him) that he should make a bequest for the parents and near relatives, according to existing customs. This is compulsory for those who fear Allah [395].

393. Prior to the introduction of the laws of inheritance in Islam, it was an incumbent duty to make a will, but distribution of wealth was done only in accordance with the will. When the laws of inheritance were revealed, the obligation in respect of leaving a will was abrogated.
394. The word 'Property' indicates will in respect of your wealth and not concerning someone else's wealth.

395. Since the introduction of the laws of inheritance, it is no longer necessary to leave a will for the heirs as their rights are covered by these laws. However, wills can be made in respect of non-inheritance. From this it is learnt that a QUR'AANIC verse can be abrogated by a Hadith because a will for the heir is proven from the QUR'AAN yet its abrogation is mentioned in the Hadith which states:"There is no will required for an heir".

181.Then whoever alters it (the bequest) after he has heard it; the sin is only upon those who have altered it. Surely, Allah hears and knows [396].

396. From this discussion emerge two issues:
1. To alter a legal will is forbidden.
2. Those who alter a legal will, though they be a Mufti, Jurist, a Judge, a witness or anyone else, all will be sinners.

182.Then if one fears that a testator has committed certain injustice or sin and then makes reconciliation between them (the concerned parties), there is no sin [397] upon him. Verily, Allah is Most Forgiving, Ever Mercif ul.

397. If any learned person (Alim) governer, executor, arbitrator etc. comes to know that the person about to die has infringed anyone's rights or transgressed the limits of Islamic law in his will, they become duty bound to persuade the person to correct the will. Such a correction will not be regarded as an act of sin, because this is being done to uphold truth and not its negation.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا كُتِبَ عَلَيْكُمُ الصِّيَامُ كَمَا كُتِبَ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿١٨٣﴾ لا

183. O you who believe! Fasting [398] has been made obligatory [399] upon you as it was made obligatory upon those before you, so that you may become pious [400].

398. Fasting in this verse refers to the compulsory fasts of Ramadaan. It should be remembered that the first compulsory fast in Islam was that of the Day of Ashurah - (10th Muharram) i.e. one fast per year only. This was followed by 3 monthly fasts on the 13, 14, and 15th of each month. Thereafter came the command for the Fasting in the month of Ramadaan as per this verse, which abrogated the obligation of the other above mentioned fasts. One important fact emerging from this is a QUR'AANIC verse can abrogate the command laid down in the Hadith e.g. the obligation of the earlier fasts is proven from the Hadith without any QUR'AANIC injunction but their abrogation is made by this verse. Fasting in the month of Ramadaan became obligatory only in the year second Hijrah.

399. From this verse we learn that the non - believers are not responsible for carrying out religious duties, thus, on accepting Islam they are not duty bound to fulfil their Islamic obligations missed while they were out of the fold of Islam.

400. From this discussion emerge a few issues:
1. Fasting is a very ancient form of worship which was obligatory during the period of previous Prophets.
2. Fasting is a means of achieving piety and nearness of Allah because fasting controls the action of the inner-self (Nafs-e-Ammarah). i.e. when a person fasts he controls all his basic passions, thereby avoiding committing a sin.
3. Man should not merely rely on his good deeds but rather seek the blessings of Allah. For this reason the word "that you may" is used. This expectation and hope is with regard to man and not with regard to Allah.

اَيَّامًا مَّعْدُوْدٰتٍ ؕ فَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ مَّرِيْضًا اَوْ عَلٰى سَفَرٍ فَعِدَّةٌ مِّنْ اَيَّامٍ اُخَرَ ؕ وَعَلَى الَّذِيْنَ يُطِيْقُوْنَهٗ فِدْيَةٌ طَعَامُ مِسْكِيْنٍ ؕ فَمَنْ تَطَوَّعَ خَيْرًا فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّهٗ ؕ وَاَنْ

184.The days are counted [401], so whoever among you is ill [402], or on a journey [403], then an equal number of days (are to be made up) on other days [404] and upon those who have no strength (to fast) [405] a ransom of a meal [406] to a needy person (each day) and whoever volunteers good it is better for him [407]. But, to fast is better for you if you only know 408.

تَصُوْمُوْا خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿١٨٤﴾

401. The counted days of fasting are 29 to 30. Therefore, do not shirk your duty due to the fear of hunger and thirst. That Kind Lord who satisfies your hunger and thirst for eleven months of the year, and commands you to give up eating and drinking during the day for just one month, are you not going to obey Him?

402. By 'ill' it is meant fasting will cause him harm, but if fasting proves beneficial to the ill person than under such circumstances that ill person is not given permission to forego the fast.

403. By journey is meant a journey of 57 miles (+- 92Km) whereby a person can be defined as a Musafir or traveller in terms of Islamic law i.e. such a person does not intend to stay for fifteen days away from his house (Hanafi). Such a person is relieved of the obligation of fasting while on a journey if he or she is unable to fast.

404. From this we understand that a traveller does not necessarily have to miss his fast while on a journey. He can either fast or offer Qaza of those fasts he had missed while on a journey after Ramadan. But Qasr (curtailment of Salaah), for a traveller is incumbent as explained in the Hadith.

405. Here the verb 'to have strength' negates the root word or the word Laa is concealing in it. Thus the word should really be, they do not have the strength. Therefore there is no abrogation in the verse, but its decree is firm and unalterable. Thus by 'no strength' is meant such a person who has no strength to fast at that point in time nor is there hope in the future of gaining strength to fast e.g. a very aged, weak, or a person who has contracted a fatal disease. Such a person can give compensation for missing a fast, however, after having paid the compensation he does get strength to fast, then he should offer Qaza i.e. keep the fasts that he had missed.

406. The compensation for missing the fasts is to provide two meals per day to a destitute, or give one beggar 2 1/4 kg wheat equal to the grain given as Fitrah on the occasion of Eidul Fitr on a daily basis.

407. From this verse one understands that one can increase the amount if one so desires but not decrease it, as is indicated by the word "whoever volunteers".

408. From this it can be deduced that although the traveller is allowed Qaza of the fast while on a journey keeping the fasts is better than missing them.

185.Ramadaan is the month [409] in which was sent [410] the QUR'AAN as guidance to mankind, with clear proofs [411] of guidance and criterion, then whoever among you sights the moon let him fast [412] in it. And whoever is ill or on a journey, then an equal number of fasts on the other days [413]. Allah desires for you ease and does not desire hardship for you. And (He wants) for you to complete [414] the period and to glorify Allah as He has guided you and (so that) perhaps you may be grateful[415].

409. Ramadaan was chosen for Fasting because it is in this month that the Glorious QUR'AAN was brought from the Loh-e-Mahfooz (Divine Tablet) to the First Heaven from where it was gradually revealed to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم over a period of twenty three years. Because it is the month of the revelation of the QUR'AAN fasting in it should be remembered. This is the only month mentioned by name in the QUR'AAN. No other woman is mentioned in the QUR'AAN besides Mariam and no other Companion is mentioned by name besides Zaid (peace be upon both)

410. From this discussion emerge few issues:

1. If time or period is connected with anything noble, it will remain noble until the Day of Judgement.
2. Even if a blessing was given in it once only, whenever that date or month appears, this blessing should always be commemorated in it;
3. During that period expression of joy and offering prayers are praiseworthy acts. e.g. celebrating Meelad in the month of Rabiul Awwal is a commendable act.

411. The Holy QUR'AAN has 23 names, of which QUR'AAN is just one. Literally the word QUR'AAN means a Book which unites - a Book which has united mankind on the Religion of Al-Islam, or a recited Book which was not revealed in written form. Its Second name is Furqan (criterion) which makes distinction between the believer and an infidel, Halaal (permissible) and Haraam (forbidden things).

186.And (Oh Beloved) when My servants ask [416] you concerning Me. Indeed, I am near. I accept [417] the prayer of the supplicant when he calls upon Me, so let them obey [418] Me and believe in Me, that they may be guided.

416.Once some people asked the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is Allah far from us that we should call upon Him aloud, or near that we should call softly. In response to this enquiry the verse was revealed in which Allah assures the Believers 'My Mercy is near' The following verse"Surely the Mercy of Allah is near to the good-doers"(S7 : V56). There is a hint in this verse that Oh My Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم those who seek Me from who remain aloof from you I remain aloof from them.

412. From this verse one learns that fasting in the month of Ramadaan, is obligatory, and also learns that if a person is unconscious in the whole Raadaan fasting is not obligatory upon him. Because he did not find the Ramadaan, and if he perceived even for a moment the whole fasting is obligatory upon him.

413. However the obligation of fasting in Ram-adaan does not alter the permission of Qaza.

414. By period is meant completing the 29 or 30 days of fasting. It should be remembered that the proof of the moon will be acceptable on either its sighting or by an eye witness who has sighted it. Credence cannot be given to astrological calculations, or word of an astronomer for the possible visibility of the moon. Similarly, assumptions in the newspaper, radio or telegram, too, cannot be given any credence regarding its visibility.

415. This verse is a clear proof for offering Eid Salaah, reciting Takbeers (Glorification of Allah) on this day, celebrating the blessings and favours of Ramadaan, etc. The expression of happiness is not for the termination of Ramadaan but for having received the guidance and bounties in this glorious month.

417. 'Answer' in this verse means whenever My bondsmen call upon Me I answer their call which reaches the caller through the 'medium' of the Prophet. As far as fulfilment of the bondsman's plea is concerned - it is either fulfilled or sometimes left unanswered, especially when this plea is for something worthless and ungraceful.

418. The great sages of Allah, concerning this verse, say that if you want Allah to respond to you, you should respond to the commands of Allah. If you think that Allah will respond to you without being obedient to Him is indeed a foolish thought. From this we learn that to pay heed to the commands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and acting upon them is without doubt obeying Allah.

187.It has been made lawful [419] for you the night preceding fasting to go to your wives. They are a garment for you and you are a garment for them. Allah knows that you used to put your soul in defalcation [420]. He has accepted your repentance and pardoned you [421]. Now, copulate with them and seek what Allah has written [422] for you. And eat and drink [423] until the white thread becomes clear to you from the black thread of the dawn. Then complete[424] the fast upto the fall of night (sunset). Do not touch your women (wives) [425] while you are in the mosques in secluded devotion (I'tikaaf). These are the limits of Allah. So do not approach them. Thus does Allah make clear His verses to the people that they may become pious..

419. The lawfulness referred to in this verse is absolute and categorical, rejection of which is infidelity. Sometimes even the rejection of permissible acts can result in infidelity.

420.In the early days of Islam, sex with the wives during the nights of Ramadaan was forbidden. However, Umar (on whom be peace) and some other Companions (on them be peace) had sex during Ramadaan. When this matter was brought in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم this verse giving permission for sexual intercourse in the nights of Ramadaan was revealed. From this we learn that sometimes an error of the pious turns out to be a gift for the ordinary people. Adam عليه السلام came into this world due to the eating of wheat. Thus their errors are better than our obedience.

It should be remembered that default in this context means errors, fault, a slip and not major sins. Just as the QUR'AAN refers to the faults of the Prophets as harm or wrong.

421. From this discussion one important issue arises:

Allah Almighty had forgiven the previous transgressions of the Blessed Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم without decreeing any compensation for these transgression on them. This is a special favour which Allah had bestowed upon them. However, if any person now casts any objectionable remarks about their past, they will be regarded as sinners. After all, if Allah Almighty has forgiven them who are we to object?

422. In this verse the permission to have sexual intercourse is given for the purpose of procreation and not for the satisfaction of one's lust. On this ground Mut'a "arranged marriage" is forbidden because its purpose is sexual gratification. It can also mean vaginal sex only. Anal, under the armpits or in the thighs is totally forbidden. Furthermore, this could also mean that Ramadaan nights should be spent in remembrance of Allah rather than in these types of activities which would keep you away from worshipping Allah.

423. In the early period of Islam, after Iftaar, (meal at the time of breaking the fast) people were commanded to eat and drink prior to retiring for the night. After going to bed eating and drinking would be forbidden. However, once Hazrat Surma ibn Quais, a very illustrious Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. went to bed after breaking his fast. When he awoke, his wife dished out food, but he fasted without eating. In the afternoon he fainted due to hunger. This verse was revealed on this occasion, allowing eating and drinking until early dawn.

424. This verse decrees that it is incumbent to break one's fast on the approach of night. Thus to keep Roza-e-Wisal i.e. fasting continuously without iftaar (eating) is forbidden. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is excluded from this injunction because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was allowed Saum-e-Wisa. (Fasting continuously without Iftaar)

425. A few issues emerge from this verse:

1.Sexual intercourse during I'tikaaf (sitting in seclusion in the Mosque) is totally forbidden, whether it is compulsory, Sunnah or just voluntary I'tikaaf.

2. Males can only sit for I'tikaaf in a mosque not at home. By I'tikaaf is meant sitting in seclusion in a mosque with the expressed intention of worshipping Allah. It is of three types. Compulsory I'tikaaf for which Fasting is necessary; Sunnat I'tikaaf which is observed during the last ten days of Ramadan. Fasting for both these is a pre-requisite. The third is voluntary It'kaaf which can be observed for a short while. Fasting is not an essential for it, just an intention of I'tikaaf when entering the mosque would be sufficient.

188. And do not consume another's wealth unjustly [426] or send it to the rulers in order that (they might aid) you to devour [427] a portion of the wealth in sin, while you know (it is unlawful) [428].

426. From this verse we learn that wealth earned through illegal means, too, is illegal e.g. singing, dancing, shaving off beards, hiring of the cinema, etc. are all forbidden means of earning one's living.

427. Devouring money through illegal means too, is forbidden, so is using money to bribe officers and people in authority.

428. From this verse we learn that taking money for advocacy, false judicial verdicts and opinions, for instituting false legal procedure, etc. are all forbidden. However, it would not be considered wrong if these were erroneously taken to be true, thus the words "while you know" are used here.

لٰكِنَّ الْبِرَّ مَنِ اتَّقٰى ۚ وَاْتُوا الْبُيُوْتَ مِنْ اَبْوَابِهَا ۪ وَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۹﴾

you may enter your houses from the back [431], but virtue is in piety that you enter your houses from their (proper) doors [432], remaining pious to Allah, which will give you prosperity.

429. By enquiring about the crescent is meant why does the moon vary in its phases, why is it not constant in its appearance like the sun. In reply, the advantageous effects of the moon are told, not the reason for its various phases, as this reply is more beneficial.

430. From this verse we learn that Muslims should conduct their affairs in accordance with lunar dates as Allah Almighty has cited the moon as an auspiciouis symbol. We also learn that lunar months are better than solar months because the almanac of these months is in the heaven. The moon is a means of determining the dates. On the other hand, the almanac of solar months is found in this world only.

431. The non-believers of Arabia regarded entering their homes through the front gate while in Ihraam as sinful. They would go to and from the house through the back entrance or from the house top. In refutation of this practice this verse was revealed. From this we learn that to regard anything as prohibited without any prohibition is the practice of the ignorant. Also, regarding uselesss and absurd things as commendable acts, too is the practice of fools. Reward will only be obtained for doing those permissible acts which are performed well.

432. This is a command of permissibility i.e. whether in Ihraam or otherwise, one can enter the house from the door. However, this does not mean that one cannot enter the house through the ceiling when necessary.

190.And fight in the way of Allah against those who fight [433] with you but do not transgress [434]. Surely, Allah does not love the transgressors.

433. By this verse it is meant those who are presently engaged in battle with you or those who are preparing for a battle, fight them. Thus, this verse is not abrogated but unshakable in its order i.e. the children, the aged, the retired priests, women etc. of the non-believers who have nothing to do with the battle, are not to be killed.

434. There are various ways of transgressing the limits e.g. to kill those who are prohibited from killing, to fight in breach of treaty, to fight against those non-believers without first inviting them to accept Islam, to kill those non-believers who have accepted to pay Jizyah (poll tax) etc. as Islam has prohibited all this.

191. And slay [435] them (the infidels) wherever you find them, and turn [436] them away as they turned you away and mischief is worse than murder. And do not fight them near the Sacred Mosque [437], unless they fight with you there. And if they attack you (first) then kill them. This is the penalty of such infidels.

435. From this verse we learn that while it is a good act to forgive a personal enemy, it is necessary to seek vengeance in respect of national and religious enemies, for forgiving them could lead to the destruction of the nation or the Religion. In all personal matters forgiveness is commendable.

436. Therefore, on the day of the Victory of Makkah those who accepted Islam remained in Makkah, but those who did not accept Islam were either killed, like Ibn Khatal etc. or escaped from Makkah, like Hazrat Akramah who later returned to accept Islam. From this we learn that non-believers must not be permitted to stay in Makkah. It is stated in a Hadith that all Yahud and Nasara must be expelled from Arabia; only the believers should be allowed to inhabit Hijaz.

437. By Masjid-e-Haraam is meant the Holy Ka'bah or that sacred mosque in the precinct of which the Ka'bah is found, while the word 'near' indicates the boundaries of the sacred Haram, which constitute territory of several miles on all four sides of Makkah. The respect of the Sacred Haram can be seen from the fact that no battle is allowed to commence from here, neither a person committing crime outside its boundary is punished here after he has sought its sanctuary.

192.And if they desist [438], then surely, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

438. If they abstain from infidelity and polytheism - because there is no eternal salvation for the infidels. What this verse infers is that even now if these infidels accept Islam, all their past sins will be forgiven.

193.And fight with them until there is no more mischief [439]. And be there worship [440] of only one Allah. But, if they desist, there should be no hostility, except against the oppressors [441].

439. From this verse we learn that the purpose of Jihad is not the total annihilation of the infidels but to destroy the power of infidelity so that they do not become an obstacle in the propagation of Islam.

440. The might of the infidels should be destroyed so that the institution of worship of One True God can be established without any obstacle. Another meaning of this verse is that only Muslims should inhabit the sacred city of Makkah to worship the One True Allah, no one else should be granted residential rights.

441. From this we learn that a tyrant Muslim can be killed e.g. a dacoit (bandit) a murderer, a rebel, etc. The details of this are found in books on jurisprudence.

194.The sacred month is in exchange for the sacred month [442], and for all violations is legal retribution. So, whoever has violated you, then violate [443] him in the same way that he has violated you and fear Allah and know that Allah is with the God-fearing [444].

اَلشَّهْرُ الْحَرَامُ بِالشَّهْرِ الْحَرَامِ وَالْحُرُمٰتُ قِصَاصٌ ؕ فَمَنِ اعْتَدٰى عَلَيْكُمْ فَاعْتَدُوْا عَلَيْهِ بِمِثْلِ مَا اعْتَدٰى عَلَيْكُمْ ۪ وَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَ اعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿۱۹۴﴾

442. Reference in this verse is made to all activities leading to the Treaty of Hudaibiyah. In the year 6 A.H. when the infidels of Makkah stopped you, Oh Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from performing Umrah in Zil Qadah, and threatened you with war in the boundary of the Haram territory, which was against accepted practice as fighting in Zil-Qadah, in the sacred territory was forbidden. Your retaliatory preparation for defensive war, the taking of the Oath of Ridwaan and the subsequent performance of Umrah in 7th year A.H. will not be regarded as offensive. This verse is a reply to those people who were making adverse criticism against the Muslims for showing readiness for military confrontation at Hudaibiya in Zil Qadah, a month in which all military action was prohibited.

443. To return high mindedness with high mindedness is the same as calling the punishment of evil as evil. Thus, the punishment of highminded is not being highminded but meting out justice. For this reason the word high minded or excessiveness is used. Says Allah Almighty "And the response of the evil is evil and the life of it" (S42 : V40).

444. In terms of mercy and bounty the commentary of this verse would be:"Surely the Mercy of Allah is near to the good doers"(S7:V56). This does not mean that Allah is unmindful about the disbelievers and wicked sinners. Allah Almighty says: "He is with you wherever you may be"(S57 : V4).

195. And spend [445] in the Way of Allah and cause not destruction [446] by your own hands, and do good. Surely, Allah loves those who are kind.

445. Spend on Holy War, religious education and all those things which will gain the pleasure of Allah and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

446.Stopping charitable deeds is indeed placing oneself in ruination. Thus, it becomes incumbent to guard oneself against destructive measures, like suicide, hunger strike, eating poison, deliberately going to places of plague, etc.

196. And complete the Hajj [447] and Umrah [448] for the sake of Allah. Then if you are prevented [449], offer a sacrificial animal [450] that can be obtained with ease. And do not shave [451] your heads until the sacrificial animal has reached its place of slaughter. And, however, if anyone among you is ill or has an ailment of the head [452], a ransom of fasting (of three days) or charity or sacrifice [453]. And when you are at ease [454], then whoever takes advantage [455] of combining Umrah with Hajj, on him there is sacrifice, which may be obtained easily. Then, who cannot afford (sacrifice) he should fast [456] for three days during Hajj and seven days when he returns home, these are ten days complete. This command is for him who is not a dweller of Makkah [457]. And remain fearful of Allah and know that the punishment of Allah is severe.

447. There are two distinct differences between Hajj and Umrah. Firstly W*uqoof-e Arafat* (waiting in the Field of Arafat) on the 9th day of Zil Hajj. is Fard for Hajj, which is not required for Umrah. Only Tawaaf and Saee are incumbent for Umrah. Secondly, while Umrah can be made during any time of one's life, Hajj can only be performed in its prescribed month i.e. between the 8 - 12 Zil Hajj only. Sometimes Umrah is referred to as Hajj-e-Asgar, (minor Hajj) and Hajj is called Hajj-e-Akbar, the greater Hajj. From this verse we learn that of the three types of Hajj, i.e. Efraad, Qeraan and Tamatto, Hajj-e- Qeraan is the most superior. In this form of Hajj one Ihraam is worn for Umrah and Hajj.

448. From this verse we learn that a non-incumbent worship or duty begun, becomes incumbent to complete. If a person wears the Ihraam for a voluntary Hajj or voluntary Umrah, he is now duty bound to complete this in terms of this verse. Likewise, if a person starts a voluntary Salaah or voluntary fast he is duty bound to complete it.

449. 'Prevented' means after wearing the Ihraam you are unable to complete the Hajj due to illness.

450. If a Muslim wears the Ihraam for Hajj or Umrah, but is unable to perform this due to some unforseen circumstances, such a person should send an animal to be slaughtered at the Haram Shareef with the expressed instruction of slaughtering the animal on a specific day. On the appointed day the animal will be slaughtered at the Haram while he should take a haircut and relieve himself of the Ihraam.

451. From this issue we learn that sacrificial animals can only be slaughtered within the boundary of the Haram. Part of the Hudaibiyah territory forms the boundary of the Haram wherein the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم offered sacrifice during the signing of the Treaty of Hudaibiyah.

452. By 'ailment of the head' would include all ailments of the head which would force a pilgrim to take a haircut e.g. delirium , acute headache etc. for which a specialist doctor prescribes an immediate haircut. This also includes presence of lice etc. and any other affliction.

453.By 'sacrifice' is meant any pilgrim who is forced to take a short haircut should keep three fasts or feed six poor people, giving 2 1/4 kg wheat per person or offer sacrifice of an animal. It should be remembered that if a Wajib act is omitted in Salaah it can be corrected by performing SAJDAH-E-SAHU, but if a wajib act of Hajj is left out, a sacrifice of an animal in its place becomes incumbent.

454. The word 'ease' means that Allah out of His infinite bounty saves the pilgrims from experiencing any obstacle or removes his obstacle which can enable him to perform Hajj. On such a person Hajj or Umrah becomes incumbent N.B. On the occassion of the Treaty of Hudaibiya, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had sent Hazrat Uthman bin Affan (on whom be peace) to the infidels in Makkah to initiate peace talks. Although the infidels had granted him permission to perform his Umrah, Hazrat Uthman (on whom be peace) refused, saying "How can I perform Umrah when the Ka'bah of my heart and the nucleus of my Faith, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is prevented from performing the Umrah." This was indeed the excellence of Hazrat Uthman's faith. Good manners and wisdom is one thing but, the grief of love is another matter.

455. In this verse Tamatto is used literally, which in terms of Islamic law includes Qeraan and Tamatto. Hence, a person who is able to perform Qeraan and Tamatto would offer sacrifice to express his gratitude for being able to perform the above. Furthermore, as this sacrifice is one of gratitude and not a penalty, he can eat the meat of it himself and distribute its meat to the rich and the poor.

456. Fast on the 7, 8, and 9, of Zil Hajj.

457. The permissibility of Hajj-e-Tamatto and Hajj-e-Qeraan is only for the non-residents

SECTION 25

197. Hajj is (during) well-known months[458] and whosoever undertakes to perform Hajj [459] therein, is not permitted to indulge in obscenity, nor any wickedness no acrimonious quarrelling [460] during the period of Hajj. And whatever good you do, is known to Allah. And take full provision [461] for the journey, but the best of such provisions is piety [462]. And fear Me, O people of understanding [463].

458. Although the rites of Hajj are performed from the 7th to the 12th of Zil-Hajj, Shawwal and Zil Qaidah are included as months of Hajj because during these months Ihraam can be worn without any restriction and one can perfrom Hajj-e-Tamatto with the same Ihraam.

459. This verse hints that Ihraam should not be worn before Shawwal. The months of Hajj are complete - Shawwal, Zil Qaidah and the ten days of Zil Hajj. By quarrels and arguments means worldly arguments. Religious debates are, however, permissible.

460. From this we learn that while rewards of good deeds increase in sacred places, the punishment of the sins multiplies as well. If the reward of good deeds in Makkah is 100 000 the punishment of the sins will be likewise. Although impiety and wickedness are sinful acts wherever they are committed, but during of Makkah, because the residents of Makkah are prohibited from performing Umrah during the period of Hajj. Hence, they cannot perform neither of these two forms of Hajj. It is important to remember that Masjid-e Haraam 'The Sacred Mosque' includes Makkah and all its suburbs. Hence all those who reside within the boundaries of Haram would not be governed by this law, i.e. he will not be allowed to perform Umrah during the period of Hajj. The word "AHL" of a 'family' signifies wife i.e. a person residing in Makkah cannot perform Hajj-e-Tamatto. From this we learn that the wife is part of the family.

فِيْهِنَّ الْحَجَّ فَلَا رَفَثَ وَ لَا فُسُوْقَ ۙ وَ لَا

Hajj in Makkah their punishment will magnify. It is for this reason 'during Hajj' or the period of Hajj is stipulated as a restriction. This does not mean that after Hajj one should indulge in sinful activities like fights, and quarrels, without any fear of Allah.

461. From this verse we understand that to equip ourselves fully with the necessities of the journey is not going against reliance on Allah, but on the contrary, it is an essential part of it. Another important thing we learn is that one cannot go for Hajj through begging or taking a loan. Hajj is only Fard on those who have the financial means at their disposal.

462. From it we also learn that poverty is a root of many evils. A poor person can turn to stealing, banditry, begging, etc. Hence the decree is, keep your necessities with you while on Hajj to maintain piety, thereby safeguarding yourself from stealing and begging.

463. True wisdom is that which inculcates fear of Allah in a person. Any wisdom with which one obtains the world and not the Hereafter, is no wisdom at all. Abu Jahl whose wisdom was inclined towards worldly gains, proved to be foolish, while Hazrat Bilal (on whom be peace) who showed religious inclination, proved to be wisdom personified.

198. There is no blame upon you for seeking bounty [464] from your Lord (during Hajj), then when you return from Arafaat [465], remember Allah at Al Mash'aril Haraam [466]. And remember [467] Allah as He has guided you, though before that you were among those who were astray [468].

464. From this verse we learn that Islam does not prohibit trading, hiring of camels, etc during Hajj, as such an activity will not have any adverse effect on Hajj. However, if this were to prove an obstacle for proper completion of the rites of Hajj, than abstention from it will be better. In this verse there is a hint for the permissibility of hiring an Imam on a salary basis, hiring a worker for the general upkeeping of the mosque, will not have any harmful effect on Salaah. This verse is also a proof for decorating and hiring stalls for lawful business at the Urs of the Saints. During Hajj, mercantile market is in full progress. Thus, this verse was revealed to reply to those critics who advocate that commerce should not be allowed during Hajj, i.e. material activities should not be mixed with spiritual activities like Hajj.
465.From this verse emerge two issues:
1.To be at Arafat is a Fard part of Hajj - for one can only return from Arafat if one has gone there.
2.The rich and the poor are all equal in respect of the basic principles of Hajj. Prior to Islam, only the wealthy people went to Muzdalifa while the poor went to Arafat. In this verse Allah Almighty has brought uniformity by addressing all the rich and the poor - to return from Arafat The word Arafat is derived from 'URF' which means to know, to accept, to declare. Hazrat Adam met Sayidah Hawa علیہ السلام here, and came to know one another. Likewise, it is at this sacred place that the piligrims make an open declaration and confession of their sins. Hence this place is named Arafat, and this day, the 9th day of Zil Hajj, is called Arafah.
466. During Hajj, waiting at the Plain of Muzdalifa is Wajib. Here, the staying at the sacred hill of Masharul-Haraam is regarded very auspicious, where Allah Almighty should be remembered the most.
467. From the word 'and remember Him' is understood that at certain stipulated places one should engage in those prayers and invocations which are narrated by the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم as Allah Almighty has provided guidance thereof. The purpose of this is to obtain the efficacy of the tongue through constant invocation or remembrance of Allah - an exercise which is very effective towards realisation of spiritual goals.
468. By 'gone astray' means mankind had gone astray in respect of their beliefs, deeds, forms of worship, etiquettes. Through the blessings of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم mankind was salvaged of these ills. From this one learns that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the greatest bounty of Allah for which one should expresss one's heartfelt gratitude.

199. Then return from the place (O Quraish) [469] from where (all) the other people return and seek forgiveness of Allah. Surely, Allah is The Most Forgiving, Ever Merciful.

469. In this verse Allah addresses the Quraish, while 'people' refers to all the pilgrims in general. What this really means is, Allah is informing the Quraish like other pilgrims they too should return from Arafat with the rest of the pilgrims.

فَاِذَا قَضَيْتُمْ مَّنَاسِكَكُمْ فَاذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ
كَذِكْرِكُمْ اٰبَآءَكُمْ اَوْ اَشَدَّ ذِكْرًا ؕ فَمِنَ

مَا لَهٗ فِى الْاٰخِرَةِ مِنْ خَلَاقٍ ﴿۲۰۰﴾

200. Then when you have completed your rites of Hajj, remember Allah as you remembered your forefathers [470] or with greater remembrance. And among the people there are some who say: "O our Lord, grant us (your bounties) in this world". But, they will have no share in the Hereafter [471].

470. From 'So remember Allah' we learn that loud invocations of Allah is a good act because Allah Almighty Himself has decreed that when you return after completing your Hajj do so in the manner in which you remembered your ancestors. It was the practice of the infidels of Arabia that whenever they invoked the name of their ancestors they did so aloud and in a gathering. Likewise, Allah's name, too, should be invoked aloud and in public.

471. From this verse two issues emerge:

1.To seek material benefits only is undesirable; in every worship and prayer of ours we should seek the pleasure and approval of Allah.

2.While generous people show disapproval on asking of them, Allah Almighty is so Benevolent and Generous that He becomes angry for asking Him less or not asking Him at all. Therefore, ask from Him as much as you want and whenever you want. It should be remembered that this verse is concerning those infidels who had not acknowledged the belief in the Hereafter , therefore they were only hankering after the worldly things. Hence, Allah says that they shall have no share in the things of the Hereafter.

وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّقُوْلُ رَبَّنَآ اٰتِنَا فِى الدُّنْيَا
حَسَنَةً وَّ فِى الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّ قِنَا
عَذَابَ النَّارِ ﴿۲۰۱﴾

201.And of them there are some who say: "O our Lord, bestow upon us the best of this world and the Hereafter, and protect us from the punishment of Hell-fire" [472].

472. This is an all comprehensive Prayer - in which through just a few words every good of this world and the Hereafter is sought. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would always recite this Prayer.

اُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمْ نَصِيْبٌ مِّمَّا كَسَبُوْا ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ
سَرِيْعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿۲۰۲﴾

202. To such people there is a share from their earnings [473]. And Allah is swift at reckoning [474].

Marfat.com

473. From this verse emerge two issues:
1. Prayer is a means of acquisition as well as an action and incantation.
2. It is desirable to ask for one's needs after doing any good deed. Hence, dua is made after Salatul Janazah because this Prayer is a good deed.
474. Soon Allah will take account, (reckoning) of good deeds will be hastened. It also means Allah will take account of the entire creation quickly, while the greater part of the Day of Judgement will be devoted to portraying the dignity, praise and greatness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , as this is the main purpose of the Day of Judgement. Says Allah: "It is near, that your Lord may make you stand at a place where all should praise you" (S17 : V79).

203.And remember Allah during the numbered days (3 days after 9th Zil-Hajj) [475]. Whoso hastens (his departure) in 2 days, there is no sin upon him and whoso delays (until the 3rd day) there is no sin upon him either, provided he is God-fearing [476]. And fear Allah and know surely, you have to return to Him.

وَاذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ فِيْٓ اَيَّامٍ مَّعْدُوْدٰتٍ ؕ فَمَنْ
تَعَجَّلَ فِيْ يَوْمَيْنِ فَلَآ اِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ ۚ وَ مَنْ
تَاَخَّرَ فَلَآ اِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ ۙ لِمَنِ اتَّقٰى ؕ وَ اتَّقُوا
اللّٰهَ وَ اعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّكُمْ اِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُوْنَ ﴿٢٠٣﴾

475. 'The numbered days' in this verse refers to the 'Days of Tashreeq'which begin from Fajr of the 9th of Zil Hajj to the Asr of the 13th day of Zil-Hajj. During these days (10th - 13th of Zil Hajj) proclaim the Remembrance of Allah at Mina - The word 'zikr' or remembrance refers to Proclaiming of the Glory of Allah in the form of Takbeer, because the actual Talbiya of Haj is completed on the 10th of Zil Hajj after stoning the Jamratul Uqba. Talbiya is reciting of Labbaik during Hajj.
476. From this we learn that it is permissible for the pilgrims to return from Mina on either the 12th of Zil Haj - but it is better to return on the 13th. One can also perform Ramee (stoning of the devils) before the Zawaal of the 13th of Zil Hajj as explained in Books of Jurisprudence. However, the staying at Mina on the 13th should only be to gain nearness of Allah (Taqwa) and not for any personal glory.

204.And of the people, there is one whose speech pleases [477] you about this worldly life and brings Allah as a witness [478] on what is in his heart, while he is the greatest disputer [479].

وَ مِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يُّعْجِبُكَ قَوْلُهٗ فِي
الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَ يُشْهِدُ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى مَا فِيْ
قَلْبِهٖ ۙ وَ هُوَ اَلَدُّ الْخِصَامِ ﴿٢٠٤﴾

477. This verse was revealed concerning Akhnas bin Shareeq, a well known hypocrite, who would use words of flattery when in the august gathering of the Holy Prophet as an outward show of his love for the Messenger of Allah, but inwardly was busy sowing seeds of mischief among the Muslims, destroy their quadrupeds (animals) burn their property, etc. From this we learn that without practice, mere verbal demonstration of love is the way of the hypocrites.
478. This verse teaches us that to make Allah a witness over falsehood or to swear His Name in vain is a sin upon sin. Even to mention Allah's Name when committing a forbidden act is in itself forbidden e.g. reading Bismillah at the time of drinking alcohol, or gambling or taking a bribe, etc, as this is defaming the Glorious Name of Allah.

479.From this we learn that flatterers are usually deceivers as can be seen from the example of Akhnas bin Shareeq - whose tongue was sweet but his action was diabolical , and concerning whom this verse was revealed. Test a person through deed and not through word Remember, all that glitters is not gold.

وَ اِذَا تَوَلّٰى سَعٰى فِي الْاَرْضِ لِيُفْسِدَ فِيْهَا وَيُهْلِكَ الْحَرْثَ وَ النَّسْلَ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَسَادَ ﴿۲۰۵﴾

205.And when he turns back, he runs about spreading mischief in the earth, and destroys crops and human lives. And, surely, Allah does not like such mischief.

206.And when it is said to him: "Fear Allah". He is prompted by arrogance to commit more sins[480]. For such people, Hell is sufficient. It is, undoubtedly, a wretched resting place.

480. A hypocrite will increase his sinful and wicked actions even when one tries to stop him. Such a person thinks that it is beyond his dignity to pay heed to the words of the learned. From this we learn that repitition of a minor sin becomes a major sin.

207.And among the people is he, who sells his life in seeking the pleasure of Allah. And Allah is Compassionate to His bondsmen [481]

481. This verse was revealed in honour of Suhaib bin Sinaan (on whom be peace) who while migrating from Makkah fell into the hands of the polytheists, but gained his freedom to reach Madina after disclosing to them the whereabouts of his entire possessions. From this we learn that no one can ever reach the high status of a Sahabi (Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as the Holy QUR'AAN endorses the acceptance of their good deeds. How can anyone else obtain this lofty position?

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا ادْخُلُوْا فِي السِّلْمِ كَآفَّةً ۪ وَ لَا تَتَّبِعُوْا خُطُوٰتِ الشَّيْطٰنِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ مُّبِيْنٌ ﴿۲۰۸﴾

208.O you who believe! Enter into Islam as a whole [482] and do not follow the footsteps [483] of the devil. Surely, he is your open enemy [484].

482. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam was the leader of the Yahud in whose religion eating of the flesh of the camel was forbidden. After accepting Islam he avoided eating the meat of the camel thinking that eating it was not Fard in Islam, while it was forbidden in Judaism, thus not eating it will not be regarded sinful. In response to this Allah revealed this verse to proclaim that no other religion should be given priority over Islam; that Islam should be accepted in its entirety in order to become complete believers.

483. Shaving of the beard, imitating the non-believers in their dressing, etc contributes towards the weakening of one's faith. When one accepts Islam one must become a Muslim outwardly and inwardly. Can one drink sweet water from a dirty glass? Similarly, how can one read the QUR'AAN in the traditional garb of infidels! One must become a personification of Islam in its entirety. This can only become possible if one does not imitate actions of any other religion which is equal to following the footsteps of the devil.

484. Because the devil is an open enemy of Muslims, imitating the actions of other religions or other religious personages is falling into the trap of the devil, e.g. avoiding eating the meat of the camel for the sake of respecting the law of Judaism is a serious sin. Similarly, to avoid offering Qurbani (sacrifice) of the cow in India, just to please the Hindus or stopping of Azaan or giving it softly in certain places, is part of this sinful act.

209.And if you slip after you have received clear command, then know unto you Allah is Mighty, the Most Wise [485].

485. From this verse we learn that the law pertaining to sins committed out of ignorance is different to the sins committed knowingly. The punishment of the latter is more severe.

210. For what they are waiting, but only for this, that (torment of) Allah [486] should come to them in the coverings of clouds and the angels descending as well. And the matter is then decided. And to Allah are all matters returned.

هَلْ يَنْظُرُوْنَ اِلَّآ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَهُمُ اللّٰهُ فِيْ ظُلَلٍ مِّنَ الْغَمَامِ وَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ وَ قُضِيَ الْاَمْرُ ؕ وَاِلَى اللّٰهِ تُرْجَعُ الْاُمُوْرُ ﴿٢١٠﴾

486. Allah is personally free from all movement and space. Thus, in this verse the word 'should come' refers to the coming of His Mercy or His punishment sent upon the sinful.

However, in this verse reference is made to His punishment in the form of a possessive pronoun.

SECTION 26

211.Ask [487] the children of Israel how many clear signs We have sent to them and whoso changes Allah's favour after it has come to him, then, surely, Allah is severe in punishment [488].

سَلْ بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ كَمْ اٰتَيْنٰهُمْ مِّنْ اٰيَةٍۭ بَيِّنَةٍ ؕ وَ مَنْ يُّبَدِّلْ نِعْمَةَ اللّٰهِ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَتْهُ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ شَدِيْدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٢١١﴾

487. This asking is to convince and embarrass the Yahud, and to make them admit their disobedience and confess about the Bounties of Allah.

488. The Yahud deliberately altered and distorted those verses of the Tauraat in which the beautiful qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were described. This question refers to Yahud i.e. ask them about this alteration and distortion. From this we learn that the verses of Allah are His supreme bounties. To alter or distort them in word or meaning is inviting Divine wrath and punishment. Unlearned and misleading commentators of the QUR'AAN should take a lesson from this act of the Yahud.

212.To the infidels this worldly [489] life is attractive and they laugh [490] at those who believe, but those who fear (Allah) will be above them on the Day of Resurrection [491]. And Allah gives provisions to whom He pleases, without account [492].

489. Worldly life is that which is wasted on one's whims and fancies while that which is spent on acquiring the means for the Hereafter, by the the Grace of Allah is religious life. In this verse reference is made to those who are unmindful about the Hereafter.

490.From this verse we learn that to make fun of poor Muslims or to disgrace a believer is the way of life of the disbelievers. No matter how wealthy a sinner or a disbeliever may be, he is in reality disgraceful, while a believer from any race or 'clan' may be materially poor, but he is honourable, provided he is pious.

491. It should be remembered that the believers on the Day of Judgement will be given prominence and dignity and sent to Paradise while the non-believers will be in Hell. In reality, even today the believers are given prominence over the non-believers. Allah the Almighty says: "The honour is for Allah, and His Messenger and the believers" (S63 : V8).

492. Wealthy in this world. From this verse we understand that having abundance of wealth in this world is no criteria for possessing the love of Allah. Many a times the non-believers are found to be wealthy, and the believers to be poor. Although Hazrat Imam Hussain (on whom be peace) was martyred and the people of Yazid gained outward victory, this victory of theirs was the most detestable in the sight of Allah. Thus the sign of Allah's love is marked by being on the path of guidance.

كَانَ النَّاسُ اُمَّةً وَّاحِدَةً ۟ فَبَعَثَ اللّٰهُ النَّبِيّٖنَ مُبَشِّرِيْنَ وَ مُنْذِرِيْنَ ۪ وَ اَنْزَلَ مَعَهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ بِالْحَقِّ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ فِيْمَا اخْتَلَفُوْا فِيْهِ ؕ وَمَا اخْتَلَفَ فِيْهِ اِلَّا الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوْهُ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَتْهُمُ الْبَيِّنٰتُ بَغْيًۢا بَيْنَهُمْ ۚ فَهَدَى اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لِمَا اخْتَلَفُوْا فِيْهِ مِنَ الْحَقِّ بِاِذْنِهٖ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يَهْدِيْ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿٢١٣﴾

213.Mankind was on one religion. Then Allah sent the Prophets 494 as bearers of glad-tidings and warners, and sent down with them a true Scripture 495 to judge between the people in their differences. And none differed over it (Scripture) except those to whom it was given, even after the clear commands 496 were given to them, out of jealousy among themselves [497]. Then Allah, by His Grace, guided the believers to the truth, concerning which they had differed. And Allah guides whom He wills to the Straight Path [498].

493. Hazrat Imam Hassan (on whom be peace) says that once there came a period when the Light of Prophethood had disappeared from this world and all the people had become non-believers. Then Allah out of His infinite Mercy sent Prophets for the guidance of man (Tafseer Kabeer). This verse could also mean from the period of Hazrat Adam عليه السلام up to Hazrat Nuh عليه السلام people remained believers. Then differences of beliefs began to creep into them, i.e. some remained believers, others became non-believers. As a result of this Allah sent Prophets to bring the people on the path of guidance.

494. From this we learn that any unity which is based on religious misconceptions should be abolished. If people are united on sin and wickedness, unbelief and polytheism, it should be abolished because this is not a healthy order. Any order that is established should be on the principles of good, disciplined order.

495. In this verse the word "with them" is used and not 'upon them' so that it should be understood that every Prophet was not given a new Book. On some Prophets new Books were revealed while others propagated the message of earlier Books. It should be remembered that only Four Books were revealed, while the revealed scrolls totalled 110. Hazrat Adam عليه السلام was given 30, Hazrat Sheeth عليه السلام was given 50 scrolls; Hazrat Idrees عليه السلام was given 10 Hazrat Musa عليه السلام given 10 and Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام was given 10.

214.Are you under the impression that you will enter Paradise without such a trial has not come [499] to you as it came to those who passed on before you. They were touched by poverty and hardships and were shaken until even their Rasool (Messenger) and those who believed with him said: "When will come the help of Allah?"[500]. Hark! surely the help of Allah is near [501].

499. During the siege of the Battle of the Trench, Muslims were greatly afflicted by hunger, bitter cold and fear. These verses were revealed to console them.

496. The uneducated people accepted and acted upon the teachings of the Prophets, but it was the educated group who rejected the Prophets of Allah, just because they felt that this would lessen their authority, dignity and wealth. Thus, the educated group continued to oppose the Prophets of Allah. In this verse there is solace for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. if the general learned group of the Yahud are bent on opposing you, Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم do not feel disheartened because they have been doing this to My earlier Prophets too.

497. From this we learn that the quarrelsome people are those who are on the path of falsehood. The truly guided Ulama cannot be regarded as disputers or quarrelsome. In the fight between the police and the criminals, the police cannot be termed as quarrelsome , it is the criminals who are disturbing the order. Furthermore, we learn that if Divine Guidance cannot provide assistance then mere knowledge becomes a means of dissent and quarrel. If knowledge is Divine, inspired it becomes the source of dispelling dissension. Sometimes knowledge, too, becomes the means of heresy e.g. the knowledge of the devil. Says Allah Almighty "Allah led him astray in spite of his knowledge"(S45 : V23).

498. From this verse we understand that true Guidance is obtained only from the Grace of Allah-This is not dependent on knowledge, creed nationality being descendants of Prophets etc.

أَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ أَنْ تَدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ وَلَمَّا

Marfat.com

500.These words "When will come the help of Allah" were uttered by the Sahabah (Companions of the Prophet) during the Battle of the Trench under extreme anxiety. They were not uttered to express their doubt or dissatisfaction about Allah. From this we learn that the utterance of "Oh Allah! when will you help us" by an anxious and restless person too is a kind of a prayer, as dua takes many forms.
501.To such a question Allah's response to the Prophets and the Believers was: Allah's help is near ! Or it is a direct reply to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم beloved Companions Do not Fear ! Allah's help is near!

215. They ask you (O Muhammad) as to what should they spend [502], please declare (O Muhammad): "Whatever you spend of good in charity. The most deserving are your parents and near relatives [503] and the orphans and the needy and the wayfarers"And whatever good you do[504], surely, Allah is fully aware of it.

يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ مَاذَا يُنْفِقُوْنَ ؕ قُلْ مَآ اَنْفَقْتُمْ
مِّنْ خَيْرٍ فَلِلْوَالِدَيْنِ وَالْاَقْرَبِيْنَ وَالْيَتٰمٰى
وَ الْمَسٰكِيْنِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيْلِ ؕ وَ مَا تَفْعَلُوْا
مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ بِهٖ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۲۱۵﴾

502.From this verse two issues are hinted:
1.Only wholesome and legally earned wealth should be given in the Path of Allah as suggested by the word 'good'. Says Allah Almighty: "You shall never attain good unless you spend your favourite things" (S3:V92) e.g.The sweetmeats distributed on the Night of Baraah or the (15th night of Shabaan), to offer Fatiha for the deceased on food which the deceased liked.
2. It is an act of excellence to spend in the way of Allah in one's lifetime as indicated by "you spend".
503. This verse teaches us that charity begins at home i.e. it should first be given to one's relatives than to others. However Zakaat can not be given to one's parents, one's children, one's spouse, it can be given to any other needy and destitute Muslim.
504. From this emerge two issues:
1.One should not only suffice on monetary worships, but perform all types of worships because after "what you spend" is mentioned "whatever wealth you spend in good".
2. In all types of worships one should not only stop at Faraid (compulsory) worships but perform Nawafil (voluntary or optional worships) as well, as deduced from "out of good" The compulsory worships are spiritual nourishment, but the voluntary worships are spiritual fruit.

216.(Fighting in the Way of Allah) is made obligatory upon you, although it is disliked by you [505]. This may be so, that you dislike a thing which actually may be good for you. And perhaps you desire a thing, but it may be bad for you. And Allah knows (the actual truth) while you know not 506.

كُتِبَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْقِتَالُ وَ هُوَ كُرْهٌ لَّكُمْ ۚ
وَعَسٰٓى اَنْ تَكْرَهُوْا شَيْـًٔا وَّ هُوَ خَيْرٌ
لَّكُمْ ۚ وَعَسٰٓى اَنْ تُحِبُّوْا شَيْـًٔا وَّ هُوَ شَرٌّ
لَّكُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يَعْلَمُ وَ اَنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۲۱۶﴾ ع ۲۶ ۱۰

505.The word 'disliked' means disliked by ones inner self and not by the Beloved Companions as they never disliked any Divine Order. Disapproval is an act of heresy, and kufr. From this we learn that JIHAD (fighting in the way of Allah), is compulsory only when all its conditions are satisfied. Sometimes Jihad becomes Fard-e-Kifaya - (if few take part in it the rest will be absolved of its obligation i.e. a general obligation, sometimes it is Farde-Ayn (implicit obligation) from which none is absolved. Further, it should be borne in mind that to satisfy the requirements of an obligation, becomes obligatory too, when Jihad becomes obligatory the reparations for it become obligatory as well. Allah Almighty says:

"And keep ready for them the strength you can....." (S8 : V60).
506. Man should not become dissatisfied with Allah when he is afflicted by material problems or when his prayer is unanswered. On the contrary he should realize that something good lies therein for him e.g. a patient asks for sweet medicine but the doctor provides him with bitter medicine.

يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ عَنِ الشَّهْرِ الْحَرَامِ قِتَالٍ فِيْهِ ؕ
قُلْ قِتَالٌ فِيْهِ كَبِيْرٌ ؕ وَ صَدٌّ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ

217.They ask you (O Muhammad) about fighting in the sacred month, please declare (O Muhammad): "Fighting therein is a great sin [507], but to prevent somebody from the Way of Allah and disbelief in Him and (preventing access to) Masjid-al-Haraam and driving out its residents are greater sins [508] in the sight of Allah. (Their) Mischief is more grievious than killing" [509]. And they will continue to fight with you until they force you to renounce your faith [510] if they can. And whoever of you turns back from his faith [511] and dies while he was a disbeliever, for them their deeds have become worthless in this world[512] and in the Hereafter and they are the inmates of the Fire and they will abide therein forever.

507. In the early days of Islam war was forbidden during 4 months, namely Rajab, Zil-Qaidah, Zil-Hajj and Muharram. Even the idol worshippers of Makkah, prior to Islam, observed this rule. Once, when Hazrat Abdullah bin Jahash inadvertently declared war on the idol worshippers on 1st Rajab thinking it to be 30th of Jamadil Akhir, many objections were raised. It is on this occasion that the above verse was revealed. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty did not refer to this war of the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a serious violation of the above, but as a general decree, because this Jihad of theirs was inadvertent. The word 'great' is literally used and not to mean "serious violation", because during this period too, war in these four months was not regarded as a grave sin.
508. From this discussion, two issues emerge:
1. To prevent a Muslim from worshipping without a valid reason, and to expel Muslims from their land is a grievous sin.
2. One sinner does not have the right to taunt or reproach another wrong doer until he abstains from his sins. Allah Almighty, too, is telling the non-believers that you are taunting the Muslims for their one error - why don't you first take stock of yourselves?

509. Gist of the matter is Hazrat Abdullah bin Jahash's declaration of war was an inadvertent act and as such, is free of sin, but, you Oh disbelievers, are willfully committing despicable sins and yet you are reproaching the Muslims for their one minor fault. From this, one learns that when the pious persons are taunted, Allah Almighty Himself replies to these taunters - without the pious having to reply. This incident highlights the status of the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

510. From this discussion two issues emerge:

1. A non believer can never be a friend of a believer;

2. By the Grace of Allah the non-believers could never get the better of the Companions because their faith is impregnable as indicated by "if they can"

511. Apostasy results in the ruination of all one's good deeds. Therefore if a pilgrim becomes an apostate (MURTAD) and thereafter accepts Islam, he will have to perform his Haj again as his first Hajj becomes null and void. Likewise, all good deeds performed in the state of apostasy are all null and void and not acceptable. However, an original non-believers good deeds become worthy of reward after he accepts Islam. One can also deduce that the Tauba of a Murtad (one who sincerely seeks forgiveness) is acceptable even though he may be worse than the original non-believer.

512. The apostate loses out in this world in the following manner: his wife comes out of his Nikah (marriage), he is no longer liable to receive any inheritance from his relatives, his wealth can be changed into booty, a decree can be issued for his death, all forms of love relations with Muslims are forbidden for him, no assistance can be rendered to him by a Muslim, and in the Hereafter he is beyond redemption and void of any reward. In the light of this it should be borne in mind that one should always be mindful of one's end (the moment of departure from this world). May Allah grant all Muslims a blissful end (death with faith).

218.Surely those who have believed and those who have left their homes for Allah and fought [513] in the way of Allah, it is those who look forward [514] to the Mercy of Allah. And Allah is Most Forgiving, Ever Merciful [515].

513. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty has mentioned different types of worships at different places. Sometimes only decrees regarding Salaah, Fasting or Zakaat are revealed, sometimes, regarding migration, sometime regarding JIHAD (Holy War). This is because different injunctions were revealed on different occassions. When only Salaah and Zakaat were made obligatory then these verses were revealed. When fasting or migration and Jihad became incumbent they were mentioned thereafter. Hence there is no contradiction in any verse.

514. From this verse emerge three issues:

1. A believer never relies on his good deeds but hopes for the better which is sometimes accompanied by fear.

2. True salvation will be obtained through the Grace of Allah and not through his good deeds.

3. True hope is one which is based on having done good deeds. Minus doing good deeds and hoping for the best is merely deceiving oneself.

515. Mujahideen of Islam participated in the inadvertent battle with Hazrat Abdullah bin Jahash. However, as the Muslims were already extricated of this blame, some thought that although the Muslims would not be held sinful, they would neither be rewarded for it. This verse was revealed to negate this thought with a proclamation that those who participated in that battle are deserving of reward. From this discussion two issues emerge:

1. If a person fighting for the cause of Allah does inadvertently err, he is still worthy of reward.

219. They ask you about wine and gambling [516]. Please declare (O Muhammad): "In them is a great sin". Though they have some profits for people [517], their sins are far greater than their profits [518]. And they ask you what should they spend, please declare (O Muhammad): "Whatever is saved [519] beyond your needs". Thus, Allah makes clear to you the verses (of revelation) that you might ponder.

يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ عَنِ الْخَمْرِ وَ الْمَيْسِرِ ؕ قُلْ
فِيْهِمَآ اِثْمٌ كَبِيْرٌ وَّ مَنَافِعُ لِلنَّاسِ ز وَ
اِثْمُهُمَآ اَكْبَرُ مِنْ نَّفْعِهِمَا ؕ وَيَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ
مَاذَا يُنْفِقُوْنَ ۬ ؕ قُلِ الْعَفْوَ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ
يُبَيِّنُ اللّٰهُ لَكُمُ الْاٰيٰتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ
تَتَفَكَّرُوْنَ ۙ﴿٢١٩﴾

516.The word 'MAISAR' is used to indicate gambling because one can easily gain wealth of the loser. Anything in which winning and losing is left to chance would be regarded as gambling. Hence, all games of chance of today would be regarded as gambling. Similarly all speculative trade based on winning or losing is completely forbidden. The same is the case with playing card games, chess, etc.
517. The word 'profit' is used here to indicate that the non-believers were making some money out of them.
518. In it, two issues are hinted:
1. This verse was revealed after alcohol was made forbidden, otherwise its consumption would not be labelled as sinful.
2. Making consumption of alcohol a major sin is a supplementary act i.e. its sin is greater than gain. Otherwise, consumption of alcohol and gambling though minor sins, do become major sins, incessantly.
519. In this command the verb is understood (is hidden) spend that which is surplus. If this command is for an obligatory act, it is abrogated from the verse concerning Zakaat, but if it is regarding supererogation (doing more than required) the command still holds good i.e. to give optional charity is also an act of reward.

220.In the works [520] of this world and the Hereafter. And they ask you about the orphans [521], please declare (O Muhammad): "Improvement for them is better [522] and if you associate with them, they are your brothers" [523]. And Allah knows better the one who means mischief from the one who means good. And had Allah desired, He could have put you in difficulty. Surely, Allah is Most Exalted, All - Wise.

520. Calculate carefully your expenditure and your surplus. However, an error in its calculation will be pardonable.

521. An orphan is that minor child whose father is deceased. If such a child possesses wealth and is under the care of a guardian, the decrees of guardianship are explained in this verse. The guardian may either mix the wealth of the orphan with his and spend from it on him, or he should keep the orphan's wealth separately and spend out of it on him as necessary. Although the best thing would be not to include the orphan's wealth with his, if he does do so it should not be with any ulterior motive.

221.And do not marry polytheistic women until they believe, and [524] a believing slave woman is better than a polytheist, even though she might please you. And do not accept polytheistic men to marry your women until they believe [525] and a believing slave is better than a polytheist, even though he might please you. They invite you to Hell [526] and Allah invites you to Paradise and to forgiveness by His command [527]. And He makes clear His verses to the people so that perhaps they may remember.

524. This verse was revealed concerning Hazrat Murthad Ghanawi (on whom be peace) who, during the Period of Jahiliyya, had an affair with a lady named Inaaq. After coming into the fold of Islam he migrated to Madina Tayyibah from where he was sent to Makkah to get the Muslims secretly out of there. When Inaaq heard of his arrival, she went up to him and requested her conjugal rights. He replied that I have become a Muslim and in Islam adultery is forbidden. On hearing this, she asked him to marry her. To this he replied that he will do so after seeking advice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم On returning to Madina he related the incident to the Messenger of Allah.

522. Although the revelation of this verse is pertaining to monetary reformation and corrective measures, but the word reformation is of a comprehensive nature i.e. the orphan's moral, social, educational upbringing should be taken care of. Think of the orphans as the children of the Muslim Ummah and as such proper care should be taken of them.

523. As these orphans are Muslims they are part of the Islamic brotherhood. As brothers, one can eat his brother's wealth in a lawful manner Thus if their salt, flour, etc, while eating does mix with yours, you will not be held responsible for it.

As a reply Allah Almighty revealed this verse It should be remembered by polytheist woman is meant all non-believing women who do not belong to Ahle-Kitaab (People of the Scriptures). Marriage with women belonging to the Ahle-Kitaab is permissible, but with all other non-believers it is totally forbidden. Even marriage to a Muslim woman who becomes a Christian is forbidden as she is now an apostate, not one belonging to Ahle-Kitaab.

525. In this verse the word Mushrik indicates a non-believer as the marriage of a believing woman to a non-believer is totally forbidden. Likewise in the verse:

"Allah forgives not that anyone be associated with Him" (S4 : V116).

Shirk (idolatory) is used to indicate paganism. Thus, one who rejects the Prophethood of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an infidel, even though he believes in the oneness of Allah.
526. It is possible that a non-believer after marrying a believing woman will impose his paganistic life upon her. Hence there is a religious danger for her. From this verse we learn that a believing woman cannot marry apostates like Shias, Mirzais, Qadyanis, Chakraldwis, etc. Past experiences have taught us that such marriages had never been successful.
527. From this entire verse a few issues have emerged:

1. Muslims and non-Muslims can never be regarded as kindred, even though they may be relatives.
2. If a polytheist woman becomes a follower of Ahle-Kitaab, a Muslim male may marry her because marriage to women from Ahle Kitaab is permissible.
3. Even if a polytheist male turns to Christianity, a Muslim woman cannot marry him.
4. Companionship of the non-believers is not lawful for a Muslim as they will invite him towards Hell.
5. The Laws of Allah are thousand times based on Divine wisdom even though they may be beyond our understanding. He is always inviting us towards Paradise.

SECTION 28

222. And they ask you regarding menstruation, please declare (O Muhammad): "It is a pollution so keep away [528] from women during menstruation and do not approach them until they are pure [529]. And when they are pure you may approach them as Allah has commanded you"[530]. Indeed, Allah loves those who are constantly repentant and He loves those who purify themselves.

وَ يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ عَنِ الْمَحِيْضِ ؕ قُلْ هُوَ
اَذًى ۙ فَاعْتَزِلُوا النِّسَآءَ فِي الْمَحِيْضِ ۙ
وَلَا تَقْرَبُوْهُنَّ حَتّٰى يَطْهُرْنَ ۚ فَاِذَا
تَطَهَّرْنَ فَاْتُوْهُنَّ مِنْ حَيْثُ اَمَرَكُمُ
اللّٰهُ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُحِبُّ التَّوَّابِيْنَ وَ
يُحِبُّ الْمُتَطَهِّرِيْنَ ﴿٢٢٢﴾

528. Sodomy is totally forbidden. Allah has commanded complete separation from women when they are in a state of menstruation. If this was permissible, there would have been a qualifying statement to this effect. From this we learn that just as menstruation is impure so is sodomy. If the defect or cause of the defect is one, the law is similar.
529. If the bleeding (menses) stops before ten days then sex can be resumed after the woman has taken Ghusal (Bath), but if it stops on the tenth day sexual relationship can be resumed immediately. It is for this reason that it is used without the Tashdeed and is found with Tashdeed. The word means until they are clean (they had taken the bath- Ghusal).
530. From this verse we learn that anal sex with a woman is forbidden because "Whence Allah has commanded you" is a restriction imposed upon sexual intercourse, i.e. Allah does not want you to indulge in anal sex with a woman.

223. Your wives are tilth for you, so approach your tilth at your will (when clean) [531]. And send forward for yourselves good deeds [532]and fear

نِسَآؤُكُمْ حَرْثٌ لَّكُمْ ۪ فَاْتُوْا حَرْثَكُمْ اَنّٰى

Allah and know that you will meet Him. Give glad-tidings to the believers.

وَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّكُمْ مُّلٰقُوْهُ ؕ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۲۲۳﴾

531. By 'come to your tilth' means sex can be had in sleeping, sitting and standing position provided it is only vaginal intercourse as this is the route to procreation. Here, the adverb 'as' is used for indicating general condition and not for any sexual inclinations. Explicit verses forbidding anal sex with boys is found in the QUR'AAN .

532. Amorous indulgence with the wives should not make you unmindful from worshipping Allah. This could also mean to recite Bismillah before sexual intercourse, as this is a means of having pious children. Without reciting Bismillah, Shaitaan becomes part of the sexual act.

224.And make not Allah the target of your oaths [533] that you take an oath [534] for not doing good, nor fearing Allah nor making peace among people. And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

وَلَا تَجْعَلُوا اللّٰهَ عُرْضَةً لِّاَيْمَانِكُمْ اَنْ تَبَرُّوْا وَ تَتَّقُوْا وَتُصْلِحُوْا بَيْنَ النَّاسِ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۲۲۴﴾

533. Once Hazrat Abdullah bin Rawaha (on whom be peace) had taken an oath that he will neither speak to his brother-in-law Hazrat No'man bin Bashir (on whom be peace) nor go to his house nor make his peace with his opposition. On this occassion the above verse was revealed. From this, two issues emerge:
1. Taking too many oaths is a bad practice.
2. If an oath is taken for a good act it should be broken and compensation should be given in its place.

534. From this verse a few issues emerge:
1. It is forbidden to take too many oaths as this can lead to the decrease of one's sustenance;
2. Oaths must not be made as an excuse for indulging in sinful acts or abstaining from good deeds e.g. "How can I read Salaah when I have already taken an oath not to read it".
3. To bring about peace between Muslims is the best form of Ibaadat (worship) just as causing dissension between them is the worst form of crime.

225. Allah does not impose accountability [535] upon you for what is unintentional [536] in your oaths. Yes, but He will take you to task for the oaths which are intended by your hearts. And, surely, Allah is Most Forgiving, Most Forbearing.

535. Such an unintentional oath is called 'meaningless oath' for which there is neither compensation nor sin, if a false oath was taken for anything in the past it becomes a sinful act but there is no compensation to be paid for it. This is called (Qasme Ghamoos). If an oath is taken in the future and is broken one will be liable to pay compensation for breaking it. This is called (Qasme Mun'aqidah). Full discussion on these oaths will be found in another place.

536. In the Hanafi Code of Law "what your hearts have done" is meant intentionally taking a false oath. However, if an oath was taken for an incident which he thought to be true but later turns out to be false, the oath in question will be regarded as Qasme Laghw or an unintentional oath and as such bereft of sin.

According to Imam Shafee (on whom be peace) a QASME LAGHW is that oath which is uttered unintentionally e.g people of Lukhnow are in the habit of saying:By God! Come -By God!

226.Those who swear not to go to their wives [537] should wait for four months. Then if they return (to normal relations) then surely, Allah is Most Forgiving, Ever Merciful [538].

537. From this verse one learns that (an oath taken by the husband to break off sexual relations with his wife) can only take place with one's lawfully wedded wife and not with a slave girl. Further, one learns that temporary marriage is equal to adultery, because such a woman will not be given the status of a wife. It is for this reason that breaking an oath is not allowed in the Shiah code of law. Thus temporary marriage in Islam is totally forbid-

227.And if they decide firmly [539] to divorce, then surely, Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

539. From this we learn that if the husband does not establish sexual relations with his wife within the period of four months, EELAA

228.And the divorced women will remain in waiting for three menstrual courses [540]. And it is not lawful for them to conceal what Allah has created in their wombs [541], if they have faith in Allah and the Last Day. And the husband has more right to take them back provided they want to reconcile [542]. And women shall have similar rights of equality [543] as is due from them (husbands). But, the men have a degree over them (in responsibility and authority) [544]. And Allah is Most Almighty, All Wise.

540. From this it is understood that an adult

Go. This - by God - according to Imam Shafee (on whom be peace) is QASME LAGHW - as there is no intention involved in saying this.

538. To take an oath to break off sexual relations with one's wife for a period of four months. Its law is that if the husband breaks his oath by having sex with his wife within four months or verbally says it or promises to have sex with her, it then becomes compulsory upon him to pay compensation. Otherwise, after four months revocable divorce will take place. In this verse the above is discussed.

divorce will take place but marriage will not be annulled. After this, he can give a second divorce.

Marfat.com

affairs. No guardian can compel her because in this verse the woman is given the right to keep herself away from marriage. This verse does not say: Oh Guardians you keep them away. Religious issue: The period of Iddat (4 months &10 days) is liable on that divorced woman who had sexual intercourse with her husband prior to the divorce, otherwise this is not applicable, as mentioned elsewhere in the QUR 'AAN .

541. From this verse, two issues emerge:

1. It becomes incumbent upon the woman in Iddat not to conceal her pregnancy or menstruation, nor make an error therein. Due to her error if there is any fault with her second marriage or remarriage she will be guilty of a grave sin.

2. In the matter of the period of Iddat and pregnancy the wife's word will hold more credence than that of the husband i.e. if the wife says that her days of Iddat are over and the husband denies this, the wife's word will be accepted.

542. From this we learn that in the case of revocable (Raj 'ee) divorce it is not necessary to remarry - only revocation is needed. Further, revocation can be effected without the permission of the wife - The husband can do this, but no force must be used by the husband. In fact to make the marriage work, it is better to effect revocation mutually.

543. From this verse two issues emerge:

1. The wife's duty is to serve her husband and the husband's duty is to provide for her needs.

2. A man cannot marry his slave-girl (maid) because the wife has legal rights over her husband while the maid has no such right over her master. Hence, wifehood and maidhood cannot be given equal status.

544. From this we learn that whosoever claims that the rights of husband and wife are equal is a liar. Man is superior to a woman, hence his rights are greater. Because, the wife's material needs and her Mehr (dower) are man's responsibility, the husbands rights should also be greater. Justice, too, demands this.

229. Divorce is twice [545]. Thereafter (a woman) must be retained with good [546] or released with kindness. And it is not lawful for you to take back [547] from her anything that you (husbands) have given them (wives). But, if both fear that they could not keep in the limits of Allah. Then, if you fear that the two [548] will not be able to observe the limits of Allah, it is no offence for them, for that of which the woman ransoms herself [549]. These are the limits of Allah, so do not transgress them and those who transgress the limits of Allah, it is they who are the unjust.

اَلطَّلَاقُ مَرَّتٰنِ ۖ فَاِمْسَاكٌۢ بِمَعْرُوْفٍ اَوْ
تَسْرِيْحٌۢ بِاِحْسَانٍ ۗ وَلَا يَحِلُّ لَكُمْ اَنْ
تَاْخُذُوْا مِمَّآ اٰتَيْتُمُوْهُنَّ شَيْـًٔا اِلَّآ اَنْ
يَّخَافَآ اَلَّا يُقِيْمَا حُدُوْدَ اللّٰهِ ۗ فَاِنْ خِفْتُمْ
اَلَّا يُقِيْمَا حُدُوْدَ اللّٰهِ ۙ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِمَا
فِيْمَا افْتَدَتْ بِهٖ ۗ تِلْكَ حُدُوْدُ اللّٰهِ فَلَا
تَعْتَدُوْهَا ۚ وَمَنْ يَّتَعَدَّ حُدُوْدَ اللّٰهِ
فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿٢٢٩﴾

545. In the case of revocable divorce in which man has the right to annul this divorce within the period of Iddat the divorce will be regarded as two divorces. The use of the word AT-TALAAQ points to this fact that the revocable divorce is an obvious divorce if not annulled, while using words of divorce intentionally usually becomes irrevocable divorce, in which case it becomes necessary to perform Nikah again.

546. 'Retain with good' means to revoke the divorce within the period of waiting (Iddat) with the intention of making up and not causing further problems; while 'release with kindness' means to give the third divorce or not to revoke the divorce within the period of waiting (Iddat) in which case it will become an irrevocable divorce.

547. In it there is a hint that the husband and wife cannot take back the gifts given to one another, as marriage serves as an obstacle for returning these. There are seven obstacles mentioned by the jurists and are accountable in the letters of WAMA KHIZQEHI The letter "Z" denotes ZOJIYAH meaning marriage. Similarly the husband cannot take back the Mehr as well.

548. In this verse the leaders, guardians and the heirs of the married couple are addressed who usually try to patch up the differences whenever there is a rift between the couple.

549. The divorce under discussion is Khula (divorce obtained on wife's initiative) This verse was revealed in the matter of Hazrat Jameela bint Abdullah who obtained her divorce by returning the garden which was given to her in Mehr by her husband Thabit bin Qais. From this incident a few issues arise:

1. Khula is a divorce, but not the annullment of marriage because here, the giving of ransom is mentioned which is the work of a woman, the work of the husband is not mentioned here. From this it can be deduced that the husband's work in this respect is what is mentioned above, to give the divorce.

2. A woman's work in respect of Khula is to give the ransom; the divorce itself will be given by the husband, not the wife.

3. Whatever ransom is agreed in respect of Khula has to be paid even though it may be` higher than the value of Mehr (dower). However, it is MAKROOH (undesirable) to take the value in excess of Mehr.

4. For Khula to take place the value has to be given by the wife; no other person may pay this amount for the purpose of obtaining the divorce without the knowledge of the wife, otherwise Khula will not take place. Such a custom is followed in Punjab.

5. In Khula (Talaaq-e-Bain) irrevocable divorce takes place, because ransom is that amount which the wife pays to the husband to secure her freedom, while through TALAAQ RAJ'EE (revocable divorce) the wife does not obtain her freedom.

230.Then, if she is divorced for the third time [550], then that woman will not be lawful to him, until she lives (marries) with another husband [551]. Then, if that second (husband) divorces her, then there is no sin on them if they re-unite [552], provided they will now observe the limits of Allah. And these are the limits of Allah, which He makes clear for those who possess knowledge.

فَإِنْ طَلَّقَهَا فَلَا تَحِلُّ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدُ حَتّٰى تَنْكِحَ زَوْجًا غَيْرَهُ ۭ فَإِنْ طَلَّقَهَا فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِمَآ اَنْ يَّتَرَاجَعَآ اِنْ ظَنَّآ اَنْ يُّقِيْمَا حُدُوْدَ اللّٰهِ ۭ وَتِلْكَ حُدُوْدُ اللّٰهِ يُبَيِّنُهَا لِقَوْمٍ يَّعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٢٣٠﴾

550. After the second divorce if the third is given with, or without the ransom, the divorce now becomes complete i.e. marriage is now annulled. From this we learn that although Khula is an irrevocable divorce it will not annul the marriage until the third divorce is given. Otherwise, the giving of the third divorce would not have been mentioned in this verse.

551. By HALAALA is meant if the husband and wife want to come together after the third divorce, the wife will first have to remarry a second time. In Halaala mere marriage to the second husband will not be regarded as sufficient, this marriage will have to be consumated because the word TANKIHA suggests consumation of marriage while the word ZAWJAN proves marriage only.

552. From this discussion a few issues emerge:

1. In the case of three divorces the wife can remarry the former husband after HALAALA takes place, without any problem.

2. The coming together of this divorced would be dependent on the mutual agreement of the couple. It is for this purpose that "come together again" and "if they think" are both in dual form.
3.After the Halaala the second husband has to give three divorces before the wife is in the position to return to the first husband. This is deduced from the verb "for the two to return again" because the word 'to return' suggests going back to the former state, and because the former state was annulled by three divorces, its rectification can only be achieved through three divorces

231.And when you have divorced women and they have completed the prescribed period, retain them with honour and release them [553] with kindness. And do not retain them intending harm that you may transgress the limit [554]. And whoever does so, wrongs only himself [555]. And do not mock [556] at the revelations of Allah and remember the favour [557] of Allah upon you and what has been revealed to you of the Scripture (QUR'AAN) and wisdom (Prophet's Sunnah) [558], admonishing you with it. And remain fearing Allah, and know, surely, Allah is the Best Knower of everything [559].

فَاَمْسِكُوْهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوْفٍ اَوْ سَرِّحُوْهُنَّ
بِمَعْرُوْفٍ ۪ وَ لَا تُمْسِكُوْهُنَّ ضِرَارًا
لِّتَعْتَدُوْا ۚ وَ مَنْ يَّفْعَلْ ذٰلِكَ فَقَدْ

اللّٰهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٢٣١﴾ ع ٢٩ ١٣

553. The releasing of the wife with kindness means she should either be left by giving the third divorce or after her period of waiting. Under no circumstances must the husband return to her.
554. To increase her period of waiting merely to gain something from her or return to her with the intention of gaining something from her or for the sake of ill -treating her will be regarded as cruel and sinful. If this is done with the intention of taking care of her or patching up the differences it is another matter altogether.
555. This verse was revealed regarding Hazrat Sabit bin Yasaar Ansari who after divorcing his wife increased her period of waiting after the actual period of IDDAT was reaching completion, returned to her several times with the purpose of harassing her.
556. The laws of Allah must not be treated in jest by using marriage or divorce as a means of tormenting the spouse. If you do this, you will be in greater harm than the wife, as you will become the convict of Allah.
557. Remember the Bounty of Allah is a reminder that He showered his Bounty upon you by making you from the followers of His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم From this one learns that holding Meelad gatherings is a virtuous act as it is the means of remembering and learning about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who is the greatest bounty of Allah.. Says Allah Almighty: "And publicize well the favours of your Lord" (S97 : V11).
558. From this we learn that having knowledge of the Hadith is just as important as knowing the Holy QUR'AAN because the word 'Book' in this verse signifies the Holy QUR'AAN while 'wisdom' denotes Hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

559. He who firmly believes that Allah is Knower of all he is doing, will, if Allah pleases, never think of going near a sinful act. This type observance of it is another matter. In this verse "and know" refers to observe, take heed, etc.

232. And when you have divorced women and their Iddat (prescribed period) is complete, do not prevent them from marrying [560] their husbands, when they agree among themselves according to (Islamic) law [561]. This instruction is given to those among you who believe in Allah and the Last Day. This is cleaner and purer [562] for you. Verily, Allah Knows and you do not know [563].

560. From this one can understand that an adult woman can enter into a marriage on her own volition, without the actual permission of her guardian because marriage is referred to the woman in this verse. However, she cannot enter into marriage with someone out of her clan (uncomparable in status or character etc) which can become a source of embarrassment and disgrace to her parents or clan.

561. The word 'according to law' suggests that nothing un-Islamic or un-wholesome should be agreed upon in matters of marriage. If any such thing is agreed upon it will not be religiously acceptable e.g. if alcohol or flesh of the swine is agreed in Mehr this will not be accepted as the customary dowry (mehr-e misal) has to be paid because 'according to law' is a stipulation for this.

562. From this we learn that to prevent a girl from marrying the person of her choice can lead to numerous problems. Marry your children to those whom they have chosen or allow them the opportunity to do so. Furthermore, we learn that the Laws of Islam are binding on the Muslims, not the non-Muslims because the verse is proclaiming to give advice to the Muslims.

563. This verse was revealed regarding the action of Hazrat Mu'qil bin Yasaar whose sister was married to Asim bin Adi (on whom be peace) When Hazrat Asim divorced her and wanted to remarry her after her period of waiting, Hazrat Mu'qil refused her permission. This verse was revealed to counter such measures.

not suffer on account of her child. Nor, should the father suffer on account of his child [567]. And the same is incumbent [568] on the father's heir. And then, if both decide on weaning, by mutual consent and consultation, there is no sin [569] upon both of them. Then, if you wish that your children should be suckled by nurses then, too, there is no blame [570] on you; provided what was agreed [571] is paid by you with kindness. And remain fearing Allah, and know that, surely, Allah observes what you do.

564. The mothers can breastfeed their children for a period of two years. If parents find any valid reasons, it can be stopped before two years. However, breastfeeding cannot be continued after two years.

565. From this verse emerge a few issues:
1. The child belongs to the father and he is responsible for its material needs.
2. After the divorce, if the mother wishes to breastfeed the child, the father cannot give it to another woman for this purpose.
3. The mother can take a fee for breasfeeding the child after she is divorced.
4. Giving of food and clothing can serve as the fee of breastfeeding although one will not be able to calculate this accurately in terms of monetary value.

566. The words suggest that the off-spring belongs to the father, because father is MAULOOD LAHU. From this a number of issues can be deduced.
1. Family lineage is from the father, not from the mother.
2. If the father is a Sayyed (descendant of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the mother is a non-Sayyed, the child will be a Sayyed.
3. The material needs of the off-spring is the responsibility of the father, not the mother.
4. Education of the off-spring, too, is the responsibility of the father.
5. The wages of care taking of the off-spring is the responsibility of the father, not the mother.

567. By this is meant to force the divorced mother to suckle the baby, the father's loss is paying the divorced mother more to suckle the baby than what another woman is prepared to charge for the same purpose. Neither of the two should take place.

568. From this verse we learn that the guardians should take care of the orphans. The responsibilities of the parents should now be shouldered by the guardian. The guardians are those relatives who will be first in line for the purpose of inheritance, after whom will follow other relatives.

569. From this we learn that when it is beneficial to suckle the baby for less than two years its should be done i.e. the period of suckling should not exceed two years.

570. From this verse we learn that if the parents so wish to employ a foster mother to suckle their baby they may do so providing they pay her the price agreed upon for this purpose. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was suckled by Hazrat Shafa bint Abdullah, Hazrat Thuwaibah and Hazrat Halima .

571. This verse makes it clear that wages as well as other related expenses for the suckling of the baby is the responsibility of the father, not of the mother or anyone else. Furthermore, if the mother is willing to breastfeed the child, the father should not forcefully use the services of a foster mother. We also learn that if a child grows through suckling by a foster mother or by drinking the milk of a goat, this will in no way decrease the motherly rights over the child. Similarly, even if the divorced mother charges the father a fee for suckling the baby, her motherly rights will remain the same. Even though Hazrat Musa's mother took a fee

234.Those of you who die [572] and leave wives behind. They (widows) should wait for a period [573] of four months and ten days, so when they complete their Iddat then, there is no blame [574] on you for what they do with regard to themselves according to (Islamic) [575] law. And Allah is fully aware of whatever you do.

572. After the death of the husband, period of waiting upon the widow is compulsory, even if sexual intercourse may not have taken place, but in the case of divorce there is no period of waiting for a divorcee if sexual intercourse has not taken place. Says Allah Almighty "Then divorce them before touching them, in that way you have no period of waiting" (S33:V49). The reason being, sexual intercourse, etc. is not stipulated in this verse, and this period of waiting is of a woman who is not pregnant. The waiting period of a pregnant woman is upon delivery, as can be seen from other verses.
573. During this period of waiting these women should abstain from marriage, using make-up. The minor girls, adult women and old ladies are all included in this injunction whose husbands have passed away. The period of waiting is the same for all.

574. From this verse two issues emerge:
1. It becomes incumbent upon the woman to observe mourning during her period of waiting i.e. she should refrain from applying make up.
2. If she applies make-up during this period then her guardian, who fails to stop her, too, will become a sinner. Not preventing a sin when in the position to do so is also a sin.
575. "Anything to do" refers to beautifying and using make-up because applying make-up is prohibited during the waiting period. Thus when the waiting period is over, so is the prohibition, providing no unlawful make-up is used, nor walk about without purdah (without covering their bodies) as is understood from "within the law".

is in your heart [578], so fear Him [579] and know that Allah is Most Forgiving, Forbearing.

576. From this two issues emerge:
1. During the period of waiting explicit proposal for marriage is prohibited.
2. Indirect proposal is permissible during the period of waiting e.g. the person who intends to marry her can volunteer to pay her expense during her period of waiting, or say I need to get married, or say Allah will not inflict any difficulties upon you, etc.

577. By 'do not resolve wedding tie' is meant let alone getting married, do not even have thought of getting married Issue: within the period of waiting, marriage is invalid, and if marriage takes place by error i.e. thinking that the period of waiting is over, it would be considered as evil. To acquaint yourselves with the differences between void and evil Nikah refer to FATAWA NAEEMIYAH.

578. From this it is hinted that the mere intention of sin is a punishable act because the intention of sin is sin itself. However, the thought of sin, will not be regarded as sin. Furthermore, to get married wilfully and intentionally in the period of waiting will render the marriage null and void as can be seen from the words "And do not resolve" i.e. do not have declaration of intent for marriage. Intention is associated with purpose, and the purpose in this instance is marriage.

579. The use of 'yourselves' shows that these laws are to be followed by Muslims not the non-Muslims. As far as the non-Muslims are concerned the Muslim ruler will decide according to their religion. They shall enjoy religious freedom. However, political decrees will be binding upon them as well e.g. if any among them is guilty of stealing, their hands will be cut off.

236. There is no demand against you if you divorce women whom you have not even touched [580], or have not fixed for them their dowry [581]. And the wealthy should give them something to carry on [582] for use, according to his capability. And the poor (man) according to his capability. This is incumbent on the well doers [583].

580. The word "touching" has sexual connotations while privacy between the husband and the wife is included with the decree of sexual intercourse. By (KHILWAT E SAHIHA) is meant privacy between the husband and wife in which there is no stoppage of sexual advances by the wife. In some instances no stoppage of such advances from the husband is also acceptable.

581. From this we learn that the customary dowry is either fully incumbent or not at all. There are no half measures regarding it e.g. in the case where marriage is solemnied without discussing or determining dowry and the man divorces his wife after having sex with her, he will be liable for full payment of the dowry; if no sex has taken place, he will not be liable for any dowry, just one suit of clothes will be deemed sufficient. Furthermore, we learn that marriage without dowry is permissible. The determining of dowry is not a precondition for marriage, so much so that if one says I will not give any dowry, marriage will still take place, If he now divorces the wife after sexual intercourse the payment of customary dowry will become incumbent on the husband. In addition, we learn that in the matter of divorce the husband remains independent i.e. just as marriage takes place upon mutual consent of husband and wife, in the case of divorce, too, there is no restraint. Only the husband can give divorce, irrespective of whether the wife accepts it or rejects it.

582. If marriage is entered into without a woman determining the dowry, and she is given a divorce without sexual intercourse, she should only be given one suit of clothes. The clothes given depend on the social status,

237. And if you divorced them without touching them [584], but you have already fixed for them a dowry, then half of what you fixed is incumbent. Unless the wives forego (their right) [585] or he gives more in whose hands is the marriage tie [586]. And (O men) if you give more, it is nearer to piety [587]. And never forget to deal with each other gracefully among yourselves [588]. Surely, Allah is fully observant of what you do.

584. The words "giving divorce without touching them" hints that if the husband dies before establishing sexual relation with his wife, she will be entitled to the full dowry determined at the time of marriage. The question of half dowry is pertaining to the woman divorced before sex had taken place.

585. In respect of the woman foregoing the payment of dowry she should collect less than half the value of the dowry and forego the rest; in respect of men they should pay more than half or full amount of the agreed dowry.

586. From this we learn that the knot of marriage is in the hands of man, hence dissolutions of marriage i.e. divorce is also his prerogative and not the right of the woman, neither in Khula nor without Khula i.e. in the case of Khula the divorce will be dependent on the willingness of the husband. The present day concept of Khula among the Muslim masses that of a woman pays an amount to her husband to obtain her divorce irrespective of whether the husband is prepared to agree on the divorce is totally wrong, because if the husband is not willing to give the divorce, it will not take place.

587. In the way of divorce try and give the wife the most you possibly can, don't try to forego the payment, for you are the chief. The chief will appear better when he gives, not when he takes.

588. After divorce there should be no ill feeling or jealousy between the couple. One should take into account duties imposed by Islam as well as their family ties.

i.e. a rich man has to give an expensive suit of clothes, a poor man will buy a cheap suit of clothes. However, if dowry was agreed upon, and divorce is given before sexual intercourse, the wife is entitled to get half of the dowry.

583. From this discussion, emerge two issues:

1. If one marries any woman without the prior agreement of dowry and is then divorced without having sex with her, it becomes compulsory to pay one suit of clothes made of dress, pants and a scarf.
2. The suit of clothes paid should be according to the financial position of the husband. These two issues are declared from the words 'upon' and 'his resources'.

238. Watch over all your prayers [589] and (especially) the middle prayer [590], and stand [591] before Allah with true devotion.

589. In the command "watch over" there is an order to establish Salaah regularly, to offer it in congregation, perform it correctly and punctually. This is the commentary of this verse "Establish Prayer".

590. By 'middle Salaah' is meant Salatul Asr. From this we learn that Fard Salaah are five in number. The central or middle Salaah is that which has two Salaahs before and two after it. For the purpose of counting the least number will be two. In terms of this calculation we will get Five Fard Salaahs. There are two reasons for placing greater emphasis on being specially mindful of Salatul Asr. Firstly, the angels of the day and night meet at this time, secondly at this time commerce is at its height, many people get involved in their recreational activities.

591. From the command 'stand' emerge few issues:

1. Qiyaam (standing erect in Salaah) is Fard – (compulsory), as the 'stand' is a command.
2. Salaah should be offered in congregation as 'Qumoo' is used for plural.
3. To talk, eat and drink in Salaah is totally forbidden as understood from the word "with devotion".

It should be remembered that speaking in Salaah is abrogated by this verse and Qira'at of the QUR'AAN when following the Imam is abrogated by "And listen attentively".

فَاِنْ خِفْتُمْ فَرِجَالًا اَوْ رُكْبَانًا ۚ فَاِذَآ اَمِنْتُمْ فَاذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ كَمَا عَلَّمَكُمْ مَّا لَمْ تَكُوْنُوْا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٢٣٩﴾

239.And if you fear (danger of enemy) [592], then establish prayer while on foot [593] or riding. Then when you are secure, remember Allah as He has taught you what you knew not.

592. "If you are in fear" suggests that if the intensity of fear is such that you are unable to stand on one place due to it. However, if it becomes possible to stand, then the solution for it is as given in this verse 'And O Beloved! (Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) when you are amidst them, then lead them in prayer' (S4 : V102).

593. Although there is permission to perform Salaah on foot or in a conveyance due to extreme fear, but when normal circumstances prevail all the ARKAAN of Salaah (the Faraid in Salaah e.g. Qiyaam - standing erect in Salaah, Ruku, Sajdah, etc.) become compulsory to carry out. Present day travellers who perform their Salaah in the train in a sitting position without any valid reason are violating the above law. This would only be allowed if there is a fear of expiry of the time of Salaah due to the train not making any stops. However, on reaching your destination you should perform your Salaah again.

his death, but she was entitled to be fed and clothed. But this was dependent on the wife to use her prerogative or forego it. Nevertheless she could not marry within a year of her husband's death. This decree is now abrogated.

597. In "things they did" included permissible ways of beautifying themselves, applying make up, giving up mourning, preparing for re-marriage, etc. From this verse we learn that even in those days the period of waiting of a year for the wife after the death of her husband was not compulsory, instead the law was if she wanted to sit in mourning for her deceased husband she was entitled for a year's maintenance from his wealth i.e. the wife was totally independent in the matter, while the husband's heirs were duty -bound.

594. This verse is abrogated from the verse pertaining to inheritance. Now, after the death of the husband the wife will not get maintenance but her ancestral property. In this way the verse is abrogated in two ways - from giving maintenance as well as regarding the period of a year.

595. According to all jurists this verse is abrogated from the verse concerning the period of waiting, because with death the question of period of waiting arises or delivery in the case of pregnancy, or the waiting period of four months and ten days; whereas in this verse mention is made of one year.

596. From this verse it is understood that previously the wife not only had the right to dwell in her husband's house for one year after 243.(O Beloved Prophet) Did you not observe those who went out of their homes [600] in their thousands, for fear of death?[601] Then, Allah said to them: "Die!"[602] Then He brought them (back) to life. Surely, Allah is Most Gracious to people [603], but most of the people are ungrateful.

600. This incident refers to the residents of the city of WASIT who had abandoned the city in their thousands to escape from the plague, but had all died. After some time Hazrat Hizkeel made dua for them, as a result of which all became alive once again.

601. The fear of death can be both good or bad. If due to its fear man sincerely turns to Allah and seeks forgiveness for his sins it is good; but if its fear makes him abandon doing pious deeds or turns to sinful life, then it is bad, e.g. out of fear of death people abstain from going for Hajj or participating in Holy War. However, the fear of the residents of Dadrawaan (Wasit), of course was of a different nature.

602. From this incident we learn that running away from dreaded diseases because of the fear of death is wrong. Secondly, we also learn that all the past and future happenings are screened before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. because the abovementioned incident had taken place centuries ago, yet the QUR'AAN says did you (Oh My Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) see? i.e. you have seen.

603. Ibn Arabi says that any person who dies due to punishment can be brought back to life, but if the death is an inevitable one as divinely decreed then there is no order to bring its victims back to life. Hazrat Hassan (on whom be peace) says that the residents of Dadrawaan had died before their actual time, therefore they were brought back to life to complete their natural life span. These people were brought back to life on the dua of Hazrat Hizkeel bin Yuozi عليه السلام, who was the third successor of Hazrat Musa عليه السلام His first successor was Hazrat Yusha bin Nun عليه السلام and the second was Kalib bin Yohanna عليه السلام (Tafseer)

605. Our pious sages say that to give a loan to a needy person during his hour of need is a virtuous act. In fact, in some instances this loan is greater than charity because sometimes even a non-needy can become a recipient of charity, while a loan is always taken by a needy person.
606. QARZE-HASANA is that type of a loan in which there is no demand on the debtor to settle it, if he pays it is well and good, if not he should be excused from paying it. However, in this there are a few conditions:
1. The loan giver should offer it sincerely and happily.
2. It should be given with a good heart.
3. Only lawful items should be used for this purpose.
4. There should be no hasty demand made for its settlement. Sometimes all charities are termed as QARZE HASANA.
607. From "Allah may increase" we learn that Allah loves the poor because He takes the loan from the rich for the poor. Thus, the one for whom the loan is taken is dearer.
608. Charity increases your wealth in this world as well as the rewards of the Hereafter. Service to parents is included in this as Allah will reward the child in this world as well as the Hereafter.
609. According to the revered Sufis there is expansion and contraction (increase and decrease) in everything: in a saint, the learned, the wealthy and the kings are not always in the same condition.

246. (O Beloved Prophet) Did you not observe the group of the children of Israel after Musa?[610] When they spoke to a Prophet of theirs:
"Appoint for us a king [611] so that we may fight in the path of Allah". He (the Prophet) said: "Maybe if the fighting were obligatory on you, you would not fight" [612]. They said: "What has happened to us that we should not fight in the way of Allah, whereas we have been expelled from our homes and our children" [613]. But, when fighting was made obligatory on them [614], they turned their faces away, except a few [615] of them. And Allah is All Knowing of the unjust.

610. This incident took place during the time of Hazrat Shumail عليه السلام when the Israelites were sent to wage war against King Goliath. Goliath was a very cruel king of the people of Amaliqa who was made sovereign over the Israelites by Allah because of their disobedience to Him, just as Pharaoh too was made a sovereign once.
611. From this we learn that kingship can be obtained through the Prophets as they are the distributors of Allah's bounties. Even today, kingship and power is distributed through the grace of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Furthermore, we learn that in those days there was never a union between Prohethood and kingdom otherwise, Hazrat Shumail عليه السلام himself should have become a king and not appoint Talut. However, these two i.e. Prophethood and kingdom, were assimilated in

Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام, Sulaiman عليه السلام and Hazrat Yusuf عليه السلام Nonetheless, Prophethood and kingdom are both the bounties of Allah.

612. You (O Israelites) will be guilty of two sins, one - defaulting from JIHAD (Holy War) and the second is disobeying the Divinely appointed king.

613. From this verse it can be deduced that to wage war against the non-believers for the sake of revenge is also permissible, as it is also one cleft among fighting in the way of Allah. In this instance Goliath had imprisoned four hundred and forty men from the royal family of the Israelites.

614. From this incident we learn that Holy War is the Sunnah of the Prophets which was incumbent upon the earlier Prophets and their followers.

615."Few of them" refers to the 313 men out of thousands.This was the total of the companions in the Battle of Badr who drank a handful of water of the river and were able to participate in this Holy War. Those who drank more, became cowards and chicken -hearted.

247. And their Prophet said to them: "Surely, Allah has appointed Talut (Saul) [616] for you as a king. They said: "How can he have the right of kingship over us [617]? Whereas we are more entitled [618] for the kingship than he and he has not been given ample wealth". He (Talut) said: "Surely, Allah has chosen him [619] over you and has increased him [620] abundantly in knowledge and body. And Allah bestows His kingdom to whom He wills. And Allah is All-Encompassing, All-Knowing.

616. Talut was from the family of Binyamin, son of Hazrat Yaqub عليه السلام Because he was physically a giant, he was referred to as Talut. Hazrat Shumail had received a revelation in which he was informed that anyone who is physically as tall as your walking stick shall become the king. Talut fitted the description and thus became king, Hazrat Shumail himself did not become a king, in those days kingdom and Prophethood never assimilated.

617. Their first disobedience took place when they used their own conjecture and quibbling in opposition to Divine Command, although conjecture against Divine Command is the work of the devil.

618. They are poor, while running the affairs of the kingdom requires a great deal of wealth, hence they were not suitable for kingdom.

619. From this verse we learn that knowledge is superior to worship - the worshipper has the seclusion of the mosque, the learned has the throne of Khilafat. Furthermore, we also know that knowledge is superior to wealth as Divine leadership is achieved through knowledge, not wealth. Also that the king should be learned and healthy, to conduct the affairs of his kingdom efficiently. The present political system which is based on abundance of wealth and majority of votes, is not a healthy one.

620. From this verse we learn that government should not be based on family lineage or wealth, but rather on intelligence, bravery and courage. By knowledge is meant knowledge of religious politics. To think that only politician should become a Caliph is a total misnomer, because Hazrat Abu Bakr (on whom be peace) the first Caliph, was the most learned among the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم so much so, that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had appointed him to lead the congregation for Salaah just before his demise from the world. Hazrat Umar's (on whom be peace) politics, of course is well known up to today.

248. And the Prophet said to them: "Surely, the sign of his kingship is that there would come to you an Ark (of the Covenant) [621] in which there is tranquility of your heart from your Lord, and the good legacy left by the family of Musa and the family of Harun [622], carried by the angels. Surely, in that is a sign for you if you believe [623].

621. This was a box made of the wood of Shamshaad (box-tree) being three hands long and two hands broad. In it were natural pictures of Prophets. It also included the plates of Tauraat, the staff (stick) of Hazrat Musa عليه السلام his clothes and a pair of shoes, the turban of Hazrat Harun عليه السلام as well as a few pieces of Manna (quails with which the Israelites were fed)

622. From this we learn that the sacred relics of the pious people are with the permission of Allah , a means of obtaining one's desires in one's hour of need. It is for this reason that such relics are placed in the shroud of the deceased at the time of burial. Hazrat Musa's عليه السلام relics, as can be seen, were used by the soldiers for the sake of gaining victory.

623. From this it can be observed that the true believer is he who acknowledges the miraculous effects of these sacred relics. To deny this is equal to the denying of Allah's power. Accordingly, the angels brought this box and placed it in front of Hazrat Talut. During times of battles this box would always be kept near the Islamic soldiers, through the blessing of which the believers were always victorious. After Hazrat Talut عليه السلام this box remained with the Israelites who always placed it in front of them in their hour of need, as a result of which all their prayers were answered. It was also their means of being victorious in battles. As time went, people of Wahabi type of beliefs began to show disrespect to this box and as such were soon afflicted by misfortunes. When this box was brought in the presence of Talut he became content. He selected 70 thousand Israelites and set out to fight Jalut.

249.Then when Talut left the city with his army he said: "Surely, Allah will test you [624] with a stream. Whoso drinks water from it is not of me [625] and whoso does not drink of it is mine [626]. Except he who takes a sip with his hand [627]. Yet, all drank of it except a few of them [628]. When he (Talut) and the believers with him [629] crossed the stream, they said: "We have no power [630] against Jalut (Goliath) and his armies". Those who were sure to meet [631] Allah said: "That often a small party has triumphed over a large party by Allah's Command" [632]. And, verily, Allah is with the steadfast (patient) [633].

فَلَمَّا فَصَلَ طَالُوْتُ بِالْجُنُوْدِ ۙ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مُبْتَلِيْكُمْ بِنَهَرٍ ۚ فَمَنْ شَرِبَ مِنْهُ فَلَيْسَ مِنِّيْ ۚ وَ مَنْ لَّمْ يَطْعَمْهُ فَاِنَّهٗ مِنِّيْٓ اِلَّا مَنِ اغْتَرَفَ غُرْفَةً ۢ بِيَدِهٖ ۚ فَشَرِبُوْا مِنْهُ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا مِّنْهُمْ ؕ فَلَمَّا

624. This journey of the Isrealites to wage war against Jalut was undertaken during extreme heat. The heat of summer, the uneasiness of the jungle and the heat of the scorching sun made the soldiers miserable and thirsty. Talut had informed them that soon they would be coming across a river but they should refrain from drinking from it, its a test placed upon them. Talut was informing them about this from the revelation that Hazrat Shumail عليه السلام was receiving.

625. Whosoever drinks from this water is not my followers and as such will not accompany me in this battle. It does not mean that he is a non-believer, because every sin does not make a person a non-believer. However, it can possibly be said that such a person could go out of the fold of Islam i.e. by drinking much water out of this river could set hypocrisy and enmity in his heart which are the signs of infidelity.

626. Those who withstood the test and did not drink are of my followers, or of my religion or are with me in the battle, because those who failed to bear the thirst for a short while would not be able to withstand the hardships of war in future. From this we learn that to prepare the soldiers to withstand the hardships of war, and to put them to test in matters related to war is the practice of the Prophets. The practice of the present day military training can be deduced from this verse. At that time not to drink that water was extremely important, in fact drinking that water had become an act of infidelity as can be understood from the following passage.

627. The extreme heat, unbearable conditions for the journey, intensity of the thirst and Allah's command were indeed a total test of their patience, if these people could exercise patience under the extreme conditions, they will easily be able to exercise patience in the face of future hardships of war. But if they had faltered here, then they would not be able to fight in future as well.

628. From this we learn that sincere people are always few in number i.e. from thousands only 313 turned out to be sincere. Says Allah Almighty "And there are few in My bondsmen who are thankful" (S34 : V13).

629. From this we learn also that those who went to the river were declared non-believers because "And those who believed are with him" is stated here. This teaches us that every instruction of the Prophet is incumbent to be obeyed even if it is based on some measure of expediency. This makes it clear that those who wanted to drink the water remained at the river and when the patient believers had already reached the other side of the river banks, they were being called by these impatient disbelievers, because by this time the believers had not gone beyond the river at all.

630. From this verse we learn that the obedience of a Prophet is instrumental in inculcating bravery, while disobedience to the Prophet can result in cowardice. The true Prophets are all brave while false prophets are cowards i.e. Mirza Ghulam Ahmed, the false Prophet, did not go on pilgrimage because of fear.

631. Sometimes the word (suspicion, conjecture, etc.) is used to denote positiveness and certainty. These believers were certain of meeting their Lord. Without certainty and positiveness no faith can be obtained. Says Allah Almighty:

"Why it did not happen when you had heard it that the male and female believers should have thought good of their own people" (S24 : V12). In this verse, too, the word "ZANN" is used to indicate positiveness, because it is imperative to be absolutely certain about Hazrat Ayesha's (on whom be peace) chastity.

632. Success and victory is not dependent on superiority of number or equipment, but is dependent on the grace and blessing of Allah. If His grace is with you it can destroy the elephant with just rocks of birds. This teaches us that believers should have total trust in Allah, However, acting upon available means is not going against the principle of reliance and trust. Says Allah Almighty:"And keep ready for them the strength you can and as many horses as you can"(S8 : V60)

633. Allah and His Help and Mercy is with the patient, while his Wrath and Anger with those who are impatient and with knowledge and power with all and sundry.

250.And when they confronted Jalut and his armies, they submitted: "O our Lord! Pour upon us patience and keep our steps firm and help us against the disbelieving people" [634].

634. This prayer should be recited in battle when facing the opposition. At times like this it is also better to be in the company of the pious.

251. Then they defeated them by Allah's Command [635] and Dawood killed Jalut. And Allah bestowed on him (Dawood) kingship and wisdom [636] and taught him [637] what He desired. And had Allah not repelled some people by others [638], then, surely, the earth [639] would have been ruined. But, Allah is the Bestower of bounty to all the worlds.

635. Numerically inferior army defeated the powerful army of the opposition.

636. Allah blessed Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام with both Prophethood and Kingdom by getting him married to the daughter of King Talut. The King had announced that whosoever killed Jalut will marry my daughter. After king Talut, Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام sat on the throne i.e. became king.

637. Many Books of Tafseer have it as Eiysha, father of Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام , with all his sons, was in the army of Talut. Hazrat Dawood عليه السلامwas the youngest and the weakest in the army. He had just come out of a sickness and had a yellowish skin. Hazrat Talut asked Shumail عليه السلام that since Jalut (Goliath) is so strong and powerful, he should pray to Allah for his death. In response to this prayer Divine Revelation informed that Jalut would be killed at the hands of Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام As such Hazrat Dawood with the aid of a sling came out to oppose him. On seeing the frail personage of Hazrat Dawood عليه السلام , Jalut began to taunt him, but the Prophet of God paid no heed to him. He fired a stone from the sling which hit him in the forehead and killed him.

638. From this we learn that Allah alleviates the hardships of others through His servants, and breaks the power of the non-believers through the Muslim soldiers.

639. From this we learn that there are many expediencies associated with war. e.g.
If the grass is not cut, the fields are ruined, if pus is not removed through operation the entire body can become affected, if the criminal ele ment is not eliminated, peace and security will be affected. Likewise, if traitors and rebels are not overpowered, law-abiding citizens will find it difficult to survive. In short, to raise objections in matters of war is foolish.

252.These are the verses of Allah which (O Beloved) We recite to you correctly and surely you are from amongst the Rasools (Messengers of Allah) [640].

تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ اللّٰهِ نَتْلُوْهَا عَلَيْكَ بِالْحَقِّ ؕ وَ اِنَّكَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ ﴿۲۵۲﴾

640. The endowment of lost historical data and the knowledge of the unseen is one of the proofs of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Prophethood because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did neither acquire knowledge of History nor had he been in the company of historians, yet he presented authentic and accurate historical data. This proves beyond any doubt that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was a Divinely inspired Prophet.

253.Of these Rasools We have excelled some of them over others [641]. Among them to whom Allah spoke, [642] and someone is he who was raised [643] in degrees of honour over all. And We gave Isa, son of Mariam [644] as clear signs and We supported him [645] with a pure spirit (Jibraeel). And if Allah had willed, those who had come after him would not have fought [646] with each other. After they had received clear proofs, they differed. Some of them became believers and others became infidels. Yet, had Allah so willed, they would not have fought (with each other). But, Allah does whatever He desires [647]

تِلْكَ الرُّسُلُ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلٰى بَعْضٍ ۘ مِنْهُمْ مَّنْ كَلَّمَ اللّٰهُ وَرَفَعَ بَعْضَهُمْ دَرَجٰتٍ ؕ وَاٰتَيْنَا عِيْسَى ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ الْبَيِّنٰتِ وَاَيَّدْنٰهُ بِرُوْحِ الْقُدُسِ ؕ وَلَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ مَا اقْتَتَلَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِهِمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَتْهُمُ الْبَيِّنٰتُ وَلٰكِنِ اخْتَلَفُوْا فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ اٰمَنَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ كَفَرَ ؕ وَلَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ مَا اقْتَتَلُوْا ۫ وَلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يُرِيْدُ ﴿۲۵۳﴾ ع

641. From this verse emerge a number of issues:
1. In Prophethood all Prophets are equal - there is no question of some being legitimate and others being counterfeit. Allah bestowed Prophethood on each one of them.
2. Besides Prophethood the Prophets enjoy different status i.e. some enjoy greater status than others. In respect of this, our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم enjoys the highest status among all the Prophets.
3. Although it can be said that some Prophets enjoy higher status than the others, it is incorrect to assume that some Prophets are in any way inferior to the others. To do this is insulting the dignity of the Prophets of Allah, as is deduced from the word "...we excelled".

Marfat.com

642. Hazrat Musa's عليه السلام talking to Allah upon this earth, without an intermediary, is his distinctive feature, as the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم conversation with Allah without any curtain during the Night of Me'raj was not upon this earth.

643.The word "some of them" denotes our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم From this emerge two issues:

1. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is superior in status to all other Prophets.

2. His superiority and greatness is beyond our conception and imagination as no limits or degree of status has been mentioned. Furthermore, we also learn that while all the Prophets are equal in respect of Prophethood they are different in rank and status.

644. From this we learn that Hazrat Isa عليه السلام was created without a father - just a mother. If he had had a father he would not have been referred to the mother i.e. Isa عليه السلام son of Mariam. Says Allah Almighty: "Call them after their fathers"(S33: V5)

Thus besides Bibi Mariam, the QUR'AAN has not mentioned any other woman's name.

645. By "Ruhul Quds" 'the pure soul' is meant Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام who was always accompanying Hazrat Isa عليه السلام From this we learn that the servants of Allah have the capacity to help and that help, from those besides Allah is not polytheism. Hazrat Jibraeel عليه السلام is the servant of Allah, yet he had been rendering help to Hazrat Isa عليه السلام Furthermore, the help of these pious servants is in reality help of Allah, as Allah Almighty refers to Hazrat Jibraeel's عليه السلام help as His help.

646. This verse intimates to us that after the demise of these Prophets their followers waged war among themselves. In it there is a hint that after our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم departs from this earthly life his followers too would wage war among themselves, which in reality did take place. Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (on whom be peace) waged war against those who had rejected the institution of Zakaat, there were several wars between Hazrat Ali (on who be peace) and Hazrat Muawiyah (on whom be peace)

647.The words "if Allah so wished" suggest that the wars among the followers of the previous Prophets, those that would be fought amongst the followers of the Holy Prophet are all in accordance with Divine plan. There are many wise devices behind this plan which is related to the question of predestination (Taqdeer). For further investigation and research about this issue refer to Tafseer Naeemi.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اَنْفِقُوْا مِمَّا رَزَقْنٰكُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَّا بَيْعٌ فِيْهِ وَلَا خُلَّةٌ وَّ لَا شَفَاعَةٌ ؕ وَالْكٰفِرُوْنَ هُمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۲۵۴﴾

254.O Believers! [648]. Spend [649] in the way of Allah of what We have provided for you before there comes a day where there shall be no bargaining, nor any friendship nor any intercession [650] for infidels. And it is the infidels themselves who are the unjust [651].

648. "Oh those who believe" suggest that acts of worship like Zakaat, Salaah, etc are incumbent upon Muslims, not non-Muslims, and without belief all forms of worship are imperfect and incorrect.

649. The verb 'you spend' intimates that we should give charity from all those things with which Allah has blessed us. i.e. knowledge, wealth, health, children, time, etc. From all of these we should spend in the path of Allah.

650. The non-believers will not benefit from anyone's friendship nor his intercession. It is for this reason that the words no friendship and "and no intercession" are followed by "and the infidels themselves are unjust persons"(S2: V254) On the other hand, with the permission of Allah, both friendship and intercession will benefit the Muslims. Says Allah Almighty: "Fast friends will be foes to one another on that day except the God-fearing people" (S43:V67).

651.The word 'injustice' means to unjustly use someone else's thing. An obedient servant can use the possessions of his master while the same cannot be said of the disobedient slave. The non-believers are disobedient, they are not justified in using the provisions of Allah. Thus, only those who are related to the bridal parties are justified in partaking of the marriage feast, those who are not connected with them are eating as thieves. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the bridegroom of the entire world, the believers are his obedient servants and the non-believers are his foes. Hence, the non-believers are eating the provisions unjustly and as thieves.

255. (He is) Allah! There is none worthy of worship but He. The Ever Living, the Sustainer of all existence. Slumber [652] seizes Him not, nor sleep. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth. Who is there that can intercede with Him, except by His leave? [653] He knows all that was before them and all that shall happen after [654] them. And they encompass nothing of His knowledge 655 except for what He wills. His throne encircles over the heavens and the earth [656]. And their preservation is not a burden on Him. And He alone is the Most Exalted, the Supreme.

تَاْخُذُهٗ سِنَةٌ وَّ لَا نَوْمٌ ؕ لَهٗ مَا فِی
السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِی الْاَرْضِ ؕ مَنْ ذَا
الَّذِیْ یَشْفَعُ عِنْدَهٗۤ اِلَّا بِاِذْنِهٖ ؕ یَعْلَمُ
مَا بَیْنَ اَیْدِیْهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ ۚ وَلَا

شَآءَ ۚ وَسِعَ كُرْسِیُّهُ السَّمٰوٰتِ
وَالْاَرْضَ ۚ وَلَا یَـُٔوْدُهٗ حِفْظُهُمَا ۚ وَهُوَ
الْعَلِیُّ الْعَظِیْمُ ﴿۲۵۵﴾

652. This verse is known as (Verse of the Throne). Many virtues and benefits of it are mentioned in the traditions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم It is an excellent means of obtaining protection for one's life, wealth and for obtaining death with faith. If one recites this before retiring to bed he will be in the protection of Allah. If he recites it after every Salaah he will be blessed with Paradise. It is full of the Praise and Glory of Allah.

653. From the word 'he can intercede' emerge two issues:

1. The Saints of Allah will intercede by Allah.
2. Their intercession is not one of bluff but one of approval. Hence anyone who denounces intercession is an infidel, and the one who accepts false intercessions like the pagans of Arabia is also in the same category. Remember that only the following will be able to intercede: The Prophets of Allah, the saints of Allah, the Ulama (the learned), one who is saintly guided, the Black Stone, the Holy QUR'AAN (including the Huffaz), the Holy Ka'bah, the Holy month of Ramadaan, the minor children of Muslims. Intercession will be of three kinds, for the salvation on the Day of Judgement, for the forgiveness of one's sins and for the loftiness of rank and status. From the first intercession even the non-believers will be benefitting, from the second kind, the sinful Muslims and from the third, the pious.

654. The word 'He Knows' intimates that Allah Almighty knows the past and future deeds of man, or Intercedeer of Sinners, the Holy Prophet 655. The words "From His knowledge" intimates that Allah Almighty has blessed His servants with knowledge, each according to his capacity and aptitude.

656. The word 'Throne' denotes either the Divine knowledge, His power or the Sublime Throne, or place between the Throne and the Seventh Heaven referred to as the Eighth Heaven of astronomy or the Zodiacal heaven, while the Throne is the Ninth Heaven of Satun.

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knows the past and future sins of people, because without knowledge intercession is not possible. The physician is fully aware of which patient can be cured and which is beyond cure. Likewise, the Interceder of sinners fully knows who is worthy of intercession and who is unworthy of intercession. Thus, this portion of the verse is the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Naa't (verse in praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم (Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan)

لَآ اِكۡرَاهَ فِى الدِّيۡنِ ۙ قَدۡ تَّبَيَّنَ الرُّشۡدُ مِنَ الۡغَىِّ ۚ فَمَنۡ يَّكۡفُرۡ بِالطَّاغُوۡتِ وَيُؤۡمِنۡ بِاللّٰهِ فَقَدِ اسۡتَمۡسَكَ بِالۡعُرۡوَةِ الۡوُثۡقٰى ۗ لَا انۡفِصَامَ لَهَا ؕ وَاللّٰهُ سَمِيۡعٌ عَلِيۡمٌ ﴿۲۵۶﴾

256. There is no compulsion in religion [657]. Surely, the path of virtue has been separated from the erring [658]. He who rejects the devil and believes in Allah [659], he has indeed grasped a very firm knot which is never to open [660]. And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

657. It should be remembered that while it is not permissible to force Islam onto anyone, a Muslim can be forced to remain a believer. Thus no Muslim can be granted permission to become an apostate: either he remains a Muslim or he will be beheaded. Therefore there is no contradiction between the QUR'AANIC verse and the Hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah Almighty had asked the apostate Israelites "Present yourselves to be put to death". From this it can be deduced that apostates should be put to death.

658. In this verse the word 'infidelity' is used literally to mean 'to reject.' From this it is evident that faith is based on two essentials: the acceptance of Allah and the abstention from all wicked and devilish beliefs.

659. From this verse it becomes clear that Faith in Allah will only be accepted when all His enemies are shunned. The reason for this is Allah has mentioned the rejection of the devil before Faith in Him. In this is a hint of "There is no God but Allah"

660. From this it becomes evident that only those people can remain firm on Islam who cut themselves off from the company of the non-believers, show no love for them, keep away from their books and stay away from their lectures, because it is this very firmness on which the rejection of the devil is being based. Stay away from snakes and thieves because they are enemies of your lives and wealth, stay away from the infidels because they are the enemies of your Faith - Says Allah Almighty "Then sit not you after recollection with the unjust people" (S6 : V68)

اَللّٰهُ وَلِىُّ الَّذِيۡنَ اٰمَنُوۡا ۙ يُخۡرِجُهُمۡ مِّنَ الظُّلُمٰتِ اِلَى النُّوۡرِ ؕ وَالَّذِيۡنَ كَفَرُوۡۤا اَوۡلِيٰٓـئُهُمُ الطَّاغُوۡتُ ۙ يُخۡرِجُوۡنَهُمۡ مِّنَ النُّوۡرِ اِلَى الظُّلُمٰتِ ؕ اُولٰٓـئِكَ اَصۡحٰبُ النَّارِ ۚ هُمۡ فِيۡهَا خٰلِدُوۡنَ ﴿۲۵۷﴾

257.Allah is the Protector of the Believers. He brings them out from darkness into light [661]. And those who disbelieve, their protector is the devil [662]. And they take them out of light [663] into darkness. They are the inmates of Hell [664] and they will abide therein eternally.

661. The verb "He takes them out" means Allah removes the new converts (to Islam) from infidelity (Kufr) the sincere repenters from heresy and the eternally pious from infidelity and apostasy. Thus, this verse is applicable to all and is beyond any objection. Being a supporter of Allah really means that He is the Guardian of the believers and so are His Prophets and Saints. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah is protector and His Messenger and the believers"(S5: V55). In the light of this verse no one can deny the help of Prophets and saints. Says Allah Almighty about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم "So that you صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم may take the people from darkness to light". (S14 : V1).

662. From the words 'Their friends' can be ascertained, that some non-believers give assistance to their fellow non-believers in this world, but they will not be able to do this in the Hereafter. Therefore, this verse is not in contradiction of "And the unjust people have no helpers" (S2 : V270). Contrary to this, Allah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the pious servants of Allah are the helpers and guardians of the believers in this world and the Hereafter, as they will be interceding on behalf of the believers to obtain Allah's forgiveness for them.

663. Here, the word 'Light' refers to that religious nature upon which every child is born, because the non-believer was at no stage a believer. Therefore, how can it be said that the devil turned him out of Islam to Kufr – (infidelity). This verse could also be condemning the apostates.

664"By inmates of Hell" means that being inmates of Hell and to be therein eternally is the speciality of the non-believers. No matter how great a sinner the Muslim may be, he will not be regarded as the inmate of Hell. The house person is someone else, the guest is someone else.

258.(O Beloved Prophet) Did you not see the one who quarrelled [665] with Ebrahim about His Lord, (merely) because Allah had given him kingdom? When Ebrahim said: "My Lord is the One Who gives life and causes death". He (Namrood) said: "I give life and cause death" [666]. Ebrahim said: "Surely, Allah brings up the sun from the east [667], you cause it to rise from the west". Thereupon, the infidel was confounded [668]. And Allah does not guide the unjust people.

اَلَمْ تَرَ اِلَى الَّذِیْ حَآجَّ اِبْرٰهٖمَ فِیْ رَبِّهٖۤ اَنْ اٰتٰىهُ اللّٰهُ الْمُلْكَ ۘ اِذْ قَالَ اِبْرٰهٖمُ رَبِّیَ الَّذِیْ یُحْیٖ وَیُمِیْتُ ۙ قَالَ اَنَا اُحْیٖ وَاُمِیْتُ ؕ قَالَ اِبْرٰهٖمُ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ یَاْتِیْ بِالشَّمْسِ مِنَ الْمَشْرِقِ فَاْتِ بِهَا مِنَ الْمَغْرِبِ فَبُهِتَ الَّذِیْ كَفَرَ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ لَا یَهْدِی الْقَوْمَ الظّٰلِمِیْنَ ﴿۲۵۸﴾

665.The word 'who' in this verse refers to Namrood bin Qin'aan who was king of the world and who lived during the period of Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام. When Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام preached to him the Oneness of Allah and his Prophethood, he began his quibbling. This conversation possibly took place after the incident of Namrood's order to place Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام in the fire (Allah knows best).

From this incident we learn that entering into a debate with the non-believers is the practice of the Prophets.

666. On hearing of the power of Allah, Namrood called for two captives of whom he killed one and spared the other saying I have made the other live, i.e. like Allah I too can kill and give life (God forbid). From this incident we learn that we should not get disheartened at the ill-mannered quibbling of our opposition. Also if we cannot convince him with one proof we should try and win him over with another proof.

667. This command was to show the helple - ssness of the reprobate Namrood. From this it is evident that miracles should be demanded from the false prophets in order to unmask their false claim. However, any person who asks a miracle with a supposed belief of him being a Prophet is out of the fold of Islam.

668. It should be remembered that Namrood did not say to Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام to call upon your Lord to let the sun rise from the West because he was now aware from the previous evidence that Ebrahim's dua would most certainly make this possible, and thereby put his godhood to shame. He had already seen the miracle of fire turning to flowers. (Tafseer Ruhul Mu'aani). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had shown the miracle of making the sun rise from the West. What the father (Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام has said the son (the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had made it happen.

259.Or, it is like him (Prophet Uzair), who passed by a town [669] which had fallen into ruins. He said: "How will Allah bring this to life [670] after its death?" So, Allah caused him to die for a hundred years [671]; then He revived him. He said: "How long have you stayed here?" He (Uzair) replied: "I've remained a full day or part of it". He (Allah) told him: "No, you stayed for a hundred years [672], look at your food and your drink. They have not changed with time, yet look at your donkey, whose bones even are not safe [673]. And We will make you a symbol for mankind. And look at the bones (of this donkey). How We raised them, and then covered them with flesh. Then, when this matter became clear [674] to him, he said: "I know [675] very well that Allah has power over all things"[676].

669. The incident under discussion is that of Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام By 'place' here is meant Baitul Muqaddas - (Jerusalem) which was put to ruins by King Bakht Nasr. Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام was passing a place travelling on an ass. He had in a container some grape juice as well as some pieces of dates. He roamed in the entire city but did not find a single person. At that point in time he uttered these words and as soon as he got down from the ass his soul was captured i.e. he died.

670. Either it is concerning the nature and quality of giving life, or it is used for expressing astonishment, but it is not used to show rejection , as acceptance of the Day of Judgement is one of the essential parts of Faith.

671.The reason for stating this was to show that the condition in which they were, Allah had turned their attention from the affairs of the world. Otherwise, all the Prophets as well as the pious sages are not only fully aware of the world but are involved in its happenings. Thus Hazrat Musa عليه السلام was present at the time of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم farewell pilgrimage, (Hajjatul Wida) All the Prophets صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم performed Salaah behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the night of Me'raj; greetings are extended to the dead when entering the cemetry.

672. While in the state of death Allah at that point in time had made Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام totally inattentive about the world, as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was made inattentive on the night on which his Fajr Salaah lapsed. Normally the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was never unmindful, therefore his Wudu would never break due to sleep.

673. Food and drink which have a faster rate of perishing did not perish, whereas corpses which take longer to perish, decayed, even the bones became white.

674. One gaze of Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام and miraculously all the limbs of the donkey came together, the hide came on its body and brayingly came to life. Thereafter Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام climbed on it and journeyed to his village. On reaching it he found his place through rough estimation. He knocked on the door and asked if this was the house of Uzair's عليه السلام There an old and crippled lady hearing Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام name began to cry saying who is taking Hazrat Uzair's عليه السلام name after one hundred years? His whereabouts are unknown for the past hundred years. This old lady was Hazrat Uzair's عليه السلام maid. The reply came : "I am Uzair عليه السلام who has come to life after one hundred years". She then requested to Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام to pray to Allah to return her eyesight. The prayer was granted. Then holding her hands he said: "Stand in the name of your Lord" Immediately her deformed limbs were cured. She then recognised Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام and took him to a gathering of people in which were his 118 years old son and his grandson. The old lady addressed the people saying "Uzair عليه السلام has come back to life from the dead, look I have gained complete cure through his prayer" People accepted the words of the old lady and recognised him from his form. It is for this reason that the Yahud call Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام the son of God.

675. By "I know" means at first he had knowledge, now he has positive knowledge. The earlier knowledge was through information , but the present knowledge is through personal observation. From this we learn that, at times the faith of the Prophets is based on actual observation, hence their faith is more positive than their followers. On the night of Meraj our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saw all unseen things like the Heaven, Hell, etc. with his own eyes - Hence his belief in these is based on actual observation.

676. Wit-based on QUR'AANIC puzzle : Who is that pious person who was himself forty years old, his son was one hundred and forty years old and his grandson ninety years? Answer : Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام Reason: when Hazrat Uzair عليه السلام lapsed into a hundred years of death, he was forty years old, but when he was raised to life, he was still a person of forty years! Allah be praised.

260.And when Ebrahim [677] said: "O my Lord! Show me how You give life to the dead". He (Allah) said: "Do you not believe so?" He said: "Yes, but I like that my heart may be satisfied" [678]. He said: "Take four birds and make them familiar [679] to

اجْعَلْ عَلٰى كُلِّ جَبَلٍ مِّنْهُنَّ جُزْءًا ثُمَّ ادْعُهُنَّ يَاْتِيْنَكَ سَعْيًا ؕ وَاعْلَمْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٢٦٠﴾ ع

you. Then put a part of each of them (their flesh) on every hilltop. Thereafter call them [680]. They will come to you in haste [681]. And know that Allah is All Powerful, All Wise [682].

677.One day while Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام was walking along the ocean bank he saw a dead body whose flesh was being eaten by the fish during high tide and by the wild animals and birds of prey when the tide was low. This unusual sight brought in him the desire to experience the phenomenon of life and death. Thus he made his request to Allah Almighty.

678. In other words, Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام wanted to progress from his convincing knowledge to acquire positive knowledge through this phenomenon i.e. move from ordinary degree of perfection to highest degree of perfection.

679. That you may know them and be able to recognize them after they are brought back to life.

680. From this it becomes evident that if sometimes it is permissible to call upon lifeless animals to provide bounties, then it is equally permissible to call upon the past Prophets and Saints to receive their bounties.

681. In response to this Divine instruction Hazrat Ebrahim عليه السلام reared a peacock, a rooster, a pigeon and a crow, slaughtered them, he cut them into mince, mixed the flesh of the four placed the meat onto four different mountains, keeping their heads (beaks) with him. Then he called them. By permission of Allah all these limbs flew and joined with their original, their bodies became ready in the air and became alive after the beaks were joined.

682. From this discussion emerge two issues:

1. Whenever the pious servants of Allah become insistant about anything, Allah Almighty fulfils their desire,
2. Although faith in the unseen forms an essential part of our faith, the faith of the Prophets can be based on their actual observation.

SECTION 36

مَثَلُ الَّذِيْنَ يُنْفِقُوْنَ اَمْوَالَهُمْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ كَمَثَلِ حَبَّةٍ اَنْۢبَتَتْ سَبْعَ سَنَابِلَ فِيْ كُلِّ سُنْۢبُلَةٍ مِّائَةُ حَبَّةٍ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ يُضٰعِفُ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ وَاسِعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٢٦١﴾

261.The example of those who spend [683] their wealth in the way of Allah is like a grain of wheat, which grows into seven [684] offshoots, and each offshoot contains one hundred grains. And Allah multiplies (His rewards) to whomsoever He pleases [685]. And Allah is the All Encompassing, All Knowing.

683.Whether the charity is of a voluntary or compulsory nature, the wealth is spent with the view of conveying the reward to the deceased, which is included herein. Hence the funeral rites of the third day, forty days etc. are all included herein. - (Khazainul Irfaan)

684.Although it is Allah Almighty who raises the crop, yet the grain is connected with the farmer. From this it can be deduced that it is permissible to connect the verb with everything related therewith. This verse was revealed to honour Hazrat Uthman Ghani (on whom be peace) who on the occassion of the Battle of Tabuk donated a thousand camels with provisions for the Muslim cause.

685.The word 'He will increase' suggests that although pious deeds are similar in nature, their reward is of a different degree, or because there is difference in the beauty and sincerity of the intention, or because a small action, if accepted by Allah is worthy of a greater reward. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says : "If my Companion donates a handful of grain, and you a mountain full of gold, that handful of grain is worthy of greater reward than all your gold."

262.Those who spend [686] their wealth in the path of Allah, then after spending, neither boast of favours conferred, nor taunt [687]. Their reward is with their Lord. And they shall have no fear, nor shall they grieve [688].

686. It refers to those people who spend in the way of Allah out of all their wealth, at all times on all good occasions as evident from "who spend" and "their wealth" in respect of time and circumstances.

687. To be placed under an obligation means to mention the charitable deed in front of others, or by hurting the feelings of the beggars, while by causing grief is meant to taunt him. Doing these things will not only render your charities null and void, but it will be a means of punishment for causing grief to Muslims.

688. This could also refer to the grief and anxiety of the Day of Judgement, from which the believers will be relieved. Says Allah Almighty "The great terror shall not grieve them" (S21 : V103) or that worldly grief and anxiety which serve as a curtain between man and Allah. Otherwise, fear of Allah is the root of faith. Hence, it is not illogical to show fear for a snake, a scorpion or an enemy. Hazrat Musa عليه السلام became frightened when his staff turned into a snake, and spoke thus to Allah in respect of the Pharaoh's fear: "They both submitted : Our Lord undoubtedly we fear that he may commit excess against us or come before us with mischief" (S20 : V45). From this it can be deduced that all pious persons are Saints of Allah, as the Holy QUR'AAN speaks of similar qualities in respect of the Friends of Allah.

263.To speak kind words and to forgive [689] is better than charity followed by injury. And Allah is Self-Sufficient, Forbearing [690].

689. To prevent the person from begging, and to forgive him if he becomes abusive about this, is better than giving him a donation and thereafter teasing and disgracing him. The reason being wealth appeases the heart of the beggar while good words nourish it.

690. Allah Almighty despite being Self Sufficient is tolerant and kind by forgiving the sins of His servants. Similarly, we too should forgive the faults and shortcomings of the beggars and those under you. Tolerance is the practice of Allah. Praise be to Allah! What refined instructions for pure ethics!

264. O you who believe! Do not render in vain your charities by boasting of your favours conferred followed by injury [691], like him who spent [692] his wealth for showing to people and believes not in Allah and the Last Day. Then the example of such a person is like that of a smooth rock upon which is dust [693]; and it is struck by a heavy rain, leaving it a bare stone [694]. They shall have no control [695] on anything of what they have earned and Allah does not guide the people who disbelieve [696].

الْاٰخِرِ ؕ فَمَثَلُهٗ كَمَثَلِ صَفْوَانٍ عَلَيْهِ تُرَابٌ فَاَصَابَهٗ وَابِلٌ فَتَرَكَهٗ صَلْدًا ؕ لَا يَقْدِرُوْنَ عَلٰى شَيْءٍ مِّمَّا كَسَبُوْا ؕ وَاللّٰهُ لَا يَهْدِى الْقَوْمَ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٢٦٤﴾

691.In this there is a hint that if giving charity publicly may cause any disgrace to the beggar, it should be given without any publicity to obviate this. Under such circumstances publicizing charity becomes part of 'injure' .

692. Some great sages are of the opinion that one should not hope for reward from man for imparting religious education nor taunt him because this, too, is a charity of education.

693. This is the condition of the charity of hypocrites who spend their wealth not to gain the pleasure of Allah but to gain publicity which is rendered null and void by their taunts and bragging. It should be remembered that if the purpose of giving charity publicly is to show off, it is an evil act, but if it is given to encourage others, it is a good act. Says Allah Almighty:"If you give charity openly then what a good thing it is" (S2 : V271).

694. The heart of a hypocrite is like a block of stone and his worships, especially, charities and donations for show are the dust and environs fallen on that block from which no growth of seeds can be expected. Allah Almighty's rejection of their worships can be compared to that water which washes away top soil. Hence this comparison is very effective.

695. From this it should be understood that the foundation of outer worships is based on sincerity and sound intentions - the greater the sincere, the bigger their firmness and their fruits of reward.

696.The non-believer does not receive guidance for doing pious deeds, because the acceptance of piety is dependent on Faith. If he were to find the path of piety he would have repented from his apostasy and engaged himself in doing pious deeds. It could also mean that those who are to remain non-believers by Allah, will not find guidance towards Faith i.e. coming in the fold of Islam. Other than that, many nonbelievers have already come into the fold of Islam and Allah has accepted their faith.

265. And the example of those who spend their wealth to seek the pleasure of Allah [697] and for strengthening their hearts is like that garden [698], which is on an elevated ground. Heavy rain fell upon it, then bearing double the fruit. And if heavy rain does not fall on it, then dew suffices [699]. And Allah observes what you do [700].

697. In acquiring wealth there is a hint that a believer should spend out of every wealth acquired on all types of good occasions at all times and not suffice on giving Zakaat only. He should give clothes, food, cash, crops, property, etc. in the way of Allah. In this expenditure Meelad gatherings and Niaz food of Holy Saints is included, as this too is spending in the way of Allah.

698. From this it is evident that the reward of charity and good deeds will be given according to their intentions. It is for this reason that our spending of a mountain full of gold is not equal to even 1 1/4 kg grain of the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because we do not possess the high degree of sincerity of the Companions Likewise, giving charity to any saintly pauper is better than giving it to a sinful beggar. The quantity of the crop will be dependent on the quality of the earth. Hence, the charity is the crop and the beggar is the earth.

266. Does any one of you like to have a garden of dates and grapes[701], beneath which rivers flow, in which there are all kinds of fruit? Then, old age came to him and he has weak children [702]. Then came a whirlwind containing fire and so it is burnt. Thus does Allah make clear to you (His) signs, so that you may ponder [703].

701. This is an excellent example of spurious charity. Just as a person in old age will feel the pain at the destruction of his well blossomed garden, so will the spurious charity of the hypocrites and pretenders be of no avail to them on the Day of Judgement when they will be in great need of its reward.

702. By 'old age overtaking him' means his need for the wealth is greater but his strength to acquire it, is less. Similarly, on the Day of Judgement there will be a need to acquire rewards of good deeds. But there will be no strength to do good deeds. It should be remembered that although the believer does continue to perform his Salaah and recite the Holy QUR'AAN he will receive no reward for these acts. Rewards will only be for deeds performed during one's life time. It is for this reason that rewards are conveyed to the deceased as they are now no longer in the position to acquire these.

703. From this example it is understood that good deeds should not be showing off. Secondly, after doing good deeds one should not indulge in any sinful activity which would destroy its reward. If one is guilty of such an act one will be ever so sorry on the Day of Judgement just like the owner of the garden would be painful at the desolation of his garden in the hour of his need. It should be remembered that just as sins are forgiven through some good deeds, some sins too cause the destruction of one's good deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "Lest your deeds are wasted...." (S49 : V2).

699.By 'dew suffices' is meant the land of high quality soil will always yield good crop even though the rain might be insufficient. Likewise, the charity of the believer will yield reward whether it is big or small. By Allah, condition of the heart is judged, not the quantity of wealth.

700. From this one learns that just as land, rich of soil will yield crops of superior quality, in some sacred grounds the rewards of good deeds abound e.g. the reward of one good deed in the mosque of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم (Masjide Nabawi) is equal to fifty thousand deeds.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اَنْفِقُوْا مِنْ طَيِّبٰتِ مَا كَسَبْتُمْ وَمِمَّآ اَخْرَجْنَا لَكُمْ مِّنَ الْاَرْضِ ۖ وَلَا تَيَمَّمُوا الْخَبِيْثَ مِنْهُ تُنْفِقُوْنَ وَلَسْتُمْ بِاٰخِذِيْهِ اِلَّآ اَنْ تُغْمِضُوْا فِيْهِ ۭ وَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ غَنِيٌّ حَمِيْدٌ ﴿٢٦٧﴾

267. O you who believe! Give [704] from the good things, which you have earned, and of what We have provided from the earth for you [705]. Do not intend to give the worthless part of your earnings in charity, whilst you would not take it yourself, unless with closed eyes [706]. And know that Allah is free of need and Praiseworthy.

704. From the words "what we have provided from earth" emerge a few issues:
1.We should always engage ourselves in lawful occupations like farming, trade ventures, seeking employment, etc. for it is unprofitable to remain idle and jobless.
2.It is better to give charity from one's earning.
3.One should spend from that wealth which is dearest to oneself.
4.Charity should be given from lawfully earned wealth.
5.One should not give away the entire wealth, some of it should be kept for one's own needs, as is evident from "that which". One should not only suffice on paying Zakaat, voluntary charity should also be given as is indicated by "you spend"

705. This verse is Imam Abu Hanifa's R.A. basis of argument in respect of Zakaat on agricultural produce. Thus, it is Wajib (compulsory) to give Zakaat on these products, no matter its quantity or whether the products survive the full year or not, because the word 'of what' in this verse is for common usage. Its validity is supported by the following traditions in which it is stated that any land which is irrigated through rain water, the Zakaat on its produce will be 1/10, while that which is irrigated through well water the Zakaat on its produce will be 1/20. The tradition mentioning that anything under five Wasaq is exempt from charity is pertaining to Zakaat on trade items and not on agricultural produce. The reason being in those days one Wasaq was equal to 40 dirhams, which is the Nisaab for Zakaat on trade items (Nisaab: minimum wealth required before Zakaat becomes compulsory).

706. Some people would give damaged worthless dates in the path of Allah. Regarding them, this verse was revealed to inform them that if you seek excellent reward for charity, the things you give in charity, it should be that which is the dearest to you and of the highest quality.

268. The devil threatens you with poverty and commands of you lewdness [707]. And Allah promises you forgiveness from it and bounty. Surely, Allah is All Embracing, All Knowing [708].

707. From this verse we learn that fear of poverty in respect of spending for good work, and spending regardlessly on evil work is indeed the evil suggestion of the devil. May Allah protect us from this type of action. People who advise you to spend lavishly on un-Islamic wedding customs and prevent you from charity are devils, from whose evil advice one should stay far away.

708. The word "All Embracing" suggests that with the Grace of Allah charity does not decrease the wealth but increases it. It also wards off calamities. This is hinted in "All Embracing and All-Knowing"

يُؤْتِي الْحِكْمَةَ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ۚ وَمَنْ يُّؤْتَ الْحِكْمَةَ فَقَدْ اُوْتِيَ خَيْرًا كَثِيْرًا ۗ وَمَا يَذَّكَّرُ اِلَّآ اُولُوا الْاَلْبَابِ ﴿٢٦٩﴾

269. He bestows wisdom [709] upon whom He wills and whoever has been given wisdom, has certainly been given much good [710]. And none pay attention to guidance except those of understanding.

709. By wisdom is meant religious knowledge i.e. the knowledge of the Holy Prophet From this emerge two issues:
1.Charity of knowledge is superior to charity of wealth as the former is recurring charity (Sadaqa-e-Jariya) the reward of such a charity will accrue to the giver until Judgement Day.
2. Religious knowledge is not just obtained from books but from the Grace of Allah. Just by reading the QUR'AAN and Hadith one is not likely to find guidance, if the Grace of Allah is not part of it. The voice from the gramaphone or radio will only be received after it is tuned i.e. reception is dependent on tuning of the station, not without it. Likewise, if the instructor of the QUR'AAN and Hadtih is an infidel he will obviously teach infidelity from it.
710. The word good suggests that religious education is better than all bounties of Allah - e.g. wealth, worship and kingdom are inferior to knowledge. Because the Holy Prophet is the greatest Prophet of Allah, he is also the greatest possessor of knowledge of all things. He certainly gave our Holy Prophet much more knowledge than this. The Holy Prophet himself says:
"Everything was made clear unto me and thus I had knowledge of it" in the light of this, charity of knowledge is greater than any other charity.

270. And whatsoever you spend of expenditures or make vows [711], then surely Allah knows of it. And for the unjust there are no helpers [712].

711. In Islamic code of law one can only take a vow on Allah alone as by means of it one makes unincumbent worships incumbent. However, the poor caretakers of the shrines of the Saints of Allah can utilize the things on which the vow is taken. The literal vow refers to gifts which can be taken from the creation of Allah as can be seen from the example of a maid who took a vow on the occasion of Battle of Uhud that if he the Holy Prophet came out unharmed she would play the tambourine. This is a literal vow. While it is compulsory to fulfil the religious vows, as it is a means of carrying out a promise.
712 The word 'helpers' tells us that Allah has appointed helpers for the believers in this world and the Hereafter. Says Allah Almighty "Only Allah is your protector and His Messenger and the believers " (S5:V55).
The helpless state of the non-believers is a means of punishment for them.

اِنْ تُبْدُوا الصَّدَقٰتِ فَنِعِمَّا هِيَ ۚ وَاِنْ تُخْفُوْهَا وَتُؤْتُوْهَا الْفُقَرَآءَ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ

271. If you offer your charity openly, then it is a good thing [713]. But, if you conceal it, and give it to the poor then it is much better for you.

Marfat.com

لَّكُمْ ۭ وَيُكَفِّرُ عَنْكُمْ مِّنْ سَيِّاٰتِكُمْ ۭ وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ خَبِيْرٌ ﴿٢٧١﴾

And He will remove some of your sins [714]. And Allah is aware of what you do.

713. It should be remembered that in the matter of payment of compulsory charity, publicity is good as no one will accuse you of being miserly while it is better to give voluntary charity without any publicity. However, in the case of collections to write your name with the intention of encouraging others to donate is not only permissible but also better. If it was totally forbidden to make known your charity, than the charity of the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم especially that of Hazrat Uthman (on whom be peace)would not have beeen narrated.

714. Through charity one's minor sins are forgiven, calamities are warded off. Hence reference here is made to 'some sins' meaning 'minor sins.'

لَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ هُدٰىهُمْ وَلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَهْدِيْ مَنْ يَّشَاۗءُ ۭ وَمَا تُنْفِقُوْا مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَلِاَنْفُسِكُمْ ۭ وَمَا تُنْفِقُوْنَ اِلَّا ابْتِغَاۗءَ وَجْهِ اللّٰهِ ۭ وَمَا تُنْفِقُوْا مِنْ خَيْرٍ يُّوَفَّ اِلَيْكُمْ وَاَنْتُمْ لَا تُظْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٢٧٢﴾

272. (O Holy Prophet) To guide them is not your responsibility [715], but Allah guides whom He pleases [716]. And whatever good you spend is for yourselves [717]. And it is not proper for you to spend except to seek the pleasure [718] of Allah and whatever good thing you spend will be fully repaid to you. And you will not be dealt with unjustly [719].

715. Allah makes it clear that Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . you are not responsible for their guidance, nor will you be questioned regarding them not accepting Faith. From this we learn that we are totally dependent on our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . By us accepting Faith will not enhance the status of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم neither by remaining unbelievers, will we be able to decrease his noble status one bit. Whether one believes in the sun as a giver of light or not, it will still remain bright.

716. From this we learn that True Guidance is received from the Will of Allah, not from mere love, because Allah loves every person as His creation, otherwise He would not have granted them provision and sent Prophets for their guidance. However, all are not blessed with Faith and guidance because of this love. Thus, general love of Allah is one thing, the Will of Allah is another thing.

717. From this emerge two issues:
At all times spend the best in the way of Allah as is ascertained from "From that which is good". Do not make the beggar a butt of your gratitude because whatever you give is for your good.

718. It should be remembered that whatever charity is given in the name of Saints, it is given to seek the pleasure of Allah, but the recipient of its reward are the Saints. e.g. Hazrat S'aad (on whom be peace) after opening a well said its reward will be for the Mother of S`aad. Hence this verse does not in any way distract from the holding of Gyarwee Shareef, etc.

719. Allah Almighty says that there will be no decrease in the reward of your good deeds, you will, without any doubt receive full reward for them. Thus, there is no negation of increase in this verse. Allah will give reward to His servants much more in relation to their deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "The example of those who spend" (S2: V261) Hence there is no contradiction in this verse:

273. For those beggars[720], who are restricted in the way of Allah [721]. They cannot move about in the earth [722]. An ignorant (person) would think them to be wealthy because of their restraint. You shall recognize them from their (characteristic) signs [723]. They do not beg of men persistently [724]. And whatever you give in charity, indeed Allah knows of it.

720. A charity which is of a compulsory nature will only be given to the poor, not to a wealthy person, while it is better to give the voluntary charity to the poor, but as Sadaqatul Jariya all are equal i.e. the rich and the poor can make use of it e.g. water of the well, cemetery, mosque, etc. From this verse we learn that charity should be given to a beggar who is ashamed of receiving it than that poor who experiences no remorse about it.

721. In this are included poor students and Ulama (Religious teachers) as they too are part of those in the path of Allah - they do not earn money.

722. By 'they cannot move' is meant that if they go about in search of livelihood, all religious activities will come to a stop. From this we learn that those learned men and students who have devoted themselves solely for religious work, their care becomes the responsibility of the Muslims as was the case of Companions of Suffa. These were a special group of Compan-ions of the Holy Prophet who had given up material life and devoted it to the Holy Prophet and receiving religious instructions from the Messenger of Allah, had engaged themselves in material work, religious activities would have come to a stop. Thus it is permissible to take wages for Imamat, giving religious knowledge etc. Besides Hazrat Uthman (on whom be peace) all the other Caliphs from Khulafa-e-Rashideen took wages for rendering the services as Caliphs, though Caliphate itself is a relgious service.

723. Their crestfallen faces, torn clothes and yellowish skin, paint a picture of their poverty which were not within their control, they appear by themselves.

724. The translation of this verse is very refined indeed. From it we learn that the negation in this verse is of question not of being persistently as is evident from the above verse.

274.Those who spend their wealth (in the way of Allah) by night and by day, secretly and openly [725], they will have their reward with their Lord. They shall have no fear, nor shall they grieve [726].

725. This verse was revealed in honour of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (on whom be peace)

From this verse we learn that charity can be given both publically and without any publicity. In fact, compulsory charity should be given publically, while the voluntary charity should be given without any publicity e.g. the Five Daily Prayers, Eid Prayers and Jummah Prayer should be performed in seclusion. It is important to know that Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq (on whom be peace) spent forty thousand golden coins in four different ways: 10, 000 in the day; 10,000 at night; 10,000 in the open and 10,000 secretly.

726. From this verse we learn that Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq R.A. is deserving and entitled to great rewards. His deeds have attained acceptability in the Eyes of Allah and he is a true Friend of Allah. He is free of the distress and sufferings of this world and the Hereafter and his title is ATEEQ.(free from fire).

275. Those who devour interest (usury) [727] cannot stand on the Day of Judgement, except like one who is touched [728] by Shaitaan into insanity [729]. That is because they say: "The trade, too, is just like interest"[730]. But, Allah has permitted trade and forbidden interest [731]. So, whoever has received direction from His Lord and refrains from it, whatever he took before is lawful for him [732]. And his affair is with Allah [733]. But, whoever returns (to dealing in interest), they are the inmates of the Fire, wherein they will abide eternally [734].

727. A usurer is only human in form but inwardly a devil, as he has no Mercy on the poor. Hence, he will assume the shape of the devil on the Day of Judgement.

728. The words "Evil spirit has touched him" suggests that on the Day of Judgement the usurers will be so confounded and stand staggeringly like the one who had been afflicted by an evil spirit in his earthly life, for the usurer had become a devil unto the people during his lifetime.

729. From this verse we learn that evil spirit is a fact i.e. people can get possessed by evil spirits, which can haunt and make a person demented. Furthermore, one can connect godly deeds with man because to make a person mad, ill, etc. are deeds of Allah but here they are connected to Jinn.

730.These people had regarded usury to be good and wholesome to such an extent that they actually liken usury to trade i.e. they were making trade as a means of comparing and usury as an object compared.

731. Any profit accrued from a loan is usury or interest. Similarly to sell items of one nature with extra price is also equal to usury or interest. Like selling a kilo of grain for a price of 11/4 kg. Interest has many forms, which are explained in the books of Jurisprudence. For a detailed discussion of it refer to our Tafseer Naeemi.

732. The word 'refrained' hints that if a person continues taking interest after it was made unlawful, will be guilty of taking interest prior to this injunction. While any person who refrains from interest after it was made unlawful will be excused for whatever interest he had taken prior to it.

733. Allah can bring about its prohibition whenever and on whomsoever He so wills. No one can raise any objection in the matter. However, there is no harm for delving into its wisdom, In fact, it will be regarded as a commendable act.

734. Any person who takes interest by regarding it as lawful is out of the fold of Islam and will remain in Hell fire eternally. However, if he takes it as an unlawful thing, he will be a grave sinner and will be in Hell fire for a lengthy period.

يَمْحَقُ اللّٰهُ الرِّبٰوا وَيُرْبِي الصَّدَقٰتِ ؕ
وَاللّٰهُ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ كَفَّارٍ اَثِيْمٍ ﴿٢٧٦﴾

276. Allah destroys interest [735] and increases charities [736]. And Allah loves not any ungrateful big sinner [737].

735. From this emerge two issues:
1. There can be no blessing in interest, for the believer, it can only be nourishment for a non believer, not a Believer. A germ can only nourish in squalor, while a nightingale flourishes on flowers. Hence do not think of yourselves on the line of apostasy (Kufr). A non-believer may progress through interest, but a believer will flourish by paying his Zakaat.
2. No charity or Zakaat can be paid from interest money. This is one way of abolishing interest.

736. The word "increases" means Allah will be increasing his reward in this world and the Hereafter. He will be blessing him in this world, while in the Hereafter increasing his every one reward by seven hundred or even more.
737.This verse intimates that the one who commits an unlawful act is both ungrateful and a sinner; obedience is gratitude and the obedient is grateful.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ
وَاَقَامُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاٰتَوُا الزَّكٰوةَ لَهُمْ
اَجْرُهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ ۚ وَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُوْنَ ﴿٢٧٧﴾

277. Surely, those who believe and do righteous deeds and establish prayer [738] and give Zakaat, will have their reward with their Lord. And, there is no fear for them, nor shall they grieve [739].

738. From this verse one learns that the excellence lies not in performing Salaah but establishing it as an institution. Salaah should be performed regularly, correctly and sincerely, as an established institution.
739. From this verse it is evident that a true believer is pious and a friend of Allah, because regarding the Saints of Allah, it is said "Listen carefully! No doubt, there is no fear nor any grief upon the Friends of Allah".(S10: V62).The same is used for the believers. Thus sainthood can be attained through pious deeds.

بَقِيَ مِنَ الرِّبٰٓوا اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٢٧٨﴾

278. O you who believe! Fear Allah [740] and leave what remains (due to you) of interest [741], if you are believers [742].

740. From this emerge two issues:
1. Piety and God-consciousness should be the object of every believer.
2. Faith precedes piety. Piety is for Faith like Wudu is for Salaah.
741. Prior to the prohibition of interest, if it was payable on the debtor and part of it was unpaid, the portion received would not be returned after the revelation of its prohibition. However, no further interest would be taken. Similar, will be the case of that non-believer on whom interest was due but has now accepted Islam. After accepting Islam he will be relieved of the obligation of its payment. Similarly, any person who embraces Islam while having 6 or 7 wives prior to Islam, is now permitted to have a maximum of 4 wives and separate the others. Many such issues can be deduced from this verse.

742. From this verse we learn that all interest orientated trade is the practice of the non-believer, not the believer. It is unlawful to imitate any practices of the non-believers as the practise of such acts is Kufr (apostasy). Examples of these are wearing cross threads to imitate the Hindus, leaving some hair on top of the head unshaved, bowing to the cross in imitation of the Nasara, etc. This verse further intimates that we should refrain from wearing Hindu fashioned Dhoti, (waist piece passing between legs and fastened behind) loincloth (Langoti) Lati, hat etc. as these are current practices of the non-believers.

279.But if you do not, then beware of war[743] from Allah and His Messenger. And if you repent, then take your principal sums [744]. Thus, neither do you wrong anyone, nor are you wronged.

743. It should be remembered that two sins have been responsible for the declaration of war, one is taking of interest and the other is harbouring enmity against the friend of Allah as is found in the Hadith. Thus, taking of interest is a greater sin than paying it as there is no declaration of war on the one who pays interest. The Hadith which mentions that both are equal means both are equal in sin but not in the intensity of the sin. It should also be remembered that a non believer cannot take interest from the believer. But if a non believer takes interest from his fellow non-believers, the Islamic ruler should not interfere in their affairs as they enjoy full religious freedom.

744. This verse suggests that all interest prior to its prohibition was lawful. That amount would not be deducted from the original loan but instead the full amount of the loan would now become payable.

280. And if the debtor is in hardship, then give him time till it is easy [745]. And if you give (from your right as) charity, then it is better for you, if you only knew.

745. Issue: there is no time limit acceptable in respect of loans. Its payment can be demanded at any time. There is time limit in respect of payment of debt, it cannot be demanded before the due date. Short term loan would be regarded as a loan, while trade loans would be regarded as debts. Both the loan and the debt are included in this verse, as to give an extension of payment to both these debtors is an act worthy of reward. Hence we learn that to forgive a debtor from payment of his debt is an act of charity, but such a person cannot pay Zakaat out of that money. This situation can be remedied by paying Zakaat to a hard pressed debtor. After the debtor has taken possession of the money the creditor can collect his debt.

281.And fear the day in which you shall be made to return to Allah [746]. Then, every soul will be compensated for what it earned. And they shall not be wronged [747].

Marfat.com

746. This means that you should forgive your helpless debtor so that Allah can forgive you on the Day of Judgement for you, too, are Allah's debtor. Forgive, that you receive forgiveness. From this many issues can be extracted.
747.This means neither their good deeds would be decreased nor their sins would be increased. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (on whom be peace) says that this was the last verse to be revealed after which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم lived in this world for twenty one, nine or seven more days.

282. O you who believe! When you contract a debt [748] for a specific term, write it down [749] and let a scribe write it in your presence justly. And the scribe should not refuse [750] to write it as Allah has taught him. Let him on whom the liability [751] falls dictate [752] and fear Allah [753], Who is His Lord and do not leave anything out of it. But, if the one who has the obligation is of low understanding [754] or weak or unable to dictate himself, then let his guardian dictate justly. And make two witnesses from among your men[755]. Then, if two men are not available, then a man and two women. Such witnesses as you like[756], so that if one of them (woman) errs, then the other can remind her [757]. And when the witnesses are called, they should not refuse to come [758] and not to take it as a burden. The liability, be it small or big [759], write it down along with its fixed period. That is more just in the sight of Allah and stronger as evidence and more likely to prevent doubt, except a ready merchandise, which you give or take from hand to hand. There is no sin[760] on you if you do not write it and take witnesses, when you conclude a contract. Let no scribe be harmed or any witness [761], for if you do so, then it would be your insubordination [762]. And fear Allah and it is Allah who instructs you. Verily, Allah is the Knower of all things.

748. In respect of the payment of a debt, time limit is acceptable, its payment cannot be demanded before its due date. There is no time limit for the setting of a loan, its payment can be demanded before its due date.

749. The command under question is of a voluntary nature. Sometimes a command is given in respect of voluntary (Mustahab) acts. Some MUSTAHAB and some permissible acts too become binding and their rejection would be regarded as apostasy (Kufr), like the writing down of the loan being MUSTAHAB - super rerogative or desirable or accepting the permissibility of sex with one's wife during the nights of Ramadaan. Says Allah Almighty: "It was made lawful for you to go near your woman"(S2 : V187)

750.This means that by all means this should be documented with or without payment, because the one who draws up such a document is allowed to receive payment. Says Allah Almighty:"Neither the scribe be harmed, nor the witness" (S2 : V282). Accepting payment on giving a religious verdict too is included in this verse.

751.The gratitude of the learned person is letting the people derive benefit from his knowledge. Expression of gratitude differs from bounty to bounty. One who is able to write should enable the people to satisfy their needs through his writing.

752. From this we learn that the deed of sale should be written by the seller acknowledging sale. In respect of a loan the debtor should write the amount of the loan. The deed of rent should be completed by the tenant acknowledging the use of premises and its rental. These deeds should not be completed by the buyer, the creditor or the landlord. The document should be completed by those in whose favour they are made.

753. By "Fear Allah" means the document should be completed honestly without any omission, additions or alterations in respect of price, sale and amount of loan. Reference about this is made in the following sentence: "And leave not behind anything".
This command is for the writer of the document as well as the one who is dictating it, both should fear Allah in respect of the above.

754. In this verse "Low of understanding" refers to one who is mad or one who has no control over his senses, "Weak" refers to minor or very old person and "and be unable to dictate" means a mute or a person who cannot understand the language where in such circumstances another person could be used for the purpose of dictation.

755. In addition, it is made known that only Muslims should serve as witnesses for Muslims. However, non believers can serve as witnesses for non-believers.

756. From this discussion a few issues emerge:
1. A Muslim can be a witness.
2. Pious Muslims should be witnesses, not sinners.
3. Women alone should not serve as witnesses except in matters which are exclusively pertaining to women e.g. birth of a baby, proof of virginity, etc.
4. In general dealings, either two males or one male and two females can serve as witness, but in the case of adultery only four males can serve as witnesses, not less. Furthermore, women should only be used as witnesses when there is no presence of any males.

757. By nature the memory of the women and the application of it is weaker than men. It is for this reason that only males have been chosen for leading prayers, governership, administration of justice, prophethood, etc. According to Islamic Law a woman cannot be appointed to lead Prayers. Similarly, a woman cannot be appointed as a judge as she has to be in Purdah (privacy) while these duties cannot be effected in privacy. Hazrat Bilqees was a queen prior to accepting Faith in Hazrat Sulaiman عليه السلام, after which she lived under him.

758. From this verse we learn that it is compulsory to give evidence in matters concerning rights and obligations, to hide it i.e. refusing to give evidence, is forbidden. It should be remembered that the expenses of the witness should be met by the plaintiff. Says Allah Almighty:"And neither any scribe be harmed nor the witness..." (S2 : V282) Thus the expense of his journey would be paid by the plaintiff. The witness cannot charge a fee for giving witness as this is compulsory.

759. This command is of a voluntary nature, hence the order for refraining from any dispute or quarrel. However, if the command is for compulsory acts, then it is abrogated.

760. This does not necessarily mean that not recording credit deals is sinful as it is contrary to the meaning. All issues are not solved on the basis of codified law. It is possible that by 'sin' could be meant 'harm' i.e. because there is no possibility of dispute or argument in cash deals, there is no harm in not recording it.

761. There could be two possible meanings to this verse. The one is that neither the scribe nor the witness be compensated, by not paying the scribe for his effort nor paying the witness for his travelling expense, thereby wasting their time. It should be remembered that the scribe can charge a fee for documentation. Therefore, a learned man should not charge a fee for issuing a religious verdict or a religious issue as this is forbidden, for the propagation of Faith (Religion) is compulsory upon him. However, he can charge a fee for giving a written verdict or going to court. Likewise, a witness should not take a fee for giving evidence, as it becomes obligatory upon him to give evidence in matters of truth. He can charge a fee for giving his time. Similarly he can also charge a fee for his travelling expenses. The second meaning could be that both the scribe and the writing or giving evidence when needed.

762. This means that it is sinful to cause harm to the scribe or the witness, in which case this verse is firm, or compulsory a loan deal without documentation, in which case this verse is abrogated, as its writing afterwards is not incumbent.

283. And if you are on a journey [763] and cannot find a scribe, let there be a pledge [764] with possession. And if one of you entrusts [765] the other, then let him who is entrusted, discharge his trust (faithfully) and let him fear Allah, his Lord, and conceal not the testimony. And whosoever conceals [766] it, his heart is indeed sinful [767]. Indeed, Allah is All Knowing of what you do.

763. By "traveling" is meant either while you are completing your journey or while you have temporarily stopped at a place and a need arises for a loan and you are unable to find a scribe who can draw up a bond, you should then pledge some passion.

764. Frome this verse we learn that when pledging control of the goods will be with the mortgagee and they will remain in his possession until the loan is settled. The order for pledging goods is also of a voluntary nature and the condition of a journey is an incidental one. as pledging goods in one's own place too. is permissible. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم pledged his chain armour with a Jew for taking a loan of about 80kg of barley. While in mortgage the property will be of the debtor but the control over it will remain with the lender.

765. If one entrusts the other and gives the loan in full trust with documentation or a pledge. Thus. the word trust in this context would refer to religious loan which is the definition of such a loan.

766. To conceal any evidence in respect of human rights on which may depend the right of a person, is forbidden. Likewise, to conceal evidence in matters of Shariah e.g. to conceal evidence regarding the sighting of the moon for Ramadaan and the two Eids is equally forbidden

767. It is a serious transgression to conceal such evidence which affects one's heart (inner feelings) e.g. honouring of sacred relics is an act of piety which enables a person to purify his heart. Says Allah Almighty "And whoso respects the signs of Allah, then it is from the piety of hearts"(S22 : V33). From this it is understood that sins are classified in different categories and that infringement of human rights is a grave sin.

284. To Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth [768]. Whatever you show what is within your hearts or conceal it [769], Allah will bring you to account for it. Then, He will forgive whom He pleases and punish [770] whom He pleases. Verily, Allah has power over everything.

لِلّٰهِ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ وَاِنْ تُبْدُوْا مَا فِيْٓ اَنْفُسِكُمْ اَوْ تُخْفُوْهُ يُحَاسِبْكُمْ بِهِ اللّٰهُ ؕ فَيَغْفِرُ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَيُعَذِّبُ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿٢٨٤﴾

768. In the world of matter everything big and small, in reality, belongs to Allah. Since this is the world about which we have knowledge, Allah Almighty has made mention of it. Otherwise Allah is the Supreme Lord of everything else besides this. This goes to explain that man's temporary ownership over things is not negating Divine ownership. Thus we are owners of our homes, the king has ownership of the land, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is given ownership of the entire universe by the Grace of Allah.

769. All types of lurking fears, temptations and evil thoughts which are inadvertently created in the mind are excusable and unanswerable, but evil intentions which one had planned to execute will be answerable even though they were not put into practice due to some unforeseen circumstances. The intention of apostasy is an act of Kufr (apostasy), while the intention of sin is a sinful act. In the light of the above meanings this verse is one of affirmation not abrogation.

770. By this is meant that Allah will forgive any sinner, if He so wills, and punish those whom He wills. It certainly does not mean that Allah will punish any good person who is free of guilt as understood by Dayanand Sarasvati.

285. The Messenger of Allah believes in whatever is revealed to him from His Lord. And the believers [771] also believe in Allah and His angels and

اٰمَنَ الرَّسُوْلُ بِمَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْهِ مِنْ رَّبِّهٖ وَالْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ ؕ كُلٌّ اٰمَنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَمَلٰٓئِكَتِهٖ

His Books and His Messengers, proclaiming that we do not discriminate in faith about any of His Messengers. And they submitted[772], "We heard and obeyed. Confer on us Your forgiveness, O our Lord! Surely, to you is the (final) destination".

771. This verse means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as well as his Noble Companions believed in every Revelation, be it in the QUR'AAN itself or the Divinely inspired traditions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم From this, emerge a few issues:

1. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Faith is superior to everyone elses because we received our Faith through him. For this reason the verse mentions the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم first.

2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not like us in respect of Faith, nor is he included wherever reference is made to believers. Hence, he صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is mentioned separately to show this distinction. We are mere believers, while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is our Faith. Our faith is merely an acquired one, without seeing but the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Faith is direct, based on actual visualization of Allah, as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was privileged to be in the Presence of Allah, and had directly seen Paradise and Hell.

3. All Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are true and devout believers, as Allah Himself has testified about their Faith.

4. There is a distinction in the quality and nature of faith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the believers. If both were equal in the quality of their Faith, then one word would have been used to describe the Faith of both. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says"I am the Messenger of Allah." If we were to utter these words we would be out of the fold of Islam.

5. Prophets are never included in the word believers, hence Allah has made mention of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم separately, from the believers.

772. The words "we do not differentiate in faith" could mean we do not imitate the Yahud and Nasara in believing in some Prophets and rejecting others. However, there is a difference in the rank and status of Prophets. It could also mean, we do not differentiate in actual prophethood by believing that some are true Prophets and some are shadowy prophets, like the belief of Mirzais in respect of Mirza Ghulam Ahmed, or that we do not bring about the distinction in the Prophets on our own accord, concerning their ranks and status. In any case, this verse is not contradictory. " These are messengers! that in them We caused one to excel upon the other" (S2: V235). Same is the case with regard to faith in Angels and Books of Allah i.e. Faith should be in all, but their ranks should be differentiated.

رَبَّنَا وَلَا تَحْمِلْ عَلَيْنَآ اِصْرًا كَمَا

286.Allah places not a burden on any soul, but to the extent [773] of his strength. Whatever good is earned is useful for it and whatever bad is earned is a loss [774] for it. O our Lord! Do not impose blame on us if we forget or miss your standard. O

our Lord! Place [775] not a heavy burden on us as you had placed on those before us [776]. O our Lord! place not a burden on us of which we have no strength [777] to bear. And pardon us, and forgive us and have Mercy [778] on us. You alone are our Protector

773.Allah Almighty does not place a burden upon anyone which he cannot bear. Thus He does not place obligation of Zakaat on the poor, Hajj on the helpless and Qiyaam (standing upright) in Salaah on the sick. From this blessed verse many laws are taken.

774.From this it is evident that one cannot perform physical obligations on behalf of another because the word 'to earn' refers to physical deeds. Nonetheless, rewards of deeds can be conveyed as this is not negated here.

775.When making dua(prayer) it is better to call upon Allah Almighty or to call by His names as per your needs.
The sick should say, Oh the giver of cure of all ills The needy should implore, Oh Purveyor of all needs The sinner should implore: Oh Forgiver of all sins" Because of our many needs, Allah's names too are just as many. However, "Oh Allah Oh our Lord are most beloved of these."

776. By 'heavy burden' is meant things like seeking repentance by suicide, burning dirty clothes, cutting impure hides, severe punishment for transgressions etc which were placed upon the Yahud and others. From this it is clear that Almighty Allah wants to shower His blessings upon the Muslims, therefore He is showing them the ways of seeking them.

777. Do not place such difficult obligations upon us which will be hard to fulfil. It should be remembered that inconvenience is not given through impossible things, thus reference here is not made to these. Says Allah Almighty "Allah places not burden on any soul but to the extent of his strength." (S2:V286) or, do not afflict upon us such diseases, etc which we would not be able to endure patiently. In this verse all the calamities of this world are included.

778.Mention is earlier made concerning the forgiveness of minor sin. In "and pardon us" forgiveness of major sins is mentioned. In "And forgive us" future sins and the way to refrain from them as well as seeking guidance for doing good deeds are covered, while in "And have Mercy upon us" could be a further consideration given to the above matters. Thus there is no repetition in the verse.

SURAH ALE-IMRAAN

20 Sections 200 Verses, 3480 Words, 14521 Letters

SECTION 1

1. By this Surah being called ALE IMRAAN it is understood that the wife and the daughter are part of the progeny, because Hazrat Imraan did not have a son. He only had Hannah, his wife and Mariam, his daughter. Hence, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم wives, Hazrat Fatima Tuz Zahra (Allah be pleased with her) and all the children are the progeny of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In it is a refutation of the Rafzite and the Khawarjite. This Surah was revealed after the Hijrah. Hence, it was sent down in Madina. This Surah is made up of three thousand four hundred and eigthy words, fourteen thousand and five letters and two hundred verses. It is amongst the larger Surahs of the QUR'AAN called the "Detailed Surahs".

I begin in the Name of Allah, Who is Most Compassionate, the Merciful.

1. Alif, Laam, Meem.

الٓمّٓ ﴿١﴾

2. Allah, there is none to be worshipped besides Him. He is the EverLiving, the Sustainer of others [2].

اللّٰهُ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ۙ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ ﴿٢﴾

2. Reason for its Revelation:

Once a Nasara delegation from Najraan came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. When the Messenger of Allah Almighty invited them towards Islam, they replied that they will not accept Islam because Islam regards Jesus as the servant of Allah Almighty and not the son of God. If he, Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is not the son of God then who is his father? The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم told them that a son homogenous to a father (being of the same species) Allah Almighty is Ever-Living, Self-subsisting, Eternal, Everlasting, Self-Existant, the Knower of everything hidden and open. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) does not possess these qualities. Therefore, how can he be the son of God or a deity? On hearing this, they remained silent. In verification of what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had said, Allah Almighty revealed these verses of Surah Ale-Imraan. N.B. This delegation started their prayer in Masjide Nabawi when the Muslims engaged in Asr Salaah. After the Muslims had completed their Salaah they did not stop these Nasara from their prayer. This does not necessarily mean that we should now allow the polytheists to pray in our Mosques. Not stopping this delegation was like not stopping the Bedouin who was urinating in Masjide Nabawi, and was not stopped while urinating, at the instruction of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم This will not make it permissible to urinate and pass stool in the Mosques.

3. He sent down to you this Truthful Scripture, confirming preceding Books [3]. He revealed the Tauraat (of Musa) and the Injeel (Gospel of Jesus).

4. Before, as guidance for mankind and bestowed the Criterion [4] (the QUR'AAN). Surely, those who denied the revelation of Allah [5] they will have a severe punishment. Allah is The Almighty Lord of retribution.

مِنْ قَبْلُ هُدًى لِّلنَّاسِ وَاَنْزَلَ الْفُرْقَانَ ؕ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ

3. From this we learn that no other book will be revealed after the Holy QUR'AAN nor will another prophet be sent after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The reason being the work of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was to verify the truth of the previously revealed Books, not to prophecize the coming of another book or another prophet. Verification is made in respect of the past, prophecy is concerning the future. Thus the Holy QUR'AAN has given verification of these Books by establishing their truth and made them manifest in the worlds. It is only after the revelation of the QUR'AAN that the truth of these Books had been established. As these books had prophecised the coming of the QUR'AAN, their prophecy would not have been proven if the QUR'AAN was not revealed.

4. By 'He revealed' means either He revealed these verses in the Tauraat and the Injeel which distinguish truth from falsehood, or He revealed the Holy the QUR'AAN on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. He revealed it in the month of Ramadaan on the auspicious night of Lailatul Qadr from Lohe-Mahfooz to the First Heaven. The word 'to reveal' - refers to reveal at one point in time. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly We sent it (the QUR'AAN) down in the blessed and valuable night" (S 97:V1). Hence, this verse is free of any objections as well as contradiction with other verses.

5. The non-believers referred in this verse are the Nasara of Najraan mentioned in Note two, while the verses of Allah Almighty is meant the conversation of Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم when he debated with this delegation. These verses are those clear proofs which shed light on Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) being the servant of Allah Almighty.

5. Surely, nothing is hidden from Allah in the earth and heavens [6].

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَخْفٰى عَلَيْهِ شَيْءٌ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَآءِ ۝٥

6. A godly quality of having full knowledge about everything between the heavens and earth without anyone's instruction or knowledge is not possessed by any earthling. But this does not mean that Allah Almighty Himself has not bestowed knowledge of the unseen. Regarding Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) The QUR'AAN says: "And thus We showed to Ebrahim all kingdoms..."(S6:V75). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: "And Allah Almighty has given me the vision of everything which I fully recognize." It is for this reason that everything has been scribed on the Divine Tablet (LOHE MAHFOOZ) so it becomes a means of obtaining the knowledge of the unseen to His chosen servants, whose vision encompasses the Divine Tablet. Allah Almighty indeed is the Alive, the All-Seeing and the All-Hearing, but humans too possess these qualities, the difference being with Allah Almighty these qualities are absolute while ours are a limited acquisition of these.

6. It is He Who shapes you in the wombs of your mothers as He pleases . Besides Him none is worthy of worship, Exalted , the Wise.

هُوَ الَّذِيْ يُصَوِّرُكُمْ فِي الْاَرْحَامِ كَيْفَ يَشَآءُ ؕ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الْحَكِيْمُ ۝٦

7. From this verse we learn that the work of Allah Almighty's chosen servants is indeed the work of Allah Almighty, because shaping the foetus (child) in the womb is the work of the angel, but because it is done by Divine instructions it becomes Allah Almighty's work.

7. It is He Who revealed to you this Scripture. In it are verses, which are clear. They are the substance of the Book [8], and others are those in the meaning of which there is doubt [9]. As for those whose hearts are perverted, they will follow that of which is doubtful. They are those who seek to mislead, maintaining their own viewpoint of it, and its right interpretation [10] is known to Allah alone [11]. And those who are firm in knowledge say: "We believe in it. All (of it) is from our Lord" [12]. And none has the grasp of the same, to the best except those who perfectly understand [13].

We further learn that the shape and design of the earth is not the result of man's deeds but is based on Divine wishes. However, man's condition in the Hereafter will be based on his deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "On the day when some faces shall be white." (S3: V106)

هُوَ الَّذِیۡۤ اَنۡزَلَ عَلَیۡكَ الۡكِتٰبَ مِنۡهُ

8. By 'Substance of the Book' is meant that these verses are the origin of Islamic Code (SHARIAH) and these are the verses which are cited as proof in respect of theological issues. Action too is based on these.

9. By "those in the meaning of which there is doubt" is meant either one does not understand their meaning like the MUQATTIAT - 'verses in short metre' or that their literal meaning cannot be correctly defined like the verses of Attributes.

10. From this it is hinted that interpretation of these ambigious verses to cause mischief is totally prohibited, but is permissible if done to remove mischief e.g. some learned scholars interpret these verses unemphatically, to protect the layman from being misguided by these mischief mongers. Such interpretation will not be regarded as sinful.

11. By this is meant that it is Allah Almighty who taught its interpretation to His Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم . Says Allah Almighty. "The Most Affectionate, Taught the QUR'AAN". (S 55: V1-2). It is an absolute fact that Allah Almighty Himself taught the entire QUR'AAN to His Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم which included the ambiguous verses. Thus if the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was not given the full knowledge of this ambiguous verses then their revelation would have been a futile act. It would be just like conversing in Arabic with someone who only knows Urdu as he will not understand anything of it. The Truth of the matter is that these ambiguous verses are a divine secret between Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم through whom some of the Saints and chosen scholars have been blessed with their true interpretation.

12. It is evident from this verse that an educationally mature learned person is he who will not claim to know an issue about which he has no knowledge. We also learn that it is permissible to have collective faith e.g. to have faith in all the Prophets collectively without knowing their exact number. Furthermore, whether one understands or not, it is compulsory to accept and act upon all Islamic Laws. Medicine will always prove beneficial whether we understand or don't understand their chemical composition. Likewise, the QUR'AAN will benefit the general Muslims even though they may not understand Arabic, and recite without understanding its translation. If understanding its translation was an absolute pre-requisite, then the ambiguous verses would not have been revealed.

13. From this we learn that at certain places it is an act of worship and a reward to remain ignorant as well as not making an effort to acquire its knowledge. Anything, which is a means of obtaining Divine pleasure, is indeed an act of worship. Remaining ignorant in respect of ambigious verses is a means of obtaining Divine pleasure. Hence, it is an act of worship and reward.

8 . O our Lord! Let not our hearts become perverse [14] after You have guided us. And bestow on us Your Mercy. Surely, only You are the Bestower [15].

14. This would be by digressing from the Path of Guidance to the path of heresy. Just as it is a blessing of Allah to receive guidance, it is in His bounty to remain steadfast on it.

15. This verse teaches us that even the foremost of believers should fear about his end as one's life is in Allah's Hands. Those will be rewarded with Paradise who have been promised. We have been taught this verse as a means of instruction to remain on the straight path.

رَبَّنَآ اِنَّكَ جَامِعُ النَّاسِ لِيَوْمٍ لَّا رَيْبَ فِيْهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُخْلِفُ الْمِيْعَادَ ۝٩ ع ١ ٩

9. O our Lord! Surely, You are assembler of all [16] people on the Day on which there is no doubt. Surely, Allah does not break [17] His promise.

16. From the word 'Assembler' we learn that on the Day of Judgement Allah will assemble all mankind from the first to the last at one time in such a manner that their tounge (speech) will be one as all will give account for their deeds in Arabic. Although other species too will be present, mention has been made of human beings as they are the subject of discussion herein. Hence, there is no contradiction in this QUR'AANIC verse and the Hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on this subject.

17. From this verse we learn that breach of promise i.e. lie of divinity is equal to negating what is justifiable. Those who believe in the possibility that Allah can speak a lie (God Forbid) are actually believing in taking away Divinity from the Blessed Being.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَن تُغْنِيَ عَنْهُمْ أَمْوَالُهُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُهُم مِّنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا ۖ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمْ وَقُودُ النَّارِ ﴿١٠﴾

10. Surely, those who disbelieve, never will their wealth nor their children avail them against Allah [18] and they shall be the fuel for the Fire.

18. From this verse it is learnt that the believer's children and wealth will save him from Divine punishment as pious children and charity are a means of warding off punishment. The non-benefit of the above is mentioned here in respect of the non-believers i.e. these will become a source of punishment for them but believers are protected from it, by the Grace of Allah.

كَدَأْبِ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ وَالَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ ۚ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا ۚ فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ ۗ وَاللَّهُ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿١١﴾

11. (Their fate will be) like the people of the Pharaoh and those before them. They denied Our Verses [19] so Allah seized them for their sins. And Allah is severe in punishment.

19. From this, three issues emerge :
1. The Kingdom, the army and the treasures cannot save one from the punishment of Allah.
2. To belie the Prophets will only result in coming down of Divine punishment. Although the Pharaoh claimed divinity for four hundred years and continued the carnage of innocent male babies, he was not destroyed, but as soon as he belied Hazrat Musa (On whom be Peace) he was killed. Allah Almighty Says: "And We are not to torment until We have sent a Messenger" (S17 : V15)
3. The non-believers will be punished for their sins. In terms of Islamic law, these people are not duty-bound to religious laws. However, they are duty bound by Allah in terms of Divine punishment. Hence, the words 'for their sins' are used here.

12. Say (O Beloved Prophet) to the disbelievers [20]: "You shall be overcome [21] and driven into Hell, a most evil resort".

20. After the victory of Badr the Yahud of Madina taunted the Muslims that the Makkans lost the war because they were ignorant of military skills. If the Muslims were to oppose us we will show them the art of warfare. This verse was revealed as a reply to these malicious people.
21. In this verse is a prophecy and a hidden glad-tiding to the Muslims which was fulfilled very shortly by the grace of Allah. It should be remembered that the killing of non-believers, their banishment, the levy of the protection tax (JIZYA) on them are all included in being a conquered people. Hence, the Yahud of Madina were subjected to all these. Banu Quraiza were put to death, Banu Ndheer were banished from Madina to Khaibar and protection tax was levied upon them.

13. Indeed, there has been for you a sign in the two armies themselves [22] which met (in combat at Badr). One army, fighting in the cause of Allah, and another (army) of disbelievers [23]. They (disbelievers) saw with their own eyesight [24]. But, Allah supports with His victory whom He pleases. Surely, in it is a lesson for the men of understanding [25].

22. The Battle of Badr was fought on Friday 17th Ramadaan 2 A.H . The Makkan army for this battle was made up of a well-equipped thousand soldiers, while the Muslims were only three hundred and thirteen in number, but were hopelessly ill-equipped, having just two horses, six chain armours, eight swords and seventeen camels. Inspite of this, the Muslims gained a total victory and the Makkans were completely routed. Thus, this victory is one of the major tokens of His many tokens and signs.

23. Inspite of the Makkans being nine hundred and fifty in number under the leadership of Utbah bin Rabiah, having one hundred horses, seven hundred camels and a huge quantity of arms and ammunition, they felt that the Muslims were twice their strength.

24. This verse points to the miracle of the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for appearing twice as much to the Makkans.

25. From this we learn that piety and remembrance of Allah Almighty formed the greatest weapons in any battle. Says Allah Almighty: "When you encounter any army, then stand firm, and remember Allah Almighty much" (S8:V45). Furthermore, we also learn that victory and success is not dependent on numerical superiority or military strength. These come from the grace of Allah Almighty.

14. Beautified for people is the love of the lusts [26] of women and children and heaped up wealth of gold and silver, fine branded horse, cattle and crops. These are all the provisions of the worldly [27] life. And it is Allah with Whom is the best abode [28].

26. The devil has trapped the non-believers with these material lusts to such an extent that they are totally unmindful of the Hereafter. The believer on the other hand is inclined towards these things only for the sake of Allah Almighty.

27. All the things mentioned in this verse if taken as wordly possessions, will signify things of the world, but if they are possessed for the service of Religion, then they become part of religious order e.g. the horse and other possessions of a worshipper, or taking care of one wife and children as a Sunnah or practice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The world is like a zero, on its own it is worth nothing, but if added to a number it increases its value tenfold. When worldly things become connected with the Religious their value becomes tenfold e.g. the wealth of Hazrat Uthman-e-Ghani (On whom be peace).

28. By this is meant Paradise and its delicacies and bounties. Thus, it becomes material things. This is further explained in the following verse.

قُلْ اَؤُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِخَيْرٍ مِّنْ ذٰلِكُمْ ؕ لِلَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ جَنّٰتٌ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا وَاَزْوَاجٌ مُّطَهَّرَةٌ وَّرِضْوَانٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ بَصِيْرٌۢ بِالْعِبَادِ ﴿۱۵﴾

15. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "Shall I inform you (something) better than that? For the pious, with their Lord, there will be gardens [29] underneath which rivers flow [30] wherein they will abide eternally with pure wives [31] and Allah's pleasure [32]. And, verily, Allah is seeing His devotees.

29. From this two issues emerge:
1. Paradise is only for the pious God-fearing people as understood from the preceding preposition 'For' in "for pious ones."
2. One pious person will be rewarded with several types of Paradise as indicated by the plural of Paradise.

30. By rivers is meant rivers of milk, honey, heavenly beverages and water. There will be rivers in Paradise not seas, because the beauty of a river is not found in a sea. Also, the river is controllable, the sea is not, the sea can be beneficial or destructive, while the river is beneficial. Only rivers are brought into the royal forts, not a sea. Hence, in these heavenly places, too, rivers will be flowing.

31. The inmates of Paradise will be given three types of wives one will be the wife of this world who had died in his Nikah, second will be the believing wife of those non-believers who will become the inmates of Hellfire, while their wives would be rewarded with Paradise as well as those maidens who had died with faith, and the third will be the Hoories of Paradise. Hence,, Bibi Mariam, and Asiya, wife of Pharaoh, will be given in marriage to our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . All these women will be free of all impurities like menstural course, etc. as indicated by the words "Pure wives."

32. By this is meant Allah will be pleased with them. There will be no cause of Him becoming displeased with them in any way. This is the greatest bounty of all the bounties of Paradise.

16. They are those who say: "Our Lord, indeed we have accepted faith [33], so forgive us our sins and protect us from the punishment of Hell".

33. From this we learn that while it is permissible to call oneself sinful, it is an act of non-belief to call oneself faithless. It is further learned that dua should be made through source (wasila) of faith. A person should not even proclaim that he is of weak beliefs by saying "I am of very weak beliefs." A believer can pray through the mediation of his good deeds e.g. "Oh my Lord if you have accepted my so and so deed. I beseech you to accept my Prayer because of it" as is stated in the Hadith.

17. They are the steadfast and the obedient and the humble, those who spend (in the way of Allah) and those who seek forgiveness in the early hours of the morning (dawn) [34].

34. From this we learn that the dua and repentance offered in the morning are of superior quality because during this time the entire creation glorifies Allah Almighty besides dogs. If the Prayer of one from these is accepted then through the Grace of Allah Almighty everyone's Prayer is likely to be accepted. Dawn is known as the earliest part of the morning before sunrise. After offering the two sunnat of Salatul Fajr, and the two rakaats, of Fard one should recite Istighfaar (seeking forgiveness) seventy times. This is recommended for the increase in one's sustenance and the unity and stability of faulty life.

18.Allah testifies that there is no one worthy of worship except He [35], and so do the angels and those of knowledge [36]. They maintain justice. There is none worthy of worship except Him, Who is the Exalted in Might, the Wise.

35. Reason for Revelation:
Two learned men of Jewish scholars of Syria came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and asked that regarding which is the most major testimony given by your Book. In respone to this, this verse was revealed. From it we learn that the testimony of Allah Almighty is the greatest testimony. The testimony of the Prophets and testimony of other things is, in reality, testimony of Allah Almighty. Almighty Allah's testimony regarding His Oneness is the testimony of Allah Almighty.

36. From this we learn that the learned people are worthy of great respect and honour because Allah Almighty has made them the witnesses of His Oneness with Him but these are the learned men of Allah Almighty and not those who are from the brothers of the Devil. The learned men of Allah Almighty or God-inspired learned are those who are a picture of piety and inspire others towards piety and from whose company one can achieve the total love of Allah Almighty. Those learned from who one fails to receive the fear of Allah Almighty and the love of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are not learned people by any means but are indeed tyrants. It should be remembered that "Possessors of Knowledge" include Prophets, Saints and rightly guided Ulama.

19. Surely, the true Religion by Allah is Islam [37]. And those who were given the Scripture did not dissent [38] except after the knowledge had come to them [39] because of their hearts burning [40]. And whoever denies the verses of Allah, then surely Allah is swift [41] in (taking) account.

37. In the QUR'AANIC terminology, Islam means the Religion preached by Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . In every context too, this meaning would be taken for the word Islam. Says Allah Almighty: "...He has named you Muslims..." (S22 : V78). When looked at in the context of conjecture the word also means obedience as is expressed in "Then when they had submitted to my command." (S37: V103) or as found in "Make me die as Muslim" (S12: V101). If its meaning is taken to be obedience in all instances then even the disbelievers can become the beloved of Allah Almighty through their obedience. Furthermore, besides the Religion of Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم all other religions are false. Some of these religions had already become false, like the religion of the idolators, while some were true at first but later became cancelled or false e.g. Judaism and Christianity. In the presence of the sun you don't need any other light. Without accepting Islam nothing else will be approved by Allah Almighty.

38. By 'dissent' is meant all those who go astray from the Straight Path and accepts the path of falsehood. He who is following the Religion of Truth will neither be on the path of dissent among people. If there is a fight between the dacoits and the police, the dacoits will be the misdoers while the police will be on the path of justice even though both will be engaged in a fight

39. In this verse 'Scripture' refer to the scholars from the people of the Book (AHLE KITAAB) and by 'Knowledge had come to them' means they are aware of all the signs concerning the Final Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as mentioned in the Tauraat and Injeel. Furthermore, they are also fully aware that all these signs are found in the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

40. These wretched people are victims of two types of jealousy and envy. The first is why was the final Prophet not from the Children of Israel (Yaqub) against Bani Ismael while the second was why were they or their children not blessed with prophethood? They are wealthy as well as strong. From this we learn that envy is an evil thing. Shaitaan the devil, led everyone astray and envy led the devil astray.

41. By this is meant the envier should become mindful as very soon he is going to be accountable to Allah Almighty. This thought of accountability may take envy out of him.

20. Then (O Prophet) if they argue with you, please declare: "I have submitted myself to Allah [42] and those who followed [43] me". And please declare to those given the Scripture [44] and to the unlettered: "Have you submitted?" Then, if they submit (in Islam) they are rightly guided [45]. But if they turn away their faces then your duty is only to convey the Message [46]. And, surely, Allah is seeing His devotees.

42. Do not enter into any debate with them but rather through declaration of your faith propogate Islam to them, thereafter shun them.

43. From this we learn that the unflinching belief of the Noble Companions (On whom be peace) is positive that even Allah Almighty bears testimony to it and has asked His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to do likewise. Whosoever tries to cast a doubt on their faith is indeed openly rejecting this verse.

44. By "those who read not" is either meant the polytheists or the illiterate among the People of the Book. In the former it would be the ignorant. The 'men of the Book' would refer firstly to the general Nasara and Yahud, and in the second instance to their scholars.

Marfat.com

45. From "Have you submitted?" we learn that no Christian or a Jew is a Muslim. Muslims are those who have brought faith in the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , while 'submitted' refers to accepting Islam.

46. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not be accountable for their non-belief or infidelity. Thus, just as Allah Almighty is totally free of want concerning man's acceptance of His Divinity, so is the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم independent about his Prophethood among people i.e. it matters not whether people believe in his Prophethood or not. By rejecting the sun it does not diminish its brightness in any way. If the entire world were to reject his Prophethood it will in no way undermine his noble status.

21. Those who disbelieve in the verses of Allah [47] and kill the Prophets unjustly and kill those [48] who order justice from among the people, give them the tiding of a painful punishment.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَكْفُرُونَ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَيَقْتُلُونَ النَّبِيِّينَ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ ۙ وَّيَقْتُلُونَ الَّذِينَ يَأْمُرُونَ بِالْقِسْطِ مِنَ النَّاسِ ۙ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٢١﴾

47. In this verse "Verses of Allah Almighty" either refers to the verses of the Holy QUR'AAN or to the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . It is obligatory upon the non-believers to accept the verses of the QUR'AAN and thereafter confirm to their practice. The latter view is more plausible.

48. The previous incidents are interpreted for the present to refresh the memory and the deeds of ancestors of the non-believers are connected with them because they (these non-believers) had approved of them. The Bani Israeel had in the morning of a single day martyred forty three Prophets, and on the same afternoon killed a hundred and twelve learned and pious men, only because they had been giving guidance to follow the Straight Path.

22. They are the ones whose deeds will bear them no fruit in this world and the Hereafter, and for them there will be no helpers [49].

49. These criminals are given two types of punishment firstly their good deeds will be nullified in this world and the Hereafter so that neither will their wordly miseries be alleviated through the blessing of their good deeds, nor will they receive any reward of their good deeds in the Hereafter. Secondly, they will find no helper to rescue them in the Hereafter. The believers will be assisted by their good deeds at all times as well as find helpers in the Hereafter

23. Have you not seen (O Muhammad) those who were given a portion of the Scripture? They are invited to the Scripture of Allah [50] that it may judge between them. Then a party of them turns back and declines.

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا نَصِيبًا مِّنَ الْكِتَابِ يُدْعَوْنَ إِلَىٰ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ يَتَوَلَّىٰ فَرِيقٌ مِّنْهُمْ وَهُم مُّعْرِضُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾

Marfat.com

50. Reason for its Revelation:
One day the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم went to the Jewish sector to invite them towards Islam. On hearing this, they enquired: "On which Religion are you?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم replied. "I am on the Religion of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). To this they said that Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was a Jew. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in reply said: "Bring the Tauraat to prove your claim." The Yahud did not accept this. In response to the incident this verse was revealed. In another tradition it has been reported that a person from Jewish aristocracy once committed adultery. The punishment prescribed for this sin in the Tauraat was death by stoning. However, the Yahud had asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to decide this case thinking that the Messenger of Allah Almighty will not uphold the Mosaic Law of death by stoning.To their disappointment the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did just that. They refuted this by saying that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decision was cruel as death by stoning was not the punishment prescribed for adultery. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then asked them to bring the Tauraat. Ibn Soorya who was a learned scholar of the Yahud hid the verse concerning that matter under his finger and read what was before and after it. When Hazrat Abdullah bin Salaam removed his finger the law of death by stoning appeared. Both Ibn Soorya and the adulterer were stoned to death. It was on this occasion that the verse under discussion was revealed. By 'Book' is meant the Tauraat, while the 'faction' refers to the Jewish Ulama.

24.That is because they say: "Never will the Fire touch us except for a few numbered days [51]. And their falsehood deceives them about their own religion [52].

51. The Yahud claimed that no matter how many sins we commit or to what extent we become idolators or pagans, our punishment will be only the duration of our ancestors worshipping the golden calf, for we are the sons of Allah Almighty and His Beloved صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and therefore all our sins are forgiven.

52. From this we learn that seeking safety with Allah Almighty is the work of the non-believers. One should at all times place hope in Him as well as fear Him. Peace and security will encourage sins while hope will develop fear of Allah Almighty.

25. How will it be then when We assemble them on a Day about which there is no doubt. Verily, every soul will be paid in full [53] what it earned and for them there will be no injustice.

53. By 'paid' is meant neither will anybody's reward of the good be decreased nor punishment of sins will be increased. However, the increase of good deeds and the decrease of sins can occur as a result of the Bounty and Grace of Allah Almighty. Hence, this verse does not contradict this meaning.

قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ مٰلِكَ الْمُلْكِ تُؤْتِي الْمُلْكَ مَنْ تَشَآءُ وَ تَنْزِعُ الْمُلْكَ مِمَّنْ تَشَآءُ ز

26. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet) [54]: "O my Allah. You are the Master of all sovereignties. You give sovereignty [55] to whom You please and you take sovereignty away from whom You please [56]. You honour whom you please and You abase whom You please. The entire good is in Your Hand [57]. Surely, You are the Almighty over everybody [58].

وَتُعِزُّ مَنْ تَشَآءُ وَتُذِلُّ مَنْ تَشَآءُ ؕ بِيَدِكَ الْخَيْرُ ؕ اِنَّكَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَىْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿٢٦﴾

54. Reason for its Revelation:
When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gave the Muslims the glad-tidings about the conquest of Persia and Rome the hypocrites and the Yahud began to taunt them saying is it possible that weak Muslims can conquer such impregnable places. This verse was revealed in response to their taunting. The use of 'say' preceding a dua (Prayer) hints that, Oh My Beloved Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that, although the words of Prayer are Ours (i.e. Allah) but the tongue is yours or of those who you have given permission. This verse is in essence the root for the permission of Wazeefas.

55. The name of the physical world is Kingdom, while the spiritual world or the Celestial world is referred to as the Angelic world. The physical bodies are given the outward kingdom but the spiritual world is blessed with Allah Almighty's divine kingdom. The outer laws do establish other kingdoms but laws of creation like, life, death, good fortune and ill-fortune, etc. are solely governed by Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "Say you, In whose hand is the control of every-thing?" (S23 : V88). The involvement of Jinns, Prophets and Saints in the laws of creation is proven from QUR'AAN and Hadith. With Allah Almighty's permission they become His deputies in these matters

56. That He will grant guidance to do good deeds and to be on the path of Faith and righteousness. It does not mean that man should engage himself in evil deeds and yet receive honour and dignity. Says Allah Almighty: "The honour is for Allah Almighty, and His Messenger, and believers." (S63:V8). Like honour, disgrace too comes from Allah Almighty.

57. The word 'good' in this verse is used for the sake of respect, other good and evil both are from Him, but out of respect 'good' should be connected to Him.

58. i.e. You have power over every possible thing. It should be remembered that impossible and necessary things are not included in things, neither are they included in the Power of Allah Almighty. Thus, from this verse to accept that Allah Almighty can possibly talk a lie is the height of absurdity. For a detailed discussion on the subject refer to Tafseer Naeemi.

27. You cause the night to enter into the day and You cause the day to enter into the night [59]. And bring forth the living from the dead and bring forth the dead from the living [60]. And You give to whom You will, without any counting [61].

59. By this is meant that Allah Almighty places part of the day during winter with night which helps to increase the length of the night while during summer, part of the night is included with the day which makes the day into night. To give non-Muslims governship in the Muslim lands is like making the night into day,while establishing Muslim rule in non-Muslim lands is like turning the night into day.

60. He creates believers from non-believers, and non-believers from believers, produces wretched from the dutiful, and dutiful from the wretches. He creates a human being from a sperm, and a sperm from a human being, a bird from an egg and egg from a bird.

61.The word 'Hisaab' either means supposition, or counting i.e. whomsoever He wills He gives beyond imagination or enumeration. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah provides him from where he does not even expect..." (S65: V3) or it could also mean that whomsoever You like you provide so much that he cannot count.

لَا يَتَّخِذِ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ اَوْلِيَآءَ مِنْ دُوْنِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۚ وَمَنْ يَّفْعَلْ ذٰلِكَ فَلَيْسَ مِنَ اللّٰهِ فِيْ شَيْءٍ اِلَّآ اَنْ تَتَّقُوْا مِنْهُمْ تُقٰىةً ؕ وَيُحَذِّرُكُمُ اللّٰهُ نَفْسَهٗ ؕ وَاِلَى اللّٰهِ الْمَصِيْرُ ﴿٢٨﴾

28. Let not the believers take disbelievers as their friends [62] besides the believers. And whoso does that has no connection with Allah, unless you cautiously safeguard yourselves from them [63]. And Allah warns You to fear Him of His wrath [64]. And unto Allah is everyone's destination.

62. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed on the occasion of the Battle of the Trench when Hazrat Ubadah bin Suamit had said that as five hundred Yahud are his friends and allies he could ask their assistance in the war if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم commands him to do so. Allah revealed this verse in response to this request which teaches us that it is forbidden to keep friendship with non-believers. Their assistance in military matters is only allowed under extreme circumstances, not otherwise. Says Allah Almighty: "And take not any of them as friends and helpers." (S4: V 89).
63. From this verse the permitted evasion of the Shias is not proven because permission for good treatment of non-believers is only given during times of fear. It does not give permission to live with non-believers and seek worldly benefits from them. For it the following verse is applicable: "Was not Allah's earth spacious so that you might have migrated in it." (S4: V97) It is incumbent to migrate from a place of helplessness. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet did not take evasive measures to stay in Makkah but migrated from there to Madina. It should be remembered that although this outward treatment is permissible, if it is not carried out and if a person is martyred, it is better for him. Hazrat Imam Hussain (on whom be peace) did not take any evasive action but gave his precious life. However, it is proven by this verse that during time of need it is permissible to seek assistance from the non-believers.
64. It should be remembered that to conceal falsehood and reveal truth is hypocrisy and double-dealing, and to conceal truth under trying circumstances is religious evasion, while to conceal truth to reveal falsehood for the purpose of deceiving is a treacherous trickery of the Shias. Here, a second type of evasion is being mentioned for that reason Allah Almighty is instilling fear of His wrath i.e. if you try any other trick you will be punished, not cautioned.

قُلْ اِنْ تُخْفُوْا مَا فِيْ صُدُوْرِكُمْ اَوْ تُبْدُوْهُ يَعْلَمْهُ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿٢٩﴾

29. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "Whether you conceal what is in your hearts or reveal it, Allah knows it and He knows what is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth [65]. Allah has power to do anything.

65. Allah Almighty is fully aware of our deeds eternally i.e. at all times, not only when we do anything because our deeds are earthly things and where He says 'So that Allah Almighty will know'. By this is meant manifest knowledge. It is called Infe'aali knowledge.

يَوْمَ تَجِدُ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّا عَمِلَتْ مِنْ خَيْرٍ مُّحْضَرًا ۚ وَّ مَا عَمِلَتْ مِنْ سُوْٓءٍ ۚ تَوَدُّ لَوْ اَنَّ بَيْنَهَا وَبَيْنَهٗٓ اَمَدًا بَعِيْدًا ۭ وَيُحَذِّرُكُمُ اللّٰهُ نَفْسَهٗ ۭ وَاللّٰهُ رَءُوْفٌۢ بِالْعِبَادِ ۝٣٠

30.(Beware of) The Day when every soul will be confronted with all the good deeds it had done and all the evil [66] it had done. They will wish that there should have been a long distance [67]. And Allah warns you of His torment. And Allah is very kind upon the servants.

66. By this is meant that on the Day of Judgement the good deeds will be presented in a good shape while the evil deeds will appear before the door in bad shape. Thus, the wealth on the unpaid Zakaat will appear before the owner in the shape of a mean and bald snake as is mentioned in the Hadith.

67. The word 'Say' is sometimes used to make someone else to speak like "Say you, Allah is One", while at other places it is used to stop someone from saying like in: Say you, apparently in facial outlook of a man, "I am like you." (S18 : V110). In this verse the word 'say you' is used to stop others because besides the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم none can take you to Allah Almighty, nor is obedience of any one permissible. A Saint or Sheikh will take.

قُلْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّوْنَ اللّٰهَ فَاتَّبِعُوْنِيْ يُحْبِبْكُمُ اللّٰهُ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوْبَكُمْ ۭ وَاللّٰهُ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۝٣١

31. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "If you love Allah, you should follow me [68]. (Only then) Allah will love you and forgive you your faults. And Allah is Most Forgiving, the Merciful [69].

68. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم obedience should be one of inner love, not of mere show, fear or covetousness. This type of obedience is shown by hypocrites as well. It is for this reason that this discussion is commenced with love and terminated on love. Furthermore, we also learn that our worships and faith are both based on sincerity and show and the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم beloved things, personality is the cornerstone of this faith. Hence, whatever degree of obedience one shows to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, the same will be the type of love achieved. The giver is one but the receivers are different. The power of electricity is the same but the strength will depend on the wattage of the globe in use.

69. Reason for its Revelation:
Once when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم enquired from the idolators the reason for their you to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who will lead you to Allah Almighty. A carter cannot take you to Karachi but he can transport you to the train, and it is the train that will transport you to Karachi. Also, obedience will only be acceptable in respect of permissible deeds. That which is commanded by Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will be regarded not just permissible but obligatory. To obey Allah is compulsory, but it is not possible to emulate Him. Absolute emulation can be of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم alone. Hence, in this verse Allah Almighty did not command to follow Him, but to obey Him. Thus both emulation and obedience of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are obligatory.

idol worshipping they replied that they worship them to show their love for Allah Almighty. This verse was revealed in response to this reply (KHAZAINUL IRFAAN). Or, The Yahud of Madina would say that they need not follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as they are the sons of Allah Almighty and His Beloved. This verse was revealed on this occasion, this view is correct because Surah Ale-Imran was revealed in Madina. From this verse one learns that it is compulsory upon everyone to obey the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . In the Hadith it is mentioned that if Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) were to come to life he would follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . In addition, we learn that neither should you come to him by assuming the equality of a brother, nor try to surpass him in the garb of a father, but learn to serve him like a slave. Furthermore, we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the greatest Beloved of Allah Almighty and his obedient slave, too, enjoys being the beloved of Allah Almighty.

32. Please declare (O Muhammad): "Obey Allah and His Messenger [70]. But, if they turn away, then Allah does not like the infidels.

70. It should be remembered that some mediums and resources can be abandoned after reaching one's destination e.g. a train, while others can not be left, like the lamp to provide light. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم falls in the second category of mediums. No persons on reaching Allah Almighty can abandon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Hence, Allah Almighty Himself has mentioned about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Furthermore, we learn that anyone who degrades the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a non-believer, Hence, He says: "He loves not the infidels" (S3:V32).

33. Surely Allah has chosen Adam and Nuh and the family of Ebrahim and the family of Imraan above all (the people of) the worlds [71].

71. From this verse we learn that to be children of the pious, too, is a means of obtaining religious honour. The progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was honoured because they were the believing offspring of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace)

34. Descendants, some of them from others [72]. And Allah is All-Hearing, Knowing.

ذُرِّيَّةًۢ بَعْضُهَا مِنْۢ بَعْضٍ ۗ وَاللّٰهُ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٣٤﴾

72. If the progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and the progeny of Hazrat Imran are united with one another in matters of Religion therefore, Oh you Yahud, if you were true progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) you would have been believers and our helpers in matters of faith.

Hence, you are false in your present claim. From this we learn that the sincere progeny of the pious are those who emulate their way of life. True Sayyed (descendent) is he who patterns his life in accordance with the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

35. Recall, when the wife of Imran [73] said: "My Lord, I dedicate to You what is within my womb for your special service [74] so accept this from me. Surely, You are the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing.

73. In this verse Imran refers to Imran, the grandfather of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), whose wife was Hannah bint Faqooza. The Holy QUR'AAN has not mentioned any name of a woman besides Bibi Mariam. The second Imran is Imraan bin Yasheer, bin Lavi bin Yaqub, father of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). Between these two Imrans is a difference of eighteen hundred years.

74. Hannah was without children until a late age, when she felt signs of conception, thinking the child to be a son. Immediately she took a vow that she is offering the son for the sole service at the Holy Mosque of Al-Aqsa (BAITUL MUQADDAS), because only males were accepted for this purpose. Even today if a Muslim wishes to endow his son in the service of Religion, a verbal offering is permissible. Says Allah Almighty: "Then why should not a party from each group come out" (S9:V122).

أُنْثٰى ۭ وَاللّٰهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا وَضَعَتْ ۭ
وَلَيْسَ الذَّكَرُ كَالْأُنْثٰى ۚ وَإِنِّي سَمَّيْتُهَا
مَرْيَمَ وَإِنِّي أُعِيذُهَا بِكَ وَذُرِّيَّتَهَا مِنَ
الشَّيْطٰنِ الرَّجِيمِ ﴿٣٦﴾

36. So when she gave birth to her, she said: "O my Lord, I have given birth to a female" [75]. Allah knew best what she gave birth to. And the male (which she had demanded) is not like this female [76], and I have named her Mariam [77]. And I seek refuge with You for her and her children, from Shaitaan, the rejected one [78].

75. Hannah's words are an expression of her disappointment. However, she was not disappointed at the birth of a daughter as such, because this type of ingratitude is the way of the disbelievers, but disappointed that she would not be able to fulfil her vow. It was not her intention to remind Allah Almighty of what had happened. It is for this reason Allah Almighty says: "And Allah knows well whatever she has given birth to" (S3:V36).

76. The son that Hannah had requested could not equal himself to this daughter whom Allah Almighty had blessed, for she was to be the most honoured lady in the world as she was destined to be the mother of "The sign of Allah Almighty" - Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). She is Allah Almighty's most honoured bounty. It should be remembered that at that point in time Hazrat Mariam (On whom be peace) was the most blessed and honoured lady in the world. However, at this point in time Hazrat Khadija (May Allah be pleased with her) Hazrat Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) (wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and Hazrat Fatima Tuz Zahra are the three most honoured and blessed ladies of past and future. It is further learnt that some women are superior to some men, although Alllah says in the QUR'AAN. "Men are in charge over women." (S4 : V34) expressing the superiority of the male over the female. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

77. No other woman's name is mentioned in the Holy QUR'AAN besides that of Sayeda Mariam (On whom be peace) nor any month is mentioned besides Ramadaan and No Sahabi's name (Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم besides that of Hazrat Zaid (On whom be peace) We also learn that the mother can give a name to her off-spring, and that good names should be chosen for ones children as the name Mariam means a devotee, a servant, as she was the attendant of the Al-Aqsa Mosque. Hence, this name was excellent and in keeping with her work.

78. Allah accepted Hannah's prayer by protecting Sayeda Mariam (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) from the guiles of the devil to such an extent that no sin was committed by either of them. From this we learn that Hannah knew that her daughter will live to be a mother which bears proof of her miraculous intuition, because she had not prayed for Sayeda Mariam's life but had asked as outlined in this.

فَتَقَبَّلَهَا رَبُّهَا بِقَبُوْلٍ حَسَنٍ وَّاَنْۢبَتَهَا نَبَاتًا حَسَنًا ۙ وَّ كَفَّلَهَا زَكَرِيَّا ؕ كُلَّمَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا زَكَرِيَّا الْمِحْرَابَ ۙ وَجَدَ عِنْدَهَا رِزْقًا ۚ قَالَ يٰمَرْيَمُ اَنّٰى لَكِ هٰذَا ؕ قَالَتْ هُوَ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَرْزُقُ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿٣٧﴾

37. So her Lord graciously [79] accepted her and made her grow in purity and excellent growth [80] and made Zakariya [81] her guardian. Whenever Zakariya entered her prayer chamber, to see her, he found fresh food supplied to her. He asked: "O Mariam, from where is this coming to you?" She said: "It is from Allah". Surely, Allah provides to whom He wills, without measure [82].

79. By her acceptance by Allah Almighty is meant she was accepted as a caretaker of the Al-Aqsa Mosque, inspite of being a girl as only boys were engaged in the service of the blessed Mosque.

80. By 'excellent growth' is meant that Sayeda Mariam's growth for one day was equal to a year's growth of other children.

81. The caretakers of the Al-Aqsa Masjid were known as AHBAAR and they were twenty seven in number. They were from the children of Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace). Their leader was Hazrat Zakariya (On whom be peace) who was the maternal uncle of Sayeda Mariam (May Allah be pleased with her). Hazrat Imran was the eldest of this group and as such was appointed their Imam or chief. Though it was the desire of everyone of this group to take care of Sayeda Maryam (May Allah be pleased with her), it was Hazrat Zakaria (On whom be peace) who was chosen for this task. He carried out his duty with a great deal of love and devotion.

82. From this discussion few issues emerge:

1. The miracles of saints is an unmistakable truth because Sayeda Maryam's (May Allah be pleased with her) obtaining of unseasoned fruits from an unknown source is her miracle.
2. Some saints are saints from birth as sainthood is not dependent on deeds. Sayeda Maryam (May Allah be pleased with her) was a saint from her childhood.
3. Allah blesses the saints with ILME-LADUNNI (Inspired knowledge) and complete wisdom as can be seen from Sayeda Maryam's (May Allah be pleased with her) reply to the question of Hazrat Zakariya (On whom be please) which was faith inspired. SUBHANALLAH.
4. Some pious Servants of Allah have been blessed with heavenly fruit. Sayeda Maryam (May Allah be pleased with her) was receiving these fruits from heaven.
5. Sayeda Maryam (May Allah be pleased with her) was nourished with heavenly fruit, not from her mother's milk nor from any worldly provisions, (Khazainul Irfaan) because her mother had placed her under the care of the Ahbaar at birth, nor is there any proof that a foster mother was appointed to take care of her.

38. At that, Zakariya prayed to his Lord [83], saying: "O my Lord, grant me from Your Greatness good off-spring [84]. Surely, You are the Hearer of supplication".

83. Hazrat Zakariya (on whom be peace) prayed for a son in the presence of Sayeda Maryam (May Allah be pleased with her).From this we learn that to pray in the presence of a Saint of Allah is the practice of the Prophets, as it is accepted quicker here, be it in the presence of a living saint or at the Mazaar of a saint. Allah Almighty says:"And enter the gate prostrating and say 'forgive our sins' (S2: V58)

From this clarity is obtained for the issue that any city which has Mazaars (graves) of the pious should be venerated.

84. From it we learn that to pray for a son is the practice of the prophets. This should not be for one's personal desire, but rather for the sake of Allah so that he may grow to be a religious and pious person who will benefit us in our graves.

فَنَادَتْهُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ وَهُوَ قَآئِمٌ يُّصَلِّيْ فِي الْمِحْرَابِ ۙ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يُبَشِّرُكَ بِيَحْيٰى مُصَدِّقًا بِكَلِمَةٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَسَيِّدًا وَّحَصُوْرًا وَّنَبِيًّا مِّنَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿٣٩﴾

39. So the angels called to him while he was standing in prayer in the chamber: "Surely, Allah gives you glad-tidings of Yahya [85], who shall confirm the truthful (sacred) words from Allah [86]. He will be princely and chaste [87], and will be a Nabi from among the righteous people".

85. From this we learn that Allah has given knowledge of the unseen to angels because this calling angel knew that Allah will bless her with a son, and that son would be a prophet possessing these qualities. This is not just knowledge of the unseen, but it is indeed one of the five branches of knowledge. When Hazrat Zakariya's (On whom be peace) wife conceived he knew that she was carrying a son who will be blessed with these qualities. This verse proves the possession of the knowledge of the unseen by prophets and angels.

86. That is, this "KALIMATULLAH" (Word of Allah) will be Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) chief minister.

87. By 'chaste' is meant a person who stays away from women despite having the power to have such relationship for the purpose of cutting off worldy relations. This does not mean impotency because Prophets are protected from impotency.

قَالَ رَبِّ اَنّٰى يَكُوْنُ لِيْ غُلٰمٌ وَّقَدْ بَلَغَنِيَ الْكِبَرُ وَامْرَاَتِيْ عَاقِرٌ ۭ قَالَ كَذٰلِكَ اللّٰهُ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَآءُ ﴿٤٠﴾

40. He said: "O my Lord, how shall I have a son when I have (already) reached old age and my wife is barren" [88]. He (Allah) answered: "Allah does whatever He pleases".

88. By old age is meant that Hazrat Zakariya (On whom be peace) was hundred and twenty years old and his wife was ninety eight years. The purpose of this question was would whom be peace)

89. Allah's reply is that you will be granted a son in your present state of old age as Allah Almighty has power over every matter.

قَالَ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ لِّيْٓ اٰيَةً ؕ قَالَ اٰيَتُكَ

41. He said: "O my Lord make for me a sign" [90]. He replied: "Your sign will be that you will not speak to (anyone of) the people for three days except by sign, and remember your Lord [91] abundantly. And glorify Him in the evening and in the morning [92].

they be blessed once more with youthful years or would they be granted a son in their present old age. Since its purpose is one, no objections can be levied against Hazrat Zakariya (On

90. So that from this sign I will be able to perceive my wife's conception and henceforth engage myself in Your Remembrance and devotion.
91. From this, two issues are proven:
1. One should show gratitude to Allah Almighty for being granted a pious son. Holding Aqeeqa, giving charity and offering voluntary prayers are all expression of this gratitude.
2. The miracles of Prophets can appear before their birth. The loss of power of Hazrat Zakariya's tongue from worldly speech replaced by Remembrance of Allah Almighty only is the miracle of Hazrat Yahyah (on whom be peace) which came into being before his blessed birth. Likewise, miracles do appear after their earthly life.
92. Although recitation of Tasbeeh and Tahleel are good acts at any time, their recitation in the morning and evening is regarded as more auspicious because this is the meeting time of the angels of the morning and night. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt, angels are present to witness QUR'AANIC recitation at dawn." (S17:V78). Hence, at these times every creation of Allah Almighty is specially engaged in the Remembrance of Allah Almighty.

وَاِذْ قَالَتِ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ يٰمَرْيَمُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ

42.And when the angels said: "O Mariam, surely, Allah has chosen you and purified you [93] and has exalted you above all the women of the worlds" [94].

93. Thus, Sayeda Mariam was the most honoured lady of her time, but now Hazrat Fatima (May Allah be pleased with her) and the Holy Prophet's (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) beloved wives are the most honoured ladies. Says Allah Almighty: "O wives of the Prophet! you are not like other women" (S33:V32). Hazrat Mariam's (May Allah be pleased with her) was the caretaker of Masjid-e-Aqsa and pure from all sins. She was the devoted worshipper of Allah Almigthy. It should be remembered that this conversation of the angels was not a revelation of preaching because this type of revelation is connected with a Prophet only, while no lady has been elevated to prophethood
94. This has been done by letting you be from the children of the pious and inspite of being a woman, you have been selected to be a caretaker of the Baitul Muqaddas, although this was the work of the males only, made Hazrat Zakariya (On whom be peace) your guardian, nourished you with heavenly fruit and later destined you to become the mother of the Spirit of Allah Almighty, Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and thus, made well known in all circles.

1. There was Ruku in the Salaah of that Ummah.
2. Women can perform their Salaah in the congregation of males by using a veil to separate them.
3. Women cannot have a congregation of their own i.e. by appointing a lady to lead the Salaah as the word "RA'KIEEN" 'bow down' is masculine plural.
4. The letter 'waw' does not require order because Ruku comes before Sajdah, but in this verse Sajdah is mentioned before Ruku. Says Allah Almighty: "Oh Isa (On whom be peace) I shall cause you to reach to your full life and I shall raise you towards Myself." (S3:V55) whereas in reality, Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) raising to the heaven precedes his death.

ذٰلِكَ مِنْ اَنْۢبَآءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوْحِيْهِ اِلَيْكَ ؕ وَمَا كُنْتَ لَدَيْهِمْ اِذْ يُلْقُوْنَ اَقْلَامَهُمْ اَيُّهُمْ يَكْفُلُ مَرْيَمَ ۪ وَمَا كُنْتَ لَدَيْهِمْ اِذْ يَخْتَصِمُوْنَ ﴿٤٤﴾

44. These are news of the unseen, which We will tell you (in secret). And you were not with them when they were casting the arrows as to who should have the guardianship of Mariam and nor were you with them [96] when they were disputing the point [97].

96. You were not with them physically, Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as you are now informing the non-believers. Thus, this knowledge bears testimony to your Prophethood because all happenings of the past and the future are in front of you. Says Allah Almighty: "Most certainly I have sent you Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a witness (S33:V45). Further, Allah Almighty says: "Oh Beloved! Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the companions of the elephant?" (S105:V1). It should be remembered, that in respect of being the Light of Prophethood, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is everywhere at all times, is aware of everything and every happening is in front of him. (Tafseer Saawi Shareef).
97. As everybody at Masjide Aqsa was desiring to be the guardian of Sayeda Mariam (May peace be on her), she being the daughter of their chief, Hazrat Imraan, so they had to throw their pens in the river and he whose pen did not flow was to receive her guardianship. This was a form of throwing lots, which is not only permissible but sometimes is a wise act, and to pay respect to progeny of the pious is a good act

98. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is called the Spirit of Allah, because his conception was with the word 'Be' and not from the sperm of a father or mother. Says Allah Almighty: "The likeness of Hazrat Isa with Allah is like Adam. He created him of dust, then said, 'Be' and he was at once" (S3:V59).

tified in the sight of Allah Almighty" (S33:V5). The word MASEEH means one who cures by touch and brings the dead to life or one who travels to a distant place. Maseeh is the appellation and Hazrat Isa (On him be peace) is his noble name.

99. From this we learn that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was created without the agency of a father, but just from the mother. Otherwise, he would not be connected to the mother, but to the father. Says Allah Almighty: "Call them after their fathers, this is more jus-

46. And He shall speak to the people in the cradle and in maturity [100] and will be of the righteous" [101].

being MASEEH, being son of Mariam only, not being a son of any man and being one of honour. Thus, through the QUR'AAN his fame is spread worldwide, being of special honour in the Hereafter for on the Day of Judgement it is through him that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will become known to Allah Almighty's creation, one who enjoys greatness and closeness, etc. From this we learn that to sing the praise of the Prophets is the way of Allah Almighty. May Allah guide us all.

100. By ripe age is meant at first he will be raised to the heavens then he will return to the earth nearing Qiyaamat to speak to the people. Thus, just as his speaking to the people in his infancy was a miracle, his speaking in his ripe age too is a miracle. From this, Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) raising to the heaven and then returning to the earth, too, is proven as a miracle.

101. In these verses many qualities of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) are mentioned such as being the 'Spirit of Allah Almighty'

قَالَتْ رَبِّ اَنّٰى يَكُوْنُ لِيْ وَلَدٌ وَّ لَمْ يَمْسَسْنِيْ بَشَرٌ ؕ قَالَ كَذٰلِكِ اللّٰهُ يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَآءُ ؕ اِذَا قَضٰۤى اَمْرًا فَاِنَّمَا يَقُوْلُ لَهٗ كُنْ فَيَكُوْنُ ﴿٤٧﴾

47.She said:" O my Lord, how shall I have a son when no man has touched me?"He (the angel) said: "Such is the way of Allah, He creates what He wills. When He decrees a matter He only says to it; "Be and it is" [102].

Allah Almighty is All Powerful and Great.

102. By this is meant that although you have been given a son you will remain a virgin as وَيُعَلِّمُهُ الْكِتٰبَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَالتَّوْرٰىةَ وَالْاِنْجِيْلَ ﴿٤٨﴾

And I will heal [108] the blind and the leper [109] and give life to the dead, by permission of Allah [110].

And I can tell you what you have eaten and what you have stored in your homes [111]. Surely, in that you have signs, for you, if you believe.

103. From this we learn that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was a Prophet to the children of Israel only. Hence, our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم beloved parents and the Quraish of Makkah before Islam were not Nasara, because the Quraish were from the children of Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace). Our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم parents were following the religion of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace).

104. This verse refers to the personal miracles from which a prophet's prophethood is proven. It is for this reason that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) in this verse outlines some of his miracles which are mentioned herein.

105. In Islam it is forbidden to produce a paper image or design an image of a living thing although this was allowed in the Shariah of the previous Ummahs. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) would produce these to show his miracle. Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) had made the Jinns to produce images. Allah Almighty, to reveal His Perfection and Excellence says: "They made for him what he desired, lofty palaces and statues" (S34:V13).

106. In this verse there is a proof of blessing with incantation of the saints of Allah. From these verses we learn that Allah had given Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) the choice over life and death, although no one has power in matter of this. The Holy Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) says: "Allah Almighty had given me the choice between life and death. I chose the Hereafter over earthly life."

107. On peoples' entreaties Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) made an image of a flying fox and blew into it. Miraculously it became alive and began to fly. The flying fox is a strange type of bird, who has teeth and milk from the nipples begin to flow. It flies without wings, it laughs, it does not lay eggs but procreates.

108. From this verse we learn that all Divine works can be attributed to the pious sages of Allah because giving cure is the work of Allah. Hence, it is correct to say that the Holy Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) is the repeller of calamities, provides children because Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) said that I give life to the dead, I cure those suffering from incurable diseases, I provide information about the unseen, although all these are works of Allah Almighty.

109. It should be remembered that during the time of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) medical knowledge was strongly prevalent. Doctor Jaleenoos lived during this period. Three things are considered impossible by doctors: to give life to the dead, to cure one who is born blind and to cure a completely leperous body. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) performed all three of these. From this we learn that Prophets performs those miracles which become well-known in their times. If a Qadiyani was a prophet he should have shown science oriented miracles to disprove scientific inventions.

110. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) gave life to four dead bodies. A'zar, a friend of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was made alive three days after his death, and lived for many years thereafter and even had children afterwards. He brought to life the son of an old lady, whose corpse was being carried. After gaining life he jumped from the shoulders of his carriers, he too lived many years thereafter and also had children, the third was the daughter of a grain collector and the fourth was Saam, son of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) who died thousands of years before. Hazrat Isa

(On whom be peace) had gone to his grave and made him alive but he replied from within that he had no desire to live. From this we learn that if Hazrat Ghouse Azam (May Allah be pleased with him) had brought to life a bridal procession that had died twelve years earlier, it is not impossible. The grave of the groom is found in Gujraat, Punjab. His name is Kabeerudeen and is well-known as Shah Dullah and is the Khaliph of Hazrat Ghouse Paak (May Allah be pleased with him). His Mazaar is frequented by all classes of people. He lived for six hundred years.

111. It should be remembered that the words "whatever you eat" and "whatever you store" indicate aorist tense which can be used for past and future. It could also mean "whatever you have eaten" and "whatever necessities you have stored for the current year" you can ask me about all of them, or whatever every person would have eaten in his lifetime I can imform you about them i.e. I know who is destined to eat which grain. If Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) possessed such knowledge then what is the extent of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knowledge. All these sources of knowledge are but drops from the ocean of the knowledge of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . From this we learn that Knowledge of the Unseen is a miracle of the Prophets.

50. And I confirm the previous book of Law (Tauraat), which was revealed before me, and making lawful to you, a part of what was forbidden to you [112]. And I have come to you with a sign from your Lord so fear Allah and obey me.

وَمُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ مِنَ التَّوْرٰىةِ وَلِاُحِلَّ لَكُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِيْ حُرِّمَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَجِئْتُكُمْ بِاٰيَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ ۖ فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيْعُوْنِ ﴿٥٠﴾

112. Like the meat of a camel, fish and certain birds which were forbidden by Mosaic law were made lawful by Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). From this, two issues emerge:

1. Abrogation is not contrary to verification, for Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) believed in the Tauraat, yet abrogated its laws.
2. That Prophet's, with Allah's permission have the authority to declare lawful things unlawful as Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) said: "I declare them lawful."

51. Surely Allah is my Lord and your Lord. Worship Him only [113]. That alone is the Straight Path.

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ رَبِّيْ وَرَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوْهُ ۭ هٰذَا صِرَاطٌ مُّسْتَقِيْمٌ ﴿٥١﴾

113. By "Allah is my Lord" is meant that although I possess so much power and knowledge, yet I am not Allah but a Servant of Allah. From this verse we learn that it is not polytheism to believe in the miracles of the Prophets and Saints. This does not necessarily mean that because of their miracles we take them to be as Allah. This discussion should serve as a lesson to the present day Wahabis.

فَلَمَّآ اَحَسَّ عِيْسٰى مِنْهُمُ الْكُفْرَ قَالَ مَنْ اَنْصَارِيْٓ اِلَى اللّٰهِ ؕ قَالَ الْحَوَارِيُّوْنَ نَحْنُ اَنْصَارُ اللّٰهِ ۚ اٰمَنَّا بِاللّٰهِ ۚ وَاشْهَدْ بِاَنَّا مُسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۵۲﴾

52. Then again when Isa found infidelity from them [114]. He said: "Who will be my helpers in the way of Allah?" The disciples replied: "We will be helpers of the religion of Allah [115], we have believed in Allah and you be the witness that we are Muslims".

114. By 'found infidelity in them' is the intention to kill made by the Yahud.
From this we learn that even intent to cause harm to a Prophet, too, is an act of Kufr (apostasy). To serve and honour them is part of Imaan (Faith).

115. From this, a few issues become apparent:
1. In times of affliction to seek the help of the pious servants of Allah is the way of the Prophets.
2. The assistance of a Prophet is, in reality, the assistance from Allah although as the disciples rendered assistance to Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) they were called 'helpers of the cause of Allah.' Till this day, the followers of Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) religion are called 'helpers', just like one group of the Prophet's (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) companions are called 'Helpers'.
3. It is Sunnat to disclose one's faith, not to conceal it.
4. It is praiseworthy to make the Prophet a witness to one's faith.

53. O our Lord, we believe in what you have revealed and we follow the Rasool (Messenger) so write us with those who bear witness [116] (to the truth).

116. In this verse the words 'those who bear witness' either refers to the Ummah (followers) of the Holy Prophet who will bear witness on the Day of Judgement in respect of the Prophets, or the Prophets of Allah (Peace be on them) who were the first to bear witness about the Oneness of Allah.

وَمَكَرُوْا وَمَكَرَ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ خَيْرُ الْمٰكِرِيْنَ ﴿۵۴﴾ ع

54. And they (infidels) devised their plot. And Allah also devises [117] his own plan. And surely Allah is the best of planners.

117. The word 'Makar' (to plot) signifies a hidden or clandestine plan. In this verse it means that Allah Almighty made one of the murderers look like Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) whom they then crucified thinking that it was Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) that they had crucified.

SECTION 6

اِذْ قَالَ اللّٰهُ يٰعِيْسٰٓى اِنِّيْ مُتَوَفِّيْكَ وَرَافِعُكَ اِلَيَّ وَمُطَهِّرُكَ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَجَاعِلُ الَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوْكَ فَوْقَ

55.Remember when Allah said, "O Isa I shall let you reach full age [118]and raise you towards my Self [119]and I shall purify you [120] from the infidels and I shall make your followers [121] superior to those who reject [122] until the Day of Resurrection. When you all shall return to Me, and I shall judge between you in what you disputed.

118. The letter 'waw' (and) is not always used to signify correct order of happenings, it is sometimes used to mention happenings out of order. Allah Almighty says: "And prostrate before Him and bow down....." (S3:V43) because Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) raising to the heavens has taken place first, then his death, yet in narration the order is contrary to it i.e. first, death is mentioned then raising to the heavens, just as Ruku comes before Sajdah, yet in the verse quoted Sajdah is mentioned first, then Ruku.

119. By 'I shall raise you to Me' is meant keeping Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) in the heaven in the company of angels where no irreligious people are to be found, as Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) has said: "Verily I am going to my Lord" (S37 : V99) i.e. to the land of Syria where the light of Islam shines brightly. Even today, when someone goes to the Masjid or to the Holy Ka'bah he usually says I am going to Allah. From this verse Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) physical departure to the heaven is proven, i.e. he is physically alive there, just before Qiyamah he will return to the earth and propagate the religion of Islam, that he will enter into marriage, die a physical death and will be buried in the Roza-e-Mubaarak of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and he will live for forty years after coming to earth (Hadith).

120. By 'I shall purify you from the disbelievers' is meant Oh Isa (On whom be peace) I will protect you from the crowd of disbelievers so that they will not be able to crucify you.

121. By 'your followers' is meant either the sincere followers of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) of that time or the Muslims, because every Muslim believes in Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and is devoted to him. To believe in the QUR'AAN is showing devotion to Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as he has commanded to believe in the QUR'AAN. A Muslim is the follower of every Prophet of Allah, because every Prophet has commanded belief in the QUR'AAN.

122. By the word 'reject' is meant either the non-believers in general, or the Yahud while 'Superiority' means superiority of kingdom, or religious superiority or mastery of proofs. Hence, this verse does not mean that Allah Almighty will grant Muslims mastery over the Yahud until the Day of Judgement, and after the Day of Judgement the Yahud would be granted mastery over the Muslims, because the limit of this mastery is the Day of Judgement, After the Day of Judgement the Muslims would be granted a mastery of a different type which is being mentioned after the word 'then'.

56.And as for those who disbelieve, I shall punish them with a severe punishment [123] in this world and the Hereafter and they will have no helpers [124].

123. Punishment of the world for the disbelievers include murder, imprisonment, being liable for payment of poll-tax while in the Hereafter they will be punished by being sent into Hell.

124. Being without helpers is a form of punishment for the disbelievers, while Allah Almighty will provide many helpers for the believers. Whoever says that he has no helpers in this world and in the Hereafter is in reality admitting his non-belief, because Allah Almighty says: "Verily Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are your helpers " (S5:V55).

57.But as for those who believe and do righteous deeds [125], He (Allah) will give them in full their rewards [126]. And Allah does not like the unjust.

125. From this we learn that it is necessary for every believer to do good deeds. No one is exempted from doing good deeds, no matter what spiritual position he might have attained. Furthermore, we learn that good deeds should be performed according to one's physical capacity.

126. Some will be rewarded according to their deeds, the reward of some will be doubled, some will be rewarded beyond any limits. Hence, there is no conflict in the verse. It could also mean the reward will be given in full measure while bounties will be given in excess.

58. This is what we recite to you [127] (O Muhammad) some of the verses and the message of wisdom.

127. From this we learn that the work of the pious servants of Allah are indeed His works, because to recite the Holy QUR'AAN upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was Hazrat Jibraeel's (On whom be peace) work, yet Allah says 'We are reciting '.Likewise a pious servant sometimes calls Allah's work his work e.g. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) said: 'I will bring the dead to life', Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) told Sayeda Mariam (May Allah be pleased with her) that I will grant you a pure son, etc. (QUR'AAN).

59. Surely the likeness of Isa before Allah is like that of Adam [128]. He created him from dust. Then He said to Him: "Be", and he immediately became [129].

128. Like Hazrat Adam (On Whom be peace) was conceived without semen so was Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). If Adam (On whom be peace) was not called the son of God, then how can Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) be called as such. From this we learn that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was created without the agency of a father.

129. This is due to the power of Allah, although law of nature is that childern are conceived through the semen of the parents. Thus, you must believe in both the laws of Allah and His Absolute power.

60. The truth comes from your Lord alone. So be not of those who doubt [130].

130. By 'doubt' is meant that you must not have any doubt that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was created without the agency of a father, nor doubt that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is the servant of Allah, not God, nor the son of God. In the light of this, both the Nasara and the Qadiyanis are non-believers.

61. Yet (O Beloved Muhammad) if whoever dispute in this matter (about Isa) after the knowledge has come to you, please declare: "Come, let us get together with our sons and your sons, our women and your women [131], and ourselves and yourselves [132], then let us supplicate earnestly [133], and make the curse134 of Allah upon the liars".

131. It is permissible to refer to one's grandson as your son or the daughter as your lady, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the occasion of the MUBAHALA (mutual imprecation to prove truth of one's point) took his grandsons Imam Hassan and Imam Hussain, his daughter Bibi Fatima and Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with them) against the disputing non-believers. Hazrat Ali (On whom be peace) too was included by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم among the sons as he was his young brother (cousin). In terms of the rules, on occasions like these one only swears on one's children and not on one's companions or wives. Thus, this verse is showing us the height of greatness of the Ahle-Bait. Ibn Asaakir on the authority of Hazrat Jaffer Saadique bin Muhammad Baaqir has quoted that on this occasion the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in addition to these blessed four persons, had also taken the first three Khaliphs i.e. Hazrat Abu Bakr, Hazrat Umar and Hazrat Uthman (May Allah be pleased with them) and their children. (Ruhul Mu'ani)

132. By calling upon one's lives is meant to make oneself available. Allah Almighty says: "Then his souls induced him to kill his brother." (S5:V30).

133. From this discussion, two issues emerge:

1. MUBAHALA is greater in significance than debate, as MUBAHALA includes laying curse upon the non-believers.
2. MUBAHALA should be held in respect of definite religious issues, not in respect of uncertain issues.

134. From this we learn that a more learned person (Alim) can enter into Mubahala and debate with a lesser learned person, when the latter is trying to spread mischief in the world. Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the greatest learned person of all times i.e. the former and latter periods, yet in defence of truth, he entered into not only debate, but in Mubahala with the Jewish priests of Najraan.

Marfat.com

In another place Allah says: "Say you bring your proof if you are truthful" (S2:V111). In this verse the word 'liars' refers to those having false beliefs i.e. non-believers. It should be remembered that it is permissible to curse a liar.One should not curse a deceased non-believer until it is proven he had died an apostate. A sinner cannot be cursed by name, one can curse his deed only, e.g. one can say curse be on the departed thief, but one can not say that curse be upon that person who is a liar.By curse is meant to be away from the Mercy of Allah.

62.Surely this is the true narrative [135]. And there is none worthy of worship except Allah [136]. And surely only Allah is the Almighty, the Most Wise.

135. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم came to the place of Mubahala with his two grandsons, Sayeda Fatima and Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with them), the Jewish priest did not have the courage to enter into any Mubahala after just looking at the bright faces, they immediately made peace. Had they entered into any debate or Mubahala, they would all have been destroyed (Hadith).

136. From this we learn that just as the son is homogeneous (of the same species) to his father, so is the wife to her husband. Thus, if Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was the son of God, and Sayeda Maryam (May Allah be pleased with her) the wife of God, then both should have been deities and gods. Yet, there is no other deity besides Allah. Being a beloved, or slave does not depend on being heterogeneous with one another, this can take place between non-heterogeneous objects as well. An animal can become the servant of man, and an angel can become his beloved, etc.

63. Yet, if they turn away their faces [137], then Allah has full knowledge of the mischief mongers.

فَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِالْمُفْسِدِيْنَ ﴿٦٣﴾

137. To "turn back their faces" before accepting the Oneness of Allah, before accepting Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as the servant of Allah or before entering into Mubahala. The first two possibilities appear greater.

SECTION 7

64.(Beloved Prophet) Please declare: "O People of the Scripture, come to a word which is equitable between us and you [138] that we worship none besides Allah and associate no partners with them [139], and not take one another as lords besides Allah. But if they do not accept, then say: "Bear witness, that we are Muslims [140] (submitting to Him)".

قُلْ يٰٓاَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ تَعَالَوْا اِلٰى كَلِمَةٍ سَوَآءٍۢ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمْ اَلَّا نَعْبُدَ اِلَّا اللّٰهَ وَلَا نُشْرِكَ بِهٖ شَيْـًٔا وَّ لَا يَتَّخِذَ بَعْضُنَا بَعْضًا اَرْبَابًا مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ فَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقُوْلُوا اشْهَدُوْا بِاَنَّا مُسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾

138. That is, Tauraat, Injeel and the Holy QUR'AAN all have proclaimed this injunction. From this one learns that although all the Shariahs are similar in belief, they differ in practice.

139. The followers should not take the Prophet to be God like the Yahud take Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace) and the Nasara are taking Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). Similarly, an ignorant person must not give a position of deity to a learned person by accepting them as authorities on things lawful and unlawful and thereby follow them by disobeying Allah in these matters. Thus, this sentence is an explanation of 'such a word'. It should be remembered that the same is the meaning of 'such a word' between the Prophet and his followers as explained here. Otherwise the follower cannot be equal to the Prophet in any way. The follower is a believer, the Prophet is belief itself. A Prophet's expression is: "I am the Prophet of Allah." If we say such words, we would be non-believers.

140.By this is meant you are not a Muslim. From this one learns that only the follower of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is called a Muslim. It should be remembered that the Yahud and Nasara would prostrate to their priests and would regard them as forgivers of their sins. This was their way of regarding their priests as their gods.

65. O People of the Scripture, why do you dispute about Ebrahim [141], while the Tauraat and the Gospel were not revealed until after him. Do you have any intelligence? [142].

يٰٓاَهۡلَ الۡكِتٰبِ لِمَ تُحَآجُّوۡنَ فِىۡۤ اِبۡرٰهِيۡمَ وَمَاۤ اُنۡزِلَتِ التَّوۡرٰىةُ وَالۡاِنۡجِيۡلُ اِلَّا مِنۡۢ بَعۡدِهٖ ؕ اَفَلَا تَعۡقِلُوۡنَ ﴿۶۵﴾

141. A debate had taken place between the Nasara and Yahud of Najraan regarding Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). The Yahud had claimed that he was a Jew, therefore Judaism is superior than Christianity. The Nasara on the other hand, claimed that Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was Christian. Eventually, both went to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and made him their judge in this matter. This verse was revealed on this occasion which exposed the childish ignorance of both, because Judaism came with Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) and Christianity after Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and as Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was many centuries before both of them, how could he be either Jew or Christian?

142. From this we learn that to exonerate the pious of their blame is the way of Allah Almighty, while to support their greatness is an excellent virtue. Says Allah Almighty: "Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was neither a Jew nor a Christian" (S3:V67). Further, it is said: "Sulaiman (On whom be peace) did not commit apostasy" (S2:V102). We further learn that sometimes a historical occurrence becomes a source of faith and showing callous disregard for it can become a means of apostasy and false beliefs. The Jewish claim that Hazrat Ebrahim (On who be peace) was a Jew reveals their ignorance of historical data.

66. Behold! You are those who indulged in dispute [143] in the matter in which you had some knowledge But why do you dispute about which you have no knowledge? And Allah knows, while you know not.

هٰٓاَنۡتُمۡ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ حَاجَجۡتُمۡ فِيۡمَا لَكُمۡ بِهٖ عِلۡمٌ فَلِمَ تُحَآجُّوۡنَ فِيۡمَا لَيۡسَ لَكُمۡ بِهٖ عِلۡمٌ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ يَعۡلَمُ وَاَنۡتُمۡ لَا تَعۡلَمُوۡنَ ﴿۶۶﴾

143. By 'dispute' is meant that although you knew about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his beautiful attributes, yet you are rejecting them intentionally. From this it should be remembered that to dispute with the Prophet on grounds of obstinacy is an act of obstinacy. However, when the Prophet gives advice, it is not apostasy nor any sin to disagree with his opinion. Allah Almighty says: "And undoubtedly a group of Muslims were unhappy. They were disputing..." (S8:V5). In this verse the disputers are called believers because it was difference of opinion. (S22:V78).

67. Ebrahim was neither a Jew nor a Christian, but he was an upright Muslim [144], totally separate from every falsehood and was not at all of the polytheists.

مَا كَانَ اِبْرٰهِيْمُ يَهُوْدِيًّا وَّ لَا نَصْرَانِيًّا
وَّلٰكِنْ كَانَ حَنِيْفًا مُّسْلِمًا ؕ وَمَا كَانَ
مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

144. From this discussion emerge two issues:
1. Literally speaking, every Prophet can be called a Muslim, e.g. who submits to and obeys the Will of Allah as Allah Almighty says: "Then when they both submitted to my command" (S37:V103) but technically speaking, this term applies to the follower of the Holy Prophet only. Says Allah Almighty: "He has named you Muslim"

2. To be a true Muslim is rejection of all falsehood and to show disgust at all irreligious persons. A Muslim cannot be all passive. For this reason the word "Haneef" (separate from all falsehood) is placed before the word "Muslim". Just as pure gold is expensive on the market, so will a pure Muslim be expensive on the market of Qiyamah.

68. Surely, the most worthy of Ebrahim among the people are those who followed [145] him, including this Nabi (the Communicator of hidden news, Muhammad) and those who believe. And Allah is the protector of the believers [146].

اِنَّ اَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِاِبْرٰهِيْمَ لَلَّذِيْنَ
اتَّبَعُوْهُ وَهٰذَا النَّبِيُّ وَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا ؕ
وَاللّٰهُ وَلِيُّ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٦٨﴾

145. Prior to the advent of Islam all those who were sincere followers of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) as well as those who believed in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are all followers of Ebrahim (On whom be peace) while the Yahud, Nasara etc. are separate from them and as such are not of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). From this discussion, two issues emerge:
1. Nearness of the Prophet can only be obtained through obeying him, and not through claiming to be from his progeny. Kanaan, son of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) could not obtain his nearness, though he was his son.
2. The Muslims are all of Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and all Hazrat Ebrahim's (On whom be peace) ways are found in Islam e.g. Hajj, sacrifice, circumcision, keeping of a beard, etc. These rituals are not practised in Christianity or Judaism, hence, only Muslims are of Ebrahim (On whom be peace).

146. From this, emerge two issues:
1. Allah's great bounties are connected with our pious predecessors.
2. Allah Allmighty showers His mercy upon the wrong doers through their connection with the pious. Allah Almighty is the guardian of the believers because they are the slaves of the Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. No matter how sinful a Muslim may be, he will not be a wretch because he is the follower of Allah Almighty's Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

وَدَّتْ طَّآئِفَةٌ مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْكِتٰبِ لَوْ يُضِلُّوْنَكُمْ ۭ وَمَا يُضِلُّوْنَ اِلَّآ اَنْفُسَهُمْ وَمَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝٦٩

69. A group of people of the Scripture desire to see you go astray [147]. But they do not mislead except themselves and they have no sense [148].

147. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed in honour of such Noble Companions namely Hazrat Ma'az ibn Jabal, Hazrat Huzaifa ibn Ayaan, Hazrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (May Allah be pleased with them), whom the Yahud were trying to deceive and mislead.

148. From this we learn that Allah Almighty has given guarantee of the faith of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Companions, that no one can lead them astray as they are in Allah Almighty's safety. For this reason nobody can have the quality of Faith like the Companions (May Allah be pleased with them). Everyone's faith is in danger, besides that of the Companions. Says Allah Almighty: "And made incumbent on them the words of righteousness and they were better entitled to it" (S48 : V 26). Further it is stated: "And He has made infidelity and inequity and disobedience hateful" (S49:V7). Allah has said similar things about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم : "And they are misleading themselves only, and they will not hurt you in anything" (S4 : V113).

70. O People of the Scripture! Why do you disbelieve the signs of Allah [149] while you yourselves are witnesses?

149. From this we learn that rejection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to rejection of all the signs of Allah Almighty, and acceptance of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is acceptance of these signs. Because the people of the Book rejected the Holy Prophet , صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah Almighty equated this with the rejection of Divine signs.

يٰٓاَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ لِمَ تَلْبِسُوْنَ الْحَقَّ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَتَكْتُمُوْنَ الْحَقَّ وَاَنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝٧١ ع

71. O People of the Scripture, why do you intermingle truth [150] with false-hood, and why do you conceal the truth while you have the knowledge [151]?

150. Here, "Truth" refers to the original verses of Injeel and Tauraat which were revealed from Allah Almighty, while falsehood refers to the distortion and additions brought about by the Yahud. The commentators of the QUR'AAN write their commentaries in such a manner that these do not become part of the QUR'AANIC text, hence, this is not included in the verse under discussion.

151. From this discussion, two issues emerge:

1. It is totally forbidden to mix QUR'AANIC text with human writing in such a way so as not to distinguish between the two. For this reason names of the Surahs (chapter) signs of Ruku, (Section) etc. are written boldly, appear in the margin and the passages of commentary of verses appear differently to the verses.
2. It is forbidden to give incorrect information about a religious issue or to conceal truth, especially in respect of beliefs.

morning and later deny it in the evening; perhaps they may return [152].

النَّهَارِ وَاكْفُرُوْٓا اٰخِرَهٗ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُوْنَ ﴿٧٢﴾

152. This scheme to make the Muslims apostates was planned by the twelve Jewish priests of Khaibar who had thought that a group of Yahud became Muslims in the morning and turn to apostasy in the evening, saying that they had found no greatness in either Islam or the Prophet of Islam . a true prophet is he about whom our books had prophecized. The Holy QUR'AAN had forewarned about this scheme of theirs, thereby rendering it totally in vain. From this, two issues emerge:

1. The non-believers are busy plotting such schemes against Islam, which even the devil has not thought of.
2. The penalty of death for apostasy was passed, because there is real danger of Muslims going astray therewith, and that an apostate has rebelled against Divine Order. During the time of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) the worshippers of the Golden Calf were put to death, The command was: "Then kill amongst yourself" (S2:V54).

73. And do not trust except those who follow your religion [153]. Please declare: "Surely the true guidance is the guidance of Allah, so what has been given to you [154] is to be given to others, or they may dispute it before your Lord". Please declare: "All bounty is in the Hand of Allah alone. He gives it to whom He pleases [155]. Allah is All-Embracing, All-Knowing ".

153. By this is meant that only Children of Israel had been bestowed with Prophethood, besides them no other tribe received it, while our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is from the Children of Ismail (On whom be peace). The Yahud would make every effort to mislead others from accepting Islam, by using this excuse that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not from the Bani Israel. This, too, is the saying of these Jewish priests i.e. accept the truth about Islam verbally only, not from your heart. Inwardly, regard Islam as a false religion. From this we learn that hypocrisy and deception have always been the teachings of the Yahud. Tricksters and hypocrites are by nature Yahud. For a detailed discussion on this consult Tafseer Naeemi.

154. For Prophethood to be the sole right of the Children of Israel was but a false claim of the Yahud. This was not mentioned in any of the revealed Books. Against this claim, the Holy QUR'AAN has proclaimed that Prophethood has been directly associated with the Clan of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). Says the Holy QUR'AAN: "And we put prophethood and the Book in his off-spring" (S29:V27). Thus, we Muslims can boldly say that Mirza Ghulam Ahmed Qadiyani was not a prophet because he is not from the progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). Allah Almighty Himself has made Prophethood the speciality of the Progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace).

155. If Allah Almighty has not brought about any restraint in the matter, who are you to do so? Allah Almighty says Prophethood is My Bounty. I can bestow it upon anyone I so desire. I have not made it the sole property of the Children of Israel. From this we learn that Prophethood cannot be obtained through one's deeds. This is received through the blessing of Allah Almighty only. Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace) and Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) are prophets from birth. Likwise, sainthood, too, is not just dependent on good deeds. Sometimes it is obtained through good deeds, but at other times it is received without the help of one's deeds - purely from the blessing of Allah Almighty. Hazrat Sayeda Mariam was a Saint in her infancy, although she had not performed any good deeds then.

74. He with His mercy exalts anyone He pleases [156]. And Allah is the Possessor of great bounty.

156. From this we learn that whomsoever Allah Almighty blesses, no one can belittle. The door of Prophethood has been sealed after our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Whoever claims prophethood now is a liar and an impostor.

75. And among the People of the Scripture is he who if you entrust him with great amount of (wealth) he will return it to you [157], and among them is someone, whom if you entrust him with a single dinar then he will not repay it to you, except when you remain standing [158] over him. That is because they say:"There is no accountability [159] over us in the matter of illiterates". And they utter a lie against Allah knowingly [160].

157. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed in respect of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam (On whom be peace) and Fakhaas ibn Aazura (On whom be peace). A person from the Quraish had left twelve hundred pieces of gold in trust with Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam (On whom be peace), without any documentation or any witness. On request, it was returned to him as it was given. Another person kept just one gold coin equivalent to a guinea, but when asked he refused to give. At that point in time both were Yahud. Only later Abdullah ibn Salaam (On whom be peace) did accept Islam. From this we learn that trustworthiness is an excellent virtue, worthy of praise, even if it is practised by a non-Muslim. Further, we learn that those who possess greatness, their virtue becomes known from before. Likewise, we learn that breach of trust is an evil act.

158. By 'standing over his head' is (him) about it meant to ask for it continuously and remind in the presence of others so that he would not be able to deny it. Thus, he will not be fulfilling his trust because of the fear of Allah Almighty, but because of the fear of people. From this we learn that doing good deeds out of fear of the state or of people is not a good thing and will not be worthy of praise.
159. From the word 'accountability' we learn that it is totally forbidden to steal or practise breach of trust, even though the wealth may belong to a non-believer. It is compulsory to repay one's debt and goods that are given in one's trust. Breach of trust is the practice of the non-believers. On the occasion of HIJRAH (migration), the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had instructed Hazrat Ali (On whom be peace) to remain behind in Makkah to return the goods to the owners who had placed them in his trust.

Yet, these are the very people who had gathered at the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم house with the intention of killing him. Hazrat Ali (On whom be peace) was to join the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in Madina after executing this important duty! What a praise-worthy deed of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

160. It is meant these Yahud were proclaiming that Allah Almighty has ordered in the Tauraat to seize the goods placed in trust with them if anyone who is not of their faith. Allah Almighty Forbid!

76. But yes, whoso fulfills his pledge [161] and fears Allah. Surely Allah loves those who are pious.

161. From this we learn that we should always fulfil all promises whether made with Allah Almighty or with people, with the Holy Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) or with one's Religious Guide (MURSHID), or with one's wife at the time of marriage or with one's relatives. From this verse rules regarding many issues can be derived.

77. Those who accept a mean price [162] in exchange of their promise with Allah and their oaths, they have no share in the Hereafter. And Allah will neither speak to them nor look towards them [163] on Resurrection Day, nor will He purify [164] them, and for them is a painful torment [165].

162. In this, Divine warning is included to those who seize wealth of others by taking a false oath, bear false witness by accepting bribes, those who pass false resolutions, those who give false verdicts for cash, deliberately lose the court proceedings inspite of receiving payment for it, etc. May Allah Almighty protect us from such evil practices!

163. The Ulama (learned people) are of the opinion that Allah Almighty will not utter words of kindness about them and will turn His Eye of Mercy away from them. He will remember these people with words of anger. The Sufis are of the opinion that even in Hell Allah Almighty will not speak to them. Being cut off from Allah Almighty's communication is a source of utter punishment for them. There the flames of Allah Almighty's love would be ablaze in the hearts of man and under such circumstances for the Beloved to cut Himself off from them, is indeed a certain punishment for them, Says Allah Almighty: "Yes, certainly they are deprived of the right of their Lord that day" (S83:V15). From this we learn that the believers will be blessed with Allah Almighty's nearness and Speech. Oh Almighty Allah grant us death on Faith!

164. The non-forgiveness of their sins for the disbelievers is a way of punishment for them. The believers will certainly be granted forgiveness for their sins, either for all their sins, or for some after receipt of punishment, and some through forgiveness.

165. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "On the Day of Judgement Allah Almighty will not speak to three types of people or grant them forgiveness, but will place them in tormenting punishment: those who boast about their favours conferred; those who let their pants hang below their ankles out of pride, and those who sell goods by taking false oaths." In support of this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then recited this verse.

وَاِنَّ مِنْهُمْ لَفَرِيْقًا يَّلْوٗنَ اَلْسِنَتَهُمْ بِالْكِتٰبِ لِتَحْسَبُوْهُ مِنَ الْكِتٰبِ وَمَا هُوَ مِنَ الْكِتٰبِ ۚ وَيَقُوْلُوْنَ هُوَ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ وَمَا هُوَ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ ۚ وَيَقُوْلُوْنَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ الْكَذِبَ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٧٨﴾

78.And among them there are some who distort the Book [166] by twisting their tongues; that you may think that it is from the Book [167], but it is not from the Book. And they say: "This is from Allah," but it is not from Allah. And thus they forge a lie against Allah knowingly [168].

166. By this is meant they recite their own concocted passages like the verses of Tauraat. From this we learn that we should not recite anything which is non-QUR'AANIC like the QUR'AAN. One should not place signs of verses, ruku, etc. on them. Dalailul Khairat, Hizbul-Bahr, etc. are free of this as these have only been arranged in groups or parts. No signs as those in the QUR'AAN are included therein.

167. From this we learn that reciting or writing anything non-QUR'AANIC, to give the impression that it is from the QUR'AAN, is forbidden. It is for this reason that in Arabic commentaries, the Arabic passages of commentaries are differentiated between the QUR'AAN and non-QUR'AANIC volumes, so that people are not misled.

168. From this we learn that the intensity of sin of one learned is greater than that of one ignorant because the Holy QUR'AAN has repeatedly said:"And they have knowledge of it."

مَا كَانَ لِبَشَرٍ اَنْ يُّؤْتِيَهُ اللّٰهُ الْكِتٰبَ وَالْحُكْمَ وَالنُّبُوَّةَ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلَ لِلنَّاسِ كُوْنُوْا عِبَادًا لِّيْ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَلٰكِنْ كُوْنُوْا رَبّٰنِيّٖنَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تُعَلِّمُوْنَ الْكِتٰبَ وَبِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَدْرُسُوْنَ ﴿٧٩﴾ لا

79. It is not the right of any man [169] that Allah should give him the Book, the Command and the Prophethood then he should say to the people: "Be my bondsmen [170] leaving Allah". Yes he will say this: "Be men of Allah" [171] because you teach the Book [172] and because you deliver instructions".

169. This verse is in refutation of the claim of the Nasara of Najraan who say that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had instructed them to accept him as God, or to refute the nonsensical words of Abu Raaf'e, the Jew and Sayed Nasrani who had come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and said "do you want that we should worship you and accept you as God?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم replied: "I seek protection in Allah from what you are saying." Allah Almighty exonerated the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from the accusation of his enemies. In any case this refutation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a proof of his intense love for Allah Almighty.

170. Bondsmen is the plural of bondsman. A bondsman can be a worshipper or a servant. In this verse bondsmen refers to worshippers. A bondsman or servant, too, can be connected to those besides Allah Almighty as well. Says Allah Almighty: "Of your suitable servants and hand maids" (S24:V32). In terms of this, a person can be called Abdun Nabi, Abdur Rasool, etc.

171. The Prophets give instruction to become learned men of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that to become learned men of Allah Almighty is an act of Allah Almighty's mercy, while to become learned of sensual things or learned of devilish things is a form of torment. May Allah protect us!

172. The purpose of acquiring knowledge is piety. Any learned person who does not obtain this has not understood the purpose of knowledge.

80. And he (such a person) cannot command you to take the angels and prophets as God [173]. Would he command you to disbelieve after you have become Muslims [174]?

do you so desire that we should accept you as our Lord and thereby begin to worship you?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم replied, "Allah Almighty forbid! I cannot order you to worship anyone other than Allah Almighty, nor am I sent for this purpose". The Christians of Najraan had said that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had ordered them to accept him as Lord. This verse was revealed in refutation of this.

173. The word RABB (Lord) in the QUR'AAN is used to signify the Being worthy of Worship, The Creator, or for a patron and guardian. In this verse the first meaning applies. The QUR'AAN has also used the word RABB in respect of man, to convey the second meaning. Says Allah Almighty: "Return to your Lord" (S12:V50). It is further stated: "Oh my Lord have mercy on them both as they brought me up in my childhood." (S17:V24). In terms of the first meaning to take anybody as one's Lord is polytheism, and a Prophet can never teach about polytheism. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty says in the verse: "Would He order you to infidelity"? Reason for its Revelation: Once Abu Raaf'e the Jew had said: "Oh Messenger of Allah, صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

174. From this we learn that it is non-believing to worship any Prophet, but their obedience and reverence is faith. Says Allah Almighty: "Then Oh Beloved, by your Lord they shall not be believing until they make you judge" (S4: V65). They should be obeyed and revered by accepting them as servants of Allah Almighty not as Allah Almighty.

وَاِذْ اَخَذَ اللّٰهُ مِيْثَاقَ النَّبِيّٖنَ لَمَآ اٰتَيْتُكُمْ مِّنْ كِتٰبٍ وَّ حِكْمَةٍ ثُمَّ جَآءَكُمْ رَسُوْلٌ مُّصَدِّقٌ لِّمَا مَعَكُمْ لَتُؤْمِنُنَّ بِهٖ وَلَتَنْصُرُنَّهٗ ؕ قَالَ ءَاَقْرَرْتُمْ وَاَخَذْتُمْ عَلٰى ذٰلِكُمْ اِصْرِىْ ؕ قَالُوْٓا اَقْرَرْنَا ؕ قَالَ فَاشْهَدُوْا وَاَنَا مَعَكُمْ مِّنَ الشّٰهِدِيْنَ ﴿۸۱﴾

81. And recall when Allah took from the Prophets their covenant [175] whatever I should give you of the Scripture and wisdom, then comes [176] to you the Messenger confirming your Books [177], then assuredly you shall believe [178] in him and help [179] him. Then (Allah) said: "Do you agree and take this as my firm agreement as binding on you?" They said: "We agreed [180] Then He (Allah) said, "Then be witnesses, and I am with you among the witnesses".

175. From Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) to Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) a covenant was taken from every Prophet concerning the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Through these Prophets this covenant is taken from their followers because the followers remain subservient to the Prophets. The agreement of

176. From 'comes to you' we learn that the Holy Prophet has come to all from the time of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) and all are the followers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah Almighty has made the Holy Prophet

Marfat.com

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم a total mercy, giver of glad tidings and a prophet for all the worlds. Those prior to the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are all included in the word 'all the worlds'. For this reason all the Prophets of Allah Almighty performed Salaah behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the Night of Me'raj. That Salaah was the Salaah read in the Shariah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, and not according to the Shariah of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) or Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) .

177. From this, emerge two issues:

1. The covenant from the Prophets was taken only regarding our Holy Prophet because only the final Prophet can verify all the truth about all the Prophets and all the revealed Books, and this Final Prophet is our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

2. There can be no Prophet or revealed Book to come after our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, because our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the verifier, not prophesier of any coming prophet. Verification is made about those who came, while prophesy is made of those to come.

178. Although all the Prophets had brought faith on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the Day of the Covenant, it was their natural faith their lawful and religious faith could only take place after they had physically come into this world. It is this religious faith which is the means of obtaining rewards. Although on the Day of Covenant every soul had brought faith, this was purely in their spiritual state. Thus, because of this faith everyone cannot be called a believer. If this is the case then all the non-believers would have to be called believers as they were all part of the Day of the Covenant. In this verse Faith refers to the religious faith.

179. By 'you help him' suggests that pious sages give assistance even after their physical death, because Allah Almighty had taken a solemn promise from the Prophets to render assistance to the Religion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, although Allah Almighty was fully aware that none of these Prophets would be physically alive during the period of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Through the help of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) on the Night of Me'raj, the fifty Salaahs were reduced to five. Likewise, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too, is rendering every assistance to his Ummah (followers) till this day. If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not assisting his followers, we would not be able to do any good deeds.

180. To show the importance of the Covenant the word "BALAA" (most certainly) is not used in this verse as it was used when the promise of Unity of Allah Almighty (Tauheed) was taken. Instead the word "AQRARNAA" (we did affirm) is used, and He made every Prophet a witness over one another as well as sealed the Covenant by making Himself witness over all. On the Day of the Covenant three types of promises were taken. The first promise which Allah Almighty took was about His Oneness, then from His Prophets about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, thirdly from the Ulama of Bani Israel regarding propagation of His Religion. In this verse the second promise is mentioned. From this we learn that in matters of importance the acceptance cannot be shown by a single word 'Yes'. Full words of acceptance have to be mentioned. In marriage, after the declaration of intent (IEJAAB) the acceptance by saying 'Yes' will not be deemed sufficient. The same will be the case with important business agreements etc.

82. Now whoso turns back after this, then they are the transgressors [181].

181. Here the word FAASIQ (sinner) is used to denote a non-believer. Rejection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is apostasy.

كَرْهًا وَّاِلَيْهِ يُرْجَعُوْنَ ﴿٨٣﴾

182. From this verse we learn that besides Islam all other religions will be regarded as other than the Religion of Allah Almighty, whether polytheism, Christianity, Judaism, etc. Likewise, all those who profess to be Muslims will not be on the Religion of Allah Almighty if they had turned away from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . It should be remembered that in this verse FAASIQ (sinful) denotes a non-believer or one having false and sinful beliefs also, an impossible here is made to suspend over the impossible e.g. "If there had been a son to the Most Affectionate I would have worshipped him." (S43: V81). From this discussion it is understood that no matter how great a person may be, if he turns away from the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم,he will become a non-believer and a heretic. To accept the servitude of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is real sainthood.

183. i.e Jinns, Angels, all intellectuals, living and non-living things. It is learnt, here, that even non-living things perceive .

184.By "unwillingly" is meant that even the non-believers, too, at the time of death accept faith at seeing the punishment of Allah Almighty, but this faith of theirs is not worthy of acceptance.

84. Please declare: "We believe in Allah and what has been revealed to us, and in that which was sent down to Ebrahim and Ismail and Is'haaq and Yaqub and their children [185], and whatever was revealed to Musa and Isa and (other) Prophets from their Lord [186]. We make no distinction between any of them in belief [187] and to Him we bow down our necks [188].

185. Here, reference is made to the scrolls of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) upon which these pious persons were practising. All these Prophets mentioned in this verse were not given Books or Scrolls.

186. It should be remembered that we have brought faith in our Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as well as all the other past Prophets. However, this faith differs in two ways, firstly we believe jointly in all these Prophets, while our belief in the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is of a detailed and comprehensive nature; secondly it is not compulsory to act upon their laws, while absolute obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is incumbent upon us.

187. By this is meant we believe in all the Prophets. From this verse one can perceive the power and greatness of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمas it is he who has instructed his followers to believe in all the Prophets and all followers have done this without raising any objection. But when Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and other Prophets instructed their followers to believe in Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, they had disobeyed this instruction. Thus, it can be seen that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is shown greater obedience. From this it can be seen that although the religious codes of these Prophets had become abrogated, but not their Prophethood, otherwise it is meaningless believing in them if they are no more prophets.

188. From this we learn that it is important for a Muslim to declare his faith whole heartedly through deeds, practice and character, and not conceal it through any deception and hypocrisy by accepting the mannerism of non-

85. And whoso seeks any religion other than Islam, it shall never be accepted [189] from him, and such a person will be among the losers in the Hereafter.

86. How [190] shall Allah guide such people [191] who disbelieved [192] after believing and bearing witness that the Messenger is true and to who had come clear proofs. And Allah guides not the unjust [193].

190. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding those Jewish and Christian scholars who would give people glad-tidings about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and would pray to Allah Almighty through the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prior to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم coming to this world, but became enemies of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم after his coming in the world. From this we learn that any wretched person who shows hatred for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will be bereft of any guidance. It is regarding such people, that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has said: "They shall not return to the path of guidance."
191. The word 'people' here refers to those Nasara and Yahud who had accepted the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Prophethood, before his coming to this world and would pray to Allah, through his medium and would give glad-tidings about him, but once the Holy صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had come into the world

87. Their retribution is a curse from Allah and of angels and of people, all together [194].

194. On the Day of Judgement the people would be cursing them, Muslims as well as their own groups. The word 'People' refers to believers.

وَمَنْ يَّبْتَغِ غَيْرَ الْاِسْلَامِ دِيْنًا فَلَنْ يُّقْبَلَ مِنْهُ ۚ وَهُوَ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ مِنَ الْخٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿٨٥﴾ any of his sins will be forgiven.

كَيْفَ يَهْدِي اللّٰهُ قَوْمًا كَفَرُوْا بَعْدَ اِيْمَانِهِمْ وَشَهِدُوْٓا اَنَّ الرَّسُوْلَ حَقٌّ وَّ جَآءَهُمُ الْبَيِّنٰتُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٨٦﴾

they rejected him. From this, emerge two issues:
1. Such people will not be regarded as apostates because their belief was not of religious credence.
2. It is very difficult for an envious person to receive guidance, while the one who has not accepted Islam due to any misunderstanding is easy to guide, as can be seen from ; "How will Allah wish to guide."
192. Here, the word FAITH, does not refer to Religious faith, otherwise all those people would become apostates, but it refers to non-religious faith which they had obtained from the Tauraat and Injeel through belief on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This was like the natural belief.
193. They shall be bereft of guidance as long as they remain oppressors and tyrants. If they repent sincerely from their oppression they could obtain guidance. In this verse oppressor signifies one who is an infidel out of envy.

اُولٰٓئِكَ جَزَآؤُهُمْ اَنَّ عَلَيْهِمْ لَعْنَةَ اللّٰهِ وَالْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ وَالنَّاسِ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿٨٧﴾

Muslims, Hence, there is no conflict in this verse.

88. They will remain therein for good [195]. Neither will their punishment be reduced for them [196] nor shall they be given any relief.

195. By 'being cursed' is meant they will be cursed at all times. From this we learn that only an infidel can be cursed by name, not a sinful believer.

196. By this is meant the hardship they will experience at first will continue for all times. It is also possible that some infidels would receive lighter punishment like in the case of Hazrat Abu Talib. For this reason Hell is divided into various categories and punishment in each varies. Some will receive lighter punishment while others will be punished severely. Hence, there is no conflict in the verse.

اِلَّا الَّذِيْنَ تَابُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ وَاَصْلَحُوْا ۖ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۝٨٩

89. Except for those who repent thereafter and amend [197] themselves. Indeed, Allah is Most Forgiving, Ever Merciful [198].

197. From this we learn that there are two conditions for seeking repentance. The first is to express disgust at the past sins, the second is to keep in one's mind, future correction. Further, we learn that repentance can be sought for every sin, including apostasy, but nature of repentance will differ from sin to sin.

198. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Harith ibn Sohid Ansari became an apostate and went to live with the infidels. When he realized his error he approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with remorse pleading that if he offers sincere repentance will his sin be forgiven? This verse was revealed on this occasion. He then came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and once again entered the fold of Islam sincerely and his repentance was accepted. From this it can be seen that every apostate's repentance can be accepted. However on the repentence of some apostates religious laws are not applicable, e.g. those who continuously become apostates, the slanderer of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is liable for death penalty even after he repents.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا بَعْدَ اِيْمَانِهِمْ ثُمَّ ازْدَادُوْا كُفْرًا لَّنْ تُقْبَلَ تَوْبَتُهُمْ ۚ وَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الضَّآلُّوْنَ ۝٩٠

90.Surely, those who disbelieved after believing, then again increase [199] in infidelity, their repentance shall never be accepted [200], and they are the ones who are gone astray.

199. From this we learn that infidelity is of varying intensity, but this difference is only in respect of state not in quantity or measure. Says Allah Almighty: "They (villagers) are more stubborn in infidelity and hypocrisy" (S9:V97).

200. From this we learn that neither will they receive forgiveness through their repentance nor will any of their good deeds be accepted. Everything of theirs is rejected and disapproved by Allah Almighty. Just as Salaah is unacceptable without Wudhu, so are good deeds unacceptable without faith. It should be remembered that the word repentance in this verse refers to repentance from sin, not for infidelity (Kufr), because repentance from apostasy is accepted, even of a non-believer.

91.Surely those who disbelieved and did [201] as infidels, even the earth full of gold will not be accepted from them, though they offer themselves as ransom. They shall have no helpers [202].

201. From this verse, it is understood, that one should always give credence to ones end. If a person lives a believer all his life but becomes an infidel at the time of death, he will be regarded as such in terms of this verse but if a person lives all his life as a non-believer, and dies with belief, he will not be included in this verse.

202. The appearance of "For them" before 'Helpers' is for emphasis. Thus, it means that without doubt, the non-believers will have no helpers at all. From this we learn that being left without helpers on the Day of Judgement is a means of torment and punishment for the non-believers. Allah Almighty will appoint many helpers for the believers. All their intercessors will be their helpers. Now, if anyone says that I have no helper he is in reality admitting his apostasy (Kufr).

92. You shall never attain [203] virtue until you spend your favourite [204] things (in the path of Allah). And whatever you spend, is known to Allah [205].

203. The word 'good' refers to piety and Allah's obedience. It could also mean Paradise and all its bounties. By 'attain' means priority in obtaining it.

204. From "You Spend" a few issues emerge:

1. One should not spend all one's wealth, give some of it in charity and keep some of it for one's own use, for this reason the word 'From what' is used.

2. One should spend from all one's wealth, for this reason the word 'what' is used in a general sense.

3. One should not stop at spending on compulsory things, but give Nafl (optional) charity as well. For this reason the words 'you spend' too, is left to denote generality.

4. One should give in the way of Allah that which one loves most. Hazrat Umar Bin Abdul Aziz would buy bags of sugar to give in charity. When he was asked why not just give its amount in charity he would reply. 'I love sugar', and would then recite this verse.

5. The acceptance of charity is dependent on one's sincere intention, not on its quantity.

205. As Allah Almighty is fully aware of what you have spent intentionally, and without intention, therefore spend it with total sincerity. Favourite wealth has been mentioned first, here reference is made to good intention.

كُلُّ الطَّعَامِ كَانَ حِلًّا لِّبَنِیْۤ اِسْرَآءِیْلَ اِلَّا مَا حَرَّمَ اِسْرَآءِیْلُ عَلٰى نَفْسِهٖ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ تُنَزَّلَ التَّوْرٰىةُ ؕ قُلْ فَاْتُوْا بِالتَّوْرٰىةِ فَاتْلُوْهَاۤ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِیْنَ ﴿۹۳﴾

93. All food was lawful to the children of Israel [206], except what Yaqub had made unlawful for himself [207] before the Tauraat was sent down. Please declare (O beloved Muhammad): "So bring the Tauraat and recite it, if you are truthful".

206. Reason for its Revelation:
The Yahud of Madina were blaming the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by saying that the religion of Ebrahim (On whom be peace) forbids the use of camel's milk and meat, yet you are using both. As we abstain from both, we are the true followers of Ebrahim (On whom be peace). In refutation of their claim the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم told them that these things were lawful in the religion of Ebrahim (On whom be peace). In reply, they said that these things were forbidden from the time of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace). When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم asked them to bring the Tauraat to show them its lawfulness from it, they failed to produce the Holy Book out of fear of being disgraced. On that occasion this verse was revealed. From this we learn that abrogation has been taking place, therefore there should be no objection at the abrogation of certain QUR'A-ANIC verses. Further, we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم possessed inspired knowledge (Ilme Ladunni) because he is fully conversant with the Tauraat and the Injeel, yet nobody taught him these. Allah Almighty has blessed him with the Knowledge of the Unseen.

207. In the religious laws of the earlier prophets people would take a vow before making anything lawful or unlawful. In accordance with this practise Hazrat Ya'qub once took a vow to make the meat and milk the camel unlawful for him during his illness.

of the camel was unlawful in his religion, but Allah Almighty had regarded this as a slander against Him. Further, we learn that the sin of a learned man is an act of greater evil.

208. From this we learn that to make false accusations about a Prophet is equal to accusing Allah. It was Jewish slander against Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) that meat irreligious people. To be passive and only peace-loving is contrary to Hazrat Ebrahim's (On whom be peace) law. Just as value is attached to genuine things only, so will a pure and sincere Muslim be an item of value on the market of Judgement Day.

209. This means, follow the religion of Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for devotion to it is like devotion to the religion of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace), because this religion reflects the religion of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). From this we learn that a Muslim will always abstain from all peace) turned towards it in prayer; it has been created for all mankind to face during worship while the Dome of the Rock had been the Qiblah of specific people at specific times; it is found in Makkah wherein the reward of one good deed is equal to one hundred thousand. At all times it has been the centre of Hajj, not the Dome of the Rock

210. Reason for its Revelation:
The Yahud had claimed that since their Qiblah - Dome of the Rock (Baitul Muqaddas) is holier than the Holy Ka'bah, it is superior to the Ka'bah. Its refutation is made in this verse. Hence, this verse was revealed after the changing of the Qiblah (Direction). It should be remembered that the Qiblah of the angels is the Baitul Ma'moor (the Inhabited House) prototype of the Holy Ka'bah in heaven. In these verses many attributes of the Holy Ka'bah are being mentioned: that it is the first house of worship; Hazrat Adam (on whom be thither [215]. But whoever disbelieves (denies), then Allah is independent of the entire world [216].

214. Here the word 'Naas' (people) refers to Muslims, because worship of any type is not compulsory on a non-believer, besides faith. From this we learn that Hajj is not compulsory on Jinns and angels. Further we learn that the purpose and obligation of Hajj is the House of Allah because Allah had connected His House with Hajj, hence, just as Hajj would be compulsory on a person once in his lifetime only, so is the purpose of Hajj.

215. By 'find a way' includes safety of the journey, good health, safe transport, hence, these are conditions of Hajj which are mentioned here.

216. A person who rejects or denies any obligatory principles of Islam is a non-believer. We also learn that Hajj is an obligatory pillar of Islam and he who denies it is a non-believer, and Allah will be indifferent towards him.

212. From this we learn that any stone on which a Prophet's footprint is found is sacred and becomes a sign of Allah. Allah Almighty says: "No doubt, Safa and Marwa are among the symbols of Allah" (S2:V158). Both these hills gained this honour after Sayeda Hajira's blessed feet touched them. Maqaame Ebrahim is the name of that stone on which Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) would stand for the construction of the Ka'aba. This stone would rise by itself in accordance with the height of the walls of the Ka'bah.

213. From this we learn that whoever commits a crime on the sacred ground and becomes liable for death, he shall not be given any sanctuary. The motive of the verse is to show, that anyone who was sentenced to death outside the sacred city, and thereafter comes to seek sanctuary in the Holy City, shall be given sanctuary.

قُلْ يٰٓاَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ لِمَ تَكْفُرُوْنَ بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ ۖ وَاللّٰهُ شَهِيْدٌ عَلٰى مَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۹۸﴾

98.Please declare: "O People of the Scripture, why do you disbelieve in the signs [217] of Allah when your works are before Allah".

They could also mean verses of the QUR'AAN are the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

217. Here, Verses of Allah refer to those verses of the Tauraat in which the qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are praised.

قُلْ يٰٓاَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ لِمَ تَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اٰمَنَ تَبْغُوْنَهَا عِوَجًا وَّاَنْتُمْ شُهَدَآءُ ۗ وَمَا اللّٰهُ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۹۹﴾

99. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "O People of the Book why do you hinder those who had accepted the faith [218] from the path of Allah, desiring to make it (seem) crooked, while you are yourselves witness thereof [219]? And Allah is not unaware of your doings."[220] not refer to the well known companions of the Holy Prophet .

219. A witness is he who is fully aware of the happenings and is an eye witness to these, no matter whether he personally testifies or not.

218. O People of the Book! Why are you trying to mislead those new converts to Islam, in whose heart faith has not seeped deeply that he is not the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as described in the Tauraat and Injeel. This does

Thus, this verse will mean you have personally seen those verses of the Tauraat which speak of the truth and righteousness of Islam. Hence, there is no contradiction in the verse.

220. It can be seen that the sin of a misleading person will be either equal to the misled people or even worse than that, for which the torment and punishment is severe.

100. O believers! [221] If you obey a party of those who were given the Scripture (Yahud and Nasara) they would turn you back as disbelievers after you believe [222].

221. Reason for its Revelation:
A Jew named Shas bin Qays once passed an assembly of Muslims in which the Ansaars from the tribe of Aus and Khazraj were speaking to one another in a loving, friendly manner. Prior to becoming Muslims, both those tribes had waged many wars against one another, thus seeing them in such a friendly atmosphere became unpalatable to Shas. He told a youth Jew to incite these tribes to rekindle their old hatred. He did so by writing songs about their earlier battles. His poetry brought out the old hatred and the two tribes were on the verge of taking up arms if it was not for the opportune arrival of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who chided them for behaving like that of the Days of Ignorance. They soon realized their folly and immediately threw down their weapons and with tears in their eyes hugged one another, like true brothers. This verse was revealed on this occasion. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, Tafseer Khazain).
From this incident, emerge three issues:
1. Here, apostasy refers to practical infidelity, e.g. personal war is the work of the non-believers but which is not practiced by Muslims.
2. To bring peace between fighting people is the way of life of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .
3. To engage Muslims in battle with one another is the way of the Yahud
222. From this we ascertain that nothing from the non-believer should be accepted without carefully thinking about it; on the surface it may appear to be good, because it could be based on some ulterior motive.

101.And how could you disbelieve when Allah's verses are recited to you, and in your midst has come His Messenger [223]? He who has sought the support of Allah [224] has been directed to the Straight Path [225].

وَكَيْفَ تَكْفُرُوْنَ وَاَنْتُمْ تُتْلٰى عَلَيْكُمْ اٰيٰتُ اللّٰهِ وَفِيْكُمْ رَسُوْلُهٗ ۭ وَمَنْ يَّعْتَصِمْ بِاللّٰهِ فَقَدْ هُدِيَ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿١٠١﴾ ع ١٠ ١

223. By this is meant, Oh groups of the Companions, how can you resort to fighting amongst yourselves by listening to the non-believers? You have enjoyed the august companionship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, you have listened to the Holy QUR'AAN from the receiver of the QUR'AAN and you have been protected from evil beliefs. From this we can understand that all those wars in the ranks of the Companions after the departure of the Holy Prophet were not based on personal considerations as was the case among the non- believers, but they were based on religious differences of opinion.

Whoever regards their wars as personal is denying the truth of this verse.

224. So that they seek the protection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Therefore the word Messenger has been mentioned first.

SECTION 11

102. O you who believe! Fear Allah as He should be feared [226], and do not die except as Muslims [227].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ حَقَّ تُقٰتِهٖ وَلَا تَمُوْتُنَّ اِلَّا وَاَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۲﴾

226. Fear Allah Almighty as He should be feared. Its commentary is this verse: "Fear Allah as per your ability" (S64:V16). Under this circumstance, this verse is not abrogated but is firm and lasting. This verse explains that the above verse is not abrogated.

227. From this we learn that to breathe your last on the Religion of Islam is most creditable. If a person was a believer his entire life but becomes a non-believer at the time of his death, he would be regarded like any genuine non-believer. May Allah Almighty grant all of us death with Imaan (Faith). Ameen!

103. And hold fast [228] to the rope of Allah all together and do not be divided among yourselves [229]. And remember the favours of Allah upon [230] you, when you were enemies and He brought your hearts (together) in love, and by His grace became brothers together [231]. When you were on the edge of Fire and He rescued you [232] from it. Thus, does Allah make clear to you His verses that you may be guided.

228. Some commentators of the QUR'AAN are of the opnion that the Rope of Allah refers to the progeny of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Hence, subservience to this blessed progeny is a means of obtaining guidance and salvation. According to others the Rope of Allah Almighty is the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Just as a person who has fallen in a well comes up by holding onto a rope, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too will provide guidance and salvation to the downtrodden people.

229. From this we learn that unity is good which is based on the obedience to Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . There can be no unity if it is founded contrary to this, instead of unity it will be a curse. The battles of the Companions were not based on sectarianism, but as a result of differences of opinion.

230. From this we learn that to gratefully remember the bounties of Allah Almighty and remind one another of these are an excellent form of worship. Hence, the holding of Meelad Shareef is a meritorious deed, because the blessed coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in this world is discussed, who is the greatest bounty of Allah Almighty to mankind.

231. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم established brotherhood among the believers, but, he صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is certainly no brother unto anyone. The father brings about the bond of brotherliness in his children but he does not become their brother. It is for this reason that the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are the mothers of the believers, not their sisters-in-law.

104. And let there be (arising) from you a group inviting (people) towards goodness [233], enjoining what is right and forbidding what is evil. They are the ones who attain their goals [234].

233. This verse intimates that it is Farde Kefaya to become a certified Aalim (learned scholar) and thus not compulsory on every person to become one. If there were one qualified Aalim in each town or city it would be sufficient. Furthermore, we learn that in matters of religious information given by one person would be acceptable, because an issue explained by one Aalim would be acceptable. Also, it is a compulsory duty of the Aalim to propagate Islam both verbally and practically.

105. And do not be like those who became divided (in sections) and disagreed among themselves [235] after clear proofs had come to them. For them is a great torment. [236]

235. It should be remembered that the one guilty of disunity and division is a person who has deviated from the path of the Muslims by bringing irreligious innovations in it. One who is firm on the teachings of Islam is not the guilty person. Says Allah Almighty: "And one who follows a way other than the way of Muslims; We shall leave him on his own" (S4: V115). Hence, the followers of Ahle Sunnat are on the right path. Besides this sect, all others

106. On that Day some faces will turn white, and some faces black. And those whose faces have been blackened [237] (they will be told): "Did you become [238] infidels after

232. Allah Almighty rescued mankind by sending His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to them and gave them guidance to be obedient to him. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is our greatest means of safety from the fire of Hell and the highest bounty of Allah Almighty.

234. The word 'attained their goal' indicates that an Aalim who is a missionary is indeed a truly successful scholar. Propagation of Religion is the best form of striving in the way of Allah Almighty because the holy war itself is undertaken for the purpose of propagating Islam. The sword clears the obstacles in the way of QUR'AAN and the QUR'AAN provides protection for the sword by refraining from any misuse.

are responsible for creating division in the Muslim ranks.

236. From this we learn that the transgression of the learned is not only more perilous than that of the ignorant but at times is responsible for the worst form of punishment. One transgression of a learned can be responsible for leading the entire masses astray, hence, "After this that bright signs had come to them" is expressed in this verse.

يَّوْمَ تَبْيَضُّ وُجُوْهٌ وَّ تَسْوَدُّ وُجُوْهٌ ۚ فَاَمَّا الَّذِيْنَ اسْوَدَّتْ وُجُوْهُهُمْ ۫ اَكَفَرْتُمْ بَعْدَ اِيْمَانِكُمْ فَذُوْقُوا الْعَذَابَ بِمَا accepting faith? Then taste the punishment for what you used to reject".

237. From this we understand that every believer and a disbeliever on the Day of Judgement would be distinguished from their faces without enquiring about them from anybody. Hence, the saying of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about the apostates at the Pond of Kauthar that they are my Companions, is for the sake of sarcasm and not on the grounds of non-recognition, just as this address of Allah Almighty is to the inmates of Hell: "Taste it, yes certainly you are the honou- rable, the benignant" (S44: V 49), which is a way of censure and taunt of these persons. This saying of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be viewed in the same manner.

238. Because non-believers after accepting faith on the Day of Covenant, or verbally accepted faith but inwardly became infidels, or circumstantially became believers then turned to infidelity. Hence, this address of Allah Almighty is either to the non-believers in general, or the hypocrites or the apostates.

107. But as for those whose faces turn white (they will be) within the mercy of Allah.They shall abide in it [239] eternally.

239. From this we learn that the people of black faces would be the inmates of Hell for eternity. From this emerge two issues:

1. No matter how sinful a believer may be if Allah Almighty wills his face on the Day of Judgement will not be blackened. The blackness of the face is set-aside for the non-believers. However, the faces of sinners will reflect specks of blemishes and dust.

2. The faces of man will be like an open book of Allah Almighty. Just as faces in this world can reveal internal illnesses, on the Day of Judgement faces would be distinguished from the piety and impiety of the believers and non-believers. The faces of the pious Ulema and the Saints of Allah Almighty will be recognised easily from their brightness.

108. These are the verses of Allah that We recite to you with truth. And Allah does not desire any injustice to the people of the worlds. [240]

240. By this is meant that Allah Almighty does not punish anyone without guilt nor does He decrease the reward of piety. (vide Khaza-inul Irfaan). From this we understand that the deceased infants of the non-believers will not be sent into Hell. The deceased infants of the believers too will be sent to Paradise.

109. To Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth. And to Allah is the return of all matters.

كُنْتُمْ خَيْرَ اُمَّةٍ اُخْرِجَتْ لِلنَّاسِ تَاْمُرُوْنَ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَتَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ

is evil, [242] and believe in Allah. If only the People of the Book had believed, it would have been better for them. Among them are believers and most are infidels [243].

وَتُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ ؕ وَلَوْ اٰمَنَ اَهْلُ الْكِتٰبِ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَّهُمْ ؕ مِنْهُمُ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ وَاَكْثَرُهُمُ الْفٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۰﴾

241. It is evident that the followers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are superior to all the other followers. The superiority of the Bani Israel was only for that particular time, but the superiority of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم followers is for all times as understood from "You are". Further, we learn that the followers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are the guides for the rest of mankind.

242. From this we learn that it is the duty of every Muslim to be a preacher and propagate Islam, whatever he knows he should convey it to others verbally and practically. Also, to accept and believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to believing in Allah Almighty and one who rejects the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has rejected Allah Almighty, Hence, the verse says: "you keep faith unto Allah Almighty".

243. From this we learn that the rejector of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the rejector of Allah Almighty, and accepting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed accepting Allah Almighty. Observe carefully, in this verse Allah Almighty said to the Muslims: "You keep faith unto Allah Almighty." While regarding the People of the Book is said: "Had the people of the Book believed." yet all the people of the Book had believed in Allah Almighty, none had rejected Allah Almighty. This verse further intimates that a trangressor can be called an infidel. In fact whenever this word is used opposite to belief it will always denote infidelity. In scholastic terms this is called philosophy.

111. They will not harm you except for (some) annoyance. And if they come to fight with you, they will turn their backs from you. Then they will not be helped [244].

244. In this verse there is a prophecy of the victory of the Companions (On them be peace) over the Nasara and the Yahud. This promise was fulfilled when fifty Thousand Muslims gained a shining victory over seven hundred thousand Nasara . The outcome of the Battle of Yarmuk and Qadisiyya is the living commentary of the verse.

112. Humiliation has been imposed upon them [245] wherever they are. They will get no security [246] except for a rope (covenant) from Allah and a rope (treaty) from men [247]. And they have drawn upon themselves anger from Allah. And on them destruction has been pitched [248]. That is because they used to reject the signs of Allah, and slayed the Prophets unjustly [249]. This is because of their disobedience and transgression.

ضُرِبَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الذِّلَّةُ اَيْنَ مَا ثُقِفُوْۤا اِلَّا بِحَبْلٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَحَبْلٍ مِّنَ النَّاسِ وَبَآءُوْ بِغَضَبٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَضُرِبَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الْمَسْكَنَةُ ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا يَكْفُرُوْنَ بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ وَيَقْتُلُوْنَ الْاَنْۢبِيَآءَ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِمَا عَصَوْا وَّ كَانُوْا يَعْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۲﴾

245. The ignominy could have been on those People of Book during the time of the Holy Prophet who were present yet did not obey the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم It could also refer to all the Yahud in general to convey that their ways and habits will be like those who are disgraced, that they will always remain subordinates to others, and if sometimes they do happen to establish their own regime it would be a temporary one, and if Allah Almighty wills, their country will always be a forerunner of a great disgrace e.g. when a weaker fighter is being disgraced by a stronger opponent in a martial arts game.The present day establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine is, if Allah Almighty wills, be a forerunner of an impending disgrace upon the Yahud.

246. From this we learn that disgrace and misery was incumbent for only those Yahud who had totally disregarded and disobeyed Allah Almighty's commands mentioned herein. Hence, if and when a Jewish state is established e.g. the present Jewish state in Palestine it would not be contrary to this verse. In fact it has been foretold in books of Hadith that towards the end of time there will be wars fought between Muslims and Yahud in which the Yahud will all be slain, so much so that if a Jew were to hide behind a rock that rock will proclaim his whereabouts to be slain at the hands of the Muslims. If their state was not to be established, this prophecy would be of no consequence.

247. By this is meant they will be under the protection of other powers whether under the Muslims or the Nasara. The present day Jewish regime is being shouldered by the Americans i.e. they are only a sovereign state by name, but their guardians and well-wishers are the Americans.

248. Hence, inspite of being materially wealthy the Yahud are inwardly without any contentment. They are always found to be living a miserly, shabby life of paupers, just like the old fashioned Hindu Banyas who are millionaires on paper but beggars in their day to day living without any contentment or inner happiness.

249. Unjust slaying was part of their belief as they gave us reasons for it. Otherwise, slaying of a Prophet in itself is an unjust act.

113. They are not (all) alike. Among the People of the Book some are those who stand right [250], reciting the verses of Allah during parts of the night [251], and prostrate (in prayer).

250. When Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam and his companions believed in the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم the Yahud said that they i.e. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam and his group were wretched people. If they were not wretched they would not have entered the fold of Islam. This came down to refute their claim and proclaim that they would indeed be the best of people.

251. After becoming Muslims they are firmly committed to the performance of Tahajjud Salaah and recitation of the QUR'AAN. From this we learn that Tahajjud Salaah has a unique status amongst the worships of Allah, and that Sajdah is a superior posture in the essentials of Salaah (Arkanus-Salaat). Also that worship offered in the night and recitation of the QUR'AAN during the night is better than that offered during the day. The reason being the peace of mind one enjoys at night is not obtained during the day. It should be remembered that the letter 'waw' in "They prostrate" is not conditional 'waw' because there is no recitation of the QUR'AAN in the Sajdah. Also entire night should not be spent in worship, part of it should be used for sleep. It is for this reason "hours of the night" is mentioned in the verse. Those saints who had advocated worship in the entire night had it based on some secrets known to them.

يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَيَاْمُرُوْنَ
بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَيُسَارِعُوْنَ
فِي الْخَيْرٰتِ ؕ وَاُولٰٓئِكَ مِنَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۴﴾

114. They believe in Allah and the Last Day [252], and they enjoin what is right and forbid what is evil, and run [253] to good deeds. And these people are righteous.

252. "Belief in Allah" includes belief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because without believing in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it is bereft of belief in Allah Almighty.

253. They try to surpass one another in doing pious deeds or that they do not waste undue time in doing pious deeds. It should however, be remembered that to delay the offering of Esha Salaah is not contradicting the word "and run" because this is the recommended time of Esha. From this we learn that competition in doing good is totally different to envy and greed.

وَمَا يَفْعَلُوْا مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَلَنْ يُّكْفَرُوْهُ ؕ
وَاللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِالْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

115. And those who do well their rights will not be denied [254]. And Allah knows the God-fearing.

254. From this we learn that no matter how much good a non-believer may do in this world he will not have any right to claim forgiveness and mercy of Allah Almighty in the Hereafter because Faith is a pre-condition to the correctness of good deeds as Wadhu is for Salaah. After the root is cut off watering of the branches is a meaningless act.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَنْ تُغْنِيَ عَنْهُمْ
اَمْوَالُهُمْ وَلَآ اَوْلَادُهُمْ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ شَيْـًٔا ؕ
وَاُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ النَّارِ ۚ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۶﴾

116. And those who disbelieve, neither their wealth nor their children shall avail [255] them at all against Allah. And the inmates of the Fire, they will abide therein eternally.

255. From this verse we learn that on the Day of Judgement the wealth and children of the believers will, with the mercy of Allah Almighty be able to ward off punishment from them i.e. that wealth which was spent in the way of Allah Almighty, and through the blessing of pious children, as the wealth and children of the non-believers will not be able to ward off punishment from them, from which the believers are safe.

مَثَلُ مَا يُنْفِقُوْنَ فِيْ هٰذِهِ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا

117. The example of what they spend in the life of this world [256] is like that of a wind in which there is intense cold which strikes the harvest of people who have wronged themselves (sinned) which destroys their harvest. And Allah has not wronged, but, yes, they do wrong unto their own souls [257].

256. This expenditure either refers that to which the Yahud would spend on their priests and ascetics or the charities of the non-believers and polytheists, or the charities of the hypocrites and pretenders which is given for mere publicity. Without doubt, their deeds are certainly not for the pleasure of Allah Almighty.

118. O believers! [258] Do not make strangers your intimate confidants [259], for they will not leave any stone unturned in harming you. They wish you had hardship. Hostility is apparent from their utterances [260] and what they have concealed in their breasts is even greater. We have certainly made clear to you Our signs, if you will use reason.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوْا بِطَانَةً مِّنْ دُوْنِكُمْ لَا يَاْلُوْنَكُمْ خَبَالًا ؕ وَدُّوْا مَا عَنِتُّمْ ۚ قَدْ بَدَتِ الْبَغْضَآءُ مِنْ اَفْوَاهِهِمْ ۖۚ وَمَا تُخْفِيْ صُدُوْرُهُمْ اَكْبَرُ ؕ قَدْ بَيَّنَّا لَكُمُ الْاٰيٰتِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۸﴾

258. Reason for its Revelation:
Some Muslims had maintained good relations with the Yahud on the base of blood relationship or due to good neighbourliness. This verse was revealed to refute this. From this we learn that it is unlawful to promote friendship with the non-beleivers or respond to their invitation or give them gifts or to maintain friendly association with them. Experience, too, has taught that Muslims had always suffered from their friendship.
259. From this we learn that Muslim kings and rulers should not appoint non-believers to any key position like chief minister or Prime Minister, foreign Ministers which could give them the opportunity for treachery. Similarly, non-believers should not be made one's confidants and trustees so much so, that even if one's wife is a Jewess or Nasara she should not be informed of one's personal secrets as she could betray the husband. Furthermore, we learn that a non-believer will not be a true well wisher of a believer.
260. Although the non-believers make show of outward friendship, yet at times they do express their true feelings which reveal their inner hatred. The flame of enmity and rebellion, which is burning in their hearts, is far greater than their hypocritical show of friendship. That which Allah Almighty terms as great, should be given due importance. Allah Almighty is the Creator of all and as such the Creator knows His creation far better than any one else. All non-believers are included here in respect of their enmity, as understood from the word "strangers."

119. Behold! It is you who love them [261], and they love you not. Though you believe in all the Books [262]. And when they meet you, they say: "We accepted faith" [263]. But when they are alone, they bite their fingertips at you in rage. You declare: "Die in your passion" [264].Allah knows all the secrets of the hearts.

هٰٓاَنْتُمْ اُولَآءِ تُحِبُّوْنَهُمْ وَلَا يُحِبُّوْنَكُمْ وَتُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْكِتٰبِ كُلِّهٖ ۚ وَاِذَا لَقُوْكُمْ قَالُوْٓا اٰمَنَّا ۖۚ وَاِذَا خَلَوْا عَضُّوْا عَلَيْكُمُ الْاَنَامِلَ مِنَ الْغَيْظِ ؕ قُلْ مُوْتُوْا بِغَيْظِكُمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُوْرِ ﴿۱۱۹﴾

261. These words are addressed to those Muslims who had maintained friendly relationship with non-believers on the grounds of kinship. This type of love is virtually uncontrollable. Thus this should not be taken to mean that the Beloved Companions loved the non-believers in a manner, which is a sign of hypocrisy or double-dealing.

262. That is, O Believers, you have full belief in Tauraat and Injeel but they do not believe in the Holy QUR'AAN. If they are so staunch in their infidelity, why are you not so staunch in your belief ?

263. This is not the condition of all the people of the Book, but it is the case of those hypocrites from them. This has been explained in detail in the beginning of the first Para (Part1).

264. In it there is a prophecy, in that no envy or jealousy of this wretched people will harm the Muslims in any way. The sun of the Muslims will remain shining ever high on the horizon of success, while the infidels will remain burning like the bats. With the praise of Allah Almighty, this is exactly what had happened. In fact, until the Day of Judgement Islam will always overpower all other religions, even though the non-believers continue to burn, whether the Muslims may be victorious or conquered, or in power or in subjugation.

120. If some fortune is bestowed on you it grieves them, but if some misfortune overtakes you, then they are happy [265]. And if you have patience and fear Allah, then their guile will not hurt you at all. Surely Allah encompasses of what they do

إِنْ تَمْسَسْكُمْ حَسَنَةٌ تَسُؤْهُمْ ۖ وَإِنْ تُصِبْكُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ يَفْرَحُوا بِهَا ۖ وَإِنْ تَصْبِرُوا وَتَتَّقُوا لَا يَضُرُّكُمْ كَيْدُهُمْ شَيْئًا ۗ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِمَا يَعْمَلُونَ مُحِيطٌ ﴿١٢٠﴾ ع ١٢ ١١ ٣

265. Although the non-believers put up a show in expressing sorrow at your misfortune, they are inwardly happy as is seen today. If any non-Islamic power does give assistance to these Muslims it is due to their selfish motive, and not out of any genuine concern for the Muslims. From this we learn that expression of happiness at the misfortune of Muslims is the way of the non-believers.

SECTION 13

121. And remember (O Beloved Prophet Muhammad) that morning when you came out of your house [266] assigning to the Muslims their positions for the battle (of Uhud). And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing [267].

وَإِذْ غَدَوْتَ مِنْ أَهْلِكَ تُبَوِّئُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ مَقَاعِدَ لِلْقِتَالِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿١٢١﴾ لا

266. This is a proof that Hazrat Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) is from the household of the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, because the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلمon that occasion had come out from Hazrat Ayesha's (May Allah be pleased with her), house whom Allah has refered to as AHL - family (i.e wife). Regarding Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) Allah Almighty says:"Then he said to his wife, stay." (S20 : V10). In this verse too, AHL means wife.

267. In these verses there is a hint about the Battle of Uhud which was fought against the non-believers in third Hijri on the plains of Uhud, about three miles out of Madina. After the infidels had suffered a defeat at Badr they were infuriated and were craving for revenge. Within a year they completed military preparation and in mid-Shawwaal of 3rd Hijri they attacked Madina. When the news had reached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم of this attack, the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sought counsel of the Companions. Some Companions including Abdullah ibn Ubay, the hypocrite, were of the opinion that a defensive war should be fought from within the city. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too was of similar view. But some young men bubbling with frenzied enthusiasm declared that the infidels should be fought in an open battle, which was eventually accepted. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, accompanied by his noble companions arrived on the plains of Uhud on 10 Shawwal, 3rd Hijri. Because Abdullah ibn Ubay, the hypocrite's opinion and advice was not accepted he was hurt within. Therefore he informed his three hundred followers to leave the battlefield in the midst of fierce fighting for the Muslims to lose heart. Although Muslims numbered one thousand, which included these three hundred hypocrites, only seven hundred remained to do battle. After the treachery of the hypocrites, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم appointed fifty archers under the command of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Jabeer (On whom be peace) to the guard the Uhud Pass, to prevent the enemy from attacking from behind. Through the blessings of Allah Almighty, Muslims gained a meritorious victory as the infidels took to their heels. On seeing the enemy fleeing, the archers left their post in search of spoils, thinking that victory was now theirs. Although Hazrat Abdullah bin Jabeer (On whom be peace) tried frantically to stop the achers from leaving their post, they went. Seeing the pass unguarded, the defeated enemy recollected themselves and attacked the Muslims from behind which immediately changed the picture of the battle. From this we learn that when engaged in battle one should not set one's eyes on the spoils of war as this could have an adverse effect. This type of thing has been proven on many occasions. Furthermore, we also learn that interpretative error is excusable as was made by the Companions of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Jabeer.

122. When your two groups intended cowardice [268] but Allah was their protector. And upon Allah the believers should rely.

268. Both the Bani Salma from Khazraj and Bani Harith from Aus were Ansaars who had intended to run from the battlefield because they thought it was expedient to do so. This was an interpretative error on their part. From this we learn that intention of sin or sin itself does not exclude a person from the mercy of Allah Almighty or Faith, because although the intention of cowardice in a battle is an intention of a major sin but yet Allah Almighty says: "Allah is their supporter." Indeed, Allah Almighty is the supporter of Believers only, not the non-believers. If anyone says anything ill about them, he would be a disbeliever.

123.And verily had Allah helped you at Badr when you were without resources [269]. Then fear Allah that perhaps you may become grateful.

وَلَقَدْ نَصَرَكُمُ اللّٰهُ بِبَدْرٍ وَّ اَنْتُمْ اَذِلَّةٌ ۚ فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۳﴾

269. The Battle of Badr was fought on Friday 17 Ramadaan 2 A.H. The Muslim army numbered three hundred and thirteen while the Kuffaar were one thousand. The Muslims were ill-equipped while the enemy was fully equipped. Badr is the name of a well dug by a person named Badr ibn Aamir. Presently there is a small settlement found between Makkah and Madina, situated along the (old) road to Madina.

124. (Remember) when you said to the believers: "Is it not sufficient for you that your Lord should assist you by sending down three thousand angels" [270].

اِذْ تَقُوْلُ لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اَلَنْ يَّكْفِيَكُمْ اَنْ يُّمِدَّكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ بِثَلٰثَةِ اٰلٰفٍ مِّنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ مُنْزَلِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۴﴾

270. At first three thousand angels descended and later a further two thousand angels came down making the total of five thousand. Thus, there is no inconsistency in this verse and the earlier verse.

125. Yes, why not, if you remain steadfast and become pious, and the infidels come upon [271] you instantly, then your Lord will send five thousand angels with marks for your help [272].

بَلٰٓى ۙ اِنْ تَصْبِرُوْا وَ تَتَّقُوْا وَيَاْتُوْكُمْ مِّنْ فَوْرِهِمْ هٰذَا يُمْدِدْكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ بِخَمْسَةِ اٰلٰفٍ مِّنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ مُسَوِّمِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۵﴾

271. Either it is the words of Allah Almighty said in verification of His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or the words of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which Allah Almighty is narrating. These verses prove that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did have prior knowledge of Allah's aid to come during the Battle of Badr, as these verses were revealed to confirm this.

272. From this we learn that all the Ansaars and Muhajireen who participated in the Battle of Badr are all embodiment of patience and piety, testified by the Holy QUR'AAN. Angels came down to assist them at Badr which were seen by some Companions (On them be peace). Furthermore, we learn that those angels who descended at Badr have higher status than the other angels as they bear a special ensign of Allah Almighty, which distinguishes them from others. In addition, we learn that the service rendered by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the soldiers of Islam is Ibaadat (worship) par excellence as these angels in attendance are superior to other angels. Hence, the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are superior to the rest of the believers as they had been fortunate to serve the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

126. And this (conquest) was cheerful news for you by Allah that your hearts might be satisfied [273]. There is no help except from Allah who is the Most Dominant, the Most Wise.

273. The angels at Badr had not been sent to destroy the disbelievers. This could have been achieved by a single angel as was in the case of the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) etc, but to increase the numbers of your army and to give you assistance. From this we learn that Muslims are dear to Allah Almighty, as He had sent angels for their assistance.

127.That he may cut off a portion of the infidels [274], or overpower them, so that they may go back disappointed [275].

لِيَقْطَعَ طَرَفًا مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا اَوْ يَكْبِتَهُمْ فَيَنْقَلِبُوْا خَآئِبِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۷﴾

Marfat.com

274. From this verse we learn that the disbelievers at Badr turned out to be of three types: those who were put to sword by the Muslims, those who were taken prisoner and those who took to their heels from the battlefield having felt certain of their victory. This is the worst form of disgrace for them.
275. By "go back disappointed" tells us that the disbelievers of Badr would be divided into two groups, the one who would be killed by you like, Abu Jahl, Abu Lahab, Umayya, etc. and the others who would be taking to their heels from the battlefield, disappointed like Abu Sufyan, etc. Many from the second group later became Muslims.

128.This matter is not in your [276] hands, whether He forgives them or punishes them, because they are unjust [277].

276. Reason for its Revelation: The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had cursed the Kuffaar of the well of Maoona who had treacherously taken the Companions and had them martyred. It is regarding this incident that the verse was revealed to stop the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from cursing the disbelievers. If this was the case then the previous Prophets would not have cursed the disbelievers to destroy them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would curse the disbelievers after the ruku of the second raka'at of morning prayer which is known as QUNOOTE NAAZILAH. In terms of this verse QUNOOTE NAAZILAH is annulled.
277. This verse does not mean that Oh My Beloved you have no power to curse the disbelievers to destroy them. What it really means is, that cursing is against the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم high status as he is sent as the mercy unto mankind.

129.And To Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth [278]. He forgives whomsoever He pleases and punishes whomsoever He pleases. And Allah is Forgiving Merciful [279].

278. That is, the entire physical world is known as realm or dominion. By "Whatever is in the heavens" refers to all heavenly creation, while by "Whatever is in the earth" refers to all mundane earthly creations. Souls, etc. are referred to as angelic domain. Because we only come into contact with physical species, mention is generally made of them.
279. It is Allah's prerogative to punish any wrong-doers and forgive any wrong-doers. However, this does not mean he will punish the pious ones, as expounded by Dayanand Sarasvati, because this is both cruel and against promise.

130. O believers! Do not devour interest, doubled and redoubled [280]; and fear Allah, in the hope that you may get prosperity [281].

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَاْكُلُوا الرِّبٰوٓا اَضْعَافًا مُّضٰعَفَةً ۪ وَّاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۰﴾

280. The stipulation of doubled and redoubled interest is incidental because interest,of any rate is unlawful i.e. one and a quarter or one and a half instead of double is equally unlawful. From this we also learn that a sinner does not become a disbeliever due to his sins as the devourers of interest in this verse are addressed as "Oh those who believe." Furthermore, we learn that the takers of interest are greater sinners than the givers of it, hence, 131. And fear the fire, which has been prepared for the infidels.

Marfat.com

132.And obey Allah and his Rasool (Messenger) [282] in the hope that you may be shown mercy.

282. This verse tells us that the order of following Allah and His Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is of equal nature as obedience to both is essential for piety. Obedience of both is compulsory without any excuse.

133.And run [283] towards forgiveness from your Lord and a garden (Paradise) as wide as the heavens and earth [284] is prepared for the pious [285].

283. By "run towards" mean one should hasten towards repentance and offer ones prayers and try to excuse one another in these acts. From this we learn that we should offer our prayers with such sincerity, thinking it to be our last.

284. If the width of paradise is such, how much will its length be. Generally, length of a thing surpasses its width.

285. Although Paradise is created for the pious

134. Who spend money in the way of Allah during prosperity and adversity [286], and who restrain anger and pardon men [287]. And Allah [288] loves those who are virtuous.

286. To give charity on the occasion of marriage as thanksgiving. Similarly, to spend in the way of Allah when receiving bounties is included in the allowance or alimony of prosperity. On the other hand, to spend during the time of bereavement for the sake of ESAALE SAWAAB i.e to convey the rewards of this charity to the souls of the deceased, emphasis is greater on 'him'.

281. One should not be boastful of one's good deeds, rather hope for the acceptance of them and fear for their rejection. Many a ship had drowned in this sea. One should take a lesson from the Devil in this regard i.e. he became a devil because he was proud of his worship.

وَاَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَالرَّسُوْلَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۲﴾

We also learn that remembrance of Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم together is the way of Allah Almighty and as such is no act of polytheism.

وَسَارِعُوْٓا اِلٰى مَغْفِرَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ وَ جَنَّةٍ عَرْضُهَا السَّمٰوٰتُ وَالْاَرْضُ اُعِدَّتْ لِلْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿۱۳۳﴾

people, but some without good deeds, and others with bad deeds, too, will find their way in it due to the mediation of the pious, e.g. the deceased minor Muslim children, and those sinners who will be pardoned through the intercession of the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم "My intercession is for major sinners of my followers."

الَّذِيْنَ يُنْفِقُوْنَ فِي السَّرَّآءِ وَ الضَّرَّآءِ وَالْكٰظِمِيْنَ الْغَيْظَ وَالْعَافِيْنَ عَنِ النَّاسِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۳۴﴾ or to give charity during difficulties as a means of warding off calamaties would be regarded as expenditure of sorrow. Whatever the circumstances both would be spending in the way of Allah.

287. It should be remembered that one can only forgive or overlook the faults with regard to the infringement of one's own rights, the defaulter of Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم cannot be forgiven; an apostate has to be put to death, a thief's hand must be cut off. That is the objective of this verse.

288. Fuzail ibn Ayyaz says that to return kindness with kindness is its true compensation, while returning evil with evil is its punishment. But to do good in exchange of evil is kindness and generosity, and to do evil in exchange of good is wickedness. In this verse mention is made of kindness and generosity and such people are refered to as virtuous.

135. And those who, if they commit indecency or wrong their souls [289] (by transgression) they remember Allah and pray for forgiveness for their sins. And who can forgive anyone's sins save [290] Allah? And they should not persist with what they have done [291], knowingly.

289. By 'indecency' is meant those sins which are punishable in Islam e.g. adultery, theft, etc. and by 'wronged' are those sins whose punishment is not fully defined.e.g. to omit salaah. The repentance of each crime or transgression is different. Also, indecency could refer to major sins and 'wronged' could refer to minor sins or, indecency may refer to those transgressions which, could cause harm to others, while, 'wronged' may refer to transgressions which do not harm others.

290. In this verse there is an invitation for general amnesty for all sinners and transgressors. While the doers of good deeds belong to Allah, so do the sinners and transgressors. Hence, the door of repentance is open to all. It should be remembered that the person concerned can pardon the infringement of the rights of man, but this pardon too is executed through the grace and bounty of Allah. However, the pardon of sin is only obtained through the grace and bounty of Allah. We also learn that no matter how major a sin may be, it can still be forgiven. No one should despair of the mercy of Allah.

291. From this we learn that by persisting at minor sins i.e. not refraining from them, can lead to committing major sins. Furthermore, we learn that obduracy is detrimental to seeking repentance, i.e. continue with both committing sins and seeking repentance. In fact, for the acceptance of repentance it is essential to show regret at the previous sin and a strong intention of not committing it in the future.

Reason for its Revelation: Once a beautiful lady came to purchase date-like sweetmeats from a passionate trader. He lured her in the house by saying that these are not so good, the better ones are in the house. When in the house, he kissed her and embraced her. At this the lady said: "Fear Allah!" On hearing this he left her, and feeling ashamed, came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and related this incident. In response to it, this verse was revealed. It is reported once that there lived two very dear friends. One went on Holy War and the other remained to take care of the house. One day the warrior's wife asked the guardian for meat. When she stretched out her hands to take the meat, he kissed it. Immediately he became ashamed of his wicked deed and he took to the jungle slapping his face and smearing it with dust. When the warrior returned and enquired from his wife about his Ansaari friend she replied:"May Allah give protection from such friends." After finding him the warrior took the friend to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. It is concerning him that these verses are revealed. It is possible that both these incidents could have been the reason for the revelation of this verse (KHAZAINUL IRFAAN).

And if one desires to witness the mercy of Allah, then see those mercy-laden places wherein the friends of Allah are at rest, and which are being beautified through their presence. Furthermore, we come to learn that it is permissible to undertake a journey to such places. Hence, it is permissible to undertake a journey to attend Urs gatherings, etc.

292. By 'then see' is meant Oh disbelievers of Arabia, journey to those lands which were once inhabited by those non-believers who had rebelled against Allah's Prophets and were destroyed through Divine punishment as a result of their opposition. Take heed from their ruined settlements and believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

294. This promise of Allah is indeed genuine and sincere. It is undeserving and insincere people like us who did not comply with these conditions, and thus became humiliated. From this we learn that every Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and especially the Four Guided Caliphs (peace crescent and sometimes a beautiful full moon.

297. From this it is understood that even a defeat for the Muslims is a means of achieving higher status; when victorious, they are military heroes, when slain they are martyrs. Thus defeat is a true test of truth and falsehood.
298. The Holy QUR'AAN has termed both the non-believer and the sinner as unjust. In this verse the word refers to the non-believers, as it is used in opposition to a believer. From this we learn that no matter how much good a non-believer may do, he will not become dear to Allah Almighty because he has rebelled against Allah Almighty.

295. Addressing the believers Allah says, Oh believers if you had sustained hardships in the Battle of Uhud, so had the non-believers suffered similiar fate in the Battle of Badr, but they did not become disgusted or frustrated. اَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ اَنْ تَدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ وَ لَمَّا يَعْلَمِ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ جٰهَدُوْا مِنْكُمْ وَ يَعْلَمَ الصّٰبِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۲﴾

142.Or, do you suppose [300] that you will enter paradise [301] while Allah had not tested your warriors and made those who are steadfast [302].

rewarded with Paradise like the minor Muslim children, who will be going to Paradise because of their parents, or like us, though we are sinners but the intercession and blessings of our ever merciful and kind Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will take us to Paradise. Says Allah Almighty: "We joined them with their off-spring" (S52:V21). Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.
302. Ala-Hazrat (May Allah be pleased with him) denotes the meaning of knowledge as test, trial and error so that it should be understood that by this knowledge is meant general knowledge, which is acquired through

300. This verse is in the form of a question i.e. do not presuppose or distrust. It does not mean that the Noble Companions had this supposition or belief because they were totally protected from any erroneous beliefs.
301. The stay of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) in Paradise was for the purpose of education and blessing that he should sent to world in the manner he was taught, while our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم going to Paradise on the Night of Me'raj was for the purpose of affirmation. It should be remembered that Paradise in this verse denotes going there for a purpose. Some will be trial and error and experimentation. The knowledge of Allah Almighty or Divine knowledge is ancient and eternal knowledge. Hence, the verse is crystal clear in meaning. From this it is understood that those who took to their heels at Uhud are entitled to be reprimanded but their forgiveness has been made known and anyone who now criticizes their action would be the rejecters of the Holy QUR'AAN.

143.And certainly you longed for death before you met it [303]. Now you have certainly seen it with your own eyes.

وَ لَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ تَمَنَّوْنَ الْمَوْتَ مِنْ قَبْلِ
اَنْ تَلْقَوْهُ ص فَقَدْ رَاَيْتُمُوْهُ وَاَنْتُمْ
تَنْظُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۴۳﴾ ع ۱۴ ع ۱۵

303. By this is meant those Companions who could not participate in the Battle of Badr were full of regret and desirous of participating in future battles. But in the Battle of Uhud their feet were uprooted i.e. they took to flight. This verse gives a hint that one should not wish for death as it appears in the Hadith.

SECTION 15

144. And Muhammad is but a Messenger [304]. There have been many other Messengers before [305] him. So if he was to die or is slain, would you turn back on your [306] heels? And who turns back on his heels will never find Allah at all [307], but Allah will reward the grateful [308].

وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ اِلَّا رَسُوْلٌ ج قَدْ خَلَتْ
مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ ط اَفَاۡئِنْ مَّاتَ اَوْ
قُتِلَ انْقَلَبْتُمْ عَلٰٓى اَعْقَابِكُمْ ط وَمَنْ
يَّنْقَلِبْ عَلٰى عَقِبَيْهِ فَلَنْ يَّضُرَّ اللّٰهَ
شَيْـًٔا ط وَ سَيَجْزِى اللّٰهُ الشّٰكِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۴﴾

304. The word 'only' is used for limitation which means he is only a Messenger not God, while being eternal is the attribute of Allah Almighty alone. This does not necessarily mean that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not possess any other qualities besides prophethood. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the intercessor of sinners, mercy unto worlds, etc. Allah Almighty has blessed him with qualities and attributes, which are beyond our imagination.

305. Whether they are deceased or alive but their prophethood may be abrogated and they may have disappeared from the apparent eyes of people, like Hazrat Idrees (On whom be peace), Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), Hazrat Ilyas (On whom be peace), Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace). For this reason Allah Almighty did not use the word death in this verse.Thus it would be wrong to use this verse as a proof for Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) death.

306. By "turn back" means give up Islam. This verse was revealed at the time when the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم martyrdom was rumoured in the Battle of Uhud and the hypocrites were trying to impress upon the new converts that the one who was the centre of joy and elegance i.e. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is 'dead' and as such you should go back to your old religion. In refuting their suggestions Allah Almighty says that the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does not mark the end of Religion.

307. For Islam will remain forever. Islam is not dependent on anybody, everyone is in need of Islam. This can be seen from the fact that when the leaders of Quraish showed disdainful airs they were moved aside and the poor people of Madina were chosen to propagate and spread Islam.

"If you so desire, an insignificant can reach great heights, Can I turn to another Prophet if thou be displeased with me?"
308. It refers to those Companions who displayed resolute steadfastness in the Battle of Uhud. From this we learn that the steadfast and resolute Companions are all thankful of the highest order while those who retreated have been forgiven by Allah Almighty. Hence, all Companions are beloved of Allah Almighty but their status is different.

145. No soul can die except by permission of Allah, the time of which is already [309] recorded. And whoso desires the reward of the world [310] We give him this. And whoso desires the reward of the Hereafter We shall bestow him of this [311]. And We shall reward the grateful.

309. From this we learn that deserting from the battlefield is a terrible act for this will not save you from death, while you will not die if you are steadfast and resolute.
310. By 'reward of the world' means those who participate in the battle in the hope of acquiring booty only, will not receive any reward in the Hereafter as worldly comforts and peace become the reward of their participation. This does not necessarily mean that the comforts of the world will be there for certain. Hence, there can be no objection raised about the verse.
311. By 'rewarded of the Hereafter' means those who participate in the battle with the view of acquiring the Hereafter will be rewarded with this world and the Hereafter because the verse does not negate the rewarding of the world.

146.And how many a prophet fought [312], with him fought many godly men [313]. But they never lost assurance due to what afflicted them in the cause of Allah, nor did they weaken or give in [314]. And Allah [315] loves the steadfast.

312. Holy War commenced from the time of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) as he was the first Prophet to wage holy war. Thereafter holy war was practised in the Shariah of many Prophets.
313. By "Godly men" means saints and pious people who try to engage themselves to seek the pleasure of Allah Almighty. In the terminology of the Sufis and saints, Men of God are those who become the ardent lovers and followers of His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Says Allah Almighty: "Whoso obeys the Messenger, indeed obeyed Allah Almighty" (S4: V20) and He further says: "Then follow me, Allah Almighty will love you" (S3 : V31)
314. i.e. Your Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the leader of all the Prophets and you being better than the previous people (Ummah) your bravery and steadfastness should be better than theirs.
From this, two issues emerge:
1. Those who are better should be better in their virtues. They should excel their inferiors in good deeds. Leaders, the learned and the saints should be more pious than the others.
2. To inspire others through speaking and showing the deeds of others is the way of Allah

Marfat.com

Almighty. In fact, to acquire historical information with the intention of receiving inspiration is a good thing.

315. Those who are firm in their devotion and obedience are among those who are patient,

147. And they uttered nothing [316] more than this prayer: "O our Lord, forgive our sins and everything we have done in excess in our matters and make firm [317] our steps and help us against these disbelieving people"[318].

وَ مَا كَانَ قَوْلَهُمْ اِلَّآ اَنْ قَالُوْا رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْلَنَا ذُنُوْبَنَا وَ اِسْرَافَنَا فِيْٓ اَمْرِنَا وَ ثَبِّتْ اَقْدَامَنَا وَانْصُرْنَا عَلَى الْقَوْمِ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۷﴾

316. By 'them' is meant Prophets as they are innocent and free from sins and extravagance. To call themselves sinful by these pious people was on account of their modesty and humility. The real beauty is when man calls himself sinful and Allah Almighty refers to him as pious.

317. So that we can oppose the non-believers with all our might. It should be remembered that steadfastness and resoluteness in the battle is obtained through the special Grace of Allah Almighty and not from equipment and numerical strength.

318. From this a few issues emerge:

so are those who abstain from sins and are unshaken in the face of difficulties. Patience is of different kinds. In this verse the third type is intended, as is being understood from place and time.

1. One should offer prayer (dua) at the time of Jihad (holy war) because like Salaah and Fasting, Jihad is also Ibadat (an act of worship) and dua with such acts is preferable.
2. Before making dua one should seek repentance for one's sins, like reciting the praises of Allah Almighty and reciting Darood Shareef, as these are complimentary acts for dua.
3. At the time of battle do not rely on the military equipment and numerical strength, but rather on the Grace of Allah Almighty.
4. No pious person should boast about his piety and thereby forget Allah Almighty.

148.So Allah gave them a reward of this world [319], and the excellent reward of the Hereafter. And the good doers are dear to Allah [320].

فَاٰتٰىهُمُ اللّٰهُ ثَوَابَ الدُّنْيَا وَ حُسْنَ ثَوَابِ الْاٰخِرَةِ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۸﴾ ع ۱۵ ۶

319. The reward of the world is victory and success while the reward of the Hereafter is Paradise and forgiveness of one's sins. From this we learn that the reward of the Hereafter is far greater than material bounties, the word "goodness" is given preference here, also, those who serve their Religion are rewarded with the bounties of the world as well.

320. How beautiful it is that these pious people call themselves sinful and their Lord refers to them as graceful and beneficient! So, to express modesty and humility is an act of piety of the highest order.

SECTION 16

149. O you who believe! If you follow [321] the line of the infidels they will drive you back on your heels and you will (then) become losers [322].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اِنْ تُطِيْعُوا الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا يَرُدُّوْكُمْ عَلٰٓى اَعْقَابِكُمْ فَتَنْقَلِبُوْا خٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۹﴾

321. This verse excludes the obedience which Muslims subjects show to non-Muslim rulers, as this is not part of religious obedience, and worldly obedience is not shown willingly, but through compulsion. It should be remembered that the word non-believers, here, refers to all non-believers, whether they be polytheists or Nasara and Yahud or their flatterers, hypocrites.

322. This verse is full of admonition. If this is said about the Noble Companions who enjoy the highest status in the entire Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , then what is our position. Thus, nobody should regard his faith to be unwavering and thereby seek companionship with the non-believers. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) being the Prophet of Allah Almighty and staying in a protected and safe place like Paradise, could be tricked and misled by the devil, then we can be easy prey to devilish tricks because we are neither innocent, nor is this world a safe place. It is incumbent upon the Muslims to remain aloof from the disbelivers, and that they should not act blindly on their advice. If they do this they will certainly fall prey to their treachery.

150. But Allah is your Protector, and He is the best helper [323].

بَلِ اللّٰهُ مَوْلٰىكُمْ ۚ وَهُوَ خَيْرُ النّٰصِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۵۰﴾

323. Therefore we should be obedient to Allah Almighty. Everybody is obedient to his master, so why not be obedient to Allah Almighty.

151.Soon We shall cast terror [324] in the hearts of the infidels for what they have associated with Allah of which He had not sent down (any) authority. And their refuge will be Hell, and wretched is the abode of the unjust.

324. In this verse there is a prophecy. When Abu Sufyaan was returning after the Battle of Uhud a thought came to him that why did he and his men return without destroying i.e. slaying all the Muslims, as this was an ideal opportunity. But while returning, they were inclined to accept that the fear of the Muslims had gripped their hearts to such an extent that they all fled to Makkah. Allah Almighty's promise is most certainly true. If Muslims can remain true to Allah Almighty, their fear will remain in the hearts of the disbelievers until the Day of Judgement. It is our bad deeds, which result in our humiliation and downfall. Says Allah Almigthy: "And dispute not with one another, otherwise you will show timidity, and your tried strength will depart from you" (S8:V46).

152. And surely Allah fulfilled the promise [325] to you when you were killing the infidels by His permission until when you showed weakness and quarreled [326] about the order and disobeyed after He had shown you that which you desired [327]. Of you, some desired the Hereafter [328]. Then he turned your faces from them that He might test you; and no doubt He forgave [329] you, and Allah is the possessor of bounty over the believers.

325. i.e.The promise which Allah Almighty made of victory, He had said: "You are the very same who shall overcome if you have faith" (S3:V139). He had also said: "If there will be twenty of you patient, they will overcome two hundred" (S8:V65). That promise was fulfilled in the Battle of Uhud when you were made to overpower the disbelievers. Then you had left the Uhud Pass in your desire to gain the booty, seeing which the enemy returned and attacked and this changed victory into defeat. This defeat is due to your own error, not the breaking of Allah Almighty's promise.

326. Weakness means you became drawn towards the spoils of war, and the desire for wealth is indeed a cause of showing weakness, while quarrel refers to disobeying the order of your leader Hazrat Abdullah bin Jabeer (On whom be peace) not to desert the Pass of Uhud yet, you did not obey him and left your position to grab the war booty, although it is incumbent on you to obey your leader.

327. This refers to the enemy taking to their heels, and your over powering them, because the disbelievers in the Battle of Uhud had initially fled from the battlefield. Only after seeing the Pass unprotected, did the enemy attack from behind, which changed the entire picture of the war.

328. Those who left their position in pursuit of the war booty were the seekers of wordly possessions like these Companions of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Jabeer (On whom be peace) who were placed to guard the Pass of Uhud, while those who remained firmly at their post with their leader ibn Jabeer and were martyred, were the seekers of the Hereafter. It is important to know that, here, the word 'world' does not denote the world, which is in opposition to Religion as this is contemptible. On the contrary, if booty is sought through unlawfull means then this is seeking the world, but if it is sought by lawful means then it is a religious act, and part of military procedure.

329. "He forgave you" tells us that those believers who fled from the battlefield of Uhud have been forgiven. Thus, if anyone describes this incident with the intention of degrading them is bereft of Faith. Likewise Hazrat Adam's (On whom be peace) eating of the wheat, too, is forgiven by Allah Almighty, and if anyone tries to reproach him, such a person is a disbeliever. In fact, any fault of those whose forgiveness is declared by Allah Almighty is far better than our obedience as we are not sure of its acceptance.

الرَّسُوْلُ يَدْعُوْكُمْ فِيْٓ اُخْرٰىكُمْ فَاَثَابَكُمْ
غَمًّا بِغَمٍّ لِّكَيْلَا تَحْزَنُوْا عَلٰى مَا فَاتَكُمْ
وَلَا مَآ اَصَابَكُمْ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ خَبِيْرٌۢ بِمَا
تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۳﴾

153. (Remember) When you (fled) and climbed (the hill) and did not look back [330] towards anyone and Our Messenger [331] was calling you from behind (at Uhud) so Allah repaid you with sorrow after sorrow [332] so you would grieve [333] for that which escaped you (of victory and spoils of war) or (for) that which had befallen you (of injury and death). And Allah is fully aware of your [334] doings.

330. When the non-believers at Uhud attacked the Muslims from behind, the Muslims fled from the battlefield out of fear. But the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and some of his Noble Companions stood their ground resolutely. They were calling upon the fleeing Muslims to return to the battlefield, but due to fear and agitation his voice could not reach them. This verse refers to the above incident. Hence, the Battle of Uhud cannot in reality be regarded as a defeat for the Muslims. Defeat is only regarded when the general of the army flees from the battlefield.

331. From this, emerge two issues:

1. The action of the Companions is the action of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم for those who were calling were the Companions but it is being said that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was calling them.
2. These verses which are mentioned, do not call anyone besides Allah Almighty, actually means do not worship anyone besides Allah Almighty. Otherwise, in times of difficulty it is permissible to call upon Allah Almighty's servants for help, as was the case in the above incident in which help was sought from the servants of Allah Almigthy.

332. By Allah Almighty means that since you gave grief to our Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم We gave you sorrow of defeat. From this, emerge three issues:

1. At times the mistake of the few can place everybody into difficulty because the leaving of the Pass by a group of archers caused the defeat of the Muslims.
2. Allah Almighty censures His beloved servants on their slightest error, e.g. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was censured on his minor error.
3. Reprimand and wordly discomforts become a source of their atonement, as they will be totally in the clear in the Hereafter.

333. This declaration of forgiveness served as a balm to your injured hearts, as due to its happiness, some of you were martyred, some were wounded, forgetting all your sorrows.

334. By "informed" means Allah is well informed of your deeds and intentions. Allah Almighty was fully aware that those Companions who fled from the battlefield did not do so out of mean intention, but it was an error on their part.

154. Then after distress He sent down to you [335] security (in the form of) slumber that had surrounded the faction of you [336], while other factions were anxious about themselves, thinking of Allah unjustly [337]. The suspicion due to ignorance, saying: "And have we any power [338] in this affair?" Please declare: "The governance of their affairs is entirely in the hands of Allah". They conceal in their hearts what they dare not reveal [339] to you. They say: "If we had any power, than we would not have been killed here [340]. Please declare: "Even if you had remained in your homes, those for whom death had been decreed would have gone to the place of slaughter" [341]. (It was) So that Allah might test what is in your breasts [342], and whatever is in your hearts might purge it. Allah knows well the secrets of your hearts [343].

335. This is one of the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that despite their extreme anxiety the Companions on the battlefield of Uhud were overpowered by sleep to such an extent that weapons were falling out of their hands. Calm and tranquility had descended upon them. From this we learn that during sorrow and calamity, Allah Almighty provides His true servants with peace and tranquility. Even now, such feelings are experienced.

336. On that day there was a difference in sleep between the believers and the hypocrites. Those who were drowsy were the believers because through the Grace of Allah Almighty their hearts were at ease, while those experiencing anxiety were the hypocrites because they were bereft of peace.

337. By "suspected unjustly" means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is martyred and as such Islam would come to an end, and Allah Almighty would not be helping the Muslims

338. This is a negative question i.e. we participated in the Battle of Uhud against our will. If it was within our power we would never have taken part in it. This is explained in the verse. "If we had any power". From this we learn that if we have to endure difficulties in doing religious work we should bear it with patience, which is the true quality of a believer, while showing impatience through meaningless complaints is the sign of hypocrites.

339. The hypocrites were under the impression that Allah Almighty's promise to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about the conquest of Makkah is false. If it was true the victory at Uhud should have been theirs. But they could not say this openly out of fear for the Muslims.

340. This nonsensical talk was by Abdullah ibn Ubay, the chief of the hypocrites that they had come to fight the non-believers against their wishes. Had we not come, our men would not have been slain.

341. Just as the time of death is pre-ordained, so is its place. In whatever manner and in whichever place a person is to die is pre-arranged.

342. From this emerge two issues:

1. To participate and fight in the Battle of Uhud was the sign of believers, while not taking part in it, or quietly deserting from the battlefield to their homes was the sign of disbelievers and hypocrites e.g. Abdullah ibn Ubay taking three hundred companions of his from the battlefield.

2. Tests and tribulations are not for Allah Almighty's knowledge but to make man aware of the true situation so that he is not deceived in any way. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty says: "Allah Almighty knows the thoughts of your hearts" (S3:V154)

343. From this emerge two issues:

1. Defeat or victory, as well as other forms of difficulties on the battlefield are a test for the Muslims to distinguish between truth and falsehood, to determine who is sincere and who is a hypocrite.

2. This distinction is not for Allah Almighty's knowledge as He is All Knowing. He knows the thoughts in the hearts of man, but for the knowledge of man. Hence, difficulty, too, is part of Divine wisdom.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَوَلَّوْا مِنْكُمْ يَوْمَ الْتَقَى الْجَمْعٰنِ ۙ إِنَّمَا اسْتَزَلَّهُمُ الشَّيْطٰنُ بِبَعْضِ مَا كَسَبُوْا ۚ وَلَقَدْ عَفَا اللّٰهُ عَنْهُمْ ۗ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ حَلِيْمٌ ﴿١٥٥﴾ ع ١٦

155. No doubt those of you who turned back [344] on the day when two armies met [345]. It was Shaitaan who made them slip [346] because of their certain actions [347], and surely Allah forgave them [348]. Verily Allah is Most Forgiving, Gentle [349].

344. In the Battle of Uhud, only fourteen Companions, which included Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq, Hazrat Umar Farooq, Hazrat Ali Murtaza, (May Allah be pleased with them) stood firm with the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم while the rest of the Companions fled from the battlefield (KHAZAINULIRFAAN)

345 In this verse there is a hint about the Battle of Uhud. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم had placed 50 Companions to the Uhud Pass under the leadership of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Jabeer (On whom be peace) with the firm instruction to remain there at all times until they were asked to leave their post. The very first attack of the Muslim repulsed the non-believers who fled from the battlefield. On seeing this the archers at the Pass left their position to gather the spoils of war despite Hazrat Abdullah's (On whom be peace) pleas of not to leave the pass. These people were under the impression that since Muslims have gained victory it was useless remaining at their post any longer. When the fleeing Kuffaar saw the Pass unprotected, they rearranged themselves and attacked the Muslims from behind which completely changed the picture of the battle, the above verse relates to this incident.

346. From this, emerge two issues:

1. The fleeing of the Companions from the battlefield is not an act of sin as Allah Almighty has referred to it as an error on their part which had taken place unintentionally as was the case with Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) regarding whom Allah Almighty had said: "And the devil had made them slip." Similar words are used here.

2. The devil cannot mislead the chosen servants of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt, those who are my bondsmen, you have no control over them" (S17:V65). However they too can be deceived. He can make them to err, as was the case with Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace). Hence, this verse is not in opposition to the above quoted verse.

347. By "their certain actions" means the archers left the Uhud Pass due to misunderstanding. From this incident we learn that sometimes a minor error can cause a major problem.

348. Allah Almighty be praised! What a beautiful declaration. May our obedience be sacrificed on the errors of these pious people. May Allah Almighty forgive our sins for the sake of these pious people (Ahmed Yaar). This means Allah Almighty has forgiven their error. After this declaration if any person tries to bring these Companions into disrepute, he is undoubtedly bereft of Faith.

349. It should be remembered that the error of the archers was to leave the Pass, while the error of those who fled from the battlefield was not remaining steadfast. The first error is mentioned in "because of their certain actions" (S3 : V155) and the second error is mentioned in "those of you who turned back" and in "And surely Allah Almighty forgave them" (S3: V155). Thus forgiveness of both errors is mentioned in the verse. May Allah Almighty forgive a sinner like myself, too, through the grace of these pious people. From this we learn that sometimes the error of one can have a direct influence on others, e.g. the error of the archers became the cause of the fleeing of the others.

156.O you who believe! Be not like the infidels who said about their brothers [350] when they travelled through the land or went out for holy war, that had they been with us, they would not have died [351] and not have been slain, in order that Allah may make it a cause of rejection in their hearts [352]. And Allah gives life and causes death [353]. And Allah sees what you do.

يُحْيٖ وَ يُمِيْتُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ بَصِيْرٌ ﴿۱۵۶﴾

350. In this verse the word "infidels" refers to undisguised infidels, while "their brothers" refers to the hypocrites (disguised believers). The infidels would express regret at the participation of the hypocrites in the battle against their wishes and getting slain on the battlefield. The word "infidels" could also refer to the hypocrites while "their brothers" could mean true believers who were related to these hypocrites. From this, emerge two issues:

1. The undisguised infidels and the hypocrites are birds of a feather.
2. It is incumbent upon the Muslims not to copy the infidels in their manner of speech. They should be above them in their habits, deeds and appearance. Nor should they utter words of impatience.

351. From this we learn that ifs and buts and words of excuses are the distinguishing features of non-believers. A believer remains firm on Allah Almighty's decisions and is resigned to His will. These distinguishing factors of the two will always be prevalent.

352. From this verse we learn that those who are not grateful and patient about Allah Almighty's decision will always experience more sorrows and difficulties. Patience and gratitude are means of obtaining peace and tranquility. Greater involvement in the affairs of the world tends to harden the occurrence of death while inclination towards the Hereafter lessens the burden of death. It is for this reason that the demise of the saints is referred to as Wisaal (meeting with Allah Almighty) or Urs (communion with Allah Almighty).

353. In reality, Allah Almighty is the giver of life and death. However, metaphorically such powers are assigned to the pious servants of Allah e.g. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) says: "I give life to the dead, with the permission of Allah Almighty" (S3 : V 49).

157. And what if you are slain in the Cause of Allah or die [354], then the forgiveness from Allah and (His) mercy is better than their entire wealth [355]

وَ لَئِنْ قُتِلْتُمْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اَوْ مُتُّمْ لَمَغْفِرَةٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَ رَحْمَةٌ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا يَجْمَعُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۷﴾

354. By "dying in the path of Allah Almighty" means to die while being engaged in doing Allah Almighty's work. To die while making Zikr of Allah Almighty, being in the state of worship, being engaged in educational work constitute dying in the path of Allah Almighty. All this will result in receiving divine forgiveness.

355. The word "better" means dying in the path of Allah Almighty is far greater than the entire wealth accumulated by the infidels. It should be remembered that the earnings of the infidels is not better, but it is called like this according to their king i.e. that wealth which they think to be good, this is better than that.

158.And if you die or are slain, certainly you are to gather before Allah [356].

356. In this verse three catogeries of slave is mentioned. Some worship Allah Almighty out of fear of Hell, regarding them the QUR'AAN says:"Then the forgiveness of Allah" (S3:V157). Some worship Allah Almighty out of greed for Paradise; regarding them the words "and mercy" is used, while the third group worships Allah Almighty out of sincerity and love regarding them Allah Almighty says: "you are to be raised towards Him" (S8:V24) (Vide Roohul Mu'ani; Khazainul Irfaan).

159. (O Beloved) It is by the Mercy of Allah that you (Beloved Prophet) are so gentle to them. Had you been severe and hard-hearted, they would have dispersed from your circle. So pardon [357] them and intercede for them and consult them in the affairs [358]. And when you have decided, then put your trust in Allah. Surely, Allah loves those who put their trust in Allah [359].

357 Praise be to Allah Almighty! After forgiving them, Allah Almighty Himself is recommending them to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم forgiveness and to bring them closer to Allah Almighty.

358. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas says that this verse was revealed in honour of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Umar (On whom be peace) that their advice should be sought. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says that Allah Almighty had commanded him to be in consultation with Hazrat Abu Bakr and Hazrat Umar (On whom be peace).

(Vide; Hakim; Sawaiqe Muharriqah). From this we learn that these two are the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم chief ministers.

359. From this emerge two issues:
1. It is the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to seek advice and act upon it in matters of property and material affairs.
2. Consultation and acting thereon in matters of property etc. are not going against trust in Allah Almighty. A believer places his trust in Allah Almighty alone. Hence, acting upon the above is from the command of Allah Almighty.

اِنْ يَّنْصُرْكُمُ اللّٰهُ فَلَا غَالِبَ لَكُمْ ۚ وَاِنْ يَّخْذُلْكُمْ فَمَنْ ذَا الَّذِيْ يَنْصُرُكُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِهٖ ۗ وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۰﴾

160.If Allah helps you, then no one can overpower you [360], but if He should forsake you, then who is there to help [361] you? And the Muslims [362] should have trust in Allah [363].

360. If you desire Allah Almighty's help then place your trust in Him. When He sends His help, the entire world can be on one side, His help will prevail over all.

361. By this is meant after He has disgraced and forsaken you, and not after Allah Almighty Himself.

362. The pious sages of Islam have described three signs of Trust in Allah: Man should not regard anyone besides Allah "That Almighty to be his true helper", he should not regard anyone else as the provider of his sustenance beside Allah Almighty; he should not make anyone the object of his knowledge besides Allah Almighty. This type of trust is the means of obtaining limitless status in Paradise.

363. From this we learn that when Allah Almighty showers His grace, then only will people begin to assist you, Hence, assistance of man is, in reality, assistance from Allah Almighty. Thus, this verse is a commentary of the above verses. Says Allah Almighty: "And beside Allah, you have neither any supporter nor helper" (S2:V107).

وَ مَا كَانَ لِنَبِيٍّ اَنْ يَّغُلَّ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّغْلُلْ يَاْتِ بِمَا غَلَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ۚ ثُمَّ تُوَفّٰى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّا كَسَبَتْ وَ هُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۱﴾

161. It cannot be thought of any prophet that he hides away something [364] (of the booty). But, whoso conceals anything, on the Day of Resurrection, He will bring it to light. Then every soul shall be paid [365] in full what it had earned. And there shall be no injustice done unto them [366].

364. "Hides away" refers to that breach of trust in respect of embezzling war booty.

Reason for its Revelation:

During one battle a sheet was lost from the war booty upon which the hypocrites were insinuating that the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلمmay have kept it for himself. To refute this insinuation, this verse was revealed. From this, emerge four issues:

1. Before distribution of the war booty, breach of trust is a criminal act.
2. All prophets are free of sin - the relation between sin and prophethood is like that between light and darkness.
3. Suspicion and distrust in respect of Prophets is the work of hypocrites, and is an act of apostasy.
4. Prophets are such beloveds of Allah Almighty that He Himself clears them of people's accusations and suspicions to prove their innocence.

365. Prophets are there to serve those who are entangled in sinful and evil activities. If they entangle themselves, who will free them, hence breach of trust is impossible from a Prophet.

366. By 'injustice' is meant Allah Almighty will neither decrease the reward of their good deeds nor increase the punishment of their evil deeds, nor will anyone be punished without committing a crime.

162. So is he who follows the pleasure of Allah [367] like one who brings upon himself the wrath of Allah, [368] and whose abode is Hell. And what a wretched place is that to return to.

367. By this is meant people like the Muhajireen, the Ansaar, and the true believers who had acquired correct beliefs and did good deeds to gain the pleasure of Allah Almighty.

368. This refers to hypocrites and non-believers who gained displeasure of Allah Almighty. These two groups are not the same. Believers hypocrites, non-believers, and the sincere people are indeed different from one another.

163. They will be in different ranks [369] by Allah. And Allah sees whatever they do.

369. Everybody's destination and status is separate. The place of the pious is separate from the place of evil doers.

لَقَدْ مَنَّ اللّٰهُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اِذْ بَعَثَ فِيْهِمْ رَسُوْلًا مِّنْ اَنْفُسِهِمْ يَتْلُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتِهٖ وَ يُزَكِّيْهِمْ وَ يُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ وَ الْحِكْمَةَ ۚ وَ

164.Certainly Allah conferred (great) favour [370] upon the believers that He sent a Messenger [371] from amongst them who recites to them the Verses and purifies [372] them and teaches them the Book and wisdom [373],

Marfat.com

اِنْ كَانُوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ لَفِيْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ﴿۱۶۴﴾

And previous to that they were clearly in error.

370. From this verse we learn that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم coming into this world is the greatest favour of Allah Almighty from all His bounties, because the word MANNA is not used anywhere else in the QUR'AAN in respect of His other bounties. The reason for this is all other bounties are temporary while Imaan is permanent which we have received through the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the bounty among all bounties. When our hands, feet, etc. will complain to Allah Almighty for their misuse, then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will intercede on our behalf to Allah Almighty. Hence, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the absolute bounty of Allah Almighty.

371. The word 'Messenger' in this verse indicates that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prophethood is universal, and not restricted to time, place, people, as the word Messenger is used here in a general sense without any restrictions. In some recitation, the letter 'Fa' of ANFUSIHIM takes a fatha on this letter to mean that the Holy Prophet's (Peace be upon him) creation is from the best family for he is a Quraishi, Hashimi, Mutallabi which geneologically is the highest and most superior family lineage. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an Arab and geneologically, most superior to all.

372. The word 'purity' indicates that purity can only be achieved through pious deeds. Purity can be achieved through the gracious attention and closeness to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Good deeds are seeds, the blessed attention of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم serves as the merciful water. Without water the seeds will die, just as Shaitaan's entire worship became null and void because it was devoid of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم graceful attention. Hence, no one can become pious or saintly by remaining aloof from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

373. From this, emerge two issues:

1. To understand the QUR'AAN you need the Hadith because the Holy QUR'AAN is the word of Allah Almighty, the Hadith provides the wisdom to understand it. Hence, both are separate entities, complementing one another.
2. One cannot understand the Holy QUR'AAN according to ones own thinking and personal knowledge, as its knowledge is too complex. Hence, Allah Almighty sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for this purpose. Only a Superior teacher and instructor can teach the superior Book, while Allah Himself taught the QUR'AAN to His Messenger , as the QUR'AAN states:"The Most Affectionate, taught the QUR'AAN to his Beloved" (S55:V 1-2)

اَوَلَمَّآ اَصَابَتْكُمْ مُّصِيْبَةٌ قَدْ اَصَبْتُمْ مِّثْلَيْهَا ۙ قُلْتُمْ اَنّٰى هٰذَا ؕ قُلْ هُوَ مِنْ عِنْدِ اَنْفُسِكُمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿۱۶۵﴾

165. Why (is it that) when any calamity befalls you (on the day of Uhud) although double of which you had caused to reach [374] (upon them) you said: "From where is this?" Please declare: "It is from your side". Indeed, Allah has power to do everything [375].

374. From the word "double" we learn that if seventy Muslims were martyred in the Battle of Uhud than in the previous Battle of Badr seventy disbelievers were killed by the Muslims And seventy were taken prisoner. If this did not deter the Kuffar who declared war on you after a year, then why are you disheartened? From this we learn that it is an excellent method to instill zeal and inspire people from the courageous deeds of others.

375. In the terminology of the QUR'AAN the word "everything" means everything known, everything in existence and everything possible. In "Creator of everything" refers to everything in existence; "He has knowledge about everything" here " everything" denotes knowledge of everything possible, everything incumbent, everything difficult and impossible, while in 'He has absolute power over evertything', the word everything refers to everything possible. Hence, to use this for substantiating the issue of possibility of a lie in respect of Allah Almighty is totally absurd because any form of lie is an impossibility in respect of Allah Almighty's personality. For a detailed clarification and explanation of this issue refer to Tafseer Naeemi.

166. And what struck you on the day when two armies [376] met (at Uhud) was by Allah's leave [377] that He might make the believers distinguished.

اللّٰهِ وَ لِيَعْلَمَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۙ﴿۱۶۶﴾

376. The apparent defeat that you suffered at Uhud was in accordance with Divine will and reason. The errors of the pious too occur with the permission of Allah Almighty. In it there was divine wisdom.

377. From this we learn that the errors of those who are close to Allah Almighty take place through Allah Almighty's permission and are based on numerous forms of wisdom. The coming into existence of the entire universe was due to one error of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace). Their errors are far greater than our obedience. (The leaving of the Pass of Uhud was an error on the part of the Noble Companions placed in charge to protect it). But, Allah Almighty refers to it as Divine permission. In it were two considerations which are described ahead.

167.And that He might make one to distinguish the hypocrites [378] who were told: "Come and fight in the way of Allah or (at least) drive out the enemy" [379]. They said, "Had we known how to fight we would have sided (with) you". They were nearer to disbelief that day then expressed [380] faith, saying with mouths what was not in their hearts [381]. And Allah knows what they concealed.

وَلِيَعْلَمَ الَّذِيْنَ نَافَقُوْا ۖۚ وَقِيْلَ لَهُمْ
تَعَالَوْا قَاتِلُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اَوِ ادْفَعُوْا ؕ
قَالُوْا لَوْ نَعْلَمُ قِتَالًا لَّا اتَّبَعْنٰكُمْ ؕ هُمْ
لِلْكُفْرِ يَوْمَئِذٍ اَقْرَبُ مِنْهُمْ لِلْاِيْمَانِ ۚ

قُلُوْبِهِمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَكْتُمُوْنَ ۚ﴿۱۶۷﴾

378. The defeat at Uhud is, in reality, a test for the believers and hypocrites. Those who remained steadfast on the battlefield were true believers, while those who made insulting comments are hypocrites. Allah Almighty be praised! Even the error of the Companions serve as a criterion to distinguish between believers and hypocrites. Now, if any wretch were to speak of them in insulting terms he is a hypocrite, while those who hold these Noble Companions in honour are believers. Thus, this battle will remain until Judgement Day as a criterion to distinguish between a believer and a non-believer.

379. From this we learn that to fight on the battlefield, too, is an act of worship, and to stand resolutely against the enemies so that they do not launch an attack is also an act of worship, and to refrain from participating in the battle without a valid reason, when needed, is a sign of a hypocrite. Also making false excuses like, having no experience about military matters etc. are also signs of hypocrites. Muslims should refrain from such things.

380. Their faith is a mere external expression, while they are whole heartedly disbelievers. Inner expressions are however firmer than outward expressions. Superficially these hypocrites are nearer to the Muslims, but inwardly they are in cohoots with the disbelievers. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. From this we learn that Allah Almighty's spiritual nearness is closer than physical closeness. Abu Jahl, though physically near to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم remained distant because of his apostasy, while Hazrat Uwais Qarni (On whom be peace) though physically distant from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was spiritually closer to him because of his faith.

381. Outwardly these hypocrites were saying that they knew nothing about military matters yet their actual reason was not to make enemies with the non-believers and let the Muslims be destroyed by these non-believers. Such types of hypocrites are always found in the midst of Muslims and will always continue to be in their group.

168.Those who said about their brothers [382] while they themselves remained behind, "If they had obeyed us, they would not have been killed." Please declare: "Then avert your own death, if you are truthful" [383].

382. In this verse "brothers" refers to those who are connected through family ties, not ones religious brothers. The martyrs of Uhud were staunch believers, while these people were hypocrites. The worthless prattle of the hypocrites was not an expression of regret, but in the form of reproach and taunting. In reality, they were always happy to see Muslims in difficulties.

383. It is found in TAFSEER KHAZAIN- UL IRFAAN that the day on which Abdullah bin Ubay, the chief of the hypocrites, uttered these words, 70 hypocrites were slained.

169. And those that have been slain in the path of Allah [384] never think of them [385] as dead, but they are alive with their Lord, from Whom they get their subsistence [386].

وَ لَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ قُتِلُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اَمْوَاتًا ؕ بَلْ اَحْيَآءٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ يُرْزَقُوْنَ ۙ﴿۱۶۹﴾

384. In this verse five qualities of martyrs are outlined; they enjoy eternal life; they are by Allah Almighty; they continue to receive their sustenance; they are fully aware of the end result of the world and its inmates; the youth; the healthy; the free person enjoy fuller life; the foetus; the new born babies, those in the state of sleep; those who are ill; and those in prison experience imperfect life. Every faculty of strength of the martyrs is of the highest order, and they are alive to the fullest extent. The Tanween on the Hamza of AHYAA-UN is used for the purpose of respect. The soul of the martyr is in captivity while in this world, but after martyrdom reaches Madina within a single step.

385. Although this verse was revealed to honour the martyrs of Uhud, it serves as a proof that every martyr until the Day of Judgement will enjoy eternal life, because the diction of the passage is common, without any form of restriction. From this we learn that the bodies and spirits of the martyrs are both alive. For this reason their bodies do not decay in the grave which has been witnessed on many occasions. Of course, their form of life is beyond our common sense. Therefore certain duties after death become applicable to them. Detailed discussion on the life of martyrs can be read in the second Para of TAFSEER NAEEMI.

386. In this verse the word sustenance does not mean spiritual sustenance i.e. the rewards in the grave, as these are enjoyed by every believer, but it refers to the fruits of Paradise and the comforts therein, for the souls of the martyrs journey through Paradise in the form of green birds and eat and drink whatever they desire there.

170. They rejoice with the bounties provided to them by Allah and are jubilant with regard to their successors who have not yet joined them [387]. They will have no fear, nor shall they grieve [388].

فَرِحِيْنَ بِمَآ اٰتٰىهُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ ۙ وَ يَسْتَبْشِرُوْنَ بِالَّذِيْنَ لَمْ يَلْحَقُوْا بِهِمْ مِّنْ خَلْفِهِمْ ۙ اَلَّا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ لَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُوْنَ ﴿۱۷۰﴾

387. By this is meant that those believers who have not yet obtained martyrdom, would in the future, after being martyred be joining them. These martyrs are eagerly awaiting their arrival and are happily preparing to welcome them.

388. From this complete verse emerge two issues:

1. That the martyrs are alive.
2. That these martyrs are aware of the end of their survivors and are fully cognisant of their conditions i.e. they are alive, are engaged in pious deeds and will meet in the near future after receiving martyrdom. Otherwise, the word happiness is meaningless. In a Hadith it is reported that when a Muslim lady fights with her husband the hoories of Paradise proclaim "Do not trouble him as he will be coming to us." From this we learn that the hoories can see and hear from far and are aware of the end result of everybody. If this is the case of the hoories than how great is the knowledge of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, who has full knowledge of the past, present and future.

171.They rejoice with what has been bestowed upon them of the bounties of Allah. And Allah does not waste the reward of Muslims [389].

يَسْتَبْشِرُوْنَ بِنِعْمَةٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَ فَضْلٍ ۙ وَّاَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُضِيْعُ اَجْرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۷۱﴾ ع ۱۶

389. From this we learn that the rewards of good deeds of non-believers are wasted and to no avail because they did not accept the condition i.e. they did not bring faith. Furthermore, we learn that the rewards of martyrs are numerous, because while others sacrificed their wealth, time, etc. the martyrs sacrificed their lives, which is greater than everything, hence, its reward too is comprehensive. Allah Almighty does not waste the good deeds of a believer. Also a believer is not disrespectful of that lofty place. We learn from it that to show disrespect to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an act of apostasy. And because the impudent disbelievers raise their voices above the voice of the Holy Prophet

صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم , all their good deeds come to nil

SECTION 18

اَلَّذِيْنَ اسْتَجَابُوْا لِلّٰهِ وَ الرَّسُوْلِ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَآ اَصَابَهُمُ الْقَرْحُ ۛؕ لِلَّذِيْنَ اَحْسَنُوْا مِنْهُمْ وَ اتَّقَوْا اَجْرٌ عَظِيْمٌ ۚ﴿۱۷۲﴾

172. Those who responded to the call of Allah and the Rasool (Messenger) after the wound [390] had smitten them [391] will get great reward for being righteous and remaining pious.

390. After the Battle of Uhud it was learned that Abu Sufyaan was coming to attack Madina. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم immediately made a proclamation to set out to oppose him. Wounded Companions, too, joined in, in their present conditions. After reaching Hamraal Asad, eight miles out of Madina it became known that Abu Sufyaan, out of fear turned back to Makkah. This verse was revealed in praise of these Noble Companions who had set out with the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم . From this we learn that the Call of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is indeed a call coming from Allah Almighty. Because the call was of the Holy Prophet but Allah Almighty says "responded to the call of Allah Almighty and the Messenger." (S3:V171)

391. In this verse the preposition "From" is used for general and not for few, because all those Companions are pious and virtuous. However, the verse clarifies that the attainment of their rewards was due to their piety.

173. Those to whom people (the hypocrites) said: "People have gathered against you, therefore fear them". But it (merely) increased them in faith [392] and they said: "Allah is sufficient for us, and what an excellent Disposer of Affairs"[393].

392. From this we learn that there can be an increase or decrease in the intensity of faith - not in quantity, but in feeling, for quantity is found in one's body. We also learn that fear only helps to intensify the believer's faith, not decrease it, as worldly calamities are a blessing for the believers.

393.Reason for its Revelation:
This incident took place during the second Battle of Badr which took place a year later than the Battle of Uhud in 4 A.H. at Badr. Abu Sufyaan at Uhud had told the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم that we will once more do battle at Badr. Although the Muslims had arrived there, Abu Sufyaan out of fear did not arrive. In fact, Abu Sufyaan had asked Naeem ibn Masood Ashja'ee to persuade the Muslims not to come to Badr. When Naeem came to Madina and saw the Muslims preparing for military confrontation he tried to persuade the Muslims from going to Badr saying that Abu Sufyaan has come with a huge army. Muslims showed no awe but said: "Allah is sufficient for us and what an excellent Disposer of Affairs." (S3: V173). From this we learn that this verse should be recited when faced with severe difficulties.

فَانْقَلَبُوْا بِنِعْمَةٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَ فَضْلٍ لَّمْ يَمْسَسْهُمْ سُوْٓءٌ ۙ وَّ اتَّبَعُوْا رِضْوَانَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ ذُوْ فَضْلٍ عَظِيْمٍ ﴿۱۷۴﴾

174. So they returned with Blessings and Bounty of Allah, no evil touched them [394] and they followed the Pleasure of Allah, and Allah is the Possessor of great Bounty.

394. When the Companions arrived at the battlefield and found no opposition they went to a bazaar held by Sooq bin Kananah. Whatever goods the Sahabah had was sold at the bazaar at a good profit. They then returned to Madina happy and with lucrative gain. A proverbial name was given to this army of "JAISHUS-SAWEEK" meaning "a profitable army" because people had said out of joy that these Companions made much profit after enjoying sweet beverage, i.e. without much effort and at the same time obtained the pleasure of Allah Almighty (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). From this we learn that one is not restricted from conducting worldly business on a religious journey. Hence, a pilgrim can conduct business during his pilgrimage. Allah Almighty has called it bounty and grace.

175. It is only Shaitaan [395] that threatens you of the fear of his own friends. So fear [396] them not, but fear Me, if you are (indeed) believers.

395. From this we learn that whoever follows Shaitaan is himself a Shaitaan, and any one who listens to such a person is a friend of the devil. You should protect yourself from Shaitaan, from Jinn and man.

396. In this verse there is encouragement for Muslims till the Day of Judgement ; if the Muslims have in their hearts fear of Allah Almighty then neither the disbelievers nor the hypocrites would harm them in any way. He who fears Allah Almighty, the world fears him. He certainly does not fear the world.

وَ لَا يَحْزُنْكَ الَّذِيْنَ يُسَارِعُوْنَ فِي الْكُفْرِ ۚ اِنَّهُمْ لَنْ يَّضُرُّوا اللّٰهَ شَيْـًٔا ؕ يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ اَلَّا يَجْعَلَ لَهُمْ حَظًّا فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ ۚ وَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿۱۷۶﴾

176. And (O beloved Prophet) you should not be grieved of them at all who run after infidelity [397]. And they will not harm [398] Allah at all. Allah desires no share for them in the Hereafter, and for them there is great torment [399].

397. In it is a prophecy in which Allah Almighty is making His Beloved aware that even if the non-believers, the hypocrites, the apostates, the Yahud, and the Nasara were to unite and pool their financial and military resources together they would not be able to harm you in any way. Allah Almighty will grant you success and victory. This was proven in the Battle of Yarmuk in which forty thousand Muslims defeated seven hundred thousand (700,000) combined forces of Yahud and Nasara.

398. They will not harm the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in any way. At many places the Holy QUR'AAN speaks of Allah Almighty but in reality it refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Says Allah Almighty: "They seek to deceive Allah" yet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is intended.

399. From this we learn that in opposing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم we are harming ourselves, not him, we are in need of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , while he is totaly independent.

life and wealth, then good deeds will most certainly be the cause of receiving blessings in life and wealth. Shaitaan is given long life to grant strength to mislead and misguide people.

402. From this we learn that the punishment of disgrace and dishonour is especially set-aside for the disbelievers. On the Day of Judgement Allah Almighty will save the sinful Muslims from disgrace even to the extent of dealing with their sins secretly or privately.

401. From this we understand that long life is good if it can be devoted to doing good deeds, otherwise it is a punishment. Hence, the long life of a believer and a pious person is a bounty of Allah Almighty. While that of the non-believers and sinners is one of punishment. The believer will increase his good deeds during this long life while the disbeliever would be increasing his sins therein. From this.
one subtle issue emerges: If due to the ill-fatedness of apostasy can result in increased

403. Allah Almighty is consoling the Noble Companions that their present conditions will not last much longer in which the believers and the hypocrites find themselves together. In fact, very soon Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

Marfat.com

Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are openly denying the veracity of this verse. Long before his demise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had categorically sifted the sincere Companions from the hypocrites.

404. In that Allah Almighty will give his Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم permission to disgrace these hypocrites after which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will no longer be able to conceal their identity. From this we learn that if the Noble Companions were in the position to distinguish between the believers, the non-believers and the hypocrites, then how great was the ability of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in this regard. Now if anyone suggests that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was unable to distinguish between the believer and a hypocrite is obviously denying the truth of this verse. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم made the truth of this verse clear when in one gathering he exposed the identity of the hypocrites by calling them out name by name.

405. By 'unseen' in this verse means that type of unseen which was not ascertained through proofs such as future events, and the knowledge of those happenings pertaining to Allah's knowledge of the unseen. The following verse is an example of this type of Unseen. "The Knower of Unseen reveals not his secrets, except to His chosen Messengers" (S72:V26). Otherwise, it is incumbent to have firm belief regarding that unseen which is ascertained through conclusive proofs, e.g. that pertaining to Allah Almighty's Personality and Attributes. Says Allah Almighty: "Believe in the Unseen." In any case, how can belief be effected without firm knowledge.

406. Reason for Revelation:

On one occasion the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said in his blessed sermon that Allah Almighty made my entire Ummah appear before me prior to their birth and informed me, who from these will believe in me, and who will not. The hypocrites made fun of this sermon by saying that secretly or inwardly we are non-believers but outwardly we were merely accepting you Oh Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a prophet. Yet the claim being made to appear before you, and that you are in a position to differentiate between the believers and the non-believers. On hearing this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم took a stand on the mimbar (pulpit) and said: "What a condition people have reached. They are doubting and taunting my knowledge. If this be the case ask me about all events that would take place from now until the Day of Judgement". Abdullah Ibn Huzafa Salimi enquired: "Who is my father?". The reply was 'Huzafa'. Then Hazrat Umar Farooq (On whom be peace) said we are in full agreement that Allah is our Lord, Your Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is our Prophet and Islam is our Religion. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then said that in future you will abstain from such types of mocking questions. It was at this occasion that the above verse was revealed. From this a few issues emerge:

1. That Allah Almighty has informed His Beloved Messenger of everything that is to take place until the Day of Judgement, and made him fully acquainted with His special Unseen knowledge.
2. To raise objection about the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knowledge is the work of the hypocrites.
3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware of those concealed things whose knowledge is not made known to anyone. Only his mother had the knowledege that Abdullah's father was Huzafa, yet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was aware of it.

407. From this emerge the following issues:

1. To believe in all the Prophets of Allah is just as important as believing in Allah.
2. One's claim of bringing faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is unacceptable if one denies about the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knowledge of the Unseen. The meaning of bringing faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is accepting all his praiseworthy attributes. Thus, when these hypocrites refused to accept the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knowledge of the Unseen, Allah ordered "Believe in Allah and his Prophets."
3. It is important that faith should be accompained by piety.

180. And let not those who are niggardly [408] in respect of what Allah has given them out of His Bounty [409] think that it is good for them. On the contrary it is bad for them. Soon that for which they had been niggardly, shall be their necklace on the Day of Resurrection.[410] And to Allah belongs the heritage of the heavens and the earth. And Allah is aware of your doings [411].

408. It is miserliness not to fulfill your duties and rights, whether omitting human rights, rights of Shariah, or Allah's rights. Hence, the one who fails to pay his Zakaat, or fails to spend on his needy parents, children and relatives, is a miser.

409. From this we learn that miserliness is not in respect of wealth only, but is in respect of knowledge as well, because the word "what" is used here in general sense. We further understand that whatever anyone has accquired is through the blessings of Allah and not through his personal merit or right.

410. As it is described in the Hadith that whosoever fails to pay his Zakaat, Allah Almighty will transform that wealth of his into a snake and have it placed on the neck of the owner on the Day of Judgement. This snake will continuously bite him and remind him that I am that wealth of yours on which you had not paid your Zakaat (TAFSEER KHAZAIN).

411. From this we learn that to receive bounties of Allah despite our sinful acts is a punishment of Allah as this is equivalent to putting poison in honey. On the other hand the coming of immediate punishment or wrath of Allah on one's sins is a mercy of Allah as it enables man to seek repentance for his evil deeds.

لَقَدْ سَمِعَ اللّٰهُ قَوْلَ الَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ فَقِيْرٌ وَّ نَحْنُ اَغْنِيَآءُ ۘ سَنَكْتُبُ مَا قَالُوْا وَقَتْلَهُمُ الْاَنْۢبِيَآءَ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ ۙ وَّ نَقُوْلُ ذُوْقُوْا عَذَابَ الْحَرِيْقِ ﴿۱۸۱﴾

181. Allah has certainly heard the utterances of the Yahud, who said: "Indeed Allah is needy and we are rich" [412]. We will record what they said, and their killing of the Prophets [413] unjustly. And we shall say: "Taste the punishment of the burning fire".

412. Reason for its Revelation:
When this verse was revealed in which Allah Almighty is proclaiming who is there who can give a godly loan to Allah Almighty, the Yahud taunted that since Allah is asking us for a loan we are the wealthy and Allah Almighty is exempted from his religious obligations no matter what position he may acquire. (May Allah forbid). To refute this foolish claim of the Yahud, this verse was revealed.

413. i.e. That these Yahud are not new criminals, their crimes spread for many centuries and that they will be held responsible for all crimes.

182.This is the compensation of what your hands have sent forth. And surely Allah does not oppress His bondsmen [414].

414. Allah does not punish anyone without his crimes. From this we learn that those infants of the non-believers who had died in their infancy will not be sent to Hell because they had not committed any crime nor any sin and Allah Almighty does not send anyone into Jahannam without committing sins.

اَلَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَهِدَ اِلَيْنَآ اَلَّا نُؤْمِنَ لِرَسُوْلٍ حَتّٰى يَاْتِيَنَا بِقُرْبَانٍ تَاْكُلُهُ النَّارُ ؕ قُلْ قَدْ جَآءَكُمْ رُسُلٌ مِّنْ قَبْلِىْ بِالْبَيِّنٰتِ وَ بِالَّذِىْ قُلْتُمْ فَلِمَ قَتَلْتُمُوْهُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۸۳﴾

183. Those who say: "Allah has given us a promise that we may not believe in any Messenger unless he shows us such a sacrifice which the fire consumes"[415]. Please declare: "There came to you Messengers before me bearing clear signs [416] and with this order which you are speaking [417] So why did you kill them, if you are truthful?" [418]

415. Reason for its Revelation:
The Yahud were saying that in the Tauraat they have been given this order to bring faith on that Prophet who in proof of his claim would sacrifice an animal whose meat would be burnt by a heavenly fire. Because you have not shown this miracle we will not believe in you. This verse was revealed to repudiate their claim.

416. By this is meant every prophet brought miracles besides that of sacrifice, because discussion regarding it would be following after this.

417. Bt this is meant some had shown them miracles of sacrifice e.g. by Hazrat Zakariya and Hazrat Yahya (On them be peace) but they were slain by the Yahud.

418. This means Oh Yahud! If you would like to bring faith in these Prophets with certainty who would show you this miracle, then why did you slay those Prophets like Hazrat Zakariya,Yahya etc. (On whom be peace)? This makes it apparent that you are merely making excuses. It should be remembered that although these past Prophets were killed by the previous Yahud, these Yahud too are made responsible for this because of their association with them.

فَاِنْ كَذَّبُوْكَ فَقَدْ كُذِّبَ رُسُلٌ مِّنْ قَبْلِكَ جَآءُوْ بِالْبَيِّنٰتِ وَالزُّبُرِ وَالْكِتٰبِ الْمُنِيْرِ ﴿۱۸۴﴾

184. If they belie [419] you (O Beloved) they also belied the Messengers before you, who had come bearing clear proofs, scriptures of prophecies and the shining Book, which have already been denied [420].

419. Just as these Prophets exercised patience at their false accusation, you too should bear this with patience. It should be remembered that it is impossible to find anyone with whom our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم patience can be compared. Although he had suffered innumerable hardships at the hands of the infidels of Makkah, he readily pardoned every one of them.

420. It should be remembered that a SAHIFA or a SCROLL would be like a pamphlet coming from Allah Almighty. It would contain methods of worship and some laws and regulations. Complete Books were four, while the number of scrolls revealed were one hundred. Here, books denote the Tauraat and Injeel.

كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ذَآئِقَةُ الْمَوْتِ ؕ وَ اِنَّمَا تُوَفَّوْنَ
اُجُوْرَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ؕ فَمَنْ زُحْزِحَ عَنِ
النَّارِ وَاُدْخِلَ الْجَنَّةَ فَقَدْ فَازَ ؕ وَمَا
الْحَيٰوةُ الدُّنْيَآ اِلَّا مَتَاعُ الْغُرُوْرِ ﴿۱۸۵﴾

185. Every soul shall taste [421] death, and you will be given your (full) compensation only on the Day of Resurrection [422]. So he who is drawn away from the Fire and made to enter Paradise has attained his goal. And the life of this world is but the goods of deception [423].

421. This means whether human being, jinn, or angel, everyone has to taste of death besides Allah Almighty, as everthing else would perish.
422. From this we learn that the Divine mercy one receives in this world is due to ones pious deeds, and the Divine punishment that comes down due to one's evil deed is not their true compensation. In this world the punishment for the sinner is like the jail for the criminal awaiting trial, while the mercy and blessing for the pious person is like the travelling allowance received by a civil servant.
423. From this we learn that the wordly life is that which is spent on worldy problems which is indeed a sheer deception. The lives of the saints and the pious people is never of wordly nature, but is spent on earning the rewards of the Hereafter. Hence, it is neither deceptive nor transitory, but it is eternal.

186. Surely you will certainly be tested in your possessions and your lives [424] and you shall surely hear many insulting [425] things from the people who were given the Book before you and from the polytheists. But if you endure and guard yourselves (against evil) then it is work of strong determination [426].

424. This is equal to the obligation of Jihad (Holy War) or Zakaat, and the befalling of wordly calamities on one's life and property. Prior information is given about them so that they could become easier to bear.
425. Like making unfounded allegations and taunting. From this one learns that every infidel is an enemy of a believer.
426. If this is taken to mean that do not wage war on them but bear their afflictions with patience, thus this verse will be abrogated from the verses of Jihad, but if its meaning is taken to be in your quest for revenge do not talk ill of the Prophets of the People of the Book, instead continue to respect them, then this verse is firm and lasting. One should not insult the pious people just to wreak vengeance on the non-believers, because these Messengers are our Prophets as well, and we fully believe in them.

people who were given the Book [427] (saying): "You must make it clear to the people and not conceal it". But they threw it away behind their backs and exchanged it for a small price [428]. And what a cost of purchasing it is [429].

427. This covenant was specially taken from the learned Ulama of the People of the Book either on the Day of the Covenant or mentioned in the Tauraat. It is evident that this promise was taken on the Day of the Covenant

428. From this two issues emerge:

1. Whatever wealth is acquired by selling your Religion will always be limited as it is only of material or wordly nature and no matter how much material gains one makes, it will be of limited quantity.
2. To conceal or distort religious decrees is equal to altering the Divine verses. This does not include selling the printed QUR'AANS, taking a salary for teaching the QUR'AAN, making Imamat and teaching in the Madressa, otherwise, the later Ulama would not have regarded it as permissible.

429. From this we learn that it is totally forbidden to conceal religious decrees. It is incumbent upon the learned Ulama to benefit the Muslims through their knowledge of Islam. In fact, it is important for them to maintain their dressing and mode of life like the Ulama so that the people can identify them as learned men and enquire from them religious decrees. It is not right for a learned man to dress like a commoner as this would lead to misunderstanding and could be included in concealing knowledge.

لَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَفْرَحُوْنَ بِمَآ اَتَوْا وَّ يُحِبُّوْنَ اَنْ يُّحْمَدُوْا بِمَا لَمْ يَفْعَلُوْا فَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّهُمْ بِمَفَازَةٍ مِّنَ الْعَذَابِ ۚ وَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿۱۸۸﴾

188.Never think of those who rejoice in their doings and for which they must be praised [430] for what they did not do. Never think of them (to be) in safety from the punishment. And for them is a painful torment [431].

430. From this we learn that to give a chicken-hearted person the title of a fearless person, and an ignorant person the title of a great Alim (Shamsul - Ulama - the radiant sun among the learned) and for these title holders to express joy at this foolishness is the way of the non-believers. Likewise, for the ignorant person to regard himself as an Aalim, and a degreed Molvi is the way of the ignorant because nowadays the ignorant obtain degree of a Molvi, etc. through many dubious means.

431. This warning of punishment is regarding those non-believers who take great joy in leading others astray or deliberately keeping people on the wrong path and seeking self glory.

189.And to Allah belongs the kingdom [432] of the heavens and the earth, and Allah is powerful over everything.

432. This limitation is in respect of absolute ownership i.e. the absolute master of all things is indeed Allah Almighty, while those who are kings have been given kingship or ownership by Allah Almighty.

Marfat.com

From this we learn that the verses revealed about limitation regarding knowledge of the Unseen, help, taking account, all refer to the actual or absolute meaning like "For Him is the Knowledge of the unseen." (S16:V77) or "And Allah is sufficient in taking account." (S3:V39) and "And sufficient is Allah as a disposer of affairs."

SECTION20

إِنَّ فِي خَلْقِ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافِ
الَّيْلِ وَ النَّهَارِ لَاٰيٰتٍ لِّاُولِي الْاَلْبَابِ ﴿۱۹۰﴾

190. Indeed in the creation of the heavens and the earth [433] and in the alteration of the night and the day are signs [434] for men of understanding.

433. At the time of getting up for Tahajjud the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would look skywards and recite these verses upto 'MEE`AAD'. He would also say that it is regrettable for those who recite these verses and do not ponder over the philosophies, devices and sciences between the heavens and the earth. Hence, acquiring knowledge concerning Geography, Science, etc. is rewardable, provided they are in accordance with Islamic beliefs.

434. By observing these changing signs one can perceive the Unity of Allah , His divine Knowledge and Absolute Power. One can also become assured that nations of the world, too, undergo similar changes i.e. sometimes one nation is at its pinnacle and at another time another nation experiences fall. No one should be proud of this rise of power.

بَاطِلًا ۚ سُبْحٰنَكَ فَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ ﴿۱۹۱﴾

191. These are the people who remember [435] Allah standing and sitting and lying on their sides [436], and contemplating on the creation of the heavens and the earth (saying): "O our Lord! You have not created this aimlessly. Exalted are You, then save us from the punishment of Hell" [437].

435. From this we learn that a truly intelligent person is he who spends his life in the remembrance and worship of Allah, even if he does not make much material progress.

436. From this we learn that one should remember Allah at all times and under all conditions. For this reason Wudu has not been laid as a condition of making Zikrullah. How many people are in the state of Wudu at the time of death yet they recite the Kalima before their death.

437. From this we learn that before making dua one should recite the praise of Allah, and call upon Allah by reciting "Oh our Lord" and that continuous recitation of "Oh our Lord," "Most pure are You" are with the grace of Allah, a means of having one's dua accepted.

رَبَّنَآ اِنَّكَ مَنْ تُدْخِلِ النَّارَ فَقَدْ
اَخْزَيْتَهٗ ؕ وَ مَا لِلظّٰلِمِيْنَ مِنْ اَنْصَارٍ ﴿۱۹۲﴾

192. O our Lord! Indeed whomsoever You cause to enter the Fire of Hell, You have surely disgraced him. And the unjust have no helpers [438].

438. From this one learns that if anyone is not a tyrant i.e. a non-believer, he will have many helpers from Allah. Thus, Allah Almighty says: (S5:V55) "Only Allah is your Friend and His Messenger and believers." Not having a helper is a punishment for the non-believer, from which Muslims are safeguarded. A non-believer is without help, while the helpers of the Muslims are Allah, His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , the Pious, the Believers, Saints of Allah, the Angels,etc. May Allah be praised for this! Says Allah Almighty: After them the Angels are the Helpers" (S66:V4).

رَبَّنَآ اِنَّنَا سَمِعْنَا مُنَادِيًا يُّنَادِىْ لِلْاِيْمَانِ اَنْ اٰمِنُوْا بِرَبِّكُمْ فَاٰمَنَّا ۗ رَبَّنَا فَاغْفِرْ لَنَا ذُنُوْبَنَا وَ كَفِّرْ عَنَّا سَيِّاٰتِنَا وَ تَوَفَّنَا مَعَ الْاَبْرَارِ ۚ﴿۱۹۳﴾

193. O our Lord! Indeed, we have heard [439] a proclaimer (Prophet Muhammad) calling to faith (saying) "Believe in your Lord". Then we believed [440]. O our Lord! Forgive us our sins and remove from us our misdeeds and cause us to die with the righteous [441].

439. By 'proclaimer' is meant the proclamation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . From this we learn that the proclamation of the Ulama for religious propagational work is indeed the proclamation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . To listen to them is to listen to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Furthermore, we learn that our Faith is through the grace of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم proclamation.

440. From this two issues emerge:

1. A Muslim can think of himself as a sinner but not as a non-believer, because the admission of apostasy is in itself non-belief.

2. One should always offer dua through the mediation of one's faith. If it is permissible to make one's faith as an intermediary, then it is permissible to make the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم our intermediary as well.

441. By this is meant at the time of death we should be in the company of the pious. We should die doing pious deeds. It could also mean that when the pious are taken away from this world and only the sinners are left behind, then, O Allah! at such a time give death to us too, as is reported in the Hadith, that in the last period before Qiyamah, the believers will be taken away from this world.

194. O our Lord! And grant us that what You have promised to us through Your Messenger [442]. And disgrace us not on the Day of Resurrection. Surely, You do not break Your Promise [443].

442. From this we learn that the promise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed Allah's promise, and it is the fulfilment of this promise that is sought in this verse. Thus, whosoever has been promised Paradise by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed an inmate of Paradise. Furthermore, we learn that while offering dua one should make mention of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم promise, as this will become the means of its acceptance.Thus, it is a promise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that dua made in the last portion of the night will be accepted. In Tahajjud this promise should be mentioned when making dua. Also, we learn that the Disgrace in the Hereafter is a Divine punishment. May Allah save us from it.

443. By this is meant we do not fear breach of promise from you O Lord, but we fear that we may not be from the group who have fulfilled their promises, O our Lord! Raise us from this group.

فَاسْتَجَابَ لَهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ اَنِّیْ لَاۤ اُضِیْعُ عَمَلَ عَامِلٍ مِّنْكُمْ مِّنْ ذَكَرٍ اَوْ اُنْثٰى ۚ بَعْضُكُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْضٍ ۚ فَالَّذِیْنَ هَاجَرُوْا وَاُخْرِجُوْا مِنْ دِیَارِهِمْ وَاُوْذُوْا فِیْ سَبِیْلِیْ وَ قٰتَلُوْا وَقُتِلُوْا لَاُكَفِّرَنَّ عَنْهُمْ سَیِّاٰتِهِمْ وَ لَاُدْخِلَنَّهُمْ جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِیْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ ۚ ثَوَابًا مِّنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عِنْدَهٗ حُسْنُ الثَّوَابِ ﴿۱۹۵﴾

195. Then their Lord heard their prayer [444] that I certainly waste not the labour [445] of any worker from among you, whether male or female [446] as you are offspring of one another. Hence, those who emigrated or were evicted from their homes, and were tortured in My cause and fought and were killed, I shall surely remove from them all their sins [447] and shall surely cause them to enter the gardens beneath which rivers flow, a reward from Allah, and with Allah only is the best reward [448].

444. It should be remembered that the recitation of "Oh our Lord" five times during the dua strengthens the possibility of its acceptance, as the word "Oh our Lord" is mentioned five times in these verses, and the promise of acceptance is given through it.

445. By this is meant Allah does not waste the good deeds of the believers. For this reason the word "From you" is mentioned here. The good deeds of the non-believers are of no avail, and their evil deeds will remain. Some sins are such that good deeds get wasted through them, but this is through the action of man, i.e. Allah does not waste them.

446. From this we learn that although the verses of Divine decrees are addressed to men, women are automatically included therein, the reason being this verse mentions that men and women are one group. Hence, both are included in the laws and their rewards. Reason for its revelation. This verse was reveald on Hazrat Umme Salma's (May Allah be pleased with her) request as to why she does not hear any mention being made of ladies in respect of Hijrah or migration.

447. From this we learn that martyrdom is the atonement of one's sins. However, it will be an atonement for depriving one of his rights because the word 'sin' signifies minor sins. Says Allah Almighty "No doubt good deeds obliterate evil deeds" (S11:V114). In another verse Allah Almighty says: "If you keep away from major sins that are forbidden to you then we will forgive your other sins" (S4:V31). It should be remembered that "My Way" is connected to the three previous things i.e. to migrate, to be evicted from the house, to be persecuted. If all these are for the sake of Allah then the above promises stand.

448. In this verse it is stated that the bounty of Allah will not be in comparison to your deeds but according to Allah's grace and generosity. Hence, the rewards given will be beyond your imagination.

لَا یَغُرَّنَّكَ تَقَلُّبُ الَّذِیْنَ كَفَرُوْا فِی الْبِلَادِ ؕ﴿۱۹۶﴾

196.(O Muhammad) Let not the movement of the infidels in the cities [449] deceive you.

449. By this is meant do not be under any misconception that because the non-believers may be wealthy they are favourites of Allah or enjoy nearness with Allah, otherwise why are they blessed with wordly wealth. Everybody rushes to obtain what is showered on the bridegroom. Likewise, the believer is the bridegroom while the world is that which is showered upon him, which the non-believers are using. Hence, when the world will be empty of the believers, Qiyamat will take place.

197. It is but a brief enjoyment (to the disbelievers). Their abode is the Hell. What an evil bed [450].

مَتَاعٌ قَلِيْلٌ ۚ ثُمَّ مَاْوٰىهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ ۚ وَ بِئْسَ الْمِهَادُ ﴿١٩٧﴾

450. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed in answer to the Muslim grouse that while we are in poverty and hardship, the non-believers are in the lap of luxury. In it the Muslims are told that this luxury of the non-believers is sugarcoated poison and thus they should not be misled by their exterior position.

198. But those who fear their Lord, for them there are gardens beneath which rivers flow. They shall abide therein, an entertainment from [451] Allah, and that which is with Allah is still better for the Righteo us [452].

451. In this verse it is hinted that the inmates of Paradise will always be entertained like we entertain our guests, just as the host will leave no stone unturned in this regard, Allah too, will do the same for the inmates of Paradise. This does not mean that the inmates of Paradise will be just guests therein without being owners of it. From the preposition "For" in the words, "For them there are gardens," we learn that the inmates of Paradise will be the owners of Paradise and eveything found therein, the preposition "For" is used to indicate ownership.
452. By this is meant the bounties of the Hereafter with which the pious will be rewarded are far better than the bounties of this world, because the worldly things are transitory while the bounties of the Hereafter are eternal. It could also mean that the good deeds of the pious, which are acceptable to Allah, are far better than the things of this world. It should be remembered that deeds accepted remain by Allah Almighty. While, sinful and condemned deeds, will be rejected and in ruins.

199.And undoubtedly some of the men of the Book believe in Allah [453] and in that what has been sent down to them. Their hearts are bent towards Allah. They do not accept a mean [454] price for the signs of Allah. These are those whose reward is with their Lord. And Allah is swift in taking account [455].

وَاِنَّ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْكِتٰبِ لَمَنْ يُّؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكُمْ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْهِمْ خٰشِعِيْنَ لِلّٰهِ ۙ لَا يَشْتَرُوْنَ بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ ثَمَنًا قَلِيْلًا ۭ اُولٰۗىِٕكَ لَهُمْ اَجْرُهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ ۭ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَرِيْعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿١٩٩﴾

453. From this we learn that the true believer in Allah Almighty is the one who sincerely believes in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Although all the People of the Book believed in Allah, yet the verse states that only few from them truly believed in Allah, these included persons like Hazrat Abdullah Ibn Salaam, Hazrat Ka'ab Ahbaar (On them be peace) who were first highly learned persons of the Jewish faith.

454. Reasons for its Revelation:
When the Emperor of Abyssinia, King Negus, namely Ashima died, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم informed his Noble Companions about his demise and asked them to join him in offering Salatul Janazah for him. In the cemetery of Jannatul Baqee, the earth of Abyssinia and the corpse of Negus were brought in front of the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for this purpose, i.e. for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Sahabah to offer Salatul Janazah. The non-believers taunted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمthat he is offering Janazah prayers for the one whom he has never seen before. In support of this action of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , this verse was revealed. From this we learn that having the corpse in front of the Imam is a condition for Salatul Janazah.

455. By 'swift' is meant that Allah will take the account of deeds of the entire creation in a matter of a few hours. In spite of this the Day of Judgement is described as being of a duration of fifty thousand years. The rest of the day will be utilised for singing praises of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and for showing his greatness to mankind. How beautifully this is expressed by a poet: "The only purpose of holding the Day of Judgement is that mankind shall be made to observe his refulgence".

200. O you who believe! Persevere and excel in patience (against the enemies) in guarding (the Islamic) country [456] with strength together. And fear Allah that you may be successful .

456. From this we learn that to inhabit the frontiers of Islamic countries for the believers, is an act of Ibadat (worship), as it is always in danger of being attacked by the non-believers. Hence, every soldier is ready to do battle here. Like Jihad (Holy War), the preparation of it too is an act of worship.

SURAH AN-NISA (THE WOMEN)

24 Sections : 176 Verses

I begin in the Name of Allah, Who is Most Compassionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوْا رَبَّكُمُ الَّذِىْ خَلَقَكُمْ مِّنْ نَّفْسٍ وَّاحِدَةٍ وَّ خَلَقَ مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا وَ بَثَّ مِنْهُمَا رِجَالًا كَثِيْرًا وَّنِسَآءً ۚ وَ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ الَّذِىْ تَسَآءَلُوْنَ بِهٖ وَ الْاَرْحَامَ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ عَلَيْكُمْ رَقِيْبًا ①

1. O mankind! fear your Lord,[1] Who created you from a single soul and created from it, its mate[2] and from them spread many men and women[3]. And fear Allah in Whose name you ask[4] for (your rights) and pay attention to the ties[5] of relationship. Surely, Allah is ever watchful over you.

1. By "fear" is meant that the disbelievers should accept faith and the believers should abstain from sins and engage in doing good deeds. Piety is of many types, while in the word "mankind" both the believers and non-believers are included, not jinns as they are not addressed here.

2. By this is meant that the entire mankind is created as progeny of Hazrat Adam (May Allah be pleased with him) and Bibi Hawa (May Allah be pleased with her).However, Bibi Hawa (May Allah be pleased with her) was created from the body of Hazrat Adam without the sperm. It should be remembered that many worms come from the body of man but, they cannot be regarded as his off-spring or children. Just as the head of the house is responsible for the household, likewise mankind too is the responsibility of one person and he is Hazrat Adam (May Allah be pleased with him).

3. In this verse there is a slight hint that every human being should work for the betterment of his fellow beings because all human beings are branches of one tree i.e. they are the flowers and fruit of one tree. Hence, no Muslim should show pride in respect of race and nationality because all nations are one.

4. By "You ask" (for your rights) that you ask from one another for your rights in the name of your Lord. He whose name is Bountiful fulfill all your needs, thus, if His attribute is Bountiful then how Bountiful, will be Your Lord Himself!

5. Maintain good healthy relations with your relatives. Do not cut any ties with them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said:" If anyone desires increase in his wealth and age, he should maintain good ties with his relatives."

وَ اٰتُوا الْيَتٰمٰٓى اَمْوَالَهُمْ وَ لَا تَتَبَدَّلُوا الْخَبِيْثَ بِالطَّيِّبِ ۪ وَ لَا تَاْكُلُوْٓا اَمْوَالَهُمْ

2. And give to the orphans their properties [6] and do not substitute the defective (of your own) for the good [7] of (theirs). And consume not their properties with your property[8]. Undoubtedly, that is a great sin.

اِلٰٓى اَمْوَالِكُمْ ؕ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ حُوْبًا كَبِيْرًا ۝۲

6. Circumstances for its Revelation:
Once a person was entrusted with his orphan minor nephew's goods. When the nephew became of age and asked for his goods, the uncle refused to return the goods. The above verse was revealed on this occasion. When the uncle heard this verse he returned the goods to his nephew saying "Obedience to Allah and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the best thing and we are all His subjects" (KHAZAINUL IRFAAN). It should be remembered that calling the adult as an orphan is due to earlier reference, as an adult is no longer an orphan. A human child becomes an orphan after the death of his father, while an animal off-spring is regarded an orphan after the death of his mother. A pearl is that orphan which is alone in an oyster. This is known as the priceless pearl, which is very valuable.
7. This means do not substitute your lawful wealth with that of your orphan's as this is unlawful for you. This would be so if any injustice or wrong is intended thereby.
8. It is unlawful to eat the wealth of orphans by mixing it with yours, it would most certainly be unlawful to eat the wealth on a separate basis. From this we learn that one can give a gift to an orphan but cannot take his gift. Furthermore we learn that if there are orphans among the heirs, it is unlawful to spend from their legacy on Fateha, charity etc, and use of that food etc. too is unlawful. First the wealth should be distributed correctly among the heirs, thereafter those heirs who are adult can spend from their share.

3. And if you fear that you will not deal justly with the orphan girls [9], marry those who seem good to you, two, three, or four [10]. But, if you fear that you will not be just (to all of them) then marry one only [11] or have the captives whom your right hand owns [12]. That will be more suitable to prevent you from doing injustice.

وَ اِنْ خِفْتُمْ اَلَّا تُقْسِطُوْا فِى الْيَتٰمٰى
فَانْكِحُوْا مَا طَابَ لَكُمْ مِّنَ النِّسَآءِ مَثْنٰى
وَ ثُلٰثَ وَ رُبٰعَ ۚ فَاِنْ خِفْتُمْ اَلَّا تَعْدِلُوْا
فَوَاحِدَةً اَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُكُمْ ؕ ذٰلِكَ
اَدْنٰٓى اَلَّا تَعُوْلُوْا ؕ ۝۳

9. Circumstances of Revelation:
Some men would marry orphan girls under their care for the sake of their wealth only, without taking any interest in them. In doing so they were not fulfilling the rights of wifehood due to them. To stop this malpractice the above verse was revealed. The Divine order is marry those women of whom you approve.
10. This order in respect of number of wives is not applicable to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Whatever number of wives the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had decided to marry were lawful for him. It should be remembered that the permission to marry up to four wives is given because the female population exceeds male population. Also many males are killed in battles. Thus, if this permission was not given it would not be possible for all the females to enter marriage. Also, this makes increase of population possible. Today governments are established on majority i.e. on number in population. However, it is not permissible for one woman to marry more then one husband, because this would cause doubts in determining the race and actual father of the off-spring. One would not know whose child it is and who would be responsible for its care and maintenance.

11. Any person who is unable to accord the rights of wifehood and treat each wife justly and equally is forbidden to marry more then one wife. Although unequal treatment of wives is a criminal act, the Nikah and children born from these wives would be lawful.
12. There is no limit to keeping maids or slave girls. The rights of these maids are not incumbent upon the master nor are they entitled to any rights of wifehood.

4. And give the women their dowries willingly. [13] But if they, of their own pleasure remit any part of it to you, then utilize it with taste and pleasure[14].

وَاٰتُوا النِّسَآءَ صَدُقٰتِهِنَّ نِحْلَةً ؕ فَاِنْ
طِبْنَ لَكُمْ عَنْ شَیْءٍ مِّنْهُ نَفْسًا فَكُلُوْهُ
هَنِیْٓـًٔا مَّرِیْٓـًٔا ۝۴

13. From this emerge two issues:
1.Only the wife is entitled to the Mehr, not her guardian.
2. It becomes incumbent on the husband to obtain legal possession of the wife.
There are three types of Mehr:
1.Mehr-e-Mua'jjal
2.Mehr-e-Muwa'jjal
3.Mehr-e-Ghair Musarrah
Laws pertaining to all three are different. In the Mehre Mu'ajjal (1) the wife can demand her Mehr before consumation of marriage.

14. Some Ulema deduce that the Mehr of the wife is a sacred thing. If anyone's ill child does not recover from illness, treatment can be made from the Mehr money. Darood Shareef was the first Mehr given by Hazrat Adam to Sayeda Hawa the mother of mankind, here it is a source of cure for us. But this is only acceptable when the wife agrees to give the money willingly, because it is absolutely unlawful to take it forcefully. Hence, there is no contradiction between the two Verses Allah says: "Then take not any thing thereof" (S4 : V 20).

5. And give not the weak-minded their property that you have [15], which Allah has made a means of your living [16]. And feed them therewith and clothe them and speak to them with kind words.

وَ لَا تُؤْتُوا السُّفَهَآءَ اَمْوَالَكُمُ الَّتِیْ
جَعَلَ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ قِیٰمًا وَّارْزُقُوْهُمْ فِیْهَا وَ
اكْسُوْهُمْ وَقُوْلُوْا لَهُمْ قَوْلًا مَّعْرُوْفًا ۝۵

15 In this translation "your wealth", "your" is a hint that the connection of wealth with "your" is a connection of possession and not ownership. The wealth, here, refers to that personal wealth of the orphans which is kept safely with their guardians. This means do not give the irresponsible and unintelligent orphans their wealth as they would squander it.

16. From this we learn that taking care of the wealth too, is an act of worship because thousands of worldly and religious works are completed with it. It should be remembered that the conditions of compulsory things are also compulsory, like Wudhu is a condition for SALAAH.

17. To instruct them towards good deeds, to teach them good manners, to give them assurance that their wealth would be returned to them are all included in "good deeds." Allah be praised ! What a wonderful way the QUR'AAN has taught us to bring up our children. Do not speak to the children in a disrespectful manner. Address them with respect so that they can show the same to you.

6. And test the orphans [18] until they reach marriageable age. Then, if you perceive in them sound judgment release to them their property [19] and do not consume it excessively and in such haste that they should not reach [20] their maturity. And who (guardian) is rich he should abstain (generously) and if any one is needy he should utilize with equity [21]. But when you deliver them their property, then bring witnesses [22] over them. And Allah is sufficient in taking account.

18. By "testing the orphans" is meant to give them certain amount of money to spend, make them purchase some goods to determine whether they have reached the ability to think or not, and whether they are capable of taking care of their wealth in future. From this we learn that greatness lies not in the acquisition of wealth but spending it correctly. Everyone knows how to earn money but only a few know how to spend it frugally. Furthermore, we learn that it is important to teach the children about worldly things as well as about religious matters.

19. In this verse the proof is based on Sahebain i.e. Imam Muhammad (Rahmatullah Alaihi) and Imam Yusuf (Rahamatullah Alaihi) that even after reaching maturity if the child is unable to take care of his wealth responsibly, the wealth should not be handed over to him. But according to Imam Abu Hanifa (Radiallahu Anhu) wealth should be returned to him when he reaches the age of twenty five. Eighteen years of age is the limit for maturity, a further seven years are added if he has reached maturity (Roohul Bayaan). Proof of this is found in books of Jurisprudence. In any case, from this verse we learn that the care of wealth is of utmost importance as most of the worldly and religious works are dependent on it.

20. Some guardians make lavish weddings of the orphans with their wealth in which much unlawful expenditure is incurred. Such guardians are indeed unconcerned about the welfare of these orphans and to an extent are their enemies. They are included in this verse. Some poor guardians who charge exorbitantly for taking care of the orphans, too, are included in this verse.

21. In this there is a hint that during times of need, it is permissible to take wages for doing religious work, i.e. taking care of orphans is a religious work for which poor guardians are allowed to take a wage from their wealth. It is for this reason that the Khulafa-e-Rashideen (Righteous Caliphs) took wages for discharging the duties of Khilafah, besides Hazrat Uthman (May Allah be pleased with him) who worked free of charge. Hence, wages can be taken for making Imamat, teaching in the Madressa, etc.

22. "Bring Witnesses" is a voluntary command. In all financial matters where there is a fear of argument in respect of these, it is better to appoint the witnesses over their management. From this we learn that every command is not of a compulsory nature. Sometimes the command can be used for other purposes and forgiveness.

7. And for men is a share in what their parents and relatives [23] have left behind, and for women there is a share in what their parents and relatives [24] have left behind, be the bequest little or be it much, it is a share estimated and determined [25].

23. From this we learn that if the deceased leaves behind a son and a daughter, then the paternal grandson and paternal grand-daughter will not be entitled to a legacy as the son and daughter are near to the deceased then the grandchildren.

24. Circumstances for Revelation:
When Hazrat Uways bin Saamit (Radiallahu Anhu) passed away he left behind a wife Umm Kajah, three daughters and two uncles Suwaid and Urfatah. The two uncles seized all the wealth of Hazrat Uways (RadiallahuAnhu) depriving the wife and daughters of their inheritance, as was the custom of the Days of Ignorance. The mother and daughters then approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم It is only after this incident that the verse was revealed, at which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم distributed Hazrat Uway's (Radiallahu Anhu) wealth as follows: one eighth was given to the wife, two thirds was given to the daughters and the remainder was given to the uncles. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

25. From this verse we learn that it is the height of injustice to give the son inheritance and deprive the daughter of her legal right as this is against QUR'AANIC law. Both are entitled to inheritance.

8. But, if at the time of decision, the relatives, and the orphans and the needy [26] are present, then give them too, something [27] out of it, and speak to them with words of kindness.

26. By "relatives, orphans" the poor, etc. refer to those who were deprived from inheritance. It is reported by Hazrat Muhammad bin Sireen (Radiallahu Anhu) that at the time of distribution of the inheritance his father slaughtered one sheep and invited those poor relatives who had been deprived of the inheritance. This incident serves as a proof for our holding funeral rites of the third day, tenth day, 40th day etc. as the above invitation gives consideration these. (This verse is a source of permissibility for all these Fatehas – rites)

(Khazainul Irfaan).
27. From this we learn that if the grandson is deprived of his inheritance due to the uncle, then the grandfather should make a will in favour of his grandson to entitle him for the wealth. If the grandfather fails to do this, then it becomes the duty of the heirs to give a portion of their inheritance to the grandchild. Muslims are very much indolent and indifferent in this matter. However, it should be remembered that no portion must be used from the minor heir or the heir in absence.

9. And let those (executors and guardians) fear [28] (injustice) as if they themselves had left behind weak offspring and feared for them. So let them fear Allah and speak words of upright speech [29]

28. The guardians and legal counsellor of the orphans under their care should remember to treat these orphans as if they are their own children. Treat these children the way you would have someone treat your children. This verse is an excellent means of instruction. Always do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Desire for others what you desire for yourself.

29. By "speak to them upright speech" means whoever sits by a dying person , he should speak good words to him, he should counsel him towards giving charity, making a good will, the virtues of leaving a legacy for the children. At the time of the departure of the soul (loudly) recite to him Kalimah Tayyibah. Straight talk with the orphan means that the guardian or the counsellor of the orphan should treat him with kindness, give him best education, train him for employment. In short they should treat these orphans as they would treat their own children.

10. Undoubtedly those who devour the property of orphans unjustly are consuming into their bellies only fire [30]. And they will soon be burnt in the flaming fire [31].

30.From this we learn if the orphan heir of the deceased is not present at the funeral no portion from his must be spent on any funeral rites or Fateha. This is unlawful because the right of the orphan is in the wealth. The right thing to do is to distribute the wealth among the heirs according to Shariah, thereafter any adult heir could spend from his share on these funeral rites. If this is not done first, then whatever food the heirs will be eating will be the fire of Hell. On the Day of Judgment smoke will be emanating from their mouths.

31. It is reported in a Hadith that whoever takes the wealth of the orphans unjustly, smoke will be emanating from their mouths, ears and nose, even from their graves on the Day of Judgment. This would be the distinguishing feature of people who usurped the wealth of the orphans.

child and leaves parents, then for the mother is one third, [39]. but if the deceased has left many brothers [40] and sisters then for the mother is one sixth, after any will [41]. has been made and debts [42]. Your parents and your sons (children) you know not which of them will be more profitable to you [43]. (These shares and) fixed proportions are from Allah. Undoubtedly, Allah is All Knowing, Most Wise.

32. Regarding the inheritance of your children Allah Almighty in this verse is giving an emphatic command. It should be remembered that the Arabs were always careful in the execution of the wills. Hence, the emphatic command, were regarded as a will.

33. By children here is meant direct children i.e. grandchildren are excluded from it, because these indirect children are deprived in the event of there being a son, as was understood from the use of "relatives" from the earlier verse. Thus, in the presence of the son, it is totally against Islamic teachings to give the bequest to the grandson. From this verse, to, regard all children equal i.e. giving bequest to the paternal grandson where the son is alive, and giving the granddaughter bequest when the daughter is present would certainly show one's ignorance of the laws of inheritance. No Muslim to date had dared to do such a thing.

34. From this we learn that the son is not ZI - FARD but is grouped under ASBAH or relatives under paternal side. A ZI - FARD is those heir mentioned in the QUR'AAN who are twelve in number, four are male and eight are female. The four males are 1. the deceased father. 2. the deceased's paternal grandfather 3. brother whose fathers may be different but the mother is one, 4. the deceased's husband. The eight females are the deceased's wife, daughter, paternal granddaughter, bloodsister, stepsister whose mothers are different but father is one, mother, grandmother). (For detailed discussion on laws of inheritance refer to "ILMUL MEERATH"). If the deceased leaves a son and daughter then the daughter too would be grouped under ASBAH because the Holy QUR'AAN has not stipulated their portion of inheritance categorically, it could be half or one third. In fact if none of the inheritors are ZI-FARD, then the son and the daughter should distribute the entire bequest as mentioned above, if they are ZI-FARD heir then the distribution should be made on the remainder of the wealth as explained.

35. From this we learn that a daughter will be regarded as ZI-FARD if the deceased has no son, but she will be grouped under ASBAH if there is a son. The reason the Holy QUR'AAN does not mention what the share of the daughter is if she has a brother, only the share of the daughter without the brother is stipulated.

36 My respected teacher and mentor, Hazrat Maulana Naeem Mooradabadi (Radiallahu Anhu) has proven from this distribution of one daughter, that if the deceased's only heir is a son he would be entitled to all his bequests because if one daughter is entitled to half the wealth than the son who is entitled to double share should be given the full estate. (May Almighty Allah be Praised)

37. This would refer to son and daughter, or grandson and granddaughter, if anyone of these are heirs then the mother is entitled to one sixth of the deceased's estate.

38. If the deceased does not have a husband or a wife, then the mother would be entitled to one third of the entire wealth. If the deceased left a husband or wife then the mother gets one third after the share of the husband or wife is deducted and not on the full estate of the deceased.

39. In the event of the deceased not leaving any children behind, the mother will become ZI-FARD, and the father would fall under ASBAH, because here the QUR'AAN has stipulated the share of the mother, but no mention has been made about the father. From this we learn that the father would then be entitled to the remaining wealth i.e. two thirds of the bequest, because the part of the verse has mentioned "and leaves behind parents".

40. By using the plural term "sisters" we learn that if there are more then one sister or brother, then the mother is entitled to one sixth of the share.

41. By "lawful will" is meant a will which is not more then one third of the estate, and which is not allocated to any of the heirs. This should not be taken to be an unlawful will.

42. In the verse the word DEBT refers to debt owing to another person, not debt owing to Allah Almighty. Hence, if the deceased had not paid his Zakaah it will not have priority over the will. It should also be remembered that an ordinary debt has priority over the will. But to point out the importance of a will, mention is first made of the will. From this we learn that the words "and" and "or" are not used for the purpose of sequence.

43. From this we learn that the portions of bequest can not be made according to ones own thinking or conjecture. The knowledge of this is beyond one's personal thinking. This should be based on either a QUR'AANIC verse or on the consensus of jurists, which is already based on a QUR'AANIC verse.

12. And for you is one half of what is left by your wives [44], if they have no offspring [45], but if they have offspring [46], then you have one fourth of what they leave after (paying) any will made by them and the debts. And for the women is one fourth [47], of what you leave if you have offspring [48], but if you have offspring then for them is one eighth [49], of what you leave [50], after paying any will made by you or the debts [51]. If the man or a woman has left no direct heir (parents or children) but have (from their mother) a brother or a sister, then to each of them is one sixth [52]. Then, if the sister and brother are more then one, then they shall equally share one third [53], after payment of the bequest and debts of the deceased so that no harm [54], is caused to anyone. This is the injunction of Allah, and Allah is All Knowing, Most Forbearing

44. In the bequest left behind by the wife includes her trousseau, goods given by her husband, her personal jewellery, her Mehr (Dowry) is incumbent upon the husband. Same laws mentioned earlier would govern this bequest.

45. By "children" is meant children born from them (the wives) either from you or from their previous marriage; either a boy or a girl. The word 'child' is used to denote both a boy or a girl. The Arabic "Bin" is used to indicate son and bint to denote a daughter. In the word 'child' grand daughter and grandson are also included.

46. Here the word 'children' refer to children bearing one's family lineage. Hence, maternal grandson or granddaughter would not be included herein, because family lineage comes from the paternal grandfather not maternal grandfather. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

47. Whether your have one wife or more then one, the law applied would be the same, i.e. you would be entitled to one quarter of the share from their bequest. OR one eighth.

48.The own children of the deceased will reduce the wife's share of the legacy to one eighth, which are born from that father or mother respectively. Hence, this verse cannot be taken as a proof on which the Rafzees have their claim. They say that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم wives had no share in the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم property because none had any children as the Holy QUR'AAN does not stipulate that the children should be from you. In this case the word "From you" should have been used in the verse. It should be remembered that paternal grandchildren are included in the word "children'.

49. The general use of "what" shows that the share would be in the moveable and inmoveable property left behind by the deceased.

50. It should be remembered that a will is not permissible for an heir, and a will is not permissible for more then a third of a legacy. If there is a will for more then a third, it will only be acceptable for one third not for more.

51. In this debt the Mehr(Dowry) of the wife is also included. Hence, first the Mehr(Dowry) has to be deducted from the property of the deceased husband, thereafter shares will be distributed to the various heirs. The present practice of not taking the Mehr (Dowry) into account before the distribution is incorrect.

52. From this a few issues in respect of inheritance become apparent:

1. A childless person is one who has no heirs i.e. either parents, grandparents, children, etc.
2. That uterine brothers and sisters, whose fathers are different, can be regarded as ZI-FARD.
3. In the case of uterine children the share of the brother and sister would be equal, but in this case the son will receive twice as much as the daughter.

53. As the uterine brothers and sisters are entitled to a share because of the mother, and a mother under no circumstances is entitled to receive more then a third of the legacy, Hence, her children will not be entitled to receive more then that (KHAZAIN). It should be remembered that in the issue of inheritance and Salaah by congregation, two persons, too, are included in the congregation. Many enjoy the same rights as two. With two followers, too, the Imam would lead the congregation as he would stand if the congregation is more then two. The same meaning is to be taken by this Hadith i.e. two or more constitute a congregation.

54. From this we learn that an illegal will would not be acceptable and will have no bearing on the distribution of the bequest. There are three reasons for an illegal will.

1. If the will is directed at an heir.
2. If a will is made to exceed one third of the bequest then only one third will be lawful.
3. If the will is made to spend the bequest on any unlawful thing e.g. those who mourn for me should be paid an X amount, a certain amount should be donated to a Hindu or Christian temple, as all this is forbidden for a Muslim to do, and such a will would therefore not be executed.

13. These are the limits of Allah, and whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger[55], will be admitted to Paradise, beneath which rivers flow. They will abide therein. And that will be the greatest success [56].

55. From this we learn that in matters of bequest the Hadith would be acceptable just as the verse of the QUR'AAN, because some laws of inheritance are mentioned in this verse and then it is instructed that those who accept the order of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. the remainder of the laws should be enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who would explain these to you. Hence, in accordance with the Hadith, paternal granddaughter, great granddaughter etc. If the deceased leaves no children of his own, the decree would be like that of a daughter, but if the deceased leaves behind at least one daughter, then the grand daughter would receive one sixth of the bequest. However, if the deceased leaves behind a son then the granddaughter would be left out, and if he leaves behind two daughters then too the granddaughter would be left out of the bequest. But in the similar situation he leaves behind one grandson then she with the grandson would become an ASBAH. (For a detailed discussion of the laws of inheritance refer to "ILMUL MEERATH". Knowledge about Inheritance which is brief but comprehensive).

56. From this we learn that any injustice in the distribution of bequest would result in Divine punishment, while fair play in it will result in Divine Mercy. From this, Muslims should take a lesson who deprive their daughters from a share of their property.

14. And whosoever disobeys[57]. Allah and His Messenger and transgresses His limits, He will put him into the Fire[58], in which he will abide eternally, and he will have a disgraceful punishment.

57. This could either refer to the laws of inheritance or to all the laws in general. From this we learn that anyone who accepts the grandson as an heir in place of the son is an inmate of Hell, because such a person is disobeying Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

58. If such a person takes the law of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as wrong, then he is a disbeliever and will remain in Hell forever. But if he regards them as correct and does not act upon them, he will remain in Hell for a long long time as he will be a great sinner.

or Allah opens some way for them [63].

59. If obscenity is used as proper noun it would mean adultery. In this verse the obscenity refers to adultery.

60. By this is meant make them witnesses. Under the present situation this command is addressed to the Muslims in general. It could also mean obtain testimony from them. In that case it would be addressed to authorities. From this we learn that these decrees are concerning the wives. These decrees do not apply to the maids/slave girls. For this reason the word "your woman" is used.

61.From this verse emerge a few issues:

1. Adultery would be confirmed by four witnesses.
2. These four witnesses should be all men.
3. All four should be pious and independent as can be understood from "from you".
4. If the husband obtains four witnesses for his wife's adultery, the law of stoning to death would be applicable and not "Li'aan" which is mutual cursing by the couple in a law-court. If the husband does not have witnesses "Li'aan" would take place.
5. It is not incumbent to divorce a sinful wife, but to stop her from sinning as understood from "Confine them". is wajib.

62. By this is meant that confine your adulterous wives in their homes so strictly that they would not be able to go outside until either they die or the punishment for adultery is revealed.

63. This verse is abrogated from the verse in respect of restrictions and punishments. This verse hints towards abrogation, that these women should be confined to their homes until either they die or law of punishment is proclaimed. From this we learn that there is not only a permissibility between verses and decrees, but this has taken place here.

16. And if the two (male and female) from among you commit such an act, punish both of them [64]. If they repent [65], and reform, then leave them alone. Surely, Allah is Relenting, Most Merciful [66].

64. By "punish" is meant verbal annoyance like to scold, make them feel ashamed, as well as physical punishment, like beating up. This, verse, too is abrogated from the limitations of adultery. It should be remembered that in the previous verse: "of your women", is mentioned from which we learn that there, married women are denoted, while here "and those male, female of you" is mentioned which refer to bachelor and a spinster. Hence, there is no repetition in the verse. Some Ulama have said that in the previous verse indecent women refers to acts of lesbianism while "those male and female of you" refers to sodomy. In this case this verse is not abrogated, but firm. From this we now learn there is no limitation between sodomy and lesbianism but there is punishment, i.e.whatever punishment the judge deems fit he can give. The same is the saying of Hazrat Imam Abu Hanifa (Radiallahu Anhu) (KHAZAINUL IRFAAN). It is for this reason that the Noble Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم have administered different forms of punishment for sodomy. If there was restriction in this, only one type of punishment would have been given, there would have been no difference in it.

65. That is, they should express remorse at their previous evil deeds and show signs of piety for the future. From this we learn that the criminal who is to serve his punishment can repent sincerely before the punishment, then it is not really necessary to punish him.

66. By "Merciful" is meant that not even the biggest sinner should despair from the mercy of Allah Almighty, he should repent sincerely. It should be remembered that the true meaning of repentance is to retract from one's sins. If man assumes this quality then the meaning would be to retract from the sin or intention of the sin, but if it is the quality of Allah Almighty then it would be to retract from administering punishment or accepting the repentance of the servant.

17. Allah accepts repentance of only those with His Own Grace who commit evil in ignorance and then repent[67], soon afterwards. To such people Allah turns with Mercy and Allah is Ever Knowing, Most Wise [68].

67. The time of death is implied in the word "near". It should be remembered that no repentance from apostasy will be accepted at the time of last breath of life or at seeing the signs of death, but repentance from sin at this time is acceptable. The word "ignorance" refers to foolishness, ignorance, silliness etc. When a learned person commits a sin, he is ignorant by action.

68. Hence, the law of repentance in Islam is based on both pure wisdom and knowledge. Those religions which are bereft of repentance their foundation is laid more on sin because dejection makes you brave to turn to sin. The desire for forgiveness springs from hope of repentance. A person who is sentenced to death is kept in a separate cell so that he does not commit another murder, because he has become totally dejected of life

18. But repentance is not (accepted) of those who (continue to)[69], do evil until death comes to anyone of them saying: "Indeed I repent now". Or, if those who die as infidels; for them We have prepared a painful torment[70].

69. By this is meant spiritual sins in acquiring wrong faith and physical sin refers to evil deeds which they continued to commit, because it is only the sin of apostasy which will not be forgiven at the time of death. However, if the literal meaning of sins is taken here then expediency or necessity would be taken as negation of acceptance and not that of acceptance itself as it is understood from "by Allah Almighty" in the previous verse.

70. Hence, it is forbidden to pray for such people who die as non-believers. Similarly, there is no Salatul Janazah for a disbeliever. It is also forbidden to say May Mercy of Allah Almighty be upon them, etc.

19. O you who believe! It is not lawful for you to inherit women forcibly[71]. Do not detain them wrongfully with the intention that what you have given[72], them as dower unless they commit flagrant indecency[73] (adultery) and treat them with kindness. Then if you dislike them, it is likely that you dislike something wherein Allah has placed much good[74].

71. As was the custom of the non-believers before Islam who would become heirs of the deceased's wife with the wealth and either get her married where they would prefer, and not get her married if they so pleased.

72. From this we learn that if the woman is undesirable she should not be divorced but allowed to seek separation (KHULA) or give her some wealth or return her Mehr.(dowry) All this is terribly detested by Islam. Separation should only be allowed if the wife dislikes the husband and therefore seeks separation. The detailed discussion of this is found in books of Jurisprudence (FIQH).

73. Sayyidina, Abdullah bin Abbas (Radiallahu-Anhu) says this verse refers to that person who although he dislikes his wife but does not give her divorce in the hope that if the wife gives him some wealth he would divorce her, as is the practice today. Some have said that people of Arabia would divorce their wives then they would take them back. They would continue doing this, i.e. they would neither leave them permanently nor allow them to stay permanently. This verse is revealed regarding such people. Thus, if the wife is at fault and she is annoying the husband due to which he has to divorce her, then KHULA under such circumstances is allowed. But if the fault is of the husband, he is not permitted to take back her goods.

74. By this is meant do not be hasty to divorce an ill-mannered or ugly wife, for it is possible that Allah Almighty may bless you with such worthy children from her about whom you will be pleased and who will prove beneficial to you.

وَ اِنْ اَرَدْتُّمُ اسْتِبْدَالَ زَوْجٍ مَّكَانَ زَوْجٍ ۙ وَّاٰتَيْتُمْ اِحْدٰىهُنَّ قِنْطَارًا فَلَا تَاْخُذُوْا مِنْهُ شَيْـًٔا ؕ اَتَاْخُذُوْنَهٗ بُهْتَانًا وَّ اِثْمًا مُّبِيْنًا ﴿٢٠﴾

20. And if you desire to change one wife for another[75], and you have already given one of them a heap of treasure[76], then take not anything thereof[77]. Would you take it by mere slander and with manifest sin?[78]

75. In that you divorce the first one and marry the second.

76. Gift or Mehr. From this emerge two issues:
1. The husband cannot take the gift back from the wife, as wifehood is an obstacle to returning this.
2. Mehr can be increased. The prohibition mentioned in the Hadith is purgatory.

77. Because separation in this case is initiated by you. From this we learn that of man wishes to give divorce merely because of any dislike, he will not be allowed KHULA, separation, as this would be forbidden.

78. When the people of Arabia would take a dislike for their wives and try to divorce them then they would place some false accusations on them in an effort that they would become distressed by this and seek divorce by returning the mehr. In this verse there is a prohibition for this type of action. From this we learn that it is a grave sin to falsely accuse a woman. It should be remembered that the slightest doubt about the chastity of the Mother of the believers, Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah Radiallahu Anha is apostasy, because her purity is established by Almighty Allah's testimony. Her chastity is just as positive as the Unity of Allah Almighty.

21.And how could you take it when each of you has become unveiled[79] before one another and they have taken from you a firm covenant [80].

79. From this we learn that after the marriage is fully consummated the complete Mehr becomes payable to the wife. But in the case where the husband has already given the full Mehr (Dowry)and divorces the wife before consumation of marriage, he is entitled to take half of the Mehr (Dowry) back.

made to recite the Kalimas so that it will strengthen the marriage vows. The Kalima is also recited to make a promise firm. This verse is a proof for the recitation of the Kalima. It is for this reason that it is customary in India to let both the husband and wife recite the Kalima before the marriage vows are taken.

80. At the time of Nikah the husband should be

81. If by Nikah is meant marriage bond, then marriage to a stepmother is forbidden even if the father has given her divorce before the consummation of marriage. If by this is meant cohabitation then every woman who has cohabitated with the father whether making her his wife lawfully or unlawfully or making her his maid or slave girl, all such women are forbidden for the son, because they are like a mother to the son.

during the Days of Ignorance, and these wives of yours are dead by now, you are free of the sins of such marriages because these sins were before laws regarding it were promulgated. If a Fire worshiper accepts Islam and has a mother or sister in his marriage it would be incumbent for him to leave them. However, if he has any children from them, from the marriage entered into the period of apostasy, they would all be lawful children, because the apostates are not controlled by Islamic laws.

83. Those from whom you were born include paternal and maternal grandmothers. Mention has been made earlier about the unlawfulness of stepmothers.

84. In these includes paternal and maternal granddaughters as well as their children, as marriage to all of them is unlawful.

85. In these include your nieces from both sides as well as their children. In short one's own children as well as one's immediate offspring as mentioned above, all of whom are unlawful to marry. All children of the parents are unlawful. Further explanation of this would be found later in this verse.

86. Only the aunts are unlawful, their children are not, because they are from a later generation e.g. they are children of the paternal and maternal grandfathers. The law regarding them is the same, that is paternal and maternal cousins are lawful to marry one another.

87. From this we learn that seven types of females are unlawful to marry because of their blood relation. The decree in respect of them is all their offspring are unlawful, all their personal children are unlawful, immediate children of their off-spring are unlawful, and the children of the later generation of the new offspring are unlawful for oneself. However, children of the later generation are lawful for marriage for another. Thus, while it is unlawful for one to marry one's aunt, their children can enter into marriage with one another, because they are offspring of the later generation, i.e. children of paternal and maternal grandparents. But children of one's brother and sister are unlawful for oneself, because they fall under one's immediate offspring i.e. they are children of one's parents.

88. By "foster sisters" is meant anyone who has been suckled for two and half years in which the child has drank even a little milk, such a lady and all her children and their offspring will become unlawful for marriage for this suckled baby.

89. It should be remembered that the decree in respect of unlawfulness due to foster age is the same as that of blood relations.

90. The mother of the lady you have married will become unlawful for you, irrespective of whether you had consummated the marriage or not.

91. This is an incidental restriction. A daughter of a woman from her previous marriage is unlawful for you to marry, even if she is not under your care. However,, this step-daughter is unlawful for you to marry, but lawful for your children. She will only be unlawful for the off-spring if you have established conjugal rights with the wife. If such a wife is divorced without any cohabitation, or if she passes away, her daughter will become lawful for you. For a detailed explanation of this refer to the book of FATWAS - religious verdicts - Fatawa Naeemia.

92. It should be remembered that the adopted son's wife would be lawful for you to marry (after his death as he is not your blood son).

93. It is unlawful to keep two closely related women in marriage at one time, i.e. you cannot marry a second sister when the first is still in your marriage, or marry a niece when her aunt is still in your marriage, etc.

24. And (also prohibited to you are) women having husbands[94] except the women of infidels who come in your possession[95]. This is the prescription[96] of Allah unto you. And the remaining besides these are all lawful for you[97]; provided you seek them in exchange of your properties[98], bringing them in bondage (through marriage) and not desiring for lust[99]. Therefore, as to those women whom you wish to marry[100], give them their fixed dowries[101]. And there is no sin in what you mutually agree upon after fixation[102]. Indeed, Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

94 In this we learn that the wife of a man whose whereabouts are unknown is unlawful for another person until there is some form of certainity about the death of her former husband. Similarly marriage to those women whose marriages are annulled unlawfully by the authority of the day, are unlawful because their husbands have not divorced them i.e. they still have their husbands.

95 It should be remembered that marriage of non-believers would break due to difference of land, i.e. the husband may be in the enemy territory while the wife is in the Muslim territory. Such a woman who comes under your possession would be lawful for you. However,, this decree does not govern the believers.

96. It is a prescription of Allah Almighty in which no change can be effected by man. Anyone who rejects any of these sacred decrees is out of the fold of Islam.

97. It should be remembered that a woman becomes unlawful on four grounds:
1. Apostasy, 2. relationship with in-laws, 3. foster relations, 4. blood relations. From this we learn that a conclusive proof is needed for rendering anything unlawful, but no such proof is necessary for its permissibility. The reason being the words of the verse say that everyone else is lawful. For a full discussion refer to our Fatawa Naeemia.

98. From this emerge two issues:
1. A thing which in itself is not wealth cannot become Mehr (Dowry) e.g. the husband's service, his teaching of the QUR`AAN;
2. It is better for the proposal to come from the male for the female, not vice-versa, because in this verse men are addressed, that they should seek.

99. From this you learn that temporary marriages are forbidden as the object of these is for the gratification of one's lust and not for procreation. This is one form of adultery. In the very beginning this, like alcohol, was allowed in Islam.

100. This could also mean that the married woman with whom you cohabit, should be given full Mehr. This temporary marriage does not include the temporary marriage practised by the Shiah sect as the above is excluded from "not desiring for lust." The object of the Shiah practice is gratification of lust, not procreation. The object of permanent marriage is not just for the gratification of carnal desire. Says Allah Almighty: "Then whosoever desires anything more then these two, they are the transgressors" (S23:V7).

101. From this we learn that paying the wife's Mehr (Dowry) is just as important as settling one's debt. Hence, one should agree upon a Mehr (Dowry) which one can afford to pay.

102. By mutual understanding is meant either the wife decreases the Mehr or the wife forgives the payment of it or the husband increases the original amount of the Mehr and pays it fully.

25. And whoever amongst you does not have the means to marry free believing women, then let him marry such of the believing handmaids[103] who are the possession of your right hand. And Allah knows your faith very well. You are all alike (in religion.) Therefore marry them[104] with the permission of their masters [105], and give them their dowries[106] according to fair convention for bringing in marriage, being honourable, pure and chaste, but neither for lust and not making lovers[107]. And when they are wedded if they commit any act of indecency, then on them the punishment is half[108] of that of free women[109]. This (permission of marriage) is for those among you who is afraid of adultery, but it is better for you to have patience[110]. And Allah is Most Forgiving, Merciful.

103.Believing handmaids do not include your slave girl or maid, because no marriage can take place with your slave girl, cohabitation with her is lawful without marriage. The restriction of believing woman is of a voluntary nature because marriage with a slave girl from the People of the Book is lawful. Says Allah Almighty: "Those are lawful for you." (S4:V24) Issue: Those who can afford to marry free women should not marry slave girls. This is a supererogatory command. However,, if a person is already married to a free woman, he cannot marry a slave girl or maid.

104. Do not feel ashamed or regard it as disgrace to marry slave girls. Who knows whose faith is better and more excellent, that of a free woman or that of the slave girl. Greatness stems from faith and piety, not merely from being free.

105.From this, emerge two issues:

1. You cannot marry a slave girl without the consent of her master.

2. A master cannot marry his own slave girl/ maid because cohabitation is lawful with her without her marriage. Also in marriage both the husband and the wife have rights over one another, while no maid or slave girl can have right over her master. Here there is an antagonism between marriage and being a maid.

106. That the Mehr (Dowry) should be given to their masters because giving the Mehr (Dowry) to their masters is like giving to the slave girls. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

107. From this we learn that neither (mut'a) temporary marriage nor adultery is permissible with the slave girls. The word "not making lovers" makes temporary marriage forbidden, while from "not making lovers" makes open and secret adultery forbidden. It was the practice of the non-believers of Arabia to procure money from adultery of their slave girl.

108.From this, emerges two issues:

1. If adultery is committed by a virgin slave girl the punishment would be fifty lashes i.e. half the punishment of a free lady.

2. If a married slave girl commits adultery her punishment would not be stoning to death because there is no half punishment for rajam.

109.In this verse free women refer to free virgin women, not the married women because the punishment for adultery of a free married woman is stoning to death, which cannot be reduced by a half. A virgin's punishment is hundred lashes which can be reduced to fifty.

110.By this is meant it is better not to marry a slave girl, because your children would be the slaves of her master. However,, if there is a fear of committing adultery, marry her. It should, be remembered that according to Imam Shafaee (Rehmatulalay) there are three conditions for marrying a slave girl, two with regard to the groom and one in respect of the bride. The groom would be allowed to marry a slave girl if he has no means to marry a free woman, or if there is a fear of adultery. As far as the slave girl is concerned, she should be a believer, not a non-believer. By Imam Abu Hanifa (Rehmatulalay) there are no conditions attached. For more proofs regarding this refer to books of jurisprudence. It should also be remembered where there is fear of adultery marriage becomes incumbent if you have the means, otherwise it is Sunnat. If a person is unable to discharge the duties of marriage, i.e. perform conjugal rights, it is forbidden for him to marry, so much so that a wife of an impotent person who can seek the help of the state can have the marriage annulled.

يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ لِيُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ وَ يَهْدِيَكُمْ سُنَنَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ وَ يَتُوْبَ عَلَيْكُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿۲۶﴾

111.Laws concerning lawful and unlawful wives and the considerations for marriage, because the only difference in procreation between humans and animals is marriage. For this reason Allah Almighty described these laws in some detail, and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gave full clarification of these.

112.From this we learn that if the religious issues of the past Prophets found in the QUR'AAN and Hadith are without any refutations they are worthy of practice for us as well. As Allah Almighty says that we had commanded you in Zaboor: "A life for a life". But those which appear with refutations they are, not to be practised by us, as Allah Almighty says: "Then on account of great injustice of the Yahud We made unlawful for them some of those pure things" (S4:V160).

113.Therefore accept its commands without any hesitation because all its laws are based on some wisdom.

وَ اللّٰهُ يُرِيْدُ اَنْ يَّتُوْبَ عَلَيْكُمْ ۟ وَ يُرِيْدُ الَّذِيْنَ يَتَّبِعُوْنَ الشَّهَوٰتِ اَنْ تَمِيْلُوْا مَيْلًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿۲۷﴾

Hence, renumeration for singers, giving false evidence, for shaving the beard, for photography are all unlawful as these would be earned from unlawful means. From this emerge thousands of issues, like gambling price of alcohol, embezzlement, interest, breach of trust as these are all unlawful.

Similarly, it is totally unlawful to have a premises at a low rental against the wishes of the owner because in any deal mutual acceptance is a pre-condition.

119. If a person commits suicide thinking it to be lawful, it is an act of apostasy, and he will be subjected to eternal punishment. But if he commits it by knowing it as unlawful, he will be punished for a certain period. Thus, death by suicide, hunger-strike, etc. is unlawful in Islam.

e.g. idolatory, tyranny, murder, adultery, stealing etc. An oft-repeated minor sin eventually becomes a major sin. Says Allah Almighty: "And do not persist knowingly in what they have done" (S3:V135).

122.From this we learn that envy is not only forbidden but it is a root of all sins. The Devil was destroyed through it. Envy means to burn out of jealousy i.e. to wish someone ill at someone's good things in life and desire those things for oneself. GHABTA, - or envy, is forbidden in worldly bounties, but is lawful in religious blessings. The literal meaning of this word is to desire also for oneself the bounty found in another person.

123.From this we learn that the wife of a pious husband or the husband of a pious wife cannot be unconcerned or independent of good deeds; everyone needs good deeds.

124.Circumstances for its revelation:
In response to Hazrat Umme Salma (Radiallahu Anha's) desire that if we women had been men we would have participated in the holy war, this verse was revealed. Allah Almighty says that each of you should fulfil the obligations assigned to you, for which you will receive your reward. This means that you can obtain the reward of holy war by faithfully taking care of your husband's house. From this we learn that it is incumbent upon the wife to remain indoors in purdah.

125.That is if Allah Almighty showers His Grace, He will give greater reward for few deeds. From this we learn that no one can achieve anything without the Grace of Allah Almighty. Furthermore, one should always seek in Grace of Allah Almighty when offering dua, because this is not just excellent, but is in itself a comprehensive Prayer. Allah Almighty's Grace is included in everything.

126.Whatever Allah Almighty has bestowed on His servants He has done so with full knowledge and wisdom. Thus, being envious of anybody's good fortune is in reality objecting to Allah Almighty's choice of the recipient.

وَ لِكُلٍّ جَعَلْنَا مَوَالِیَ مِمَّا تَرَكَ الْوَالِدٰنِ وَالْاَقْرَبُوْنَ ؕ وَ الَّذِيْنَ عَقَدَتْ اَيْمَانُكُمْ فَاٰتُوْهُمْ نَصِيْبَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَیْءٍ شَهِيْدًا ﴿۳۳﴾ ع

33. And for everyone We have made heirs of property that is left by their parents [127] and relations [128], and those with whom you have sworn compact [129] give to them their share. And surely everything is before Allah [130].

127.It should be remembered that parents means your blood father and mother. Neither the step-parents nor the grandparents are included in it. Says Allah Almighty: "And mothers should suckle their children for complete two years" (S2:V233). Breastfeeding of the baby is the taste of the blood mother, not the step-mother, nor the work of both grandmothers. Says Allah Almighty: "Their mothers gave birth to them" (S58:V2). The grandparents are included in the relations, not the parents. Hence, if the son is alive, the grandson will not be entitled for a share. They are all included in the words "mother" and "father". Says Allah Almighty: "And his wives are their mothers" (S33:V6) . It is further stated: "Forbidden for you are your mothers...." (S4:V23) Furthermore Allah Almighty says: "Of your fathers Ebrahim and Ismail" (S2:V133).

128.From this we learn that in the event of the near relations being alive, the distant ones will be left out of the share. Thus, in the presence of the son the paternal and maternal grandchildren will be left out because "relatives" is a preferential plural.

129.This means if a person of unknown parentage says to anyone that you are my master, if you die before me I am your heir and if I die before you, you are my heir or an executor. The detail discussion of this can be read in the book. "ILMUL MEERATH"

130. Therefore, fulfill your oaths with whom you had entered into legal agreements.

اَلرِّجَالُ قَوّٰمُوْنَ عَلَى النِّسَآءِ بِمَا فَضَّلَ اللّٰهُ بَعْضَهُمْ عَلٰى بَعْضٍ وَّ بِمَآ اَنْفَقُوْا مِنْ اَمْوَالِهِمْ ؕ فَالصّٰلِحٰتُ قٰنِتٰتٌ حٰفِظٰتٌ لِّلْغَيْبِ بِمَا حَفِظَ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَ الّٰتِيْ تَخَافُوْنَ نُشُوْزَهُنَّ فَعِظُوْهُنَّ وَاهْجُرُوْهُنَّ فِي الْمَضَاجِعِ وَاضْرِبُوْهُنَّ ۚ فَاِنْ اَطَعْنَكُمْ فَلَا تَبْغُوْا عَلَيْهِنَّ سَبِيْلًا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ عَلِيًّا كَبِيْرًا ﴿۳۴﴾

34. Men are in charge[131] over women, because Allah has excelled one over the other[132] and because men have expanded their wealth over them[133]. So, the virtuous women are devoutly obedient, guarding in (the husband's) absence what Allah has commanded[134] them to guard. And as to those (women) whose disobedience you fear, then admonish them[135] and sleep separately from them[136] and beat them[137] (slightly). But if they obey you (once more) then seek not any way of excess against them. Indeed Allah is Ever Exalted, Great[138].

131.From this we know that the rights of husband and wife are not equal, the rights of men are more. This is true justice because it is incumbent upon man to take care of all her material needs and pay her dowry. A woman is not responsible for any material or financial obligations of man, Hence, the status of man should be greater.

132.From this we learn that in Islam man is superior to woman,. Hence, Prophethood, Imamet (leadership), judges, Azaan, Khutbah etc. are for men only. Purdah is incumbent upon a woman and these duties cannot be executed by being in Purdah - screen, veil or privacy. Also female obstacles, too, become a hinderance in the form of these duties.

133.By this is meant enjoys superiority over a woman for two reasons; one is personal the other is incidental. The personal superiority is being a man, and the incidental is giving material support for her. Thus, if any man does not, or is unable to give financial support to the wife, he is still superior to the woman. It should be remembered that the male sex is superior to female, not every male being is better then every female being. Millions of males like us are not equal even to the dust of Hazrat Aisha Radiallahu Anha and Bibi Fatima Radiallahu Anha's shoes. Gender is one and inviduality is something else, and being a human being is.

134.From this verse a few issues emerge:

1. It is incumbent upon the man to give financial support to the woman.
2. To take care of the household affairs of the husband is the obligation of the wife.
3. It is incumbent upon the wife to honour and respect the husband, therefore the wife should not address the husband by his name, nor make him do household chores.

4. Earning the wealth by the husband, spending of these by the wife is a means of receiving divine grace: man must not work with the spinning wheel and the wife, after acquiring a degree, should not go out to seek employment. If seeking employment was obligatory upon a woman, it would not have been the duty of man to be responsible for her financial support.
135.By this is meant inform the wife of the disastrous consequences of her disobedience to the husband which will occur as a result of this in this world and the Hereafter. From this we learn that it is important for the husband to learn these issues and teach them to his wife.

35. And if you fear a dispute between the husband and the wife [139], then appoint one arbiter from his (husband's) side and one arbiter from the side of the woman (wife). If they both desire reconciliation, then Allah will cause unity between them. Surely, Allah is All-Knowing, fully aware [140].

139. By "you" is meant Oh you guardians of the husband and the wife! From this we learn that making peace between the husband and the wife is the finest form of worship. To bring peace between waring Muslim brothers is similar to this. Furthermore, it is a wise thing to appoint a committee for this purpose. It is for this reason that Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) and Hazrat Muawiya (Radialllahu Anhu) appointed Hazrat Abu Musa Ash'ary, and Hazrat

36. And worship Allah, and associate nothing with Him, and be good to parents [141], and to relations and orphans, and the needy, and the near neighbours and the distant neighbours [142], and the companion of your side [143], and the wayfarer[144], and to

136.By sleep apart from them means do not cohabitate with them, do not discuss anything with them, boycott them completely as there is no better remedy than this for a woman.
137. From this we learn that an officer in charge can punish his subordinate but not viceversa. The husband can hit his wife to teach her good manners, but the wife cannot lift her hand on her husband. The same is with the teacher - pupil, Murshid - Mureed, (Religious Guide-Disciple) father-son, etc. A wife and the follower cannot seek or retaliate against the husband and the Prophet, respectively. In the matter of retaliation there is a degree of equality.
138.By this is meant if Allah Almighty accepts your repentance, then you too should overlook the errors of your wives and do not be harsh to them after they have repented.

وَاِنْ خِفْتُمْ شِقَاقَ بَيْنِهِمَا فَابْعَثُوْا حَكَمًا

Amar bin As (Radiallahu Anhum) as their negotiators of peace.
140.From this it is understood that it is permissible to appoint people besides Allah Almighty as rulers. It is not contrary to this verse because here the word "ruler" indicates absolute Huk'm (Command) which is for Allah Almighty "command is for no one but Allah " (S6 : V57) your male and female servants [145]. And surely, Allah loves not the arrogant, the boastful.

141.From this a few issues arise:
1. Parental rights are greater than those of the other relatives. Hence, Allah Almighty has ordered their obedience with His worship.
2. Service to parents should be rendered in every possible way physically and financially.

142.This means the neighbour whose house is close to yours, another may be in your own street but his house is not close to yours; or the person may be your neighbour as well as your relative, or he may be just your neighbour but not your relative, or he who is a neighbour as well as a Muslim, or he may just be a neighbour but not a Muslim. Thus, there is much detailed discussion available on neighbour, far and distant. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

143.In the word "Companion of your side" include your wife, companion on journey, one's colleague, one's brother in Sufi Silsila, or one who sits with you in the Mosque. Thus, there are many definitions attached to companions of the side. (Khazainul Irfaan)

144. In the word 'wayfarer' a guest as well as a wayfarer are included. The entertainment of the guests is a distinguishing characteristic of a Muslim. A guest is he who comes to visit us either at our invitation or on his own. One who puts up by you for one's own work is not a guest, e.g. those involved in a court case visiting the attorney, or those seeking verdicts from a Mufti - A Muslim jurist.

145.By this is meant do not exploit your male or female servants, do not speak harshly with them, give them food and clothes according to their needs. It should be remembered that these rights of these servants are the responsibility of the Master. If he is negligent in respect of these rights he will be answerable to Allah Almighty. These rights cannot be demanded by them from the state. Hence, the saying of the jurists in this respect is not in any contradiction of this verse.

بِالْبُخْلِ وَيَكْتُمُوْنَ مَآ اٰتٰىهُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ

37. Those who themselves act miserly [146] and say others to be misers, and conceal[147] that which Allah has given them out of His Bounty. And We have prepared for the infidels a degrading torment [148].

146. Not giving the dues to the person is miserliness. Zakaah, obligatory (Wajib) charity, not paying maintenance of wife and children too is miserliness. Similarly, concealing knowledge is being miserly with knowledge, we should be generous with wealth and situation.

147.From this we learn that revealing and expressing the bounties of Allah Almighty is part being grateful to Him, while it is forbidden to show pride and to brag. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "I am the most superior creation in the children of Adam Alaihis Salaam but I am not proud of it."

148.From this we learn that it is an act of apostasy for not describing the qualities and virtues of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم deliberately or distorting them in any way.
Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding those Jewish Ulema (scholars) who would deliberately conceal those praiseworthy qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which are described in the Tauraat. This incident should serve as a lesson for the present day Ulema who will not recite the (Na'at) poems in praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

38. And those who spend their wealth[149] to show off to the people and do not believe in Allah and the Last Day and whose companion has become Shaitaan, then what an evil companion is he[150].

وَ الَّذِيْنَ يُنْفِقُوْنَ اَمْوَالَهُمْ رِئَآءَ النَّاسِ وَلَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ لَا بِالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّكُنِ الشَّيْطٰنُ لَهٗ قَرِيْنًا فَسَآءَ قَرِيْنًا ﴿۳۸﴾

149.Mention had been made of miserliness, now mention is being made of extravagance. This includes giving charity for show, do weddings to boost one's ego, to spend on improper and unreasonable customs, etc. as they are all part of extravagance.

150. By "evil companion" means doing things themselves, but through some flimsy excuse stop others from doing so.

in this world that would gladden the devil who will be with him so much so that he eats, drinks and cohabits with him. For this reason the order is that begin every permissible work by invoking the blessed name of Allah (Bismillah). In the Hereafter this companion will be chained with the devil.

39. And what (harm) would have come upon them, if they would have faith in Allah and the Last Day and spent[151] out of what Allah has provided them. And surely Allah knows them fully well.

وَمَاذَا عَلَيْهِمْ لَوْ اٰمَنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَاَنْفَقُوْا مِمَّا رَزَقَهُمُ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَ كَانَ اللّٰهُ بِهِمْ عَلِيْمًا ﴿۳۹﴾

151.From this emerge three issues:
1. From whatever bounty Allah Almighty has bestowed upon you spend a little in charity. For this reason the word "what" is used here.
2. Do not spend everything in charity - spend a portion of it as understood from this verse.
3. Charity must be given from lawfully earned wealth, therefore this wealth is connected with Allah Almighty.

40. And Allah does not do injustice [152] even to the weight of an atom. And if there is any good deed He doubles it and gives from Himself immense reward[153].

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَظْلِمُ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ ۚ وَ اِنْ تَكُ حَسَنَةً يُّضٰعِفْهَا وَيُؤْتِ مِنْ لَّدُنْهُ اَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿۴۰﴾

152.Allah Almighty will not waste anybody's good deeds without any reason and then reward him, or punish a criminal more than what his crime deserves. All this is impossible by Allah Almighty.
153.We learn from "gives immense reward" that Allah Almighty out of His bounty will decrease the punishment and immensely increase the reward. Both these are manifestation of Allah Almighty's bounty. However,, both these bounties are only for the believer.

41. Then how shall it be, when We bring from every Ummah (comm.-unity) a witness. And (O beloved Muhammad) We will bring you as a witness against all of them [154].

فَكَيْفَ اِذَا جِئْنَا مِنْ كُلِّ اُمَّةٍۭ بِشَهِيْدٍ وَّ جِئْنَا بِكَ عَلٰى هٰٓؤُلَآءِ شَهِيْدًا ﴿٤١﴾

154.Every Prophet will testify about the good and bad deeds of his followers, and the followers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will be the testimony of these Prophets, while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will testify for his Ummah - (followers.) However,, there will be a difference in their testimony. The testimony of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم followers will be verbally given by him صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, and this testimony will be an eye witness account. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is keeping an eye witness account of all deeds, past, present and future. It is for this reason the non-believers will not be in a position to object. Those who will be objecting to the testimony of the followers will ask how are they testifying without being witness to the deeds.

42.On that day those who disbelieved and disobeyed the Messenger[155] would wish if the earth were levelled [156] after burying them in it. And they would not be able to conceal a single fault from Allah.

155.By this is meant both their beliefs and deeds are defective and wretched. The defectiveness of their beliefs is indicated in "they disbelieved" and defectiveness of their deeds is shown in "they disobeyed the Messenger". Every person should make it his duty to correct his beliefs and deeds and keep them both flawless, otherwise difficulties would be experienced later.

156.Just as animals would be turned to dust after being compensated over one another, the disbelievers too would wish that they too can be turned to dust. Says Allah Almighty: "And the infidel will say would that I were dust" (S79: V40).

43. O those who believe! Do not approach prayer while you are intoxicated[157] until you have so much sense that what you say you und-erstand[158], nor when you are in the state of impurity without taking a bath, except when you are travelling. And if you are ill[159] or on a journey 160 or when anyone of you comes from privy (relieving oneself), or you have touched women [161] and you do not find water, then take clean earth and wipe[162] therewith your faces, and your hands[163]. Indeed, Allah is ever Pardoning, Most Forgiving[164].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَقْرَبُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَ اَنْتُمْ سُكٰرٰى حَتّٰى تَعْلَمُوْا مَا تَقُوْلُوْنَ وَ لَا جُنُبًا اِلَّا عَابِرِيْ سَبِيْلٍ حَتّٰى تَغْتَسِلُوْا ؕ وَاِنْ كُنْتُمْ مَّرْضٰٓى اَوْ عَلٰى سَفَرٍ اَوْ جَآءَ اَحَدٌ مِّنْكُمْ مِّنَ الْغَآئِطِ اَوْ لٰمَسْتُمُ النِّسَآءَ فَلَمْ تَجِدُوْا مَآءً فَتَيَمَّمُوْا صَعِيْدًا طَيِّبًا فَامْسَحُوْا بِوُجُوْهِكُمْ وَاَيْدِيْكُمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ عَفُوًّا غَفُوْرًا ﴿٤٣﴾

157.Reason for its Revelation:
Once the Noble Companions of the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were invited to eat at Hazrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf ((Radiallahu Anhu)'s) place. After the meals alcohol was served. Just then it was time for Salah. The Imam recited Surah Al-Kafiroon in a state of drunkenness in which he left out "LA (No) in all places where it should have been read. This verse was revealed at this occsasion. At that time alcohol was not prohibited. From this we learn when a person is in a state of unconsciousness, insanity, and sleep when he cannot distinguish what he is reading, he should not offer Salaah, as is reported in the Hadith. After the revelation of this verse drinking became prohibited at the times of Salaah. Thereafter its total prohibition was proclaimed. From this we learn that if anybody utters words of apostasy in a state of unconsciousness or intoxication he will not be out of the fold of Islam.

158.This is connected with "until you take a bath" i.e. if you are unclean due to cohabitation with your wife and thus, are in need of a bath do not think of offering your Salaah. But if you are a traveller or if water is not available, then you can perform your Salaah by making Tayammum. The restriction of a traveller is because non-availibility of water is mostly during a journey. The following verse will provide more detail in this regard.

159.Any illness which will endanger one's health by using water - according to one's experience or if prohibited by a specialist doctor.

160.By this is meant outside the town where water is not available. Thus, by journey is not meant journey in term's of Shariah.

44.Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Book?[165] They adopted an erring path and intend that you too may lose the way[166].

165. By "one section" is meant you believed in section of the Tauraat and rejected the other, or

161. From this we learn that wudu does not break by just touching a woman or one's private part according to Hanafi because in this case just as coming from toilet means after relieving yourself, likewise touching a woman means either cohabitation or fondling. Having sex in the nude makes Ghusal incumbent, while fondling in the nude will make wudu incumbent. In short, mere touching is not meant here.

162. The creation from sand is also sand. The definition of creation from sand are all those things which take life from the earth, which do not dissolve in fire nor turn to ash, like the coal from the mine, stone salt from mountains, etc. On all these Tayammum is permissible. Although the water does not dissolve or burn, but because it is made from salt of water it is not suitable for Tayammum.

163.Reason for its Revelation:
While returning from the Battle of Bani Muslatiq Hazrat Aisha Radiallahu Anha's necklace was lost on the way. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the entire army went in the jungle in search for it. While searching, it was time for SALAAH and no water was available for wudu. In response to the problem, this verse containing the decree for Tayammum was revealed. Hazrat Usaid bin Hafeer (Radiallahu Anhu) said: "Oh family of Abu Bakr (Radiallahu Anhu) this is not your first bounty and blessing. Through your blessings many things have been made easy for the Muslims". This incident emphasizes the greatness of Hazrat Ayesha (Radiallahu Anha).

164. From this we learn that the Tayammum for the Wudu and Ghusal will be done the same way because Allah Almighty has mentioned both minor impurity and major impurity and the method of Tayammum described for both is the same.

اَلَمْ تَرَ اِلَى الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوْا نَصِيْبًا مِّنَ الْكِتٰبِ يَشْتَرُوْنَ الضَّلٰلَةَ وَيُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ تَضِلُّوا السَّبِيْلَ ﴿۴۴﴾

you believed in Hazrat Musa Alaihis Salaam and rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

Marfat.com

166. By "lose the way" is meant they themselves did not accept faith, but are now trying to mislead you. From this we learn that a person who is gone astray is more dangerous then the devil, because failing to mislead the saints, the devil despaired, but these people never despaired, and are also devising plans to mislead pious believers.

45. And Allah knows well your enemies [167]. And Allah is sufficient as a Guardian, and Allah is sufficient as a Helper [168].

167. Hence, when Allah Almighty had declared someone to be your enemy, he should be rejected as your enemy, even though outwardly they may be your friends, children or wives. Says Allah Almighty: "Your wives and children are your enemies, so beware of them." (S64:V14).From this we learn that if an irreligious person happens to be your close relative but he is an enemy of the believer, he is your enemy, but if a unknown person is a believer he is a friend of the believer

168.By this is meant He is your protection from your enemies plan. By this is meant with the Grace of Allah Almighty the noble Companions of the Holy Prophet were protected from misguidance. In fact if the Companions cast their eyes on any person such a person would be protected from misguidance.

46. Among the Yahud are those who distort words from their (proper) places [169] and say; "we have heard and we disobey," and you listen to us but do not make us to listen say RAINA twisting their tongues[170] and taunting in Faith[171]. And if they had said (instead); "we hear and obey", and sir hear our talks and, sir look at us[172], it would have been better for them and more upright[173]. But Allah has accursed them, so they believe not, save a little[174].

169.Reason for Revelation:
Some Yahud, Refaiah bin Zaid and Malik bin Hasham etc. would shun and disregard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم when they would speak to him, verbally they would say "we heard you" but inwardly they would say "we disobey", verbally they would say, "we hear you" but in their hearts they would say: "Continue not making us hear". In this manner they would give proof of their malice. This verse was revealed concerning them.

170.They would say this word RAINA twisting their tongue in such a manner that this would sound RA-EE-NA which means a shepherd or RAOONAT which derived from folly. From this we learn that any words which may have possibility of evil in them are totally forbidden to use in respect of Allah Almighty and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

171. By taunting is meant these malicious Yahud would utter such insulting words in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, then they would go to their friends and say if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was a genuine Prophet he would have understood our scheme i.e. outwardly we speak something but inwardly we mean the opposite. We use the RAINA with malicious intent. From this we learn that taunting at the Holy Prophet's knowledge is in fact taunting at the Religion of Allah Almighty. The Yahud are well known for this, therefore Allah Almighty has declared them as taunters of Religion. The present impudent and audacious people should take a lesson from this.

172.That they should have used the word UNZOORNA: "Sir look at us", rather then RAINA when addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as the first word would have no implied insinuation in it.

173.From this we learn that according respect to the Holy Prophet is to our advantage, while showing disrespect to his august personality is to our disadvantage.

174. By this is meant they only believed in Allah Almighty. Rejection of Prophethood and belief in Allah Almighty alone is not sufficient for Faith. Even the Devil, too, believes in Allah Almighty alone. It could also mean that they believe in their Prophets only, but reject the Holy Prophet . This too is insufficient for Faith.

47. O believers of the Book! Believe in what We (Allah) have revealed confirming the Book[175] with you, before We obliterate some faces[176] and turn them on their backs[177] or curse them as We cursed the people of the SABT[178] (Saturday). And surely Allah's Command is to be carried out.

175. By "confirming the Book" is meant the Holy QUR'AAN declares the truth of your books, or verifies your books as they had prophesized the coming of the Holy QUR`AAN. If the Holy QUR`AAN had not been revealed then all these books would have become false. It could also mean the QUR'AAN bears testimony to their truth, i.e. only those Books and Scrolls,as well as only those Prophets have gained prominence about which the Holy QUR'AAN have spoken of, the rest of the others are forgotten. and without trace.

176.From this we learn that mutilation of face, etc. are special forms of punishment which will continue to take place until the Day of Judgement. On coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم these types of general punishments like mutilation of the face had ceased to take place.

177.By defacing the faces is meant just as the back part of the head is level or flat so should the face be made level without having any eyes, nose, face, etc. in it.

178.Those Yahud who still did fishing on a Saturday on some pretext, despite the prohibition, were turned into monkeys. This metamorphosis will take place before the advent of the Day of Judgement. Either, in the world or on the Day of Judgement, this curse will take place without any escape.

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُّشْرَكَ بِهٖ وَ يَغْفِرُ مَا دُوْنَ ذٰلِكَ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ ۚ وَمَنْ يُّشْرِكْ بِاللّٰهِ فَقَدِ افْتَرٰٓى اِثْمًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿٤٨﴾

48.Indeed, Allah does not forgive association with Him[179], but He forgives [180] what is less than that for whom He wills. And whosoever associates partners with Allah has indeed forged a great sin [181].

179. Here, the word polytheist is used to denote a non-believer. Hence, everyone who rejects the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a polytheist - meaning a non-believer, whether he accepts the Oneness of Allah Almighty or adds partners to Him. Says Allah Almighty: "And give not in marriage to idolators until they believe" (S2:V221). He who dies in a state of non-belief, there is no redemption for him at all. For this reason it is prohibited to call a dead non-believer as one who has had divine mercy. The QUR'AAN often uses the word polytheism to denote non-belief.

180.The objection of this is to show that redemption of a non-believer is impossible. Besides non-belief, the biggest sin is within the limit of forgiveness, whether big or small, whether pertaining to human rights or rights of Allah Almighty. However, there is a difference in the nature of the forgiveness. The forgiveness of trangression of the rights of Allah Almighty will be different while the forgiveness of the transgression of the rights of man will be different. The rights of man transgressed will be made to forgive by man, while the other transgressions will be partly forgiven through intercession and partly through serving a temporary term of punishment in Hell

181.In this context, too, the word polytheism denotes non-belief. Every non-believer will be forging a great sin. It is stated in TAFSEER ROOHUL BAYAAN that both these verses are revealed concerning Hazrat Wahshi (Radiallahu Anhu) (one who martyred Hazrat Hamza (Radiallahu Anhu) who sent a request to the Holy Prophet that he wanted to accept Islam but the verse: "And those worship not any other god along with Allah...." (S25:V68) is preventing me from it. I am a polytheist and a murderer of a believer. In response to it, this verse and some other verses were revealed.

49. Have you not seen those who declare themselves[182] as pure? Rather, it is Allah Who purifies whom He Wills, and they should not be wronged (even) as much as a date-thread.

182. From this we learn that it is prohibited for oneself to add Mr or titles after your names as this is equal to self praise which holds no recommendation. Similarly, do not blow on your own trumpet. This is only allowed to express the Bounties of Allah Almighty. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "I am the chief of the progeny of Hazrat Adam Alaihis Salaam" (no pride)

50. Behold! How they forge a lie against [183] Allah, and that in itself is a sufficient sin.

183. By "forging lie" is meant those non-believers who regard themselves as superior and the believers as inferiors are forging a lie against Allah Almighty, because Allah Almighty had declared the believers as superior and the non-believers as wretched. From this we learn that to talk ill of the pious is inviting the wrath of Allah Almighty.

اَلَمْ تَرَ اِلَى الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوْا نَصِيْبًا مِّنَ الْكِتٰبِ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْجِبْتِ وَالطَّاغُوْتِ وَيَقُوْلُوْنَ لِلَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا هٰۤؤُلَآءِ اَهْدٰى مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا سَبِيْلًا ﴿۵۱﴾

51. Have you not observed [184] those who were bestowed a portion of the Book[185], believe in idols and demons [186] (devil) and say about infidels: "They are more in the right path than Muslims.

184. Reason for its Revelation:
Ka'b bin Ashraf and his seventy Jewish friends went to the idolators of Makkah and persuaded them to fight with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The response of the Quraish was that since the Yahud were People of the Book, and as such near to the Muslims, they saw danger in this. If they (Quraish) were to declare war in which the Yahud decide to join the Muslims what would be their position. In order to put us at ease you must bow down to our idols. These wretches had no option but to prostrate to these idols. Thereafter Abu Sufyaan enquired from them whether they (the Quraish) are on the right path or Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Ka'b replied that the Quraish were on the path of Truth. This verse was revealed on this occasion.

185. By a portion means portion of the knowledge, not of action because Ka'b bin Ashraf was a Jewish priest. From this we learn that the Book of Allah Almighty is divided into two parts, one is knowledge, the other is action. May Allah Almighty bless us with both. Without action, knowledge is a curse.

186. The word TAGHOOT (SHAITAAN) in this verse is derived from TAGHA meaning rebellion or of rebellious nature. When the Shaitaan rebelled against the command of Allah Almighty. Likewise all these satanic creatures are rebellious whether they may be from the Jinns or human demons. The Holy QUR'AAN, too, has referred to the leaders of infidelity as Shaitaan. Anyone who refers to the Prophet as demon (God forbid) is out of the fold of Islam, like Hoosein Ali of Wan Bhichianwala.

52. Those are the ones whom Allah has cursed, and he whom Allah curses; never will you find for him any helper [187].

187. From this we learn that the Prophets of Allah. the Saints of Allah Almighty, the deceased believers and infants will all become the helpers of believers, while the accursed infidels will have none to help them. Thus, if anyone says that he has no helper is in reality, inwardly, admitting his infidelity. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah and His Messenger is your friend" (S5:V55). Allah Almighty further states: "And help each other in righteousness and piety" (S5:V2).

53. Or, have they a share [188] in the kingdom? Then (if that were so) they would not give the people (even as much) as the speck on the date seed.

اَمْ لَهُمْ نَصِيْبٌ مِّنَ الْمُلْكِ فَاِذًا لَّا يُؤْتُوْنَ النَّاسَ نَقِيْرًا ﴿٥٣﴾

188.Reason for its Revelation:
The Yahud who arrogantly claim that they are the rightful claimants to prophethood and government because we are children of Israel.

Therefore, how can we accept obedience of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Arabs. This verse was revealed to refute the Jewish claim.

54. Or do they envy[189] the people for what Allah has given them out of His Bounty[190]? But We have already given the family of Ebrahim the Book and wisdom[191] and conferred upon them a great kingdom [192].

اَمْ يَحْسُدُوْنَ النَّاسَ عَلٰى مَآ اٰتٰىهُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ ۚ فَقَدْ اٰتَيْنَآ اٰلَ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ الْكِتٰبَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَاٰتَيْنٰهُمْ مُّلْكًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿٥٤﴾

189.Being envious of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Muslims.
190.From this we learn that Piety, Faith, Prophethood, all these are from the bounties of Allah Almighty. None can boast about these things.
191.From this emerge a few issues:
1. Prophethood and the knowledge of Religion are two of the greatest blessing of Allah Almighty, as Allah Almighty has mentioned these in respect of the virtues of Hazrat Ebrahim (Alaihis Salaam).
2. Prophethood has been made special for the progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On him be peace) after him, as no one else besides his progeny became a Prophet thereafter. Thus, Mirza Ghulam Ahmed Qadyani can never become a prophet because he is not a Sayyed - progeny of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, but he was a Moghul.

3. To be children of the pious, and to be from high ranking family, too, is a grace and blessing of Allah Almighty. Khilaafat after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had been restricted to the Quraish only. Said the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم : "Khilafat will only be from the Quraish". Infact it is stated in SAWAIQE MUHARRIQAH that the highest spiritual personages will only be from the Sayyeds. i.e. from the progeny of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Imam Mahdi (Alaihis Salaam) would be from the Sayyeds.
192. By this is meant granting wordly kingdom, like that granted to Hazrat Yusuf (Alaihis Salaam) and Hazrat Dawood (Alaihis Salaam), who were granted both prophethood and kingdom. Likewise, if Allah Almighty grants His Beloved Prophethood and Kingdom then why did infidels become hurt by it.

55. Some of them believed in him[193] and some of them turned faces[194] from him, and sufficient (for them) is Hell, as a blazing fire.

193. By this is meant to believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, as done by Hazrat Abdullah bin Salaam, and Ka'bah Ahbaar (Radiallahu Anhu).

194. By this is meant to remain deprived of Faith, like Ka'b bin Ashraf, etc. From this we learn that knowledge will only prove beneficial when the blessings of Allah Almighty become part of it. Hazrat Abdullah bin Salaam (Radiallahu Anhu) and Ka'bah bin Ashraf both possessed knowledge of Tauraat but Hazrat Abdullah (Radiallahu Anhu) benefitted because of his faith, while Ka'b lost out because of his infidelity.

56. Those who have rejected Our Verses, We shall soon cause them to enter [195] Fire. Whenever their skins will be fully burnt, We shall change them [196] with fresh skins, that they may taste the punishment. Indeed, Allah is ever Exalted in Might, and Wise [197].

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِنَا سَوْفَ نُصْلِيهِمْ نَارًا ۖ كُلَّمَا نَضِجَتْ جُلُودُهُمْ بَدَّلْنَاهُمْ جُلُودًا غَيْرَهَا لِيَذُوقُوا الْعَذَابَ ۗ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا ﴿٥٦﴾

195.From this we learn to reject the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to rejecting all the verses of the QUR'AAN, and the consequence of rejection is Fire of Hell.

196. From this emerge two issues:

1. Although the fire of Hell will reach every limb of the infidels, only their skins will burn. Says Allah Almighty: "One which rise over the hearts" (S104 : V7).

2. Inspite of remaining in such severe fire they shall not experience death, instead after every time the skin is burnt new one will be created in its place, like new skin is created after a blister. Furthermore, we also learn that this type of punishment is set aside for the infidels. The nature of punishment for Muslims is different.

197.By this is meant Allah Almighty has power of meting out any form of punishment and in every form of punishment there is Divine wisdom. It is the power of Allah Almighty that inspite of placing the infidels in such severe and intense fire they would not experience death. As an example if iron and steel are buried in the earth it will melt and destroy it, but when a seed is put into it, it will not destroy it. This is the power of Allah Almighty.

57. And those who believe and do good deeds, We shall soon make them enter Gardens beneath which rivers flow[198] wherein they shall abide forever. For them there are pure wives[199]. And We cause them to enter a place where there shall be plenty shade[200].

وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ سَنُدْخِلُهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا ۖ لَهُمْ فِيهَا أَزْوَاجٌ مُطَهَّرَةٌ ۖ وَنُدْخِلُهُمْ ظِلًّا ظَلِيلًا ﴿٥٧﴾

198. By this is meant all people of Paradise will be given several Jannats. Different kinds of Paradise will be rewarded for different deeds. These inmates of Paradise will also be the owners of Paradise of the infidels, had these infidels been believers. Just as there will be many rivers, so will there be many Jannats.

199. Every inmate of Paradise will be distributed several wives, his own believing wife from the world, Hoories of Paradise, and those believing women whose husbands would be sent to Hell. These women would be purified from all types of physical and emotional impurities like menses, discharge of blood after child birth, spit, snot, filth, ill-temper, etc.

200. By shade is meant there will be no heat in Paradise, as there will be no sun. Only the Light of Allah will be reflected to illuminate the place. This does not mean that there will be heat for which the trees would be providing shelter.

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَأْمُرُكُمْ أَنْ تُؤَدُّوا الْأَمٰنٰتِ إِلٰٓى أَهْلِهَا ۙ وَ إِذَا حَكَمْتُمْ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ أَنْ تَحْكُمُوا بِالْعَدْلِ ۚ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ نِعِمَّا يَعِظُكُمْ بِهٖ ۚ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ سَمِيْعًا بَصِيْرًا ﴿٥٨﴾

58. Indeed, Allah commands you to deliver back the trusts to their owners[201], and when you judge between people, judge with justice[202]. Surely, Allah admonishes you well. Indeed Allah is ever Hearing, All Seeing [203].

201.Trust can refer to trust in respect of wealth, deeds, knowledge or Divine Mystic secrets, etc. for which a person is responsible will have to discharge his trust. Some people are of the opinion that Hazrat Uthman bin Talha (Radiallahu Anhu) who was the keeper of keys of the Ka'bah was asked to return these keys after the Conquest of Makkah. Then other Companions availed themselves for this service by requesting to be placed in charge of these keys. At that occasion, this verse was revealed, and the keys were returned to him as before. Hazrat Uthman bin Talha accepted Islam after seeing the high degree of Trust. However,, in Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan, the learned Professor Allama Muradabadi (Radiallahu Anhu) says that it is generally accepted that Hazrat Uthman bin Talha had accepted Islam in the 8th Hijri, about two years before the conquest of Makkah. Allah Almighty knows best.

To this days the keys of the Holy Ka'bah are with the descendants of Hazrat Uthman bin Talha. Nevertheless, even if the revelation was at a specific occasion the, order is general.

202. The Ulama are of the opinion that the ruler or an officer should show equality between the plaintiff and the respondent on five things:

1. Grant permission to both parties in matters of consultation.
2. Seat - both should be given similar seating.
3. Attention - equal attention should be given to both.
4. To give hearing to both parties equally.
5. Passing judgement - he should be totally impartial i.e. be fair to both parties.

203.Therefore, Oh rulers or Officers take heed, that there is an authority above you as well, who is witnessing your judgement and decisions, and listening to your discussion. Tomorrow, you, too, have to present yourself in His Court.

يٰٓأَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا أَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَ أَطِيْعُوا الرَّسُوْلَ وَ أُولِي الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ ۚ فَإِنْ تَنَازَعْتُمْ فِيْ شَيْءٍ فَرُدُّوْهُ إِلَى اللّٰهِ وَالرَّسُوْلِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْأٰخِرِ ۭ ذٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ وَّأَحْسَنُ تَأْوِيْلًا ﴿٥٩﴾ ع ٨ ٩ ٥

59. O you who believe! Obey Allah and obey the Messenger, and those who have the power of command [204] among you. And if there may arise any difference among[205] you, refer it to Allah and His Messenger [206], if you have faith in Allah and the Last Day [207]. This is better and its end result is best [208].

204. Whether they be religious authorities like the Ulema, the Religious Guides, the jurists, jurists of independent opinion, or those holding worldly authority, like the Muslim emperors or Muslim governors. However, it would be incumbent upon those holding wordly authority to obey those having religious authority. The obedience of the two is based on the condition that it is not exercised for personal gains, otherwise such authority would be null and void. The obedience to the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is incumbent under all circumstances, even though the order may be contrary to any QUR'AANic injunction. The Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم order would be regarded as a categorical injunction in that case. Not giving Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu)) permission to marry another woman in the lifetime of Hazrat Fatima Bibi (Radiallahu Anha); the single testimony of Hazrat Huzaima Ansari (Radiallahu Anhu) being given the status of double testimony are examples of this. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty had excluded the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم from "those who have power" For greater research consult the book "Saltanate Mustapha". This verse serves as a proof for the validity of Taqleed.

205. If any differences take place between you and your superiors (officials etc) try and solve it through a categorical injunction (Ruhool Bayaan). From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the greatest of all authorities and the Emperor of the Emperors.

206.To turn to the jurists for religious assistance is like turning to the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم as they will tell you his laws. As the obedience of the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is obedience of Allah Almighty, so is the loyalty of the religious Ulema, the loyalty of the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم Similarly, it is important to be loyal and obedient to the Islamic ruler.

207. From this we learn that Faith is the claim and action is the proof thereof. Whoever merely makes a verbal claim of believing in Allah Almighty and His Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم, but in deeds behaves like the infidels, accepts the laws of America and Britain, the claim of such a person is baseless and without any proof.

208.Although some tenets of Shariah seem burdensome on oneself like Zakaah, Jihad (Holy War), making of interest unlawful, etc, but their end result is good. Muslims will be destroyed by taking interest,but will remain alive and well by paying Zakaah.

SECTION9

60. Have you not seen those who claim that they believe what has been revealed to you (O Muhammad) and what has been revealed before you? They wish to make the devil their arbiter[209], whereas they were commanded to reject him wholly [210]. And Satan desires to lead them astray.

اَلَمۡ تَرَ اِلَى الَّذِيۡنَ يَزۡعُمُوۡنَ اَنَّهُمۡ اٰمَنُوۡا
بِمَاۤ اُنۡزِلَ اِلَيۡكَ وَمَاۤ اُنۡزِلَ مِنۡ قَبۡلِكَ
يُرِيۡدُوۡنَ اَنۡ يَّتَحَاكَمُوۡۤا اِلَى الطَّاغُوۡتِ

الشَّيۡطٰنُ اَنۡ يُّضِلَّهُمۡ ضَلٰلًا بَعِيۡدًا ﴿۶۰﴾

209.Reason for its Revelation:
Bashar, the hypocrite, once had a quarrel with one Jew. The Jew asked for the matter to be decided by the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم but the hypocrite wanted them to go to Ka'b bin Ashraf for his decision. The Jew refused to accept Ka'b bin Ashraf as an arbiter and presented his case to the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم who gave the decision in favour of the Jew. Bashar the hypocrite was not prepared to accept this decision. They both then went with their case to Hazrat Umar (Radiallahu Anhu). There the Jew informed Hazrat Umar (Radiallahu Anhu) that the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم had already decided this case in his favour but Bashar was unwilling to accept this decision and thus, brought me to you. Hazrat Umar (Radiallahu Anhu) immediately beheaded the hypocrite, saying that whosoever is not happy with the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decision, death is his end. At that occasion this verse was revealed. From this incident a few issues emerge:

1. The hypocrites are worse then undisguised infidels.
2. There can be no appeal against the Holy Prophet'sصلى الله عليه وآله وسلمdecision with anyone. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decision is equal to Allah Almighty's decision.
3. To be displeased with the command of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an act of infidelity, and such a person is an apostate and deserving death because the person was outwardly a Muslim but on that day - the day he showed disregard to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decision, he became an apostate and was killed by Hazrat Umar (Radiallahu Anhu).
4. In respect of justice there should be no distinction between relatives and strangers. Although the hypocrite was outwardly a Muslim but the decision went in favour of the Jew.
5. The leaders of infidels are human devils - as Ka'b bin Ashraf, Kaib bin Ashraf has been called a devil in the QUR`AAN.

210.From this we learn that to appoint the infidels willingly to the position of leadership, and accepting their principles with joy is a severe criminal act, it would be forgiven if done under compulsion.

61. And when it is said to them: "Come to what Allah has revealed and to the Messenger. Then you see the hypocrites turn away from you averting their faces [211].

وَاِذَا قِيْلَ لَهُمْ تَعَالَوْا اِلٰى مَآ اَنْزَلَ
اللّٰهُ وَ اِلَى الرَّسُوْلِ رَاَيْتَ الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ
يَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْكَ صُدُوْدًا ﴿٦١﴾

211. It is crystal clear that in the presence of Islamic law and authority, it is the height of hypocrisy to give American or British systems priority.

62. So how will it be when any affliction befalls them, for what their hands have sent[212] forth? Then O beloved! Swearing by Allah: We intended nothing but good will and harmony only[213].

فَكَيْفَ اِذَآ اَصَابَتْهُمْ مُّصِيْبَةٌۢ بِمَا
قَدَّمَتْ اَيْدِيْهِمْ ثُمَّ جَآءُوْكَ يَحْلِفُوْنَ ۖ
بِاللّٰهِ اِنْ اَرَدْنَآ اِلَّآ اِحْسَانًا وَّتَوْفِيْقًا ﴿٦٢﴾

212. By this is meant that Bashar was slain at the hands of Hazrat Umar Farooque (Allah be pleased with him) to become the inmate of hell for which no compensation was to be awarded when this was requested by his heirs. This is exactly what took place. Allah Almighty too approved of this act of Hazrat Umar (Radiallahu Anhu).

213. Thus, the heirs of Bashar schemed an excuse by telling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that Bashar had not deflected from you but was peace loving. He wanted unity between all, therefore he wanted to take his case to Ka'b bin Ashraf.

أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ مَا فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ ۖ فَأَعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ وَعِظْهُمْ وَقُل لَّهُمْ فِي أَنفُسِهِمْ قَوْلًا بَلِيغًا ﴿٦٣﴾

63. Allah knows better what is in their hearts, so overlook [214] them and admonish them and say to them in convincing words concerning their affairs.

Hence, merely explain this to the heirs of Bashar.

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِن رَّسُولٍ إِلَّا لِيُطَاعَ بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ ۚ وَلَوْ أَنَّهُمْ إِذ ظَّلَمُوا أَنفُسَهُمْ جَاءُوكَ فَاسْتَغْفَرُوا اللَّهَ وَاسْتَغْفَرَ لَهُمُ الرَّسُولُ لَوَجَدُوا اللَّهَ تَوَّابًا رَّحِيمًا ﴿٦٤﴾

64. And We have not sent any Messenger, but that he should be obeyed[215] by the permission of Allah. And if when they do injustice unto their souls, then O Beloved they should come[216] to you, and then beg forgiveness of Allah, and the Messenger should intercede for them. Then surely they would find Allah Most Relenting, Merciful[217].

and wrong-doers, during all periods of time who have committed any type of transgression or sin must come to your sacred shrine or abode. It should be remembered that the word 'they should come to you' does not confine the transgressor of going only to Madinatul Munawwara, but he can achieve this by sincerely and mentally turning to him. If you can be present in the sacred city of Madina it would be your good fortune. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم abode is a place of cure for all our ills; nobody is turned away without getting his needs fulfilled. It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم coming in this world for us is one thing, while our seeking presence in his sacred abode is another thing altogether. The very rising of the sun is to provide sunlight for us, while our purpose of seeking its nearness by removing shelter is to obtain its warmth. Thus, there is a great difference between the verses: "Assuredly there has come to you a Messenger" (S9 : V128) and "They should come to you..." (S4 :V64)

214.By "admonish them" is meant that in terms of Shariah, hypocrites are not put to death.

215.By this is meant that although you (mankind) as well as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم have come into this world but the motive of coming of both is totally different. You are there to obey and be loyal to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , while he صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is there to exercise authority over you. Both the Captain and the passengers sail in one ship, but while the passengers travel to reach their destination the captain is there to pilot the ship to that destination. For this reason the passengers have to purchase a ticket for their journey while the captain is paid to pilot the ship. Likewise, we are sailing as passengers in the ship of Islam which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will pilot successfully to our final destination. The use of 'he should be obeyed' clearly indicates that every order of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be obeyed and every act of his should be put into practice.

216.In this verse there is no restriction concerning transgression, transgressor, time and place. Oh My Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم all types of transgressors

217.From this we learn that Allah Almighty is Most Relenting and Merciful to those who seek the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and for whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم offers dua. Otherwise Allah Almighty is Overpowering and Omnipotent. The pious sages say that those who seek the abode of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will indeed find Allah Almighty in respect of His attribute of Mercy. That is to say, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the address of God.

65. Then O beloved (Muhammad) by your Lord, they shall not be Muslims [218] until they make you judge in all their disputes[219]. Then they find not any impediment in their hearts[220] concerning whatever you decide, and accept from the core of their hearts [221].

فَلَا وَ رَبِّكَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ حَتّٰى يُحَكِّمُوْكَ فِيْمَا شَجَرَ بَيْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَجِدُوْا فِيْٓ اَنْفُسِهِمْ حَرَجًا مِّمَّا قَضَيْتَ وَ يُسَلِّمُوْا تَسْلِيْمًا ﴿٦٥﴾

218;. Such people will not even obtain original faith. In this verse there is a negation of faith, not the excellence of faith. Although a believer may be a sinner but he will not regard the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم judgement as unjust but as absolutely just. He will only regard himself as unjust transgressor and a sinner, Hence, he will not be bereft of faith. However,, after having read the Kalima Shahadah, if he still gives preference to Christian and Jewish laws to Islamic laws then such a person is out of the fold of Islam and is included in the command of this verse.

219. From this verse emerge few issues:

1. It is permissible to appoint someone as a judge besides Allah Almighty. In fact the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the deputy of Allah Almighty. Accepting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a judge is in reality accepting Allah as the judge. Hence, the above verse is not in conflict with:"There is no judgement but of Allah." (S12:V40) because here original or absolute laws and commands are intended, which come from Allah Almighty alone.
2. Now, after the departure of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from this mundane world, accepting the Religious scholars as the authority of the day (judges) is in reality, accepting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , as the judge, because these scholars are the servants and representatives of that sacred abode.
3. The mere acceptance of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم commands without being whole-heartedly satisfied about them is the way of life of the non-believers.

220. From this discussion emerge a few issues:

1. Every decision of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is absolutely correct and incumbent upon us to act upon.
2. Any verbal objection or non-acceptance of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decisions is infidelity and apostasy.
3. If anyone accepts the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decision under compelling circumstances, but is not in agreement with it, he too is out of the fold of Islam.
4. An absolute command is only issued for obligatory laws.

221. The reason for the revelation of this entire verse is the people of Madina would irrigate their lands from the water running from the mountain. As the lands of Hazrat Zubair (Radiallahu Anhu) and another Ansari were close to one another an argument ensued concerning the water i.e. who would water his land first. Their case was eventually presented to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The decision of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was that Hazrat Zubair (Radiallahu Anhu) should water his land first as it was higher than that of the Ansari. The Ansari was unhappy with this decision and remarked that because Hazrat Zubair (Radiallahu Anhu) was a close relative, the decision was given in his favour.

The above verse was revealed on this occasion. It is quite clear that at that point in time the judgement of apostasy could not have been passed on the Ansari because this incident had taken place before the law of apostasy had been promulgated as well as before the revelation of this verse. Commands in respect of laws are given after the laws are made. Now if any Muslim were to show disregard to any decision of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he would become an apostate.

66. And if We had to make it obligatory[222] upon them that kill yourselves and go out leaving your homes[223], then only a few of them would have done so [224]. And if they do of what they are advised, then it was better for them and stronger in establishing faith [225].

222.This is concerning the people of Arabia which are made up of sincere people as well as hypocrites.

223.This is similar to the command given to the Israelites. A criminal from them in order to seek repentance had to either offer himself to be killed or had to be banished. However, this does not refer to migration for the sake of Islam or Holy War; these two are included in Islam as well. Hence, there is no contradiction on the verse.

224.Such stringent decrees were only accepted by the sincere Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.The hypocrites and the non-believers would not accept him. Therefore this verse cannot be taken to serve as a proof. The brave manner in which the noble Companions sacrificed their everything on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is something the world can never forget 225.From this we learn that obedience and loyalty to Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم bring about firmness in one's faith, and is worthy of countless rewards.

67. And if it had been so We would have given them from Us a great reward.

وَّ اِذًا لَّاٰتَيْنٰهُمْ مِّنْ لَّدُنَّاۤ اَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا ۙ﴿۶۷﴾

68. And We would have surely guided them to the Straight Path [226].

وَّ لَهَدَيْنٰهُمْ صِرَاطًا مُّسْتَقِيْمًا ﴿۶۸﴾

226. The word 'Path' in this verse refers to the path of sainthood and obtaining nearness to Allah, because the noble Companions were already sincere believers. From this we can see that sometimes sainthood can be achieved through doing pious deeds. This is called acquired sainthood. Furthermore, we also learn that every Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a saint of Allah Almighty because all of them obeyed and remained loyal to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Had the hypocrites remained obedient to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they too should have acquired sainthood.

69. And he who obeys Allah and His Messenger[227] then he will get the company of those who have been blessed by Allah[228], of the Prophets, and the truthful, and the martyrs and the righteous. And what good companions they are [229].

وَالصِّدِّيْقِيْنَ وَ الشُّهَدَآءِ وَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ۚ وَحَسُنَ اُولٰٓئِكَ رَفِيْقًا ۝٦٩ ؕ

227. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Thoubaan (Radiallahu Anhu) was such a zealous devotee of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who could never bear the separation from the Master. One day he came in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم extremely sad and dejected. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم asked the reason for his sadness and dejection he replied:"When I cannot bear your separation in this worldly life, how will I gaze your beloved vision in the Hereafter." My beloved master would be in the highest abodes of Paradise while I would be wandering elsewhere. For me paradise will become a place of fear without you. "In response to this the above verse was revealed.

that through obedience to Allah Almighty one can obtain Prophethood so as to keep the door of Prophethood open for the future. Such is the meaning the Qadiyanis have understood from it. If this be the case then Allah Almighty says: "Allah Almighty is with those who have patience."(S2:V153) In terms of the above the patient persons should become Allah Almighty. Remember, to be with someone is totally different that to be that someone himself.

228.From this it should not be misconstrued

70. That is the bounty from Allah, and Allah is Sufficient, Knower[230].

ذٰلِكَ الْفَضْلُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ كَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ عَلِيْمًا ۝٧٠ ع ۹ ۱۱ ۲

229.It should be remembered that the manner in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would be with his sincere devotees in Paradise is like how a king would be with selected servants in the royal chamber. This does not necessarily mean that these devotees will have the same status as our Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

230.From this emerges two issues:
1. To obtain the nearness of the Holy Prophet in Paradise, is one of the greatest bounties of Paradise.
2. Everyone who claims to love the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not necessarily a true devotee of the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.Only Allah Almighty is aware of this.

SECTION 10

71. O you who believe! Take your precautions, then march forth towards the enemies, in companies or go forth altogether [231].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا خُذُوْا حِذْرَكُمْ فَانْفِرُوْا ثُبَاتٍ اَوِ انْفِرُوْا جَمِيْعًا ۝٧١

231.By this is meant avoid yourselves from being ambushed by the enemies, keep the weapons with you, and as you get the chance advance towards the enemies, in small or larger groups to attack them. From this it is understood that to keep weapons and other equipment for one's safety and security is not going against "relying on Allah."

72.And surely among you is someone (hypocrite) who will tarry[232] behind. Then if any calamity comes to you he says: "It was Allah's favour upon me that I was not present with them" [233] (the believers).

وَ اِنَّ مِنْكُمْ لَمَنْ لَّيُبَطِّئَنَّ ۚ فَاِنْ اَصَابَتْكُمْ مُّصِيْبَةٌ قَالَ قَدْ اَنْعَمَ اللّٰهُ

عَلَيَّ اِذْ لَمْ اَكُنْ مَّعَهُمْ شَهِيْدًا ﴿۷۲﴾

232. By this is meant that the hypocrites are lazy for prayer and this is the sign of hypocrites.
233.By this it is understood that live away or separate from Muslims and show happiness at this is also Kufr. Remain with the Muslims in deeds and belief because the sheep that remains with the flock remains safe from the wolves.

وَ لَئِنْ اَصَابَكُمْ فَضْلٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ لَيَقُوْلَنَّ كَاَنْ لَّمْ تَكُنْۢ بَيْنَكُمْ وَ بَيْنَهٗ مَوَدَّةٌ يّٰلَيْتَنِيْ كُنْتُ مَعَهُمْ فَاَفُوْزَ فَوْزًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿۷۳﴾

73.And if you obtain bounty of Allah [234], then he would certainly say, as if there was no affection between you and him [235]. "O I wish I had been with them so I could have attained great triumph".

234.By "bounty of Allah" is meant victory over the enemy as well as spoils of war. From this meant that Muslims regard victory over their enemies as a bounty from Allah Almighty and not as a result of their bravery.
235.From this we learn that to show for one's desire to be with the Muslim just for one's worldly gains is acting against faith. This is pure selfishness and an act of hypocrisy. Be firmly with the general Muslims in both your religious and worldly affairs.

فَلْيُقَاتِلْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ الَّذِيْنَ يَشْرُوْنَ الْحَيٰوةَ الدُّنْيَا بِالْاٰخِرَةِ ؕ وَمَنْ يُّقَاتِلْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ فَيُقْتَلْ اَوْ يَغْلِبْ فَسَوْفَ نُؤْتِيْهِ اَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿۷۴﴾

74. So let them fight[236] in the way of Allah who sell the life of this world for the Hereafter[237]. And he who fights in the way of Allah and is slain or achieves victory, We will bestow upon him a great reward[238].

236.By "fight in the way of Allah" means fight for glory of Islam and to destroy the might of the infidel so that these infidels do not become an obstacle for the Muslims to worship Allah Almighty. This is the true meaning of waging war for the cause of Allah Almighty.
237.From this discussion emerge two issues:
1. In Holy war no consideration should be given for personal gains. Territories should be gained for the service of Islam only.
2. The Muslim soldier should enter the battlefield fearlessly with the firm intention of sacrificing his life for the cause of Allah Almighty, as can be seen from "sell their worldly life for the Hereafter." If these two qualities can be assimilated in the believer, Allah Almighty will grant him victory. Says Allah Almighty: "You are the very same who shall overcome if you have faith." (S3:V13)
238. By "give him a great reward" is meant by giving the victorious soldier booty in this world and Paradise in the Hereafter or for the martys or a defeated soldier a great reward in the Hereafter. In any case this is such a barter in which no one is a loser.

Marfat.com

وَ مَا لَكُمْ لَا تُقَاتِلُوْنَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ
وَالْمُسْتَضْعَفِيْنَ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ وَ النِّسَآءِ
وَالْوِلْدَانِ الَّذِيْنَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ رَبَّنَآ
اَخْرِجْنَا مِنْ هٰذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ الظَّالِمِ
اَهْلُهَا ۚ وَاجْعَلْ لَّنَا مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ وَلِيًّا ۙ
وَّ اجْعَلْ لَّنَا مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ نَصِيْرًا ۝٧٥

75. And what happened to you that you fight not in the way of Allah [239] and (for) the oppressed among men, women and children[240] who say: "O our Lord! Take us out of this town [241] whose people are unjust, [242] and appoint for us from Yourself a protector and give us any helper from Yourself [243]".

239. From "Fight for the cause of Allah" we learn that Jihad - Holy War is incumbent upon a Muslim. One who does not participate in it without any valid reason would be just as sinful as the one who fails to offer his*SALAAH*. It should be remembered that the obligation of Jihad - Holy War is based on certain conditions. If and when these are found then only it becomes obligatory. Sometimes it becomes an absolute obligation, sometimes it is Fard-e-Kifaya i.e. if few participate in it others will be absolved of its obligation.

240. From this we learn that when worshipping Allah Almighty the thought of service of Muslims with seeking the pleasure of Allah Almighty is not polytheism, but permissible. Thus, Allah Almighty says in this verse that fight in the way of Allah Almighty on behalf of those weak believers. By weak believers is meant those Muslim men and women who due to unforeseen circumstances could not migrate from Makkah to Madina and Thus, had to remain there.

241. From this we learn that if one is unable to worship Allah Almighty while staying in a sacred place it becomes necessary to pray to Allah Almighty to make it possible for you to leave that place. Those weak Muslims of Makkah who were unable to migrate from the holy city were praying to Allah Almighty to make it possible for them to leave Makkah because they were unable to worship Allah Almighty freely in it, although presently it is a means of blessing to stay in Makkah.

Furthermore, we also learn that feigned piety is not allowed in Islam. Also, the noble Companions and the four Righteous Caliphs were not unjust, nor would it have become incumbent for Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) to migrate from the Holy city of Madina, and that it would have become unlawful for people to have stayed in Madina during the caliphate of the first three Caliphs without extremely difficult circumstances. Says Allah Almighty: "Was not Allah's earth spacious, so that you might have migrated in it." (S4:V97)

242. In this verse the word 'unjust' refers to those tyrant infidels who persecute the Muslims and do not allow them to practise their Religion. The presence of non-believers in any country does not make it obligatory to migrate from it.

243.From this we learn that when Allah Almighty is kind on any person. He provides helpers for him, while those on whom He shows His anger He leaves them no helpers. It is for this reason that prayer for seeking helpers is part of ones duty. Seeking help of those besides Allah Almighty is not an act of polytheism but a mercy of Allah Almighty.
The purpose of dua in this case is Oh Allah Almighty either take us out of Makkah or send Muslim warriors who would be able to save us from the clutches of the infidels. Allah Almighty accepted their prayer. Muslim warriors conquered Makkah and saved those weak believers from the clutches of the tyrant infidels.

76. Those who believe and fight in the way of Allah, and the infidels [244] fight in the way of Satan (devil). So, fight against the friends of the devil. Indeed, the plot of the devil has ever been weak.

244. The infidels fight either to please the devil, or to spread infidelity or for the sake of gaining territories. From this we learn that the Believers do not fight for any of these reasons, they fight only to gain the pleasure of Allah. War of kings is for tyranny and territorial gains. War of Believers is to emulate the way of the Prophethood.

اَلَمْ تَرَ اِلَى الَّذِيْنَ قِيْلَ لَهُمْ كُفُّوْٓا اَيْدِيَكُمْ وَ اَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاٰتُوا الزَّكٰوةَ ۚ فَلَمَّا كُتِبَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقِتَالُ اِذَا فَرِيْقٌ مِّنْهُمْ يَخْشَوْنَ النَّاسَ كَخَشْيَةِ اللّٰهِ اَوْ اَشَدَّ خَشْيَةً ۚ وَقَالُوْا رَبَّنَا لِمَ كَتَبْتَ عَلَيْنَا الْقِتَالَ ۚ لَوْ لَآ اَخَّرْتَنَآ اِلٰٓى اَجَلٍ قَرِيْبٍ ۭ قُلْ مَتَاعُ الدُّنْيَا قَلِيْلٌ ۚ وَالْاٰخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ لِّمَنِ اتَّقٰى ۣ وَلَا تُظْلَمُوْنَ فَتِيْلًا ﴿۷۷﴾

77. Have you not seen those who were told: Restrain your hands [245], and establish Salah (prayer) and pay Zakah (compulsory dues to the poor) and when fighting was made obligatory[246] upon them, then some of them began to fear [247] people as they should fear Allah, or even [248] more then that. And they said: "O our Lord! Why have you prescribed fighting upon us [249]? You would have allowed us to live for a short period". You tell them (O Beloved Muhammad): "The enjoyment of this world is a little and the Hereafter is better for he who fears Allah. And injustice will not be done to you (even) as much as a single thread [250].

245. Before migration from Makkah the Believers who were persecuted by the infidels of Makkah requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to retaliate but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prohibited them by saying that instead of this offer your prayers and give charity. From this we learn that Holy War: JIHAD became obligatory only after Salah and Zakaah Salah became obligatory before Migration, on the night of Me'raj, Zakaah became obligatory in 2nd Hijri while Holy War became obligatory also in 2nd Hijri but after Zakaah. Fasting also became obligatory during 2nd Hijri. The last two became obligatory after the changing of the Qiblah from Masjidul Aqsah in Jerusalem to the Ka'bah in Makkah and the order of Zakaah.

246.Before Hijrah when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم migrated to Madina only SALAAH had become obligatory in Makkah which was given on the night of Me'raj. Because there was no possibility of Holy War being waged by the Muslims in Makkah Allah Almighty did not make it obligatory there.

247. If the word 'some' in this verse is taken to mean 'hypocrites' then this fear was due to the weakness of faith in which case the purpose of the question would be to raise objection on Allah Almighty and expressing dislike in respect of a religious order. But if the word 'some' is taken to mean the believers then the word fear would mean natural fear which is uncontrollable and is part of human nature. Then this type of fear would not stop you from the service of Allah Almighty, and the purpose of the question would be enquiry of wisdom.in terms of Tafseer KHAZAINUL IRFAAN the second interpretation is more accurate.
248.The noble Companions displayed this type of fear due to human nature. This is not against faith. Musa A.s. had fear from pharaoh and Haman. Says Allah Almighty: "They both submitted O Our Lord, undoubtedly we fear that he may commit excess against us....." (S20:V45) This is the fear of causing harm, while in "There is no fear upon them" the purpose of fear is obedience, which no believer can have for a non-believer.
Thus, fears are of various types. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. The fear of people had deprived Mirza Gulam Qadyani from participating in Holy War and Haj. This fear is contrary to Faith.
249..From this we learn that let alone being a Prophet, Mirza Gulam Qadyani was not even a believer because it is against a believer's honour to fear any creation and deprive himself from participating in Holy War due to this. Mirza Gulam was such a frightened person that he did not go for Hajj and feared Holy War to such an extent that he would call this as an abrogated act. Further, we learn that Holy War will be until the Day of Judgement. Also, that the strength of belief has two consequences, the fear of Allah, and being fearless of any creation, which the noble Companion and the pious of Allah Almighty had possessed..
250.In this manner that you receive little reward or no reward or punishment will be given without any misdeed. Hence, participate in the Holy War happily and receive reward.

78. Wherever you may be, death will overtake you, even if you should be in strong forts[251]. If some good reaches them, they say: "This is from Allah" and if some evil befalls them, they say: This has come from you"[252].Please declare: "Everything is from Allah". Then what happened to them [253] what has happened to the people that they fail to understand any statement?

اَيْنَ مَا تَكُوْنُوْا يُدْرِكْكُّمُ الْمَوْتُ وَ لَوْ كُنْتُمْ فِيْ بُرُوْجٍ مُّشَيَّدَةٍ ؕ وَاِنْ تُصِبْهُمْ حَسَنَةٌ يَّقُوْلُوْا هٰذِهٖ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ ۚ وَ اِنْ تُصِبْهُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ يَّقُوْلُوْا هٰذِهٖ مِنْ عِنْدِكَ ؕ قُلْ كُلٌّ مِّنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ ؕ فَمَالِ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ الْقَوْمِ لَا يَكَادُوْنَ يَفْقَهُوْنَ حَدِيْثًا ﴿۷۸﴾

251.Hence, it is better to die a death of a martyr on the battlefield then that after months yours of suffering with illness in bed. In a Hadith it is reported that a martyr feels the pain of death as if bitten by an ant.
252. That since You (the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) came to Madina these calamities are taking place. God forbid. After the arrival of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Yathrib became a sacred city. In place of calamities it became a place of cure and blessing. The sand of Madina became blessed with cure.
253. From this we learn that all forms of blessings and calamities either came with the full knowledge of Allah Almighty or we become the cause of them. Piety is a means of obtaining comfort, while sin becomes the cause of calamity. Therefore there is no inconsistency between this verse and the earlier verse: "From your soul". Both verses are correct in their own place.

مَآ اَصَابَكَ مِنْ حَسَنَةٍ فَمِنَ اللّٰهِ ز وَ مَآ اَصَابَكَ مِنْ سَيِّئَةٍ فَمِنْ نَّفْسِكَ ط وَ اَرْسَلْنٰكَ لِلنَّاسِ رَسُوْلًا ط وَ كَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ شَهِيْدًا ﴿۷۹﴾

79. Whatever good comes to you is from Allah[254] and whatever evil reaches to you is from yourself [255]. And O beloved (Muhammad) We have sent you as a Messenger to all mankind[256]. And Allah is sufficient witness (to that).

254.To receive guidance to do good deeds is a bounty from Allah Almighty, and the coming of blessings on doing good deeds is a blessing from Allah Almighty. Our good deeds have no formal cause, but they are an apparent cause.

255.In this verse address is made to all generally i.e. the worldly calamities come as a result of our sins. Says Allah Almighty: "And whatever affliction reached you is due to what your hands have earned." (S42:V30) Calamities befall on the pious servants of Allah to elevate their status. Hence, there are different reasons for the causes of calamities.

256.By this is meant you Oh Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are a Messenger unto all mankind - past and future. From the time of Hazrat Adam Alaihis Salaam until the Day of Judgement all human beings are the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . It is for this reason that Allah Almighty had taken a covenant from all the Prophets in respect of their obedience and faith in our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , and on the night of Mi'raj made all the Prophets to perform SALAAH behind our Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

80. He who obeys the Messenger has indeed obeyed Allah. But anyone who turns his face away then We have not sent You to save them [257].

257. Reason for its Revelation:
On one occasion the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said he who follows me, follows Allah Almighty. In response to this some rude hypocrites remarked that does the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم desires that we should accept you as Allah Almighty. This verse was revealed to refute their remark and support what the Messenger of Allah had said. From this we learn that obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is incumbent in deed and word. And in specific things in common and in preferential matters it is incumbent upon us to carry out all instructions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم If anyone is commanded to do an act which may seem contrary to the command of the Holy QUR'AAN, it is obligatory upon that person to obey the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم command. Thousands of examples of this nature is at hand. For a proof refer to our book "Sulttamat-eMustapha". Single evidence of Huzaima Ansari was made like that of two; it was made unlawful for Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) to marry another woman in the lifetime of Bibi Fatima (Radiallahu Anha), Hazrat Suraqa was made to wear gold bangles, etc.

اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ كَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ وَكِيْلًا ﴿۸۱﴾

81. And they say, "We have obeyed, but when they go forth from your presence, a group of them make [258] plans in the night against what they had said. And Allah writes down [259] what they plan by night. Therefore (O Beloved) leave them [260] and trust in Allah. And sufficient is Allah as dispenser of affairs.

259. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding those hypocrites who when in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would say we believe in you, and your obedience is incumbent upon us, but would do everything to the contrary when they were not in his presence.

260. From this we learn that the works of the pious servants of Allah Almighty are indeed the works of Allah Almighty. Writing the books of deed is the work of angels, yet Allah Almighty says here Allah Almighty writes it. In the like manner works of Allah Almighty are done by His pious servants who say this is our work eg. Hazrat Isa (Alaihis Salaam) said raising the dead to life by permission of Allah Almighty is my work, I cure the sick; Hazrat Jibraeel (Alaihis Salaam) told Bibi Mariam I will grant you a son; although all this is the work of Allah Almighty.

261.By this is meant do not pay any attention to these hypocrites, or do not kill them, because the order to kill will only be given after their infidelity becomes known, while the infidelity of these hypocrites is concealed but we have informed you about it . Laws of Shariah are binding on what is known. Thus, this verse is not abrogated but firm.

اَفَلَا يَتَدَبَّرُوْنَ الْقُرْاٰنَ ؕ وَ لَوْ كَانَ مِنْ
عِنْدِ غَيْرِ اللّٰهِ لَوَجَدُوْا فِيْهِ اخْتِلَافًا
كَثِيْرًا ﴿۸۲﴾

82. Then will they not ponder on the QUR'AAN[261]? If it had been from other then Allah, then they would surely have found therein much discrepancy [262].

261.Reflection, consideration and deliberation over the verses of the Holy QUR'AAN is in itself an act of worship. According the learned scholars of Islam to recite one verse with proper understanding is far better then reciting a thousand verses without any understanding. Discussion about the QUR'AAN, looking at the QUR'AAN with reverence to reflect and ponder over the verses of the QUR'AAN are all acts of worship. However,, it should be remembered that every Tom, Dick and Harry does not have the right and capacity to reflect and comment on the issues in the QUR'AAN. Once this happens the Religion of Islam will be distorted and destroyed. If an ignorant person begins to give personal opinions in medical matters and starts prescribing treatment, he will be a threat to peoples lives. Likewise if he begins to delve in QUR'AANIC issues he will be a threat to people's Faith. It should also be remembered that the reflection and deliberation on the QUR'AAN differs from person to person. The purpose of deliberation on the QUR'AAN by the jurists should be to extract laws of Religion. The Sufis (Saints) should extract Divine hidden mysteries from it ; the learned scholars should extract the wisdom behind religious laws, while the common people should ponder over the QUR'AAN to revitalize their faith. Every person should not attempt to dive into the ocean.

262. By "discrepancy" is meant that its prophecies would not be accurate and based on truth; or that some of its verses would be eloquent and of good literary style while others would be of poor quality thereby bringing about inconsistencies in the verses. From this we learn that there are no inconsistencies on the verses of the QUR'AAN, and if one does find any inconsistencies in the verses it is due to our own lack of knowledge and understanding.

83. And when there comes to them some news of satisfaction or of fear, they spread it about [263]. But had they referred it to the Messenger and their men of authority, then surely they would have known its reality [264] from those who investigate and can draw conclusions [265]. And if there had been no bounty of Allah and His Mercy upon you, then surely you would have followed the devil, save a few of you [266].

263. It refers to:
Those weak Muslims who are not in the position to think and use their discretion, and who are simple, straight-forward and pious people. They do not know which information should be publicised and which should be withheld. Because of this they publicised everything they hear. From this we learn that publicising every type of information can also become a cause of creating dissension among people.

264. By 'their men' means those learned Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم like the four Righteous, Caliphs, Hazrat Abdullah bin Abbas (Radiallahu Anhu) etc. who in addition to their knowledge possessed deep understanding and insight into matters.

265.From this we learn that refer the QUR'AAN to the learned jurists, understand it from them and practise it accordingly. Do not get lost in your own opinions about it obstinately, or you will go astray. The reason being that the Holy QUR'AAN and the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are far more important then these matters in respect of satisfaction and fear. If order is given to refer these matters to authorities of knowledge and insight for your understanding, then it becomes equally important to refer these verses and Ahadith to these men of authority for your understanding as well.

267.From this we learn that no Companion of the Holy Prophet had gone astray. None of them followed the devil at any time. They are protected from the devil by the grace of Allah Almighty. Further, we learn that all the Companions are not of equal status. Some are of greater (firm) standing then others.

84.(O Beloved!) Fight in the way of Allah[267], you are not held responsible except for yourself, and persuade the Muslims [268], that Allah will soon diminish the might of the infidels [269]. And Allah is strongest in

فَقَاتِلْ فِىْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ۚ لَا تُكَلَّفُ اِلَّا نَفْسَكَ وَ حَرِّضِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۚ عَسَى اللّٰهُ اَنْ يَّكُفَّ بَاْسَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ اَشَدُّ بَاْسًا وَّ اَشَدُّ تَنْكِيْلًا ﴿۸۴﴾

Might and most secure in punishment.

267. By "Fight in the way on Allah Almighty" is meant that on the occasion of the minor Battle of Badar fight with Abu Sufyaan in such a way as was promised a year earlier at Uhud. If the people take it to be unbearable or unpalatable then Oh My Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم you go out alone to fight, the victory will be yours. Thus, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم set-out with seventy Companions, but the infidels out of awe and fear did not turn up for the battle.

268.From this we learn that it was not incumbent upon all the Companions to participate in this Battle. Those seventy Companions who accompanied the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم received reward, but those who did not participate did not become sinners.

269.By this is meant the infidels had no guts to face the Muslims, and exactly the same transpired. From this we learn that Allah Almighty's saying of 'except' too is a categorical affirmation. It also tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was an exceptionally brave person because Almighty Allah gave him permission to fight all by himself.

85. Whosoever makes a good intercession, there is a share [270] in it for him, and whosoever makes an evil intercession, there is a share [271] in it for him. And Allah has power over everything.

مَنْ يَّشْفَعْ شَفَاعَةً حَسَنَةً يَّكُنْ لَّهٗ نَصِيْبٌ مِّنْهَا ۚ وَ مَنْ يَّشْفَعْ شَفَاعَةً سَيِّئَةً يَّكُنْ لَّهٗ كِفْلٌ مِّنْهَا ؕ وَ كَانَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَیْءٍ مُّقِيْتًا ﴿۸۵﴾

270. From this we learn that to make a good intercession is an act for which you will be rewarded, while making a bad intercession is a sinful act. To intercede on some one's behalf for the purpose of saving him from a difficulty is a rewardable act, while interceding on behalf of a tyrant to get him out of any difficulty or purpose of aiding in tyranny is totally unlawful.

271.This teaches us that it is not only forbidden to commit a sin, but to create in a person a desire for sin or to advise him towards sinful acts is also unlawful. The same is the case with virtue.

86. And when you are greeted with a greeting, then greet him back with a better word then it, or return the same[272]. Surely, Allah is very careful in accounting everything [273].

272. From this we learn that it is incumbent upon a person to return the greeting (Salaam). The reward of some acts of sunnah is obligatory. To greet is an act of Sunnah, but to return the greeting is obligatory, yet the greater reward is for greeting. From this we also learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم hears our greeting from wherever it is made, and returns our greeting. This is so because in every Salaah greeting is made to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and since it is obligatory to return the greeting, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم returns our greeting. It is prohibited to greet anyone who cannot return the greeting eg. one who is sleeping, one who is in a toilet, etc. In reply to "Peace be upon you" it is better to say "Peace be upon you, and the mercy and blessings of Allah Almighty". To merely say "And Peace be upon you" would be its return. The "better word" suggests the full reply while by 'return the same' refers to the second or the short reply. To give a better reply is always commendable. To return the greeting is obligatory. Thus, "to greet him back" is a supererogatory command while 'return it' is for returning the greeting.

Marfat.com

273.The laws pertaining to greeting can be obtained from books on jurisprudence. Here just a few are listed: It is forbidden to extend a greeting to an infidel, an apostate or a polythiest, as they deserve to be cursed while in salaam a prayer (dua) is offered; Whoever cannot hear a greeting extended or who is unable to return the greeting it is forbidden to extend a greeting to him, eg. one who is sleeping, one engaged in Salaah, a person in toilet, etc; It is undesirable to greet a Muslim engaged in sinful activities, eg. one engaged in singing and music, playing cards, chess etc; Greet your wife and children on entering the house. It is sunnat for the one standing to greet the one who is sitting, while a person who is riding or driving should greet one who is walking. When entering an empty house greet as follows; "Peace and blessing of Allah be upon you, Oh Messenger of Allah" because the resplendent soul of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is present in the house of his followers (Haazir -Naazir - present & seeing). A stranger should not greet a young lady as there is a fear that this could lead to mischief.

87. Allah is, besides Whom there is none to be worshipped. And He will certainly assemble you together on the Day of Resurrection, of which there is no doubt. And who is more truthful in his word then Allah [274].

اَللّٰهُ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ؕ لَيَجْمَعَنَّكُمْ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيٰمَةِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيْهِ ؕ وَمَنْ اَصْدَقُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ حَدِيْثًا ﴿۸۷﴾

274. From this, one learns that lies in respect of Allah Almighty is an impossibility of personality. Because lies in respect of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is impossibility of non-person, and as Allah Almighty in respect of truth surpasses everybody therefore His Truth should be worthy and binding with His Person. Otherwise there will be no difference between the quality of truth of Allah Almighty and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

SECTION 12

88. What happened to you that you were divided [275] into two groups regarding the hypocrites, and Allah turned them back for their evil deeds [276]? Do you desire to guide him whom Allah has led astray? And whom Allah leads astray, never will you find him a way (of guidance).

فَمَا لَكُمْ فِى الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ فِئَتَيْنِ وَاللّٰهُ اَرْكَسَهُمْ بِمَا كَسَبُوْا ؕ اَتُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ تَهْدُوْا مَنْ اَضَلَّ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَمَنْ يُّضْلِلِ اللّٰهُ فَلَنْ تَجِدَ لَهٗ سَبِيْلًا ﴿۸۸﴾

275. When the truth dawned upon the Muslims about those hypocrites who did not join the Muslims in holy wars but instead conspired with the infidels against them, they had become apostates religious rebels and traitors of their land. As such they are liable to be put to death. Regarding them there were two groups of the Companions. Some taking into account their outward faith were not in favour of their death penalty, while the second group, in consideration of their apostasy and treachery were in favour of imposing the death penalty on them.

Marfat.com

Allah Almighty sided with the second group. From this we learn that the punishment for apostasy is death. Furthermore, anyone who corrobarates with the infidels to conspire against the Muslims is entitled to a death penalty, even though he may be reciting the Kalima. In addition, after the outward show of faith, the display of infidelity is apostasy. The hypocrites were liars from the outset, though outwardly they were professing to be Muslims. After their show of this treachery they became apostates.

276.Reason for its revelation:
This verse is revealed concerning those hypocrites who did not find the existing conditions in Madina to their liking but left with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to participate in the Battle of Badr. On the way they deserted the Muslims and went to Makkah in order to join the ranks of the polytheists. There was a difference of opinion amongst the Muslims concerning this group, whether they are hypocrites or as clear infidels, and at an opportune moment should they be put to death for their treachery or not. In response to this question the above verse was revealed. Hence, there is no inconsistency, with regard to the contents of this verse. (TAFSEER ROOHUL BAYAAN.) From it we learn that sometimes friendship with infidels can become a cause of apostasy.

وَدُّوْا لَوْ تَكْفُرُوْنَ كَمَا كَفَرُوْا
فَتَكُوْنُوْنَ سَوَآءً فَلَا تَتَّخِذُوْا مِنْهُمْ
اَوْلِيَآءَ حَتّٰى يُهَاجِرُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ؕ
فَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَخُذُوْهُمْ وَ اقْتُلُوْهُمْ حَيْثُ
وَجَدْتُّمُوْهُمْ ۪ وَ لَا تَتَّخِذُوْا مِنْهُمْ
وَلِيًّا وَّ لَا نَصِيْرًا ﴿۸۹﴾

89. They wish that you should also become infidels as they became disbelievers [277], so that you may all become equals. Then take not any of them as your friends [278] unless they leave their homes (migrate) in the way of Allah [279]. Then if they turn back (to enmity) then seize them and kill them wherever you find them [280]. And take not any of them as friends or helpers [281].

277.By "they wish" is meant the infidels did not recite the Kalima to become part of you, but their intention for establishing friendly relationship with you was to lead you to their side. Their desertion of the Muslims and joining the infidels in Makkah is an excellent example of their deceptive intention. From this we learn that it is an act of apostasy to try and win someone towards infidelity.

278.From this blessed verse we learn that it is totally forbidden to become friends of infidels, apostates and persons of irreligious sects, and call them Muslims even though such persons may outwardly profess to recite the Kalima, like the hypocrites of the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

279."Leaving their homes" should really mean that they should return from Makkah in total sincerety, and that this migration of theirs should serve as a clear proof of their Faith. If they turn their backs by declaring that we shall never migrate, we shall never accept faith, then they should be put to death where ever you find them. Do not trust their outward show of faith.

280.From this we learn that the punishment for an apostate in Islam is death. The punishment for an infidel himself is acceptance of Islam, the payment of poll tax, imprisonment or death, but for an apostate it is either acceptance of Islam or death.

281.From this we learn that in matters of Religion no assistance should be sought from polytheists. However,, at a time of necessity one should act upon "necessity normalises the abnormal".

90. Except those who are connected with such a people [282] between whom and you there is a pact (treaty) [283] or they come to you because their hearts have no strength to fight against you [284] or fight their own people. And if Allah has so willed, He would certainly have given them control over you, and surely then they would fight with you. So, if they withdraw from you, and do not fight with you and make you an offer of peace [285], then Allah does not open any way (of aggression) against them [286].

282.By "who are connected" is meant do not kill those who remain totally neutral, and those whose hearts have no strength to fight you nor help their infidel people to fight against you, nor join you to fight them. Nevertheless, the connection of this supposition is with "kill them" and not with "friends" as it is not permissible to make an infidel your friend whether he be combatant or a civilian under Muslim care, a refugee or a confederate. From this we learn that it is important to fulfil your contract, even if it is entered into with an infidel. Says Allah Almighty: "And fulfil the promise, undoubtedly, the promise is to to be questioned of." (S17:V34)

283.That is, do not fight with those infidels with whom you have reached an agreement. Fulfil your agreement. Thus, probability is only in terms of killing. This does not in any way mean keep them as friends.

284.From this we learn that sometimes the firmness of faith of the Believers would become a means of instilling fear in the hearts of infidels. This is due to the grace and bounty of Allah Almighty.

285.In the previous verse mention was made of those infidels with whom agreement already has been reached. Thus, do not break your agreement with them in order to fight. In this verse mention is being made of those infidels who show a desire to reach an agreement and peace with the Muslims. Upto now, no peace agreement had been reached with them. Thus, there is no inconsistancy in the verse. Or, this part of the verse could be an explanation and commentary of the previous part.

286. That is, since you have not been granted permission to wage war on them, accept their request for peace. This verse is abrogated from "kill the polytheists" as the Muslim ruler has the right to make or reject peace.

سَتَجِدُوْنَ اٰخَرِيْنَ يُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ

91. Now you will find others that they may be safe from you and may be safe [287] from their people. Whenever their people turn them towards mischief [288], they fall headlong into it. Then, if they do not keep aloof from you [289], nor offer you

Marfat.com

وَيُلْقُوْٓا اِلَيْكُمُ السَّلَمَ وَيَكُفُّوْٓا اَيْدِيَهُمْ فَخُذُوْهُمْ وَاقْتُلُوْهُمْ حَيْثُ ثَقِفْتُمُوْهُمْ ۭ وَاُولٰۗىِٕكُمْ جَعَلْنَا لَكُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطٰنًا مُّبِيْنًا ۝۹۱ ع

peace nor restrain their hands, then seize them and kill [290] them wherever you find them. And those ones against whom We have given you clear authority [291].

287. By this is meant the hypocrites are not reciting the Kalima with the intention of declaring faith, but they are doing this to escape death at your hands. Verbally they tend to be with you but inwardly they are fully with the infidels. Example of this is the hypocrites of Bani Asad and Bani Ghatfaan.

288.In this verse mention is made of those infidels who would like to make peace with the Muslims, having evil intentions. Outwardly they make but inwardly do not hestitate to join their infidel brothers to wage war on the Muslims. It is stated in KHAZAINUL IRFAAN that this verse was revealed concerning the two tribes of Madina, Bani Asad and Bani Ghatfaan who were hypocrites. They would recite the Kalima of the Muslims but secretly would join in with their people to plot against the Muslim in an effort to keep their people happy. From this discussion emerge two issues:

1. It is a height of hypocrisy to keep all parties happy through maintaining double standards.
2. If a hypocrite reveals any sign of infidelity like giving assistance to the infidels during war, it is permissible to put such a person to death.

289.By "keep aloof" is meant that they neither wage war against you, nor assist the infidels in war against you. This does not mean that they will keep aloof from you in order to join the disbelievers.

290.This verse has abrogated all those verses in which there was an order to be gentle with the infidels, or to keep clear of them. Likewise, prohibition of holy war during the sacred months i.e. in Rajab, Shawwal, Zil Qadah and Zil-Hajj too becomes abrogated through this verse. Now it is permissible for Muslim warriors to kill confederate infidels anywhere, anytime. This verse is absolutely firm and cannot become abrogated until the Day of Judgement. Anyone who regards it as abrogated is out of the fold of Islam eg. the Qadiyanis who regard holy war as an abrogation.

291.The gist of it, infidels are of different categories: Non-Muslims citizens who form part of the Muslim populace; refugees who come to seek peace and safety in our land; that confederate who may not be of these two types, but with whom temporary peace has been made; and that confederate with whom there is no peace accord. It is permissible to kill the last mentioned infidels, while killing of those mentioned earlier is prohibited.

وَمَا كَانَ لِمُؤْمِنٍ اَنْ يَّقْتُلَ مُؤْمِنًا اِلَّا خَطَـــًٔا ۚ وَمَنْ قَتَلَ مُؤْمِنًا خَطَـــًٔا فَتَحْرِيْرُ رَقَبَةٍ مُّؤْمِنَةٍ وَّدِيَةٌ مُّسَلَّمَةٌ اِلٰٓى اَهْلِهٖٓ اِلَّآ اَنْ يَّصَّدَّقُوْا ۭ فَاِنْ كَانَ مِنْ قَوْمٍ عَدُوٍّ لَّكُمْ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَتَحْرِيْرُ

92. And it is not befitting for a believer (Muslim) to kill a believer except by a mischance [292]. If anyone kills a believer unknowingly then he has to free a Muslim slave, and pay blood money (restitution) to the family of the deceased, unless they forego [293] (their right). But if he (the deceased) was from who are hostile to you and he himself [294] is a believer,

رَقَبَةٍ مُّؤْمِنَةٍ ؕ وَ اِنْ كَانَ مِنْ قَوْمٍ
بَيْنَكُمْ وَ بَيْنَهُمْ مِّيْثَاقٌ فَدِيَةٌ مُّسَلَّمَةٌ
اِلٰٓى اَهْلِهٖ وَ تَحْرِيْرُ رَقَبَةٍ مُّؤْمِنَةٍ ۚ
فَمَنْ لَّمْ يَجِدْ فَصِيَامُ شَهْرَيْنِ
مُتَتَابِعَيْنِ ۙ تَوْبَةً مِّنَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ كَانَ اللّٰهُ
عَلِيْمًا حَكِيْمًا ﴿۹۲﴾

then there is only the free Muslim slave. And if he is from the people with whom you have a pact[295], then blood compensation should be paid to his family and the freeing of a believing slave[296]. But, he whose hand does not reach to this (i.e. finds no means to free a believing slave) then he should fast for two consecutive months. This is repentance by Allah [297]. And Allah is Ever-Knowing, All Wise.

292.Killing by 'mischance' is of two types:
1. During a hunt a bullet fired at the prey may by mistake kill a believer.
2. Killing a Muslim by mistaking him to be an infidel confederate, but who on investigation turns out to be a Muslim. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding Hazrat Ayyash bin Rabeeah who had taken an oath to kill Harrith bin Zayd who at that time had not accepted Islam. By the time Hazrat Ayyash had killed Hazrat Harrith he had already accepted Islam about which Hazrat Ayyash was unaware. On enquiry it was revealed that Hazrat Harrith had accepted Islam. The QUR'AAN had declared this as 'killing by mischance.'

293.From this we learn that in killing by force both the right of Allah Almighty and the right of man are involved. Seeking atonement would be the consequence of rights of Allah Almighty, while compensation would effect human rights. Hence, the heir of the deceased cannot forgive expiation, but he can condone compensation. If human right is over-stepped only a human being can forgive that, but if the right of Allah is over-stepped, man has no jurisdiction to forgive that. "But that they forgo" is Thus, connected with compensation, and not with freeing of a Muslim slave. Therefore, the meaning of the verse is that if anyone kills a Muslim unknowingly, its expiation would be obtained by freeing a Muslim slave, and giving blood compensation to the heirs of the deceased which is equal to giving one hundred camels. However, if the heirs are willing to forego blood compensation it is left to their choice. Detailed discussion on blood compensation is found in books of jurisprudence.

294.If a Non-Muslim confederate becoming a Muslim is slain at the hands of a Muslim who was not aware of his Islam, only expiation becomes incumbent, not blood compensation because the people of the deceased are infidels while he is a Muslim, and an infidel cannot receive blood compensation of a believer.

295.The agreement should be of a permanent nature like in the case of non-Muslim citizens of the state, or a temporary agreement as in the case of refugees. If anyone from them is killed unknowingly by a Muslim, then the punishment would be the same as in the case of a Muslim being unknowingly killed by a fellow Muslim i.e. both expiation and blood compensation.

296.It should be remembered that in the case of expiation for the killing of mischance, a non-Muslim slave cannot be freed, while for all other expiation all types of slaves can be freed eg. for expiation of Fasting, expiation of ZEHAAR i.e. uttering something which has the effect of a divorce, etc. (Hanafi).

297.From this we learn that every sin has a different form of repentance. It is not sufficient to merely utter the words "Taubah, Taubah" verbally, for repentance to be effected.

Marfat.com

وَ مَنْ يَّقْتُلْ مُؤْمِنًا مُّتَعَمِّدًا فَجَزَآؤُهٗ
جَهَنَّمُ خٰلِدًا فِيْهَا وَ غَضِبَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَ لَعَنَهٗ وَ اَعَدَّ لَهٗ عَذَابًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿۹۳﴾

93. And whoever kills a believer willfully[298], his recompense is Hell [299], wherein he will abide for a long time[300] and Allah's wrath is upon him[301] and has cursed him and has prepared for him a great punishment.

298. From this we learn that this order does not apply to killings on the ground of misunderstanding in respect of interpretation of Islamic law, as in the case of battles between Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) and Hazrat Muawiya. In this case both parties regarded shedding the blood as permissible. Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) fought because he regarded Amir Muawiya (Radiallahu Anhu) as a rebel or an insurgent, while Amir Muawiya (Radiallahu Anhu) took up arms because he thought Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) was procrastinating in tracing the murderers of Hazrat Uthman (Radiallahu Anhu). Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) based his argument on the following verse: "Then fight the one that has committed excessiveness against the other." (S49:V9) while Hazrat Muawiya . (Radiallahu Anhu) based his reasoning with verse: "Undoubtedly We have given authority to his heirs but he should not exceed the limits...." (S17:V33) However, in this case Hazrat Muawiya (Radiallahu Anhu) had erred, though both are well liked by Allah Almighty. Just as the killing of a Muslim by mischance would not be regarded as premeditated murder, so is the case in the above.

299.Although Hell-Fire is the legal punishment for premeditated murder, but if the one fatally wounded forgives his murderer then Allah Almighty's Mercy and Grace can change this. In short, justice is one thing, but bounty and grace is another thing altogether.

300.Whenever the word "forever" is included with "eternity" its meaning would be forever, eternally, but if it is without "forever" its meaning would be a longer period of time. A Muslim will not be placed in Jahannam forever. It should be remembered that it is infidelity to kill a Muslim because of his faith or by regarding killing of a Muslim as a lawful act. The punishment for this is eternal Hell fire, but if a Muslim is killed during an argument or dispute, etc. this would be regarded as a grievous sin and its perpetrator would be placed in the fire of Hell for a long period.

301.In the words 'wrath' and 'cursed' there is a hint that it is permissible to curse a sinner with-out identifying him character like saying "May the curse of Allah Almighty be upon the liar.'

94. O you who believe! When you go forth for a crusade then make proper investigations and do not say anything to those who offer you greetings that you are not a Muslim [302]. You seek the goods of the worldly life, for with Allah there are spoils abundant. Such were your customs before this, and then Allah bestowed His special Bounty upon you [303]. So you are duty bound to investigate [304]. Surely, Allah is fully aware of what you do.

302. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning Mardas bin Naheek a resident of Fidak. Besides him the rest of his people were infidels, and the Muslims were unaware of his Islam. When the Muslim army left for Fidak, all its residents ran away, only Hazrat Mardas remained there. On seeing the Muslims army Hazrat Mardas extended to them the greetings of Salaam.
Hazrat Usama bin Zaid (Radiallahu Anhu) thought that he was greeting them in order to protect his sheep. So Hazrat Mardas was slain and his sheep were captured as a war booty. From this we learn that in whosoever you see sign of a believer without seeing any mark of infidelity he should not be called an infidel. It does not mean that whoever extends a greeting to you is a believer, even though he may be committing thousands of acts of infidelity. The hypocrites had been extending greetings and offering their Prayers (Salaah) yet Allah Almighty had called them infidels. Today every Qadiyani, Wahabi, etc. extend greetings of salaam, which means that by mere extending greeting does not make a person a believer. Similarly, one is not a believer by just professing to be one, until his beliefs are not that of a believer. Says Allah Almighty: "But Allah bears witness that the hypocrites are most surely liars." (S63:V1)
303. By "you too were such before" is meant Oh Muslims when you had accepted Islam you were accepted as Muslims merely through your verbal recitation of the Kalima, and your lives and possession were made secure. If confirmation of this was sought from the deepest recesses of the heart would it have been possible to accept you Muslims at that point in time. You should treat the new converts as you had been treated. It was the Grace of Allah Almighty that He had given full publicity to your conversion to Islam. Now no one can cast a doubt about you being as believers. From this one gathers that if the death of a Muslim occurs due to the misunderstanding of the interpretation of an Islamic law, then there is no capital punishment for it nor blood compensation. Neither will such a person be regarded as an infidel nor a sinner. Observe that Usama bin Zayd has been declared a believer by the Holy QUR'AAN. No capital punishment, ransom or blood compensation had been made incumbent upon him.
304.You are duty bound to investigate in order to obtain the booty. From this we learn that if any Muslim who resides among non-Muslims about whose faith Muslims are unaware were to get killed at the hands of a Muslim there is no expiation nor blood compensation incumbent upon his killer. The previous verse describes the position about that Muslim whose faith is known to all but is killed at the hands of a fellow Muslim due to any misunderstanding like cover of darkness, etc. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

95. Those of the believers who stay back from fighting[305] without being disabled, and those who strive in the way of Allah with their wealth and lives[306] are not equal. Allah has exalted in rank[307] those who strive with their wealth and their lives over those who sit aloof. And Allah has promised[308] good to all, and Allah has preferred the strivers over those who remain aloof, with great reward [309].

لَا يَسْتَوِى الْقٰعِدُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ

305. To "sit aloof" means when Holy War is not an absolute obligation. In the case when war becomes an absolute obligation it is a grave sin to remain aloof from it without any valid reason. In the event of it becoming obligatory those who are ill, etc would be regarded as disabled and as such excusable.

306. From this one learns that holy war is of life and wealth, infact of pen an a words as well. The type of war to be engaged into will be determined by the situation presented.

307. Reason for its Revelation:When the first portion of this verse was revealed Hazrat Abdullah bin Omm Maktoom who was blind addressed the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saying that Oh Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم how will a blind person like me participate in a holy war? In response to this the portion of the verse "Without excuse" was revealed.

308. From this it is learn't that all the companions are just and none of them is a FAASIQ (transgressor). Because paradise is not promised for the transgressors. If any historical event proves transgression of a companion, is a lie, and the Holy Quran is true.

309. It is reported in the Hadith that Allah Almighty will grant a Muslim warrior hundred ranks in paradise and between every two ranks will be such a long distance equal to the distance between the heaven and the earth.

96. Ranks of excellence, forgiveness and mercy[310] are from Allah. And Allah is Ever-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

دَرَجٰتٍ مِّنْهُ وَ مَغْفِرَةً وَّ رَحْمَةً ؕ وَ كَانَ اللّٰهُ غَفُوْرًا رَّحِيْمًا ﴿۹۶﴾ ع ۱۴ ۱۰

310.From the words "forgiveness" and "mercy" we learn that many earth. Grave sins too are forgiven through participation in a holy war which would not be possible to be forgiven through other pious deeds.

97. Those whose souls are taken out by angels while they were wronging themselves[311], the angels say to them: "In what condition were you?" They say: "We were weak in the land". They say: "Was not Allah's earth spacious so that you might have emigrated[312] in it?" Then the abode of such people is Hell, which is the worse place to return.

311.Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding those Muslims who were outwardly Muslims but did not migrate to Madina when migration was obligatory upon them and they were in a position to migrate. In the Battle of Badr they were forced to accompany the infidels of Mecca and were slain at the hands of the Muslims. Regarding them this verse says that to reside with the infidels and not undertaking the migration without any reason is bringing hardship upon oneself. At the time of their death the angels would be conversing with them in this manner.

It should be remembered that after the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم migration to Madina Muslims were forbidden to stay in Makkah without any valid reasons. Although the sacred Ka'bah, etc. were all in Makkah, yet after the departure of the Groom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the marriage procession (the followers) are meaningless. Similarly any learned man who may be in possession of great knowledge and practice, but if he has no connection with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then run away from him.

312. This verse is revealed regarding those people who regarded themselves as disabled and this excusable from migrating. However, in reality they were not disabled. Undoubtedly this type of explanation is not called from the disabled as is being gleaned from the previous verses. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses. This verse has cut off the possibility of TAQIYYA pious fraud from its root, because Muslims had not been given permission for that, i.e. to reside among the infidels by concealing their faith in order to lead their lives through flattery.Instead migration from the land of the infidels has been made obligatory upon them. If the Caliphate of the first three Righteous Caliphs was not based on truth, and had the two holy lands (Makkah and Madina) become lands of the infidels, then Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) would have either declared war on them or migrated from these territories. If Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) could wage war on Hazrat Muawiya (Radiallahu Anhu) because he had rebelled, and Hazrat Imam Hussain (Rahma-tullahu) did likewise because of the sinfulness and impiety of Yazid, then Hazrat Ali (Radiallahu Anhu) most certainly would have declared war on the first three Righteous Caliphs.

98. Except those who were oppressed, men and women and children, who were unable to devise [313] a plan or find any way [314] to escape.

313. By "suppressed" means those who were really disabled and are in no position to migrate, like Hazrat Abbas (Radiallahu Anhu), who was compelled to accompany the infidels forces in the Battle of Badr. For this reason the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم proclaimed that no one should kill Hazrat Abbas (Radiallahu Anhu) as the infidels had brought him in their army by force, he had not come on his own free will.

314.That the persons could not migrate due to the reasons outlined, Hence, they are excusable. From this we learn that if any person is unable to undertake the journey because he does not know the route to Muslim territory, etc. then such type of persons would be regarded as excusable.

99. For those it is expected that Allah will pardon them. And Allah is Ever Pardoning, Most Forgiving .

فَأُولٰٓئِكَ عَسَى اللّٰهُ أَنْ يَّعْفُوَ عَنْهُمْ ط وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ عَفُوًّا غَفُورًا ﴿۹۹﴾

Messenger and death overtakes him, then his reward lies with Allah[317]. And Allah is Ever Forgiving, Most Merciful.

315. By "he who will come out" means he who will migrate from Makkah to Madina, because at that point in time this promise was made to the Muhajireen, those who migrated to Madina. Now if any emigrant after undertaking migration does not find a satisfactory place, this would not be in any way contradictory to this verse and as such he should not reject this verse. Allah Almighty has already fulfilled His promise made with the Muhajereen.

316.By "abundant place and space" signifies that Allah Almighty would provide the emigrants from Makkah to Madina ample place and space in Madina. Allah Almighty has fulfilled this promise. Thus, this promise is not made for all the emigrants until the Day of Judgement. From this we learn that during the worship of Allah Almighty the intention of pleasing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gives that worship a greater strength. This is without doubt no polytheism. Hijrat or migration is a worship yet Allah Almighty has called it immigration towards Allah Almighty and His Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . It is stated in Bukhari Shareef "Whosoever migrates towards Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ..."

317.Reason for its Revelation:

This verse is revealed concerning Hazrat Junda' bin Dameera Laithee who was a very aged man. When he heard the previous verse he immediately said that I am wealthy, I am in a position to migrate, therefore I am not among the disabled. I will not bear to stay in Makkah for even one night. Accordingly people took him on bedstead as he was not in a position to travel on a camel. On reaching a place called Na'eem signs of death became visible on him. Then placing his left hand in his right hand he said: "Oh Allah this is mine and Your Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم hand. I am swearing allegiance on it on which your Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had taken allegiance." Saying these words he passed away. On hearing this polytheists made fun out of him that he could not reach Madina, but when the Noble Companions and the Muhajireen (emigrants from Makkah) came to know of this tragic event they became grief-stricken. This verse was revealed at this occasion. From this incident few issues emerge:

1. Whosoever makes an intention of doing a pious deed but is unable to do it due to unforeseen circumstances he shall receive the reward for it.
2. To leave one's country for the purpose of seeking Islamic knowledge, for going on pilgrimage, for visiting the sacred city of Madinatul Munuwwarah. in search of lawful sustenance, are part of emigration for Allah Almighty.
3. On critical moments like the one described above, such allegiances are permissible and acceptable.
4. A person who dies while studying to become a Hafezul QUR'AAN or a learned man will rise on the Day of Judgement in the company of Huffaz and Alims. Likewise, a pilgrim who dies en route to pilgrimage is a Hajee (pilgrim), infact he will receive the reward of Hajj each year, as is described in the Hadith.
5. It is an act of worship to reside in Makkah Mukarramah, as long as it is not without the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . At that time it was an act of Ibadat to leave Makkah, but forbidden to reside therein as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had migrated from it. Thus, it becomes crystal clear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم indeed is the beauty and delight of everything.

وَ اِذَا ضَرَبْتُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ فَلَيْسَ

101. When you travel throughout the land, there is no sin upon you that you offer some prayer by shortening [318]. it, if you fear that the infidels will afflict[319] you. Indeed, the infidels are your enemies.

318. "Shortening" means to shorten SALAAH of four rakats to two. From this we learn that there is no Qasr - shortening for Sunnah and Nafl prayers. Similarly there is no qasr for Fajr, Maghrib and Witr Prayers, as is indicated by the preposition "some" in the words "some prayers". Furthermore we learn that it is not a sin to perform qasr, while the verse is silent if qasr is not performed. One learns from the Hadith that a person who does not make qasr is a sinner like the one who reads four rakaats in Fajr Prayers. It is gift from Allah Almighty which should be accepted.

319. The restriction of fear during a journey is incidental, because during those days journeys were not free of fear. Now even if there is no trace of fear qasr is obligatory. An example of this is: "Devour not interest doubled and redoubled." (S3:V130) This does not mean that one can devour one and a quarter or one and a half times in interest.

When they have finished their prostrations[323], let them be (in position) going to the rear[324]. Then let the other group, which has not yet prayed[325] come and be your follower[326] in the prayer and let them also take their means of protection and their weapons. The infidels wish that you become negligent of your arms and your baggage so that they can come down upon you in one attack. And there is no fault[327] upon you, if you are in trouble due to rain or you become ill for putting down your arms. But you carry your means of protection with you[328]. Undoubtedly, Allah has prepared for the infidels a humiliating torment [329].

320. Reason for its Revelation:
During the Battle of Zaatur Riqua the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم performed Zohr Salaah with the Companions in congregation. The polytheists expressed great sorrow that they had wasted this opportunity of slaying the Muslims. At this some of the infidels said that take heart the time of their Asr Prayers is nearing soon. It is one Prayer which is more to them then their lives, their property, their parents. As soon as the Muslim stand in Prayer attack them with all your might. At that point in time Hazrat Jibraeel Alaihis Salaam presented the Prayer of Fear to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , and these verses were revealed.

321. By this is meant that during war when there is a greater fear posed by the enemy then Oh My beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم divide the SALAAH into two congregations. The one congregation should perform first rakaat with you while the second congregation wages war on the enemy. Thereafter the second congregation go to their rear and complete the second rakaat behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم while the congregation remains engaged in war. Thereafter they perform the remaining rakaat on their own.

322.Even those persons who are engaged in Salaah behind the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too should not leave their weapons but remain armed while in Prayer. Hazrat Abbas (Radiallahu Anhu) says that these people in SALAAH should wear only those weapons that would not cause hindrance in the Salaah eg. sword, dagger, or present day guns, etc. When those engaged in Prayer would be keeping weapons, then the other congregation who is engaged in battle have no reason to leave the weapons. Hence, both congregations should keep their weapons with them.

323.By "finished their prostrations" completing both prostration in one rakaat, or in Maghrib Salaah the first congregation had completed both rakaats behind the Imaam.

324.i.e. They should stand to oppose the enemy, whether it be in the direction of the Qiblah or in any other direction.

325 From this we learn that the Congregation for prayer is so important that even in the heat of the battle no one had been exempted from it. It is a great shame on those who leave out congregational prayers without any valid excuse.

326. Then, you Oh Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم do complete the two rakaats and make salaam, then the first congregation can complete the first rakaat without any Qirat i.e. recitation of the QUR'AAN because they would be LAAHIQ (Laahiq are those Muqtadees (followers behind the Imaam) who join the congregation from the beginning but then loose one or more rakaats due to some reasons) thereafter the second congregation should complete the first rakaat with Qirat as they would be MASBOOQ- i.e. Muqtadees who join the congregation after one or more rakaats have been performed.

327. From this we learn that in the Salaat of fear walking, moving the chest away from the Qiblah etc. while in SALAAH are all excused. If he does any of these he will still be in SALAAH, just like if a Wudu of a person in SALAAH breaks, he has to go and perform his Wudu, but he is still in SALAAH.

328. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Bin Abbas (Radiallahu Anhu) says that in this battle (Battle of Zaatur Riqua) Hazrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf (Radiallahu Anhu) became wounded to such an extent that he could not carry his weapons. The verse was revealed regarding him. Some Ulema use this verse as a proof that in SALAAH of fear it is compulsory to carry your weapons while in SALAAH, while majority of the Ulema are of the opinion that it is desirable to do so.

329.Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat bin Abbas (Radiallahu Anhu) relates that during the Battle of Bani Anmaar Allah Almighty granted a grand victory to the Muslims. On seeing the battlefield empty of all infidels the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم went to a near by jungle to relieve himself. When Huwairah bin Harith Mahaaribi got wind of this he appeared before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمwith a sword in his hand and said: Oh Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم " who will now protect you from my sword." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم nonchalantly replied: "Allah Almighty will protect me." As he made intention of attacking he fell to the ground facing downwards. As the sword fell out of his hand the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم picked it up and said" Who will now protect you from me?" "None",said he. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then said to him if you recite the Kalima there is protection for you.

Marfat.com

103. Then, when you have completed your prayer, remember Allah (while) standing, sitting and lying on your sides [330]. But, when you become secure, establish regular prayer [331]. Indeed, prayer has been made obligatory, at fixed times, for the Muslims [332].

330. Beside being in Salaah, engage yourselves in the remembrance of Allah Almighty of all types. From this two issues emerge:
1. When in battle the warrior should assume such a dignified posture that he carries sword in his hands while his tongue recites the remembrance of his Beloved (i.e. Allah Almighty.)
2. Those who recite aloud the First Kalima and Darood Shareef are doing acts which are not only permissible but are laudable. This verse is a source of proof for the permissibility for these acts. There are numerous Ahadith regarding reciting the Zikr aloud after the Salaah.

104. And weaken not in pursuit of the infidels[333]. If you are suffering hardship, they are also suffering the same hardship. You have hope from Allah but they have none. And Allah is Ever Knowing, the Wise.

333. Reason for its Revelation:
On termination of the Battle of Uhud the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ordered the Companions to go in pursuit of the infidels so that they would not turn back. On hearing this Bin Harith replied that he will not recite the Kalima but will give his word that in future he will neither take part in any battle nor will he assist his (the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم enemies. On hearing this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم left him. On this occasion the above verse was revealed to state that when you go to any such places always take every precaution.

فَاِذَا قَضَيْتُمُ الصَّلٰوةَ فَاذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ قِيٰمًا
وَّقُعُوْدًا وَّ عَلٰى جُنُوْبِكُمْ ۚ فَاِذَا اطْمَاْنَنْتُمْ
فَاَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ ۚ اِنَّ الصَّلٰوةَ كَانَتْ عَلَى

331. This means having carried out all the conditions of Salaah. Earlier on permission was granted to walk while in SALAAH of Fear, but this is not allowed now.
332. From this we learn that two prayers cannot be combined during a journey, because every Salaah has its own prescribed time as per Holy QUR'AAN. Those Ahadith which mention the combining of two prayers are in respect physical combination eg. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم read the first Salaah at its last possible time and he performed the second at its earliest prescribed time.

learn that for the purpose of encouraging the Muslim warriors it is permissible to talk about the courage and bravery of the infidels.

إِنَّآ أَنزَلْنَآ إِلَيْكَ الْكِتٰبَ بِالْحَقِّ لِتَحْكُمَ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ بِمَآ أَرٰىكَ اللّٰهُ ۭ وَلَا تَكُنْ لِّلْخَآئِنِيْنَ خَصِيْمًا ۙ﴿١٠٥﴾

105. (O Beloved Prophet) We have revealed to you the Book with Truth that you might judge [334] between mankind as you are guided by Allah [335]. And become not an advocate from the side of the deceivers [336].

334.Reasons for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning Tam'a bin Ubairik who stole his neighbour Qutadah bin No'man's chain armour, hid it in a flour bag and kept it in trust with a Jew. On searching both the armour chain and the flour bag were found in the Jew's house. The Jew said that Tam'a had kept it at his house. Tama's people, in an effort to protect their fellow brother tried and hoped that the Jew would be proven guilty, and Tama would be proven innocent. On that occasion this verse was revealed, to show that Tama's people had given false testimony to prove him innocent.

335. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decisions were based on two things: the Book of Allah Almighty and the Light of Prophethood. Hence, the decisions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were so firm and unalterable that appeal against them was totally impossible. Thereafter the decision of Learned Ulema and Muslim jurists and judges too would be based on the Book of Allah Almighty, and the testimony of witnesses, etc. Hence, the decision of any ruler or official is not fully acceptable and as such is open to appeal.

336. This command though is obviously addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم yet in reality the purpose of it is to let all rulers and officials until the Day of Judgement know that they should not be indiscreet or short sighted in their decisions or judgements. The genuine accused found guilty should be given full punishment without any regard or bias.
Observe that Tama was outwardly a believer and the Jew was a non-believer, yet the judgement was given in favour of the Jew. From this we also learn that every Companion is not free of transgression, though by the grace of Allah Almighty they do not remain on the part of trangression. Furthermore, no matter how great or serious a sin may be it will not render a person out of the fold of Islam eg. Allah Almighty did not refer to the helpers of Tama as infidels, but as treacherous or cheats.

106. And seek forgiveness[337] of Allah. Surely Allah is Ever Forgiving, Most Merciful.

337. It is quite apparent that this command is addressed to Tama that he should seek repentance for his sins. If it is addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it is done on the basis that the good deeds of the pious are sometimes the sins of the close friends. It was the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم wish that the judgement should be passed on the strength of the testimony as is the rule of Islamic law, whereas Allah Almighty says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should refrain from such an intention. Or it could also mean that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should seek forgiveness for those people who wrongfully assisted Tama so that Allah Almighty may grant them forgiveness for their

339. This verse is the foundation of piety and purity. If man is fully cognisant that nothing of his is concealed from Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then he should not be bold to commit a sin.

340. Allah Almighty due to His Supreme knowledge and power is with them, therefore they should be shameful and modest in respect of their behaviour. From this we learn that if man is fully aware that Allah Almighty is with him then he should not have the courage to commit a sin. Likewise, if he accepts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to be present and watching then he should never commit a sin. In this verse there is a hint that nothing is concealed from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because here in Allah Almighty says they hide from people, and not they hide from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, while in the words they hide not Allah Almighty has included the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with Him, i.e. they cannot hide from Me and My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Says Allah Almighty: "Oh Prophet, the Communicator of the unseen news! No doubt, We have sent you as the present beholder." (S33:V45) Allah Almighty is with the Believers out of His kindness, He is with the Prophets and Saints out of His Grace and Benevolence, He is with the infidels out of His wrath, while He is with all out of His Knowledge and Power.

341. By "they design in their hearts" is meant the people of Tama were designing secret plans to support him in order to prove him innocent so that no blame could come on them

342.By this is meant Allah Almighty's knowledge and power has encompassed them because Allah Almighty as a being is neither encompassed nor is He encompassing. He is free of space and place.

109. It is you who have pleaded on behalf of them in the life of this world. Who will plead on behalf of them on the Day of Judgement [343], or who will be their defender (on that day).

343. It should be remembered that it is impossible to quarrel by Almighty Allah to cause deceipt. To plead for the intercession of the loved ones, and the pleading of children for the repentance of their parents is proven from the verses of the QUR'AAN as well as from Ahadith. Says Allah Almighty: "Who is he that would intercede with Him save by His leave" (S2: V252) The Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said the miscarried baby will plead for the repentance of his parents in such a manner like the creditor pleading with the debtor. It will be said to the child: O the miscarried baby pleaoine your Lord But this pleading and squable will be gracefulness and, not to oppose Allah Almighty. Hence, in this verse there is no negation of intercession

110. And whoso commits evil or wrongs his own soul and thereafter seeks forgiveness of Allah, shall find Allah Forgiving, Merciful [344].

344.From this we know that for every kind of sin there is repentance, but the method of seeking repentance differs. The repentance of infidelity is belief, the repentance of not granting human rights is to grant these rights the repentance of ommision of Salaah is performing its Qaza. Also, laws pertaining to each are different. This does not mean that mere saying of Taubah - repentance will be sufficient to absolve yourself from the sin of robbery, murder, gambling, etc.

111. And whoso earns (commits) a sin, then he commits it against his own soul 345. And Allah is Ever Knowing, Most Wise.

345. By "against his own souls" means every person will have to bear the punishment for his own sins. There is no chance that one will commit sins and another will bear the punishment. However,, the one who aids the person in sin will be caught with the sinner.

وَ مَنْ يَّكْسِبْ خَطِيْٓئَةً اَوْ اِثْمًا ثُمَّ يَرْمِ بِهٖ

112. And whoever earns [346] a fault or a sin, then blames it on an innocent (person) has certainly borne that falsehood (slander) and a clear sin.

349.In this verse "sin" signifies major sins and "fault" indicates minor sins. To accuse an innocent person of sin is a severe transgression, whether that innocent person is a believer or an infidel, because Tama had accused an infidel Jew.

113. And (O Beloved Prophet) if there had not been the Bounty and Mercy of Allah upon you [347], then a group of them would have certainly tried to deceive you. But, they are only misleading themselves [348] and they will not do harm to you at all. And Allah has revealed to you the Book and Wisdom [349] and taught you what you did not know [350]. And great is the grace of Allah upon you [351].

347.By this is meant if Allah Almighty had not portrayed you as an innocent being, and had He not made all types of knowledge apparent to you then these people who have misled you i.e. they would have deceived you into making a wrong decission.

348. From this we know that Allah Almighty protects the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, therefore none can mislead him. The same is said regarding the Noble Companions in the following verse: "And they mislead none but themselves and they perceive not..." (S3:V69) We Thus, find that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم splended illumination had been cast upon his Noble Companions making their faith unshakable. In it there is prophesy of the unseen and discussion of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم complete protection i.e. they will not succeed in influencing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to make a wrong decision as Allah Almighty has blessed him with the knowledge of the unseen. Allah Almighty has made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم totally innocent and blameless, and neither will they harm the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in any way by taking the correct decision in all worldly matters, as Allah Almighty is his Helper. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah will guard you from people." (S5:V67)

349.From this we learn that both the Holy QUR'AAN and the Hadith are from Allah Almighty. The words and message of the QUR'AAN are from Allah Almighty, while only the subject of the Hadith is from Allah Almighty, but the words are that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

350.From "He has taught you" we learn that nobody can mislead the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , because only he can be deceived who is without knowledge. However, judgement is passed on the strength of the testimony, even though the testimony might be false, and there is no proof to declare it false. Furthermore, we also learn that Allah Almighty has blessed His Beloved Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with all types of knowledge of the unseen.

351.Allah Almighty has called the entire world as scanty: "Say you, the enjoyment of the world is little!" (S4:V77) but here He states that Allah Almighty has blessed you with a great bounty. From this we learn that the entire world is but one small portion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم dominion, otherwise how would it signify a great bounty!

352.In it all types of counselling is included like state conferences, meetings of national assembly, tribal councils, consultations about domestic matters. If all these are for a beneficial purpose they are good, if not they are bad.

353. By this is meant whenever there is a fight between husband, wife, father, son, friends, relatives, people of your street or ward, people of your city, Islamic states, etc. it is a great act of worship to bring peace between them. This will take the meaning when the word "People" refers to Muslims. If the word "People" denotes general mankind then its meaning would be to encourage the infidels to accept Islam so that they can be at peace with the Muslims, or if there are signs of war between Muslim and non-Muslim states, and peace is to the advantage of Muslims then try to negotiate peace to stop the war. Such a person will also be entitled to divine rewards. It is permissible to make peace with the infidels. Says Allah Almighty: "And if they incline towards peace, then incline you also and put trust in Allah." (S8:V61)

115.And whoso opposes the Messenger after guidance has become clear [354], and follows the way other then the way of the Muslims [355], We shall leave him in his own condition and shall cause him to enter Hell. What an evil destination that is.

354.From this we learn that those to whom the message of Islam has not reached are not accountable for Islamic laws, if they have the belief in the Unity of Allah Almighty it is enough for them because they do not become an opposition to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Also the sins they have committed out of ignorance will not include the sin of opposing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم opposition to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will only be accountable when it is done with the full knowledge of their action. Furthermore it should be remembered that opposition to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in faith is infidelity, and in action, - sin.

355.From this we understand that TAQLEED following the footsteps of our illustrious predecessors like the four Imams is commendable, as this is the path followed by Muslims in general. Likewise engaging in Khatmul QUR'AAN, Fateha, holding Meelad gatherings, Urs gatherings are practiced by the Muslim in general and are regarded beneficial by them. Hence, they are commendable acts for us to follow. Says Allah Almighty: "And Thus, we made you exalted among all nations that you may be witnesses to the people." (S2:V143) In respect of this Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "You are witnesses of Allah on the earth." He further said: "That which the Muslims regard as good, it is regarded good by Allah as well."

SECTION 18

116. Surely Allah does not forgive association with Him as partner [356] but whatever is less then that He forgives whomsoever He pleases [357]. And whoso associates with Him any partner has certainly gone far astray.

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ اَنْ يُّشْرَكَ بِهٖ وَ يَغْفِرُ مَا دُوْنَ ذٰلِكَ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَمَنْ يُّشْرِكْ بِاللّٰهِ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ ضَلٰلًا بَعِيْدًا ﴿۱۱۶﴾

356.By polytheism in this verse means infidelity. Say Allah Almighty: "And give not in marriage to idolators until they accept faith." (S2:V221)
Its meaning is he who dies on infidelity will not receive forgiveness, while he who dies a sinner can be forgiven. It does not mean that infidelity cannot be forgiven through sincere repentance. The general people of Arabia were first infidels but after accepting Islam, repented for their sins and thereby gained forgiveness.
357. From this emerge three issuses:
1. Misguidance has not reached the limits of infidelity. Major sins, like rights of Allah Almighty, human rights, etc. are all within the bounds of forgiveness, although the method of obtaining the forgiveness for transgressing human rights, will be forgiven by the person involved through the Grace of Allah Almighty.
2. Punishment or denunciation of oath is permissible and in fact it is apparent. Truly speaking it would not be regarded as an oath or covenant at all. Punishment to be meted out for all the sins is left to the sole will of Allah Almighty.
3. Forgiveness should not be regarded as automatic and definite, but one should hope for it. For that reason the words "whomsoever He please" are used in the verse. Hence, this verse in no way encourages one to commit sins, but serves as a deterrent. Despair drives you towards sins

117.These polytheists worship not Allah, but some females[358] and worship not but a rebel Shaitaan [359].

اِنْ يَّدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖۤ اِلَّاۤ اِنٰثًا ۚ وَ اِنْ يَّدْعُوْنَ اِلَّا شَيْطٰنًا مَّرِيْدًا ﴿۱۱۷﴾ لا

358. The infidels of Arabia regarded the angels as the daughters of Allah Almighty and as such made them the object of their worship. Therefore they had made idols of some past women which they would embellish with jewellery: as is the case with the present polytheist. Hindus who have made Ganga, Kaali, etc. as their female deities which they are worshipping.
359.Whosoever abandons the path taught by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to follow any misguided being is indeed following the devil, because all misguided persons have been led astray by none other then the devil.

118. Whom Allah has cursed. For he had said: "I swear I will certainly take some specific portion of Your bondsmen (devotees) [360].

360. From this emerge three issues:
1. Taqiyya (Pious fraud) is such a terrible curse that even the devil did not display profane piety in front of Allah Almighty which is what he should have done, but he spoke openly.
2. Allah Almighty has given the devil such extensive knowedge and powers that he knows every device to deceive people, this has placed him in a position to recognise every one.

3. Even the devil regards the Prophets of Allah Almighty and the Saints of Allah Almighty as innocent who safe guarded them from his deception. Hence, he referred to them as "Your bondmen". For this reason those who regard Prophets and Saints as sinners are worse then the devil.

119. And I will certainly lead them astray, and I will arouse in them (sinful) desires [361] and will command that so they will cut the ears of cattle [362] and I will command that so they will change the creation of Allah [363]. And he who takes Shaitaan for a friend[364], besides Allah, has certainly sustained a clear loss.

وَّلَاُضِلَّنَّهُمْ وَ لَاُمَنِّيَنَّهُمْ وَ لَاٰمُرَنَّهُمْ
فَلَيُبَتِّكُنَّ اٰذَانَ الْاَنْعَامِ وَ لَاٰمُرَنَّهُمْ
فَلَيُغَيِّرُنَّ خَلْقَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّتَّخِذِ
الشَّيْطٰنَ وَلِيًّا مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ فَقَدْ خَسِرَ
خُسْرَانًا مُّبِيْنًا ؕ ﴿۱۱۹﴾

361. It should be remembered that if the desire of long life and material wealth, etc. become an obstacle in your remembrance of Allah Almighty, then such things are works of the devil. On the other hand, if these are described as a means of pleasing Allah Almighty then they would be regarded as an act of worship.
362. From this we learn that reverence to the cow, to paint the horns of the animals during Diwali, Holi, to follow the customs of the polytheists are all included in the works of the devil. It is obligatory upon the Muslims to refrain from such practices. Infact to honour their big days, to show respect to River Ganges, etc. are all acts of infidelity. It is important for a Muslim to abhor all evil things and practices.
363.From this we learn that Allah Almighty has given the devil knowledge of the unseen because what he had prophesized for the future is coming true today. If the power of disease is such, then the power of medicine and treatment must be much greater. Prophets and Saints are treatment; the devil is the disease. Shaving of the beard too is included in this as it amounts to altering the creation of Allah Almighty. Just as it is forbidden for a woman to shave off the hair from her head so is the case with men who shave off their beards.
364.This verse is commentary to all those verses in which prohibition of taking anyone as a friend besides Allah Almighty. This verse has clearly shown that friend besides Allah Almighty is the devil and people who are followers of the devil. Friends of Allah Almighty are someone else, friends besides Allah Almighty are different. One should be mindful about this differentiation.

120. He (devil) makes them promises and arouses in them desires. But, Shaitaan does not promise them except deception [365].

يَعِدُهُمْ وَ يُمَنِّيْهِمْ ؕ وَ مَا يَعِدُهُمُ
الشَّيْطٰنُ اِلَّا غُرُوْرًا ﴿۱۲۰﴾

365.This is the satan's deceptive promise that you will be forgiven as a result of infidelity and that evil customs would become the means of achieving same. Present day Muslims are becoming victims of this web of deception. They are under the misconception that customs involving extravagant spending, building palatial homes, ministerial posts, etc. are no means of earning honour. This is all part of the devil's deception.

serving their sentence believers would be forgiven. Eternal punishment is especially set for the infidels.

369. By the word 'escape' is meant that once the infidels are thrown into hell they would not be able to escape from it. However, after

وَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ سَنُدْخِلُهُمْ جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَآ اَبَدًا ؕ وَعْدَ اللّٰهِ حَقًّا ؕ وَمَنْ اَصْدَقُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ قِيْلًا ﴿۱۲۲﴾

4. That the Day of Judgement is near, though it seems distant to us.

368. Hence, it is a certainty for the doer of good deeds to be rewarded with Paradise. Now, if anyone doubts about Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) or other Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for whom the QUR'AAN has promised Paradise, as otherwise is an infidel, because he regards Allah Almighty as untrue (Allah forbid).

367. From this verse emerge few issues:
1. Belief enjoys precedence over deeds because without sound belief deeds will not be accepted;
2. Good deeds are a pre-requisite for salvation no matter how pious a believer might be, he cannot be content without good deeds;
3. Good deeds are neither the core of faith nor part of faith because in the case of the first two words joined by the conjunction the second word would be regarded different to the first.

لَيْسَ بِاَمَانِيِّكُمْ وَ لَآ اَمَانِيِّ اَهْلِ الْكِتٰبِ ؕ مَنْ يَّعْمَلْ سُوْٓءًا يُّجْزَ بِهٖ ۙ وَ لَا يَجِدْ لَهٗ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَلِيًّا وَّ لَا نَصِيْرًا ﴿۱۲۳﴾ your belief that sin will not cause any injury to you is false. Whoever from you indulges in sin will be punished. From this we learn that the infidels are not absolved from the laws of Shariah in terms of the Hereafter. Hence, they will be punished both for the infidelity as well as for committing sins.

369.Reason for its Revelation:
It was the claim of the Yahud that they will only be punished for forty days because they had worshipped the golden calf for these number of days; the Nasara were propagating that they will not be punished because Jesus Christ gave his blood on the cross for expiation of their sins; the polytheists were of the belief that their idols will save them from the punishment of hell. This verse was revealed to repudiate these claims.

370. i.e. Oh Yahud, Nasara, Polytheists, etc.

371. From this we learn that deprivation of helpers is a punishment for the infidels. Allah Almighty will provide many helpers for the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah Almighty is your friend and His Messenger and the believers". (S5-V55)

وَ مَنْ يَّعْمَلْ مِنَ الصّٰلِحٰتِ مِنْ ذَكَرٍ

الْجَنَّةَ وَ لَا يُظْلَمُوْنَ نَقِيْرًا ﴿۱۲۴﴾

124. And whoever does righteous deeds, whether male or a female, while being a believer, those will enter Paradise, and they shall not be wronged a bit [372].

372.By "be wronged a bit" is meant neither are his good deeds going to be decreased nor his sins are going to be increased. If his good deeds are going to be forfeited it would be due to his own failure or fault.

وَ مَنْ اَحْسَنُ دِيْنًا مِّمَّنْ اَسْلَمَ وَجْهَهٗ

حَنِيْفًا ؕ وَاتَّخَذَ اللّٰهُ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ خَلِيْلًا ﴿۱۲۵﴾

125. And who is better in religion then he who submits his face to Allah[373] while being a doer of good[374] and follows the religion of Ebrahim who was separate from every falsehood[375]. And Allah took Ebrahim for His intimate friend [376].

373.Although the literal meaning of the word "Face" is one's full countenance, but in this context it is used to indicate to one's person, because submitting oneself to anyone is equal to handing over oneself to him.

374.By this is meant a person should do good deeds.
From it two issues emerge:
1. After accepting faith a person does not become free from doing good deeds, he must endeavour to do good deeds, to the best of his ability.
2. Faith precedes good deeds, Hence, the benefactor is mentioned after "submits his face".

375.From this we learn that in order to obey Allah Almighty it is incumbent to follow the Religion of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) which is now found in the Religion of Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . No charitable deeds will be of any avail by turning away from it. Once the root is cut off it is useles watering the branches.

376.The meaning of KHULLAT is cut off all connections from unrelated persons. It is presently used to indicate friendship in which connection is cut off from all unrelated persons of the friend KHALEEL - Allah Almighty's friend is one who seeks the pleasure of, Almighty Allah MEHBOOB and HABEEB is one whose pleasure is sought by Allah Almighty.Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is both KHALEEL AND HABEEB. Says Allah Almighty: "And undoubtedly soon your Lord shall give you so much that you shall be satisfied." (S93-V5)

وَ لِلّٰهِ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ
وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّحِيْطًا ﴿۱۲۶﴾ ع ۱۹ ۱۱ ۱۵

126. And to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and all[377] that is on the earth.And Allah encircles all things.

380.By "all that" is not meant that only the earthly and heavenly things belong to Allah Almighty, and others are excluded. Because our eyes perceive perceptible objects, mention is made here of those objects.

وَيَسْتَفْتُوْنَكَ فِي النِّسَآءِ ؕ قُلِ اللّٰهُ يُفْتِيْكُمْ فِيْهِنَّ ۙ وَمَا يُتْلٰى عَلَيْكُمْ فِي الْكِتٰبِ فِيْ يَتٰمَى النِّسَآءِ الّٰتِيْ لَا تُؤْتُوْنَهُنَّ مَا كُتِبَ لَهُنَّ وَ تَرْغَبُوْنَ اَنْ تَنْكِحُوْهُنَّ وَالْمُسْتَضْعَفِيْنَ مِنَ الْوِلْدَانِ ۙ وَ اَنْ تَقُوْمُوْا لِلْيَتٰمٰى بِالْقِسْطِ ؕ وَ مَا تَفْعَلُوْا مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ بِهٖ عَلِيْمًا ﴿۱۲۷﴾

127. And they request from you (O Muhammad) your verdict [378] concerning women. Please declare: "Allah gives verdict [379] to you concerning them and that which is recited to you in the Book (QUR'AAN) concerning the orphan girls to whom You give not what is prescribed for them [380] and (yet) turn your faces from marrying[381] them. And concerning the oppressed children He has instructed you that you maintain justice [382] towards the orphans. And whatever good you do, Allah is aware of your doings [383].

378.Reason for its Revelation:
The pre-Islamic Arab custom excluded the widows and orphaned daughters from the inheritance of the deceased. If the orphan was beautiful the heirs would marry her for a meagre dowry, if she was ugly but rich, neither the heir would marry her nor allow her to marry anyone else. This verse was revealed to repudiate this pagan custom. From this verse we understand that a minor girl can be regarded as a woman. Further, to deprive girls from the inheritance is the custom of the pagan Arabs which is a great injustice. This will not be forgiven even through seeking repentance, as it is an infrigement of human rights.

379.From this we learn that the laws of inheritance are very important because no issue is discussed in more detail by Allah Almighty in the Holy QUR'AAN then this issue. Thus, Allah Almighty says He gives the verdict - i.e. the verdict regarding other issues is given by man but the verdict on this issue is given by Allah Almighty himself.

380.In these verses Allah Almighty is addressing the Muslims that up to now you were indulging in this practice, in future refrain from this. In future inheritance of the infidels would be distributed according to their religious laws. The verdict of Islamic rulers too would be based on this.

381.By this is meant they would not marry the orphan girls because of their lack of physical beauty and material wealth.

382.Many issues are involved in this. To give the orphans their full rights; not to use up their wealth under some pretext; not to treat them with cruelty; to give them good education and training. In short, treat them exactly how you would treat your own children.

383.By 'good' is meant whatever good you do towards the orphans besides what is obligatory to be done for them for which Allah Almighty will reward you. From this we learn that we should treat the orphans better then what is due to them.

وَ اِنِ امْرَاَةٌ خَافَتْ مِنْۢ بَعْلِهَا نُشُوْزًا اَوْ اِعْرَاضًا فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِمَاۤ اَنْ يُّصْلِحَا بَيْنَهُمَا صُلْحًا ؕ وَ الصُّلْحُ خَيْرٌ ؕ

128. And if a woman fears ill treatment or desertion from her husband [384] then there is no sin on them that they reconcile [385] between themselves, and mutual reconciliation is best [386]. But, human hearts are entangled in greed [387]. And if you do good and fear Allah, then indeed Allah is aware of your doings [388]

384.The high-handedness of the husband will be when he does not provide food and drinks for her, or provide these in lesser quantities then needed, or beat her up or use abusive language, shunning her by not loving her sincerely and cutting off verbal communication with her.

385.Reconciliation can be brought about if the wife wishing to stay with her husband should try to forgo some of her rights due by the husband, or the husband should forbear his wife's shortcomings and despite his lessened inclination towards her still treat her well.

386.Reconciliation is better then separation and divorce, because even though divorce is permissible, it is the most hateful thing in the eyes of Allah.

387.From this we learn that greed is part of human nature. Everyone place's his own rest and comfort above everything else. He will not try to provide comfort to others by undergoing hardship himself.

388. Allah Almighty is telling the husband that despite your dislike for the present wife be good to her in the understanding that the wife is the trust of Allah in your hands, if you do this, then We too will shower Our Grace and Bounty upon him.

وَلَنْ تَسْتَطِيْعُوْٓا اَنْ تَعْدِلُوْا بَيْنَ النِّسَآءِ وَ لَوْ حَرَصْتُمْ فَلَا تَمِيْلُوْا كُلَّ الْمَيْلِ فَتَذَرُوْهَا كَالْمُعَلَّقَةِ ؕ وَ اِنْ تُصْلِحُوْا وَتَتَّقُوْا فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ غَفُوْرًا رَّحِيْمًا ﴿۱۲۹﴾

129. And it would never be possible for you to treat women equally, how much you may desire[389]. So do not incline altogether towards only one (wife)[390] that you leave others hanging 391 in the midst. And if you do good and fear Allah, then undoubtedly Allah is Ever- Forgiving, Most Merciful [392].

389.No matter how pious a person may be and treats every wife equally, with full justice, it is just human to be inclined to one more then the other. If this happens there will be no blame on you. But if you are harsh in their treatment, you will be held accountable.

390. Do not administer justice superficially or one sidedly.

391.By "to leave the other hanging" is meant either to give her divorce, not to put her back on sound footing, not to treat her well, to deprive her of her maintenance and conjugal rights.

392. From this we learn that to bring about reconciliation between the husband and his wife is an act of great reward.

130. And if they both separate (by divorce) Allah will make each of you independent from [393] the other out of His Bounty. And Allah is Most Bountiful, Wise [394].

Marfat.com

393. If the husband and wife cannot be reconciled resulting in a divorce then both should rely on Allah Almighty. In doing so Allah Almighty will bless each with a suitable spouse as well as wealth.
394. From this we learn that sometimes divorcing the wife can result in relief from financial burden, for both the husband and the wife, e.g. sometimes marriage can become a means of financial upliftment. Further, we learn that neither the wife is totally dependent on her husband, nor the husband is in need of his wife. We are indeed needy of Allah Almighty alone. Both husband and wife can survive without one another.

131. And to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and on the earth [395]. And We have instructed those who were given the Book before you and yourselves to fear Allah [396]. But, if you commit infidelity, then surely, to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and on the earth [397]. And Allah is definitely All Sufficient, All Praised [398].

395. Almighty Allah is the absolute possesser and master of everything. Out of His Grace He does give temporary ownership of anything to whom He desires. Hence, this verse does not negate temporary ownership of anyone. Numerous verses in the Holy QUR'AAN in respect who is Thus, the object of praise and glory of the entire world.
396. From this we learn that the command in respect of piety and purity is for all times. Every religion had promulgated laws concerning it Hence, this is a continuous practice, just as Fasting, Itikaaf, marriage, etc. are all ancient acts of worship.
397. By this is meant even if all the people of the world were to become infidels they will in no way cause any ill to Allah Almighty, as the entire world is His property and possession. He is not in want of anyone's obedience and worship. We are totally dependent on Him; He is completely independent.
398. Every particle of this world proclaims glory of Allah Almighty of Absolute ownership refer to Allah Almighty's person alone eg. only He possesses the knowledge of Qiyamah, etc. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

132. And to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth. And sufficient is Allah as the Disposer of Affairs.

وَلِلّٰهِ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ وَكَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ وَكِيْلًا ﴿۱۳۲﴾

133. O People! If He pleases [399] He can take you away and bring others. And surely Allah has full power to do that.

اِنْ يَّشَاْ يُذْهِبْكُمْ اَيُّهَا النَّاسُ وَيَاْتِ بِاٰخَرِيْنَ ؕ وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ قَدِيْرًا ﴿۱۳۳﴾

399. By "take you away" mean He can cause you to die and in your place establish other people. e.g. He gave possession of Pharoah's land to the Israelites. It could also mean He could end your rule and make others rulers of your land and make you subordinate to them. Says Allah Almighty: "You give the Kingdom to whom You please, and seize the Kingdom from whom You please." (S3:V26) Also that you become compelled to abandon your country and your homes and places are established by others as was the case with the Banu Quraiza and Banu Nazeer, two Jewish tribes of Madina. The Bani Quraiza were put to sword and the Banu Nazeer were banished from Madina. In short Allah Almighty has absolute power to do as He wishes.

Marfat.com

134. Whoso desires the reward of the world then know that with Allah is the reward of this world[400] and of the Hereafter. And Allah is All Hearing, the Seeing.

400. Since Allah Almighty is the possessor of the world and the Hereafter, you should seek the good of this world and the Hereafter from Him. However,, the seeker must have the ability to ask. From this we learn that one should not make acquisiton of the world our only object in life which would distract our attention from the Hereafter. Nor should we cut off ourselves completely from the affairs of the world. Furthermore if our intention of worship is to obtain reward of the Hereafter as well as to ward off calamites of this world and to obtain the blessings of this world, then such a worship is permissible. For this reason we perform Salatul Kusoof and Khusoof are performed to seek refuge from the evils of eclipse, etc.

SECTION 20

135. O you who believe! Stand firmly[401] for justice, giving witness for Allah even though it may be against your own selves, or of your parents or your relations. And whether it (witness) is against the rich or the poor. Allah is more worthy of both of them [402]. Therefore, do not follow the passions lest you may be far away from justice. And if you distort [403] or turn your face, then Allah is aware of your doings.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا كُوْنُوْا قَوّٰمِيْنَ بِالْقِسْطِ شُهَدَآءَ لِلّٰهِ وَلَوْ عَلٰۤى اَنْفُسِكُمْ اَوِ الْوَالِدَيْنِ وَالْاَقْرَبِيْنَ ۚ اِنْ يَّكُنْ غَنِيًّا اَوْ فَقِيْرًا فَاللّٰهُ اَوْلٰى بِهِمَا ۫ فَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا الْهَوٰۤى اَنْ تَعْدِلُوْا ۚ وَ اِنْ تَلْوٗۤا اَوْ تُعْرِضُوْا فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ خَبِيْرًا ﴿۱۳۵﴾

401. This verse addresses rulers, witnesses, the learned Ulema, the saintly sages, the kings, etc. Everyone of these should administer justice according to their own capacities. In "stand firmly" emphasis is laid to show that every word, deed, and every aspect of life of a Muslim is based on justice. His admittance of sins, his acceptance of shortcomings in pious deeds, in short, his every act in life is to portray the concept of justice.

402. From this emerge a few issues:

1. To be of service to one's parent's and good treatment of one's relatives are noble deeds, but in personal, religious and social matters there should be no prejudice in our dealings with people.
2. The awe of the rich becomes an obstacle for showing mercy and justice to the poor. This obstacle should be removed.

3. Justice is greater then mercy.
4. Rights of Allah Almighty are more then all other rights.
403. By this is meant to trample upon justice through one's own selfish interpretations and portray cruelty in the guise of justice. From this one learns that effort of the defence council to prove a guilty person innocent through dubious means, the effort of a governor to perpertrate cruelty under the guise of justice by deliberately giving an incorrect ruling, the effort of a tyrant to give a wrong verdict through dubious interpretations, the efforts of leaders to prove false as truth, are all included under tyranny and extreme examples of crime. The correct interpretation of the Holy QUR'AAN to religious issues is the essence of worship, while incorrect interpretation is an act of distortion and infidelity.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اٰمِنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ وَ الْكِتٰبِ الَّذِيْ نَزَّلَ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِهٖ وَ الْكِتٰبِ الَّذِيْٓ اَنْزَلَ مِنْ قَبْلُ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّكْفُرْ بِاللّٰهِ وَ مَلٰٓئِكَتِهٖ وَكُتُبِهٖ وَرُسُلِهٖ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ ضَلٰلًا بَعِيْدًا ﴿۱۳۶﴾

136. O you who believe! Keep faith in Allah and His Messenger [404] and the Book, which He has revealed, to His Messenger [405] and the Book which has been revealed before [406]. And who denies Allah and His angels, and His Books and His Messengers and the last Day [407], then he has certainly gone far astray [408].

404.By this is meant Oh those who declare faith verbally, do declare your faith sincerely and whole-heartedly; it could also mean Oh those who declare faith whole-heartedly, remain firm on your faith at all times. Hence, there is no division in the verse. From this we learn that only that type of faith is worthy of respect which will go with a person at the time of his death; that declaring faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to faith in. Allah Almighty; that one should remember the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم at the time of remembering Allah Almighty

405. By "He has sent down" refers to the Holy QUR'AAN which Allah has sent down to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Because the QUR'AAN was revealed over a period of twenty three years the word "has sent down" is used here, while "has been sent down" is used later in the verse. From this we learn that. Faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم takes precedence over faith in the Holy QUR'AAN.
406.From this we learn that while it is important to believe in all the revealed Books of Allah Almighty, obedience will only be to the laws of the QUR'AAN. Belief regarding the others should be that they are Books of Allah Almighty.

407.By this is meant if you reject any one of them or verbally say that one can be rejected, then it is equal to rejecting all of them. Thus, if anyone has rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then he has rejected Allah Almighty, the angels, the Day of Judgement, the Messenger of Allah Almighty. Under the circumstances the meaning of the letter "Wow" will be AND - as a conjunction.

408. By 'misguidance' here means that type of misguidance which will keep you far away from true guidance.
Remember, that misguidance is of two types, one type is that which takes a person out of the fold of Islam into infidelity like TABARRAI, first type of misguidance. RAFZI, the insolent WAHABI, QADYANI, etc ; the second type of misguidance does not take the person out of the fold of Islam into infidelity, like high degree of schism or dissention or non-conformity to the four Imams etc. The first type is called distant misguidance while the second is called the misguidance of nearness. In this verse reference is made to the

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا ثُمَّ كَفَرُوا ثُمَّ آمَنُوا ثُمَّ كَفَرُوا ثُمَّ ازْدَادُوا كُفْرًا لَّمْ يَكُنِ اللَّهُ لِيَغْفِرَ لَهُمْ وَلَا لِيَهْدِيَهُمْ سَبِيلًا ﴿١٣٧﴾

137. Indeed those who believe, then become infidels[409], then again accepted faith, then became infidels and then increase in their infidelity, Allah will never forgive them, nor will He show them the way [410].

409. By "increased in infidelity" means to experience death on infidelity. May Allah Almighty protect us from this. If a person dies in a state of faith, all will be forgiven even if he had been guilty of infidelity a thousand times, even though under certain conditions faith in terms of Islamic law may not be reliable.

410. From this we learn that the faith of a person who commits apostasy time and again is not reliable in terms of Shariah (DURRE MUKHTAR) especially when engaged in a battle. In fact, at times even acceptance of faith during a battle is not reliable, as can be seen from the following verse: "Say you on the Day of Judgement the believing of the infidels will not avail them, nor will they get time." (S32:V29) because outwardly this would point out the person is accepting faith in order to deceive. Examples of this was seen when Pakistan came into being.

138. Give tidings to the hypocrites that for them there will be painful punishment.

الَّذِينَ يَتَّخِذُونَ الْكَافِرِينَ أَوْلِيَاءَ مِن دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۚ أَيَبْتَغُونَ عِندَهُمُ الْعِزَّةَ فَإِنَّ الْعِزَّةَ لِلَّهِ جَمِيعًا ﴿١٣٩﴾

139. Those who take infidels for friends instead of Muslims [411]. Do they seek honour with them? But, indeed, all honour belongs to Allah[412].

411.From this we learn that love and friendship with non-believers is a sign of hypocrites, especially when this is done as an opposition to Muslims.

412.From this we learn that a religious traitor will neither find respect from his own people nor from the opposition (other people, races etc.). Respect can only be obtained by being steadfast on your Religion. Likewise, the learned scholar who accepts compromise will not find honour and respect. Honour and respect belong to Allah Almighty and through His Grace to His Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and through the blessing of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to the sincere believers.

وَقَدْ نَزَّلَ عَلَيْكُمْ فِي الْكِتَابِ أَنْ إِذَا سَمِعْتُمْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ يُكْفَرُ بِهَا وَيُسْتَهْزَأُ بِهَا فَلَا تَقْعُدُوا مَعَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يَخُوضُوا فِي حَدِيثٍ غَيْرِهِ ۚ إِنَّكُمْ إِذًا مِّثْلُهُمْ ۗ إِنَّ اللَّهَ جَامِعُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْكَافِرِينَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ جَمِيعًا ﴿١٤٠﴾

140. And surely He has already revealed to you in His Book that when you hear the verses of Allah being denied and being ridiculed [413], then sit with them until they engage in some other conversation, otherwise you would be like them too[414]. Indeed, Allah will gather the hypocrites and the infidels all in Hell[415].

413. By this is meant in which every environment mockery is made of religion, do not go there under any circumstances. If you were there beforehand where irreligiousness began to spread, move away from there at once. And if you have the power to put an end to this forcefully do so, if not speak out against it.

414. From this we learn that to indulge in infidelity to encourage anybody towards infidelity or to make anyone an infidel are all part of infidelity and of equal degree. In fact it is totally forbidden to attend gatherings of infidelity with the intention of participating in its proceedings. Thus, it is forbidden to attend gatherings of mourners and where dirges of lamentation are recited, or curses are hurled or expressed, even if one does not participate in these activities personally. However, if one attends these gatherings with the intention of eradicating these evils, there is no harm in it.

415.That both the hypocrites and the infidels will be in the fire of Hell, though their places may be different. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly,the hypocrites are in the lowest section of Hell." It could also mean that the two groups could be brought together. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

الَّذِيْنَ يَتَرَبَّصُوْنَ بِكُمْ ۚ فَاِنْ كَانَ لَكُمْ
فَتْحٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ قَالُوْٓا اَلَمْ نَكُنْ مَّعَكُمْ ۖ
وَ اِنْ كَانَ لِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ نَصِيْبٌ ۙ قَالُوْٓا اَلَمْ
نَسْتَحْوِذْ عَلَيْكُمْ وَ نَمْنَعْكُمْ مِّنَ
الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ؕ فَاللّٰهُ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ يَوْمَ
الْقِيٰمَةِ ؕ وَ لَنْ يَّجْعَلَ اللّٰهُ لِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ
عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ سَبِيْلًا ﴿۱۴۱﴾

141. Those who wait (and watch) your position. Then if you gain a victory from Allah they say: "Were we not with you? [416] But, if the infidels had a success, then they say to them: "Did we not gain an advantage over you and protected you from the Muslims? [417] Then Allah will decide between you on the Day of Judgement [418]. And Allah will not make a way for the infidels against the Muslims [419].

416.By this is meant that they were with you. In the recitation of the Kalima and the performance of the SALAAH they had joined you, or that they set out with you for the battle of Uhud. For that they are asking for the share of the spoils of war. Verbally therefore they show to be with you, but inwardly they are with the infidels, in an effort to enjoy the best of both worlds. It is quite apparent that such selfish quests always remain insatiated. From this we learn that mere physical or verbal fellowship is useless if it is not done sincerely and whole-heartedly.

417.That is to say, the hypocrites are telling the infidels that they were largely instrumental in them gaining success over the Muslims. Firstly, although we accompanied the Muslims to the battlefield we did not fight against you thereby weakening the Muslim attack; secondly, we did your work in this war by passing to you military secrets of the Muslims. From this we learn that Muslims who become secret police of the infidels or become their informants are assuming the ways of the hypocrites. Indeed many Muslims are guilty of this practice.

418.Only on the Day of Judgement will the practical judgement be made when every one will be in the company of the one he loves. However, verbal judgement is already made in this world.

419.From this we learn that even if all the hypocrites and infidels were to join forces against the Muslims they will not be able to destroy them. Wherever the Muslims suffer losses it is due to their own treachery or through the consequences of their evil deeds. From this emerge a few issues:

Marfat.com

1. A testimony of an infidel is not permissible against a Muslim;
2. Marriage between a Muslim woman and non-Muslim male is unlawful;
3. A non-Muslim cannot purchase a Muslim slave.
4. A non-Muslim cannot become an heir or a legator of a Muslim.

SECTION 21

142. Surely, the hypocrites (think to) deceive[420] Allah. But, He is deceiving them. And when they stand up for prayer they stand up with a defeated[421] soul (i.e. lazily), making a show to the people, and they remember not Allah, but little.

إِنَّ الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ يُخٰدِعُوْنَ اللّٰهَ وَ هُوَ
خَادِعُهُمْ ۚ وَإِذَا قَامُوْٓا إِلَى الصَّلٰوةِ قَامُوْا
كُسَالٰى ۙ يُرَآءُوْنَ النَّاسَ وَلَا يَذْكُرُوْنَ
اللّٰهَ إِلَّا قَلِيْلًا ﴿١٤٢﴾

420.From this we learn that any effort to deceive a Muslim or the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to deceiving Allah Almighty, as the hypocrites were always endeavouring to deceive the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Muslims.

421.From this we learn that laziness in respect of SALAAH is the sign of the hypocrites. There are many examples of this: not to go to the Mosque without any reasons, refrain from offering the SALAAH in congregation without any valid reason; to arrive late at the Mosque deliberately without Kurtha or hat; to offer SALAAH lethargically, not to perform all the postures properly. One must make sure not to be guilty of these practices.

143. They have confusion in their minds, being neither on this side nor[422] that. And whom Allah leads astray, never will you find for him a way.

مُّذَبْذَبِيْنَ بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ ۖ لَآ إِلٰى هٰٓؤُلَآءِ
وَ لَآ إِلٰى هٰٓؤُلَآءِ ۭ وَمَنْ يُّضْلِلِ اللّٰهُ
فَلَنْ تَجِدَ لَهٗ سَبِيْلًا ﴿١٤٣﴾

422.This shows that the hypocrites are neither counted amongst the infidels nor amongst the Muslims. This does not mean that there is a third rank between the infidels and the Muslims for the hypocrites. Further, it does not mean that the hypocrites are not infidels. Without doubt they are staunch disbelievers but they are not included with the infidels. From this we learn that those irreligious sects of Muslims are infidels in terms of religion but on national basis are counted with the Muslims. Neither completely here nor there, but are languishing in between. May Allah Almighty protect us from them. Ameen.....

144. O you who believe! Do not take the infidels for friends [423] against the believers. Would you like it to be a clear proof against you [424] before Allah?

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الْكٰفِرِيْنَ
اَوْلِيَآءَ مِنْ دُوْنِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۭ اَتُرِيْدُوْنَ
اَنْ تَجْعَلُوْا لِلّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ سُلْطٰنًا مُّبِيْنًا ﴿١٤٤﴾

423.In this verse Allah Almighty informs the Muslims that making friendship with the infidels is the way of the hypocrites - they should refrain from such practice. Remember, a believer can have blood relations with an infidel but he cannot be his friend. Marriage to ladies of the People of the Book is permissible, but despite that friendship with them is forbidden. Thus, relationship is some thing else, friendship is another matter altogether. Deceptive inclination of the heart is something else.

145. Indeed the hypocrites will be in the lowest depths of Fire, and you shall never get any helper for them [425].

425. From this verse emerge three issues:
1. The hypocrites are worse then those who openly declare infidelity, as such their punishment too is going to be more severe.
2. Of all the pits of Hell the one deepest and the most dangerous is one in which all the rotten blood and pus of the inmates of Hell flow. Likewise in Paradise the best section is the one highest from the others. This superior section is called A'LLIYEEN.
3. There will be no helpers on that Day for the hypocrites, while Allah Almighty would be providing many helpers for the believers. Any person who declares that he has no helpers is merely revealing his hypocrisy.

146.But those who repented and mended (themselves)[426] and held fast to the Rope of Allah and made their religion purely for Allah. Then those are with the Muslims[427]. And soon Allah will grant a great reward for the Muslims [428].

426.By this is meant one should repent from hypocrisy and change for the better in future. From this we learn that even the repentance of the worst infidel can be accepted if he sincerely wants to change for the better. We further learn that there is a condition to be followed before repentance can be effected - the repenter must change his previous sinful condition to become a better person. Mere verbal repentance is meaningless - in fact it is a joke on the part of the repenter.

427.They will be with the believers in this world and in the Hereafter. From this we learn that to be in company of the pious is a great bounty, as Allah Almighty in this verse has referred to it as a great bounty and reward.
428. By this is meant Allah Almighty's reward will be beyond your imagination. The bounty of Allah Almighty will be in accordance with His lofty position, not it accordance with your position or title.

147. Allah has no gain by punishing you if you are grateful and accept faith. And Allah is Appreciative, Aware [429].

مَا يَفْعَلُ اللّٰهُ بِعَذَابِكُمْ اِنْ شَكَرْتُمْ وَاٰمَنْتُمْ ؕ وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ شَاكِرًا عَلِيْمًا ؕ﴿۱۴۷﴾

429.It should be remembered that the worldly kings punish the offenders for three reasons:

1. On account of fearing personal loss;
2. On account of giving vent to his personal anger caused by the crime of the offender;

Marfat.com

3. The third becomes the reason for forgivenes. However,, in the first two instances there is no pardon offered. Allah Almighty will punish the offenders on account of the third reason - i.e. for not accepting Faith, He is pure of the other two. The same concept is discussed in this verse.

PARA SIX

148. Allah does not like the uttering of evil words [430] except one who is being oppressed[431]. And Allah is Ever Hearing, Knowing [432].

لَا يُحِبُّ اللّٰهُ الْجَهْرَ بِالسُّوْٓءِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ

اِلَّا مَنْ ظُلِمَ ؕ وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ سَمِيْعًا عَلِيْمًا ﴿۱۴۸﴾

430.From this we learn that to speak openly about a sin committed secretly is a sin. This includes lies, backbiting, slander, to swear to reveal your or another person's hidden faults, etc.

431.From this we learn that an oppressed person can relate the wrongs of the tyrant to the ruler or to other people which may not be included in backbiting. From this numerous issues can be ascertained; to reveal the impiety of the narration of Hadith; to complain about the thief or plunderer; to inform the state about the traitors, are all permissible.

432.Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed in respect of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him). Once a person was talking ill of him for some time. Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) listened patiently without replying. When the man persisted Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) gave him a reply. The Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم remarked to Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah) be pleased with him that until now an angel was replying on your behalf, but when you replied yourself the angel went away. The above verse was revealed on this occasion. (KHAZAIN). From it we gather that though it is permissible to retaliate on behalf of the oppressed, it is better to pardon. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the Hadith and the verse.

149. If you do any good deed openly or in secret or pardon anyone's evil [433]. Then, surely Allah is Pardoning, Powerful.

433. From this we learn some good deeds should be done publicly and some without publicity. Jummah Salah, Eidain Prayers, Hajj, publicly, but it is better to offer Tahajjud Prayer, voluntary charity etc. without publicity.

We also know it is better to pardon our personal offenders as can be seen from "our pardon any one's evil". However,, no one has the right to pardon religious, national or patriotic offences of anyone.

150. Those who disbelieve in Allah and His Messenger and desire to separate[434] from Allah His Messengers and say: "Some we believe and others we deny" and wish to evolve a way between (faith and infidelity).

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَكْفُرُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ رُسُلِهٖ وَ يُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ يُّفَرِّقُوْا بَيْنَ اللّٰهِ وَرُسُلِهٖ وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ نُؤْمِنُ بِبَعْضٍ وَّ نَكْفُرُ بِبَعْضٍ ۙ وَّيُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ يَّتَّخِذُوْا بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ سَبِيْلًا ۙ ﴿۱۵۰﴾

434.This verse informs that to hold Allah Almighty and Rasool صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم together is not only faith but the very essence of faith. While to regard the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم as separate from Allah Almighty is not only infidelity but the heart of infidelity. Just as the light of the lamp fully mixes to reflect with the light of the colour of the lamp. or just as the water mark on the currency totally mixes with the paper, in the like manner it is absolutely necessary for Prophethood to mix with Tawheed. In Kalima Tayyibah Allah Almighty added the Holy Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم name with His. In the first part the word Allah Almighty comes at the end, but in the second part, the Holy Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم comes first so that no distance remains between the words Allah Almighty and Muhammad . In short it is part of Faith to add Nabi صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم with Allah Almighty.

151. They are the infidels [435]. in truth, and We have already prepared for the infidels[436]. a humiliating punishment.

أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْكَافِرُونَ حَقًّا ۚ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابًا مُهِينًا ﴿١٥١﴾

435.From this emerge a few issues:
1. Rejection of one Prophet too is an infidelity equal to rejection of all the Prophets. The same is the condition with the verses of the QUR'AAN i.e. to reject one verse is like rejecting the entire QUR'AAN.
2. There is no increase or decrease in the quantity of infidelity. One cannot say that a person is a quarter or half infidel. However, there can be a difference in the state or condition of infidelity i.e. some can be cruel infidels while others can be wild infidels by their disposition.

436.From this we learn that although some believing sinners would be punished, but they will not be humiliated on the Day of Judgement, as humiliation on that day is especially set aside for the infidels.

152. And those believe in Allah and all His Messengers and have made no distinction[437] between any one of them. To them Allah will soon give their reward [438]. And Allah is Ever Forgiving, Merciful.

وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ وَلَمْ يُفَرِّقُوا بَيْنَ أَحَدٍ مِّنْهُمْ أُولَٰئِكَ سَوْفَ يُؤْتِيهِمْ أُجُورَهُمْ ۗ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَّحِيمًا ﴿١٥٢﴾

437.This verse was revealed in repudiation of the Nasara and Yahud who had denied the. Prophethood of our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم but would believe in some Prophets and show enmity towards other. One should love every Companion of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and his progeny which is incumbent upon us. To show great affinity to some and hatred for some is the dishonest way of the Yahud.

438.From this we learn that the reward of the good deeds is dependent on one's sincerity of faith.

SECTION 22

153.(OBeloved Prophet Muhammad) The people of the Book ask you to reveal to them [439] another book from the heaven.

يَسْأَلُكَ أَهْلُ الْكِتَابِ أَنْ تُنَزِّلَ عَلَيْهِمْ كِتَابًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ ۚ فَقَدْ سَأَلُوا مُوسَىٰ أَكْبَرَ مِن ذَٰلِكَ فَقَالُوا أَرِنَا اللَّهَ

Marfat.com

جَهْرَةً فَاَخَذَتْهُمُ الصّٰعِقَةُ بِظُلْمِهِمْ ۚ ثُمَّ اتَّخَذُوا الْعِجْلَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَتْهُمُ الْبَيِّنٰتُ فَعَفَوْنَا عَنْ ذٰلِكَ ۚ وَاٰتَيْنَا مُوْسٰى سُلْطٰنًا مُّبِيْنًا ﴿١٥٣﴾

But, they have asked of Musa (even) a greater thing then this and said: "Show us Allah openly". Then the thunder overtook them for their sins[440]. Then they took to the worship of the calf after clear signs[441]. had come to them. But We pardoned[442]. even that and gave Musa clear dominance[443].

439.Reason for its Revelation:
Once a Jew named Ka'ab bin Ashraf said to the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that if you are indeed Allah's Prophet then bring to us a book like the Taurat at once. In reply this verse was revealed.

440.It should be remembered that the request of the Yahud to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to make it possible for them to see Almighty Allah was not based on their love for the Almighty, but on their lack of faith in Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). It is for this reason that this punishment descended upon them for making this request. On the other hand Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) desired to see the vision of Allah Almighty was based on his intense love for the Almighty. From this we learn that the change of intention change the laws. Qabil tormented his brother as a result he became an infidel. On the other hand the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) hurt the feelings of their brother and father. Yet remained believers. The reason being, the work of Qabil was due to his love for a woman, while the brothers did this to get the love of their father Hazrat Yacoob (On whom be peace).

441.By 'clear signs' is meant Taurat and Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

442.When they sincerely repented they were forgiven. In it is a reminder to the present day Yahud that if you too can declare faith in Islam you would be forgiven.

443.That We drowned Pharoah and his men which stamped your fear in the hearts of the Israelites to such an extent that they were prepared to act upon your harshest commands. The worshippers of the Golden Calf handed themselves to be killed out of your fear.

وَ رَفَعْنَا فَوْقَهُمُ الطُّوْرَ بِمِيْثَاقِهِمْ وَ قُلْنَا لَهُمُ ادْخُلُوا الْبَابَ سُجَّدًا وَّ قُلْنَا لَهُمْ لَا تَعْدُوْا فِي السَّبْتِ وَ اَخَذْنَا مِنْهُمْ مِّيْثَاقًا غَلِيْظًا ﴿١٥٤﴾

154. And then We raised the Mount Tur over them for taking covenant[444]. with them and said to them: "Enter the gate[445]. prostrating". And We said to them: "Do not transgress in the matter of Sabbt (Saturday rest day of the Yahud)[446]. and We took from them a firm covenant.

444.By 'covenant' is meant the covenant of the Israelites to act upon the teachings of Taurat because they are given all the difficult laws of Taurat at one time. This frightened them and made them to say we have heard them but will not be able to carry out these laws. In response Mount Tur was raised upon them with the command that either accept the covenan or the mountain will fall upon you. From this we learn that revelation of the QUR'AAN bit by bit is a mercy of Allah Almighty upon the Muslims.

445.From this we learn that it is important to respect the cities of the pious because the city mentioned here was the door to Areeha in which blessed Shrines of the Prophets are found. Some people do not show their backs to the Holy QUR'AAN or the graves of the pious. Imam Malik (May Allah be pleased with him) never rode on a horse in Madinatul Munawwarah. All pious persons have based their proof on this verse. Allah Almighty made Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to respect the jungle of TAWA by instructing "take off your shoes."

446.By this is meant you should not go out fishing on Saturday. Just as it is forbidden for Muslims performing Jummah to engage in any worldly affairs during the time of Jummah SALAAH, the Israelites too were ordered to refrain from fishing on entire Saturday, as this activity was forbidden for them.

155. Then We cursed them because they violated the covenant and that they denied [447]. the signs of Allah and killed unjustly the Prophets [448], and for their saying: "Our hearts are wrapped". But, Allah has sealed their hearts [449]. because of their infidelity[450]. So they believe not, except for a few.

فَبِمَا نَقْضِهِمْ مِّيْثَاقَهُمْ وَ كُفْرِهِمْ بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ وَ قَتْلِهِمُ الْاَنْۢبِيَآءَ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ وَّ قَوْلِهِمْ قُلُوْبُنَا غُلْفٌ ؕ بَلْ طَبَعَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهَا بِكُفْرِهِمْ فَلَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا ﴿۱۵۵﴾

447.By "signs of Allah" is meant the miracles of the Prophets. From this we learn that rejection of a Prophet is the worst form of infidelity.

448.Even in the minds of these Yahud the killing of the Prophets was an unjust deed. Otherwise in reality killing of the Prophets cannot be regarded as a justifiable act.

449.From this we learn that infidelity and evil deeds seal our hearts. This verse serves as a commentary on the verse: "Allah Almighty has set a seal on their hearts." (S2: V7)

450.By "committed infidelity" means in respect of Hazrat Isa Alaihis Salaam. Hence, there is no repetition in the verse.

156. And We cursed them for their infidelity and for their very grave slander against Mariam [451].

وَّبِكُفْرِهِمْ وَ قَوْلِهِمْ عَلٰى مَرْيَمَ بُهْتَانًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿۱۵۶﴾

454.By 'calumny' is meant these people stained the dignity and chastity of Bibi Mariam through their false accusations. From this we learn that it is a terrible sin to hurl accusation at a chaste and honourable believing woman, especially when that lady happens to be of an elevated status. Those who presently hurl insinuation and accusations against Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah Be pleased with her) are criminals of the worse type and like the Yahud are liable for Almighty Allah's punishment. It should be remembered that the honour and chastity of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah Be pleased with her) is of greater importance then Bibi Mariam because Bibi Mariam's chastity is testified by Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) while the innocence of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiquah (May Allah be pleased with her is testified by Allah Almighty Himself regarding which 18 verses are revealed.

Marfat.com

وَّقَوْلِهِمْ اِنَّا قَتَلْنَا الْمَسِيْحَ عِيْسَى ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ ۚ وَ مَا قَتَلُوْهُ وَ مَا صَلَبُوْهُ وَ لٰكِنْ شُبِّهَ لَهُمْ ؕ وَ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اخْتَلَفُوْا فِيْهِ لَفِيْ شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ ؕ مَا لَهُمْ بِهٖ مِنْ عِلْمٍ اِلَّا اتِّبَاعَ الظَّنِّ ۚ وَ مَا قَتَلُوْهُ يَقِيْنًا ۙ﴿۱۵۷﴾

157. And for their saying: "Indeed, We have killed the Messiah, Isa son of Mariam, Messenger of Allah [452]. Whereas, they slew him not and neither crucified him, but another was made to resemble him [453]. for them. And indeed those who differ over it are in doubt about it. They have not the least knowledge about it [454], but are merely following conjecture. And undoubtedly, they slew him not.

452.It was the claim of the Yahud that they had martyred Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) which the Nasara had accepted. Both are liars and Allah Almighty has declared both as false in their claims.

453.By this is meant that the hypocrite who had gone to the house of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) to inform the Yahud about his whereabouts was made to appear like Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) while Allah Almighty raised Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) to the heavens. The Yahud took this hypocrite to be Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and mistakenly crucified him. Having done this they were puzzled about the whereabouts of the their own man. This was so because the person they had crucified though appeared to have the face of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had the hands and the feet of their man. This Jewish misconception is being discussed in this blessed verse.

454.From this we learn anyone who presently believes that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) died a natural death or was killed is like the Yahud, groping in the darknes of misconception, like Lahori, Qadyani and Mirzayi.

بَلْ رَّفَعَهُ اللّٰهُ اِلَيْهِ ؕ وَ كَانَ اللّٰهُ عَزِيْزًا حَكِيْمًا ﴿۱۵۸﴾

158. But, Allah raised him [455] towards Himself and Allah is Exalted in Might, the Wise.

455.In this verse the word 'raised' denotes raised physically and not just spiritually. Says Allah Almighty: "And he seated his parents on the throne." (S12:V100). If only spiritual elevaton was intented, the word 'but' would not have been used to precede 'raised', because spiritual elevation is achieved through martyrdom and not through lack of martyrdom.

وَ اِنْ مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْكِتٰبِ اِلَّا لَيُؤْمِنَنَّ بِهٖ قَبْلَ مَوْتِهٖ ۚ وَ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ يَكُوْنُ عَلَيْهِمْ شَهِيْدًا ۚ﴿۱۵۹﴾

159. And there is none among the People of the Book who will not believe in him [456], before his death, and he will be a witness against them on the Day of Judgement [457].

456. From this emerge three issues:

1. That Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) has not yet experienced physical death because all the People of the Book will declare faith in him before his death, although the Yahud at this point in time have not declared faith in him;
2. Just before Qiyamah Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) will return to the earth;

3. On his return all the Yahud will declare belief in him and thereby become Muslim.
457. By this is meant on the Day of Judegement Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) will testify against the Yahud, while those who believed in him he will testify about their faith. It should be remembered that FOUR Prophets are alive, two are upon the earth i.e. Hazrat Khizr and Hazrat Ilyaas On them be peace and two are in the heavens i.e. Hazrat Isa and Hazrat Idrees (On them be peace). Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) will return to the earth just before Qiyamah. He will be the last sage in the Ummah of the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him), Imam Mehdi and the Companions of the Cave will render service to him; he will get married and will have children (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). He will live in the world for forty years and would be buried at the Roza Mubarak of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم

160. Then on account of great injustice of the Yahud, We made unlawful for them some of those pure things that were lawful [458], and because of that they kept away many from the way of Allah [459].

فَبِظُلْمٍ مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ هَادُوْا حَرَّمْنَا
عَلَيْهِمْ طَيِّبٰتٍ اُحِلَّتْ لَهُمْ وَ بِصَدِّهِمْ
عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ كَثِيْرًا ﴿١٦٠﴾

458. Its detail is in (Verse 146 Surah 6)
459. From this we learn that sometimes the punishment of the followers of the previous Prophets would be in the form of very stringent religious laws. But today there is safety from this, as our laws of Shariah have been made easy for us.

161. And (for) their taking of usury, while they had been forbidden from it and for consuming people's wealth unjustly[460]. And for those who became infidels [461]. And We have prepared for the infidels a painful punishment.

وَّ اَخْذِهِمُ الرِّبٰوا وَ قَدْ نُهُوْا عَنْهُ وَ
اَكْلِهِمْ اَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ بِالْبَاطِلِ ؕ وَ
اَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ مِنْهُمْ عَذَابًا اَلِيْمًا ﴿١٦١﴾

460.From this two issues emerge:
1. In all unlawful earnings taking of interest is the worst. For this reason Allah Almighty has made mention of it separately;
2. Taking of interest, bribery, stealing, earning money through dancing and singing were all forbidden in previous Shariahs (religion) because these are all included in unjust acts, and acts which fall in this category are all forbidden.
461.Those people who stubbornly held on to their apostasy remained infidels while those who repented were forgiven.

162. But those of them who are firm in knowledge[462] and belief, they believe in what has been revealed to you (O Beloved Prophet)[463] and what has been revealed before you [464]. And they establish Prayer and give Zakaah, and those who believe in Allah and the Last Day; to them We shall give a great reward [465].

لٰكِنِ الرّٰسِخُوْنَ فِي الْعِلْمِ مِنْهُمْ وَالْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ
يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِمَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ مِنْ
قَبْلِكَ وَالْمُقِيْمِيْنَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَ الْمُؤْتُوْنَ
الزَّكٰوةَ وَالْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ ؕ
اُولٰٓئِكَ سَنُؤْتِيْهِمْ اَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿١٦٢﴾

Marfat.com

462.Firm in knowledge is that learned man in whose heart knowledge has seeped in thoroughly. He is like that tree whose roots are firmly entrenched on the ground. This refers to Ulema of pure beliefs and those who act upon what they preach. eg. Hazrat Sayyedina Abdullah bin Salaam (May Allah be pleased with him) and his Companions who were learned in Jewish Scriptures but later became Muslims and became amongst the Noble Companions of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

463.This means either through saliently conspicuous revelation eg. the Holy QUR'AAN, or through less conspicuous revelation eg. the Hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Thus, one should have complete faith in both the Holy QUR'AAN and the Hadith sayings and instructions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

464.It should be remembered that our faith in the previously revealed books is of collective nature while that in the Holy QUR'AAN is comprehensive as well as practical. The two have been mentioned separately to show the difference between the two.

465.From this we learn that the reward of a practising man of knowledge is greater then the others because a practising man of knowledge has the capacity to make others pious. It is important that the actions of the man of knowledge should become an example of the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet and each deed of his should serve to propagate Islam. This also serves to hint that the punishment of an irreligious and non-practising man of knowledge too is worse then that of others because such a person is not only misguided himself but he would misguide others, in that his malpractice will lead other towards malpractises also.

SECTION 23

163. Indeed, We have revealed to you (O Beloved Prophet) such a revelation [466] as We revealed to Nuh and the Prophets after him [467]. And then We sent revelations to Ebrahim and Ismail and Is'haaq and Yaqub and his children [468], and to Isa and Ayub and Yunus and Harun and Sulaiman, and We gave to Dawood the Book (Zaboor).

إِنَّآ أَوْحَيْنَآ إِلَيْكَ كَمَآ أَوْحَيْنَآ إِلَىٰ
نُوحٍ وَّ النَّبِيّٖنَ مِنۢ بَعْدِهٖ ۚ وَاَوْحَيْنَآ
إِلَىٰٓ إِبْرٰهِيمَ وَإِسْمٰعِيلَ وَ إِسْحٰقَ وَ
يَعْقُوبَ وَالْاَسْبَاطِ وَ عِيسٰى وَاَيُّوبَ وَ
يُونُسَ وَ هٰرُونَ وَ سُلَيْمٰنَ ۚ وَ اٰتَيْنَا
دَاوٗدَ زَبُورًا ۚ ﴿١٦٣﴾

466.Here the comparison is only in respect of sending the Revelation although there is a difference in the nature of revelation eg. Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) was not sent any revelation concerning Holy War. From this we learn that Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) is the Prophet of Allah Almighty and anyone who rejects this is a non-believer, like some of the present day so-called believers.

467.It should be remembered that the first Prophet to propagate Religion to the non-believers is Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace).

Also he is to bring the laws of Religion. Furthermore, The Book of Allah Almighty was not revealed on Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) at one sitting. The Yahud of Madina would say that because the Holy QUR'AAN was not revealed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم at one sitting we will not believe in him. To refute their baseless claim Allah Almighty revealed this verse to inform that although Books on the previous Prophets were not revealed at one sitting yet you have declared faith in them. Likewise you should declare faith in the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم too.

468.Some scholars on the basis of this verse have stated that all the sons of Hazrat Yacoob (On whom be peace) were prophets and that the innocence of a prophet is not necessary prior to prophethood. Whatever faults were made by them was prior to being blessed with prophethhood. The other group of Ulema (scholars) say that all the sons were not prophets. In this verse "and his children" refers to all their children because after Hazrat Yacoob (On whom be peace) all the Isrtaelitc Prophets were his children. In this respect the later passage is the explanation or commentary of "and his chidren". This group of Ulema also say all the Prophets are innocent and sinless before and after prophethood.

164. And to the Messengers whom We have already mentioned [469] to you before, and to those Messengers whom We have not mentioned to you. And Allah, in fact, spoke to Musa [470].

469.In this verse the negation is in respect of discussion and not concerning providing knowledge. The Holy Prophet is provided with knowledge about all the Prophets. On the night of Me'raj all these Prophets performed Salaah behind the Holy Prophet . Says Allah Almighty: "All that we relate to you of the tidings of the messengers. (S11:V120) The gist of the matter is Allah has provided detailed information in the Holy QUR'AAN about some Prophets, and about some no details are provided as yet. But this does not mean that in future their details will not be known. Therefore the Wahabis cannot extract any proof from this verse.

470.From this emerge two issues:

1. Amongst the Prophets of the Israelites Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) possesses great dignity and splendour, as discussion about him is made separately for the purpose of distinction.

2. That Almighty Allah has blessed some Prophets with special bounties. It is wrong to look for one Prophet's distinctive feature in all the Prophet's. Remember, every Prophet cannot be Allah Almighty's interlocutor - KALEEM-UL-LLAH - which is the title of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) only.

165. The Messengers bear good tidings and warnings so that mankind may not have any excuse [471] against Allah after the coming of the Messengers. And Allah is Ever Exalted in Might, Wise.

رُسُلًا مُّبَشِّرِيْنَ وَمُنْذِرِيْنَ لِئَلَّا يَكُوْنَ لِلنَّاسِ عَلَى اللّٰهِ حُجَّةٌۢ بَعْدَ الرُّسُلِ ؕ وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ عَزِيْزًا حَكِيْمًا ﴿۱۶۵﴾

471.By this is meant they must not get the oppurtunity to say that had a Prophet come unto them they would have become pious. From this emerge two issues:

1. Allah Almighty does not send punishment on any nation prior to sending a Prophet to them. 2. The true knowledge of Allah Almighty can only be acquired through the medium of a Prophet, and not merely through one's intellect.

لٰكِنِ اللّٰهُ يَشْهَدُ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ اِلَيْكَ اَنْزَلَهٗ بِعِلْمِهٖ ۚ وَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ يَشْهَدُوْنَ ؕ وَ كَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ شَهِيْدًا ؕ ﴿۱۶۶﴾

166. But (O Beloved Prophet) Allah is witness [472] to what He has revealed to you with His knowledge [473]. And the angels are witnesses [474]. And Allah is sufficient as a Witness.

472.Testimony about Allah Almighty regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is that He has provided information about His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in His previous Books and blessed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with miracles like the testimony of King Tamgha about the royal charter or medal. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is such a stately Prophet that Allah Almighty testifies about his Prophethood.

473.That is, His special branches of knowledge of the Unseen should be bestowed in the QUR'AAN so that through the QUR'AAN He would be able to bless His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with those branches of knowledge. Say Almighty Allah: "He reveals not His secret to anyone, Except to his choosen Messengers". (S72:V27) Further Allah Almighty says: "And we have sent down this QUR-'AAN on you in which everything is clearly explained". (S16:V89) Therefore, in this case the letter BA in the word BI-ILMEHI (with His knowledge) points to those branches of knowledge which Allah Almighty has bestowed on His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or its meaning could be this lofty Book revealed to the most elevated servant is revealed with His full knowledge, and that He found only him worthy of this Book. Says a poet: "In His entire creation, Allah Almighty found none like Thee". Says Almighty Allah: "Allah Almighty knows well where to place His Messengership (S6:V124) Indeed a matchless Messenger was needed for this matchless Boook (Roouo Bayaan)". (S72:V27) Further Allah was needed for this incomparable Book.

474.From this we learn that even the Angels recite the Kalima or Declaration of Faith of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Infact on the Day of Judgement every Prophet of Allah Almighty would be reciting the Kalima of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The Salaah these Prophets performed behind our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the night of Me'raj was SALAAH-e-Muhammadi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , and not of their religion.

167. Those who committed infidelity and kept others away from the Way of Allah, they have indeed strayed far away [475].

475.From this we learn a misguiding non-believer in comparison is worse then a non-believer; a believer is better then a believer. This verse helps us to differentiate between the sinful scholars and the pious scholars and understand their status.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَ ظَلَمُوْا لَمْ يَكُنِ اللّٰهُ لِيَغْفِرَ لَهُمْ وَ لَا لِيَهْدِيَهُمْ طَرِيْقًا ۙ ﴿۱۶۸﴾

168. Indeed, those who committed infidelity and transgressed [476] Allah will never forgive them [477]. Nor will He show them the right way [478].

476. By "transgressed" is meant these sinful scholars were cruel in respect of the Taurah by distorting and wilfully changing its contents; they were cruel to the people by stopping them from accepting faith, they were cruel to themselves by becoming idol worshippers.

477.They will not be forgiven as long as they are infidels or die as infidels.

478.To show them the path towards good deeds in this world and towards paradise in the

Marfat.com

Hereafter. It is stated in a Hadith that the believer will go to his destination in paradise so casually as if he has been in it at all times.

إِلَّا طَرِيقَ جَهَنَّمَ خَٰلِدِينَ فِيهَآ أَبَدًا ۚ وَكَانَ ذَٰلِكَ عَلَى ٱللَّهِ يَسِيرًا ﴿١٦٩﴾

169. Except the road leading to Hell in which they will abide forever. And this is very easy for Allah.

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ قَدْ جَآءَكُمُ ٱلرَّسُولُ بِٱلْحَقِّ مِن رَّبِّكُمْ فَـَٔامِنُوا۟ خَيْرًا لَّكُمْ ۚ وَإِن تَكْفُرُوا۟ فَإِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَا فِى ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ وَٱلْأَرْضِ ۚ وَكَانَ ٱللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا ﴿١٧٠﴾

170. O mankind! The Messenger has come to you with the Truth [479] from your Lord [480]. Then believe in him for your own good. And if you commit infidelity, then surely to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and on the earth. And Allah is Ever Knowing, All Wise.

479.From this we learn that not only the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the personification of truth, but every saying, every deed and every action of his too is likewise. There is nothing false in it. Just as one cannot obtain grapes from mango tree, one cannot get lies or falsehood or sin from the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم .

480. From this we learn that our coming into this world is totally different to that of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم .We are responsible for our coming while, Allah Almighty is responsible for sending the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم eg. going in the world of an common traveller and the tour of the prime minister.

يَٰٓأَهْلَ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ لَا تَغْلُوا۟ فِى دِينِكُمْ وَلَا تَقُولُوا۟ عَلَى ٱللَّهِ إِلَّا ٱلْحَقَّ ۚ إِنَّمَا ٱلْمَسِيحُ عِيسَى ٱبْنُ مَرْيَمَ رَسُولُ ٱللَّهِ وَكَلِمَتُهُۥٓ ۚ أَلْقَىٰهَآ إِلَىٰ مَرْيَمَ وَرُوحٌ مِّنْهُ ۖ فَـَٔامِنُوا۟ بِٱللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِۦ ۖ وَلَا تَقُولُوا۟ ثَلَٰثَةٌ ۚ ٱنتَهُوا۟ خَيْرًا لَّكُمْ ۚ إِنَّمَا ٱللَّهُ إِلَٰهٌ وَٰحِدٌ ۖ سُبْحَٰنَهُۥٓ أَن يَكُونَ لَهُۥ وَلَدٌ ۘ لَّهُۥ مَا فِى ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ وَمَا فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ ۗ وَكَفَىٰ بِٱللَّهِ وَكِيلًا ﴿١٧١﴾

171. O People of the Book! Exceed [481] not in your religion and do not say of Allah anything except the truth. The Messiah Isa son of Mariam [482] is only the Messenger of Allah and His Word, and was sent to Mariam [483] a spirit from Him. Then believe in Allah and His Messengers and do not say "three" [484]. Refrain for your own good. Allah is the only One God. Far is it from His Exaltedness that He should have a son [485]. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and on the earth [486]. And Allah is sufficient as Disposer of Affairs.

481.From this we learn that accepting non-obligatory things as obligatory, or taking unlawful things as lawful, accepting divine qualities ofAllah Almighty in the Prophets are making additions to the Religion which is the way of the Yahud.

482.From this we learn that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was born without a father otherwise he would have been connected with the father. Says Allah Almighty: "Call them after their fathers..." (S33:V5). It is for this reason that the Holy QUR'AAN has not mentioned any female name besides that of Bibi Mariam. Also Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is called the spirit of Allah Almighty, the word of Allah Almighty because he was conceived without sperm but born through Divine grace. Just as there is a connection between the Ka'bah as House of Allah and Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) as Allah Almighty's interlocutor - a title of Musa (On whom be peace), the same is the connections with the spirit of Allah Almighty.

483.That Allah Almighty brought him into existence through just one word "Be". From this we learn that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was neither created from a sperm or from a father or a mother.

484.Some were saying that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is the son of God, some were saying he is the one part of the trinity of God while others were saying that he is God. This verse was revealed to repudiate the claims of these three groups. The repudiation of the first group is the word Allah Almighty, the second group is repudiated through the word WAHID; (ONE) while the repudiation of the third group is done through the words"have a son".

485.Because a child is accepted on the grounds of helplessness and being totally subdued, the danger of death, the fear of an enemy being overcome by lust can become contributory factors towards birth of a child. Allah Almighty is free and pure from these.

486. It is learn't from this that the son cannot become slave of the father. Ownership and Prophethood on one person does not gather because Allah Almighty setup his common ownership as proof on it that Isa is not son of God. Otherwise He would not be his servant.

SECTION 24

172. Messiah does not refrain to be a bondsman [487], of Allah nor do the angels (close to Him). And whosoever refrains from His bondage and is proved[488], He will gather them to Himself all together.

لَنْ يَّسْتَنْكِفَ الْمَسِيْحُ اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ عَبْدًا لِّلّٰهِ وَ لَا الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ الْمُقَرَّبُوْنَ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّسْتَنْكِفْ عَنْ عِبَادَتِهٖ وَ يَسْتَكْبِرْ فَسَيَحْشُرُهُمْ اِلَيْهِ جَمِيْعًا ﴿۱۷۲﴾

487.Reason for its Revelation.
The Yahud of Najraan told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that he was finding faults in Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) by caling him the servant of Allah Almighty. The verse was revealed on this occasion stating that it is an act of pride to be the servant of Allah Almighty, not an act of dislike. From this we learn that although all are servants of Allah Almighty, the Prophets are elevated servants of Allah Almighty through whose worship Allah's Almighty Godhood and Divinity comes to the fore. Although all in his kingdom are the subjects of the king yet some hold elevated positions like a Prime Minister who is a stately figure. Even Allah Almighty takes pride in the worship and service. Says Allah Almighty: "It is He who has sent His Messenger". (S61:V9

488.From this we learn that it is futile to be boastful about ones worship of Allah Almighty and obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as they are sinful acts, and this type of sinful act (May Allah forbid) cannot be committed by the Prophets of Allah. This is indeed the accusation of the Nasara on Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) that he was claiming to be the son of God, thereby denying upon himself from being servant of Allah Almighty.

فَاَمَّا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ فَيُوَفِّيْهِمْ اُجُوْرَهُمْ وَ يَزِيْدُهُمْ مِّنْ فَضْلِهٖ ۚ وَ اَمَّا الَّذِيْنَ اسْتَنْكَفُوْا وَ اسْتَكْبَرُوْا فَيُعَذِّبُهُمْ عَذَابًا اَلِيْمًا ۙ وَّ لَا يَجِدُوْنَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَ لِيًّا وَّ لَا نَصِيْرًا ﴿١٧٣﴾

173. As for those who accepted faith and did righteous deeds, He will pay their full rewards and grant them more [489] out of His Bounty. But as for those who were scornful and proud, He will give them severe punishment. And they will not find for themselves besides Allah, any protector or helper [490].

489.From this we learn that a pious believer will not only receive rewards for his good deeds but they will receive the special bounty of Allah Almighty which is in accordance with the Divine status of Allah Almighty. Hence, the vision of Allah Almighty, the increase in reward, and the perpetual acceptance by Allah Almighty are things which will be showered upon him through His Grace.

490. This informs that being helpless and without assistance is punishment for the non-believers Allah Almighty has provided many helpers for the believers.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَآءَكُمْ بُرْهَانٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ وَ اَنْزَلْنَاۤ اِلَيْكُمْ نُوْرًا مُّبِيْنًا ﴿١٧٤﴾

174. O People! [491], There has indeed come a manifest argument[492], to you[493], from Allah and We have sent down to you a manifest light[494].

491.Through this word "People" entire mankind is being addressed, wherever and whenever they may be. From this we learn that the Prophethood of our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is not limited to a period, place or nation. He whose Lord is Allah Almighty, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is his Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.In the Creation of Allah, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم reigns supreme as king.

492.By "has come unto you" is meant Oh mankind indeed he also has come to you is a crystal proof of Allah Almighty's personification of knowledge i.e. the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is not only Light of Allah Almighty but His unshakable proof and the symbol of Truth. All these appalations of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم are found in the Holy QUR'AAN.

493. By 'manifest argument' is meant the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم because the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the unshakable proof about Allah's identity . The acceptance of the argument is the acceptance of the claim, while raising an objection on the argument is an attack on the claim. Hence, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is indeed the sacred personification of proof about Truth. Not only is every limb of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم one miracle but they are a collection of miracles as well. The blessed saliva of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was used as SOORMAH - by Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) for the cure of his eyes; a healing for Hazrat Abdullah bin Atiq's broken bone; a means of sweetening the salty water of a well; it became the means of increasing the meagre quantity of flour of Hazrat Jabir (May Allah be pleased with him) to an incredible quantity. In short the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the personification of miracles and the unmistakable Proof of Allah Almighty or the QUR'AAN itself. For a detailed discussion on the subject consult our SHAAN-E-HABIBUR RAHMAN.

494.From this we learn that the coming of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم precedes the coming of the Holy QUR'AAN.. It is for this reason that one first brings faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

as Light as well as a manifest argument. The concept of a manifest argument can be understood with one's intellect while that of Light through ones senses.

175. So those who believe in Allah and hold His rope firmly [495], He will admit them to mercy from Himself and bounty and guide them to Himself on a straight path.

فَاَمَّا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَ اعْتَصَمُوْا بِهٖ
فَسَيُدْخِلُهُمْ فِيْ رَحْمَةٍ مِّنْهُ وَفَضْلٍ ۙ وَّ
يَهْدِيْهِمْ اِلَيْهِ صِرَاطًا مُّسْتَقِيْمًا ﴿۱۷۵﴾ ؕ

497.The personal pronoun 'his' in the word BIHI "with His" is connected with the manifest argument eg. those who after believing in Allah Almighty hold firmly to His Rope, is the manifest Argument of Allah Almighty. In other words he who holds firmly to the Holy Prophet is indeed worthy of being the recepient of Allah Almighty's bounty. One fallen in a well comes up by holding onto the rope. One who is secured to rope alone can come up. It should be remembered that one end of the rope will be in the hand of the one who pulls it while the other end is the hands of the one being pulled. In the like manner the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم one connection is with Allah Almighty and the other is with the rest of the world. Says Allah Almighty : "And hold fast all together by the rope of Allah". (S3:V103)

176. (O Beloved Prophet Muhammad) They request from you a decree [496]. Say: Allah decrees to you in respect of a person who leaves[497]. neither father nor child, that if a man dies and has no child but (only) a sister, she will have half of what he left. And the man will be the heir of his sister, if the sister [498]. has no child. But, if there are two sisters, they will have two-thirds [499]. of what he left. If there are brothers and sisters, males and females [500], then the share of the male is equal to the shares of two women [501]. Allah explains to you clearly so that you may not go astray [502]. And Allah knows everything.

يَسْتَفْتُوْنَكَ ؕ قُلِ اللّٰهُ يُفْتِيْكُمْ فِي

496. By KALALAH is meant that person who does not leave behind neither a father nor a child.

497. This verse was revealed in response to the inquiry of Hazrat Jabir (May Allah be pleased with him). When he became ill the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم went to visit him. On arrival the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم found him unconcious. The Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم then made wudu and sprinkled the remainder of the water on Hazrat Jabir (May Allah be pleased with him) from the blessing of which the noble Companion immediately gained consciousness. Hazrat Jabir (May Allah be pleased with him) then asked, "As I am without any children what will happen to my wealth after me?" In reply this verse was revealed. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم assured his Companion that "Oh Jabir you will not die due to this illness". Consequently Hazrat Jabir (May Allah be pleased with him) recovered fully. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is fully aware about people's life and death and that the used water of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was a means of cure for all illnesses.

498.If the deceased leaves neither son nor daughter. If the off-spring is a daughter the inheritance will go to the sister, she will not be the category of obligatory heirs. However, if the son is alive, then both brother and sister of the deceased will be deprived of inheritance. Likewise, if the father or grandfather of the deceased are alive his brother and sister would become deprived of inheritance.

499. It should be remembered that the issues in respect of the laws of inheritance 2/3 is also a group i.e. the right which is accorded to two sisters or two sisters is accorded to many. The same is the meaning of the Hadith in respect of this to show that 2/3 is an additional group in this matter.

500. First mention was made of sisters, now mention is made of both brothers and sisters, i.e. if the childless deceased leaves behind brothers and sisters.

501.With the brother the sister too would be included in people liable to receive inheritance, she will no longer remain in the category of obligatory recipients, and would be entitled to receive half share from the brother. It should be remembered that here it is besides the uterine sister i.e. blood as well as half brothers and sisters are intended here. Laws pertaining to uterine brother and sister have been discussed earlier, Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

502. From this we learn that the laws pertaining to inheritance are important. No other laws have been described by Allah Almighty in so much detail as these laws. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم described the knowledge about inheritance as half the knowledge i.e. the rest constitutes the other half.

SURAH AL-MAIDA (MADANI)

Revealed After Hijrah Sections 16 Verses 120 , 12464 Words

I begin in the Name of Allah, Who is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اَوْفُوْا بِالْعُقُوْدِ ؕ اُحِلَّتْ لَكُمْ بَهِيْمَةُ الْاَنْعَامِ اِلَّا مَا يُتْلٰى عَلَيْكُمْ غَيْرَ مُحِلِّى الصَّيْدِ وَاَنْتُمْ حُرُمٌ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَحْكُمُ مَا يُرِيْدُ ①

1. O you who believe! Fulfill your promises[1]. Lawful for you are animals that are mute, except such ones, which shall be narrated to you [2] further. But do not consider hunting to be lawful when you are in the pilgrim's garb (Ihraam)[3]. Undoubtedly, Allah commands what He wills.

1. If by "Those who believe" is meant believers of the People of the Book, then "fulfill your promises" would refer to those covenants which the Almighty had taken from them as per the previous revealed Books, while to openly recite these verses of praise about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as revealed in the Tauraat and Injeel would refer to Muslims in general. Thus the meaning of this would be fulfill all those promises you made with your Creator, your Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , your religious Guide, your wife, your husband and to one another. However, these would be lawful promises, not religiously forbidden promises. Hazrat Imam Abu Hanifa (May Allah be pleased with him) says that he who has promised to fast on the Day of Eid should fulfil it by keeping fast on another day. He based his reason on this verse.

2. In this verse there is a repudiation of those disbelivers who would regard animals kept in the name of idols as forbidden e.g. BAHEERAH, SAIBAH, etc. From this we learn that a forbidden thing is only that which is made forbidden by Allah and his Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. While there is no need of a proof for anything lawful. The biggest proof for a thing being lawful is that it is not proven unlawful.

3. It is forbidden to hunt an animal on land while in the state of Ihraam , while it is lawful to catch an aquatic creature. It should be remembered that the animal hunted by one in Ihraam becomes unlawful for him as well as those not in Ihraam and this Ihraam could be for Hajj as well as Umrah.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تُحِلُّوْا شَعَآئِرَ اللّٰهِ وَ لَا الشَّهْرَ الْحَرَامَ وَ لَا الْهَدْىَ وَ لَا الْقَلَآئِدَ وَ لَآ آٰمِّيْنَ الْبَيْتَ الْحَرَامَ يَبْتَغُوْنَ فَضْلًا مِّنْ رَّبِّهِمْ وَ رِضْوَانًا ؕ وَ اِذَا حَلَلْتُمْ فَاصْطَادُوْا ؕ وَ

2.O you who believe! Do not violate the symbols of Allah [4], and neither (the sanctity of) the sacred months [5], and neither the sacrificial animals sent to the Sacred House (Baitul Haram) and not those bearing signs in their necks [6], and neither the property and honour of those who repair to the Sacred House [7], seeking the bounty and pleasure of their Lord. And when you take off the pilgrim's garb then you may hunt [8], And let not the enmity of such people who prevent you to enter the Sacred Mosque incite [9], you to commit any excesses. And help each other in righteousness and piety, and help not one another in sin and transgression [10], and remain fearing Allah [11], Surely, the punishment of Allah is severe.

4. One learns from "symbols of Allah" that anything which has religious connection should be shown great reverence. Says Allah Almighty: "And whosoever respects the sign of Allah then it is from the piety of the heart.(S22:V32). The sacred Ka'aba, the shrines of the saints, the Holy QUR'AAN, etc, are all included in the symbols of Allah. In fact any object which is connected with the pious saints of Allah are part of the symbols of Allah. Observe, when the blessed feet of Hazrat Hajirah (On whom be peace) touched the hills of Safa and Marwa, they immediately became the symbols of Allah. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt, Safa and Marwa are among the symbols of Allah." (S2:V158)

5. Sacred months are four: Rajab, Zil-Qaidah, Zil-Hajj and Muharram. Even in the Days of Ignorance, these months were held in esteem, and Islam too has accorded them great respect. Initially, waging war in these months was forbidden, but now there is no restriction of time in respect of Jihad. Nevertheless, their respect is upheld for all times.

6. It was the practise of the Arabs to place some colourful objects in the necks of the sacrificial animals in order to make them known to the people to refrain them from interfering with them.

7. Reason for its Revelation:

Once Shuraih ibn Hind came to meet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in Madina. At the time of leaving the sacred city he drove the sheep and cattle of the people away with him. The Muslims were very deeply saddened by this terrible deed. The following year he went to Makkah with the intention of Hajj, bringing along with him sacrificial animals. On seeing him the Noble Companions wanted to seize all his animals to take their revenge, but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم stopped them. In support of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decision Allah Almighty revealed this verse. From this we learn that we should not contravene any religious law for the sake of revenge.

8. This is a command in respect of permission, but this permission is so binding that one who rejects it would become a disbeliever because to hunt after coming out of Ihraam is permissible, but not obligatory. To reject anything absolute and binding is apostasy whether that thing is compulsory, (Fard), obligatory (Wajib) or commendable (Mustahab).

9. The disbelievers of Makkah stopped the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from performing Umrah on the day of the Treaty of Hudaibiyah, yet he did not in retaliation tell the Muslims to stop them from coming to the Ka'bah. It should be remembered that now the disbelievers are prohibited from entering the Ka'bah due to their apostasy. Says Allah Almighty: "The associates are altogether unclean, then let them not approach the sacred Masjid." (S9:V28).

10. From this emerge two issues:

1. It is permissible to seek help from those other than Allah.

2. Collective aid is a good thing, whether it be financial, physical or spiritual, provided it is for a lawful purpose.

Marfat.com

11. From this we learn that to aid someone towards sin is also a sinful act to steal, to carry out burglary, to keep stolen goods in the house are also criminal acts Like to do a pious act, to exhort someone towards piety and to give assstance are acts for which rewards will be received.

3. You are forbidden (to eat) the dead [12] and blood and the flesh of the swine [13], and that on which any name has been invoked other than Allah [14] at the time of slaughtering, and that which dies by strangulation, and that which is beaten to death by anything unsharpened [15], and that killed by falling, and that which is gored, and that which has been eaten by any wild animal except those which you have properly slaughtered, and [16] that which has been slaughtered at any altar [17] and that on which you divide lottery drawn by arrows [18]. All that is an act of sin. Today, the infidels are dejected of your religion [19], so fear them not, but fear Me alone. This day I have perfected your religion [20] for you and completed My favour upon you [21] and have chosen Islam as the religion for you [22]. But whosoever is forced by extreme hunger without indulging in sin [23], then surely, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful [24].

حُرِّمَتْ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْتَةُ وَالدَّمُ وَ لَحْمُ

12. Here, prohibition is mentioned regarding eleven things: A dead animal is that which is compulsory to slaughter but dies without being slaughtered. It is forbidden to eat its flesh, but some of its useful things are permissible, e.g. using its skin to make shoes, etc. By blood is meant the blood that flows from its body which is forbidden for consumption but its spleen and liver are permissible.

13. It was the practice in those days to eat only the flesh of the swine and not its other limbs, restriction however is only incidental, because every part of the swine is dirty and unlawful to eat. In fact besides eating any of its limbs, everything about the swine is prohibited to use because Allah Almighty has referred to this animal as positively and absolutely impure. Says Allah Almighty: "Verily it is impure" (S6:V145). Its flesh is made unlawful by the QUR'AAN, its other parts are declared unlawful by the traditions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

14. By this is meant an alive animal slaughtered in the name of anyone other than Allah as was the custom of the non-believers of Arabia who would slaughter animals in the name of their idols. This does not make the alive animals if kept the name of those other than Allah unlawful. Observe, animals kept in the name of Baheera and Saibah, gods of the Makkans, were not lawful. Muslims could obtain them to slaughter and obtain their flesh. If the water of the Ganges River, if eating and drinking of the cow, an object of worship of the polytheists is permissible, if use of the stones from the temple and the peepula sacred Hindu tree are permissible then why should the animal merely kept in the name of the idols be regarded as unlawful.

15. Whether it is killed by a stick or shot with a bullet or by a pellet it will be unlawful.

16. One learns if a chicken which is saved from the clutches of a cat, a goat saved from the clutches of a wolf are slaughtered before they die then they are lawful to eat.

17. From this emerge a few issues:

1. If an animal or its meat is placed in a tray and presented to their gods with an expressed intention of offering it for worship, it is totally prohibited to eat, even if such an animal is slaughtered in the name of Allah. ISSUE: If a non-believer takes a sacrificial animal to be slaughtered by a Muslim who recites Bismillah at time of slaughtering, that animal will be permissible to eat (AlamGiri). The reason here being the intention of the person chosen to slaughter did not intend to present it for sacrifice, while the intention of the other slaughterers will not be reliable for acceptance. From this comment one learns that there is no contradiction between the words "that which is made lawful" and "that which is slaughtered."

18. From this we learn that to obtain predictions from fortunetellers, to seek ill-omens, to throw dice, are all totally forbidden. However, it is permissible to obtain predictions about lawful things from pious people.

19. This verse was revealed at Arafat on the occasion of the Farewell Pilgrimage at the time of Asr (Mid-afternoon). This event took place on a Friday. It means that the disbelievers are totally despondent of ever over-powering Islam, or they are completely dejected by the act that they will be able to convert you to their beliefs. From this we learn that whosoever considers a Noble Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a disbeliever is worse than a disbeliever.

20. By 'Completed' means the details about beliefs, revelation of verses pertaining to religious laws and the principles of intepretation of Islamic Laws are now all completed, no new verses will be revealed regarding them, neither will your Religion be ever abrogated.

21. By "Bounty" is meant Allah has blessed you with the victory of Makkah, given you internal and external security, eradicated all traces of apostasy etc. It should be remembered that the execution of personality is an act of excellence while the execution of attributes is an act of accomplishment, Hence there is no contradiction in the verse. For this reason 'Completed' is used with Religion and Perfection is used with bounty.

22. From this verse emerge a few issues:

1. As a Religion only Islam is liked by Allah Almighty e.g. Religion of Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم,all the religions besides Islam are condemned.

2. After the revelation of this verse not a single law of Islam can be abrogated.

3. No increase or decrease can take place in the basic principles of Religion, though ramifications in the interpretive issues will always be possible, hence the word 'your religion' is used, not 'your faith'.

4. It is not possible for there to be a prophet after our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because religion is now perfected and completed. After the sun has risen there is no need for the lamp. Hence, the Qadiyanis are out of the fold of Islam.

5. Minus Islam, a person can perform thousands of pious deeds but they will not be acceptable by Allah and such a person will not gain the nearness of Allah.If the root is cut off, it is useless watering the leaves.

23. By this it is meant that a Muslim is permitted to eat anything unlawful to save his life if he is unable to find anything lawful to eat at that point in time provided that he does not sin i.e. he does not eat more than what is required to save his life. In this, even that patient is included whose prescribed medicine does not contain any unlawful ingredients.

24. By this it is meant that when in a state of helplessness and constraint, and in order to save one's life, it is permissible to eat a quantity of unlawful things as necessary. However, if you exceed a little in error in judging the intake of it, Allah who is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful will forgive you. Hence, the meaning of the verse is very clear, without any inconsistency.

4. They ask you (O Beloved Prophet) what has been made lawful to them? [25], Please declare: "Good and pure things [26], have been made lawful to you, and such hunting animals you have trained [27], for hunting, teaching them of what Allah has taught you. So eat of what they catch for you after hunting [28], and pronounce the name of Allah over it [29], and fear Allah". Indeed, Allah is swift in taking account [30].

يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ مَاذَآ اُحِلَّ لَهُمْ ؕ قُلْ اُحِلَّ
لَكُمُ الطَّيِّبٰتُ ۙ وَ مَا عَلَّمْتُمْ مِّنَ
الْجَوَارِحِ مُكَلِّبِيْنَ تُعَلِّمُوْنَهُنَّ مِمَّا
عَلَّمَكُمُ اللّٰهُ ۫ فَكُلُوْا مِمَّآ اَمْسَكْنَ
عَلَيْكُمْ وَ اذْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ ۪ وَ
اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَرِيْعُ الْحِسَابِ ۝۴

25. By this is meant those animals which are permissible to eat by hunting. It should be remembered that all sea animals are forbidden, besides fish; (Hanafi)bloodless creatures on land are all forbidden to eat besides locusts, birds with sharp claws, birds of prey are all forbidden to eat. The word 'good and whole-some' refers to things which are lawful for use.
26. From this we learn that a thing which is not made forbidden in Islam is lawful. Hence to eat anything sumptuous and tasty is not an impious act. Real piety is to refrain from all forbidden things, and not making lawful things unlawful.
27. Even if that trained animal is a wild animal like a dog or a cheetah, or a bird of prey like a hawk, falcon, eagle, etc. When they are trained to such an extent that a dog and cheetah does not eat the meat without being commanded, and a falcon or a hawk returns at the trainer's sign. Hence the chicken killed by a cat will be forbidden to eat.
28. If your trained dog hunts an animal and brings it to you without eating a portion of it, it will be lawful for you to eat even though the animal may be dead, but if the dog has eaten a portion from it,that animal will be forbidden for you to eat, because then the dog had hunted for itself and not for you.
29. By this is meant recite Bismillah at the time you let the animals out on a hunt.
30. That Allah Almighty will devote just a few hours for taking account of deeds of the entire creation. The rest of the Day of Judgement will be spent on showing mankind the true dignity and status of the Holy Prophet .

5. This day all the good and pure things are made lawful [31], for you, and the food of the People of the Book is lawful [32], for you, and your food is lawful for them. And chaste believing women, and chaste women from among those who were given the Book before you, when you give them their dowries [33], while bringing them in bondage (through marriage) [34], nor for lust and neither making a lover (secretly) [35]. And whosoever becomes an infidel after being a Muslim, his entire work is destroyed [36], and he is a loser in the Hereafter.

31. That due to their sins some pure and wholesome things had been made forbidden for the People of the Book. From today Oh Muslims, all these things are lawful for you.

32. That animals slaughtered by the People of the Book and their women are lawful for the Muslims on condition that they are from the People of the Book. However, the present day Europeans in general display tendency of an atheist and have thus rejected Allah. Hence neither are their slaughtered animals lawful and neither are their women lawful for marriage to Muslims. In fact, now Nasara and Yahud in general do not even slaughter animals. Thus, it is forbidden for a Muslim woman to marry a person of the Book.

33. It should be done by giving their dowry to them or make a firm promise of giving it to them. It should be remembered that this hint is given to emphasise the importance of dowry, otherwise marriage can take place even without mentioning or determining dowry.

34. From this we learn that Mut'a (temporary marriage) is totally forbidden, because the purpose of such a marriage is to satisfy one's lust, not procure children or to keep women in marriage. Thus such a woman can neither be given revocable or irrevocable divorce nor is she entitled for any inheritance. These laws are found in detail in Shariah books as well. At the inception of Islam, temporary marriages, like alcohol, were permissible for a little while.

35. From this we learn that both temporary marriages as well as adultery with household ladies through secret means is forbidden. Sex with prostitutes publically too is a terrible criminal act. The first two become forbidden through 'not for lust', while the third becomes forbidden through 'not making love (secretly)'. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

36. From this we learn that every worship of an apostate becomes null. And If he one becomes Muslim again he will have to repeat his Hajj but not his Salaah (Books of Law). Furthermore, we also learn that an apostate is worse than the person who has always been a non-believer.

And if you need the obligatory bath (for Janabah) then purify yourselves well [39]. And if you are ill or you are on a journey, or any one of you comes from a place of relieving yourself, or you have intercourse with women [40] and in these conditions you do not get water [41], then take clean earth [42] and wipe therewith your faces and your hands (for Tayammum). Allah desires not that He should place you in any difficulty, but He desires to purify you and to complete His favour upon you, so that you may be grateful.

37. It should be remembered that by "when you stand" it does not mean the compulsory act of standing in Salaah, because that will follow after Wudhu, but it refers to getting up and waking for Salaah. Hence, 'for prayer' is used here, and not 'in prayer'.

38. From this we learn that intention is not a condition for Wudu, but it is Sunnat because the parts to be washed have been specifically defined. Hence it is not obligatory in Wudu to gargle the mouth and throw water in the nose because they have not been mentioned in the QUR'AAN, they are Sunnat acts as per tradition of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Also (Masah) wiping of the feet will not be allowed, they have to be washed.

39. 'Purify yourselves' is from the emphatic command which means you should purify yourself well. From this we learn that washing of these parts is obligatory in Ghusal as well as they are part of the body. Hence, gargling and putting water in the nose are obligatory acts in Ghusal, but not in wudhu, because nothing beyond these parts already mentioned is expressed for Wudhu.

40. If one embraces a woman in a naked state Wudhu will be broken and if one cohabits with a woman Ghusal will be nullified. In either of the cases if water is not available Tayammum will have to be made. From this we learn that the method of Tayammum for both Wudhu and Ghusal is alike.

41. There can be two ways of the unavailibility of water:

1. If water is not found there;
2. The water is available but it is out of bounds for use due to illness, or it is guarded by an enemy or due to the presence of a dangerous animal at the waterside who becomes an obstacle. Observe, Hazrat Imam Hussein (May Allah be pleased with him) performed his Salaah at Karbala by making Tayammum, although River Euphrates was in front of him, but it was out of bounds for him.

42. From this we learn that Tayammum is permissible on sand and things made of natural sand. By natural sand is meant that which originates from the earth and does not become ash when in fire, nor does it melt or dissolve. Hence, Tayammum is permissible on mountain salt or on coal from the mine.

وَ اذْكُرُوْا نِعْمَةَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَ مِيْثَاقَهُ الَّذِيْ وَاثَقَكُمْ بِهٖٓ ۙ اِذْ قُلْتُمْ سَمِعْنَا وَ اَطَعْنَا ۫ وَ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُوْرِ ۝٧

7. And remember Allah's favour [43] upon you and the covenant which He made with you, when you said: "We heard and obeyed" [44] and fear Allah. Indeed, Allah knows the thoughts in your hearts [45].

43. That Allah Almighty identified you as a Muslims, He sent for you easy laws, and made you into persons who make the entire earth pure and as a mosque.

44. This verse hints towards the oath of allegiance of Aqabah or Ridwaan. From this emerges a few issues:

1. That man does all pious deeds through the Grace and Guidance of Allah; do not gloat about this but be grateful to Him.
2. All those Companions who took part in the oath of allegiance of Aqabah and Ridwaan are held dearly by Allah. Those whom Allah honoured through this oath of allegiance, that very allegiance is mentioned as an act of bounty.

3. That all these noble Companions fulfilled all their promises made at the time of these oaths, as they were all true to their promises, because Allah Almighty mentions their refutation without referring to their promises.

45.Allah Almighty is fully aware of your sincere thoughts in the deepest recesses of your hearts. You will be rewarded for that as well. It should be remembered that forgiveness can be sought for evil thoughts but pious intentions will always be rewarded. The pious sages say that the reward of sincere love would be blessed with the Vision of Allah Almighty.

8.O you who believe! Be steadfast in the cause of Allah, bearing witness [46]. with justice; and let not the hatred of people prevent you from being just. Be just, that is nearer to piety [47], and fear Allah. Indeed, Allah is acquainted with what you do.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا كُوْنُوْا قَوّٰمِيْنَ لِلّٰهِ شُهَدَآءَ بِالْقِسْطِ ز وَ لَا يَجْرِمَنَّكُمْ شَنَاٰنُ قَوْمٍ عَلٰٓى اَلَّا تَعْدِلُوْا ط اِعْدِلُوْا ق هُوَ اَقْرَبُ لِلتَّقْوٰى ز وَ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ ط اِنَّ اللّٰهَ خَبِيْرٌۢ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ۝٨

46. "Stand up firmly" expresses pattern of non-restriction and limit from which one learns that man should execute justice for oneself, one's relations and one's enemies. To admit and reflect upon one's sins and fulfil rights of one's relatives, obedience and loyalty to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the true worship of Allah Almighty are all examples of execution of justice.

47. From this we learn that in the execution of justice, relatives, non-relatives, Muslims, Non-Muslims all would be regarded as equal. The commentary and explanation of this verse are those solved cases of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in which his decision went in favour of non-believers and against the believers.

9.Allah has promised to the believers and those who do righteous deeds [48], that for them is forgiveness and great reward [49].

وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ لَ لَهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةٌ وَّ اَجْرٌ عَظِيْمٌ ۝٩

48. From this verse emerge two issues:

1. Faith enjoys superiority over deeds, because mention of faith precedes that of action.

2. It is important to complement faith with good deeds. Only he can eat the fruit who protects the roots and its branches.

promised every God-fearing Muslim forgiveness and rewards. Promise of Allah is indeed firm, but credence for this lies with the type of death one will experience. He who is out of the fold of faith will himself fall out of this promise. Allah is true to what He has said, but His servants turn out to be unfaithful and false.

49. From this we learn that Allah Almighty has

10. And those who committed infidelity and belied Our signs, they are the people of Hell [50].

وَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَكَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَآ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ الْجَحِيْمِ ۝١٠

Marfat.com

50. From this we understand with certainty that the non-believers will be eternally in Hell, while no matter how sinful a believer is he will not be in Hell forever. It also hints that the minor children of the non-believers will not be sent to Hell because they had not belied the signs of Allah.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اذْكُرُوْا نِعْمَتَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ اِذْ هَمَّ قَوْمٌ اَنْ يَّبْسُطُوْٓا اِلَيْكُمْ اَيْدِيَهُمْ فَكَفَّ اَيْدِيَهُمْ عَنْكُمْ ۚ وَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ ؕ وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۱﴾ ع ۲ ۲

11. O you who believe! Remember the favour of Allah upon you [51], when a people intended to stretch out their hands against you, then He withheld their hands from you [52]; and fear Allah. And upon Allah let the believers rely [53].

51. Once, while on a journey with his Noble Companions the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم stopped in a jungle. It was afternoon and he and his companions rested under different trees. The Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) tied his sword to a tree. One Bedouin, lurking behind the tree seized the opportunity to grab the sword and said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم "Now who will save you from me?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم replied: "Allah!" Hazrat Jibreel (On whom be peace) knocked the sword down out of his hand which the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then picked up and asked: "Who will save you from me?" "Nobody," was his reply. It is stated in Tafseer Abu Saood that the Bedouin accepted Islam (Allah knows best). This verse hints to the above incident. Because this Bedouin had come on behalf of all his people the words used here are "When a people".

52. From this one understands to remember the bounties of Allah is indeed a command of Allah. In celebrating and organizing Meelad gatherings is also a means of remembering the bounty of Allah because the blessed birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the greatest bounty of Allah. Hence, remembrance of the bounty is a means of expressing gratitude to the Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And publicise well the favours of your Lord" (S93:V11). Further, the QUR`AAN says: "If you are grateful I shall give you more, and if you are thankless my torment is severe" (S14:V7).

53. It should be remembered that to seek medical treatment from doctors and blessings through prayers from pious sages is not going against the concept "rely on Allah", as this would be acting upon the principle of cause and effect.

SECTION 3

12. And surely Allah took a covenant from the Children of Israel [54], and We raised among them twelve chiefs [55]. And Allah said: "Indeed, I am with you. If you establish Prayer [56], and pay Zakaat (poor-due) and believe in My Messengers and pay them respect [57], and lend to Allah a loan [58], then surely, I will acquit you of your sins [59], and shall surely cause you to enter into the Gardens [60], (sajdah) to him, do not take him to be Allah or His son. Other than that show as much respect to him as you possibly can. Every expression of respect is rewardable, there is no need to have any narration or quotation for it.

58. Giving charity to the poor is like giving a loan to Allah, just like good treatment to the son is looked upon as a favour to the father.

59. From this we learn that through the blessings of Islam all the sins of the period of infidelity (Kufr) are forgiven. However sins committed by creation will not be forgiven e.g. a new convert to Islam will have to settle the debt which he has incurred during his period of infidelity. Also due to the blessings of good deeds Allah Almighty forgives one's minor sins. Allah Almighty says: "If you keep away from major sins that are forbidden to you, then we will forgive your other sins." (S4:V31)

60. By `cause you to enter' means after you have completed your stay in the grave and the Day of Judgement.

61. Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) had sent those twelve chiefs to investigate about the condition of the people of Jabbareen at the time when he was going with the Israelites to wage war on them. These chiefs were instructed to relate to him only whatever they saw about the Jabbareen, not to make a general announcement about their observations. When the chiefs came they made a public announcement about their observations that the Jabbareen were strongly built, experienced and bold fighters. With the exception of Kalib Ibn Yuqanna and Yush'a Ibn Nun, all the other chiefs broke their promise. In this verse mention is made about this incident. In this case the word Kufr means breach of promise which these chiefs made with Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace).

54. This covenant was taken from the Prophets. From this we learn that the work of Allah's special servants is indeed Allah's work because though the covenant was taken by the Prophets, Allah says it was taken by Him.

55. The word Naqeeb is from the word Naqb which means to dig, to delve. Here it signifies to search, to probe, to investigate, ie to be fully aware of the conditions of one's people. From this we learn that it is permissible to give positions of religious leadership to those who are capable of it. From this many political deductions can be made. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم himself appointed twelve chieftains from the Ansaar on the occasion of the oath of allegiance of Ridwaan for organizing religious matters of the Muslims in Madinah and for eradicating their faults and shortcomings.

56. From this emerge two issues:

1. Salaah and Zakaat were obligatory upon the Israelites, though they were somewhat different to our Salaah and Zakaat. Thus only two prayers (Salaah) per day were obligatory upon them and Zakaat was payable on a quarter of the wealth in their possession.

2. The greatest weapons of a Muslim are his piety and good deeds. At no time, especially during Holy War, should one be unmindful about them. Says Allah Almighty: "When you encounter any army, then stand firm, and remember Allah much, that you may attain the goal."(S8:V45)

57. From this we learn that honouring the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is a worship of such a high degree that Allah Almighty had taken an oath concerning it. There is no restriction or limitation in according this dignity and status. Thus that type of honour which is not religiously unlawful should be accorded to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم Do not prostrate 13.So, for their breaking of the covenant [62], We cursed them and made their hearts hard [63]. They distort the words of Allah from their (proper) places [64], and have forgotten a portion of that of which they were reminded. And you will continue to be told of their treachery on their part, except a few of them. So, pardon them and overlook them.[65], Indeed, Allah loves the doers of good.

62. As these people not only rejected the Prophets after Hazrat Moosa, but harboured animosity against them and concealed the praiseworthy qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which are mentioned in the Tauraat

63. From this we learn a cruel heart comes as a result of committing too many sins while piety develops a soft heart.

64. From this we learn that distortion of words of the Book of Allah is a sin, whether it is personal or qualitative. Hence to intentionally pronounce any word of the QUR'AAN incorrectly e.g. to pronounce the letter Qaaf as Kaaf, Dwaad as Zwa is a serious sin.

65. From this we learn that if any Non-Muslim living in a Muslim State is guilty of minor breach of promise he should be forgiven for this as long as he continues to pay Jizyah (his poll tax). However there are some breach of promises from which one is relieved from their responsibilties. Some commentators state this verse was revealed concerning those people who had earlier entered into contract with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and then broke it. Allah Almighty had informed His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about their breach of promise and said that he should overlook this. (Tafseer Khazain)

14.And those who claimed that "we are Nasara" [66], We (Allah) took a covenant from them, but they, too, have forgotten a good portion of those admonitions, which were given to them. Thus, We have caused enmity and hatred among themselves [67], till the Day of Resurrection. And soon Allah will inform them about what they used to do.

66. In this it is hinted that the present day Nasara are Nasara by name only, not by deed because they have stopped helping Hazrat Isa (on whom be peace) and thus have broken their promises to him.

67. From this we learn that Nasara would be divided into many sects who will be continuously engaged in animosity and war. Even now when one looks at the Nasara of Germany, England, etc though they do establish outward unity for the sake of political expediency, they are in reality always divided. Their disunity continues even after death, the graves of city dwellers are in separate cemetries from the countryside Nasara.

15. O People of the Book! There has come to you Our Messenger who makes clear to you much of that which you had hidden [68], in the Book and he pardons you much. Indeed, there has come to you from Allah a light and a Luminous [69], Book (the QUR'AAN).

68. From this we understand that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was fully aware of the laws of all heavenly books. He also knew which laws were genuine and which were counterfeit. Only he can reveal the secrets of anyone who is himself fully aware of them. However there was no instruction for the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم to rectify these books because they had become abrogated. In fact the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم had rectified verses about laws concerning stoning to death (Rajam) etc.

69. Hazrat Mullah Ali Qari states in his "Sharah Shifa" that both "Light" and "Luminous Book" refer to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم ie the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is indeed both The Light (Noor) and the Luminous Book. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the revealing phenomenon of Allah's Personality, His Qualities, His Laws and Information.

Hence, these co-ordinating words can be explanatory as well. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the Light of Allah in a manner that he was the first to receive all bounties and blessings personally from Allah while through him the bounties are received by the rest of the world. It is further understood that no one has the power to extinguish the Light of Hazrat Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم because he is Allah's Light like the moon, sun; no one has the power to measure it, like the water of the ocean or the air. Also it is impossible to understand the Holy QUR'AAN without the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم because without the Light, the Book cannot be read. Before you touch the copies of the Holy QUR`AAN it is important to wash the entire body with water ie to take a Ghusal, while to touch the mystical secrets of the QUR`AAN it is important to cleanse your heart with the waters of Madinah.

16.Allah guides therewith [70], him who pursues His pleasures into the ways of peace, and brings them to light from the darkness [71], by His Command and shows the right path[72].

70. From this we learn that those whom Allah has guided or will guide receive the guidance through the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. No person can remain resigned from the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. For this reason the words: "Guide therewith him" are used in the verse.

71.From this emerge a few issues:

1. Apostasy is of numerous types; Faith is only one. Thus darkness is used in the plural, while Light or faith is used in the singular.

2. The pre-requisite of Faith is to remain aloof from all forms of Apostasy.

3. Faith and apostasy cannot be in one place because Faith is referred by Allah as Light, while apostasy is called darkness. Just as light is the opposite of darkness so is faith of apostasy. Hence there can be no basis for unity between a believer and a non-believer.

72. By "shows" means Allah guides the believers to do pious deeds, because mention has already been made about beliefs.

لَقَدْ كَفَرَ الَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْمَسِيْحُ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ ؕ قُلْ فَمَنْ يَّمْلِكُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ شَيْـًٔا اِنْ اَرَادَ اَنْ يُّهْلِكَ الْمَسِيْحَ ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ وَاُمَّهٗ وَ مَنْ فِي الْاَرْضِ جَمِيْعًا ؕ وَ لِلّٰهِ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَ مَا بَيْنَهُمَا ؕ يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَآءُ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿۱۷﴾

17. They have certainly become infidels who said: "Messiah son of Mariam is Allah himself" [73]. Please declare: "Who can do anything against Allah if He desires to destroy Messiah, son of Mariam, or his mother and everyone on earth?" [74]. And to Allah belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them. He creates what He pleases. And Allah has the power to do everything.

73. It should be remembered that some Nasara were saying that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was God, some were saying that he was the a son of God and others were believing in him as part of the trinity. It was the belief of the Yacoobiyyah and Makkaniyyah Nasara that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is penetrated or mixed in Allah Almighty like fragrance is penetrated into a flower, or heat into fire. Therefore, he is God. The Nasara of Najraan had told the same to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This verse was revealed to repudiate the above belief of the Nasara. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

74. These verses make different repudiations about accepting Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as a deity. One is that Isa (On whom be peace) can die, the second is that he was born from the stomach of his mother. The one who possesses these qualities cannot be a God. Thirdly, everything between the heavens and the earth belong to Allah, while every creation is the slave of Allah. If Allah Almighty had penetrated into anyone it would not have been the slave of Allah. Fourthly, Allah Almighty is all Powerful and the Creator. If Isa (on whom be peace) had been a deity he too would have been all powerful and a creator. All four of these have been described as "can do everything."

وَ قَالَتِ الْيَهُوْدُ وَ النَّصٰرٰى نَحْنُ اَبْنٰٓؤُا اللّٰهِ وَاَحِبَّآؤُهٗ ؕ قُلْ فَلِمَ يُعَذِّبُكُمْ بِذُنُوْبِكُمْ ؕ بَلْ اَنْتُمْ بَشَرٌ مِّمَّنْ خَلَقَ ؕ يَغْفِرُ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَ يُعَذِّبُ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ لِلّٰهِ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَ مَا بَيْنَهُمَا ۫ وَ اِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيْرُ ﴿۱۸﴾

18. And the Yahud and the Nasara say: "We are the children of Allah and His dear ones" [75]. Please declare: "Why does He torment [76]. you for your sins?" You are but mortal human beings among those whom He has created. He forgives whom He pleases" [77]. And to Allah belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth and whatever is between them, and unto Him is the (final) destination.

75. Reason for its revelation:
A group of Ahle Kitaab (People of the Book) came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to whom he preached Islam and warned them about the punishment of Allah. On hearing this they said you cannot put fear about Alllah's punishment because we are the sons of Allah. The above verse was revealed on this occasion. The meaning of the verse is that the manner in which we are close to Allah is like how a son is close to his father. No matter how bad the son might be he will always be liked by his father. Such is our case. In this verse sons does not mean actual children because in terms of this meaning these people were not calling themselves as sons of God. From this we understand that it is the belief of the Nasara to resign themselves from doing good deeds. Even today those people that profess love for the descendants of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, as well as some ignorant mendicants too have similiar beliefs regarding doing good deeds. Such a belief is apostasy. Wherever Faith is mentioned in the Holy QUR'AAN it is followed by pious deeds.

76. It was the belief of the Yahud that they would remain in Hell for only forty days i.e. the period in which they worshipped the golden calf. In this verse it is being told that 'Oh you Yahud' if you are close to Allah like sons then why should you be given this punishment. Thus there is a contradiction in your two beliefs.

77. By this is meant that He will punish any sinner He may pardon any sinner whom He may please. However, this does not mean that He will punish any person as understood by Dayanand Saraswaty. Hence there is no contradiction in the verse. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah does not do injustice even to the weight of an atom" (S4:V40). To punish the innocent is going against justice.

19. O People of the Book! Undoubtedly, there has come to you Our Messenger who makes clear to you Our commands, after a period of coming of messengers for a long time [78], lest you say: "There came not to us any bearer of glad-tidings or warner". Therefore, now he (Muhammad) has come to you as a bearer of glad-tidings and as a warner[79]. And Allah has power to do all things.

78. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Prophet of all previous Ummahs of the People of the Book, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Prophet of all human beings. In fact he is the Prophet of every creation of Allah. Further, we also learn that long before the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم coming of Prophets had stopped. Hence our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was born in 569AD. During this period no Prophet had come in the world. It should be remembered that it is in between this period which is known as the natural period. It was sufficient for the people of this period to believe in the Unity of Allah only, like the parents of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Also, remember that the non-arrival of the prophets during this period is the expression of highest form of honour for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. An intense darkness can only be dispelled by the sun.

79. It should be remembered that here glad-tidings is addded with to warn and not to verify ie, though Allah Almighty has called the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as bearer of glad-tidings and warner, but he did not say bearer of glad-tidings and verifier, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the warner of Allah's punishment and bearer of glad-tidings of rewards. He is not the harbinger or forerunner of any Prophet as he is the Final Prophet of Allah.

SECTION 4

وَ اِذْ قَالَ مُوْسٰى لِقَوْمِهٖ يٰقَوْمِ اذْكُرُوْا نِعْمَةَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ اِذْ جَعَلَ فِيْكُمْ اَنْۢبِيَآءَ وَجَعَلَكُمْ مُّلُوْكًا ۖ وَّ اٰتٰىكُمْ مَّا لَمْ يُؤْتِ اَحَدًا مِّنَ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۲۰﴾

20.And when Musa said to his people: "O my people! Remember the favour of Allah upon you, that He made among you Messengers [80] and made you kings [81]. and gave you that which He has not given anyone in the world [82]. up to this day".

80. From this verse we learn that it is greater and dignifying to be from the children of a Prophet than from the people of a Prophet. This is a bounty of Allah Almighty, if that person is a believer. Hence the descendants of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are greater in status than other people because they are the children of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Previously the Israelites were a distinguished people because they were the progeny of Prophets. We also learn that Meelad gatherings are auspicious because the blessed coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is being discussed therein.

81. From this one learns that being bestowed with a kingdom, is a great bounty of Allah Almighty. Some of the Prophets of the Israelites are those who were Prophets as well as kings like Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace).

يٰقَوْمِ ادْخُلُوا الْاَرْضَ الْمُقَدَّسَةَ الَّتِيْ كَتَبَ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ وَ لَا تَرْتَدُّوْا عَلٰٓى اَدْبَارِكُمْ فَتَنْقَلِبُوْا خٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿۲۱﴾

21.O my people! Enter this Holy Land [83], which Allah has assigned, to you, and do not turn back (from fighting in Allah's cause) that will lead you to loss.

83. By 'sacred land' is meant the territory of Syria which was occupied by Jabbar and his people. The Israelites were commanded to wage war on them and establish their control on this terriority. From this verse we learn that in whichever ground shrines of the pious are found that city and its entire territory becomes pure and sacred. It is for this reason that Syria is called sacred by Allah Almighty because the shrines of prophets are found therein. Hence it is a commendable act to refer to Baghdad , Ajmer , Sahwand as sacred cities as well as to Makka Muazzamah-the exalted city of Makka, Madinatul Munawwarah -the luminous city of Madina. The above verse serves as a proof for this: In one's conversation one normally uses this when asking a person's name or enquire about his health.

Hence the Holy Prophet had affirmed about all the past Prophets.

Marfat.com

قَالُوْا يٰمُوْسٰٓى اِنَّ فِيْهَا قَوْمًا جَبَّارِيْنَ ۖ وَاِنَّا لَنْ نَّدْخُلَهَا حَتّٰى يَخْرُجُوْا مِنْهَا ۚ فَاِنْ يَّخْرُجُوْا مِنْهَا فَاِنَّا دٰخِلُوْنَ ﴿٢٢﴾

22.They said: "O Musa! Within it are powerful people [84] and indeed we will never enter it until they go forth from it [85]. And when they go from it, we will enter there".

84. The people of Jabbareen were so huge in physique that an Israeli would fit in just one shoe of theirs. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) had sent twelve chiefs to investigate about their condition. From them ten informed the Israelites about their actual physique which instilled fear in them and said:In there are most powerful people." (Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan).

85.From this we learn that a command is there for obligatory things because the utterance of 'Go forth' was an act of disobedience on the part of the Israelites for which they were inflicted with different types of punishments.

قَالَ رَجُلٰنِ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ يَخَافُوْنَ اَنْعَمَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمَا ادْخُلُوْا عَلَيْهِمُ الْبَابَ ۚ فَاِذَا دَخَلْتُمُوْهُ فَاِنَّكُمْ غٰلِبُوْنَ ۚ وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ فَتَوَكَّلُوْٓا اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٢٣﴾

23. Said two men from those who feared Allah (and) whom Allah had favoured [86]: "Enter upon them through the gate, if you enter the gate you will be the victors [87]. And put your trust in Allah only, if you believe"[88].

86. Of these two persons, one was Kaalib Ibn Yuqanna, brother-in-law of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) ie the husband of Mariam, daughter of Imran, and the other was Yusha Ibn Noon, son of Faratheen Ibn Yusuf (On whom be peace) who earlier too did not give information about the Jabbareen.

87. In it is information about the unseen.

From this one learns that Allah Almighty does bless His auspicious saints with the Knowledge of the Unseen as both these persons at that time were saints.

88. From this we learn that success and victory is not dependent on numerical strength. If Allah so wills He can destroy elephants through tiny swallows.

قَالُوْا يٰمُوْسٰٓى اِنَّا لَنْ نَّدْخُلَهَآ اَبَدًا مَّا دَامُوْا فِيْهَا فَاذْهَبْ اَنْتَ وَرَبُّكَ فَقَاتِلَآ اِنَّا هٰهُنَا قٰعِدُوْنَ ﴿٢٤﴾

24.They said: "O Musa! Indeed we will never enter it as long they dwell therein. Therefore you and your Lord go there and both [89], of you fight with them, while we will remain sitting [90]".

89. Present day Wahabbis also say that if the saints have power then send them, why send an army to fight the enemy, just send one saint against them. They have learnt this from this verse.

90. From this we learn that the Companions of the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) are far superior to the companions of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) because they never left the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in a lurch no matter how trying the circumstances, neither did they answer back in such an indifferent manner. In fact, they sacrificed all they had on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Just as the Holy Prophet enjoys superiority over all the Prophets, his companions too are superior to the companions of the other Prophets.

قَالَ رَبِّ اِنِّیۡ لَاۤ اَمۡلِكُ اِلَّا نَفۡسِیۡ وَ اَخِیۡ فَافۡرُقۡ بَیۡنَنَا وَ بَیۡنَ الۡقَوۡمِ الۡفٰسِقِیۡنَ ﴿۲۵﴾

25. He (Musa) submitted: "O my Lord! I have no power over anything except on myself and on my brother (Harun) [91]. Therefore, You keep us separate from the defiantly disobedient [92]. people".

91. By the word `power' here means control, authority and power, and not formal property because nobody is the owner of his life nor of the Prophet. What is meant here is that I only have control over myself and my brother, no one else. The verse smacks of the disobedience and high mindedness of the Israelites so much so that as even their Prophets were despondent about them.

92. From this we understand a few issues:

1. It is a good deed to remain aloof from evil. minded people, as Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) had made a dua for it.

2. The evil of the evil doers brings about hardship on the pious. Because of these disobedient wretches Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was forced to stay at Teeha, a place of discomfort.

3. The sinful people receive blessings through the company of the pious. Observe, it is due to the blessings of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) that the Israelites were provided with Manna and Quails at Teeha, received twelve fountains of water from the stone and received clothes which did not become dirty and worn out for the entire period they were in the jungle.

قَالَ فَاِنَّهَا مُحَرَّمَةٌ عَلَیۡهِمۡ اَرۡبَعِیۡنَ سَنَةً ۚ یَتِیۡهُوۡنَ فِی الۡاَرۡضِ ؕ فَلَا تَاۡسَ عَلَی الۡقَوۡمِ الۡفٰسِقِیۡنَ ﴿۲۶﴾ ع

26. Allah said: "Then indeed, it (that land) is forbidden to them for forty years. Let them wander in the land [93]. So, do not grieve over these defiantly disobedient [94]. people.

93. This jungle became known as Teeha, a place of endless wandering. This place had an area of 12 miles. In this scant place sat six hundred thousand Israelites who were imprisoned in such a way that they would walk the whole day but at night they would find themselves in the same jungle. This was indeed an incredible miracle. It is here that manna and salwa descended for them. In this very place Hazrat Haroon and Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) passed away after whom Hazrat Yusha' (On whom be peace) was blessed with prophethood. After forty years of imprisonment here, Hazrat Yusha' (On whom be peace) with the Israelites waged war on the Jabbareen and conquered Syria.

94. It should be remembered all those Israelites at Teeha who were more than twenty years before being imprisoned in this jungle had all died here, while those who had refused to enter the sacred land, none of them were able to go there.

He (Qabeel) said: "I swear that I shall kill [97]. you". The other (Habeel) said: "Allah accepts (the offering) only from the God-fearing [98].

Marfat.com

95. This refers to the incident of Habeel and Qabeel Abel and Cain. Bibi Hawa gave birth to twins Habeel and Leewa, while Aqleemah was born with Qabeel. In terms of their Shariah (law) Aqleemah was unlawful for Qabeel; but Leewa was lawful for him. But because Aqleemah was prettier, Qabeel tried to marry her. When Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) tried to stop him he told the father that that is your opinion, not Allah's law. At this Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) told both his sons to offer sacrifice, the one whose sacrifice is burned would be true and sincere. Thus Qabeel brought a heap of wheat and Habeel slaughtered either a camel or a sheep and placed it on a mountain. A fire from an unknown source appeared and burned the meat, leaving the wheat untouched. At this miraculous happening Qabeel became jealous and made a firm intention to kill Habeel.

28.Surely, if you raise your hand against me to kill [99] me, I shall not raise my hand against you to kill you. I fear Allah, Lord of all the worlds[100].

لَئِنۡۢ بَسَطۡتَّ اِلَیَّ یَدَكَ لِتَقۡتُلَنِیۡ مَاۤ اَنَا بِبَاسِطٍ یَّدِیَ اِلَیۡكَ لِاَقۡتُلَكَ ۚ اِنِّیۡۤ اَخَافُ اللّٰهَ رَبَّ الۡعٰلَمِیۡنَ ﴿۲۸﴾

99. From this we learn that if the oppressed defends himself against the oppressor or kills him in self-defence, the verdict is that it is permissible to do so but piety is to save yourself from him or better still to be killed by him. Observe, Hazrat Uthman-e-Ghani (May Allah be pleased with him) did not defend himself against the oppressors

29.Indeed, I want you to obtain my sin [101] and your [102] sin, so that you may be the man of Hell [103], and that is the punishment of the unjust.

اِنِّیۡۤ اُرِیۡدُ اَنۡ تَبُوۡٓاَ بِاِثۡمِیۡ وَ اِثۡمِكَ فَتَكُوۡنَ مِنۡ اَصۡحٰبِ النَّارِ ۚ وَ ذٰلِكَ جَزٰٓؤُا الظّٰلِمِیۡنَ ﴿۲۹﴾

101. That is the first sin of committing murder. Here the reference of sin is connected to Habeel, and not to the actual perpetrator. The sin was committed by Qabeel because he murdered Habeel. In fact the connection is made towards the cause of the deed i.e. this deed is a sin because of me that is Qabeel is a sinner because he murdered Habeel. Says Allah

96. From this emerge two issues:
1. Sacrifice is an ancient form of worship, as it was first offered by the two sons of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace).
2. The eating of sacrificial meat was not permissible for the previous Ummahs followers of the earlier prophets. Their accepted sacrifice would be burned by fire from Allah Almighty, while the rejected sacrifice would be left to rot. The eating of sacrificial meat is the distinctive feature of our Ummah i.e. the followers of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

97. When Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) left on pilgrimage Qabeel informed Habeel about his evil intention with a threat.

98. In other words Allah is telling Qabeel that your sacrifice is not accepted due to your own fault, because you were not pious.

but instead was martyred by them. This verse is the source of his piety.

100.Habeel was far stronger than Qabeel, had he fought back he would easily have killed Qabeel and this action would have been permissible for him. But perhaps this could have been to some hardheartedness on his behalf, therefore he abstained from it.

Almighty as an example: "And adk forgiveness for your (followers) Faults" (S40 : V 55) "That Allah may forgive the sins of your formers." (S48:V2) Here the reference of sin is to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is casual reference i.e. people who committed sins in connection with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

102. By this is meant your previous sins. Being envious of me, being disobedient to your parents, to make an effort to obtain a woman who was unlawful for you, to reject Divine decision. (Vide : Khazain)
103. Because you have become a non-believer by rejection of the religious laws as well as by refusing to accept Divine decisions.

فَطَوَّعَتْ لَهٗ نَفْسُهٗ قَتْلَ اَخِيْهِ فَقَتَلَهٗ فَاَصْبَحَ مِنَ الْخٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿٣٠﴾

30.And his soul induced him to kill his brother. So he killed [104]. him and became among the losers [105].

104. By this is meant Qabeel placed the head of Habeel on one stone and crushed it with another, a method which the devil had taught him. This murder took place either in Makkah or Basrah. At this point in time Habeel was twenty years old.
105. From this emerge a few issues:
1. The crime committed by man was murder.
2. Envy is a terrible vice. It was envy that caused the downfall of the devil.
3. The very first mischief that took place in the world was over a woman. Woman is indeed the root of rebellion and mischief. The causes of mischief are three: Woman, riches and estate.

فَبَعَثَ اللّٰهُ غُرَابًا يَّبْحَثُ فِي الْاَرْضِ لِيُرِيَهٗ كَيْفَ يُوَارِيْ سَوْءَةَ اَخِيْهِ ؕ قَالَ يٰوَيْلَتٰى اَعَجَزْتُ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ مِثْلَ هٰذَا الْغُرَابِ فَاُوَارِيَ سَوْءَةَ اَخِيْ ۚ فَاَصْبَحَ مِنَ النّٰدِمِيْنَ ﴿٣١﴾ ۛ

31.Then Allah sent forth a crow (raven) scratching the earth, so that he might show him how he (Qabeel, the killer) can bury the corpse [106], of his brother. He said: "Woe to me! That I could not be able to hide (bury) the dead body of my brother, like this crow. So, he remained repenting [107].

106. Two crows fought in the presence of Qabeel, one of which killed the other. The crow which had survived then dug a hole with its beak and claws and buried the dead crow in it and filled the hole with sand.
107. This expression of regret was not due to repentence but because of his inability to bury. Or in those days only regret was not enough for seeking repentence. Allah knows best.

مِنْ اَجْلِ ذٰلِكَ ۚۛ كَتَبْنَا عَلٰى بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ اَنَّهٗ مَنْ قَتَلَ نَفْسًۢا بِغَيْرِ نَفْسٍ اَوْ فَسَادٍ فِي الْاَرْضِ فَكَاَنَّمَا قَتَلَ النَّاسَ جَمِيْعًا ؕ وَ مَنْ اَحْيَاهَا فَكَاَنَّمَآ اَحْيَا النَّاسَ جَمِيْعًا ؕ وَ لَقَدْ جَآءَتْهُمْ

32. On account of this [108], We decreed upon the Children of Israel that whoever kills a soul with the retaliatory right, or for creating disorder [109], then it is as if he has killed all mankind [110]. And whosoever gave life to one [111], it is as if he had given life to all mankind. And surely, Our Messengers came to them with clear proofs, then undoubtedly, many of them after that committed excess in the land [112].

108. Murder as a form of tyranny is a cause of many sins because it is due to this murder that Qabeel, despite being a son of a prophet was destroyed; the Israelites committed unjust murders by martyring many prophets of Allah. Hence we have been given this order.

109.From this we learn that to invent a sin is a severe sin while inventing a pious deed too is in itself great piety. This gives a hint about the division of Bida't-e-Hasanah and Bida't-e-Sayyah, because the murderer has been declared the murderer of the entire world. In the same way, if whoever saves one life and as a result of seeing him others begin to save lives, the original person gets a share of rewards from the good deeds of other people. Hence, similar is the case with originating good and evil deeds. It is important to remember that by mischief here means that crime for which the criminal is entitled to a death penalty, e.g. banditry and apostasy.

110. From this we learn that the penalty for one murder will be the same for the other murders i.e. blood compensation. like the sin for one murder would be the same as for other murders, e.g. Hell-Fire and the Wrath of Allah. However, there would be a difference in the nature of sin and punishment.

111. That he saved you from death in different ways e.g. some who were dying from hunger and thirst and provided with food and water, or someone who were unjustly being put to death, and He saved him. Hence, in this verse the act of saving is connected to all. From this we learn that it is absolutely correct to say that our Beloved Prophet grants honour, wealth, belief, children, gives paradise and saves from hell, because the Holy Prophet is connected with all the bounties of Allah.

112. From this we learn that the sins of the Prophets' children are more severe than the crimes of others because in this instance the Israelites were reprimanded in a peculiar way.

33. Indeed, the only retribution for those who fight against Allah and His Messenger [113], and strive upon the earth (to cause) mischief is none but that they be killed or crucified, or that their hands and feet be cut off from opposite sides, or that they be exiled from the land [114]. This is for them a disgrace in the world, and in the Hereafter for them is severe punishment.

113. Reason for its revelation: When the people from the tribe of Uriena came to Madinatul Munawwarah to accept Islam, they became sick. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ordered them to drink the milk and urine of the camels given in charity. On doing this they all became well but they became so reviled that they ran away with fifteen camels. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sent Hazrat Yassaar (May Allah be pleased with him) after them. These wretches however martyred Hazrat Yassaar (May Allah be pleased with him) after cutting off his hands and feet. Later these people were arrested and brought back. This verse was revealed on this occasion. From this incident two issues emerge:

Marfat.com

1. War against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to declaring war against Allah.
2. Enmity against the Friends of Allah is equal to declaring war against Allah Almighty and His beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because though the people of Uriena fought against Hazrat Yassaar (May Allah be pleased with him) this has been declared war against Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

34. Except for those who repent before you have control over them[115]. And know that Allah is Forgiving, Most Merciful [116].

إِلَّا الَّذِينَ تَابُوا مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ تَقْدِرُوا عَلَيْهِمْ ۚ فَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ ع ٩

115. By this is meant that if the dacoits sincerely repent before their arrest, they should not be punished for their crime after their arrest.
116. Although this repentence will save them from the punishment of the Hereafter as well as robbery, but returning of the goods and retaliatory punishment e.g. Capital punishment, will remain. For this reason they should repent before their arrest.

SECTION 6

35. O you who believe! Fear Allah and seek the means of approach [117] to Him, and strive in His way that you may obtain prosperity [118].

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَابْتَغُوا إِلَيْهِ الْوَسِيلَةَ وَجَاهِدُوا فِي سَبِيلِهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾

117. From this is understood that a Muslim should seek mediation of Prophets and saints of Allah with their deeds because deeds were included in "fear of Allah" then the command to seek appearance as a means of approach. Furthermore, it is understood that one has to strive in order to seek the mediation before it can be obtained.
118. From this is understood no pious Muslim can reach Allah Almighty without mediation, though it should be remembered that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not included in this because he is the mediator for everyone. Who can dare be his mediator!

36. Undoubtedly, those who became [119]. infidels, if they possessed all that is in the earth and as much more again to ransom themselves thereby from the punishment of the Day of Judgement, it shall not be accepted from [120], them, and for them is a painful punishment.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْ أَنَّ لَهُمْ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ لِيَفْتَدُوا بِهِ مِنْ عَذَابِ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ مَا تُقُبِّلَ مِنْهُمْ ۚ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٣٦﴾

Marfat.com

114. There are three types of thieves (dacoits) and as such the punishment too is of three types:
1. He who obstructs or blocks the road.
2. He who blocks the way and seizes the wealth.
3. He who kills to seize the goods.

The punishment for the three are the following:
1. Banishment
2. Cut off hands and feet.
3. Execution.

119. They became disbelievers by rejecting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Rejection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is part of every type of apostasy. Rejection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم can also result in the rejection of Allah Almighty. Therefore this verse appears after the verse of mediation.

120. From this there is a hint that the non-atonement of the wealth is a means of punishment for the disbelievers while the charities of the believers will be accepted, and through the blessings of this they will be relieved of their punishment.

37. They will wish to get out of the Fire, but they will not be able to come out of it. For them is the everlasting punishment [121].

يُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ يَّخْرُجُوْا مِنَ النَّارِ وَمَا هُمْ بِخٰرِجِيْنَ مِنْهَا ۡ وَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّقِيْمٌ ﴿٣٧﴾

121. From this we understand that the eternal stay in Hell and the intensity of the punishment remaining constant without any decrease in its intensity is a special fate of the non-believers. The believer will not be eternally placed in Hell, and his punishment too will be made less intense. In fact life of some will be taken out of their bodies at the time of being sent into Hell and would be put back in the body after being taken out of Hell. However the punishment of some disbelievers will be less intense on commencement while others would be punished severely. Some others would have their punishment lessened after a few days of its commencement. Abu Talib is given light punishment, while the punishment of Abu Lahab becomes lesser on every Monday.

38. And whosoever of the man and the woman is a thief [122], then cut of their hands [123], in recompense for what they have [124], done, a punishment from Allah. And Allah is Exalted in Might, the Wise.

وَ السَّارِقُ وَ السَّارِقَةُ فَاقْطَعُوْٓا اَيْدِيَهُمَا جَزَآءًۢ بِمَا كَسَبَا نَكَالًا مِّنَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٣٨﴾

122. A thief is he who steals secretly hidden goods from secure places. Thus to steal undercover goods of a combatant non-believer is not a theft because these goods are not made secure. Similarly if goods are stolen from an open Masjid it is not theft because though the goods are in a safe place, the place itself is not secured. The same is the case regarding goods left on the road, garden, farming land etc. From this thousands of issues are deduced i.e. it will not result in cutting of hands.

123. It should be remembered that although the hands of the thief are cut but the reproductive organ of the adulterer is not cut off so as not to stop procreation. Also, the entire body is involved in adultery while only the hands are used for stealing. Hence the entire body of the adulterer is punished. It should be borne in mind that adultery is caused by lust which is found more in a woman hence woman is mentioned first. Force has more to do with stealing which is found more in man.

124. From this is understood that the thief will not be liable for surety of squandered goods because Allah Almighty has determined cutting of the hands of the thief as his full retribution as can be deduced from the general use of the pronoun 'what'. However, if he is in possession of stolen goods, it would be returned to the owner.

فَمَنْ تَابَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ ظُلْمِهٖ وَ اَصْلَحَ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَتُوْبُ عَلَيْهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۳۹﴾

39. Then whosoever repents after his wrongdoing and reforms himself then Allah will turn to him with His Mercy. Indeed, Allah is Ever-Forgiving, Most Merciful [125].

125. From 'those who repent' is understood that after cutting off of his hands the thief should be made to repent because he has violated Divine Right as well. It should be remembered that the condition for establishing the punishment of death is that the stolen goods must not be of lesser value than two and three quater rupees i.e. ten dirhams. (This value fo Rupees was during commentators time)The case should be taken to the local authority and the theft should be proven either by admission of guilt by the thief or two witnesses. It should also be remembered that before the case of theft reaches the local authority it is violation of human right which can be pardoned by the owner. But afterwards it becomes infringement of Divine Right which can then not be pardoned by the owner.

اَلَمْ تَعْلَمْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَهٗ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ يُعَذِّبُ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَيَغْفِرُ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَیْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿۴۰﴾

40. Do you not know that to Allah belongs the kingdoms of the heavens and the earth? He punishes whom He pleases [126]. And Allah has the power to do everything [127].

126. If the thief repents he would be saved from the punishment of the Hereafter but not from the penalty of this world. That is intended by forgiveness.

127. By 'He can do everthing' means He can forgive whichever criminal He may please, and punish which ever criminal He may please. It does not mean that He would punish any person without any crime. Hence there is no contradiction in the verse.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الرَّسُوْلُ لَا يَحْزُنْكَ الَّذِيْنَ يُسَارِعُوْنَ فِى الْكُفْرِ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْۤا اٰمَنَّا بِاَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَ لَمْ تُؤْمِنْ قُلُوْبُهُمْ ۛ وَمِنَ الَّذِيْنَ هَادُوْا ۛ سَمّٰعُوْنَ لِلْكَذِبِ سَمّٰعُوْنَ لِقَوْمٍ اٰخَرِيْنَ ۙ لَمْ يَاْتُوْكَ ؕ يُحَرِّفُوْنَ الْكَلِمَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَوَاضِعِهٖ ۚ يَقُوْلُوْنَ اِنْ اُوْتِيْتُمْ هٰذَا فَخُذُوْهُ وَاِنْ لَّمْ تُؤْتَوْهُ فَاحْذَرُوْا ؕ وَ مَنْ يُّرِدِ

41. O Messengers! [128] Let them not grieve you who hasten towards infidelity. Some of them say from their mouths: "We believe"; but their hearts are not Muslims [129]. And some Yahud listen to falsehood with deep interest and listen very well to other people [130], who have not come to you. They change the words of Allah from their places, and say: "If you get this command, then accept it, and if you do not get it, then be on your guard [131]. do) for him to do a thing against Allah [132].
Those are the people whose heart Allah intends not to purify [133]. To them is there disgrace in this world, and they will face severe punishment in the Hereafter.

128. From this emerge two issues:
1. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should not be addressed by his name or with common, ordinary words. Allah Almighty has addressed all other Prophets by name but has always addressed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with beautiful titles.
2. The learned should not be dismayed if their efforts fail to move the people. Remember, not every soil or earth benefits from rain.

129. These people were hypocrites before hand, now they have merely made their infidelity known. Thus by `towards infidelity' is meant display of infidelity. From this is understood that if a hypocrite gives expression to infidelity he too in terms of Islamic law would be an apostate.

130. By this is meant the Yahud do not listen to truth, but to falsehood. They will not listen to you Oh Prophet (Peace be upon you) but will listen to those leaders who do not come to your court.

131. A married partner from a respectable Jewish family of Khaiber committed adultery. In the Taurat, punishment prescribed for adultery was stoning to death. The Yahud presented this case to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and ordered the people not to accept the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم decision if it is in favour of stoning to death, but if the decision is anything different they should accept it. When these people arrived in Madinatul Munawwarah they took along Jewish scholars like Ka'ab bin Ashraf from there to influence the decision. When the case was presented to the Holy Prophet he gave the order for stoning to death which the Yahud refused to accept. At this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "Do you accept Ibn Sooriya, your priest from Fidak. They replied that he is their most learned scholar. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم asked to bring him. After hearing the case he under tremendous constraint admitted that the penalty for adultery is Rajam- stoning to death. As a result of this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ordered the adulterer to be stoned to death. Reference in this verse is made to the above incident. Remember this stoning to death is a form of punishment and not as a form of restrictive ordinance, because in the restrictive ordinance of stoning to death chastity is a condition, and for chastity Islam is a pre-requisite, while people under discussion are infidels. Therefore their political laws cannot be enforced on the infidels.

132. This blessed verse has clarified the meaning of all those verses and Ahadith in which it appears that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has no power over the gain or loss of anyone. From this verse it is understood that while no one has any power in respect of Allah Almighty, but with Allah's blessings He does bestow power on His select servants to make them persons of authority.

133. From this is understood that only those persons will benefit from the company of the pious who go there taking themselves to be empty handed. Those who go with a pre-conceived mind can hardly hope to receive any benefits. Can just an empty bucket bring up water from the well? Can a cloth hued in white become sky! He who is severely blackened from the beginning cannot be expected to take on colour.

134. From this emerge a few issues:
1. To talk in slighting terms of a non-believer in his absence is permissible.
2. Bribery, interest, etc are totally forbidden.
3. It is permissible to accept gifts and enter into trade with those whose lawful and unlawful income is mixed, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم accepted a gift from Maqwaqis, King of Alexandria, and the noble Companions took loans and entered into trade with the Yahud to whom the Holy QUR'AAN refers as devourers of unlawful things.

135. It should be remembered that it is incumbent upon the ruler to solve the lawsuits of his subjects while it is not necessary that one arbiter should be an arbiter of another. This is left to the will of the person. Here the latter is intended because at that point in time the Yahud of Khaibar were not as yet subjects of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. They would always try to make the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم an arbitrator to solve their lawsuits, while in the verse "And if you judge between them" the decision of the government is intended. Hence this verse is not abrogated from it. It should be remembered that the giving of a verdict on a religious issue is totally different from the decision of a arbiter. It is obligatory upon a Mufti to give a verdict on a religious issue, while the arbiter is not duty bound to the council.

136. Because Allah Almighty is the protector and the helper of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

137. In political matters judgement is given in accordance with Islamic law while in matters concerning inheritance and worship, according to their faith.

The purpose of this verse is to explain that the Yahud did not really come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to seek his judgments but to seek ease in their difficult matters from him, other wise the decision regarding the problem is found in the Tauraat i.e. stoning to death. They accept the Tauraat, but they never believe in the Holy Prophet them to preserve [140], the Book of Allah, and they were witnesses thereto. So, do not fear people, but fear Me (Allah) and never accept a mean price [141], for Our Verses. And whoso does not judge by what Allah has sent down [142], then it is those who are the infidels.

قَلِيْلًا ؕ وَمَنْ لَّمْ يَحْكُمْ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ
فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْكٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿٤٤﴾

139. From this verse one understands that a new Book was not revealed to every Prophet. Although the Taurat was revealed to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) many Prophets after him gave orders from it for their followers. It should be remembered that there are approximately one hundred and twenty four thousand prophets but out of these there are only three hundred and thirteen Messengers, and revealed books are only four. From this we also gather that all those laws of the Tauraat which are mentioned by Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم in the QUR'AAN and Hadith without any refutation are incumbent upon us as well. (Tafseer Abi Sa'ood)

140. From this it is understood the protection of the Divine Book is obligatory upon the learned Ulema, whether it is protection of its words, its meaning or its laws.

141. By `mean price' is meant to change the the commands of Allah be it due to the fear of the people or due to the greed for personal gains, is totally and absolutely forbidden and is a grave sin. As for printing and selling the Holy QUR'AAN, using it for Taweez, accepting salary for teaching the QUR'AAN or delivering a sermon, etc are concerned, they do not constitute the selling of the verses of the QUR'AAN for personal gain as can be seen from the following verse. One noble Companion fixed the payment of thirty goats from the person who was bitten by a snake. Thereafter Surah Fateha was recited and blown on the patient as a result of which he was cured. All those soldiers obtained the goats and ate its meat. When the matter was related to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم he asked for the meat and partook of it.

142. By `judges not' is meant he does so by taking the laws of Allah to be incorrect or dissiminate royal decrees as Divine laws as was the practise of the Jewish scholars. Thus the passing of laws and decrees by the present British salaried officers in accordance with British law is not included in this verse, because these officials are compelled to carry this out without regarding these current laws as religious laws.

وَكَتَبْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ فِيْهَآ اَنَّ النَّفْسَ
بِالنَّفْسِ ۙ وَ الْعَيْنَ بِالْعَيْنِ وَ الْاَنْفَ
بِالْاَنْفِ وَالْاُذُنَ بِالْاُذُنِ وَالسِّنَّ بِالسِّنِّ ۙ
وَالْجُرُوْحَ قِصَاصٌ ؕ فَمَنْ تَصَدَّقَ بِهٖ فَهُوَ
كَفَّارَةٌ لَّهٗ ؕ وَمَنْ لَّمْ يَحْكُمْ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ

45. And We (Allah) made obligatory upon them [143], in the Tauraat, a life for a life, and eye for an eye, and a nose for a nose, an ear for an ear and a tooth for a tooth. And in injuries there is equitable retaliation [144]. Then whoso recompenses with a happy [145], heart, then that shall be expiation[146].

for his sin. And whoso judges not according to what Allah has sent [147], down, then they are persons unjust[148].

اللّٰهُ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿٤٥﴾

143. i.e. Oh Muslims! You too should follow this practise. Allah Almighty outlined this law of Taurat in the QUR'AAN without prohibiting its execution on us.

144. From this we learn the equality or parity is in capital punishment, inflicting wound, murder, etc but there is no parity in the nature of the murder or wound e.g. if someone kills a person by smashing his head, the murderer can be killed by beheading him with a sword, and not by smashing his head. If this is the case then how would that person be punished who has killed a small girl by raping her. This parity is in obtaining capital punishment but not in the nature of the crime, ie it is not necessary that the murderer should also be killed in the same way.

145. If the oppressed person forgives the oppressor by not opting for the retaliatory law nor accept monetary compensation then the forgiveness of this oppressed would be useful retaliation for the injustice of the oppressor and he will be acquitted of its punishment. However, it is important to repent for saving himself from the punishment of the Hereafter.

146. From this is understood that award of Capital punishment is concerned with human rights which can be forgiven by those whose right is infringed. This is the understanding of human rights. However, Divine rights cannot be forgiven by any human being.

147. One who regards Islamic laws to be wrong and accepts the current laws in practice to be right is an infidel.

148. Here the meaning of unjust or tyrant is an infidel or a polytheist. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly, the association with Allah is a tremendous wrong." (S31:V13)

46. And We brought Isa, son of Mariam [149], to follow their footsteps, confirming what is in the Tauraat revealed before [150], him. And We gave him the Injeel wherein there is guidance and light, and confirms the Tauraat that had come before [151], it. It is a guidance and an advice for the righteous.

وَقَفَّيْنَا عَلٰٓى اٰثَارِهِمْ بِعِيْسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ مِنَ التَّوْرٰىةِ ۖ وَ اٰتَيْنٰهُ الْاِنْجِيْلَ فِيْهِ هُدًى وَّنُوْرٌ ۙ وَّ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ مِنَ التَّوْرٰىةِ وَهُدًى وَّمَوْعِظَةً لِّلْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿٤٦﴾

149. From this emerge two issues:

1. Hazart Isa (On whom be peace) was born without a father,otherwise he would be connected with the father;
2. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is the last prophet of the Israelites who has come after all the prophets of the Israelites. Hence, he is called the Confirmer.

150. Injeel abrogates Taurat as well as confirms what was in it, because the Injeel has proclaimed the Taurat to be a true Book of Allah, though it has brought to an end its laws. Thus abrogation is not the contradiction of confirmation. Observe, our Holy QUR'AAN is the abrogation of all the previous revealed books, as well as their confirmer.

151. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) too would confirm what was in the Taurat and in the Injeel. Or Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) proved the authenticity of Taurat after coming into this world because it contained in it his coming.

وَلْيَحْكُمْ اَهْلُ الْاِنْجِيْلِ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ فِيْهِ ؕ وَ مَنْ لَّمْ يَحْكُمْ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْفٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿۴۷﴾

47. And let the people of the Injeel judge by what Allah has revealed [152], in it. And whoso judges not by what Allah sent down, then it is those who are the transgressors [153].

152. By this command is intended bringing faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Otherwise, even the present day Nasara too are not subscribing to the remaining laws of the Injeel, because the Injeel has been abrogated. A Muslim ruler too would inflict punishment according to Islamic law and not of that religion. However, they will enjoy complete religious freedom.

153. Here the word sinner is intended to mean one of sinful beliefs, ie. an infidel as can be seen from the previous verse. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses. He who does not accept Allah's word to be true is an infidel, a tyrant as well as a sinner. From this it is understood that it is not permissible to regard present day courts as instruments of justice and the legal office bearers as officials of justice because they are not run on Islamic Laws.

وَ اَنْزَلْنَآ اِلَيْكَ الْكِتٰبَ بِالْحَقِّ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ مِنَ الْكِتٰبِ وَ مُهَيْمِنًا عَلَيْهِ فَاحْكُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ وَ لَا تَتَّبِعْ اَهْوَآءَهُمْ عَمَّا جَآءَكَ مِنَ الْحَقِّ ؕ لِكُلٍّ جَعَلْنَا مِنْكُمْ شِرْعَةً وَّ مِنْهَاجًا ؕ وَ لَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ لَجَعَلَكُمْ اُمَّةً وَّاحِدَةً وَّ لٰكِنْ لِّيَبْلُوَكُمْ فِيْ مَآ اٰتٰىكُمْ فَاسْتَبِقُوا الْخَيْرٰتِ ؕ اِلَى اللّٰهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ جَمِيْعًا فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ فِيْهِ تَخْتَلِفُوْنَ ﴿۴۸﴾ لا

48. And (O Beloved Prophet) We have revealed to you the true Book confirming the Books preceding it, and as a guardian and witness [154] over them. So you judge between them according to what Allah has sent down [155]. O listener! Follow not that desires leaving [156] the Truth that has come to you. We ordained a law [157] and a way for all of you. And if Allah had willed, He would have made you all a single people [158]. But, He desires to test you in what He has given you [159]. So desire to excel in good deeds. You are all to return to Allah. Then He shall tell you what you used to dispute.

154. From this is understood that the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) has full knowledge about all the heavenly Books, because Allah Almighty made him a witness to testify about the Taurat, and it is common knowledge that one cannot testify if one is not fully acquainted with the matter.

155. From this verse is understood that a Muslim judge can pass judgement on law-suits of the infidels as per the QUR'AAN and give punishment as per the QUR'AAN eg. for theft, their hands will be cut off. This was the very reason the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم showed the Jewish scholars the verse in Taurat on Rajam (Stoning to death) and asked for the execution of this punishment because at that point in time the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not the governor but the arbitrator.

156. From this is understood that it is a serious crime for a religious scholar to give a favourable verdict or for a judge to pass a biased judgement on account of bribery, favouritism, partiality or selfish motives. It is further understood that every Law of Islam is true and just; against these all unIslamic laws are false and unjust. It should be borne in mind that every Muslim is being addressed here. For this reason the words in the next verse are: "For all of you."

157. This means that the previous Prophets were unanimous in their beliefs but were different in their religious subsidiary activities. This does not mean that even today every nation is prescribed different laws, because the QUR'AANic laws today are incumbent upon every person and all are duty bound to them.

158 .By `single people' is meant from beginning to end the people had one prophet and a set of religious laws. No religion would become abrogated and everyone would receive guidance to act up to it. However it did not turn out to be like this.

159. The revelation of different laws on different prophets was based on wisdom to which the pious servants show obedience. However the disobedient wretches do not accept these differences. Instead they quibble on these issues. Thus during every period rules and laws were sent according to their needs. An experienced doctor will always prescribe different treatment according to the patient's needs.

49. And (O Muslims) judge according to what Allah has sent [160], down, and follow not their desires and be on guard against them, lest they cause you to slip [161], from any command of Allah revealed to you. Then, if they turn their faces then know that Allah wishes to give them punishment [162], for some of their sins. And no doubt, many people are disobedient.

وَ اَنِ احْكُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ وَ لَا تَتَّبِعْ اَهْوَآءَهُمْ وَ احْذَرْهُمْ اَنْ يَّفْتِنُوْكَ عَنْۢ بَعْضِ مَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ اِلَيْكَ ؕ فَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَاعْلَمْ اَنَّمَا يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ اَنْ يُّصِيْبَهُمْ بِبَعْضِ ذُنُوْبِهِمْ ؕ وَ اِنَّ كَثِيْرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ لَفٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿۴۹﴾

160. It should be remembered that the Holy QUR'AAN, Hadith Shareef, Consensus of Muslim opinion and opinion based on analogy are all included in "Whatever Allah Almighty has revealed." The Holy QUR'AAN is a salient and clear revelation, Hadith Shareef is a concealed revelation, to act upon the consensus of the Ummah has been commanded by the Holy QUR'AAN while opinion based on analogy is the way of communication of the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith Shareef.

161. From this it is understood that no person should regard himself safe from the deception of the infidels and the wiles of the devil. If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was asked to exercise caution regarding this, then who are we.

162. For anyone to adore things according to his whims and fancy which is contrary to the laws of Shariah is indeed a sign of Divine punishment for him. Verse:

"If thou desireth good fortune from any abode, Learn first to become a devotee of that abode."

50. Do they seek the judgement of the Days of Ignorance? [163], And who is better in judgement than Allah for people of firm faith?

اَفَحُكْمَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ يَبْغُوْنَ ؕ وَ مَنْ اَحْسَنُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ حُكْمًا لِّقَوْمٍ يُّوْقِنُوْنَ ﴿۵۰﴾ ع ۱۱

163. In Madinatul Munawwarah lived two tribes, Bani Nazeer and Bani Kuraiza who were always at loggerheads with one another. Bani Nazeer being stronger could always take double compensation for their dead but they would only pay half compensation to Bani Kuraiza for their dead. Bani Kuraiza complained to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for the injustice and cruelty of Bani Nazeer. The Holy Prophet in passing judgement said that the blood of both tribes is equal, hence the compensation should be equal as well. The Bani Nazeer refused to accept this. The above was revealed on this occasion. From this we learn that showing displeasure at Islamic laws and obeying ones own desires is the way of the infidels.

SECTION 8

51. O you who believe! Do not take the Yahud and Nasara as friends [164]. They are friends of each other among themselves [165]. And whoso of you makes them his friends, then he is one of them. Indeed, Allah does not guide people that are unjust [166].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الْيَهُوْدَ
وَالنَّصٰرٰٓى اَوْلِيَآءَ ۘ بَعْضُهُمْ اَوْلِيَآءُ
بَعْضٍ ؕ وَمَنْ يَّتَوَلَّهُمْ مِّنْكُمْ فَاِنَّهٗ مِنْهُمْ ؕ
اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَهْدِى الْقَوْمَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٥١﴾

164. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning the noble Companion Hazrat Abadah ibn Samit (May Allah be pleased with him) and Abdullah ibn Ubay, the notorious hypocrite. Hazrat Abadah (May Allah be pleased with him) said that although the aristocratic Yahud are my friends but now I despise that friendship which is bereft of Allah and his Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. But Abdullah ibn Ubay said that it is important for him to maintain friendship with the Yahud, though he loves Allah and His Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. After listening to their discussion the Holy Prophet told the hypocrite that maintaining friendship with the Yahud is your work, not that of Abadah (May Allah be pleased with him). From this emerge a few issues:
1. To keep friendship and close association with the Yahud and Nasara and seeking their aid unless under extreme circumstances, is totally forbidden.
2. To keep close companionship with the infidels is the sign of hypocrites.
3. If close companionship with the People of the Book is forbidden then to maintain this type of relationship with the polytheists is forbidden to the highest degree because these polytheists are worse than the People of the Book.

165. By this is meant in opposition to Islam. These Yahud and Nasara are friends unto one another, though in reality in their personal relationship with one another they are totally divided. Says Allah Almighty: "And we cast among them enmity and hatred" (S5:V64). And further Allah Almighty says:"And you will think of them as a united gang." (S59:V14) Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

166. Therefore, Hazrat Abu Moosa Ash'ary (May Allah be pleased with him) had employed a Christian scribe. When Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) asked for a reason the reply was he was a capable scribe and it is difficult to run the affairs of Basrah without his help. Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) asked, "What will you do when he dies?" (Tafseer Khazain) From this we learn that in an Islamic state Non-Muslims should not be given key posts.

فَتَرَى الَّذِيْنَ فِيْ قُلُوْبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ يُّسَارِعُوْنَ فِيْهِمْ يَقُوْلُوْنَ نَخْشٰٓى اَنْ تُصِيْبَنَا دَآئِرَةٌ ؕ فَعَسَى اللّٰهُ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَ بِالْفَتْحِ اَوْ اَمْرٍ مِّنْ عِنْدِهٖ فَيُصْبِحُوْا عَلٰى مَآ اَسَرُّوْا فِيْٓ اَنْفُسِهِمْ نٰدِمِيْنَ ﴿٥٢﴾ ؕ

52. You will come across such people who have a disease in their hearts and they run towards the Yahud and Nasara saying: "We fear lest a misfortune befall [167], us". Due to it Allah may bring a victory soon or a Commandment from Himself [168]. Then they will be regretful of what they had concealed in their hearts [169].

167. The meaning of this could be that the hostilities between the Yahud and Nasara result in the Muslims suffering worldly difficulties because all our dealings are with them which could come to a standstill. Or it could mean Oh Muslims if we remain with you and cut off links with the People of the Book then in times of difficulties we will be destroyed because you are a poor minority while they are wealthy and greater in number. Thus they can be of use to us, not you.

168. In this verse the victory refers to either victory in general or the conquest of Makkah, and commandment refers to the eviction of the infidels and polytheists out of the sacred territories of Hejaz (Makkah and Madinah), or banishing the Yahud out of Madinatul Munawwarah. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty made both these predictions come true.

169. The cause of the disgrace of the hypocrites is that they are victims of double standards, inwardly they are infidels but outwardly they show to be believers. The infidels would be destroyed and Madinah would be an abode for Muslims only, which would result in the disgrace of the hypocrites. From this it is evident that the end result of a selfish desire of keeping friendship with all is regret.

وَيَقُوْلُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اَهٰٓؤُلَآءِ الَّذِيْنَ اَقْسَمُوْا بِاللّٰهِ جَهْدَ اَيْمَانِهِمْ ۙ اِنَّهُمْ لَمَعَكُمْ ؕ حَبِطَتْ اَعْمَالُهُمْ فَاَصْبَحُوْا خٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿٥٣﴾

53. And the believers say: "Are they the same who swore by Allah in their oaths with full strength that they were with you? Their deeds were destroyed [170], and they were left in loss.

170. From this is understood that professed piety and hypocrisy are the causes of destruction of our good deeds. Thus the meaning of this verse is that the outward good deeds of the hypocrites like Salaah, Fasting, Zakaat and Hajj etc are neither religiously correct nor will these be rewarded in the Hereafter. This does not at all mean that at first their deeds were correct but now they have been made null and void. Furthermore, we learn that Muslims should always be different from the infidels in form and behaviour; do not assume their image nor imitate their manners.

54. O you who believe! Whoso of you will deviate from your religion [171], then soon Allah shall bring such people [172], who will be dear to Allah, and Allah will be dear to them. They will be humble towards the Muslims and stern towards the infidels. They fight in the way of Allah and will not fear the reproach of one who reproaches [173]. This is the bounty of Allah, which He gives to whom He wills. And Allah is All-Embracing, All-Knowing.

171. In this blessed verse one important information of the unseen is given: that some reciters of the Kalimah (ie Muslims) would become apostates. Thus during the rule of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) some became apostates by rejecting the institution of Zakaat while others became apostates by accepting Musalama Kazzab as a prophet.

172. Here the word "People" refers to Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) and his army, while "shall bring" means to re-establish authority and power through these people. Otherwise these people were present at that time as well.

173. In this verse the truth about Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) and his rule is clearly mentioned, because it is he who fought against the apostates during his Caliphate, the wars of Hazrat Umar and Hazrat Uthman (May Allah be pleased with them) were fought against the infidels while the wars of Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) were against the rebels. Only Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) waged war on the apostates which is mentioned in this verse. It should be remembered that during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم no war was waged on the apostates, though they were put to sword.

اِنَّمَا وَلِيُّكُمُ اللّٰهُ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ وَالَّذِيْنَ

55. Only Allah is your friend [174] and His Messenger and the believers, that they establish Prayer and pay Zakaat and bow down before Allah [175].

174. In this verse the word 'friend' cannot be taken to mean Khalifa nor can this verse be specific reference to the Khalifat of Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him). Some reasons for this are: 1. Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are nobody's caliphs, and they too are mentioned here as friends. Thus one word cannot be used simultaneously to mean several things.

2. At the time of the revelation of this verse Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) was not Caliph as yet. If the verse is taken to mean the period after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then the Caliphate of Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) cannot be proven without seperation of this period. After the rule of the first three Caliphs is also the latter period.

3. The word `only' is used for emphasis. If the Caliphate is taken to rest only upon Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) then the Caliphate of the other eleven Imams would be null and void. In any case the meaning of the word Wali here is a friend or helper.

175. This verse was revealed in connection with Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam (May Allah be pleased with him) who told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that our people have forsaken us and have vowed to boycott us. To this Allah Almighty's reply is why are you dejected. If the Yahud have severed ties with you, you have found Allah Almighty, His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and those Muslims who give Zakaat as well as offer Salaah involving Ruku.

56. And whoso takes Allah and His Messenger and Muslims as his friends, then surely, the party of Allah is dominant [176].

وَ مَنْ يَّتَوَلَّ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا فَاِنَّ حِزْبَ اللّٰهِ هُمُ الْغٰلِبُوْنَ ﴿۵۶﴾ ع ۸ ۱۲

176. From this emerge two issues:

1. To make friends with the pious servants of Allah is the way of the believers, because holding them dear to you is equal to holding Allah Almighty dear to you; and hating them is equal to hating Allah Almighty.

2. A Muslim will always be respected and gain the upperhand by living with his own people. By separating from your own people in order to join the infidels will always result in his shame and disgrace. Only that branch will remain green which is connected to its root.

SECTION 9

57. O you who believe! Do not take any of them as your friend who has made mockery of your religion and a plaything. Those who were given the Book before [177], you and the infidels [178]. And remain fearing Allah, if you believe.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الَّذِيْنَ اتَّخَذُوْا دِيْنَكُمْ هُزُوًا وَّ لَعِبًا مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوا الْكِتٰبَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ وَ الْكُفَّارَ اَوْلِيَآءَ ۚ وَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۵۷﴾

177. Reason for its revelation:
Rafa'ah ibn Zaid and Suaid ibn Harith would only verbally express Islam but inwardly they were infidels i.e. hypocrites. Some Muslims liked them. This verse was revealed regarding them. (Roohul Bayaan, Khazain). From this emerge two issues:

1. To recite the Kalimah without inner conviction is to make fun of Islam.
2. Every reciter of Kalima is not a Muslim nor is it permissible to keep friendship with such a person.

178. In this verse if the word "infidels" is taken to mean all the infidels then this is making it common after the special, because the People of the Book and the hypocrites too were infidels. However if this is taken to mean the polytheists and definite infidels then its meaning is obvious.

58. And when you call the people for Prayer [179], they make a mockery and a plaything of it. That is because they are wholly unwise people [180].

وَ اِذَا نَادَيْتُمْ اِلَى الصَّلٰوةِ اتَّخَذُوْهَا هُزُوًا وَّ لَعِبًا ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَّا يَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿۵۸﴾

179. Imam Saadi (May Allah be pleased with him) states that in Madinah resided a Christian who whenever he heard the Muazzin recite "I bear witness that Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the Messenger of Allah" he would say: "Let the liar (Allah forbid) burn!" Through the Splendour and Dignity of Allah Almighty, the servant of this man one night forgot to put off the fire. When the entire household slept one flame arose and burned the Christian and his entire household.

180. From this emerge a few issues:

1. Azaan is a pre-requisite for the five daily prayers.

59. Please declare, O People of the Book, which of our acts look bad to you? Only this that we believe in Allah and what has been sent down to us and what was revealed before us. And most of you surely are defiantly disobedient [181].

181. By this is meant oh People of the Book we regard all your Prophets and Books as true, yet why do you offend us. Is it because we have brought faith on the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم as well. Think for yourselves who are the real tyrants, we or you! It should be remembered that the word 'MOST' is used here to show some from them were true believers, like Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam, etc. In Tafseer Khazin it is stated that the reason for its revelation was: once a group of Yahud came

60. Please declare: "Shall I inform you about those who are in a worse condition [182], with Allah than that and those who have been cursed by Allah? On them is His Wrath, that He made some of them monkeys and pigs and worshippers of Taghat (Shaitaan) [183]. Those are worse in position and further astray from the Right Path".

82. This means those who believe in the Prophets will be in the mercy of Allah Almighty anyone who rejects even one prophet, prayers, the proof for it being this verse.

2. The dreams of the pious are absolutely reliable in terms of religion, on the contrary, Laws of Shariah become liable through such dreams. The Azaan was heard in a dream but it is verified by the Holy QUR'AAN.

3. To make fun of any religious act is infidelity. Observe! Allah has called the person an infidel who jested about Azaan. Similarly to make fun of any of these: a religious act, the Masjid, the Ka'bah, the Salaah, etc is an act of infidelity.

قُلْ يٰٓاَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ هَلْ تَنْقِمُوْنَ مِنَّآ
اِلَّآ اَنْ اٰمَنَّا بِاللّٰهِ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْنَا وَ
مَآ اُنْزِلَ مِنْ قَبْلُ ۙ وَ اَنَّ اَكْثَرَكُمْ to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم to accept Islam. They asked the Holy Prophet which of the Prophets does he accept . The objective was to ascertain whether he believed in Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) if so they would not declare faith in him. When they found out that the Holy Prophet believed in all the prophets, they declined to accept Islam. This verse was in connection with this incident.

قُلْ هَلْ اُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِشَرٍّ مِّنْ ذٰلِكَ مَثُوْبَةً
عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ ؕ مَنْ لَّعَنَهُ اللّٰهُ وَ غَضِبَ
عَلَيْهِ وَ جَعَلَ مِنْهُمُ الْقِرَدَةَ وَ الْخَنَازِيْرَ
وَ عَبَدَ الطَّاغُوْتَ ؕ اُولٰٓئِكَ شَرٌّ مَّكَانًا وَّ اَضَلُّ عَنْ سَوَآءِ السَّبِيْلِ ﴿٦٠﴾ upon him be the Wrath and Curse of Allah.

183. This means oh Yahud, reflect upon your past and present condition then judge for yourselves whether you are the beloved of Allah or the accursed. In the past your faces were changed into pigs and donkeys. You worshipped the calf, and even now you are engaged in idol worship. From this verse one learns that without firm faith mere ancestory of the pious and their greatness will not help you. The Yahud would show arrogance at being children of prophets.

وَ اِذَا جَآءُوْكُمْ قَالُوْٓا اٰمَنَّا وَ قَدْ دَّخَلُوْا بِالْكُفْرِ وَ هُمْ قَدْ خَرَجُوْا بِهٖ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَكْتُمُوْنَ ﴿۶۱﴾

61. And when they come to you [184], they say: "We are Muslims". But, they were disbelievers when they entered (the religion) and were infidels when they had departed [185]. And Allah Knows well what they are concealing [186].

184. Reason for the revelation:
A group of Yahud came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and began to express faith outwardly while inwardly they were still infidels. This verse was revealed regarding them.

185. From this is understood an unfortunate wretch will not benefit from the company of the good. In whatever condition he comes to the pious he returns in the same way. A bucket full of urine will not be able to bring up anything from the well. If these people did not benefit from the blessed company of a Prophet from whom else will they benefit?

186. From this we learn that Allah Almighty loves His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم so much that He reveals to him all the secret schemes of his enemies.

وَ تَرٰى كَثِيْرًا مِّنْهُمْ يُسَارِعُوْنَ فِى الْاِثْمِ وَ الْعُدْوَانِ وَ اَكْلِهِمُ السُّحْتَ ؕ لَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۶۲﴾

62. And you will see many of them hastening towards sin and transgression[187], and eating what is forbidden. Indeed, they are practising evil deeds.

187. Here by sin is meant the sin of concealing the verses of Taurat which were in praise of the Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم while `transgresion' refers to their own addition to the Taurat, `eating that which is forbidden' refers to bribes which they had accepted in order to change the laws of the Taurat for the people.

لَوْ لَا يَنْهٰهُمُ الرَّبّٰنِيُّوْنَ وَ الْاَحْبَارُ عَنْ قَوْلِهِمُ الْاِثْمَ وَ اَكْلِهِمُ السُّحْتَ ؕ لَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُوْا يَصْنَعُوْنَ ﴿۶۳﴾

63. Why do their clergymen and priests not forbid [188], them from saying sinful words and eating things forbidden? How wretched is what they have been practising.

188. One learns a religious scholar will be held responsible for the sins he sees being committed and does not put a stop to it despite having the power to do so. It is the duty of an Aalim to safeguard himself as well as others. We further learn that it is incumbent upon the religious scholars to propagate Islam whether by speaking, writing or through their personal action.

64. And the Yahud have said: "The Hand of Allah is tied up" [189]. Their own are tied up [190], and on them be the curse of Allah for their utterances. But, His Hands are wide open [191]. He gives to whom He pleases [192]. And (O Beloved Prophet!) What has been revealed to you from your Lord will increase many of them in wickedness and infidelity [193]. And We have cast among them enmity and hatred till the Day of Judgement[194]. Whenever they kindle the fire of war, Allah extinguishes [195], it. And they run about on the earth for mischief. And Allah does not love the mischief-mongers.

189. Reason for its revelation:
At first the Yahud of Madinah were very wealthy, but due to their enmity, and hostility towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم poverty began to creep into them. At this Fakhaas, a Jew said that Allah's Hands have become tight ie He has become a miser (Allah forbid). In reply to him the verse was revealed. From this emerges two issues:
1. One's sustenance decreases with the increase of sins, while it becomes abundant through the pious.
2. The word of one is the word of the people if the people do not disassociate themselves from it. Observe, this name was uttered by Fakhaas only but Allah Almighty has said it was the word of the Yahud.

190. i.e. In this world or in the Hereafter. Their hands will be tied up in this world by making them miserly and niggardly and in the Hereafter they would be tied in chains and thrown into Hell. This is what happened and will happen to them. No nation in the world is more stingy than the Yahud.

191. By `hands wide open' is meant extremely kind and generous by cherishing His friends and not despising His enemies.
Literally Allah Almighty is pure of human qualities of hands and opening the hands.

192. By this is meant bestowing wealth on some and making some poor. However, this is not because there is any shortage in His treasure or any fault in His kindness. This is not only in accordance with human demands but is full of inherent wisdom.

193. In that the Holy QUR'AAN is the cause of accentuating the infidelity and rebelliousness of these unfortunate wretches. As revelation of the QUR'AAN increases so will their rejection of it. Strongly spiced food can make a person with weak stomach ill, but that's no fault of the food. Similarly light of the sun blinds the bat. From this discussion emerges three issues:
1. QUR'AAN and Hadith accentuates the infidelity of those whose hearts are bereft of the love of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as is the case with todays irreligious and misguided Molvis. The greatness of religion is due to the greatness of the promulgator of religion.
2. There can be increase and decrease in infidelity but this is due to the nature of infidelity not in its quantity eg nobody is a half or a quarter infidel.
3. For the Believer of the Holy QUR'AAN is a means of accentuating his Faith and Knowledge of the Divine. Says Allah Almighty: "Then as far as those who believe, it has increased them in faith." (S9:V124)

194. In this verse mention is made of their actual enmity for one another; their coming together to oppose the Muslims, or making friendship with someone on the basis of expediency, all of which is temporary. Hence, this verse is not contrary to the following verse: "They are friends of each other among themselves." (S5:V51)

195. By "extinguishes" is meant these Yahud make every effort to unite all the infidels to fight the Muslims but in most cases they are not successful in this. And even if there ensues a battle between them and the Muslims, they suffer a humiliating defeat at the hands of the Muslims.The Battle of the Trench, and the Battles of Qadisiya and Yarmook during the rule of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) are living proof of this.

65. And had the people of the Book believed [196] and feared Allah, then indeed We would have removed their sins and would surely have caused them to enter the Garden of Bliss [197].

وَ لَوْ اَنَّ اَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ اٰمَنُوْا وَاتَّقَوْا لَكَفَّرْنَا عَنْهُمْ سَيِّاٰتِهِمْ وَ لَاَدْخَلْنٰهُمْ جَنّٰتِ النَّعِيْمِ ﴿٦٥﴾

Allah Almighty says about them "had they believed."

197. By this is meant that had the People of the Book believed, Allah Almighty would have obliterated all their previous sins and they would have been entitled for Paradise. This makes it clear that through the blessings of Islam the sins of the period of infidelity are obliterated. These exclude infrigements of human rights. These have to be compensated for.

196. From this is understood that there is no faith if one rejects the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and accepts all the revealed books and Prophets. The august personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the very cornerstone of faith. If you have accepted this you have accepted all. If you have turned away from him you have rejected all. Observe! Because the people of The Book did not believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

66.And had they maintained the Tauraat and [198] Injeel and what had been revealed to them from their Lord they would have received provisions from above them and from underneath their feet [199]. A party among them is moderate. And most of them are doing evil things [200].

وَ لَوْ اَنَّهُمْ اَقَامُوا التَّوْرٰىةَ وَ الْاِنْجِيْلَ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ رَّبِّهِمْ لَاَكَلُوْا مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَ مِنْ تَحْتِ اَرْجُلِهِمْ ؕ مِنْهُمْ اُمَّةٌ مُّقْتَصِدَةٌ ؕ وَ كَثِيْرٌ مِّنْهُمْ سَآءَ مَا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾ ع ۹ ۱۰ ۱۳

198. By "had they maintained" is meant if they had believed in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, because this is commanded in the Taurat and Injeel.

199. That is, there would be abundance in the rain from the sky and growth from the earth. From this is understood that adherence to ones religion and obedience to Allah result in the increase of ones sustenance.

200. By this is meant all the people of the Book are not equal. Some who are moderate would believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم like Hazrat Abdullah Ibn Salaam. Some are very biased who are not blessed with faith.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الرَّسُوْلُ بَلِّغْ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ ؕ وَ اِنْ لَّمْ تَفْعَلْ فَمَا بَلَّغْتَ رِسَالَتَهٗ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يَعْصِمُكَ مِنَ النَّاسِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

SECTION 10

67. O Beloved Messenger! Effectively deliver what has been revealed to you from your Lord. And if you are unable to do so, then you have not conveyed [201], any message. And Allah will protect you from the people [202]. Surely, Allah does not guide the infidels [203].

201. From this is understood that the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) did not conceal any laws pertaining to propagation of the deen. Hence, his request for pen and ink at the time of his physical death and not having anything written was not on account of any command with regard to propagation but its purpose was to write and order from the previously explained orders. Otherwise this would be contrary to this verse.

202. By this is meant that no non-believer would martyr the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Before the revelation of this verse the noble Companions would keep guard over the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. After the revelation of this verse that guard was removed. Allah Almighty made good this promise. Observe,

203. Neither the infidels, Jinns nor any human will gain power over the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Other creations are already subservient to him in that the trees and stones recite his Kalima, while the sun and moon do as they are instructed.

قُلْ يٰٓاَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ لَسْتُمْ عَلٰى شَيْءٍ حَتّٰى تُقِيْمُوا التَّوْرٰىةَ وَ الْاِنْجِيْلَ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكُمْ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ ؕ وَ لَيَزِيْدَنَّ كَثِيْرًا مِّنْهُمْ مَّآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ طُغْيَانًا وَّ كُفْرًا ۚ فَلَا تَاْسَ عَلَى الْقَوْمِ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٦٨﴾

68. Please declare: "O People of the Book! You are (standing) on nothing until you establish Tauraat and the Injeel [204], and what has been revealed to you from your Lord [205]. And, undoubtedly, O Beloved Prophet! What has been revealed to you from your Lord [206], will increase many of them in their wickedness and infidelity [207]. Then grieve not for the infidels.

204. By believing in the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. This does not mean that to act upon the laws of Taurat and Injeel now, because both these books are now abrogated as well as distorted.

205. At this point in time the QUR'AANic inference is that all your deeds and actions are in vain until you do not make the Holy QUR'AAN your pattern of life.

Marfat.com

206. From this we learn that revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to revelation on all because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the original object, the rest are subservient to him. For this reason it is said: "to you."

207. From this it is understood the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith are like rain. Although rain can make the sown seed grow it cannot change it. Those who already have the seed of villainy in them, the Holy QUR'AAN will serve to accentuate it, while those who have the seed of faith and knowledge of the Divine in their hearts their faith and knowledge will grow from strength to strength. It is for this reason that an infidel is made to recite the Kalima when making him Muslim. Thereafter, QUR'-AAN, etc is taught so that the Kalima helps to sow the seed of faith and the Holy QUR'AAN, Hadith etc is used to water this seed.

69. Surely, those who call themselves Muslims [208], and similarly the Yahud and the Sabians (star worshippers) and the Nasara whoso of them believe in Allah and the Last Day [209], with a true heart and act righteously, shall neither have any fear nor shall they grieve [210].

إِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ الَّذِيْنَ هَادُوْا وَالصّٰبِـُٔوْنَ وَ النَّصٰرٰى مَنْ اٰمَنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ لَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُوْنَ ﴿٦٩﴾

208. By this is meant those who merely recited the Kalima became Muslims on national level but did not become staunch religious believers. They were mere hypocrites. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty says: "Whoso of them believes with true heart in Allah." From this one learns that Qadiyanis, Chakralwies, etc are not true believers but Muslims on national level only.

209. From this we learn that Nasara, Yahud, worshippers of stars, etc are not believers, even if they believe in all the revealed books. Otherwise "whoso of them believes," would not have followed after them.

210. From this is understood that every pious believer is a saint because similar merits and status are mentioned regarding the saints. Further, we understand that the fear of Allah is the means of achieving fearlessness of the world.

70. Undoubtedly, We had taken a covenant from the Children of Israel, and We sent Messengers to them. Whenever any Messenger came to them with those things which their hearts did not desire, they falsified a group of them (Messengers) and another, they had slain [211].

لَقَدْ اَخَذْنَا مِيْثَاقَ بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ وَ اَرْسَلْنَآ اِلَيْهِمْ رُسُلًا ؕ كُلَّمَا جَآءَهُمْ رَسُوْلٌۢ بِمَا لَا تَهْوٰٓى اَنْفُسُهُمْ ۙ فَرِيْقًا كَذَّبُوْا وَ فَرِيْقًا يَّقْتُلُوْنَ ﴿٧٠﴾

211. The Nasara and the Yahud were equally responsible for falsifying the Prophets and the messages they brought with them, but it is only the Yahud who were responsible for martyring the Prophets (May Allah be pleased with them). Many Prophets of Allah were martyre by them, including Hazrat Zakaria and Hazrat Yahaya (On whom be peace). It should be remembered that no Prophet was martyred in a battle at the hands of non-believers. Hence this verse does not contradict those verses in which promise is made about success and victory of the Prophets. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah has already decreed, that most surely I will prevail, I and My Messenger." (S58:V21)

Marfat.com

وَحَسِبُوْٓا اَلَّا تَكُوْنَ فِتْنَةٌ فَعَمُوْا وَصَمُّوْا ثُمَّ تَابَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمْ ثُمَّ عَمُوْا وَ صَمُّوْا كَثِيْرٌ مِّنْهُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ بَصِيْرٌۢ بِمَا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٧١﴾

71. And they imagined that there shall be no punishment (for them). As such they became blind and deaf. Then again Allah accepted their repentance [212]. Yet again, most of them became blind and deaf [213]. And Allah is seeing their deeds.

212. Allah Almighty accepted their repentance saving them from the clutches of the cruel king Bakht Nasr. This king disgraced and persecuted them. Then one Persian king overpowered Bakht Nasr to free them. It should be remembered that Allah accepted the repentance of children whose parents were responsible for martyring Prophets, not the repentance of their parents. Allah did not guide the killers of Prophets to repent and the repentance of insulters of Prophets by religious law is never accepted.

213. They became infidels by intending to martyr Hazrat Isa (May Allah be pleased with him) but they failed. It should be remembered that in this verse "most" is not subject of "became deaf", its subject is "them". "Most" is actually its substitute. Otherwise "They became deaf" would not have been in the plural. From this it becomes apparent that on the first occasion not all but some became deaf and dumb because here the word "most" is used which was not mentioned earlier.

لَقَدْ كَفَرَ الَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْمَسِيْحُ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ ؕ وَ قَالَ الْمَسِيْحُ يٰبَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ رَبِّيْ وَ رَبَّكُمْ ؕ اِنَّهٗ مَنْ يُّشْرِكْ بِاللّٰهِ فَقَدْ حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ الْجَنَّةَ وَ مَاْوٰىهُ النَّارُ ؕ وَ مَا لِلظّٰلِمِيْنَ مِنْ اَنْصَارٍ ﴿٧٢﴾

72. Surely, those are infidels who say: "Messiah, son of Maryam is Allah" [214], while Messiah had said: "O Children of Israel, worship Allah, my Lord [215], and your Lord". Undoubtedly, whoso associates someone with Allah [216], then Allah has forbidden Paradise for him and his abode is Hell [217]. And there is no helper of the unjust [218].

214. The Yacoobiya and Malikaniya sects among the Nasara called Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as God. These people believed in the transmigration of Divine Spirit ie. they believed in the divinity of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). They believed that divine spirit had penetrated Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as fragrance and colour had penetrated the flower. Similarly, the Nusiriyya among the Shias too believe in Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) as God.

215. By this is meant this nonsensical prattle of these Nasara is contrary to the teachings of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) because he always referred to himself as the servant of Allah, while they are calling him God.

216. From this is understood to attach children to Allah Almighty is polytheism, and those Nasara who hold such beliefs are polytheists. Inspite of this they are still called People of the Book because they believe in Injeel. Those polytheists who believe in the angels as the daughters of Allah are called by this name because they did not believe in any of the revealed Books. From this we learn that belief in a prophet can sometimes lessen ones infidelity and polytheism or sometimes accentuate it like the apostate sects of Islam.

217. This gives a hint that no infidel will reside in Araaf (a place between heaven and hell). Also Araaf will not be a permanent place but a temporary one. Those for whom paradise is forbidden will be in Hell, not in Araaf.
218. From this one learns that Allah Almighty has appointed helpers for the believers, because being without helpers is a punishment for the infidels, from which the believers are safe.

73. Indeed, those are infidels who say: "Allah is a third of the three gods [219] and there is no god but the one God. And if they do not desist from what they are saying, they shall face a painful punishment and will die as infidels [220].

لَقَدْ كَفَرَ الَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ ثَالِثُ ثَلٰثَةٍ ۘ وَ مَا مِنْ اِلٰهٍ اِلَّآ اِلٰهٌ وَّاحِدٌ ؕ وَ اِنْ لَّمْ يَنْتَهُوْا عَمَّا يَقُوْلُوْنَ لَيَمَسَّنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿۷۳﴾

وقف لازم

219. It is the belief of the Christian sects Marcosin and Nastooriya that Allah is divided into three. Father, son and the holy spirit. Their trinity consists of God the father, Hazrat Isa on whom be peace) the son and Hazrat Jibraeel as the holy spirit. This is the meaning of trinity.

220. By this is meant that though all of them are infidels those who remain infidels until death are deserving of this punishment because verification is based on one's time of death. Hence it is important that one should repent quickly. For this reason repentance is the subject of the discussion that follows.

74. Then why do they not turn to Allah and seek His forgiveness? [221], And Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

اَفَلَا يَتُوْبُوْنَ اِلَى اللّٰهِ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُوْنَهٗ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۷۴﴾

221. In this context turning (repentance) means to refrain from polytheism while forgiveness refers to proclaiming Unity of Allah Almighty. Repentance also means to repent from false beliefs while forgiveness refers to repenting from evil deeds. Repentance could also mean expression of regret at previous infidelity while remaining firm on the Unity of Allah in the future could mean forgiveness. Hence, there is no inconsistency or repetition in this verse.

75. Messiah bin Mariam was only a Messenger [222]. Many Messengers have passed before him. And his mother is a truthful woman [223]. Both used to take food. See, how clear signs We have explained for them. Then see how they turned away.

مَا الْمَسِيْحُ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ اِلَّا رَسُوْلٌ ۚ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ ؕ وَ اُمُّهٗ صِدِّيْقَةٌ ؕ كَانَا يَاْكُلٰنِ الطَّعَامَ ؕ اُنْظُرْ كَيْفَ نُبَيِّنُ لَهُمُ الْاٰيٰتِ ثُمَّ انْظُرْ اَنّٰى يُؤْفَكُوْنَ ﴿۷۵﴾

222. The word "is not" is used for negation, ie Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is neither Allah nor the son of Allah but he is the servant and prophet of Allah Almighty. It does not mean that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) did not possess any other qualities besides prophethood. He is the Word of Allah, the Spirit of Allah as well as the Messiah. Likewise, in "Say you apparently in facial outlook of a man, I am like you" (S18:V110) the meaning of negation is as above.

223. The truthful person is he who does not talk lies while a faithful person is he who does not have the capacity to tell a lie, From this we learn that if any people exaggerate about the pious persons, you should not revile these pious people, instead refute the claims of these people in order to maintain the dignity of the pious. Observe, when the Nasara have called Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and Bibi Mariam as gods, Allah Almighty has referred to these pious persons with dignity. Remember, that the mention of food in this verse is to show that food is an important source for worship. Before the time of eating, at the time of earning lawful sustenance, for the energising of his limbs, after eating, for its digestion etc the person is totally dependent on Allah. Every work is done for the purpose of earning a livelihood, while all types of sicknessess are due to the poor eating habits.

76. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "Do you worship besides Allah that which is neither master of your loss nor of profit [224]. And Allah is the Hearing, the Knowing".

قُلْ اَتَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا يَمْلِكُ لَكُمْ ضَرًّا وَّ لَا نَفْعًا ؕ وَاللّٰهُ هُوَ السَّمِيْعُ الْعَلِيْمُ ﴿٧٦﴾

224. On his own a person does not possess the power to benefit or harm anyone. Due to Allah's bounty Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is the remover of calamities and hardships, can give life to the dead and cures the diseased.

77. O People of the Book! Do not commit any excess in your religion unjustly [225], and follow not the desires of the people who have already gone astray and caused others to go astray and have strayed away from the right path [226].

قُلْ يٰۤاَهْلَ الْكِتٰبِ لَا تَغْلُوْا فِيْ دِيْنِكُمْ غَيْرَ الْحَقِّ وَ لَا تَتَّبِعُوْۤا اَهْوَآءَ قَوْمٍ قَدْ ضَلُّوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَاَضَلُّوْا كَثِيْرًا وَّ ضَلُّوْا عَنْ سَوَآءِ السَّبِيْلِ ﴿٧٧﴾ ع

225. By this is meant do not accentuate the false because in so doing the Yahud completely rejected the Prophethood of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) while the Nasara have made him into a god. From this we learn that in matters of religion it is permissible to make additions to truth eg the Ijma' (consensus) and Qiyaas (Analogy) as basis for religious matters after the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

226. From this is understood that it is evil to emulate the path of those who are immoral and gone astray, while it is a good act to follow the pious guides and those who are accepted by Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "Then follow you their path." (S6:V90). Further Allah Almighty says: "And be with the truthful." (S9:V119)

لُعِنَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْۢ بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ عَلٰى لِسَانِ دَاوٗدَ وَعِيْسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِمَا عَصَوْا وَّكَانُوْا يَعْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۷۸﴾

78. Cursed were those who committed infidelity from amongst the children of Israel through the tongue of Dawood and Isa son of Mariam [227]. This was due to their disobedience and transgression [228].

227. The Saturday fishing of the People of Ailah was a curse for them because this was totally prohibited for them in their religion. In response to their disobedience Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) cursed them and as such Allah Almighty transformed them into monkeys and swines. Those who enjoyed the food of AlMaidah too became apostates after witnessing this miracle. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) cursed this disobedience at which Allah Almighty changed five thousand of them into monkeys and swines. From this we learn that the curse of the pious is very perilous. The curse of the pious has always resulted in Divine retribution.

228. This means you should not be discouraged and disheartened by their waywardness or rebelliousness. These are chronic criminals and rebels whose punishment had turned them into monkeys and swines. Their present peaceful existence is only due to the fact that you oh My Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are a mercy unto mankind and in your presence punishment would not descend upon the earth.

كَانُوْا لَا يَتَنَاهَوْنَ عَنْ مُّنْكَرٍ فَعَلُوْهُ ؕ لَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُوْا يَفْعَلُوْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾

79. Whatever bad they did, not preventing one another [229], from wrongdoing. They definitely used to do evil things.

229. From this one learns that it is obligatory to stop people from doing evil and command them to do good. Termination of propagation can result in Divine punishment.

تَرٰى كَثِيْرًا مِّنْهُمْ يَتَوَلَّوْنَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ؕ لَبِئْسَ مَا قَدَّمَتْ لَهُمْ اَنْفُسُهُمْ اَنْ سَخِطَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ فِي الْعَذَابِ هُمْ خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿۸۰﴾

80. You will see many of them befriending infidels. What an evil thing they had sent forth for themselves that Allah's Wrath [230], fell upon them. And they shall dwell in punishment eternally.

230. From this we learn that friendship with infidels is the cause of Allah's displeasure which at times is totally forbidden, at times is infidelity.

وَ لَوْ كَانُوْا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ النَّبِيِّ وَ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْهِ مَا اتَّخَذُوْهُمْ اَوْلِيَآءَ وَ لٰكِنَّ كَثِيْرًا مِّنْهُمْ فٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿۸۱﴾

81. And if they had believed in Allah and the Prophet (Muhammad) and what had been revealed to him, then they would not have taken the infidels as friends [231]. But many of them are defiantly disobedient.

Marfat.com

231.From this is deduced that friendship with the infidels means accepting the outer appearance, their traditions. This is also a sign of a hypocrite. The love of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Rasool صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and their enemies cannot be gathered in one heart. It is impossible for this union of light and darkness.

لَتَجِدَنَّ اَشَدَّ النَّاسِ عَدَاوَةً لِّلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا الْيَهُوْدَ وَالَّذِيْنَ اَشْرَكُوْا ۚ وَ لَتَجِدَنَّ اَقْرَبَهُمْ مَّوَدَّةً لِّلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا الَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّا نَصٰرٰى ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّ مِنْهُمْ قِسِّيْسِيْنَ وَرُهْبَانًا وَّاَنَّهُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُوْنَ ﴿٨٢﴾

82. You shall surely find the Yahud and polytheists [232], the bitterest enemies of the Muslims, and surely you shall find the nearest in friendship to Muslims those who used to say: "We are Nasara" [233]. That, because among them are men of learning and monks and they are not proud [234].

232. From this emerge one important issue: Infidelity due to enmity is worse than enmity due to love. Observe, the Nasara became infidels due to their excessive love while the Yahud and polytheists became infidels because of their extreme hatred. But both are referred here as "bitterest enemies". The Shias and Wahabis are in this category. The Shias are gone astray because of their excessive love while the Wahabis are gone astray because of their hatred.

233. In this verse praise is accorded to the King of Abyssinia and his companions who were Nasara at first but later believed in the Message of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and cried at listening to the Holy QUR'AAN, gave sanctuary to the early Muslims who had migrated from Makkah Mukarrama to Abyssinia and were of service to them, sent gifts and messages of loyalty to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Remember, that eleven men and four women migrated from Makkah to Abyssinia which included Hazrat Uthman bin Affan and his beloved wife Bibi Ruqayya (May Allah be pleased with them), daughter of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. This migration took place in Rajab, in the fifth year of the Call. When they were granted peace and security more Muslims began to migrate there. Soon this group of Muslims increased to eighty two men and a number of women. It was King Negus who was responsible for the marriage of Hazrat Umme Habeebah (May Allah be pleased with her) to the Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. This marriage was performed in proxy, as the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was in Madinah at the time of marriage and she was in Abyssinia. Umme Habeebah (May Allah be pleased with her) was the daughter of Hazrat Abu Sufyan. This verse: "It is near that Allah may create friendship between you and those of them who are your enemies." (S60:V7) refers to this. It is this marriage which was largely responsible for softening the heart of Abu Sufyan. (Ruhul Bayaan, etc)

234.From this emerge two issues:
1. The presence of the learned and the pious among the people is a mercy of Allah for the people.
2. Arrogance and pride are terrible vices.

PART 7

وَ اِذَا سَمِعُوْا مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَى الرَّسُوْلِ

تَرٰٓى اَعْيُنَهُمْ تَفِيْضُ مِنَ الدَّمْعِ مِمَّا عَرَفُوْا مِنَ الْحَقِّ ۚ يَقُوْلُوْنَ رَبَّنَآ اٰمَنَّا فَاكْتُبْنَا مَعَ الشّٰهِدِيْنَ ﴿٨٣﴾

83. And when they hear what has been revealed to their Messenger [235],you see that eyes are overflowing with tears [236], because they have recognized the truth. They say: "O our Lord! We have accepted faith. Therefore, write us among the witnesses of truth[237].

235. Before Hijrah, eleven men and four women migrated from Makkah to Abyssinia to escape from the persecution of the infidels. In this group were Hazrat Uthman Bin Affan (May Allah be pleased with him) and Hazrat Ruqayya and Umme Salma (May Allah be pleased with them). Later Hazrat Ja'fer bin Abu Talib (May Allah be pleased with him) and others followed. This is called the first migration. This group of eleven men and four women arrived in Abyssinia in the month of Rajab, fifth year of the Call of Islam. When the infidels came to know that Muslims had been granted sanctuary in Abyssinia they sent a group to King Negus to turn the king against the Muslims by telling him that the Muslims are trouble makers who will spread dissension in his kingdom. King Negus replied that he will question these emigrants first before taking any decision. Thus the Muslims were called to the royal court. The King's first question to the Muslims was: "What is your belief regarding Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace)." Hazrat Ja'fer bin Abu Talib (May Allah be pleased with him) in reply recited a few verses from Surah Mariam. The recitation brought the learned men of the Nasara, and even the king to tears. King Negus informed the Muslims that he has granted them peace and security in his land and accepted Islam. May Allah be pleased with him. This verse describes the above incident. Thereafter a deputation of seventy men came to Madinah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم welcomed them cordially and recited verses from Surah Yasin to them. On hearing the recitation they too began to weep aloud.

236. From this we learn that to shed tears of love at the time of remembrance of Allah Almighty is an excellent form of worship. Similarly to weep out of fear of Divine Punishment and hope for Divine Mercy too is an act of worship. In addition to sway to and fro at the time of reciting the Holy QUR'AAN is sunnat because this movement is an expression of love by the devotees, just as a light breeze brings sapple branches into movement. The reciter of the Holy QUR'AAN moves through the Divine breeze of Mercy.

237. By this is meant include us with those believing Companions who have already bore testimony to the Kalimatut Tauheed. From this is understood that the previous and the present Muslims are equal in respect of faith. The end on Doomsday of both will be together.

وَ مَا لَنَا لَا نُؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَمَا جَآءَنَا مِنَ الْحَقِّ ۙ وَ نَطْمَعُ اَنْ يُّدْخِلَنَا رَبُّنَا مَعَ الْقَوْمِ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿٨٤﴾

84. And what has happened to us that we should not have faith in Allah and in the Truth that has been revealed to us, when we are eager that our Lord would admit us with the righteous people [238].

238.The Abbyssinian deputation who returned to Abbyssinia after accepting Islam was censured by the Yahud of Abbyssinia for accepting Islam Their reply to these Yahud was as described by Allah Almighty in this verse.

Marfat.com

فَاَثَابَهُمُ اللّٰهُ بِمَا قَالُوْا جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِیْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ خٰلِدِیْنَ فِیْهَا ؕ وَ ذٰلِكَ جَزٰٓؤُا الْمُحْسِنِیْنَ ﴿۸۵﴾

85. So, Allah will reward them for such admission and give [239], them gardens beneath which rivers flow and they will abide therein forever. And that is the reward for the doers of good.

239. From this is understood that Allah is the acceptor of the slightest good of the people. If He accepts just one word He can pardon his entire sins. The people of this deputation were forgiven just for giving this reply. May Allah forgive our sins too because of the blessings of this deputation.

وَ الَّذِیْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰیٰتِنَاۤ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ الْجَحِیْمِ ﴿۸۶﴾ ع

86. And those who committed infidelity and falsify Our signs, they shall be the inhabitants of Hell [240].

240. In this verse there is a reprimand for these Yahud who had taunted this deputation for accepting Islam.

SECTION 12

یٰۤاَیُّهَا الَّذِیْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تُحَرِّمُوْا طَیِّبٰتِ مَاۤ اَحَلَّ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ وَ لَا تَعْتَدُوْا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا یُحِبُّ الْمُعْتَدِیْنَ ﴿۸۷﴾

87. O believers! Do not make unlawful the pure things which Allah has made lawful for you [241], and do not trespass the limits of Allah. Undoubtedly, Allah likes not those who trespass the limits [242].

241. Hence do not regard things used for Fateha as unlawful. Do not make a lawful thing unlawful by swearing an oath. Do not regard anything as unlawful which is not regarded as unlawful by Allah Almighty. From this we learn that originaly there is permission and liberty in the things. Prohibition could have come about due to temporary circumstances. Proof is required for the purpose of prohibition, but is is not necessary to provide a proof for its permissibility.

242. Reason for its revelation: This verse was revealed concerning those Companions who after an inspiring sermon of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had taken a vow to remain in seclusion in the home of Hazrat Uthman bin Mazoon to cut off all links with the world. They said that they would wear sack-cloths, fast continuously, worship Allah throughout the night, not eat meat and not sleep in soft beds. From this we learn that it is forbidden to abdicate the world. The meaning of Tasawuf is not to abstain from lawful things Tasawuf is achieved by abstaining from forbidden things.

وَ كُلُوْا مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللّٰهُ حَلٰلًا طَیِّبًا ۪ وَّ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ الَّذِیْۤ اَنْتُمْ بِهٖ مُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۸۸﴾

88. And eat of that which Allah has provided you as lawful and pure[243], and fear Allah in Whom you believe [244].

243. Lawful things are those which cannot become unlawful. Pure things are those which cannot become dirty. Saliva, mucus etc are not unlawful but lawful things, but they are not clean. Thus, tasty and sumptuous things are good i.e. eat them as much as you can provided they are lawful.

Marfat.com

244. By this is meant eat as much of the wholesome things but always fear Allah Almighty. Do not be negligent of pious deeds.

89. Allah will not hold you responsible for oaths taken by misunderstanding [245], but He will hold you responsible for oaths which you have made binding [246]. Then, the penalty for breaking such oaths is the feeding of ten needy people with average food with which you feed your fasting members, or clothing them or freeing of a slave. Then, whoso finds not anything of these, for him is the fasting of three days [247]. This is the alternative penalty for your oath when you have sworn. And guard your oaths [248]. Thus, does Allah explain His signs to you so that you may be grateful.

245. In the Hanafi school "Laghwa" is that oath which one swears under misunderstanding, at a false incident thinking it to be true. For this is neither expiation neither sin because there is no intention of telling a lie.

246. By this is meant there is no blame for an oath which ones swears unintentionally. There is a sin for a false oath sworn intentionally. Remember oaths are of three types: 1. LAGHWA OATH, 2. GHAMOOS OATH, 3. MUNAQHIDA OATH. The Laghwa oath has already been explained. Ghamoos oath is a false oath sworn intenionally at any previos incident. This is a sinful deed but it will not require expiation. Munaqidah is to swear an oath for any future thing which one fails to fulfil. For this there is expiation for the atonement of this sin. In this verse mention is made of all of these three types of oaths

90. O believers! Wine and gambling and idols [249], and foretelling through arrows are only unclean things, a work of Shaitaan [250]. So, save yourselves from them, that you may prosper [251].

The world is like a zero, if it is empty of religion it is useless, but if it is with religion it increases by tenfold.

لَا يُؤَاخِذُكُمُ اللّٰهُ بِاللَّغْوِ فِيْٓ اَيْمَانِكُمْ وَ
لٰكِنْ يُّؤَاخِذُكُمْ بِمَا عَقَّدْتُّمُ الْاَيْمَانَ ۚ
فَكَفَّارَتُهٗٓ اِطْعَامُ عَشَرَةِ مَسٰكِيْنَ مِنْ
اَوْسَطِ مَا تُطْعِمُوْنَ اَهْلِيْكُمْ اَوْ
كِسْوَتُهُمْ اَوْ تَحْرِيْرُ رَقَبَةٍ ۭ فَمَنْ لَّمْ
يَجِدْ فَصِيَامُ ثَلٰثَةِ اَيَّامٍ ۭ ذٰلِكَ
كَفَّارَةُ اَيْمَانِكُمْ اِذَا حَلَفْتُمْ ۭ
وَاحْفَظُوْٓا اَيْمَانَكُمْ ۭ كَذٰلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللّٰهُ
لَكُمْ اٰيٰتِهٖ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿٨٩﴾

and the expiation of the Munaqidah The expiation for this is either to free a slave or feed or clothe ten poor and needy Muslims. If the person is unable to carry out any of these three then he should keep three fasts

247. Remember, fasting will only atone this sin if the person is genuinely able to carry out any of the above acts. The fasts of expiation should be kept consecutively. The expiation of an oath can only be compensated after one breaks the oath, not before it.

248. From this one gets a hint that an oath is taken in order to fullfil it and not to break it because the order is to fullfil it. Thus you cannot compensate for it before breaking the oath because the purpose of expiation is not the oath but breaking the oath. The causer cannot precede the cause. (Hanafi)

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اِنَّمَا الْخَمْرُ وَالْمَيْسِرُ وَ
الْاَنْصَابُ وَ الْاَزْلَامُ رِجْسٌ مِّنْ عَمَلِ
الشَّيْطٰنِ فَاجْتَنِبُوْهُ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿٩٠﴾

Marfat.com

249. By alcohol here is meant alcohol that is fermented from grapes is both impure and totally forbidden. Whether it intoxicates or not, it is totally forbidden. Similar is the case with gambling, i.e. totally forbidden. As far as the other types of alcohol are concerned, if they intoxicate they will be forbidden without doubt, however there is a difference of opinion if they are consumed in lesser quantity, though the correct view is that they are forbidden no matter what quantity is consumed. To worship idols, to manufacture idols, to trade with them are all forbidden. Similar is the case with foretelling or augury, accepting or giving money for foretelling through an occult book are all forbidden.

91. The devil (Shaitaan) desires only to infuse hatred and enmity among you through wine and gambling [252], and to bar you from the rememberance of Allah [253], and from Prayer will you then desist?

252. The devil succeeds in placing hatred in the hearts of people when they are drunk. The loser in gambling will always develop hatred for the winner which sometimes can lead to murder as has been proven many times. This is their loss in this world, while religious loss includes negligence of Salaah and remembrance of Allah.

92. And obey Allah and obey the Messenger [254], and be careful. Then, if you turn back, know then that the duty of Our Messenger is only to deliver the Message clearly [255].

254. Obedience to Allah Almighty is based on all His commandments, while obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is based on all his sayings and practising his Sunnah. Whatever the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم commands is obligatory to carry out, whatever he practices at all times is Sunnat-e-Muakkidah.

255. From this we learn that if people do not

250. All these are forbidden because the devil causes these acts to be performed. Remember, the devil does not do all these acts himself but uses others to do them. He himself is a staunch unitarian believing in the unity of Allah. This verse abrogates those verses in which permission for the consumption of Alcohol were given.

251. From this emerge two issues:

1. Success will not be achieved by just doing pious deeds, but through the abstention of evil deeds. These are two wings of piety. A bird does not fly with one wing only.

2. Abstention of evil deeds must not be done for mere show but for the purpose of achieving success.

اِنَّمَا يُرِيْدُ الشَّيْطٰنُ اَنْ يُّوْقِعَ بَيْنَكُمُ الْعَدَاوَةَ وَالْبَغْضَآءَ فِي الْخَمْرِ وَ الْمَيْسِرِ وَيَصُدَّكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ وَ عَنِ الصَّلٰوةِ ۚ فَهَلْ اَنْتُمْ مُّنْتَهُوْنَ ﴿٩١﴾

brance of Allah.

253. From this we learn that anything that takes you away from Salaah and the remembrance of Allah is evil and should not be practised. It is for this reason that commerce after the Friday Azaan has been made unlawful.

وَاَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيْعُوا الرَّسُوْلَ وَاحْذَرُوْا ۚ فَاِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّمَا عَلٰى رَسُوْلِنَا الْبَلٰغُ الْمُبِيْنُ ﴿٩٢﴾ practise upon the teachings and Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it will in no way have an adverse effect on the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. If anyone refuses to accept the sun, it will in no way dim its radiance. Propagation was obligatory on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which he accomplished to the last letter. We need him for our success, he does not need us.

لَيْسَ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ جُنَاحٌ فِيْمَا طَعِمُوْٓا اِذَا مَا اتَّقَوْا وَّ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ ثُمَّ اتَّقَوْا وَّ اٰمَنُوْا ثُمَّ اتَّقَوْا وَّاَحْسَنُوْا ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۹۳﴾ ع ۱۲ ۷ ۲

93. On those who believe and do pious deeds there is no sin [256], for what they eat when they fear and keep faith [257], and do righteous deeds. Again fear and keep faith, then again fear and remain righteous. And Allah loves the righteous.

256. From this one learns that there is no accountability of sin before religious laws regarding it are not revealed because at that point in time these acts were not declared as sinful besides polytheism. Even though the laws of prophethood may not have reached the people, it is still obligatory on the people to declare faith in the Unity of Allah Almighty because every particle is declaring and expressing the Unity of Allah. This verse is revealed regarding those pious people who would consume alcohol but had died before revelation of its prohibition.

257. Here piety (Taqwa) has been mentioned at three places. The meaning of the first is to refrain from evil beliefs, the second signifies abstention from alcohol and gambling while the third signifies to abstain from every form of evil. (Khazainul Irfaan).

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَيَبْلُوَنَّكُمُ اللّٰهُ بِشَيْءٍ مِّنَ الصَّيْدِ تَنَالُهٗٓ اَيْدِيْكُمْ وَ رِمَاحُكُمْ لِيَعْلَمَ اللّٰهُ مَنْ يَّخَافُهٗ بِالْغَيْبِ ۚ فَمَنِ اعْتَدٰى بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ فَلَهٗ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿۹۴﴾

94. O believers! Allah will surely test you with such hunting game which your hand and spears may undertake in order that [258], Allah may make known those who fear Him without seeing. Then, after this, whoso crosses the limit, for him is a painful punishment [259].

258. This verse is hinting at one incident which occured in 6th Hijri, namely the treaty of Hudaibiya. Muslims were in their Ihram and hunting while this is unlawful in Ihram. Allah Almighty was testing the Muslims by bringing birds, animals, hunting animals, to loom over their conveyance. If Muslims wanted to they could easily have killed these with their hands or spears, but they refrained from it. Thus every Companion passed the test with distinction.

259.In this incident Allah Almighty bestowed two special bounties upon the Muslims. Firstly they were forewarned about this test, thus they were ready; secondly, Allah Almighty kept the Muslims steadfast, because many Israelites who were the companions of Taloot had failed in their test of the river. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has already disclosed the questionnaire and its reply regarding the examination of the grave to his followers, whereas examination questions in reality should be kept concealed. Thus this is indeed a favour of Allah Almighty on the Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

95. O believers! Kill not game while you are in a pilgrim's garb (Ihraam) [260]. And whoso among you kills intentionally [261],

Marfat.com

فَجَزَآءٌ مِّثْلُ مَا قَتَلَ مِنَ النَّعَمِ يَحْكُمُ بِهٖ ذَوَا عَدْلٍ مِّنْكُمْ هَدْيًا بٰلِغَ الْكَعْبَةِ اَوْ كَفَّارَةٌ طَعَامُ مَسٰكِيْنَ اَوْ عَدْلُ ذٰلِكَ صِيَامًا لِّيَذُوْقَ وَبَالَ اَمْرِهٖ ؕ عَفَا اللّٰهُ عَمَّا سَلَفَ ؕ وَمَنْ عَادَ فَيَنْتَقِمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْهُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ ذُوانْتِقَامٍ ﴿٩٥﴾

the his compensation is that he should give a like animal from amongst the cattle as judged by two just persons among you. This offering should reach the Ka'bah. Or, as an alternate compensation he should give food to some needy persons or should fast [262], to its equivalent[263], so that he may taste the enormity of his deed. Allah has pardoned what happened in the past. But, if anyone repeats it, Allah will take retribution from him. And Allah is Mighty in exacting retribution [264].

260. From this we learn that hunting animals of land while in Ihram is forbidden. However one is allowed to hunt rabid dog, wolves, animals of prey vultures, crows, rats etc. In like manner one would be forgiven for killing mosquitoes ants or bugs. (Khazainul Irfaan)

261. Anyone in Ihram who hunts animals of land intentionally or by error would be duty bound to pay compensation for this. Mention of intentional hunting is being made here, while mention regarding unintentional hunting is made in the Hadith.

262. According to Imam Abu Hanifa (May Allah be pleased with him) the pronoun "whatever" refers to "from amongst the cattle" while according to Imam Shafaee and Imam Muhammad (May Allah be pleased with them) this word refers to "like animal". Hence, "like animal" according to Imam Abu Hanifa signifies its implied meaning i.e. its value while Imam Shafa'ee (May Allah be pleased with him) takes it to mean the actual animal. Therefore to pay the value of the hunted animal is obligatory according to Imam-e-Azam (May Allah be pleased with him) while according to the Shafa'ee school of thought the compensation will be a like domesticated animal and its equivalent value in cash will be payable according to the monetary system where the animal was hunted

263. From this we understand that the compensation for a hunted animal is based on three factors:

1. To purchase an animal of similar type and have it sacrificed at the Haram Shareef.
2. To purchase wheat with money equal to the value of the animal and have it distributed among the poor in quantity of Fitra ie 2,5 kg per person.
3. To keep one fast for every 2,5 kg of wheat purchased from the price money of the hunted animal.

264. From this verse one learns about the prohibition of hunting while in Ihram. It is proven from Hadith Shareef that it is forbidden for the Mohrim to assist the hunter or even to point in his direction. The slaughtered meat of a hunted animal can neither be eaten by the Mohrim, a pilgrim or a non-pilgrim. In addition if a Mohrim hunts several animals he will have to pay one kaffarah for each animal.

اُحِلَّ لَكُمْ صَيْدُ الْبَحْرِ وَطَعَامُهٗ مَتَاعًا لَّكُمْ وَلِلسَّيَّارَةِ ۚ وَحُرِّمَ عَلَيْكُمْ صَيْدُ

96. Lawful to you is the game of the sea (fishing) [265], and its eating for you and the travellers.

And forbidden to you is the game of the land, as long as you are in Ihraam [266]. And fear Allah towards Whom you are going to rise.

الْبَرِّ مَا دُمْتُمْ حُرُمًا ؕ وَ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ الَّذِیْۤ اِلَیْهِ تُحْشَرُوْنَ ﴿۹۶﴾

265. It is permissible for the Mohrim to hunt aquatic creatures e.g. angling. Aquatic creatures are those born in water while land animals are born on land no matter where they live.

266. It should be remembered that two types of hunting are unlawful, hunting at the sacred Haram and hunting by one in Ihram. Animals in and around the Sacred Haram can neither be hunted by one in Ihram or the one not in Ihram i.e. the one who is not allowed to hunt. Those animals are in Allah's sanctuary. In this verse discussion is regarding prohibition of hunting for those in Ihram. This restriction ends as soon as one is out of Ihram. However, to hunt animals at the sacred Haram are prohibited at all times and on all persons whether in Ihram or out of it. In fact animals of the Haram should not be removed from their places.

97. Allah has made the Ka'bah, the Sacred House as an establishment for the people [267], as is the sacred month and off-springs of the Sacred House and the animals with the marks hanging in the necks [268]. That is so that you may know that Allah has the knowledge of what is in the heavens and what is in the earth and that Allah knows everything.

جَعَلَ اللّٰهُ الْكَعْبَةَ الْبَیْتَ الْحَرَامَ قِیٰمًا لِّلنَّاسِ وَالشَّهْرَ الْحَرَامَ وَ الْهَدْیَ وَالْقَلَآىِٕدَ ؕ ذٰلِكَ لِتَعْلَمُوْۤا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ یَعْلَمُ مَا فِی السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَا فِی الْاَرْضِ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ بِكُلِّ شَیْءٍ عَلِیْمٌ ﴿۹۷﴾

267. By this is meant the religious and worldly affairs of the Muslims are functional or firmly in existence because of the Holy Ka'bah. Here the one in distress obtains sanctuary. Through the Holy Ka'bah the sustenance of the people of Hejaz (Saudi Arabia) is established. It is the Holy Ka'bah which has made Salaah,. Hajj and Umrah possible. Hence it is indeed a great bounty and blessing of Allah.

268. HADYI or UDHIYA (Qurbani) and the month of Muharram too have our religious and worldly affairs connected with them. Qurbani provides for the need of the poor as well as the rich Qurbani is a means of fulfilling one of the obligations of Islam.

269.Because Allah Almighty is most Merciful we should cherish hope of His Mercy and at the same time inculcate His fear in our hearts. It is this fear and hope which have kept our faith alive.

99. The Messenger has no obligation but to deliver the Message [270]. And Allah knows what you disclose and what you conceal.

unlawful; pure and vile cannot be equal. Those who claim that Hindus and Muslims are equal and brothers unto one another are certainly violating this verse. Says Allah Almighty: "The inhabitants of the Fire and the inhabitants of Paradise are not equal." (S59:V20). In fact the learned and the ignorant too are not equal.

271. From this we learn that numerical strength and majority opinion are not always reliable or credible in religious matters. One sincere Muslim can be a majority on his own, not million of nonbelievers and irreligious people. We further learn that believers and non-believers; pious and sinners; lawful and.

questioning the above verse was revealed in which it is told that do not make our Beloved Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم a means of revealing your secrets. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had full knowledge of what is, what was and what will be. To have the son is in the present, but whether it will be an inmate of Hell, is its end, and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is aware of both the beginning and the end, even though he may not reveal this knowledge. In one Hadith it is reported that Hajj is an obligatory act. To this one enquired Oh Messenger of Allah, is it obligatory each year? At this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم remained silent. When this question was repeated several times the Messenger of Allah

270. In this verse there is mention made of our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم state of independence meaning he is not in need of us but it is we who are in need of him. If anyone

One sincere Muslim can be a majority on his own, not million of nonbelievers and irreligious people. We further learn that believers and non-believers; pious and sinners; lawful and.

272. Reason for its revelation:
Some people would ask worthless things from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم like: "Oh Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم I have lost my camel can you please tell me where it can be found?" etc. This was against the respect of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Once overcome by their irate questions the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "Ask whatever you want to ask I will give you a reply to all your questions." One asked: "What will be my end?" He replied: "The Fire of Hell!" The second enquired: "Who is my father?" The reply was: "You are an illegitimate. You are not conceived from your fathers sperm," because someone else was his mothers husband. To discourage this type of replied: "Had I said yes, Hajj would have become obligatory upon you annually. Whatever I do not discuss you should not ask." From this emerge two issues:

1. Allah Almighty has left the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in charge of all duties and laws. His approval and disapproval determine religious duties.
2. Everything is permissible unless it is prohibited by Islamic laws as can be seen from "Allah has already pardoned them."

273. This also gives a hint that do not bring about restrictions with regard to pensions, etc pay them without any conditions. It is thus clearly understood that anything which is not made unlawful by Islam is lawful. It is found in a Hadith that whatever is made lawful by Allah Almighty is lawful and whatever He has prohibited is unlawful and on any matter that silence is maintained is pardonable. Thus things like Meelad gatherings and Urs gatherings etc which are not prohibited by the holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are permissible.

102. The people before you questioned them, then they became disbelievers therein [274].

قَدْ سَاَلَهَا قَوْمٌ مِّنْ قَبْلِكُمْ ثُمَّ اَصْبَحُوْا بِهَا كٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۲﴾

274. By this is meant that the followers of the previous Prophets were unable to carry out the severe laws because their severity was as a result of their repeated questioning.

103. And Allah has not appointed [275] any"Bahira","Saiba","Waseela" or"Hami"(names of sacred animals, she-camels, she-goats of the time of the pagans) [276]. But yes, the infidels fabricate a lie against [277] Allah. And most of them lack understanding.

275. By "not appointed" is meant that Allah Almighty had not prohibited the eating of this meat but it is permissible. From this we learn that no animal becomes unlawful by just referring it to someone in its lifetime, yes, if at the time of slaughtering anyone besides Allah's name is invoked that animal will become unlawful for eating. Says Allah Almighty: "And the animal that has been slaughtered by calling a name other than Allah." (S2:V173) Thus if those animals were regarded unlawful then polytheists were correct in their claim.

276. The polytheists would set aside these four animals in the name of their idols. Then they would regard their meat and milk as unlawful for consumption. This verse was revealed to refute their claim. One was "Bahira" a she-camel which gives birth five times but its fifth off-spring is a male after which they would slit its ears; the second was "Saibah" a she-camel on which they would take a vow that if the sick would become well or the traveller returned safely then my she-camel is a "Saibah" or if a male; the third was "Wasilah" or a she-goat which had given birth to seven kids the last of which would be twins consisting of one male and one female; the fourth was "Hamia" a camel which would be freed after it had carried ten grass loads.

277. That these pagans were regarding these animals as unlawful because they were set aside or freed on the names of their idols, although they are lawful for consumption. From this we learn that to regard these animals as unlawful is the way of the non-believers. During warfare the noble Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would capture all types of goods of the non-believers, including these animals. They would regard all this as war booty and distribute them amongst them and eat their meat without making any distinction between them.

104. And when it is said to them: "Come to what Allah has revealed to the Messenger" [278]; they say: "Enough for us is that wherein we found our forefathers". What? Even though their fathers knew nothing, nor were they guided [279].

278. From this we learn that it is not sufficient merely to accept the QUR'AAN, but it is important to accept the Beloved unto whom the QUR'AAN was revealed ie. with the QUR'AAN it is important to accept the Hadith as well. True guidance will be revealed when one has the QUR'AAN in hand only the Holy Prophet in his heart.

279. From this one learns that accepting the customs of ignorant forefathers which are contrary to the Holy QUR'AAN are the ways of the non-believers. It is absolutely important that we should follow the way of life of the pious. Says Allah Almighty: "And be with the truthful." (S9:V119) For this reason the verse places restrictions with "they knew nothing" and "they were not guided."

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا عَلَيْكُمْ اَنْفُسَكُمْ ۚ لَا يَضُرُّكُمْ مَّنْ ضَلَّ اِذَا اهْتَدَيْتُمْ ؕ اِلَى اللّٰهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ جَمِيْعًا فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۵﴾

105. O those who believe! Take care [280], of yourselves. He who has gone astray, will not harm you when you are on the right way [281]. Towards Allah is the return of you all. Then, He will tell you what you were doing [282].

280. Do not neglect yourselves by worrying about others. First you eradicate your own faults thereafter make an attempt to straighten others.

281. You will be on the right path by correcting your beliefs and doing good deeds.

This verse includes doing propagation of Islam Anyone who has the capacity for propagation and does not do so is not on the correct path.

282. From this we learn that the deeds of the angels are indeed the deeds of Allah Almighty, yet Allah says: "We will give the information."

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا شَهَادَةُ بَيْنِكُمْ اِذَا حَضَرَ اَحَدَكُمُ الْمَوْتُ حِيْنَ الْوَصِيَّةِ اثْنٰنِ ذَوَا عَدْلٍ مِّنْكُمْ اَوْ اٰخَرٰنِ مِنْ غَيْرِكُمْ اِنْ اَنْتُمْ ضَرَبْتُمْ فِى الْاَرْضِ فَاَصَابَتْكُمْ مُّصِيْبَةُ الْمَوْتِ ؕ تَحْبِسُوْنَهُمَا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ الصَّلٰوةِ فَيُقْسِمٰنِ بِاللّٰهِ اِنِ ارْتَبْتُمْ لَا نَشْتَرِىْ بِهٖ ثَمَنًا وَّ لَوْ كَانَ ذَا قُرْبٰى ۙ وَ لَا نَكْتُمُ شَهَادَةَ ۙ اللّٰهِ اِنَّاۤ اِذًا لَّمِنَ الْاٰثِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۶﴾

At the time of making a will let there be two just persons from among you or two of the others [285], when you are a traveller on the earth and the calamity of death befalls you. Detain them both after prayer [286], they should swear by Allah if you are in any doubt [287], that we shall not purchase any wealth in exchange [288], of the oath, even though he may be a near relation, and will not conceal the testimony of Allah. If we do so, we are surely among the sinners.

283. Reason for its revelation:
Hazrat Budail, slave of Amar ibn Aus went on a mercantile trip to Syria with two Nasara Tameem ibn Aus and Adi ibn Buda. On reaching Syria Hazrat Budail became ill. Without anybody knowing he made a list of his goods and placed it with them. At the time of his death he counselled Tameem and Adi to return his goods to his family when they returned to Madina. After the death of Hazrat Budail the two Nasara checked Hazrat Budail's goods in which they found a silver bowl which was gold plated. They stole the bowl and returned the rest of the goods to Hazrat Budail's family. On checking the list they found the bowl missing. They immediately approached these two Nasara to enquire about it but they feigned ignorance about it and said we returned the goods to you as we found them. This case was then taken to the court of of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Here both denied any knowledge of it. Later this bowl was found in Makkah Muazzama. The present owner informed that he had purchased this bowl from Tameem and Adi. This verse was revealed at the time of the above incident. (Khazainul Irfaan; Tafseer Khazini; Tirmizi Shareef)
284. By this is meant signs of death must become visible, without any hope of recovery, as most wills are drawn up under such conditions, although wills can be drawn prior to this. Similar laws would be applicable for this as well. It is on the nature of the will that an heir is bequeathed ownership of his wealth without any recompense, but this ownership is dependent upon death only.
285. By this "besides" is meant defendant, not the infidels, because the testimony of the infidels against the believers is not valid i.e. Muslims from other tribes. For this reason mention of a journey is made with it.
286. After Salaatul Asr, because it is the time when the people get together. Also, Arabs would refrain from talking lies at this time. From this we learn that one should take a vow at that place and time which is held auspicious by the people. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم made them stand by his Mimbar (Pulpit) to take the oath. Even today, a person who venerates the pious should be taken to the Mazaar to take the oath or he should swear an oath in the Masjid or at the sacred Kabah, as these are auspicious places.
287. By "doubt" is meant doubt concerning their trustworthiness or piety. (Khazainul Irfaan)
288. By this is meant they should not take a false oath in matters of wealth.

فَاِنْ عُثِرَ عَلٰٓى اَنَّهُمَا اسْتَحَقَّآ اِثْمًا
فَاٰخَرٰنِ يَقُوْمٰنِ مَقَامَهُمَا مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ
اسْتَحَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْاَوْلَيٰنِ فَيُقْسِمٰنِ
بِاللّٰهِ لَشَهَادَتُنَآ اَحَقُّ مِنْ شَهَادَتِهِمَا وَ
مَا اعْتَدَيْنَآ ۖ اِنَّآ اِذًا لَّمِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿١٠٧﴾

107. Then if it is discovered that they became guilty of any sin [289], then two others should stand [290], in their place from among those nearest to the deceased whose right has been injured by this sin (this false evidence). Then they should swear by Allah that our evidence is more upright then the evidence of these two. And we crossed [291], not the limit. If it were so, then we should be the unjust [292].

289. The words "amongst the sinners" refers to the incident of Adi and Tameem when both were proven to be liars after the bowl was recovered in Makkah Mukkarramah.
290. By this is meant two heirs of the deceased should swear an oath that both these so called trustees are false. From this we learn that in monetary matters as well as in most other matters testimony of two is essential. In matters concerning adultery it is important to have four witnesses. The testimony of one person is sufficient to accept the sighting of the Ramadaan crescent, when the sky is overcast. Sometimes one testimony and one place is deemed acceptable. Says Allah Almighty: "And a witness from the household of the woman bore witness." (S12:V26)

291. Thus when the bowl was recovered from Makkah Muazzama Hazrat Budail's two heirs swore an oath that it belongs to their legator and they are truthful in this matter.

292. From this we learn that sometimes there can be two claimants of a thing and it would be essential to establish the testimony of both. We further learn that it is obligatory upon negators of claim to testify. The incident of Hazrat Budail has already been discussed earlier in respect of reason for its revelation.

108. That is more likely that they may give the testimony, as it should be, or fear that some oaths may be rebutted after their [293], oaths. And fear Allah and listen to His Commands. And Allah gives [294], not the way to to the disobedient.

ذٰلِكَ اَدْنٰٓى اَنْ يَّاْتُوْا بِالشَّهَادَةِ عَلٰى وَجْهِهَآ اَوْ يَخَافُوْٓا اَنْ تُرَدَّ اَيْمَانٌۢ بَعْدَ اَيْمَانِهِمْ ؕ وَ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاسْمَعُوْا ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ لَا يَهْدِى الْقَوْمَ الْفٰسِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۸﴾

293. The essence of the discussion is oaths of this nature are taken in these matters so that people will subsequently give up telling lies out of fear of embarrassment and punishment.

294. By this is meant infidels will not receive guidance to answer questions in the grave or on the Day of Judgement or obtain a means of entering Paradise. The believers will through the blessings of Allah Almighty be able to answer the questions in the grave and on the Day of Judgement correctly which would enable them to find their place in Paradise as if they are its permanent residents. Or it could also mean that Allah Almighty does not show the infidels the way to do good deeds in the world because good deeds are dependent upon correct beliefs. This does not mean that Allah deprives the infidels in the world from guidance towards faith. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم converted the non-believer to Islam. Till this day thousands of non-believers are entering the fold of Islam

109. The day when Allah will gather the Messengers and say: "What answer was received by you [295]?" They will submit: "We have no knowledge [296]. Surely You are the All-Knowing of the Unseen".

يَوْمَ يَجْمَعُ اللّٰهُ الرُّسُلَ فَيَقُوْلُ مَاذَآ اُجِبْتُمْ ؕ قَالُوْا لَا عِلْمَ لَنَا ؕ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ عَلَّامُ الْغُيُوْبِ ﴿۱۰۹﴾

295. From this we learn that all questions are not always asked because of the ignorance of the enquirer, there are other means for them as well. In this verse the purpose of Allah's enquiry is to show the claim of enmity of the infidels in respect of the Prophets of Allah (Peace be on them).

296. This reply of the infidels could firstly be for establishing the respect of the Divine Court on the Day of Judgement or to show contempt at the infidels for rejecting intercession. At other times this very Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would be lodging complaints about the indifference of his people. Says Allah Almighty: "And the Messenger said, O my Lord my people took this QUR'AAN as a thing abandoned." (S25:V30) This verse in no way proves the lack of knowledge of the Prophets nor does it falsify them in any way. Also there is no inconsistency of any kind in this verse. How is it possible for the Prophets to forget the hardships and lies to which they were subjected by their people. On the Day of Judgement every human being will remember

110. When Allah will say: "O Isa, son of Mariam, remember My favour upon you and your mother [297], when I aided [298], you with the Holy Spirit. Then you spoke to the people from the cradle and in maturity. And (remember) when I taught you the Book and wisdom and Tauraat and Injeel [299], and when you designed from clay a form like that of a bird, by My Command, then you breathed into it. Then it began to fly [300], by My Command. And you healed the blind and the leper, by My Command [301], and you brought forth to life the dead [302], by My Command. And when I restrained the children of Israel [303], from you, when you came to them giving clear signs. Then infidels among them said: "This is nothing but an open magic [304]".

297. By "favour" on Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is meant Allah Almighty made him "The Word of Allah" and the "Spirit of Allah"; made Jibraeel his servant. Favour on mother includes making her the most noble woman in the world, mother of the "Word of Allah", to dismiss the accusations of the Yahud concerning her, He made the suckling infant to testify in her favour, etc.

298. From this we learn that help from the pious and acceptable sages of Allah is a certainty and a bounty from Allah.We further learn that Prophets are of greater excellence than angels because Hazrat Jibraeel Alaihis Salaam was appointed as a special servant and helper of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace).

299. The co-ordination of these two words is of explanatory nature. By "Book" and "Wisdom" is meant Taurat and Injeel or it could mean the mystical meanings of Taurat and Injeel; while by Taurat and Injeel is meant "That Day when man will call to mind all that he strove for." (S79:V35)

اِذْ قَالَ اللّٰهُ يٰعِيْسَى ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ اذْكُرْ

all he did in this world, says Allah Almighty: the words of those books. Also by "Book" is meant the Holy QUR'AAN and "Wisdom" would refer to Hadith Shareef. On his first stay on earth Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) led his life in accordance with the teachings of Taurat and Injeel, while on his second coming he will make the people to act upon the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith Shareef. This will take place nearing Qiyamah. He will neither learn the QUR'AAN and Hadith from anyone nor will he follow any person. Because the Holy QUR'AAN is superior to Taurat and Injeel, it is mentioned before them. From this we learn that Allah Almighty teaches the Prophets without any aid. ie they are taught directly by Allah Almighty.

300. This verse serves as a proof for the incantational blowing and special recitals of the saints. Wherever they give their blessings and bounties they always blow on the person. Hazrat Jibraeel (May Allah be pleased with him) too had blown in the upper garment of Bibi Mariam (On whom be peace). Hazrat Israfeel (May Allah be pleased with him) too will blow on the trumpet through which the people will come back to life. We thus learn that there is great effect in blowing. Allah Almighty had blown into Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace). Till today the saints of Allah blow on people.

301. From this we learn that the Prophets, with the command of Allah and His approval, drive away calamities and difficulties. To be blind or a leper is a calamity or affliction which was cured by Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) breath (blowing). The sand of Madinah is curative. The water of Zam Zam which came into being through the foot of Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) too is curative. The water flowing over the foot of Hazrat Ayub (On whom be peace) too was curative. Says Allah Almighty: "We said strike the ground with your foot, here is like the cool stream for bathing and for drinking". (S38:V42)

302. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) would raise the dead from the grave. Thus he made Hazrat Sham bin Nooh (On whom be peace) alive when he was in his grave though Hazrat Sham had died thousands of years earlier. From this we learn that Allah Almighty gives life to the dead through the miraculous powers of His Beloved sages, though these people had already completed their earthly lives. Thus if Hazrat Ghause Paak (May Allah be pleased with him) had brought back the ship which had sunk twelve years previously is not beyond comprehension. In this ship was a wedding procession whose groom was KABEERUD DEEN and whose title was aquatic or riverine groom, while he is now known as SHAH DOLAH. His grave is found in Gujrat, Pakistan.

303. By "when I retained" is meant when the Yahud had arrested Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) with the intention of killing him on the cross Allah Almighty raised him alive to the heavens leaving his enemies in total loss.

304. During the time of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) medicine was very popular. Therefore he was given a miracle which was in vogue at that time, just as witchcraft was in vogue during the time of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). Hence he was given a miracle of similar type. Had Mirza Ghulam Qadiani been a prophet he should be highly proficient in science and technology which are currently in vogue. In fact his inventions would have been superior to all the present inventions.

111. And when I inspired in the hearts of the disciples [305], to believe in Me and in My Messenger, they said: "We have belied and you bear witness that we are Muslims [306]".

وَ اِذْ اَوْحَيْتُ اِلَى الْحَوَارِيّٖنَ اَنْ اٰمِنُوْا بِيْ وَ بِرَسُوْلِيْ ۚ قَالُوْٓا اٰمَنَّا وَاشْهَدْ بِاَنَّنَا مُسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿١١١﴾

305. When revelation is connected to a non-prophet it would mean to place in the heart, says Allah Almighty: "And we inspired the mother of Musa" (S28:V7). In another verse Allah Almighty says: "And your Lord inspired the bee" (S16:V68). Here too revelation will have similar connotation.

306.From this emerges two issues:

1. One must not conceal ones faith and Islam but make it known to others.2. To make the Prophet a witness to your faith is a virtuous and excellent deed, as they are the witnesses of Allah.

112.When the disciples said [307]: "O Isa, son of Mariam, is your Lord able to send down upon us from heaven a table full of food?" [308], He said: "Fear Allah if you have faith[309]".

اِذْ قَالَ الْحَوَارِيُّوْنَ يٰعِيْسَى ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ هَلْ يَسْتَطِيْعُ رَبُّكَ اَنْ يُّنَزِّلَ عَلَيْنَا

مَآئِدَةً مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ ؕ قَالَ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۲﴾

307. The word Hawari is derived from Hoor meaning pure whiteness. Hawaries were the close disciples of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). They were genuine and sincere believers. Some of them were launderers. Some were fishermen and some were dyers. These disciples were twelve in number.

308. At this point in time they were ignorant of rules and etiquette thus they addressed Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) the "Spirit of Allah" by mere name and used similar types of words for Allah Almighty. However those who are ignorant of the rules of etiquette will not be regarded as disrespectful.

309. Making demands for miracles is not the way of the believers. Refusal to accept a miracle you had demanded to see results in the coming of Divine punishment.

113. They said: "We desire that we should eat of it and our hearts [310], may be satisfied and we may see with our own eyes that you spoke the Truth to us and we may become witness thereof [311]".

قَالُوْا نُرِيْدُ اَنْ نَّاْكُلَ مِنْهَا وَ تَطْمَئِنَّ قُلُوْبُنَا وَ نَعْلَمَ اَنْ قَدْ صَدَقْتَنَا وَنَكُوْنَ عَلَيْهَا مِنَ الشّٰهِدِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۳﴾

310. By this is meant after you have received "convincing knowledge" you should proceed to "positive knowledge", as Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) said to Allah Almighty: "Oh my Lord, show me how You shall give life to the dead." Subsequently he said: "I like that my heart may be at rest." (S2:V260) From this we learn that there are various degrees of faith, and that ordinary human beings cannot be in the category of faith of a Prophet.

311. By this is meant the disciples said that they would become eye witnesses of your prophethood while those who will come after us should benefit from our physical testimony. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) ordered his disciples to keep thirty fasts. On completion of this task he made them to offer a prayer (dua) and he himself made dua which is described in this verse. Remember the purpose of eating from the tray as described in this verse is not just eating a nutritious or curative meal.

114. Isa, son of Mariam, said: "O Allah, our Lord! Send to us a table full of food from heaven, so that it may be an occasion of rejoicing for us, the first and the last of us [312], and a sign from You. And provide for us, and You are the Best of Providers [313]".

قَالَ عِيْسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ اللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّنَآ اَنْزِلْ عَلَيْنَا مَآئِدَةً مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ تَكُوْنُ لَنَا عِيْدًا لِّاَوَّلِنَا وَاٰخِرِنَا وَ اٰيَةً مِّنْكَ ۚ وَارْزُقْنَا وَ اَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرّٰزِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۴﴾

312. From this we learn that to celebrate the day of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed birthday is proven through a Prophet because the Holy Prophets صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم birth is a greaters lessing than the tray of food sent down to Hazrat Isa . Also , this incident helps to prove the permissibility to celebrate specific days of Allah's bounties and refer to these days as blessed days, as it is the way of Prophets Appointing fixed days too is the way of Prophets. The big day of the Christianis the commemoration of this very event.

313. There are three meanings of the word "Sustainer":
1. The Giver of sustenance; 2. Creator of sustenance; 3. The Supplier of sustenance. In this the third meaning is intended. Those who outwardly supply sustenance to others and are a means of their sustenance e.g. the rich provide for the poor, the ruler to his subjects as they are the outward means of supplying sustenance. Of course Allah Almighty is the true and absolute provider of sustenance as He is the causer of causes. From this we learn that it is better to supplicate to the pious for the fulfil-

115. Allah said: "I am sending it down to you, but if any of you disbelieve[314], thereafter, then surely I shall punish him with such a punishment which I had never awarded to anyone else in the universe [315]".

314. These words were addressed by Allah Almighty to all the followers, not just the disciples, ie. anyone after seeing this miracle and rejects it will be severely punished.

315. From this we learn that if you ask for a miracle and then fail to bring faith after

SECTION 16

116. And when Allah will say: "O Isa, son of Mariam! Did you tell the people [316]: "Make me and my mother two gods besides Allah? He will submit: "You are Holy. It was not me who could say so about which I have no [317], reach. If I had said that, You would surely have known it. You know what is in my heart, and I do not know what is in Your Knowledge [318]. Surely, only You are the Knower of the Unseen".

316. From this we learn that even if the ruler is knowledgeable it is allowed to ask such questions for the purpose of investigation. The outcome of any case should be decided after full investigation, then only will it be truly just and unbiased .

317. By this is meant my duty is not to incline your hearts towards infidelity because I am sent to propagate faith. Just as a tangerine ment of your desires because the disciples of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) did not pray themselves for the tray of food but had asked Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) to pray for it. For dua to be effective you require both the correct impression created through words and tongue. To feel the effect of the bullet you require a rifle.

قَالَ اللّٰهُ اِنِّیۡ مُنَزِّلُهَا عَلَیۡکُمۡ ۚ فَمَنۡ یَّکۡفُرۡ بَعۡدُ مِنۡکُمۡ فَاِنِّیۡۤ اُعَذِّبُهٗ عَذَابًا لَّاۤ اُعَذِّبُهٗۤ اَحَدًا مِّنَ الۡعٰلَمِیۡنَ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

seeing it, will bring the punishment of Allah. Abu Jahl had asked for a number of miracles which were shown to him, but though he rejected faith, no punishment followed. This was because Allah Almighty says: "And Allah will not punish them whilst you are amongst them." (S8 : V33) will not be obtained from a mango tree, a false word will not be uttered by a prophet of Allah.

وَ اِذۡ قَالَ اللّٰهُ یٰعِیۡسَی ابۡنَ مَرۡیَمَ ءَاَنۡتَ قُلۡتَ لِلنَّاسِ اتَّخِذُوۡنِیۡ وَ اُمِّیَ اِلٰهَیۡنِ مِنۡ دُوۡنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ قَالَ سُبۡحٰنَکَ مَا یَکُوۡنُ لِیۡۤ اَنۡ اَقُوۡلَ مَا لَیۡسَ لِیۡ ۟ بِحَقٍّ ؕ اِنۡ کُنۡتُ قُلۡتُهٗ فَقَدۡ عَلِمۡتَهٗ ؕ تَعۡلَمُ مَا فِیۡ نَفۡسِیۡ وَ لَاۤ اَعۡلَمُ مَا فِیۡ نَفۡسِکَ ؕ اِنَّکَ اَنۡتَ عَلَّامُ الۡغُیُوۡبِ ﴿۱۱۶﴾

318.We learn that the meaning of "Nafs" is both heart and person. Because the attributes of Allah Almighty are not non-personal, the word "Nafs" is used here with the intention of meaning knowledge. Thus the actual meaning is I cannot understand your knowledge without you making it known to me. Says Allah

Marfat.com

Almighty: "The Knower of the unseen reveals not His secret to anyone except to His chosen Messenger. " (S72:V26-27) Hence the knowledge of the Prophet cannot be negated from this verse. They are knowledgeable about the creation.

مَا قُلْتُ لَهُمْ اِلَّا مَآ اَمَرْتَنِیْ بِهٖٓ اَنِ
اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ رَبِّیْ وَ رَبَّكُمْ ۚ وَ كُنْتُ
عَلَیْهِمْ شَهِیْدًا مَّا دُمْتُ فِیْهِمْ ۚ فَلَمَّا
تَوَفَّیْتَنِیْ كُنْتَ اَنْتَ الرَّقِیْبَ عَلَیْهِمْ ؕ
وَاَنْتَ عَلٰی كُلِّ شَیْءٍ شَهِیْدٌ ﴿۱۱۷﴾

117."I did not say to them anything except that which You had commanded me [319], that worship Allah my Lord and your Lord [320]. And I was a witness over them so long as I remained among them. Then when You took me up, then You were the Watcher [321], over them, and everything is present before You[322]".

319. From this we learn that every word and action of the Prophet is in accordance with Divine Command while our propagation is in accordance with the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم order. Hence they become Prophets while others are not, even if they are engaged in propagational activities and do all deeds which are performed by Prophets.

320. In this verse there is refutation of Christian beliefs of calling Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as God. The words of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) are that Allah Almighty is your Lord and my Lord and both of us are His servants.

321. This does not mean that during my lifetime I had no knowledge about them and after my death I became knowledgeable about them. But its true meaning is that during my lifetime I was responsible for them to propagate the Message of Allah to them but after death my responsibility of propagation is over and now they are placed in Your Hands.

322. The word "Shaheed" is derived from "Shahaadat" meaning to witness, or to be present. Hence the word "Shaheed" means a witness, and one present. Allah Almighty is beyond any restriction of space, everything is present in His Sight. His absolute Mastery and Power is present everywhere.

اِنْ تُعَذِّبْهُمْ فَاِنَّهُمْ عِبَادُكَ ۚ وَ اِنْ
تَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ فَاِنَّكَ اَنْتَ الْعَزِیْزُ الْحَكِیْمُ ﴿۱۱۸﴾

118."If you punish them, they are Your bondsmen [323], and if You forgive them, then surely You are Mighty, the Wise [324]".

323. No one can stop You from meting out punishment and You are not overexcessive in their punishment, as You are their Master and they are Your slaves and the Master has full right to punish His slaves for their crimes. Thus who dares to take objection on you!

324.From this one learns that intercession of infidels is not permissible. Therefore Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) did not expressly intercede for them and Allah Almighty also declared truth and honesty as a means of obtaining salvation.

قَالَ اللّٰهُ هٰذَا یَوْمُ یَنْفَعُ الصّٰدِقِیْنَ
صِدْقُهُمْ ؕ لَهُمْ جَنّٰتٌ تَجْرِیْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
الْاَنْهٰرُ خٰلِدِیْنَ فِیْهَآ اَبَدًا ؕ رَضِیَ اللّٰهُ

119. Allah said: "This is the day when the truth will [325], benefit the truthful". For them are gardens [326], beneath which rivers flow. They shall abide therein forever. Allah is pleased [327], with them and they are pleased with Allah. This is the greatest success [328].

Marfat.com

عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوْا عَنْهُ ؕ ذٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيْمُ ﴿۱۱۹﴾

327. By "is pleased" is meant that Allah Almighty will be pleased with their few good deeds while they are pleased with the little sustenance He provides for them. Allah Almighty will forgive their sins. These people are not displeased with their Lord when calamities are sent upon them. From this we learn regarding every sincere and pious person one can say: "May Allah be pleased with him." These words are not only restricted to the noble companions

328. The greatest achievement lies in gaining the pleasure of Allah Almighty. Becoming king is not the true attainment of perfection, the attainment of perfection lies in becoming a pious servant of Allah.

325. By this is meant those who are steadfast in the world on true belief and doing good deeds will reap the benefits today while those who had false beliefs and did evil deeds will be in total loss today. From this we learn that there is no salvation and forgiveness for the infidels even though they may be the off-springs of the pious. No one is exempted from good deeds. As you sow, so shall you reap!

326. From "For them" we learn that the garden of Paradise will become the property of the inmates, and that every inmate of Paradise will be given several of these gardens. Not just one river will flow in these heavenly gardens , but there will be rivers made of milk, honey, water etc.

لِلّٰهِ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَ مَا فِيْهِنَّ ؕ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَیْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿۱۲۰﴾ ع

120. To Allah belongs the kingdom [329], of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them. And He has Power over everything [330].

329. By "Kingdom" is meant to obtain outward ownership while to gain power over the concealed and inner things is referred to as dominion. Kingdom can be gained by man through the blessings of Allah, but sovereignty belongs to Allah alone. A king can sentence a person to death, send him to prison, but he cannot give life to the dead or make the beautiful into ugly. The king has power and control over the physical, not the spiritual. The saints of Allah are the deputies of the Prophets and the Hand of Providence. From their hands Divine happenings become evident.

330. Remember that in this context impossibility and expediency are not part of "everything", hence they are irrelevent or extraneous to the power of Allah. To believe from this verse that Allah Almighty can talk a lie is the height of stupidity because this is an impossibility with Divine Personality.

SURAH AL-ANAAM (THE CATTLE)
(MAKKAN) Revealed Before Hijrah

165 VERSES 20 SECTIONS 3100 Words , 12935 Letters

I begin in the Name of Allah, Who is Most Compassionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِیْ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضَ وَ جَعَلَ الظُّلُمٰتِ وَ النُّوْرَ ؕ ثُمَّ الَّذِیْنَ كَفَرُوْا بِرَبِّهِمْ یَعْدِلُوْنَ ①

1. All praise be to Allah Who created the heavens [1], and the earth and established the darkness and the light [2], yet the infidels ascribe equals to their Lord [3],

1. Even though both heavens and earth are seven, the heavens are distantly situated from one another, while the crusts of the earth are cloudy clung to one another. For this reason the Holy QUR'AAN always refers to the heavens in the plural and the earth in a singular entity. Thus there is no inconsistency in the QUR'AANic verses.
2. From this we learn that darknesses are more while light is only one. Similar is the condition of physical darkness, as well as the spiritual darknesses of infidelity and impiety.
3. From this is understood that before polytheism can take place man has to be made the equal to Allah Almighty in some respects e.g. polytheists of Makkah were associating the angels as daughters of Allah Almighty, the Christians regard Hazrat Isa (on whom be peace) as the son of Allah, as father is homogeneous with son. Also, the polytheists worshipped their idols by taking them as beings similar in some respects to Allah Almighty as they called the angels the daughters of Allah. Without believing in this association of equality polytheism cannot be envisaged. A believer does not in his wildest imagination give such similarity to the Prophet or saint. He believes in them as the servants of Allah only. Thus to apply these verses on Muslims is indeed a height of stupidity.

هُوَ الَّذِیْ خَلَقَكُمْ مِّنْ طِیْنٍ ثُمَّ قَضٰۤی اَجَلًا ؕ وَ اَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّی عِنْدَهٗ ثُمَّ اَنْتُمْ تَمْتَرُوْنَ ②

2. It is He Who created you from clay [4], then he commanded a term [5], and there is a determined promise with Him [6] yet you doubt.

4. By this is meant that He has created your forefather Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace) from clay and made you from his progeny. It could also mean He created you from the semen, the sperm from the blood, the blood from nourishment and nourishment from clay. Here physical creation is being discussed. It should be remembered that clay was created from water, for this reason it is stated in another place: "And" we made every living thing from water". (S2:V30) 5.On the completion of this decreed term death will occur. Remember that those who were raised from the dead by Hazrat Isa (on whom be peace) some of whom had lived, were given a new life through the dua of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). Here mention is made of a decree which is the power of Allah Almighty. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.
6. This determined promise is resurrection of the dead from their graves.

وَهُوَ اللّٰهُ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ يَعْلَمُ سِرَّكُمْ وَجَهْرَكُمْ وَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَكْسِبُوْنَ ۝٣

3. And He is the very Allah of the heavens and the earth [7], He knows all your secrets and what you reveal and He knows your doings [8].

7. That Allah Almighty is being worshipped everywhere. It should be remembered that besides man and jinn none of the creation is disobedient or polytheists. All are submissive to their Lord.

8. He will therefore take full account from you concerning these matters.

وَ مَا تَاْتِيْهِمْ مِّنْ اٰيَةٍ مِّنْ اٰيٰتِ رَبِّهِمْ اِلَّا كَانُوْا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِيْنَ ۝٤

4. And there comes to them no signs of their Lord, but they turn their faces away from it.

فَقَدْ كَذَّبُوْا بِالْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَآءَهُمْ ؕ فَسَوْفَ يَاْتِيْهِمْ اَنْۢبٰٓؤُا مَا كَانُوْا بِهٖ يَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ۝٥

5.Then undoubtedly they falsified the truth [9], when it came to them, so now they are to be informed of that which they were mocking [10] at.

9. By 'belied the truth' is meant belied the Quraan, or the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or his miracles, or the special commands of Allah Almighty.

10. Either these punishments will be sent in this world e.g.. the defeat at the Battle of Badr, or until they die, or in their graves or on the Day of Judgement. All these things about which they were mocking are very near, i.e. are not too distant from them.

اَلَمْ يَرَوْا كَمْ اَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِّنْ قَرْنٍ مَّكَّنّٰهُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ مَا لَمْ نُمَكِّنْ لَّكُمْ وَ اَرْسَلْنَا السَّمَآءَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّدْرَارًا ۪ وَّ جَعَلْنَا الْاَنْهٰرَ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهِمْ فَاَهْلَكْنٰهُمْ بِذُنُوْبِهِمْ وَاَنْشَاْنَا مِنْۢ بَعْدِهِمْ قَرْنًا اٰخَرِيْنَ ۝٦

6. Have they not observed [11], how many generations We have destroyed before them? We gave them such establishments on the earth which We gave you not [12], and We sent them rain in torrents and caused rivers to flow beneath [13], them. Then We destroyed them on account of their sins, and after them raised up another generation [14].

11. In this verse observed either means to understand or seeing the ruined colonies and places of their people, as these incidents had already occurred before them, because these people during their travels would pass through these colonies and towns.

12. By this is meant physical strength, material strength equipment at surface level is granted more than you to them. From this we learn no power can repel the punishment of Allah Almighty.

13.These historical events are well known to the people of Makkah. From this we learn that History is a noble science, and that historical events which are not contrary to the Quraan are authentic and reliable.

14. By " another generation " is meant Allah destroyed the former people. He established other people in these localities e.g. Pharoah and tyrants like the Pharoah. In some cases these colonies were never populated again e.g.. the colonies of Aad and Thamud. Thus in this verse mention is not made of the absolute law.

وَ لَوْ نَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكَ كِتٰبًا فِيْ قِرْطَاسٍ فَلَمَسُوْهُ بِاَيْدِيْهِمْ لَقَالَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا اِنْ هٰذَآ اِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُّبِيْنٌ ۝٧

7. And if We had revealed to you (O Muhammad) something written on a paper so that they would have touched it with their hands, even then the infidels would have said: "This is nothing but manifest magic" [15].

15.Reason for its revelation:Nadar ibn Harith, Abdullah bin Ummayyah, Naufal ibn Khuwailid etc, said that we will not bring faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم until such time that he does not present to us the Holy Quraan in the form of a written book, and the angels bear testimony about your prophethood in our presence saying that the QUR'AAN is the Book of Allah and you are the Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This verse was revealed at the occasion on which Allah Almighty informs His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that Oh My Beloved these people are talking nonsense.Even if you were to show them these things they will still not bring faith, but refer to them as witchcraft. When they had seen the splitting of the moon, they have heard the stones and trees reciting the Kalimah, they had also referred to these miracles as witchcraft.

وَ قَالُوْا لَوْ لَآ اُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ مَلَكٌ ؕ وَ لَوْ اَنْزَلْنَا مَلَكًا لَّقُضِيَ الْاَمْرُ ثُمَّ لَا يُنْظَرُوْنَ ۝٨

8.And they said: "Why has not an angel been sent on him?" [16], And if We had sent an angel the matter would have been finished [17], and they would not have been given time.

16. Whom we could see, otherwise not one, but many angels would come down to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. At times they would come in human form whom the Noble Companions would also see. These infidels had demanded that these angels should come in their original form and they should then see them in that form.

17. "Have been finished" means they should have been destroyed, or for the reason that they were unable to see the angels, if they had seen them they would have died; or after asking for the miracle had they not brought faith, divine punishment would have come upon them. The first reason is stronger because Abu Jahl had seen many miracles for rejecting them. demanded by him yet had not died

وَ لَوْ جَعَلْنٰهُ مَلَكًا لَّجَعَلْنٰهُ رَجُلًا وَّ لَلَبَسْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مَّا يَلْبِسُوْنَ ۝٩

9.And if We had appointed an angel (as Messenger) We would surely have made him a man [18], and they would have the same doubt in him as they have now [19].

18. So that people could listen to his speech and derive benefit from it, which is the object of the coming of the Prophet. From this we learn that a woman cannot be a prophet. Says Allah Almighty: "And we sent not before any but men to whom we reveal." (S16:V43)

19. By this is meant that even if the angels had come in human form these infidels would have had the same doubt.

punishment has come down. Similarly if one wants to behold the places on which Allah's mercy pours, then one should travel to places in which the shrines of the pious are found which would inspire one towards obedience and reverence to Allah Almighty. It further tells us that traveling for the purpose of strengthening one's faith is a means of obtaining the Mercy of Allah.

21. By 'earth' here means that earth upon which punishment had come down upon the previous people, and where signs of big localities are still evident. Also, here the command in this verse is more for persuasion, not for obligation.

22. From this it is learnt that in order to inculcate in oneself the fear of Allah one should travel to such places on which Allah's

قُلْ لِّمَنْ مَّا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ قُلْ لِّلّٰهِ ؕ كَتَبَ عَلٰى نَفْسِهِ الرَّحْمَةَ ؕ لَيَجْمَعَنَّكُمْ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيٰمَةِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيْهِ ؕ اَلَّذِيْنَ خَسِرُوْٓا اَنْفُسَهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿١٢﴾

12. Please declare: "To whom belongs whatever is in the heavens and in the earth?"[23], Please declare: "It belongs to Allah. He has made it obligatory for Himself (to confer) His Mercy with generosity [24]. He will surely gather you on the Day of Resurrection. There is no doubt in it". Those who have put their souls in loss would not believe [25].

Hereafter is setting aside His special Mercy for the believers only.

23. Firstly they themselves will intimate that all of this belongs to Allah Almighty in whom they believe. If they do not admit this then you should reply to them. From this we learn that whatever is being spoken of, is more emphatic when it is reiterated by the person addressed, as this will be remembered over a longer period.

24. Mercy in this world include His general mercy, sending provisions, not sending down punishment in a hurry, sending prophets for the guidance of mankind, etc. while mercy in the

25. By infidels here means those whose death on infidelity is proclaimed by Allah Almighty e.g. Abu Lahab, Abu Jahl, etc otherwise many infidels have and are declaring faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Or this could mean those infidels who are stubborn in their infidelity do not receive guidance. One who has become an infidel due to misunderstanding can easily be brought to the straight path.

13. And to Him belongs whatever dwells in the night and the day [26]. And He is the All Hearing, All Knowing.

26. By "whatever" is meant the entire universe, because day and night are experienced by the entire creation.

قُلْ اَغَيْرَ اللّٰهِ اَتَّخِذُ وَلِيًّا فَاطِرِ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَ هُوَ يُطْعِمُ وَ لَا يُطْعَمُ ؕ قُلْ اِنِّيْۤ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ اَوَّلَ مَنْ اَسْلَمَ وَ لَا تَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿۱۴﴾

14. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "Shall I take for a protector anyone other than Allah [27], the Originator of the heavens and the earth, Who feeds but is not fed? [28], Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "I have been commanded to submit [29], and never to be a polytheist [30].

27. Reason for revelation:The infidels of Arabia had tried to induce the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to give up the propagation of the Unity of Allah Almighty and go back to the beliefs of his ancestors and countrymen. This blessed verse was revealed as a reply to these infidels. (Khazainul Irfaan) From this we learn that the rights of Allah Almighty are greater than that of the entire creation.

28. By this is meant that Allah Almighty is completely independent of everybody and everything, it is everybody who is dependent on Him. Although the sun, the moon etc do not eat, they neither feed anyone. They are not independent but are totally dependent on Allah Almighty.

29. From this it is hinted that the Noor of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the first creation of Allah Almighty, as well as, it is His first worshipper. In such a case "I have been commanded" makes mention of the command of the first creation. The commentary of this is that the Hadith Shareef in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: "The first thing which was created by Allah is my Noor (light). This Hadith Shareef has been narrated in different ways. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the first worshipper in this Ummah because the Prophets are worshippers and submissive to the Will of Allah before their followers

30. Allah Almighty did not say do not indulge in polytheism. This passage is more eloquent i.e. forget about indulging in polytheism, do not be from the polytheists. In custom and habits, in personal appearance, and actions be totally different to the polytheists.

قُلْ اِنِّيْۤ اَخَافُ اِنْ عَصَيْتُ رَبِّيْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيْمٍ ﴿۱۵﴾

15. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet) "If I disobey my Lord, then I fear the punishment of a Mighty Day" [31].

31. It should be remembered that here the impossible is kept pending upon the impossible because it is not only totally impossible for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to disobey Allah Almighty but the punishment of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in the Hereafter too is totally impossible. In fact it is due to his mediation that others will be relieved of their punishment. The following verse is an example of this:"Say you, if worst comes to worst there has been a son to the Most Affectionate, I would have worshipped him" (S43:V81)

32. From this we learn that protection from Divine punishment on the Day of Judgement will be due to the Mercy and Kindness of Allah

33. None can ward off Divine punishment without His permission and wishes. The punishment which is removed by the pious sages of Allah and through the good deeds too is taken away by Allah Almighty through His Bounty and Kindness and through their mediation.

testify to his prophethood Allah revealed this verse in which it is said that Allah Almighty is my witness; because He is the greatest of all

36. Reason for its revelation:When the infidels of Makkah asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to present a witness who would witnesses.

37. Allah Almighty gave testimony of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in different ways:

1. He made His most beloved servants to testify about His Messenger's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prophethood.
2. The Book which He revealed on him gives testimony to this effect.
3. He conferred many miracles on him.

These are all testimonies of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that bearing testimony of Allah is the way of life of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and bearing testimony about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the way of Allah 'Almighty. Allah Almighty Himself is the witness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. For this reason both testimonies are proclaimed in the Kalimah Shahadah, so that both these ways (sunnahs) are carried out.

38. By this is meant that if Allah Almighty was not my witness then why should He have revealed His final Book on me? His revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN upon me is in itself is a testimony of my Prophethood.

39.From this we learn that the Prophethood of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the guidance of the Holy QUR'AAN is not limited to any period, place or people. Further we learn that he to whom the message of the Holy QUR'AAN has not reached, his mere belief on the QUR'AAN would be deemed sufficient for his belief as was the case with the Naturalist Group as they are excluded from "whom so ever it reaches."

40. From this we learn that it is important for a believer to declare his faith openly and keep himself aloof from all irreligious people. He should regard infidelity and polytheism as most detestable sins. Thus feigning piety (TAQIYYA) is not worthy of a believer, that is the way of the hypocrites. A believer should openly proclaim his faith through his personal appearance, behaviour, action and speech.

20. Those to whom We gave the Book recognize this Prophet as they recognize their sons [41]. Yet, those who put the souls in loss [42] would not believe.

اَلَّذِيْنَ اٰتَيْنٰهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ يَعْرِفُوْنَهٗ كَمَا يَعْرِفُوْنَ اَبْنَآءَهُمْ ۘ اَلَّذِيْنَ خَسِرُوْٓا اَنْفُسَهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿٢٠﴾

41. Just as the father knows his son before proof of his birth, these people too know the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in a like manner. The father learns to identify the son only through hearsay and after the child has reached the age of discretion. Hence, the identification of the son is greater, therefore comparison is given through his knowledge, otherwise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is like a father. From this we also learn that mere identification of knowing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not faith; declaring belief in him is faith.

42. They remained in loss by not accepting faith out of envy and their names are listed with those whose death will be on infidelity. It should be remebered that the infidelity of Satan was due to envy. Those who bear envy towards a prophet or a saint or the noble Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would hardly declare faith, as they are following the footsteps of Satan.

SECTION 3

21. And who is more unjust than the one who forges a lie against Allah [43], or belies His signs. Surely, the unjust will never get prosperity.

وَمَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا اَوْ كَذَّبَ بِاٰيٰتِهٖ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُفْلِحُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿٢١﴾

43.By being unjust is meant to associate and connect that to Allah Almighty what is said by Him. In this, those Ulama (Learned) are included who intentionally misinterpret the QUR'AAN, as this too is forging a lie against Allah Almighty.

22.And the day when We shall raise them altogether [44], then We shall say to the polytheists: "Where are those associates who you used to assert?" [45].

saying to the inmates of Hell: "Taste it, yes, certainly you are the honourable, the benignant." (S44:V49)From this we learn that calling of the apostates by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as his Companions at the pond of Kauthar is not due to an error but to disgrace and embarrass them. Otherwise the blackness of their faces, being handcuffed, their stopping by angels at the Pond of Kauthar would be sure signs of their infidelity.

44. It is understood that on the Day of Judgement the infidels will be grouped with the infidels, and the believers will be with the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "And today be seperate, O you culprits." (S36:V59). Thus on the Day of Judgement the company of people will be based on Faith. May Allah Almighty raise us and group us with the pious people. Ameen!

45. To call their idols as polytheistic could be to disgrace them, just as Allah Almighty would be

ثُمَّ لَمْ تَكُنْ فِتْنَتُهُمْ اِلَّآ اَنْ قَالُوْا وَاللّٰهِ رَبِّنَا مَا كُنَّا مُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿٢٣﴾

23. Then there will remain no fabrication for them, but to say: "By Allah, our Lord! We were not polytheists"[46].

Says Allah Almighty: "That day when man will call to mind all that he strove for." (S79:V35) For this reason it is said "they lied against themselves" meaning they lied deliberately against themselves. Hence, the meaning of the verse is crystal clear.

46. Firstly these people will try to deny their crimes then on another occasion they will admit them. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. Also the denial of these polytheists would be deliberate, otherwise every person on that day would be fully aware of his deeds.

اُنْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَذَبُوْا عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِهِمْ وَ ضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿٢٤﴾

"These (verses) contain only stories of the past generations".

هٰذَآ اِلَّآ اَسَاطِيْرُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ﴿٢٥﴾

48. Reason for its revelation:One day a group of infidels like Abu Sufyan, Abu Jahl, Waleed, Nadzar etc by chance heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم reciting the Holy QUR'AAN. People asked Nadzar what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was saying. He replied that the Holy Prophet was moving his tongue to tell stories like me. Abu Sufyan said that to him these words were sounding good. On hearing this Abu Jahl uttered that it is better to die than to admit this. This verse was revealed at this occasion. (Khazainul Irfaan)

49. Although this verse was revealed concerning people like Waleed, Nadzar, Abu Jahal it also includes all those persons who are like these wretches. From this we learn that only that person will understand the Holy QURAAN correctly in whose heart there is love for the receiver of the Quraan, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

26. And they forbid from it and keep far from it [51], and they ruin not but their own souls, but they do not understand it.

وَهُمْ يَنْهَوْنَ عَنْهُ وَ يَنْـَٔوْنَ عَنْهُ ۚ وَ اِنْ يُّهْلِكُوْنَ اِلَّآ اَنْفُسَهُمْ وَ مَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ﴿٢٦﴾

51. Reason for the revelation:This verse is revealed regarding all those polytheists who would neither accept faith nor would they allow others to become believers, so much so that they would stop the people from going to the gatherings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Saayyidina Hazrat Abduullah Ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) says that this verse was revealed concerning Hazrat Abu Talib who would protect the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from the harm of the infidels, but he himself had not accepted Islam explicity(KHAZAINUL IRFAAN).

27. And if you could see when they will be made to stand [52], before the fire, then they will say: "Would that we are returned (to earth). Then we will not falsify the verses of our Lord and might become Muslims".

وَ لَوْ تَرٰٓى اِذْ وُقِفُوْا عَلَى النَّارِ فَقَالُوْا يٰلَيْتَنَا نُرَدُّ وَ لَا نُكَذِّبَ بِاٰيٰتِ رَبِّنَا وَنَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٢٧﴾

52. By "made to stand" is meant standing at the edge of the Fire of Hell before they are thrown in it. These infidels will be brought together and made to stand at the edge of the Fire so that before they are separated in different groups they would collectively express regret at the evil before they are thrown in the Fire. From this we learn that they would be recalling whatever they had done.

28. But it has become clear to them what they used to conceal [53] before. And if they were sent back, they would do the same from which they were forbidden. And surely, they are liars [54].

53. On the Day of Judgement when it would be said to the infidels. Where are your false gods? They would be taking false oaths to conceal their polytheism, that they were not polytheists. At that time their limbs would be testifying about their polytheism at which they will have no option but to admit. Mention in this verse is being made about the above.(KHAZAINUL IRFAAN). Thereafter they would request Allah Almighty to send them back to the world with the promise that they would not commit.

29. And they say: "This is the only life we have in this world and we are not to be raised [55] alive again".

وَ قَالُوْۤا اِنْ هِیَ اِلَّا حَیَاتُنَا الدُّنْیَا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَبْعُوْثِیْنَ ﴿۲۹﴾

55. The present day polytheists of India who acknowledge and accept reincarnation too believe in the concept of reward and punishment but say that this will take place in this world e.g the criminal after death will come back to this world in the form of a dog, cat, etc and receive their reward and punishment in this world. They do not believe in the Hereafter or.

30. And if you could see when they shall be made to stand before their Lord [56]. He will say: "Is not this (second life) the truth?" [57], They will say: "Yes, by our Lord". He will say: "Then now taste the punishment as a retribution for your infidelity" [58].

وَ لَوْ تَرٰۤى اِذْ وُقِفُوْا عَلٰى رَبِّهِمْ ؕ قَالَ اَلَیْسَ هٰذَا بِالْحَقِّ ؕ قَالُوْا بَلٰى وَ رَبِّنَا ؕ قَالَ فَذُوْقُوا الْعَذَابَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْفُرُوْنَ ﴿۳۰﴾

56. They will be standing undercover from Allah Almighty, because the vision of Allah Almighty in Jannat (Paradise) is especially for the believers only. Says Allah Almighty:"Yes, certainly they are deprived of the sight of their Lord that day." (S83:V15)

57. This question is for the acknowledgement and not because of the lack of knowledge of the questioner.

58. It should be remembered that the words are infidelity. The reply to this is appearing further 54. From this we learn that for a habitual criminal this world is a life imprisonment and the Hereafter an eternal Hell, because his life in this world is temporary but in the Hereafter it is eternal. A habitual criminal is he would always commit a crime on being freed, to the extent that crime has become a habit to him. Thus this punishment is correct and not in excess to his crime.

in the Day of Judgement. This type of belief is wrong by inference and intellect, because if they do not feel hardship when in the form of dog or cat then what type of punishment would this be? Also, no earthly life is complete with ease or hardship. The punishment of Allah Almighty must be bereft of ease and His reward must be free of hardship.

either of the angels which is attributed to Allah Almighty because the words and works of the special servants of Allah is acknowledged as the words and works of Allah Almigty. Or Allah Almighty Himself would be addressing these wicked souls directly. By those verses in which it is said that Allah Almighty will not speak to the infidels is meant words of mercy, while this is the address of anger. Hence, there is no inconsistency in this verses.

SECTION 4

قَدْ خَسِرَ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِلِقَآءِ اللّٰهِ ؕ
حَتّٰٓى اِذَا جَآءَتْهُمُ السَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً قَالُوْا
يٰحَسْرَتَنَا عَلٰى مَا فَرَّطْنَا فِيْهَا ۙ وَهُمْ
يَحْمِلُوْنَ اَوْزَارَهُمْ عَلٰى ظُهُوْرِهِمْ ؕ اَلَا
سَآءَ مَا يَزِرُوْنَ ﴿۳۱﴾

31. Certainly they remain losers who denied the meeting with their Lord, so much so, when the Hour came to them suddenly [59], they said: "We are sorry that we committed a mistake [60], in accepting it and that we bear our burden on our backs" [61], O! What an evil burden they are bearing [62].

59. Before Qiyamat takes place there will be many signs appearing about it , but the actual occurance of Qiyamat will be sudden and without knowledge.

60. By the expression of woe means they rejected Qiyamat and as such did not prepare for it. Thus error or guilt here signifies error in belief .

61. From this we learn the evil deeds of the infidel will be riding upon him while the believers would be riding on some of his good deeds e.g. His sacrifice will become his conveyance . The good deeds of the infidels will become light and their sins will become heavy, the good deeds of the Believers will become weighty and his sins, light. If the stomach is ailing the food will become a burden for the eater, if the stomach is in good condition the food becomes light and energising. Thus the inference to this is correct.

62. From this is understood that deeds on the Day of Judgement would be in physical form. They would be heavy as well, therefore they would be weighed. Remember the weight of the sins will be heavy on the necks and the necks of the infidels will be made so long that all their sinful deeds will be placed on them including all their wealth and jewels. However, on the Scale, sins of the believers will be lighter and those of the infidels.

وَ مَا الْحَيٰوةُ الدُّنْيَآ اِلَّا لَعِبٌ وَّلَهْوٌ ؕ وَ
لَلدَّارُ الْاٰخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ يَتَّقُوْنَ ؕ
اَفَلَا تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿۳۲﴾

32.And the worldly life is nothing but a play and amusement [63]. And surely, the last abode is better for those who fear [64]. Do you not then understand

63. The worldly life is that which is spent on sensual desires, while the life which is spent to accumulate deeds for the Hereafter is though a life in the world, but it is not a worldly life. Hence, the lives of the Prophets of Allah Almighty and the pious servants are not worldly lives at all but, lives for the sake of religion. Thus, there is a great difference between lives of the negligent and lives of the intelligent.

64. By this is meant those who fear Allah Almighty. From this we learn that besides piety and acquiring pious deeds everything of this world is play and amusement which will not bear any results.

قَدْ نَعْلَمُ اِنَّهٗ لَيَحْزُنُكَ الَّذِىْ يَقُوْلُوْنَ

33. We know that what they say grieves you, they belie [65], you not, but the evildoers deny the signs of Allah [66].

65.Reason for it revelation:Once Abu Jahl's friend, Akhnas bin Thareek asked him if according to him whether Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a true prophet. Abu Jahl replied that he is absolutely true because never a single lie has ever been uttered by him, but I do not believe in him because in his family i.e. in the progeny of Quraysh every form of noble deed is already found, now if Prophethood too reaches them then what is left for the rest of Quraysh. The above verse was revealed at this occasion. In some traditions it is reported Abu Jahl saying Oh Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم we do not regard you as false, but we regard the Book which you have brought to be false.(Khazain) Allah Almighty says in this verse Oh My Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they are not calling you false, but they are saying this to Me.

66 .Because they regarded the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to be SADIQUE TRUTHFUL, AMIEN TRUSTWORTHY, wise and intelligent. Even to this day the infidels regard him in this light. From this we learn that those who reject the perfection and excellence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are worse than the polytheists of Makkah:"It is possible to reject Allah Almighty because none have visualised him;But rejection of the excellent qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not possible because all have seen him."The polytheists had rejected Allah Almighty because none had visualised him. But how could they refuse to accept the holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم after they had personally seen him and his excellent miracles. Subhanallah! Observe in what perfect manner Allah Almighty has consoled His Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by saying that these polytheists are calling Me and My verses as false, but they are not calling you false!

34. And the Messengers of Allah were falsified before you, but they endured patiently when they were belied and were persecuted, until Our help [67] came to them. And there is none to change the words of Allah, and the news of the Messenger has already come to you.

وَ لَقَدْ كُذِّبَتْ رُسُلٌ مِّنْ قَبْلِكَ فَصَبَرُوْا عَلٰى مَا كُذِّبُوْا وَ اُوْذُوْا حَتّٰۤى اَتٰىهُمْ نَصْرُنَا ۚ وَ لَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمٰتِ اللّٰهِ ۚ وَ لَقَدْ جَآءَكَ مِنْ نَّبَاِی الْمُرْسَلِیْنَ ﴿۳۴﴾

67. The message of this verse is a second manner of consoling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.Oh My Beloved Nabi prophets before you were also called false, but they exercised patience. Thus to exercise patience in the face of persecutions of the infidels is the way of life of the prophets. By doing this your rewards will be measured.

35.And if their turning away of faces has grieved [68], you, then if you can do, seek a tunnel in the earth or up by a ladder unto heaven and bring a sign for them [69]. And if Allah has willed them he would have gathered them [70], on the guidance. So, (O listener) never be from the ignorant [71].

وَ اِنْ كَانَ كَبُرَ عَلَیْكَ اِعْرَاضُهُمْ فَاِنِ اسْتَطَعْتَ اَنْ تَبْتَغِیَ نَفَقًا فِی الْاَرْضِ اَوْ سُلَّمًا فِی السَّمَآءِ فَتَاْتِیَهُمْ بِاٰیَةٍ ؕ وَ لَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ لَجَمَعَهُمْ عَلَی الْهُدٰی فَلَا تَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْجٰهِلِیْنَ ﴿۳۵﴾

68. It was the desire of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that every infidel should believe in Islam at which this verse was revealed. This desire of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not based on the fact that he had no knowledge of them dying as non believers but because the demand of mercy of one who is personification of mercy is beyond control and spontaneous. Just as a concerned doctor does his utmost to cure the patient till the end, even though he is fully aware that he will not be able to save his life. His effort is indeed due to his mercy and kindness. Similar is the case here with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This is a verse of solace and comfort.

69. This passage reveals intense loveliness. Just as a teacher expresses anger at a very industrious student for his extra hardwork, he does so not because he is really angry but it shows the obedience of the student and the concern and love of the teacher for him. Otherwise it is quite clear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had not erred in any way. The desire for guidance is always a good quality to inculcate in oneself.

70. Allah Almighty would certainly like if every one can proclaim faith. But this is not the intention. There is a difference between love and intention. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too would love to see everyone becoming a believer and the effort too is towards this, but this is not the intention. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly, this is not that you may guide whosoever you like." (S28:V56) In this verse Allah Almighty first says: "whomso you like" which is followed by "whomsoever He will."

71. This address and rebuke cannot be for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because he was extremely eager for the guidance of Allah's creation. In another place Allah Almighty explains avidness as follows: "desires of your welfare" (S9:V128). This type of greed is praiseworthy and reproach cannot be for the one who is praised. Hence, the true object of this verse is: "Oh believer, do not take an objection on Allah Almighty why He has not given guidance to everybody."

36. Only those can accept who listen [72], and Allah will raise those whose hearts are dead [73]. Then, towards Him will they be returned.

إِنَّمَا يَسْتَجِيبُ الَّذِينَ يَسْمَعُونَ ۘ وَ
الْمَوْتٰى يَبْعَثُهُمُ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ اِلَيْهِ يُرْجَعُوْنَ ﴿٣٦﴾

72. By this is meant hearing of acceptance. Anyone who does not possess this quality is dead. For this reason referrence that follows is about the infidels whose hearts are dead.

73. For the punishment on the Day of Judgement, meaning these infidels will never proclaim faith.

37. And they say: "Why has not a verse been revealed to them [74], from their Lord?" Please declare: "Allah has the power to reveal such a verse, but most of them are fully ignorant" [75].

وَ قَالُوْا لَوْ لَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ اٰيَةٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّهٖ ؕ
قُلْ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ قَادِرٌ عَلٰٓى اَنْ يُّنَزِّلَ اٰيَةً وَّ
لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٣٧﴾

74. From those signs which we are asking e.g coming of the punishment in the world, rain of stones as they were saying: "You then rain down upon us stones from heaven." (S8:V22) Otherwise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had shown many miracles, many of which were shown as requested by them. However, those wretches never accepted these miracles as true miracles like the present day stubborn debator who also claims that no proof was provided by You. .

75. As they were requesting their own death themselves. It was indeed through the mercy of the Holy Prophet that these miracles did not come down.

38. And there is one crawling on earth nor any bird that flies on its wings, but are the communities like you[76].

وَ مَا مِنْ دَآبَّةٍ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَ لَا

مَا فَرَّطْنَا فِي الْكِتٰبِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ ثُمَّ اِلٰى رَبِّهِمْ يُحْشَرُوْنَ ﴿٣٨﴾

We have left out nothing in the Book[77]. Then, to their Lord shall they be raised.

76. From this we learn that we cannot call the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم a being like us, because Allah Almighty has likened the animals to us. Therefore if we cannot say that the animals are like us then how does the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم become like us? Says Allah Almighty:
"The similtude of His Light is as a niche wherein is a lamp." (S24:V35). In the light of this verse who would say the Light of Allah is like a lamp?

77. The word Book either signifies the Holy QUR'AAN or the LAWHE MAHFOOZ THE DIVINE TABLET i.e. We have revealed in the QUR'AAN every type of knowledge, nothing has been kept back, this is because no one was more beloved to Allah Almighty than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for whom these could be kept. This proves the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم complete knowledge of the unseen because every type of knowledge is in these Books and all these Books are within the knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Also if Allah Almighty did not want to inform anyone of these various forms of knowledge why in the first has He written them. The object of writing them does not mean Allah Almighty feared that He might forget them. Without doubt they have been written with the view of making them known to others.

وَالَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا صُمٌّ وَّ بُكْمٌ فِي الظُّلُمٰتِ ؕ مَنْ يَّشَاِ اللّٰهُ يُضْلِلْهُ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّشَاْ يَجْعَلْهُ عَلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿٣٩﴾

39. And those who belied Our signs are deaf and dumb in utter darkness [78]. Allah sends those astray whom He wills and places on the Straight Path, whom He wills [79].

78. For example the deaf and dumb, if they get caught up in the darkness they will not be able to obtain guidance because darkness would render their eyes useless. They will neither obtain guidance through their own voice or the voice of others because they can neither talk nor hear.

79. The Straight Path is the Path of the Saints and Prophets of Allah Almighty. In whichever sect there are no saints that sect is bereft of the Straight Path. Says Allah Almighty: "Guide us on the Straight Path. The Path of those whom you have favoured" (S1:V56).

قُلْ اَرَءَيْتَكُمْ اِنْ اَتٰىكُمْ عَذَابُ اللّٰهِ اَوْ اَتَتْكُمُ السَّاعَةُ اَغَيْرَ اللّٰهِ تَدْعُوْنَ ۚ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿٤٠﴾

40. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "Have you seen when the punishment of Allah comes to you, or the Hour is established? Will you call upon any other than Allah, if you are truthful?"

بَلْ اِيَّاهُ تَدْعُوْنَ فَيَكْشِفُ مَا تَدْعُوْنَ اِلَيْهِ اِنْ شَآءَ وَ تَنْسَوْنَ مَا تُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿٤١﴾ ع

41. But, you will call Him alone. So, if He pleases He would remove [80], that for which you call Him, and you would forget the associates [81].

Marfat.com

80. From this we learn that some prayers of the infidels are accepted.
81. In times of difficulty the infidels too call upon Allah Almighty and not the idols. At present times the polytheists of India when ill, request the worshippers to blow on them for relief. From this is understood that those who do not call upon Allah Almighty in their difficulties are more hard hearted than the polytheists.

SECTION 5

42. And indeed We sent Messengers towards communities before you. Then seized with misery and hardship so that they might beseech [82].

وَلَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَآ اِلٰٓى اُمَمٍ مِّنْ قَبْلِكَ فَاَخَذْنٰهُمْ بِالْبَاْسَآءِ وَالضَّرَّآءِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَضَرَّعُوْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾

82. It is thus evident that difficulties and hardships in the world are a Mercy of Allah Almighty as they help to turn His servants to Him and elevate the ranks of the pious and the wise.

43. Why did it not happen that when Our punishment came upon them, they would have beseeched? [83], But, their hearts were hardened and the devil made fair to them their deeds in their eyes [84].

فَلَوْلَآ اِذْ جَآءَهُمْ بَاْسُنَا تَضَرَّعُوْا وَلٰكِنْ قَسَتْ قُلُوْبُهُمْ وَزَيَّنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطٰنُ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۴۳﴾

83. So that the punishment could have been removed. From this we learn that declaring faith and offering repentance at the times of seeing the signs of punishment is a means of warding off the punishment as was done by the people of Hazrat Yunus (On whom be peace). However after the descent of the punishment faith and repentance will not prove beneficial, as was the case with Pharoah."Until the drowning overtook him" (S10:V90)
84. It is evident that from all the punishments the worse is the hardness of the heart i.e. being heartless which will not allow the teachings of a Prophet to have the desired effects.

44. Then when they forgot that with which they were all admonished, We opened unto them the gates of all things [85], until when they became delighted at what they were given [86]. Then, We seized them suddenly [87], now they were left in despair [88].

فَلَمَّا نَسُوْا مَا ذُكِّرُوْا بِهٖ فَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ اَبْوَابَ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ ؕ حَتّٰٓى اِذَا فَرِحُوْا بِمَآ اُوْتُوْٓا اَخَذْنٰهُمْ بَغْتَةً فَاِذَا هُمْ مُّبْلِسُوْنَ ﴿۴۴﴾

85. From this we learn that despite our sins and disobedience, to obtain worldly comforts is a wrath and punishment of Allah Almighty because due to this man becomes more negligent and daring to commit sins. In fact this sometimes makes him think that sins are good, otherwise I would not have been blessed with these comforts. This is indeed blasphemy and infidelity. We further learn that coming of hardships on the pious servants is a means of obtaining Mercy of Allah Almighty because due to this the status of the pious is increased.
86. To express joy on receiving the bounties of Allah Almighty out of arrogance and boast is sinful and the way of the infidels. However if this is done to express gratitude then it is good as this is the way of the pious. Says Allah Almighty: "And publicise well the favours of your Lord." (S93:V11). Further Allah Almighty says: "Say you, only Allah's Grace and only His Mercy on it therefore let them rejoice." (S10:V58). Here the first condition is applicable.

87. The death of a Believer has three names:

1. WAFAAT the time of having completed ones work, what will follow is the time for comfort and rewards.
2. WISAAL the means of meeting the beloved.
3. SHAHADAT the means of gaining the presence of Allah Almighty.

The death of an infidel too has three names:

1. Wrecked and perished. "Then We perished them after wrecking." (S25:V36)
2. Extinction/destruction. (S6 : V6)
3. Seizure (S6 : V44) (S7 : V9596)

45. Then the unjust [89] were uprooted completely. And all praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of all the worlds [90].

89. From this we learn that the people on whom Divine punishment descends do not leave behind any generation to follow. Those people who were metamorphosed into lesser beings were totally destroyed, Hence, the present day monkeys and dogs are not their offspring.

90. From this we learn that the destruction of the infidels is the bounty of Allah Almigty at which one should express gratitude to the

46. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): Have you considered if Allah should take away your ears and eyes and seal up your hearts [91]. Then who is the God other than Allah Who could bring these things back [92] to you? See how in different manners We explain the signs, but they turn away their faces.

91. In a manner that the advice of the advisor will prove ineffectual, he will not be able to see the verses and signs of Allah with his eyes and would not be able to hear the words of Allah Almighty i.e such a person would be a seeing. blind and a hearing deaf. It is possible that

Similarly the name of a believer's life is "Pure life" while that of an infidel is 'Straightened life" (S20:V124)

88.Because of this some say that sudden death is bad because it does not provide time to repent. But while this is punishment for the negligent, it is a mercy to a pious believer as it saves him from the the pangs of sickness. Therefore the death of Hazrat Sulaiman, Moosa and Uzair (May Peace of Allah be upon them) was sudden. Even if the neglectful person dies of sickness his death will be sudden, and a believer's sudden death will be a death of preparation.

فَقُطِعَ دَابِرُ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْا ؕ وَ
الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۴۵﴾

Almighty. The Holy Prophet offered Sajdah at the death of Abu Jahl, and ordered to observe fast on the Day of Ashura (10th Muharram) because Pharoah was destroyed on this day. Hence, at the death of a believer one should recite "to Allah we belong" while at the death of a dangerous enemy one should recite "All Praise be to Allah Almighty."

قُلْ اَرَءَيْتُمْ اِنْ اَخَذَ اللّٰهُ سَمْعَكُمْ وَ

نُصَرِّفُ الْاٰيٰتِ ثُمَّ هُمْ يَصْدِفُوْنَ ﴿۴۶﴾

here the literal meaning of the verse is intended

92. By this is meant none so ever can bring. The medicine of the doctor, the Dua of the pious etc. too cannot have curative power without the will of Allah Almighty. They are only the means, not the end.

Marfat.com

قُلْ اَرَءَيْتَكُمْ اِنْ اَتٰىكُمْ عَذَابُ اللّٰهِ بَغْتَةً اَوْ جَهْرَةً هَلْ يُهْلَكُ اِلَّا الْقَوْمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿٤٧﴾

47. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "Have you considered if the punishment of Allah comes upon you suddenly or openly. Then, who will be destroyed, but the unjust people? [93]

93. By tyrant is meant the infidel. The punishment of Allah Almighty comes to destroy the infidels. If animals and some innocent people are destroyed through it, it is no punishment for them but a means of elevating the status of the pious through it, as is reported in Hadith Shareef. It should be remembered that this punishment denotes visible punishment which had come upon the previous people (Ummah). The inherent punishment like incidental disaster, drought, death and destruction,etc can come due

وَمَا نُرْسِلُ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ اِلَّا مُبَشِّرِيْنَ وَمُنْذِرِيْنَ ۚ فَمَنْ اٰمَنَ وَ اَصْلَحَ فَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ لَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُوْنَ ﴿٤٨﴾

48. We do not send the Messengers but to give glad tidings and to warn [94]. Then those who believed and amended themselves, to them there is no fear, nor any grief.

94. By this is meant that giving glad tidings about the bounties and mercy of Allah Almighty. To put fear of Allah's punishment in people is also from the qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but giving glad tidings of the coming Prophets was the quality of the other Prophets of Allah Almighty not the way of our Holy prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as he is the seal of the Prophets. Remember, that when ever prophecy is coupled with warning it will denote glad tidings of mercy.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا يَمَسُّهُمُ الْعَذَابُ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَفْسُقُوْنَ ﴿٤٩﴾

49. And those who falsified Our signs, punishment shall reach them because of their disobedience [95].

95. Here, disobedience means infidelity while punishment denotes the eternal punishment of Hell. From this we learn that the deceased infants of the infidels would not be punished in the Hereafter, because punishment is the result of their infidelity and disobedience which was not committed by these small children.

قُلْ لَّآ اَقُوْلُ لَكُمْ عِنْدِيْ خَزَآئِنُ اللّٰهِ وَلَآ اَعْلَمُ الْغَيْبَ وَ لَآ اَقُوْلُ لَكُمْ اِنِّيْ مَلَكٌ ۚ اِنْ اَتَّبِعُ اِلَّا مَا يُوْحٰٓى اِلَيَّ ؕ قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الْاَعْمٰى وَالْبَصِيْرُ ؕ اَفَلَا تَتَفَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿٥٠﴾ ع ٩ ١١

50. Please declare [96]: "I neither say to you that I possess the treasures [97], of Allah, and nor do I say that I know the unseen myself, and nor do I say to you that I am an angel. I follow only that which is revealed [98] to me". Please declare: "Are the blind and the seeing equal? Do you then not ponder?" [99]

Marfat.com

96. Reason for revelation:The infidels of Makkah would tell the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم if you are the true Prophet of Allah then provide us with wealth and riches. Turn the mountains into gold, inform us about the rates of market prices of things to come. In reply to their demand these verses were revealed in which Allah Almighty asks the beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to tell them that I have claimed to be a Prophet, I have made no claims about these things. These infidels would also say that if you are a prophet why do you enter into marriage? The reply was that though marriage is not necessary for angels, it is for a Prophet.

97. In this there is the negation of the claim, not of having the treasure. The Holy Prophet said: صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم "I have been given the keys of the treasures of the earth." Allah Almighty said: "Oh beloved! Undoubtedly, We have bestowed you abundance of good." (S108:V1) Similarly, negation is to the claim to the Knowledge of the Unseen, not of the Knowledge of the Unseen. For this reason the adage are three, the claims are two. But in "I am an angel" there is the negation of both the claim and the adage or implication. Whereas in the earlier instance the claim is negated the adage is proven i.e. neither am I an angel, nor do I claim to be one. In the other two negation is only regarding the claim i.e. although I do have the treasures of Allah, and I do possess Knowledge of the unseen, I do not lay claim about them.

98. By this is meant I will only give you and inform you about that which I am permitted by Allah Almighty to do so. Thus with the permission of Allah Almighty the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in one sitting informed his Noble Companions about all things that would be taking place until the Day of Judgement, and made people wealthy. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah and His Messenger has enriched them out of His Grace."(S9:V74)

This verse proves beyond any shadow of doubt the propriety and the bestowed Knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم bestowed Paradise on Hazrat Rabeeah (May Allah be pleased with him) as can be seen from Muslim Shareef.

99. To ponder over the miracles and to learn about the high status and dignity of the Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the work of the believer, to remain blind and ignorant about these is the work of an infidel.

SECTION 6

51. And with this QUR'AAN warn those who fear that they shall be raised towards their Lord in a manner that there shall be no supporter [100] nor any intercessor for them besides Allah in the hope that they may become Godfearing.

وَ اَنْذِرْ بِهِ الَّذِيْنَ يَخَافُوْنَ اَنْ يُّحْشَرُوْٓا اِلٰى رَبِّهِمْ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِهٖ وَلِيٌّ وَّ لَا شَفِيْعٌ لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿٥١﴾

100. From this it is understood that Allah Almighty will provide helpers and intercessors for the believers, while the lack of these for the infidels is Allah Almighty's punishment for them. Thus if anyone says I have no helpers is inadvertently admitting his infidelity, as this is the condition of the disbelievers.

52. And do not drive away [101], those who call upon their Lord morning and evening, seeking His Pleasure [102]. Neither are you accountable for them [103],

وَ لَا تَطْرُدِ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدٰوةِ وَ الْعَشِيِّ يُرِيْدُوْنَ وَجْهَهٗ ؕ مَا عَلَيْكَ مِنْ حِسَابِهِمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ وَّ مَا and nor are they accountable for you. Then if you drive them away, then this is far from justice [104].

مِنْ حِسَابِكَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ فَتَطْرُدَهُمْ فَتَكُوْنَ مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٥٢﴾

101. In this there are glad tidings for the pious servants of Allah Almighty who will not be turned away from the doors of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم neither in this world, nor in the Hereafter. Thus those who want to gain the nearness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should engage themselves in the Remembrance of Allah Almighty. This order is eternal, until the Day of Judgement.

102. The word Murid is obtained from here i.e. the Murid is he who takes allegiance on the hand of his Shaikh Murshid religious mentor, to seek the pleasure of Allah Almighty.

103. Reason for Revelation:Once the leaders of the Makkan infidels came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and saw that he was surrounded by the poor and the destitute. They said that they feel ashamed to be in the company of these beggars. If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would turn them away from his company then only are they prepared to join him. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم turned down their request. This verse was revealed in support of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم action in which Allah Almighty says that Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم neither are you responsible for their guidance, nor will you be questioned about it. Hence, you should not reject these destitute people in the hope of guiding these infidels.

104. It should be remembered that here injustice does not mean infidelity nor to torment anyone. To refuse anyone permission to come to you is not a sin. Hence., this meaning is very appropriate, that this type of action is beyond a person of your calibre who is the personification of kindness and excellent disposition. From this we learn that to love the poor and destitute is the way of the prophets.

53. And thus We made one of them a trial for the others that when the wealthy infidels may say, seeing the needy Muslims: "Are these people whom Allah has favoured among [105], us? Does not Allah know well the grateful?" [106].

وَ كَذٰلِكَ فَتَنَّا بَعْضَهُمْ بِبَعْضٍ لِّيَقُوْلُوْٓا اَهٰٓؤُلَآءِ مَنَّ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنْۢ بَيْنِنَا ؕ اَلَيْسَ اللّٰهُ بِاَعْلَمَ بِالشّٰكِرِيْنَ ﴿٥٣﴾

105. This means that the infidels have always been rejecting the truth about Islam by looking at its poverty and always say if Islam was a true religion and infidelity was false then why were the Muslims poor and the infidels wealthy!

106. This means faith and guidance are not dependent on wealth, Allah Almighty knows who possesses the capacity for gratitude and who is bereft of it. Allah Almighty always guides those who are grateful to Him.

54. And when those who believe in Our signs come to you [107], then say to them [108]: "Peace be upon you. Your Lord has prescribed mercy on Himself [109], that whoso of you

وَ اِذَا جَآءَكَ الَّذِيْنَ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاٰيٰتِنَا فَقُلْ سَلٰمٌ عَلَيْكُمْ كَتَبَ رَبُّكُمْ عَلٰى نَفْسِهِ الرَّحْمَةَ ۙ اَنَّهٗ مَنْ عَمِلَ مِنْكُمْ

Marfat.com

سُوْٓءًا بِجَهَالَةٍ ثُمَّ تَابَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِهٖ وَاَصْلَحَ فَاَنَّهٗ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿٥٤﴾

does some evil ignorantly and repents [110], thereafter and amends, then undoubtedly Allah is Most Forgiving, Ever Merciful" [111].

107. In this verse are included all those Muslims who would be presenting themselves sincerely to the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم until the Day of Judgement. Only these are entitled to glad tidings that are to follow. The rising of the sun means its coming to us, while our going to the sun means that we must remove all cover. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has already come to us as Allah Almighty says: "Assuredly there has come to you a Messenger" (S9:V128). Thus we can reach the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by removing all covers of negligence and thoughtlessness.

108. There are three types of beggars, the one begs openly. Regarding them is said: "They should come to you and then beg forgiveness." (S4:V64) The second type offers prayer to the generous, regarding them is said:
"Send upon him blessings and salute him fully well in abundance." (S33:V56) The third type does not express anything verbally, but only come to the generous. This verse is regarding them.

109. From this emerge two issues:

1. Through the blessing of the servitude to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم one can obtain the Mercy of Allah Almighty, forgiveness of ones sins, etc.
2. That Allah Almighty has prescribed these things upon Himself, and not by anyone else. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

110. It should be remembered that the repentance for each sin is different. If one has infringed anyone's rights, then fulfilment of these rights is important for the repentance, thereafter repent verbally. If you have not performed Salaah its repentance is to perform their Qaza. Without this, repentance is not appropriate.

111. From this we learn that repentance constitutes of two parts, one is to express regret at what had happened and the other is correctional steps for the future. If either of these is not fulfilled repenance will not be accepted. The use of 'thereafter' informs us that if any one repents after a long time it would be accepted as long as this is done before the person dies.

وَكَذٰلِكَ نُفَصِّلُ الْاٰيٰتِ وَ لِتَسْتَبِيْنَ سَبِيْلُ الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿٥٥﴾ ع

55. And as such We explain fully Our signs in detail that the way of the guilty may become evident [112].

112. It is important for the believer to learn everything about faith as well as about infidelity. Religious knowledge is acquired to practise the religion while the knowledge of infidelity is acquired for abstention from it.

It is for this reason that Allah Almighty outlined the theory and practice of the non believers in the Holy QUR'AAN so that people can abstain and refrain from these, and the Path of Truth can become apparent and fully known.

قُلْ اِنِّيْ نُهِيْتُ اَنْ اَعْبُدَ الَّذِيْنَ تَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ قُلْ لَّاۤ اَتَّبِعُ

56. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "I have been forbidden [113] to worship those who call besides Allah". Please declare:
: "I shall not follow your vain desires [114]. If it be so, then I would go astray and would not remain among the guided ones".

اَهْوَآءَكُمْ ۙ قَدْ ضَلَلْتُ اِذًا وَّ مَآ اَنَا مِنَ الْمُهْتَدِيْنَ ﴿٥٦﴾

113. By this is meant before the revelation of the QUR'AAN Allah Almighty prohibited the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from idolatory through natural means and, after the revelation of the QUR'AAN through religious injunctions. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم never committed idolatory nor any sin, nor eaten any meat of an animal slaughtered in the name of idols. Thus the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

worship and obedience, his piety and Godliness was not dependent on the revelation of the QUR'AAN. He is pious and a worshipper at birth and in essence a talking QUR'AAN.

114. Neither now, nor before the occurence or rise of Prophethood, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says that Allah Almighty has always protected me from misguidance and wrong belief.

57. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "I have the shining proof [115] from my Lord and you falsify it. I have not that with me for which you are hastening [116]. There is no order but of Allah [117]. He explains the truth and He is the Best of Judges".

قُلْ اِنِّيْ عَلٰى بَيِّنَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّيْ وَ كَذَّبْتُمْ بِهٖ ؕ مَا عِنْدِيْ مَا تَسْتَعْجِلُوْنَ بِهٖ ؕ اِنِ الْحُكْمُ اِلَّا لِلّٰهِ ؕ يَقُصُّ الْحَقَّ وَ هُوَ خَيْرُ الْفٰصِلِيْنَ ﴿٥٧﴾

115. By "showing proof" is meant the Prophetic Light, Light of the Holy QUR'AAN, the Mystical Knowledge of Allah Almighty. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was always of this light and a proof for others. For this reason the Holy QUR'AAN refers to him as proof and light. Says Allah Almighty:" Undoubtedly a manifest argument has come to you from your Lord." (S4:V175)The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed the clear proof of Allah Almighty.

116. By this is meant Divine Punishment is not by me nor within my permanent control, otherwise by now it should have descended upon you because I do not give respite to Allah Almighty's criminals. This does not mean that punishment would not descend through the curse of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. He through the Grace of Allah Almighty, has been given full authority over Paradise and Hell. Hazrat Rabeeah (May Allah be pleased with him) had requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to grant him Paradise. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had proclaimed that whoever would purchase the Well of Roomah as an endowment for public use, I will grant him Kauthar on the Day of Judgement. This verse could also mean that although you are asking me for punishment but I only have mercy, not punishment. I am the Prophet of mercy." And we have not sent thee but as a mercy unto all the worlds." (S21:V107)

117. By this is meant the actual command is that of Allah Almighty. The orders of kings, judges, saints, Prophets are bestowed upon them by Allah Almighty. This verse does not negate endowment.

Says Allah Almighty:

"Obey Allah and obey the Messenger, and those who have power of command over you." (S4:V59) If there is no authority besides Allah Almighty's then how would obedience to Prophets, learned men, kings have been made obligatory?

destroy them etc is the essence of worship and this is prophetic ethics. Says Allah Almighty: "...are hard against the infidels and tender among themselves." (S48:V29)

118. By "already ended" is meant the earth would have been made purified of your presence. It is thus understood that to keep enmity with the enemies of Allah Almighty, to

وَ عِنْدَهٗ مَفَاتِحُ الْغَیْبِ لَا یَعْلَمُهَاۤ اِلَّا هُوَ ؕ وَیَعْلَمُ مَا فِی الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ ؕ وَ مَا تَسْقُطُ مِنْ وَّرَقَةٍ اِلَّا یَعْلَمُهَا وَلَا حَبَّةٍ فِیْ ظُلُمٰتِ الْاَرْضِ وَ لَا رَطْبٍ وَّ لَا یَابِسٍ اِلَّا فِیْ كِتٰبٍ مُّبِیْنٍ ﴿۵۹﴾

59. And with Him are the keys of the unseen. Only He knows [119]. them. And He knows whatever is in the land and in the sea. And the leaf that falls, He knows it. Neither a grain is there in the darkness of the earth nor anything green or dry [120], which is not written in the Luminous Book [121].

this to whom He chooses. By keys of the unseen is meant five types of knowledge which are outlined at the end of Surah Luqman beginning with "Undoubtedly with Allah is the knowledge of the Hour...." (S31:V34) because knowledge of these five things are the means of opening the doors of innumerable unseen events. For this reason they are described as keys to the unseen.

119. In this there is no negation of prophesising. Prophesising has been described in the following verses. It is totally wrong to use the verse to negate the Knowledge of the unseen for the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. If this be the case then it can be used against the rejectors themselves because they too have a limited knowledge of the unseen.

120. It is understood that every common and special thing is written on the Divine Tablet. This was not written, not because Allah Almighty feared the possibility of forgetting this, but its real purpose was to make all this known to His special servants whose sight is fixed on the Divine Tablet. The essence of this verse is that knowledge of the unseen is not acquired through a mathematical process or through one's own intelligence. This is the absolute ownership of Allah Almighty, He only grants

121. The Divine Tablet is called luminous Book because it reveals the Knowledge of the Unseen to those special persons whose sight is fixed on it eg, the angels, the prophets, the saints etc. If everyones sight was on it, it would not have been a Luminous Book. Hazrat Moulana Rumi says: "The Divine Tablet is in the vision of the saints, whatever is hidden is protected from all."

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیْ یَتَوَفّٰىكُمْ بِالَّیْلِ وَ یَعْلَمُ مَا جَرَحْتُمْ بِالنَّهَارِ ثُمَّ یَبْعَثُكُمْ فِیْهِ لِیُقْضٰۤى اَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّى ۚ ثُمَّ اِلَیْهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ ثُمَّ

122. That soul is wandering from which state of being awake and conscious is established. This is the soul that leaves the body during sleep, but the permanent soul or the kingly soul establishes life which will depart form the body at the time of death.

SECTION 8

61. And He is the Supreme over His bondsmen, and He sends guardians over you [123], until death comes to any of you. Our messengers (angels) take his soul [124], and they do not fail [125].

وَ هُوَ الْقَاهِرُ فَوْقَ عِبَادِهٖ وَ يُرْسِلُ عَلَيْكُمْ حَفَظَةً ؕ حَتّٰۤى اِذَا جَآءَ اَحَدَكُمُ الْمَوْتُ تَوَفَّتْهُ رُسُلُنَا وَهُمْ لَا يُفَرِّطُوْنَ ﴿٦١﴾

123. By this is meant angels, few of whom guide over deeds and few of whom over physical state. From this is understood that although Allah Almighty has absolute power to protect us by Himself, He has provided means for it. Power is something else, law is another thing, and believing in both is part of faith.

124. From this it does not mean that all the regions are distributed. At some places some angels capture the souls, and at some places others do this work. Infact the Angel of Death and his deputies capture every soul in the world. Thus it is understood that these angels are present everywhere and seeing everywhere. This work cannot be accomplished without this. The entire world is in their sight like the palm of our hand is in our sight

125. These angels do not show signs of slowness or negligence at capturing the souls. They are neither a second late or early from the appointed hour of death of each person. From this we learn that these angels are fully aware of the time and place and nature of death of each person. This is part of the five types of Knowledge. If this is the condition of knowledge of these angels, then what is the condition of knowledge of the highest possessor of knowledge, the Emperor of Madina, Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

62. Then they are returned back [126], to their true Lord, Allah. His is the order and He is the quickest in taking account [127].

ثُمَّ رُدُّوْۤا اِلَى اللّٰهِ مَوْلٰىهُمُ الْحَقِّ ؕ اَلَا لَهُ الْحُكْمُ ۫ وَهُوَ اَسْرَعُ الْحٰسِبِيْنَ ﴿٦٢﴾

126. By this is meant immediately after death their souls are presented to Allah Almighty first and then brought to their graves as is proven by Hadith Shareef.

127. By quickest in taking account means Allah Almighty on the Day of Judgement will take account of the entire world in half a day of this world ie within just four hours. The remainder of this long day will be spent singing praises of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and to reveal to mankind his true lofty status and dignity. Says Allah Almighty:

"It is near that your Lord may make you stand at a place where all should praise you." (S17:V79)

قُلْ مَنْ يُّنَجِّيْكُمْ مِّنْ ظُلُمٰتِ الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ تَدْعُوْنَهٗ تَضَرُّعًا وَّ خُفْيَةً ۚ لَئِنْ اَنْجٰنَا مِنْ هٰذِهٖ لَنَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الشّٰكِرِيْنَ ﴿٦٣﴾

63. Please declare: "Who is that who delivers you from the darkness of the land and the sea. Whom you call in humility and secretly [128] that if He saves us from this (problem), then we shall be grateful?"

128. Whenever the infidels were trapped in jungles or oceans they would recite this prayer, but as soon as they were relieved they would go back to their infidelity. Here the expression of wrath is not at seeking the prayer but at not fulfilling the promise.

قُلِ اللّٰهُ يُنَجِّيْكُمْ مِّنْهَا وَ مِنْ كُلِّ كَرْبٍ ثُمَّ اَنْتُمْ تُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾

64. Please declare: "Allah delivers you from this and from every distress. Yet, you associate partners with Him [129].

129. From this we learn that some prayers of the infidels are accepted in this world, like the prayers of those infidels who would pray to Allah Almighty for their salvation whenever they were in difficulties and Allah Almighty granted them salvation. The devil's prayer for long life was granted by Allah Almighty.

قُلْ هُوَ الْقَادِرُ عَلٰٓى اَنْ يَّبْعَثَ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابًا مِّنْ فَوْقِكُمْ اَوْ مِنْ تَحْتِ اَرْجُلِكُمْ اَوْ يَلْبِسَكُمْ شِيَعًا وَّيُذِيْقَ بَعْضَكُمْ بَاْسَ بَعْضٍ ؕ اُنْظُرْ كَيْفَ نُصَرِّفُ الْاٰيٰتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَفْقَهُوْنَ ﴿٦٥﴾

65. Please declare: "He is the powerful to send punishment on you from above you of from beneath your feet. Or, He may make you encounter by making different groups, and make you taste [130] the severity of one another". See, how We explain the signs in various ways that they may understand? [131].

130. From this is understood that wars between nations and the carnage therein is a punishment from Allah Almighty in which Muslims are presently caught. This is due to their evil deeds.

131. By this is meant either the infidels who may learn to understand these verses and thereby become believers or Muslims in general who at seeing these signs and Powers of Allah give up their indifferent attitude towards their religion. It is reported in the Hadith that when this portion of the verses was revealed in which Allah says He has power to send punishement to you form above, the Holy Prophet said: "O Allah I seek refuge in thee" and when " make you encounter" was revealed the Holy Prophet said "This would be easy" (Bukhari Shareef) should not be locked in battle with one another. This dua was not accepted. (Khazainul Irfaan) said: "Oh Allah! I seek refuge in Thee," and when "beneath your feet," was revealed, he said: "Oh Allah I seek refuge in Thee!" and when "make you encounter" was revealed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "This would be easy" (Bukhari Shareef). In Muslim Shareef it is reported that the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "I made three duas to Allah Almighty of which two were accepted. One was Oh Allah do not destroy my followers by prolonged drought. The second was do not destroy them through drowning. These two prayers were accepted. The third was that they should not be locked in battle with one another. This dua was not accepted. (Khazainul Irfaan)

66. And (O Muhammad) your nation falsified it, though it is the truth. Please declare: "I am not an advocate over you" [132].

132. By 'advocate over you' is meant that I am not responsible for your guidance, that if you fail to obtain guidance you can seek explanation for it from Me as is the case with the advocates who are consulted in the event of failure. you are in need of Me, but I am totally independent of you.

وَ اِذَا رَاَيْتَ الَّذِيْنَ يَخُوْضُوْنَ فِيْۤ اٰيٰتِنَا فَاَعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ حَتّٰى يَخُوْضُوْا فِيْ حَدِيْثٍ غَيْرِهٖ ؕ وَ اِمَّا يُنْسِيَنَّكَ الشَّيْطٰنُ فَلَا تَقْعُدْ بَعْدَ الذِّكْرٰى مَعَ الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٦٨﴾

68.And when you see those who debate on Our signs, then turn [133], away your face from them until they debate on some other discourse [134]. And whatever they say, the devil may make you forget [135], to do so, and then do not sit after recollection with unjust people [136].

133. From this we learn that in the gatherings of non believers there is no respect accorded for religion. Thus it is forbidden for Muslims to attend these gatherings. It is forbidden for Muslims to attend rallies of Non Muslims wherein anti religious speeches are given. It is another matter if this is done with the intention of opposing them. Observe, Hazrat Musa (on whom be peace) was sent to the court of the Pharoah, not to listen to his talks but to repudiate his claim.

134. From this is understood that one is allowed to meet with non believers concerning worldly matters. To attend their gatherings for the sake of propagation is not only allowed but a means of gaining rewards and blessings from Allah Almighty.

135. By this is meant that if you attend the gatherings of infidels by some error come out of them as soon as you become aware of it, without staying any further.

136. From this we understand it is very important to abstain from bad company. A bad friend is worse than a poisonous snake because a poisonous snake is a threat to your life, a bad or evil friend is a threat to your faith.

وَ مَا عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ يَتَّقُوْنَ مِنْ حِسَابِهِمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ وَّ لٰكِنْ ذِكْرٰى لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿٦٩﴾

69.And nothing is to be accounted from the righteous people, except to remind them above their assessment. Perhaps they may abstain [137].

137. From this we learn it is not prohibited to attend gatherings of the infidels for the sake of Islamic propagation, to debate with them to repudicate their beliefs ,etc Keeping company with them is different to being with them for debating and propagating Islam.

70. And leave those alone who have made their religion a mockery and a plaything [138], and the worldly life has deceived them and admonish them [139], with the QUR'AAN so that a soul may not be caught on account of its doings. It shall have no helper nor intercessor, besides Allah [140]. And though someone may offer compensation (for wrong deeds) it will not be accepted. These are they who have been caught [141] for their misdeeds. They will have to drink boiling water and a painful punishment, as a result of their infidelity [142].

138. From this we understand it is important to cut off relations with the infidels, material or religious. It is essential to cut off all marriage or trade ties with them, as well as refrain from attending their burial, keeping verbal contact with them, and maintain ties of inheritence. These are laws concerning infidelity. A sinful Muslim can be brought to the fold through propogation and advice,but contact should not be cut off with them without any valid reason. However, if boycotting could help in bringing them back to the fold, this should be tried temporarily.

139. By this is meant continue propagating Islam to the infidels even if you have little hope of them accepting Islam. Those infidels regarding whom the Holy Quraan had prophesised that they will not accept Islam, an effort was made to the end to bring them to the fold of Islam.

140. In this verse there is a negation of intercession for the infidels as is brought out at the beginning of the verse and at the end of the verse. Or it negates the intercession of the idols, or the rejection of intercession of imposters and bullies. Intercession for believers is proven from Qura'anic verses. "Who is he that would intercede with Him by His leave".(S2:V255). The Janazah Prayer too is based on intercession . Says Allah Almighty: "And when they do injustice unto their souls, then Oh Beloved! they should come to you and then beg forgiveness..". (S4:V64). This verse shows proof for intercession.

141. The rejection of compensation by the infidels is a punishment for them, while the infidels themselves would become compensation for the believers. The sacrifice of their good deeds, and infidels would become compensation for their sins. for the believers. The sacrifice of their good deeds would become compensation for their sins.

142. From this is understood that painful torment is specially set for the infidels, if Allah wills, the punishment of the believing sinner would not be severe.

قُلْ اَنَدْعُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُنَا

71. Please declare: "Shall we worship besides Allah that which neither does any good nor does any harm. And shall we turn back on our heels after Allah has shown us the way? [143], It is like the one whom the devils have left in the darkness to forget the way on the earth. He is bewildered, (while) his companions are calling him towards the way that comes to Us?[144] Please declare: "The guidance of Allah is the only guidance, and we are commanded to submit to Him only, Who is the Lord of all the worlds.

143. In this there is a refutation of those infidels who would invite the believers, and even the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to give up Islam and revert back to their religion. They would try to deceive them through different types of temptations. They would even try to coerce them through threats. From this we learn that apostasy is a serious crime, and that the sin of an educated person is more severe than an uneducated person as can be seen from "After that Allah has shown us the way." Therefore, an avowed infidel can be freed on payment of JIZYAH or poll tax while the punishment for the apostate is death , or re acceptance of Islam.

He will not be made to pay polltax.

144. This example provided between the guided and the misguided person is through a traveller who sets out on a journey with his friends but on finding himself in a jungle is mislead by the devil who deviates him from his path. Despite the calls of his friends to join them he refuses to listen to them. From this we understand that our misguided relatives are not our friends but our misleaders. On the other hand, even if the pious Muslim may be a stranger, he is our spiritual and religious companion. One such stranger is far better than thousands of irreligious relatives.

وَ اَنْ اَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَ اتَّقُوْهُ ؕ وَ هُوَ

72. And to establish Prayer and to fear Him (is real life). And it is He towards Whom you are to rise [145].

145. In this there is a hint that one should not perform our Salaah and other good deeds for mere show, but offer our good deeds out of fear of Allah Almighty, because you would be asked to account for them to Allah Almighty.

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیْ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ ؕ وَ یَوْمَ یَقُوْلُ كُنْ فَیَكُوْنُ ۘ قَوْلُهُ الْحَقُّ ؕ وَ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ یَوْمَ یُنْفَخُ فِی الصُّوْرِ ؕ عٰلِمُ الْغَیْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ ؕ وَ هُوَ الْحَكِیْمُ الْخَبِیْرُ ﴿۷۳﴾

73.And it is He Who has made the heavens and the earth rightly. And the Day when the destruction [146] will occur, He will say to everything; "Be!" and it [147] will come into being at once. His word is the Truth, and His is the kingdom on the Day when the trumpet will be blown [148]. He is the Knower of everything visible and invisible and He is the Wise and Aware.

146. Here the word 'Rightly' signifies wisdom, or correctness, i.e. everything in the heavens, is created wisely and correctly to reveal the power of Allah Almighty. 147.By this is meant that the birth of mankind in the world was a gradual process at different times. Thereafter they followed a natural cycle of childhood, primage and old age. However, on the Day of Judgement the entire creation would be brought back to life by one word 'Be'. Remember that here the utterance of 'Be'does not mean command using the letter KAF and NUN but it is used to show the inner intention i.e. if He so wishes to recreate, everything will come back to life. Thus there can be no objection raised from the verse that to whom will 'Be!' be addressed and who would be there to listen to it. Another objection that can be taken is the blowing of the Trumpet too would be without any purpose; and then this verse would be in contradiction with another verse. Hence, the meaning of the verse is crystal clear.

148. After the first blowing of the Trumpet once or twice the world will be destroyed, on the second blowing everything will come back to life. Thus on the Day of Judgement Kingdom will belong to Allah Almighty alone.Those who were kings on this earth shall be kings no more.

وَاِذْ قَالَ اِبْرٰهِیْمُ لِاَبِیْهِ اٰزَرَ اَتَتَّخِذُ اَصْنَامًا اٰلِهَةً ۚ اِنِّیْۤ اَرٰىكَ وَ قَوْمَكَ فِیْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِیْنٍ ﴿۷۴﴾

74.And remember when Ebrahim said to his father [149], Azar: "Do you take the idols for gods? Undoubtedly, I find you and your people in open error" [150].

149. Here the word 'Father' is used to denote uncle because Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) father's name was TARRUKH who belived in the oneness of Allah Almighty and was a believer. AZAR was his uncle's name, who was an idolater.(VIDE:QAMOOS; and MASALIKUL KHULAFA by Allamah Suyuti In Arab places has referred to the uncle as father e.g. "And God of your fathers Ibrahim, and Ismail and Ishaque." (S2:V133)The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم too had referred to Hazrat Abbas (may Allah be pleased with him) his uncle, as his Walid is only used for father. Similarly, the word Umm can be used for a mother, grandmother, fostermother, (Mufridaat) RAGHIB;TAFSEER KABEER, etc from KHAZAINUL IRFAAN). However, the word Walidah is used only for a mother. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) in old age made this dua: "Oh our Lord, forgive me and my parents and all Believers." (S14:V41) Here Tarrukh and his wife are denoted as both were believers.

150. From this emerge a few issuess:

1. When doing propagation work no consideration should be given to relatives or seniority. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) had told his uncle that he has gone astray. This is the way of Prophets.
2. (Feigned piety) is totally against the way of life of the Prophets.
3. Those who have false beliefs will not benefit from being a relative of Prophets. People of Makkah are being told that do not be proud of being from the progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) but accept faith.

75.And thus We show to Ebrahim all the kingdoms of the heavens and the earth [151], in order that he might become convinced at sight [152].

وَكَذٰلِكَ نُرِيٓ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ مَلَكُوْتَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَلِيَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُوْقِنِيْنَ ﴿٧٥﴾

151. Allah Almighty says that just as We had granted him religious insight that though he was born in the land of infidels We had made him not just a believer but a propagator of faith, in a like manner We had granted him worldly sight by showing him different parts of the world.

152. So that he may achieve positive knowledge. Thus Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was told to stand on a hill and look upwards and lo and behold, he saw the Divine Throne, the Divine Chair, the Pen, the Tablet, in short he saw everything in the heavens, even his own place in Paradise. Then when he was told to look down he was made to see everything that was in the nether regions of the Earth. However our Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was granted the opportunity to travel through the seven heavens and beyond and see everything therein.

76. When the darkness of night came on him, he (Ebrahim) saw a star. He said: "This is my Lord" [153]. Then when it set, he said: "I do not like the setting ones" [154].

فَلَمَّا جَنَّ عَلَيْهِ الَّيْلُ رَاٰ كَوْكَبًا ۚ قَالَ هٰذَا رَبِّيْ ۚ فَلَمَّآ اَفَلَ قَالَ لَآ اُحِبُّ الْاٰفِلِيْنَ ﴿٧٦﴾

153. Because Namrood had given the order for infanticide Hazrat Ebrahim's (On whom be peace) mother had taken the child to a safe place for his upbringing. She had stayed therein for approximately seven years. When he came out of this place and saw his people worshipping the moon and the stars, he uttered these words in rejection of their worship. Remember that these words of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) do not reflect the divinity of the moon and stars, as this is idolatory and all prophets of Allah Almighty are totally sinless. In fact this is a negative question, ie are these my gods?

154. People who base their argument on logic try to expound that the world is ever changing and that every changing thing is freshly created, and every new creation is in need of a creator. Hence, the world is in need of a creator. Allah be Praised! What intelligence and thinking is found in this childish thinking! From this it is observed that the Prophets are possessors of inspired knowledge who become learned without being tutored by anyone.

فَلَمَّا رَاَ الْقَمَرَ بَازِغًا قَالَ هٰذَا رَبِّیْ ۚ فَلَمَّآ اَفَلَ قَالَ لَئِنْ لَّمْ یَهْدِنِیْ رَبِّیْ لَاَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الضَّآلِّیْنَ ﴿۷۷﴾

77. Then when he saw the shining moon, he said: "This is my Lord". But, when it set, he said: "If my Lord had not guided me, I would also have been of those who had gone astray" [155].

155. By this is meant that my Lord has made me one of guidance from beforehand, Hence, I am not from those who have gone astray.

فَلَمَّا رَاَ الشَّمْسَ بَازِغَةً قَالَ هٰذَا رَبِّیْ هٰذَآ اَكْبَرُ ۚ فَلَمَّآ اَفَلَتْ قَالَ یٰقَوْمِ اِنِّیْ بَرِیْٓءٌ مِّمَّا تُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿۷۸﴾

78. Then when he saw the sun shining, he said: "You say [156], 'this is my Lord', this is the biggest of all". Then when it set, he said: "O my people, I am surely away from all those things which you associate with God" [157].

156. The sun is not really of feminine gender and can be used with either gender. Hence, in this instance 'shining' is used in the feminine and 'this' is used in the masculine with the sun. Also the masculine 'this' used here is due to Allah Almighty.

157.From 'you associate' in the plural can be seen that he did not commit polytheism even for a little while. Thus anyone who attempts to connect polytheism towards him is totally ignorant and irreligious.

اِنِّیْ وَجَّهْتُ وَجْهِیَ لِلَّذِیْ فَطَرَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضَ حَنِیْفًا وَّ مَآ اَنَا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِیْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾

79. "I turn straight my face towards Him Who had created the heavens and the earth, being of Him [158], only, and I am not of the polytheists.

158. The words 'being of Him only' indicates he is pure of all religions. From this we learn that only he is a true believer who detests and is disgusted by all other false religions. This is indeed the way of life of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace).

وَ حَآجَّهٗ قَوْمُهٗ ؕ قَالَ اَتُحَآجُّوْٓنِّیْ فِی اللّٰهِ وَ قَدْ هَدٰىنِ ؕ وَ لَاۤ اَخَافُ مَا تُشْرِكُوْنَ بِهٖۤ اِلَّاۤ اَنْ یَّشَآءَ رَبِّیْ شَیْـًٔا ؕ وَسِعَ رَبِّیْ كُلَّ شَیْءٍ عِلْمًا ؕ اَفَلَا تَتَذَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۸۰﴾

80. And his people began to dispute with him in respect of Allah. "He has shown me the Straight Way [159]. And I do not fear those that you make as His associates [160], but, if my Lord wills anything [161]. My Lord comprehends everything in His knowledge. Then will you not ponder?"

159. The guidance provided by Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was totally natural as from his childhood he had possessed knowledge of Allah Almighty. Thus he had never commited any polytheism, infidelity or sin. The same is the case in respect of every Prophet who is guided by Allah Almighty.

160. He can cause harm through anyone. From this we learn that though benefit and harm can be caused through humanbeings, it is only through the permission of Allah. The creation is just the cause .furthermore we learn that even at this dangerous occasion Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) did not feign any show (Taqiyya)of any type but proclaimed his faith in Allah Almighty.
161. It can thus be seen that no fear of creation takes root in the heart of a Prophet which would take him away from his obligation to his Creator.

81."And why should I be afraid of those whom you associate [162], with Allah, while you do not fear to associate with Allah for which He has given you no authority. Then which of the two groups is [163]. more entitled for security? (Answer) If you know".

وَكَيْفَ اَخَافُ مَآ اَشْرَكْتُمْ وَلَا تَخَافُوْنَ اَنَّكُمْ اَشْرَكْتُمْ بِاللّٰهِ مَا لَمْ يُنَزِّلْ بِهٖ عَلَيْكُمْ سُلْطٰنًا ؕ فَاَىُّ الْفَرِيْقَيْنِ اَحَقُّ بِالْاَمْنِ ۚ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۸۱﴾

162. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) spoke about all this to his people when they had told him to fear their idols as they could cause him harm. The real purpose of this discourse is that the True Almighty Lord whom you should be fearing you are not doing that but those helpless things made of sticks and stones who are totally incapable of causing any harm, you are asking me to be afraid of them?
163. By this is meant I am deserving of peace, and you are of punishment.

82. Those who believe and mix not any injustice [164]. with their faith. These are the people for who there is security and they are the very ones who are guided [165].

اَلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَلَمْ يَلْبِسُوْٓا اِيْمَانَهُمْ بِظُلْمٍ اُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمُ الْاَمْنُ وَهُمْ مُّهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۸۲﴾ ع ۹ ۱۲ ۱۵

164. In this verse faith denotes verbal and literal faith i.e. to believe in Allah Almighty, while injustice denotes polytheism. The infidels of Makkah did believe in Allah but they had accepted the idols too as their gods. In so doing they thought they were completing the unity of Allah. This verse was to repudiate their belief. This is in no way connected with sinful Muslims. Says Allah Almighty:"Undoubtedly the association with Allah is a tremendous wrong." (S31:V13)
165. For such believers there is security in this world, in the grave and in the Hereafter. They will be protected from polytheism in this world and from the punishment in the grave and the Hereafter, even though sometimes they may be affected by worldly calamities.

SECTION 10

83. And this is Our argument that We gave to Ebrahim against his people [166]. We raise in [167], degrees whom We please [168]. Undoubtedly, your Lord is Wise, Knowing.

وَتِلْكَ حُجَّتُنَآ اٰتَيْنٰهَآ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ عَلٰى قَوْمِهٖ ؕ نَرْفَعُ دَرَجٰتٍ مَّنْ نَّشَآءُ ؕ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ حَكِيْمٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۸۳﴾

Marfat.com

166. From this is understood that the Knowledge of the Prophets is Divinely inspired, they are not in need of anyone's tutoring. Also they are never governed by any other authority besides Allah Almighty. If Mirza Ghulam Qadiyani was really a prophet, he should not be a tutored pupil, he should not have been a slave of infidels and dependent on the means provided by others. He should not have forsaken Hajj out of fear. Also, Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) calling the sun, etc. 'this is my Lord' is no polytheism but an argument and proof shown by Allah Almighty. Thus Allah Almighty has called it 'Our Argument.'

167. Purely out of His blessings and bounty.

168. It is thus understood bestowing of high rank and status is not dependent on personal ability or good deeds. This is due to the Grace and Bounty of Allah Almighty. He made the angels of many thousands of years of worship to prostrate to Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) who at that point in time had not prostrated even once. From this we learn that Prophets are more superior than any creation of Allah Almighty. None are equal to them. If they were like us then it would be contradictory to this verse.

وَ وَهَبْنَا لَهٗۤ اِسْحٰقَ وَ یَعْقُوْبَ ؕ كُلًّا هَدَیْنَا ۚ وَ نُوْحًا هَدَیْنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَ مِنْ ذُرِّیَّتِهٖ دَاوٗدَ وَ سُلَیْمٰنَ وَ اَیُّوْبَ وَ یُوْسُفَ وَ مُوْسٰى وَ هٰرُوْنَ ؕ وَ كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِی الْمُحْسِنِیْنَ ۙ﴿۸۴﴾

84. And We bestowed upon him, Is'haaq and Yaqub, We showed the path to all of them and showed the path to Nuh before them and of his progeny [169], to Dawood and Sulaiman and Ayub and Yusuf and Musa and Harun [170]. And thus we reward the righteous [171].

169. All those who were bestowed with Prophethood are the progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). It should be remembered that Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) is the father of Prophets. All the Prophets who came after him are all from his progeny. Says Allah Almighty: "And We placed prophethood and the book in his offspring." (S57:V26) If Mirza Ghulam Qadiyani was a Prophet then he should have been from the progeny of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace).

170. Here providing the Straight Path denotes natural guidance which Allah Almighty provides for his Prophets even before their book through His Personal Qualities ie The Prophets of Allah possess the knowledge to distinguish between right and wrong before their birth. Thus Hazrat Isa (on whom be peace) at birth uttered "I am the servant of Allah, His Prophet and bestowed with His bounty."

171. Even good children are the reward to the pious for their piety. This does not mean that Prophethood can be achieved through ones piety. In fact piety can be achieved through prophethood. Thus there is no inconsistency or misunderstanding in the verse.

وَ زَكَرِیَّا وَ یَحْیٰى وَ عِیْسٰى وَ اِلْیَاسَ ؕ كُلٌّ مِّنَ الصّٰلِحِیْنَ ۙ﴿۸۵﴾

85. And to Zakariya and Yahya and Isa and Ilyas. These are all among the righteous.

وَ اِسْمٰعِیْلَ وَ الْیَسَعَ وَ یُوْنُسَ وَ لُوْطًا ؕ وَ كُلًّا فَضَّلْنَا عَلَى الْعٰلَمِیْنَ ۙ﴿۸۶﴾

86. And (We guided) Ismail and Yas'a and Yunus and Lut. And every one We excelled above the whole universe in his time [172].

Marfat.com

172. From this emerge two issues: 1.That there is no equal to a Prophet i.e. there can be no one like a Prophet because if they are superior to every other being and as everybody is in this world, including the Prophets, then how can anyone be superior to the prophets or like them; 2.Prophets are superior to even the angels. Remember, here 'in his time' refer to those besides the Prophet. This does not necessarily mean that those great Prophets are superior to our Holy Prophet nor does it mean that they are superior amongst themselves. But it certainly means that they are superior to all non prophets. Thus any person who takes a non prophet to be like a Prophet is gone astray.

87. And We excelled some of their fathers and their progeny [173], and some of their brothers, and We chose them and showed them the Straight Path [174].

وَمِنْ اٰبَآىِٕهِمْ وَذُرِّيّٰتِهِمْ وَ اِخْوَانِهِمْ ۚ وَ اجْتَبَيْنٰهُمْ وَهَدَيْنٰهُمْ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿٨٧﴾

173. By this is meant Allah Almighty granted them high rank and Prophethood. The word 'some' is used to show that all were not Prophets. Similarly, the relatives of some prophets were infidels.

174. From this we learn it is impossible for a Prophet to have gone astray, because nobody can snatch away the guidance which is provided by Allah Almighty, just as nobody can extinguish the light of the sun and the moon. Thus neither the devil nor any devilish power can succeed in this. Allah Almighty had said to the Devil: "No doubt, those who are my bondsmen, you have no control over them." (S17:V65)

88. This is the guidance of Allah. He gives guidance to whom He wills [175] of His bondsmen. And if they would have committed polytheism, and surely all that they had already done would have been destroyed [176].

ذٰلِكَ هُدَى اللّٰهِ يَهْدِىْ بِهٖ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهٖ ؕ وَ لَوْ اَشْرَكُوْا لَحَبِطَ عَنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٨٨﴾

175. It is thus understood that guidance of prophethood is a special bounty which is bestowed only upon selected people. By mere life long worship a person cannot become the companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم let alone becoming a Prophet. This guidance is not achieved through effort but is purely Divinely bestowed, therefore the verse states that Allah Almighty gives "to whom He wills".

176.Here polytheism is taken to mean infidelity i.e. if the Prophets had committed infidelity, their good deeds would have been destroyed. Neither their names would have remained nor their blessings. However their names and blessings, infact even their deeds are eternal. Thus the Kaaba built by Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) Safa, Marwa, the rite of Qurbaani are all in existence. Therfore all these august personages were true believers. Similarly had the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gone astray after him, their names, blessings, and deeds would have perished but the presence of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique's Burial in Masjide Nabawi, Hazrat Umar's Tarawieh Prayers, and his Islamic conquests and Hazrat Uthman's(May Allah be Pleased with them) completed Quraan, to this day bear testimony to their sincerity of Faith.

أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَ الْحُكْمَ وَ النُّبُوَّةَ ۚ فَإِنْ يَكْفُرْ بِهَا هَٰؤُلَاءِ فَقَدْ وَكَّلْنَا بِهَا قَوْمًا لَيْسُوا بِهَا بِكَافِرِينَ ﴿٨٩﴾

89. These are them to whom We gave the Book [177], and order and prophethood [178]. Then if the people reject [179], it, We have appointed for it such a nation who will not be of the rejectors [180].

177. By 'Book' is meant heavenly Book whether in the form of a scroll or a completed Book, or revealed without the help of a Prophet or through the help of a Prophet. Thus, from this it does not necessarily become obligatory that every Prophet was given a complete Book. Observe, although Taurat was revealed to Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) but Hazrat Haroon and Hazrat Dawood(on whom be peace) after him preached this very Taurat to the people. Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace) was given scrolls and many Prophets after him merely preached what was in these scrolls.

178. From this emerges two issues:

1. No Prophet is bereft of Knowledge and wisdom because here the word 'wisdom' denotes the understanding of the Divine Book and its systematic teaching thereof;

2. No Prophet is subordinate to another Prophet in the matters of prophethood. All the Prophets are by themselves and complete. Yes, in respect of revealed Book one Prophet may be subordinate to another. For this reason Allah Almighty has mentioned prophethood separately. Hence, it utter falsehood to accept Mirza Ghulam Qadiyaani, or any shady character, one on hemp, opium marijiuana, etc to be a prophet.

179. It refers to either the infidels of Makkah, or leaders of Quraish, or those infidels who would not accept Islam until their last breath.

180. It is a prophecy that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said my religion will prevail over all religions with or without the help of the Makkan infidels. By helpers here means either the Muhajireen, the Ansar all the Sahaba-e-Kiram or believers until the Day of Judgement whom Allah Almighty has chosen to serve His Religion e.g. the learned, the Saints, the rulers, etc. Furthermore we also understand that an opportunity to serve Allah's Religion is conferred upon chosen servants of Allah Almighty, and as such should not be viewed with arrogance.

أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ هَدَى اللَّهُ فَبِهُدَاهُمُ اقْتَدِهْ ۗ قُل لَّا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا ۖ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرَىٰ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾

90. These are them whom Allah has guided. Then you follow their path [181]. Please declare (O Beloved Prophet): "I ask you no wage for it (QUR'AAN) [182]. That is not but an admonition to the entire world" [183].

181. From this we should understand that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by himself possessed all the qualities that were found in all the other prophets, because here the word 'follow' does not mean obedience, as our Holy Prophet is not subordinate to anybody. Infact all the prophets are subordinate to our Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Hence, our Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the leader of all the Prophets. In short what it really means is what ever excellencies the other Prophets showed.

182.Because I have come to give you, not to take from you. Only those in rank can pay those of rank. Allah Almighty alone can reward the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as every creation begs from His noble court. In addition the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the reflection of Allah Almighty. Just as Allah Almighty bestows and blesses without any consideration or work, so does the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In fact none of our services are worthy of the smallest compensation by the Holy Prophet .

183. From this emerge two issues:

1. A prophet never makes his prophethood a means of his living, he eats and feeds others through his own efforts. In contrast Mirza Qadiyani under the disguise of prophethood

2. The Holy Prophet is the Prophet for the entire creation, and the Holy Prophet lived like a prince. QUR'AAN too is sent as a guidance for the entire creation, be they angels, jinns, humans, animals, trees, stones etc. In short those whose Lord is Allah Almighty, their prophet is Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

SECTION 11

91. And they (Jews) could not visualize the respect of Allah as such respect, which was necessary to be visualized. Then they said: "Allah had not revealed anything on any man" [184]. Please declare (to the Jews): "Who has sent down the Book which was brought by Musa [185], a light and the guidance to the people [186], of which you have made separate papers [187], to show and much of it you have concealed [188]? And you are taught that which you knew not, not you nor your fathers [189]". Please proclaim: "Allah" [190]. Then leave them to amuse themselves in their absurdity [191].

وَ مَا قَدَرُوا اللّٰهَ حَقَّ قَدْرِهٖۤ اِذْ قَالُوْا
مَاۤ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى بَشَرٍ مِّنْ شَیْءٍ ؕ قُلْ
مَنْ اَنْزَلَ الْكِتٰبَ الَّذِیْ جَآءَ بِهٖ مُوْسٰى
نُوْرًا وَّ هُدًى لِّلنَّاسِ تَجْعَلُوْنَهٗ

قُلِ اللّٰهُ ۙ ثُمَّ ذَرْهُمْ فِیْ خَوْضِهِمْ
یَلْعَبُوْنَ ﴿۹۱﴾

184. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed in connection with one of the learned Jewish scholars Malik ibn Saif who had come to debate with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. After being unsuccessful he became so dumbfounded that he uttered Allah has not sent down such a revelation to any man with which his own people had been displeased, saying you have brought failure upon us. From this we learn that one who rejects the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم can in no way understand Allah (lavishly); Almighty. Only He can truly appreciate Allah Almighty who understands the status of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

185. Malik ibn Saif was physically a well built person. First the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم asked him: Did you see this verse in Taurah in which Allah Almighty says that he does not like big built priests? When he replied in the affirmitive the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم added: You are a big built priest, and thus cursed by Allah Almighty. This angered Malik ibn Saif who said He has not yet revealed any Book upon anyone. Here it is being said to him in a form of accusation, that if what you are saying is true then who revealed the Taurat upon Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). It should be remembered, that by big built priests is meant those priests who were living in lap of luxury on income gained through unlawfull means.

186. Here the word 'people' refers to the Israelites only because Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was sent as a prophet to them only. It should be remembered that at only one place the Taurat is referred as "Explanation on every detail" because when the Taurat was revealed it contained discussion on everything, but when it fell from Hazrat Musa's (On whom be peace) hand only the guidance remained while explanation on everything was taken away.

Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse.

187. Part of the Taurat was chosen to become known while part of it was to remain concealed, because only the priests had control over it, and not the people, as is the case with the Holy QUR'AAN. All praise be to Allah Almighty for this!

188. From this we learn that Allah Almighty had entrusted the Israelites to protect the purity of the Taurat, but they failed to do so therefore many distortions are found therein. But He took it upon Himself to protect the purity and authenticity of the Holy QUR'AAN. Hence, it had remained protected from any distortions.

92. And this is a blessed Book which We have revealed confirming those books which were (revealed) before it in order that you may warn the Mother of all cities (Makkah) and to all those around it [192], (the entire world). And those people who believe in the Hereafter believe in this Book and guard their prayer [193].

192. From this is understood that there would be no heavenly Book to be revealed after the Holy QUR'AAN nor another Prophet because the Holy QUR'AAN has not given the glad tidings about those who had come.Coming of

93. And who is more unjust than one who fabricates [194], a lie against Allah or says: "I have received a revelation", though nothing was revealed [195], to him, and who says: "Just now I sent down the like of what Allah has sent down" [196]. And if you could see the unjust (people) when they are in the agonies of death, and the angels have stretched their hands (saying): "Yield in your[197] souls". This day you will be awarded the punishment of disgrace, for you used to forge a lie against

189. Today you are being blessed with all those branches of knowledge through the grace of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which were not given to any people before you. Hence, you should learn to appreciate and value him.

190. Now if people like Malik ibn Saif do not say that Allah Almighty had revealed the Taurat on Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) then you should emphatically say that He had revealed it.

191. By this is meant that do not regret about their period, but it does not mean do not preach to them. Hence, this verse is not abbrogated, but firm in its place.

وَ هٰذَا كِتٰبٌ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ مُبٰرَكٌ مُّصَدِّقُ

الْحَقِّ وَكُنْتُمْ عَنْ اٰيٰتِهٖ تَسْتَكْبِرُوْنَ ﴿٩٣﴾

194. Being unjust by laying false claim to prophethood i.e. by saying I am a prophet when he is not one.

195. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning Musailama, the Liar, who was born in Yemen from the tribe of Bani Hanifa. He had laid a false claim to prophethood. He lived during the period of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and was killed by Hazrat Wahshi (May Allah be pleased with him) during the Khilafat of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him). In this battle Kholah bint Jaffer was secretly captured who later became the wife of Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him). Muhammad bin Hanfiyah was born from her whose offspring are called Alvyis. From this we learn that the biggest liar is the one who lays false claim to prophethood. Thus it is the law of nature to reveal their falsehood to the world. Whatever Mirza Goolam Qadiyani claimed, he was proven a liar in that claim; Muhammadi Begum did not come in his marriage; Sanaullah did not die in his time but he himself was destroyed in Sanaullah's time in a state of total disgrace and wretchedness

196. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding Abdullah Bin Ubayd who was one of the scribes of revelation but later became an apostate and began to claim that he too can produce work of the calibre of the Holy QUR'AAN; and that he and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would sit and compose the verses of the Holy QUR'AAN. His reason for this was once when the verse "And assuredly, We created man..." (S23:V12) was being revealed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم made him to begin writing it. When they had reached the end of that verse he had uttered "So Blessed be Allah, the Best Creator." (S23:V14). To this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said that this is the last part of the verse therefore write it. He became an apostate for claiming these to be his words. He once again accepted Islam before the conquest of Makkah (Khazainul Irfaan and Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan). In Mirqat it is stated that some people have said that he died an infidel and his corpse was ejected from the earth. Allah knows best!

197. The speech of the angels is to show expression of anger. Otherwise to take out life is neither the work of every angel nor that of the infidels. From this we know the death of the infidels is mostly severe and painful. They are saddened by their painful end and the departure from the world.

198. from this emerge two issues:
1. The torment and punishment of the infidels begins at the time of their deaths: his death is punishment, his stay in the grave is punishment and he will be given punishment in the Hereafter as well.
2. Pride and arrogance are terrible habits and that all infidels are arrogant. It is due to this arrogance that he refuses to obey the Prophets of Allah Almighty.

94. And certainly you have come to Us alone as We created you [199], for the first time. And you have left behind your backs whatever wealth and effects We had given you [200]; and We see not with you your intercessors of whom you asserted as your partners [201]. in your affairs. Undoubtedly, the ties between you are cut off, and gone is that from you [202], who used to assert [203].

199. Because the infidels are so immersed in the love for their wealth and children that they do not remember Allah Almighty and hold this false belief that their idols etc. would save them from Divine punishment. Therefore this would be said as a form of reprimand.

200. All these types mentioned are for the infidels, while their charities, prayers of the living, intercession of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will all be with the believers. An infidel will appear alone in the presence of the Almighty, while the believer will be with his group.

201. They would assert this with Allah's Personality in a way that you were stating that our Creator is Allah but these idols are the assistants of that Allah. If their help is not with Allah He would not be able to carry out the affairs of the world; or that you Oh idolators, were associating these idols with the worship of Allah.

202. All that is said is about the infidels. If Allah Almighty Wills, the affairs of the believers will be safe. Those who they have loved will come to their assistance. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah is your friend, and His Messenger and the believers." (S5:V55) Further Allah Almighty says: "We joined them with their off spring." (S52:V21)

203. By this is meant those devils who had promised you salvation on the Day of Judgement are all missing. Today you worship these idols to your hearts content because neither are they present nor is their promised help.

95. Indeed, Allah is the cleaver of grain and date seeds [204]. He brings forth the living from the dead and brings forth the dead from the living [205]. This is Allah. Where then are you going back?

204. Now a proof is being established upon it in which Allah Almighty says He is not in need of anyone's help as He is totally selsufficient, independent and without want. Thus anyone who regards Allah Almighty as needy and therefore seeks help from anyone he is a polytheist. Says Allah Almighty: "And none is a supporter to Him because of weakness." (S17:V111)

By this is meant if we can split the grain to bring out the sapling, then why should we be dependent on someone else for other things?

205. By 'Bring forth the living' means He brings forth life to the living seed from a dead grain, to the living human being from a lifeless sperm, to the living chicken from a lifeless egg. Similarly He bequeaths life to an ignorant person through the learned, into an infidel through the saint, into the hypocrite through

96. He brings forth the dawn [206]. after cleaving the darkness. And He has made the night for rest and the sun and moon for the reckoning [207]. This is the measurement of the Almighty, the All Knowing [208].

فَالِقُ الْاِصْبَاحِ ۚ وَ جَعَلَ الَّيْلَ سَكَنًا وَّالشَّمْسَ وَ الْقَمَرَ حُسْبَانًا ؕ ذٰلِكَ تَقْدِيْرُ الْعَزِيْزِ الْعَلِيْمِ ﴿۹۶﴾

206. In the morning, light appears in the east like a thread and it seems as if this line/thread has split the darkness. This too is due to His Power. Likewise He splits the darkness of infidelity and spreads the light of prophethood.

207. By reckoning of the moon and sun means that through the moon He has made Lunar months and that solar months are created from the movement of the sun. From the moon the believers, this is clear proof of Believers his Divine Wisdom.

Islamic worships are determined and through the sun seasonal prayers are calculated. In short in these there are marvelous signs of Divine Powers.

97. And it is He Who has made the stars for you that you may find the way in the darkness [209]. of the land and the sea. We have explained the signs in detail for people who know [210].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِىْ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ النُّجُوْمَ لِتَهْتَدُوْا بِهَا فِىْ ظُلُمٰتِ الْبَرِّ وَ الْبَحْرِ ؕ قَدْ فَصَّلْنَا الْاٰيٰتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَّعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۹۷﴾

208. From this we learn that mathematics is a lofty branch of knowledge. through it Allah Almighty's absolute Power is revealed.Allah Almighty had made things of the heavens and earth as samples of His Power.

209. Through stars one learns about directions and time. They give guidance to travellers on land and at sea. Like guidance is received through the Noble Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who were called stars by the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

210.By this is meant everything gives guidance to men of knowledge. Here knowledge refers to that which is a means of obtaining Divine and Mystical Knowledge. If it is bereft of this then it is no knowledge but ignorance in the true sense of the word.

98. And it is He Who has produced you from a single soul [211]. Then you have to stay somewhere and have to remain as repository (after death in a grave) [212]. Certainly, We have explained the signs in detail for people of understanding [213].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِىْۤ اَنْشَاَكُمْ مِّنْ نَّفْسٍ وَّاحِدَةٍ فَمُسْتَقَرٌّ وَّ مُسْتَوْدَعٌ ؕ قَدْ فَصَّلْنَا الْاٰيٰتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَّفْقَهُوْنَ ﴿۹۸﴾

211. It is thus understood that Hazrat Hawwa is born from Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace). Thus the true originator of mankind is Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace). In addition, we also learn that man is superior to woman because the true originator of mankind is Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace) who is a man. Thus most laws in the Holy Quraan are addressed to man while women as sub-ordinates of men are included therein.

Marfat.com

212. By 'have to stay somewhere' is meant to dwell upon the earth in ones lifetime, while 'to remain as repository' signifies dwelling in the grave after one's death. The former means being in the mother's womb and the latter means halting in the backbone of the father. From this we learn that the life on this earth is temporary, as our true station is the Hereafter.
Thus the world is usually referred to as (DAR UL FARAAR) the abode of fleeing and the Hereafter is called DARUL QARAAR or the Permanent abode.
213. Those who have the understanding of the world and can use this understanding to come to grips with the Hereafter are indeed blessed by Allah Almighty. However, everybody does not possess this type of understanding.

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیۡۤ اَنۡزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءً ۚ فَاَخۡرَجۡنَا بِهٖ نَبَاتَ كُلِّ شَیۡءٍ فَاَخۡرَجۡنَا مِنۡهُ خَضِرًا نُّخۡرِجُ مِنۡهُ حَبًّا مُّتَرَاكِبًا ۚ وَ مِنَ النَّخۡلِ مِنۡ طَلۡعِهَا قِنۡوَانٌ دَانِیَةٌ وَّ جَنّٰتٍ مِّنۡ اَعۡنَابٍ وَّالزَّیۡتُوۡنَ وَالرُّمَّانَ مُشۡتَبِهًا وَّ غَیۡرَ مُتَشَابِهٍ ؕ اُنۡظُرُوۡۤا اِلٰی ثَمَرِهٖۤ اِذَاۤ اَثۡمَرَ وَ یَنۡعِهٖ ؕ اِنَّ فِیۡ ذٰلِكُمۡ لَاٰیٰتٍ لِّقَوۡمٍ یُّؤۡمِنُوۡنَ ﴿۹۹﴾

99. And it is He Who has sent down water from the heavens [214]. Then We brought forth everything of growth [215], and out of it We brought forth the green (foliage) from which We bring forth clustered grains and out of the sheaths of the palms, the bunches closer to one another [216]. And gardens of grapes and olives and pomegranate [217], similar in some respects and different in some other respects [218]. Look at it when it bears fruit and it's ripening. Undoubtedly, there are signs in it for the persons who believe [219].

214. By this is meant that water is vaporised and evaporates skywards from the ocean due to the heat of the sun or due to the sky. Then due to the intense cold it forms into clouds and eventually comes down as rain. Rain does not come from the sky itself but from the clouds. It could also mean that the sky is the storehouse of water and all things. From here water reaches wells, rivers, oceans etc. Says Allah Almighty: "And in heaven is your provision, and that you are promised." (S51:V22)
215. The great sufi sages say that just as the grain cannot grow without water our good deeds need the blessings of pious people in order to be accepted by Allah Almighty. Satan had a large quantity of deeds but they did not receive the water of Prophethood. Hence, they did not achieve any fruition.
216. As seen in the spike of wheat , barley, etc.
217. Likewise Allah Almighty has created nourishment and fruit for the development of the heart. Nourishment is nutritious for life while fruits are here to provide taste. Similarly Shariat and Tarieqat are there for the development of the heart. Shariat is nourishment for the spiritual development while Tarieqat is the fruit of this development. Likewise obligatory duties(FARAAID) are nourishment, while voluntary duties(NAWAFIL) are the friut.
218. Some trees though in appearance seem similiar with those in respect of branches and leaves, but are different as far as flowers and fruit are concerned. All this reveals the great power of the Creator. Likewise people too in apearance bear many similarities but differ largely in fruit and deeds. Some are infidels, some are believers, some are sinners, some are pious, some are saints, some are Prophets. Do not make the mistake of taking the saints and Prophets to be like you because of their outer appearance. In appearance the margosa and the melia trees seem quite similar but are poles apart in their fruit. Gold and Brass both appear gold in colour but in reality their nature is poles apart.

219. From this emerge two things:

1. The Lord who has the power to give growth to variety of vegetation from water certainly possesses the absolute power to give life and death to His entire creation through the blast of a single trumpet. Thus Qiyamat is a certainty

2. Allah Almighty has absolute power to raise in the garden of Islam thousands of lush green plants(Muslims) through the teachings of one Prophet. Thus saints, Qutubs, Ghaus, Knowledge, action, wisdom, etc are created and nurtured from this water of Prophethood. From this we learn that the acquisition of botanical sciences is beneficial.

100. And they have made jinns as associates [220], of Allah, whereas He created them. And they devised from him sons and daughters without any knowledge [221]. Holy is He and Exalted far above their descriptions.

وَ جَعَلُوْا لِلّٰهِ شُرَكَآءَ الْجِنَّ وَ خَلَقَهُمْ وَخَرَقُوْا لَهٗ بَنِيْنَ وَ بَنٰتٍۢ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ ؕ سُبْحٰنَهٗ وَ تَعٰلٰى عَمَّا يَصِفُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۰﴾ ع ۱۲ ۱۹

220. The polytheists of Arabia would worship the Jinns just as they were worshipping the sun and the moon. They had made idols in their names as their deities. This verse is a refutation of their above practice. From this we learn that true God is one who is the creator, not the creation.

221. These foolish people did not understand that the children are the means of perpetuating the progeny, breed or race. He who is eternal Himself is not in need of any breed or progeny. Observe, if the sun, the moon, the stars, would remain untill Qiyamaat and therefore do not require children for the purpose of perpetuation, then how can Allah Almighty who is ever eternal, be father of children.

SECTION 13

101. The Originator of the heavens and the earth, how could He have a son whereas there is no woman [222], for Him and He has created everything [223] and He has knowledge of everything?

بَدِيْعُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ؕ اَنّٰى يَكُوْنُ لَهٗ وَلَدٌ وَّ لَمْ تَكُنْ لَّهٗ صَاحِبَةٌ ؕ وَخَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ ۚ وَ هُوَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۱۰۱﴾

222. From this we learn that real children are those who are born of women, Thus Bibi Hawwa (on whom be peace) is not the daughter of Hazrat Adam(on whom be peace) because she is not born from a woman. Therefore she was given in marriage to him. Remember that children are from the father's gender and kind. Thus a child of a human cannot be a donkey.

Therefore, how can the Creator's son or daughter be a creation.

223. That is, everything is the creation of Allah, and creation cannot be the children of the creator. From this we also learn we are not the creator of our deeds. Allah Almighty is the creator of those deeds, we are only their doers.

102. This is Allah, your Lord. None is to be worshipped except He, the Creator of everything [224]. Then worship Him only. And He is the Guardian over everything [225].

ذٰلِكُمُ اللّٰهُ رَبُّكُمْ ۚ لَاۤ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ۚ خَالِقُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ فَاعْبُدُوْهُ ۚ وَ هُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَّكِيْلٌ ﴿۱۰۲﴾

Marfat.com

224. Everybody's sustenance, death, action, term of life are all in His care. Despite this we are ordered by 'Take precaution" (S4:V71) i.e. adopt ways and means to safeguard yourself from the infidels. In times of difficulties go to the relevant authorities or physicians as they are the natural phenomenons of Allah Almighty's custody and care. Likewise in times of need it is important to seek the help of saints and Prophets for the fulfilment of our desires, which is not going contrary to the concept of Trust in Allah Almighty.

225. By this is meant none in this world can see Allah Almighty with his naked eye; he can see the Almighty in his dream because this seeing is not with his physical eyes. Regarding Mer'aj Allah Almighty says: "And indeed he saw that Splendid sight twice." (S53:V13) and regarding vision of Allah Almighty in paradise it is said: "Some faces on that day will be fresh, looking towards their Lord." (S75:V2223)

103. Eyes cannot comprehend [226]. Him and all the eyes are under His comprehension. And it is He Who is the Innermost, All Aware.

لَا تُدْرِكُهُ الْاَبْصَارُ ۫ وَ هُوَ يُدْرِكُ الْاَبْصَارَ ۚ وَ هُوَ اللَّطِيْفُ الْخَبِيْرُ ﴿١٠٣﴾

226. By this is meant within the confines of knowledge. because physical enclosure and encircling is not possible for Allah Almighty. He is totally pure and free of this type of act. Only he can encircle physically who is physical in body eg, the wall encircles things with its confines, the container encircles the water in it, the boundary of the city encircles the houses within it, etc. Thus this type of thing is an absurdity for Allah Almighty.

104. Indeed, there have come to you eyeopener arguments [227]. from your Lord. Then whosoever saw it, it is for his own good, and whosoever became blind, then it is for his own harm. And I am not a guardian over you [228].

قَدْ جَآءَكُمْ بَصَآئِرُ مِنْ رَّبِّكُمْ ۚ فَمَنْ اَبْصَرَ فَلِنَفْسِهٖ ۚ وَ مَنْ عَمِيَ فَعَلَيْهَا ؕ وَمَآ اَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ بِحَفِيْظٍ ﴿١٠٤﴾

227. By this is meant the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the verses of the Holy Quraan. In fact the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is himself a shining proof of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly a manifest argument has come to you from your Lord." (S4:V175)

228. From this emerge two issues:

1. The Holy QUR'AAN portrays guidance and faith as true sight and vision and light and infidelity and misguidance as darkness and blindness.

2. A prophet is not responsible for anybody. If the entire world remains without guidance it will in no way harm the prophet. Likewise, if the entire world becomes believers it will not increase the power of his prophethood. Will rejection of the sun in any way decrease its light, nor will it increase it by accepting it. Therefore we are totally dependent on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, while besides Allah Almighty, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does not depend on anyone.

105. And thus We variedly explain the signs that they (the infidels) may say: "You have studied" [229], and that We may make it clear over the people who have knowledge.

وَكَذٰلِكَ نُصَرِّفُ الْاٰيٰتِ وَلِيَقُوْلُوْا دَرَسْتَ وَلِنُبَيِّنَهٗ لِقَوْمٍ يَّعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿١٠٥﴾

Marfat.com

229. By this is meant that there are two types of wisdoms about the revelation of the QUR'AANic verses:
1. That fortunate people would receive guidance through them.
2. The unfortunate wretches will say from who do you learn the QUR'AAN to teach it to us?
The infidels would therefore say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would learn the Holy QUR'AAN from Hazrat Jabeer and Yasser then recite it to them. It should be remembered in the word LAYAQOOLOO,the letter laam is sequential not to cause a change i.e. this would be the sequence of the revelation of these verses. (Tafseer Khazain, Baidzawi, etc) From this we learn that sometimes the verses of the QUR'AAN become the means of the infidels going astray just as sometimes trees become dry despite the rain.

106. Follow you what has been revealed to you [230]. from your Lord. None is to be worshipped except Him, and turn your face away from the polytheists [231].

اِتَّبِعْ مَآ اُوْحِیَ اِلَیْكَ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ ۚ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ۚ وَاَعْرِضْ عَنِ الْمُشْرِكِیْنَ ﴿۱۰۶﴾

230. Even if it is evident and clear revelation like the Holy QUR'AAN or concealed revelation like Hadith Shareef because both the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith are revelations. Thus this verse cannot serve as a proof for the Chakraldwies to substantiate their claim.
231. By this is meant that for the time being continue with the refutation of the polytheists, but do not be hard on them. When the verses of Jihaad (Holy War) would be revealed then wage war against them. Hence, this verse is abrogated by the verse concerning Jihad (Khazin, Baidzawi). Or it could also mean that Oh my Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم do not accept what the polytheists are saying. Thus this verse is firm and lasting.

107. And had Allah willed, they would not have committed polytheism[232]. And We have not made you a custodian over them, nor are you an advocate over them [233].

وَ لَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ مَاۤ اَشْرَكُوْا ؕ وَمَا جَعَلْنٰكَ عَلَیْهِمْ حَفِیْظًا ۚ وَ مَاۤ اَنْتَ عَلَیْهِمْ بِوَكِیْلٍ ﴿۱۰۷﴾

232. From this we learn that infidelity of the infidels is due to Allah's intention but not according to his desire. There is a big difference between intention and desire.
233. By this is meant as you are not responsible for them, as such Oh Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم you will not be failure to accept faith.

108. And do not abuse whom they worship besides Allah, because they will abuse your Lord out of spite through their excessiveness and ignorance [234]. Thus, We have made fair the deeds of every Ummah in their eyes. Then they have to return back towards their Lord, and He will tell them what they used to do.

وَ لَا تَسُبُّوا الَّذِیْنَ یَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ فَیَسُبُّوا اللّٰهَ عَدْوًۢا بِغَیْرِ عِلْمٍ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ زَیَّنَّا لِكُلِّ اُمَّةٍ عَمَلَهُمْ ۪ ثُمَّ اِلٰی رَبِّهِمْ مَّرْجِعُهُمْ فَیُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوْا یَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۸﴾

234. Muslims would talk ill about the idols of the disbelievers. They in retaliation began to do likewise about Allah Almighty. At this point in time this verse was revealed telling the Muslims not to talk evil about the idols in the presence of idol worshippers. Ibn Amhbari states that this verse is abrogated from the verses of Holy War (Jihad). When Muslims had gained sufficient strength to stop the idol worshippers from talking ill about Allah Almighty then permission for Jihad was granted (Khazin, Khazainul Irfaan). Thus the QUR'AAN itself is full of verses rebuking the devil, the idols and leaders of the Quraish. Says Allah Almighty: "Verily you and that which you worship" (S37:V161) and further it is said: "Illmannered, and moreover, his birth is faulty." (S68:V13)From this verse emerge a few issues:

1. If non essential worship becomes a means of a rebellion which would be unable to suppr ess, you should forgo that worship, because rebuking the idols is an act of worship;

2. The lecturers and the learned should not deliver such lectures which will make people so antagonistic that they would resort to violence;

3. If there is a strong fear that giving good advice to a person will result in having an opposite effect then one should refrain from it.

4. Sometimes one can lose one's faith due to one's stubborness because the infidels of Makkah believed in Allah Almighty but due to their stubborn and antagonistic attitude towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they would talk in insulting terms regarding Allah Almighty.

109. And they swear by Allah their oath [235], with utmost earnest that if there comes to them any signs then they would surely believe therein. Please declare: "The signs are with Allah" and what will make you realize is that when these signs would come, they will not believe therein [236].

وَ اَقْسَمُوْا بِاللّٰهِ جَهْدَ اَيْمَانِهِمْ لَئِنْ جَآءَتْهُمْ اٰيَةٌ لَّيُؤْمِنُنَّ بِهَا ؕ قُلْ اِنَّمَا الْاٰيٰتُ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ وَمَا يُشْعِرُكُمْ ۙ اَنَّهَآ اِذَا جَآءَتْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۹﴾

235. From this we learn that taking frequent oaths is the way of the disbelievers. Satan too had taken an oath in the presence of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace): "And he swore to them both that I am a wellwisher of you both." (S7:V21)

236. Reason for its revelation:
The infidels of Makkah once said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that though you inform us about the miracles of Hazrat Moosa, Hazrat Isa and Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) we will bring faith in you if you would show us those miraculous signs that we desire to see. To this they were told what do you desire. They said if you could change Mt Safa into gold, or if some of our dead come alive and testify to your Prophethood, or if Angels can appear before us. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم told them that if I show you some of these miracles would you accept Islam. They took an oath to do so. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then intended to offer a dua for the fulfilment of this. Just then Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) came and said: "Oh beloved of Allah! Whatever dua you shall offer would be accepted. But, if these people fail to accept Islam after what they see they would be destroyed instantly, and if they were to remain alive then perhaps some amongst them would accept Islam." Hearing this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم changed the intention of making the dua. On that occasion this verse was revealed. (Tafseer Khazin, Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan, etc.)

110. And We shall keep confounded their hearts and their eyes as they did not believe therein at the first time [237]. And We leave them to wander about blindly in their transgression.

وَنُقَلِّبُ اَفْـِٕدَتَهُمْ وَاَبْصَارَهُمْ كَمَا لَمْ يُؤْمِنُوْا بِهٖۤ اَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَّ نَذَرُهُمْ فِيْ

Marfat.com

طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُوْنَ ﴿١١٠﴾ ع ١٣ ع ١٠ ١٩

237. By this is meant that after seeing the miracles of splitting of the the moon, and returning of sun they did not declare their faith, what faith will they bring now. All these are their false promises.

SECTION 14

وَ لَوْ اَنَّنَا نَزَّلْنَآ اِلَيْهِمُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ وَ الموضح ١٤٣

كَلَّمَهُمُ الْمَوْتٰى وَحَشَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ قُبُلًا مَّا كَانُوْا لِيُؤْمِنُوْٓا اِلَّآ اَنْ يَّشَآءَ اللّٰهُ وَ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ يَجْهَلُوْنَ ﴿١١١﴾

111. nd if We had sent down [238]. angels towards them and the dead had spoken to them. And We had brought together all things before them, even then they would not believe [239]. But, if Allah would have willed [240]. But most of them are totally ignorant [241].

238. By this is meant that these infidels desired to see the angels in their external form, otherwise, the noble Companions had seen the angels in human form on numerous occassions.

239. Reason for its revelation:
The infidels would mockingly say to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that if you are a true Prophet then bring our previous dead to life who would testify to your prophethood, or bring angels who would talk to us about veracity of your prophethood. As a reply to these infidels this verse was revealed in which it is declared that even if these demands of the infidels are satisfied they would not accept Islam. They would reject these miracles by referring to their performance as an act of magic. Otherwise even the stones and sticks bore testimony about the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prophethood which was heard by the infidels yet they did not accept Islam.

240. From this we learn that propogation and miracles are not permanent guides Guidance is obtained through the grace of Allah Almighty. These things are a means to obtaining guidance e.g. use of medicines to ward of sickness. Medicine must be used but reliance for cure must be on Allah Almighty.

241. When the infidels had asked for the above mentioned miracles some Muslims too had said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should show them these miracles that these infidels may accept Islam. Allah Almighty here is explaining these Muslims that Faith is not obtained through miracles but through the grace of Allah Almighty. Observe, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had made the pebbles, stones, sticks, etc to recite the Kalimah, had brought back the sun that had already set, split the moon; despite these miracles many of those infidels had not accepted Islam. So why are you now so eagerley avid about their faith. The word 'most' is used to show that some of the infidels were the victims of misunderstanding and later became Muslims.

112. And in the like manner We have made for every Prophet an enemy, devils from among men and jinns [242], that in them one inspires the other secretly with fabricated discourse in order to deceive [243]. And had your Lord wished, they would not have done so. Therefore, leave them alone with their fabrications [244].

Marfat.com

غُرُوْرًا ؕ وَ لَوْ شَآءَ رَبُّكَ مَا فَعَلُوْهُ فَذَرْهُمْ وَ مَا يَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۲﴾

242. From this verse there is a hint that besides man and jinn every creation of Allah Almighty is subservient and obedient to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and worshippers of Allah Almighty. None from them is a disbeliever or enemy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saying the mountains keep enmity with us. The non mountains here refer to the Jewish citizens of that place viz Madina, and not the stones of that place.

243. From this we learn that any misguided person who tries to create in a person a desire for anything contrary to religion is a devil, even if he may be from one's relatives or in the garb of a learned man.

244. From this we learn that just as all the prophets had enemies so, there will be enemies of Ulama and the Saints. Any Alim who does not have any irreligious people as his enemies, is himself irreligious as he is being kind and polite to them. The Divine wisdom in this enmity is that until you don't encounter opposition you won't know your true strength. If there was no darkness nobody would have appreciated the sun. If one is not thirsty one will not appreciate water.

وَ لِتَصْغٰۤى اِلَيْهِ اَفْـِٕدَةُ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ وَ لِيَرْضَوْهُ وَ لِيَقْتَرِفُوْا مَا هُمْ مُّقْتَرِفُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۳﴾

113. And because that the hearts [245], of those who do not believe in the Hereafter may incline towards it, and that they may like it, and may earn sin that they are to earn [246]. (by such deeds).

245. By this is meant only those people would show inclination to those demands of the infidels whose faith is defective.They will tend to support them. From this we learn everyone's heart inclines in respect towards his own kind.

246. From this we learn that to support a sin is in itself an act of sin. To conceal stolen goods, to sell these, are all criminal acts.

اَفَغَيْرَ اللّٰهِ اَبْتَغِيْ حَكَمًا وَّ هُوَ الَّذِيْۤ اَنْزَلَ اِلَيْكُمُ الْكِتٰبَ مُفَصَّلًا ؕ وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰتَيْنٰهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ يَعْلَمُوْنَ اَنَّهٗ مُنَزَّلٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّكَ بِالْحَقِّ فَلَا تَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْمُمْتَرِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۴﴾

114. Then shall I seek the judgement [247], of someone other than Allah, when it is He Who has revealed towards you this detailed Book? [248], And those whom We have given the Book [249], know that it is revealed by your Lord in truth. So (O listener) then never be of those who doubt [250].

247. He makes it clear that in respect of religious orders no advise should be sought nor make anyone an arbiter. Counselling and arbitration is necessary in those matters which are not decided by religious decrees. You can seek advice and counselling in matters of your children's marriage but not in matters of Salaah and Fasting.

248. Reason for its Revelation:
The infidels of Makka had suggested to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that we should accept the Christian and Jewish priests as our arbiters who would decide who from us is on the path of truth. Their aim was to bribe these priests to give their decision in their favour. This verse was revealed on this occasion. From this we learn that it is correct to say that Oh infidels! the Holy Quraan had come to you as well, because it has come for their guidance as well.

249. By this is meant that Allah Almighty had given them the true understanding of the Heavenly Books such as people like Hazrat Abdullah ibn Salaam,etc. Or it could also mean that all the learned Alims of the People of the Book accept the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a true Prophet but due to some ulterior motives do not publically acknowledge this.

250. The truth of the matter is that those popes and priests whom these infidels are desiring to be their arbitrators are themselves accepting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a true Prophet in their hearts, though outwardly they are engaged in opposing him, or may oppose him in the future.

115. And complete is the word of your Lord in veracity and justice [251]. There is no one to change His words[252]. And He is the All Hearing, All Knowing.

وَ تَمَّتْ كَلِمَتُ رَبِّكَ صِدْقًا وَّ عَدْلًا ؕ لَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمٰتِهٖ ۚ وَ هُوَ السَّمِيْعُ الْعَلِيْمُ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

251. By ' word of your Lord' is either meant that decision of Allah Almighty which was made between the Muslims and infidels, or it could refer to all the heavenly revealed Books or the Holy QURAAN. Whatever is meant by it, its intention is clear.

252. By this is meant the Glorious Quraan is a true Book and no one has the power to alter it untill the Day of Judgement. This verse is not connected with abrogation, because in the case of abrogation no person has the authority to change the verse but in such a case Allah Almighty Himself revokes the period of that decree, just as an experienced doctor continues to change the prescription on diagnosing the difference in the medical condition of his patient. If the patient himself changes the prescription or the dosage by himself he will be committing a criminal act.

116. And (O listener) there are majority of those on earth that if you follow their sayings, they would mislead you [253]. from the way of Allah. They are only behind their imaginations [254], and they are in mere conjecture [255].

وَ اِنْ تُطِعْ اَكْثَرَ مَنْ فِى الْاَرْضِ يُضِلُّوْكَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنْ يَّتَّبِعُوْنَ اِلَّا الظَّنَّ وَ اِنْ هُمْ اِلَّا يَخْرُصُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۶﴾

253. In religious matters follow Allah and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم only. Do not follow anyone else contrary to them. To follow the learned and the jurists (Imaams) is in reality following Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because they are guiding the people on Divine decrees.

254. From this we learn to follow our ancestors is in opposition to the laws of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and is the way of life of the polytheists. By this word "imaginations" is meant their distrust

This has nothing to do with the Qiyaas (conjecture) of the jurists. Hence, the non conformists cannot obtain any proof from it for their claim.

255. By this is meant that they are through their speculation declaring things lawful or unlawful, although lawful is that which is declared such by Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and unlawful is that which is declared unlawful by Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ مَنْ يَّضِلُّ عَنْ سَبِيْلِهٖ ۚ وَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِيْنَ ﴿١١٧﴾

117. Your Lord knows well [256]. who has gone astray from His way. And He knows well the guided ones.

256. Through the information and blessings of Allah Almighty some of His beloved servants too possess the knowledge of these unseen matters just as the Holy QUR'AAN speaks of the martyrs:
"And they are rejoicing for their successors who have not yet joined them." (S3:V170) or as it is reported in the Hadith the Hooris of Jannat proclaim that this person would be returning to us; or as the Holy Prophet said that Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) is the inmate of Para dise. Hence, it becomes clear that the Hoori of Paradise as well as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are fully aware of the destiny of people, ie what end they will achieve.

فَكُلُوْا مِمَّا ذُكِرَ اسْمُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ بِاٰيٰتِهٖ مُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿١١٨﴾

118. Then eat of that on which the name of Allah has been pronounced [257], if you believe in His signs [258].

257. If at the time of slaughtering the animal it was slaughtered by reciting BISMILLAH, ALLAHO AKBAR. In the name of Allah, who is the Greatest. In addition this is also a condition that the person slaughtering should be a Muslim, or from the People of the Book. However if a polytheist or an apostate were to slaughter even by reciting BISMILLAH, the animal would not become lawful for the believers.
258. Reason for its revelation:
The polytheists were blabbing that the Muslims regard animals slaughtered by them as lawful yet they regard those animals as unlawful which are slaughtered for our gods (idols). In reply to their babbling this verse was revealed. in which Allah Almighty states that any animal that is slaughtered in Allah's name is lawful,and that which is not slaughterd in His name is unlawful. From this we learn that to regard lawful animals as unlawful is infidelity.

وَ مَا لَكُمْ أَلَّا تَأْكُلُوْا مِمَّا ذُكِرَ اسْمُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ وَ قَدْ فَصَّلَ لَكُمْ مَّا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْكُمْ إِلَّا مَا اضْطُرِرْتُمْ إِلَيْهِ ؕ وَ إِنَّ كَثِيْرًا لَّيُضِلُّوْنَ بِأَهْوَآئِهِمْ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ ؕ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُعْتَدِيْنَ ﴿١١٩﴾

119. And what had happened to you that you should not eat [259]. out of that on which the name of Allah has been pronounced. He has explained to you in detail [260]. what is forbidden to you. But when you are compelled [261]. to it. And surely many mislead others by their own desires without knowing [262]. Surely, your Lord knows well the transgressors [263].

259. It is evident that if Baheerah and Saaibah are slaughtered in the name of Allah Almighty they are lawful. Similar is the case with the calves of the Hindus which are set aside on the names of the idols. Thus the cow which is slaughtered on the occasion of Giyarwie Shareef too is lawful and sacred because it is slaughterd in the name of Allah Almighty.
260. From this we learn that according to the law unlawful matters are always described in detail, and that which is not declared unlawful is lawful. Says Allah Almighty: "Say you, I find not in what has been revealed to me any meal forbidden." (S6:V145)
261. It becomes evident that if there is a danger of losing one's life it is lawful to eat unlawful meat as is absolutely neccessary for this purpose.

262. By 'without knowing' is meant that those people regard Baheera and Saaibah, animals which are left aside on the names of the idols, as unlawful but those animals which are slaughtered in the name of those besides Allah Almighty or those arrivals which die a natural death as lawful. Yet the actual position is the opposite. Thus do not pay heed to these ignorant people.

263. In this verse those people are dreadfully warned who are giving wrong verdicts on matters concerning lawful and the unlawful due to their lack of knowledge or their own opinions. Molvi Rashid Ahmed Gangohi has stated that the Sharbet drinking water provided for people in the month of Muharram for the sake of Hazrat Imaam Hussain (May Allah be pleased with him) as unlawful, yet he has declared the Diwali sweet meats of the Hindus as lawful. This verse is thus a warning to such misguided Ulama.

120.And leave the apparent and secret sins [264]. Those who commit sins, soon they will get punishment for what they are earning [265].

264. By this is meant do not commit a sin publically or in private. Fear Allah under every condition and situation. It can also mean do not commit physical sins, nor of the mind, intention or desire.

265. By 'soon get punishment' is meant punishment on the battlefield of Badr, or at the time of death, or on the Day of Judgement.

121. And eat not that over which the name of Allah has not been pronounced [266], for surely that is disobedience. And indeed the devils [267], inspire their friends that they may quarrel [268]. with you. And if you obey them, then indeed you are polytheists[269].

وَ لَا تَاْكُلُوْا مِمَّا لَمْ يُذْكَرِ اسْمُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ وَاِنَّهٗ لَفِسْقٌ ؕ وَ اِنَّ الشَّيٰطِيْنَ لَيُوْحُوْنَ اِلٰۤى اَوْلِيٰٓـئِهِمْ لِيُجَادِلُوْكُمْ ۚ وَ اِنْ اَطَعْتُمُوْهُمْ اِنَّكُمْ لَمُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۱﴾ ع ۱۴

266. From this it becomes evident if a Muslim genuinely forgets to recite Bismillah at the time of slaughtering, the animal will be lawful to eat because the words used here are "not pronounced" which signify intentionally forgetting to pronounce the name of Allah Almighty. Both of those would render the animal unlawful.

267. To slaughter an animal in the name of anyone besides Allah Almighty is indeed disobedience, or to regard an animal slaughtered in Allah's name as unlawful is transgression and obedience of Satan which can take you to polytheism.

268. This makes it evident that to enter into an argument on religious matters without possessing knowledge, or to enter into a debate with the intention of picking up quarrel is the work of Satanic people. However, debating for the pupose of establishing the truth is an act of worship.Says Allah Almighty: "And argue with them in a way that is best." (S16:V125)

269. He who commits polytheism is a polytheist and those who keep ties with them on a basis of religion are polytheists, while those who bear religious enmity with Muslims are also polytheists and infidels.

SECTION 15

122. And will he who was dead, then We gave him life and made for him a light [270], by which he walks among mankind, become like that who is in darkness [271], from which he is not to come out. Thus, in the eyes of the infidels their deeds have been made fair looking [272].

اَوَ مَنْ كَانَ مَيْتًا فَاَحْيَيْنٰهُ وَ جَعَلْنَا لَهٗ
نُوْرًا يَّمْشِیْ بِهٖ فِی النَّاسِ كَمَنْ مَّثَلُهٗ فِی
الظُّلُمٰتِ لَیْسَ بِخَارِجٍ مِّنْهَا ؕ كَذٰلِكَ
زُیِّنَ لِلْكٰفِرِیْنَ مَا كَانُوْا یَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۲﴾

270. This makes it clear that Faith is life and infidelity is death as this renders the soul dead. Hence, in the verse: "Therefore you make not the deaf to hear" (S30:V52) reference is made to the infidels.

271. Light is described in the singular and darkness in the plural to show that guidance is one but infidelity is of diverse types. The reason of revelation of this complete verse is : Once Abu Jahal threw dust on the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم which caused discomfort to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Hazrat Hamzah had gone out hunting. On returning when he heard of this he angrily went upto Abu Jahal to punish him. As he was to tear Abu Jahal's gullet with his bow, Abu Jahal pleadingly said that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is constantly deriding our idols, yet you are maintaining silence. Hazrat Hamzah replied who is more foolish than you who makes deities from stones then worship his own creation. Saying this Hazrat Hamzah went to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and accepted Islam. On that occassion this verse was revealed.

272. From this we learn that the sinful believer always despises the sin and this conviction keeps him as a believer. On the other hand an infidel becomes happy at his evil deeds and is proud about them as a result of which he is not worthy of forgiveness. Reason for its revelation: This verse was revealed concerning Hazrat Hamza and Abu Jahal. Ameer Hamza had accepted Islam but Abu Jahal remained an infidel. Hence, the two are not equal. The same is the opinion of Hazrat Abdullah Ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with them).

123. And thus We have made in each town the leaders of the guilty [273], so that they may devise a plot therein. And they plot not but against their own souls, and they perceive not [274].

وَ كَذٰلِكَ جَعَلْنَا فِیْ كُلِّ قَرْیَةٍ اَكٰبِرَ
مُجْرِمِیْهَا لِیَمْكُرُوْا فِیْهَا ؕ وَمَا یَمْكُرُوْنَ
اِلَّا بِاَنْفُسِهِمْ وَ مَا یَشْعُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۳﴾

273. From this is understood that the misguidance of the leaders can cause destruction of their people. Says Allah Almighty: "And when We intend to destroy any town....We destroy it with complete ruination." (S17:V16) Likewise the reformation of it's leaders can reform the people. Furthermore, the poor are more inclined towards religion, while the wealthy are usually more engrossed in sinful activities.

274. The infidels of Makkah guarded all four roads of the city to prevent any person from coming to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Despite their effort and explanation uninformed people would come to know about the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and were happily becoming Muslims. Mention is made about such people in this verse, that despite the deception of these wicked people of preventing innocent people from coming in contact with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they were not succeeding in stopping the spreading of Islam. It was beyond them to understand that their effort was giving greater impetus to the cause of Islam.

وَ اِذَا جَآءَتْهُمْ اٰيَةٌ قَالُوْا لَنْ نُّؤْمِنَ حَتّٰى نُؤْتٰى مِثْلَ مَآ اُوْتِيَ رُسُلُ اللّٰهِ ؕ اَللّٰهُ اَعْلَمُ حَيْثُ يَجْعَلُ رِسَالَتَهٗ ؕ سَيُصِيْبُ الَّذِيْنَ اَجْرَمُوْا صَغَارٌ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ وَ عَذَابٌ شَدِيْدٌ ۢ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَمْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۴﴾

124. And when any sign comes to them, then they say: "We shall never believe unless we receive the like of what has been given to the Messengers of Allah [275]. Allah knows well where to place His Messengers" [276]. Soon the guilty ones will receive humiliation before Allah and a severe punishment for their plotting [277].

275. From this we learn selection for the prophethood is from Allah Almigty and is not obtained from one's deeds, strength or wealth. Just as there is a special box to keep a jewel so is there a specially chosen chest for prophethood. Furthermore, one learns that it is forbidden to offer prayer or desire for prophethood because there should be no dua made for something impossible to obtain. Now for any one to become a prophet is just as impossible for anyone to become partner with Allah. The last brick of the palace of prophethood is already placed in position.

276. Reason for its revelation: Walied bin Mughiera claimed that if prophethood is true then I am its worthy candidate because in age and wealth I am more superior to the Holy Prophet . In reply Allah Almighty revealed this verse. " What has been given" refers to the Divine Revelation and miracles i.e. prophethood.

277. It becomes clear that those who plot against the prophets themselves become disgraced and destroyed. This has been and is being experienced. The Wahabis should take a lesson from this. Similarily service to Allah's Religion is a means of obtaining respect in this world and in the Hereafter.

فَمَنْ يُّرِدِ اللّٰهُ اَنْ يَّهْدِيَهٗ يَشْرَحْ صَدْرَهٗ لِلْاِسْلَامِ ۚ وَ مَنْ يُّرِدْ اَنْ يُّضِلَّهٗ يَجْعَلْ صَدْرَهٗ ضَيِّقًا حَرَجًا كَاَنَّمَا يَصَّعَّدُ فِي السَّمَآءِ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ يَجْعَلُ اللّٰهُ الرِّجْسَ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۵﴾

125. And whomsoever Allah wishes to show the way, He opens his heart for Islam [278], and whomsoever wishes to lose his way, He makes his heart narrow, straitened. Well as if he is climbing up into the sky [279], forced by someone else. And thus Allah inflicts punishment on those who do not believe [280].

278. It is reported in the Hadith that by opening the breast is meant that Light(Noor) which is placed in the breast of the believer which enables the heart to be receptive for Faith. There are three signs of those: Dislike for the world, inclination towards the Hereafter, preparation for death before it comes (May Allah Almighty grant us this). From this one learns that Faith is obtained through Divine guidance.

Marfat.com

279. From this one learns that religious work seems burdensome while worldly affairs feel light and easy. Tightness is the sign of the chest and a tight chest means causes of infidelity begin to gather in it, and it is unable to provide motives for faith. May Allah Almighty protect us from this. Upon some, faith becomes unbearable. Remember that this does not necessarily mean a person is compelled to commit infidelity, but whatever infidelity and transgression he commits is done by his own will. This condition is inculcated in his heart due to his transgression and evil habits. An example of this is destruction of the iron caused by rust.

280. From this one learns that the severity of the heart is a punishment of Allah Almighty which results from one's evil deeds. The punishment of the Hereafter would be as a result of this.

126. And this is the Straight Path [281], of your Lord. We have explained the signs in detail for the people accepting admonition.

وَ هٰذَا صِرَاطُ رَبِّكَ مُسْتَقِيْمًا ؕ قَدْ فَصَّلْنَا الْاٰيٰتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَّذَّكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۶﴾

281. By 'Straight Path of Your Lord' is either meant the Holy QUR'AAN or the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. It is that path which will take you to Allah Almighty with ease, just as a straight road will take you to your destination. Hence, this is called Shariat or a broad and straight path which everyone can tread without any difficulty. TAREEQAT Mystic way of life, too is the path towards Allah Almighty, but this is so narrow and intricate that only he can tread upon it who has the knowledge about it. Shariat, 'outward law' is the general road while 'TAREEQAT' is its alleys and side streets; that through Shariat one obtains his goal slowly but with Tareeqat the goal is achieved speedily. However Shariat is for the common people while Tareeqat is for the selected people.

127. For them is the home of peace (safety) with their Lord. And He is their Protector. This is the fruit of their good doings [282].

لَهُمْ دَارُ السَّلٰمِ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَهُوَ وَلِيُّهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۷﴾

282. From this emerge a few issues:

1. The inmates of Paradise are owners of their Paradise, and not mere visitors therein as is indicated by the preposition 'for' in the word 'for them'.
2. Their ownership is for today and eternally thereafter as indicated by the entire content.
3. All forms of peace and security will be provided in Paradise. Illness, death, fear of anyone will not be experienced therein. For this reason it is referred to as Place of Safety.
4. Good deeds are a means of obtaining Paradise as is indicated by the preposition 'with' in the word 'with which.' However this is the normal order. Otherwise a demented person, a minor and a new convert to Islam who dies immediately after accepting Islam will enter Paradise without having performed any good deeds, on the other hand, we sinners have a share in the pure and pious deeds of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In the wealth of a generous person is a share for the beggars. Says Allah Almighty:"And those in whose wealth there is a known right for one who asks...." (S70:V24 & 25)

128. And the day He will raise all of them [283] and will say: "O company of jinn [284]!You have gathered many men". And their associates among them will say: "O our Lord! We made use of one another [285], and we have reached the term You have determined [286]. for us". He will say: "Fire is your abode, abide therein forever, but as Allah wills" [287]. O Beloved Prophet! Surely your Lord is All Wise, All Knowing.

وَ يَوْمَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ جَمِيْعًا ۚ يٰمَعْشَرَ الْجِنِّ قَدِ اسْتَكْثَرْتُمْ مِّنَ الْاِنْسِ ۚ وَ قَالَ

283. On the Day of Judgement all will first be raised together, thus it is called YAUMUL HASHR or Day of Resurrection; then the good will be gleaned and pruned from the evil, thus it is called YAUMUL FASL or Day of Reckoning. By raising everybody means Allah will raise the believers and non believers together, or man and jinn together or the good and wicked together.

284. This is addressed to those rebellious jinns who had misled and deceived human beings. The believing jinns will be mercy from Allah Almighty. From this we learn that jinns create evil ventures and hazards in the hearts of man, guide them towards evil, especially the devil and his progeny.

285. By this is meant man derived benefits from jinns i.e. these jinns showed the evil path and made their deception easier for the evil doers to follow and jinns derived benefit from the human beings, in that man worshipped them. Thus by benefit is meant benefit of this world which in reality is ruination.

286. The word 'term' refers to death or Qiyamah. Time for every individuals death is determined separately, while Qiyamah signifies everybody's time. Hence, the use of 'for us' is most appropriate.

287. By this is meant those infidels whose faith has come within the ambit of Divine Will will not go to Jahannam because they will die as believers. This does not in any way mean that some infidels will after being placed into Hell be taken out of it.

129. And thus We set the cruel one against the other in lieu of what they have done [288].

وَكَذٰلِكَ نُوَلِّيْ بَعْضَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ بَعْضًا بِمَا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۹﴾ ع

288. From this emerge a few issues:

1. The appointment or establishment of a cruel ruler is a punishment of Allah Almighty. Yazid did not conquer Imaam Husain (May Allah be pleased with him) but it was the other way round. The government of the evil Yazid was cut to shreds; just as Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) overpowered the Pharoah and Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) overpowered Namrood.
2. The tyrannical ruler comes into power because of our evil doings.
3. If you desire good rulers then do good deeds.

had come from jinns but from humans. From this we learn that previous prophets were for jinns as well but our Holy Prophet is a prophet for all the jinns.

290. The infidels will in the first instance deny the propagation of the prophets but after the testimony of their own limbs regarding the matter they will have no option but to accept it, Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

289. Only human beings are prophets. Says Allah Almighty: "And We sent not before you any but men to whom we reveal." (S16:V43)Because both humans and jinns are being addressed here the words 'From you' refers to human beings to show this domination of man over jinn, like Allah Almighty says in the QUR'AAN: "There comes out from them pearl and the coral." (S55:V22) although pearls and coral come from salty oceans. However, this does not prove that prophets

ذٰلِكَ اَنْ لَّمْ يَكُنْ رَّبُّكَ مُهْلِكَ الْقُرٰى
بِظُلْمٍ وَّ اَهْلُهَا غٰفِلُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۱﴾

131. This is so because your Lord destroys not the town unjustly [291], while their people are unaware [292].

if propagation of prophets had not reached him. Thus the deceased minor children of the polytheists will not be sent into Hell. Similarly the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم parents and those who died on the Unity of Allah Almighty prior to the propagation of Islam will not be sent into Hell. This is the established law for the punishment in this world and for the Hereafter. Calamities are not a punishment for children and pious people but a mercy of Allah.

291. The accountability from man on the Day of Judgement will take place not because Allah Almighty is not aware about the deeds of man, but just as punishment in the world does not come on the ignorant, in the Hereafter too the criminals and sinners will be proven guilty of their crimes and sins and then punished.

292. In this verse two issues are dealt with:

1. Allah Almighty does not send down punishment without evil doings of man.
2. No person will be punished for evil doings

وَ لِكُلٍّ دَرَجٰتٌ مِّمَّا عَمِلُوْا ؕ وَ مَا
رَبُّكَ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۲﴾

132. And for one there are degrees in accordance with their deeds [293]. And your Lord is not unaware of their actions.

deeds are varied. One type of deed is a source of obtaining added rewards for one and less for the other. It is reported in the Hadith that on the Day of Qiyamah man will be rewarded for his good deeds in accordance with the capacity

293. By this is meant the inmates of Paradise will be rewarded with different ranks in Paradise according to their deeds.
The same is the case with the inmates of Hell. This could also mean the rewards of good of one's itelligence. Thus thousands of issues can be extracted and deduced from this verse. The rewards, place, time, opportunity, need are varied in accordance with the nature of the need. Where there are more Masjids and less wells, the more effective and beneficial thing would be to provide more wells.

133.And (O Beloved Prophet) Your Lord is SelfSufficient, Merciful. O mankind! If He wills, He may take you away and bring some others whom He wills in your place, just as He created you from the offspring of other people [294].

وَ رَبُّكَ الْغَنِیُّ ذُوالرَّحْمَةِ ؕ اِنْ یَّشَاْ یُذْهِبْكُمْ وَ یَسْتَخْلِفْ مِنْۢ بَعْدِكُمْ مَّا یَشَآءُ كَمَاۤ اَنْشَاَكُمْ مِّنْ ذُرِّیَّةِ قَوْمٍ اٰخَرِیْنَ ﴿۱۳۳﴾

294. By 'He may take you away' is meant He could send down punishment on you to destroy you and bring others to own your land. Observe, Abu Jahl was destroyed and owner-ship of his land was given to others. This could also mean you would die on the completion of your time and you would be replaced by your offspring. The fact of the matter is the world and its possessions are transitory and one should not depend on them.

134.Undoubtedly, what is promised to you [295] is sure to come and you cannot get frustrated.

295. Death, Qiyamah or that punishment which is prophesised by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will most certainly take place, but on their prescribed time. Do not be misled in their delay, instead acquire means to protect yourselves from them, because Allah Almighty is neither helpless nor does He give false information, nor is man powerful to enter into confrontation with Allah Almighty to save himself from Him. Therefore avoid confron-tation and fear Allah.

135.Please declare: "O my people! You continue doing your business in your places. I will do my work" [296]. Now, you wish to know who has the ultimate abode [297]? Surely, the unjust do not prosper.

قُلْ یٰقَوْمِ اعْمَلُوْا عَلٰی مَكَانَتِكُمْ اِنِّیْ عَامِلٌ ۚ فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۙ مَنْ تَكُوْنُ لَهٗ عَاقِبَةُ الدَّارِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا یُفْلِحُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۵﴾

296. In this there is no permission for infidelity or sin, instead this is used for an expression of wrath. Says Allah Almigthy: "Then whoso will, let him believe, and whoso will, let him disbelieve."(S18:V29).

297. Even today too the decision is that a believer is an inmate of Paradise and the infidel is an inmate of Hell, but the practical translation of this decision will take place on the Day of Judgement or at the time of any coming punishment. The latter is meant here.

136. And whatever Allah has produced from the crops by tillage and created cattle, they say: "This is for Allah, according to their fancy, and this is for our associates [298]". Then that which is of their associates does not reach God [299], and that which is for God reaches their associates. What an evil judgement they assign [300].

وَ جَعَلُوْا لِلّٰهِ مِمَّا ذَرَاَ مِنَ الْحَرْثِ وَ الْاَنْعَامِ نَصِیْبًا فَقَالُوْا هٰذَا لِلّٰهِ

بِزَعْمِهِمْ وَهٰذَا لِشُرَكَآئِنَا ۚ فَمَا كَانَ لِشُرَكَآئِهِمْ فَلَا يَصِلُ اِلَى اللّٰهِ ۚ وَ مَا كَانَ لِلّٰهِ فَهُوَ يَصِلُ اِلٰى شُرَكَآئِهِمْ ؕ سَآءَ مَا يَحْكُمُوْنَ ﴿١٣٦﴾

298. In this there is a hint that whatever offering the polytheists make in the name of their idols is null and void, and their condition of offering is unsound and unacceptable because the Holy Quraan has declared all of them in "according to their fancies" and therefore nullified them.

299. Here the evil doings of the infidels are being mentioned. Firstly whatever charities they took out from their produce they would take one portion for Allah and the other for their idols; secondly while dividing if any part fell in the portion of the idols they would not remove it. The Arab infidels would spend the portion taken out in Allah's name on visitors and beggars, and the portion of the idols was spent on themselves and their slaves. This type of charity and decision of the infidels was a senseless exercise. Remember, that to take out a portion of your wealth for the purpose of Giyarwie Shareef, Khatam Shareef etc is not included in the above because all this charity is for Allah and a means of conveying rewards to those souls. This is proven from the Quraan and Hadith.Says Allah Almighty: "And regard what they spend as approaches to Allah and a means of taking blessings of the Messenger. (S9:V99). Hazrat Said (may Allah be pleased with him) had dug a well in his mother's name and called it "Well of Said's mother". It is polytheism to take out wealth in the name of idols because this leads to equality with Allah Almighty. However you can do this in the name of the pious sages of Allah as this is a charity in the name of Allah Almighty. Further, remember, that the infidels of Arabia worshipped Allah as a bigger deity and the idols as smaller deities, both physically and materially. In this verse material worship of theirs is being mentioned with regard to their produce. It should also be remembered that the wheat and other grain which is set aside in the name of the idols will not become unlawful because only that animal will become unlawful which is slaughtered on any other name besides the name of Allah Almighty. Thus whatever possession of the infidels which were taken as war booty by the Noble Companions were put to use by them without distinguishing which of these were set aside in the name of idols.

300. Here, Allah Almighty has expressed displeasure at their above deeds but did not declare these things as unlawful. From this we learn that the portion of the produce which these infidels had taken out in the name of the idols did not become unlawful, but their act of doing this is polytheism though the thing used for it is lawful e.g. the setting aside of Baheera, Saaibah animals is polytheism but those animals are lawful. They can be consumed by slaughtering them in the name of Allah Almighty

وَ كَذٰلِكَ زَيَّنَ لِكَثِيْرٍ مِّنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ قَتْلَ اَوْلَادِهِمْ شُرَكَآؤُهُمْ لِيُرْدُوْهُمْ وَ لِيَلْبِسُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ دِيْنَهُمْ ؕ وَ لَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ مَا فَعَلُوْهُ فَذَرْهُمْ وَمَا يَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿١٣٧﴾

137. And thus their associates have made to appear fair the killing of their offspring [301], in the eyes of many polytheists, so that they may kill them and may confuse them in their religion[302]. And had Allah willed, they would not have done so. Therefore, you leave them, for they are [303], with their fabrications [304].

Marfat.com

301. These infidels had maintained their decision with their children as well by preserving their sons and burying their daughters alive. All this was done due to the misguidance of their leaders. In addition, these people would take a vow of slaughtering some of their children, just as Hazrat Abdul Muttalib had taken a vow of slaughtering Hazrat Abdullah.

302. By this is meant they were first steadfast on the Religion of Hazrat Ismail (on whom be peace). Then Satan led them astray from it and they became engrossed in polytheism, thinking that this was the Religion of Hazrat Ismail (on whom be peace).

303. Here the word 'willed' signifies intended and not desired. To desire is called RAZA or approval. Remember, that whatever is happening in the world is happening through the will of Allah Almighty, but He is only pleased with the piety and not with the evil. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse.

304. This does not mean that you should not propogate to them. Propogation will be made till the very end. What it means that you should not be saddened by their infidelity and polytheism. Do not be disheartened by their action. It could also mean that you should not do what they are doing. In that case the verse would be addressed to general Muslims, because the Holy Prohet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had always their action from the beginning.

138. And they said: "This cattle and crops are forbidden [305], only those could cut them whom We accept". So they have false notions [306]. And there are some cattle over which riding is forbidden [307], and some cattle over which they do not pronounce the name of Allah at the time of slaughtering. This is all to assert a lie against [308]. Allah. Soon, He will give the award for their fabrication.

وَ قَالُوْا هٰذِهٖۤ اَنْعَامٌ وَّ حَرْثٌ حِجْرٌ ۖ لَّا
يَطْعَمُهَاۤ اِلَّا مَنْ نَّشَآءُ بِزَعْمِهِمْ وَ اَنْعَامٌ
حُرِّمَتْ ظُهُوْرُهَا وَ اَنْعَامٌ لَّا يَذْكُرُوْنَ
اسْمَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهَا افْتِرَآءً عَلَيْهِ ؕ
سَيَجْزِيْهِمْ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۸﴾

305. From this we learn that what the infidels had said, did not make their produce fields unlawful. In fact whatever produce they had set aside for their idols too remained lawful. Otherwise such anger would not have been expressed on them in this verse.

306. Thus from whatever produced they had dedicated to their idols, they were distributing to worshippers and workers of their idol temple.

307. Such animals were called by these idolators as BAAHERAH, SAAIBAH,HAAMI which they would set free in the name of their idols as Hindus abandon their bulls and some of the present day Rafzis abandon their horses which they would not use for riding or for any other purpose. Presently this sickness is spreading in the Gujrat district where some ignorant people are abandoning a horse in the name of Hazrat Imam Hussain (may Allah be pleased with him) which is only used in the month of Muharram for the purpose of procession and at the time of beating and pounding the chest.

308. In this, some evil acts of the infidels are being mentioned:

1.1 To endow or dedicate their produce fields to their idols;

1.2 To feed their produce to males and not for females;

1.3 Only the caretakers of their idols were permitted to eat this income;

2. To abandon and set aside animals in the name of their idols, e.g. BAAHERAH, SAAIBAH,etc, not to use them for any work nor remove them from the fields. Both these are polytheism but to eat these was not forbidden., therefore the Companions on the Battlefields would capture these and make use of them. 3.Slaughter animals in the name of their idols. This too is an act of idolatry, and eating such animals is totally forbidden because it is part of "animal that has been slaughtered by calling a name other than Allah"(S2:V173).

139. And they say: "Whatever is in the bellies of these cattle solely belongs to our males and is forbidden to our females. And if it were born dead, then all of them are partners therein [309]. Soon Allah will award them for their actions. Surely, He is Most Wise, All Knowing.

وَقَالُوْا مَا فِيْ بُطُوْنِ هٰذِهِ الْاَنْعَامِ
خَالِصَةٌ لِّذُكُوْرِنَا وَمُحَرَّمٌ عَلٰٓى اَزْوَاجِنَا ۚ
وَ اِنْ يَّكُنْ مَّيْتَةً فَهُمْ فِيْهِ شُرَكَآءُ ؕ
سَيَجْزِيْهِمْ وَصْفَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّهٗ حَكِيْمٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۱۳۹﴾

309. The infidels of Arabia believed that if the baby of BAHEERA, SAIBAH, she camel, was born alive it should be eaten by men only, but if it was still born it could be eaten by both men and women. This evil belief of theirs is being mentioned in this verse for which they are sternly reprimanded.

140. Undoubtedly, those who kill their offspring [310], by their foolishness and ignorance [311], are ruined [312], and make unlawful what Allah has provided for them, forging a lie against Allah [313]. Indeed, they have strayed and have not adopted the correct way [314].

قَدْ خَسِرَ الَّذِيْنَ قَتَلُوْٓا اَوْلَادَهُمْ سَفَهًا
بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَّحَرَّمُوْا مَا رَزَقَهُمُ اللّٰهُ
افْتِرَآءً عَلَى اللّٰهِ ؕ قَدْ ضَلُّوْا وَمَا
كَانُوْا مُهْتَدِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۰﴾

310. Reason for its revelation:
It was a common practice of the Rabeeah and Muzir tribes to kill their girls and preserve their boys. Other tribes would kill their boys as well. This verse was revealed regarding them. Such barbaric practice is a means of destruction of this world and the Hereafter. How foolish: that cats and dogs were kept in their care but their own children were being destroyed.
311. From this we learn once life is bequeathed in the foetus it is forbidden to abort it, as this too is infanticide. Prior to this stage it is permitted out of necessity.(RADDUL MUKHTAR)
312. From this we learn that the original in every instance serves as a permission because Allah Almighty has created everything as a means of sustenance for us. From these those which he declared as unlawful are forbidden and those which He declared as lawful or maintained silence over them are lawful. Says Allah Almighty: "He created for you all that is in the earth." (S2:V29)

313. It is thus evident that to regard the produce fields and animals left in the name of the idols is false and a slander against Allah Almighty. They are lawful because to regard them as forbidden is declared by Allah Almighty as "forging a lie against Allah".
314. By this is meant those faithless people who regard their sins as caused by Divine approval and infidelity and idolatary as a means of success cannot come towards guidance. Guidance is obtained through fear of Allah Almighty. Instead of fear they are hoping for success in these matters.

SECTION 17

141. And it is He Who has produced gardens [315], with creepers intercropssing, trimmed and untrimmed, and date palms and crops, which are various kinds of food and olives and pomegranates similar in some respects and dissimilar in other respects. Eat of their fruits [316], when such fruit are plucked, and pay their dues on the day of harvesting [317]. And spend not wastefully. Surely, those who spend wastefully are not liked by Him [318].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیۡۤ اَنۡشَاَ جَنّٰتٍ مَّعۡرُوۡشٰتٍ وَّ غَیۡرَ مَعۡرُوۡشٰتٍ وَّ النَّخۡلَ وَ الزَّرۡعَ مُخۡتَلِفًا اُکُلُهٗ وَ الزَّیۡتُوۡنَ وَالرُّمَّانَ مُتَشَابِهًا وَّ غَیۡرَ مُتَشَابِهٍ ؕ کُلُوۡا مِنۡ ثَمَرِهٖۤ اِذَاۤ اَثۡمَرَ وَ اٰتُوۡا حَقَّهٗ یَوۡمَ حَصَادِهٖ ۪ وَ لَا تُسۡرِفُوۡا ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا یُحِبُّ الۡمُسۡرِفِیۡنَ ۙ﴿۱۴۱﴾

315. By this is meant some are creeping plants and some trees e.g. muskmelons, watermelons, etc or mango trees, tangerine trees etc. Among them some bear similarity with others in colour and smell e.g. pomergranate and olive, others have no similarities or resemblance.

316. By this is meant due to your foolishness do not regard their fruit as forbidden as they are lawful. It could also mean that it is not piety to make tasty juicy fruit which is lawful as unlawful unto oneself, true piety is abstention from that which is forbidden.

317. This verse is a strong proof of Hazrat Imaam Abu Hanifa (May Allah be pleased with him) that there is Zakaat on every produce, whether it be more or less, whether their fruit, remain for a year or not because Allah Almighty has mentioned this without any limitation. Through the words "pay the due on the day of harvesting" Allah Almighty has made it clear that unlike gold and silver, the produce for the purpose of Zakaat need not to be in possession of the owner for a year. Immediately on harvesting payment for Zakaat becomes obligatory. It should be remembered that grain from the fields can remain for a year but the fruit from the gardens will not. Here it is collectively stated to pay Zakaat on the produce.

318. Spending on unlawful things is included in improper and wasteful expenditure. Therefore washing the parts four times in wudhu instead of thrice would be regarded as wasted action.

142. And of the cattle, some are for carrying the burden and some are for lying on earth (too small) [319]. Eat of what Allah has provided for you and do not follow the footsteps of the devil [320]. Surely, he is your open enemy.

وَ مِنَ الۡاَنۡعَامِ حَمُوۡلَةً وَّ فَرۡشًا ؕ کُلُوۡا مِمَّا رَزَقَکُمُ اللّٰهُ وَ لَا تَتَّبِعُوۡا خُطُوٰتِ الشَّیۡطٰنِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَکُمۡ عَدُوٌّ مُّبِیۡنٌ ۙ﴿۱۴۲﴾

319. Goods are loaded on cattle, while chicken, goats, sheep are lying on earth both of them are lawful for consumption.

320 .From this we learn that to regard some animals as unlawful for consumption without any proof is following the devil. Those which Allah Almighty has not made forbidden are lawful. Thus if animals and produce fields left aside in the name of idols came into Muslim hands through lawful means are lawful for eating. If the water of the Ganges and the flesh of the cow is not forbidden, though they are

143. He has created eight males and females [321]: one pair of sheep and one pair of goats. Please declare: "Has He made both males unlawful, or both females [322], or that which the wombs of two females contain? Inform by any knowledge [323], if you are truthful 324".

ثَمٰنِيَةَ اَزْوَاجٍ ۚ مِنَ الضَّاْنِ اثْنَيْنِ وَ
مِنَ الْمَعْزِ اثْنَيْنِ ؕ قُلْ ءٰٓالذَّكَرَيْنِ

كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۳﴾

321. Of the offspring of camels, sheep, cattle, goats which are in pairs would you regard the male unlawful, their female lawful or are both unlawful. If so what proof do you have for such claim. Mention of them is being made in the next verse.

322. This means that Allah Almighty has neither made the male nor the female offspring of sheep and goats as unlawful. It is you who at times make these unlawful at different times. This is mischiemongering on your part.

323.Here by knowledge is meant knowledge based on absolute certainty which is opposite to conjecture and doubt. Thus we learn that for unlawfulness conjecture is not sufficient, certainty is required.

144. And a pair of camels and a pair of cattle. Please declare: "Has He made both males unlawful or both females (unlawful) or that which the wombs [325], of both females contain? Were you present when Allah gave you the order [326]?" Then who is more unjust than one who forges a lie against Allah that he may misguide the people with his ignorance? Surely, Allah does not show the path to the unjust [327].

وَ مِنَ الْاِبِلِ اثْنَيْنِ وَ مِنَ الْبَقَرِ اثْنَيْنِ ؕ
قُلْ ءٰٓالذَّكَرَيْنِ حَرَّمَ اَمِ الْاُنْثَيَيْنِ اَمَّا
اشْتَمَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ اَرْحَامُ الْاُنْثَيَيْنِ ؕ اَمْ
كُنْتُمْ شُهَدَآءَ اِذْ وَصّٰىكُمُ اللّٰهُ بِهٰذَا ۚ
فَمَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا
لِّيُضِلَّ النَّاسَ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا
يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۴﴾

325. Reason for its revelation:
Once Malik bin Auf Jashamy came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and said that it idols of the polytheists, then how would their connection to these make them forbidden.

324. This means that if you accept these animals to be unlawful and if you are true in your claim then produce a conclusive and categorical proof to substantiate its unlawfulness. Thus the plaintiff will not be required to produce proof of its lawfulness but it would be incumbent upon the claimant to substantiate the proof for its unlawfulness. Today the Wahabis demand of us to produce a proof for the lawfulness of what we believe to be lawful while they themselves fail to substantiate any proof for the unlawfulness of these things. This is against the principles of the Holy QUR'AAN. Observe, Allah Almighty demanded proof for accepting those animals as unlawful.

has come to my notice that you are prohibiting from doing things which our forefathers had done. In reply the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said that Allah Almighty had created eight types of male and female species lawful for man to eat from which you have declared some to be unlawful without any proof. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم further asked whether the species which are regarded as unlawful are on account of their being male or female! Malik Bin Auf was taken aback as he had no reply to this question. This verse was revealed in its corroboration.(Khazainul Irfaan)

326. This means that since Allah Almighty did not give a direct command, nor has its unlawfulness been informed through any prophet, then what other proof is there by you to declare those animals as unlawful? Hence, this claim of yours is totally false and baseless, anyone who makes false accusations against Allah Almighty he is the biggest tyrant, misleading the innocent people. The Wahabies should take a lesson from these verses who are declaring lawful things as unlawful without any proof.

327. This means that as long as the wicked person remains wicked Allah Almighty will not guide him on the Straight Path. But when the time of his guidance would come he will no longer remain wicked. Or it could also mean an infidel does not obtain guidance to rectify his evil deeds. The path of righteousness will only come after acceptance of faith.

قُلْ لَّآ اَجِدُ فِيْ مَآ اُوْحِيَ اِلَيَّ مُحَرَّمًا عَلٰى طَاعِمٍ يَّطْعَمُهٗٓ اِلَّآ اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ مَيْتَةً اَوْ دَمًا مَّسْفُوْحًا اَوْ لَحْمَ خِنْزِيْرٍ فَاِنَّهٗ رِجْسٌ اَوْ فِسْقًا اُهِلَّ لِغَيْرِ اللّٰهِ بِهٖ ۚ فَمَنِ اضْطُرَّ غَيْرَ بَاغٍ وَّلَا عَادٍ فَاِنَّ رَبَّكَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿١٤٥﴾

145. Please declare: "I do not find in what has been revealed to me any food has been made forbidden [328], to any eater, except that it be of a dead body [329], or flowing blood [330], or the flesh of forbidden swine [331], for that is dirty, or an animal of disobedience in slaughtering on which the name other than Allah has been pronounced [332]. Then whoso is driven by necessity neither willing himself nor exceeding beyond the necessity. Then, undoubtedly, Allah is Most Forgiving, Ever Merciful [333].

328. From this we learn that anything which is not declared unlawful in Shariah through a clear proof, it will be regarded as lawful. There is no proof required for a thing to be lawful, because these people had used the proof of legality to declare these things unlawful. Since there was no Divine revelation to declare these things unlawful, they are perfectly lawful.

329. The word 'but' is a relative conjunction used for taking into account animals related to the decree of unlawfulness i.e. only animals which are dead are unlawful not those that are left in the name of the idols. In Islam only those animals are unlawful which die before being slaughtered in the name of Allah. Thus the animals which are left aside in the name of the idols are not in this category as they are not slaughtered in the name of these idols. Therefore it cannot be necessarily deduced from this that dogs and cats would become lawful for eating.

330. This means that congealed blood ie spleen, liver, etc are lawful for eating because this is not flowing blood. It should be remembered that even when flowing blood becomes congealed it will become unlawful because it is after all flowing blood though it is temporarily congealed.

331. From this emerge three issues:

1.Every impure thing is forbidden, though every forbidden thing is not impure;

2.Every part of the swine is forbidden eg it's skin etc.because eveything of it is part of positive impurity.3.Nothing of the swine will become pure through cooking or slaughtering just as excreta cannot become clean under any circumstances.

332. From this emerges two issues:

1. Regarding the animal, calling it on anyone's name in its life time will not be given any credence. The actual credence will be given to what is recited at the time of slaughtering it, because the word 'prounounced' is used and not 'prayed'.

2. To slaughter animals in the name of idols is disobedience of belief or infidelity, Hence, the word 'disobedience' is used here.

333. This would be so because due to his necessity these unlawful things will become lawful for him, or if due to incorrect estimation he eats a few morsels more than necessary then Allah Almighty out of His infinite mercy will not hold him responsible for this.

146. And for the Jews We forbade every animal having hoofs [334]. and the fat of oxen and sheep. We forbade them but what is carried by their backs or intestines or what is attached to their bones [335]. We penalized them for their contumacy[336]. And, undoubtedly, We are Most Truthful.

334. Here nail refers to the finger or paws, no matter whether these are broken up like those of dogs and other animals of prey or otherwise, in the form of a hoof like that of a camel, duck, guinea fowl etc. In our Shariah guinea fowls, camels etc are lawful for eating.

335. This means that due to their rebelliousness the meat of cows, sheep, etc was lawful for the Jews but their fat was unlawful.

336. This means that those decrees of punishment which were established in the previous Ummahs are no longer incumbent upon us even if they are mentioned in a categorical Quranic verse because we are the followers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and as such the previous Ummahs are no longer applicable to us. Observe, Allah Almighty has deprived the rebellious Jews of the fats of camels, guinea fowls, ducks, cows, goats, etc .which are lawful for us to eat. there is a consensus of the entire Ummah on this.

147. Again, if they belie you, please declare: "Your Lord has unlimited Mercy [337] and His Wrath will not be set aside from the guilty people".

فَاِنْ كَذَّبُوْكَ فَقُلْ رَّبُّكُمْ ذُوْ رَحْمَةٍ

الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۷﴾

337. This means to belie a Prophet is a cause of Divine punishment. But the delay in the coming of this punishment is because this Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is Prophet of mercy. Allah Almighty is Merciful, one should not be deceived by His tolerance.

148. Now, the polytheists say: "If Allah had willed, we would not have committed polytheism [338], neither our forefathers". Nor had We forbidden anything [339]. In the same manner, belied those who were before them, until they tasted Our torment [340]. Please declare: "Have you any knowledge that [341], you bring it forth to Us [342]? You are only behind your conjecture and without anything you estimate" [343].

338. In this verse there is a prophecy i.e. whatever the polytheists were about to say in the future was being foretold.

339. In this verse fate or Divine will means. approval. Thus they have been refuted. Otherwise eveything good and evil in this world is in accordance with the Divine will. These infidels were wagging their tongues that Allah Almighty approves of their infidelity. Hence. they were liars.The infidels were unable to distinguish between fate and approval. because fate in reality is one thing while approval is something else. Everything in this world and all our work takes place due to the will and the intention of Allah Almighty. though everything is certainly not in accordance with this expressed desire.

340. This means that to endeavour proving permissibility of sins results in severe punishment of Allah. Those Arabs committed infidelity then tried to prove that this was approved by Allah Almighty. Hence. they were entitled to and deserving of severe Divine punishment.

341. It should be remembered that the approval and the desire of Allah Almighty is that which is conveyed through the Prophets. However. Prophets are not sent to reveal fate. If Allah Almighty had approved of it. He would have proclaimed this through His Prophets. Thus there is a big difference between fate and desire.

342. From this we learn that to seek proof from the liar. to prove his lies is permissible. Thus to demand miracles from false prophet so as to prove that he is an imposter: and to ask fortunetellers about things of the unseen in an effort to disgrace them are not only permissible but an act of reward. However if this is done as a means of acceptance thereof. or on the basis of doubt. it is an act of infidelity. Hence. the meaning of this Quraanic verse is quite clear. and the verdicts of the jurists against this is not incorrect.

343. From this we learn conjecture. analogy. gives work. etc are not sufficient for beliefs they have to be based on concluse religious proofs.

قُلْ فَلِلّٰهِ الْحُجَّةُ الْبَالِغَةُ ۚ فَلَوْ شَآءَ
لَهَدٰىكُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ۝

149. Please declare: "Then the argument of Allah is conclusive [344]. So, if He had wished, then He would have guided you all" [345].

344. The concrete knowledge of the Prophets which is made known in the world cannot be disapproved through mere assumptions. conjectures. and suspicions. To believe in this is an act of infidelity.

345. If He had so desired He could have given you the help to accept faith. Here the word guidance does not mean to show the Straight Path. That has been given to all.

150. Please declare: "Bring your witnesses who testify that Allah has forbidden this [346]". Then, if they testify, then you (O listener) be not witnesses [347], with them and follow not the desires of those who belie Our signs [348]. And who believes not in the Hereafter, and they ascribe equals to their Lord [349].

346. From this one learns that if a thing is not made unlawful, then it is lawful. Here witness refers to the verses of Allah's Book, or the sayings of His Prophets; not their own babblings, as is expressed in the following verse.

347. From this one learns that to verify a liar, to take his part, to approve his work, to express joy at what he has done, to nod your head in approval to what he says, are all forbidden as this is equal to testifying on his behalf. Lending assistance to the sinful is in itself an act of sin.

348. From this we learn that it is forbidden to elect infidels to postion of leadership and to follow and to obey them, but out of necessity. Likewise, it is forbidden to act upon their evil laws. To accept laws which are contrary to Islam without any legal excuse is infidelity. Law of Islam regarding a thief is to cut off his hands, the law of the infidels is to imprison the thief. If any Muslim regards imprisonment superior to cutting of the hands, is an infidel.

349. From this we learn that the desires of the infidels are sensual and therefore forbidden to follow them. The desires of the Prophets are Divine and as such following them at times is commendable and at times incumbent and thus cannot be called desires. Says Allah Almighty "And he speaks not of his own desire. That is not but a revelation revealed to him." (S53:V34)

SECTION 19

قُلْ تَعَالَوْا اَتْلُ مَا حَرَّمَ رَبُّكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ

وَصّٰىكُمْ بِهٖ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿١٥١﴾

151. Please declare: "Come, I shall read out to you what your Lord has forbidden to you [350], that you will not associate anyone with Him, and that you do good to parents [351], and that you kill not your children because of poverty [352]. We shall provide for you and for them [353], and that you approach not shameful deeds, whatever is in the open and whatever is hidden [354]; and slay not unjustly [355] the life which Allah has made sacred. This has He ordered that you may understand".

350. In Taurat and Injeel. From this we learn that our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knew the contents of the previous books as taught by Allah Almighty. Or in the Holy QUR'AAN. From this is understood that the infidels are entrusted with the responsibility of beliefs and some actions. Hence, they cannot be granted permission for infanticide, burning of women after the death of the husband, adultery, gambling etc.

351. This means that even if ones parents are nonbelievers it is incumbent to grant them their parental right. The word 'good' is all comprehensive and includes all types of good treatment e.g. their respect and honour, to spend on their material needs, to hold gatherings of Fateha, QUR'AANIC recitation for conveying rewards of these to their souls after their death, etc.

352. This verse is addressed to those people who were killing their boys and girls due to poverty. Those wealthy people who were involved in the killing of their daughters only are mentioned in another verse. Thus the stipulation 'due to poverty' is for describing a happening, not for abstinence or evasion.

353. This means you and your offspring are Our Servants. We are responsible for their sustenance, so why are you taking their lives ?

354. From this we learn that doing good in the open and and sinning in private is not piety, but hypocrisy. True piety is to fear Allah Almighty at all times and under all circumstances. A hypocrite is more dangerous than the known sinner. At least the sinner does not deceive you with false piety. May Allah Almighty bless us with sincere and true piety.

355. Any Muslim who becomes deserving of death, like an apostate, an adulterer, a murderer, is entitled to be killed. But only the person in authority is entitled to mete out this punishment, every Muslim cannot do this.

152. And do not approach the property of the orphans, but in the best way, until he reaches [356]. maturity. And maintain the measure and the weight justly [357]. with equilibrium. We burden no soul to its capacity [358]. And when you speak, observe justice even though it may be a matter of your relative [359]. And fulfill your covenant with Allah [360]. That is what He has enjoined upon you strictly that perhaps you may accept admonition [361].

وَلَا تَقْرَبُوْا مَالَ الْيَتِيْمِ اِلَّا بِالَّتِيْ هِيَ
اَحْسَنُ حَتّٰى يَبْلُغَ اَشُدَّهٗ ۚ وَ اَوْفُوا
الْكَيْلَ وَ الْمِيْزَانَ بِالْقِسْطِ ۚ لَا نُكَلِّفُ
نَفْسًا اِلَّا وُسْعَهَا ۚ وَ اِذَا قُلْتُمْ فَاعْدِلُوْا
وَ لَوْ كَانَ ذَا قُرْبٰى ۚ وَبِعَهْدِ اللّٰهِ اَوْفُوْا ؕ
ذٰلِكُمْ وَصّٰىكُمْ بِهٖ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۲﴾

356. From this verse emerge few issues:
1.Only a minor child can be called an orphan, not an adult as is ascertained from "until he reaches".
2.An orphan among the humans is that child whose father is deceased; in the animal kingdom the offspring which has lost its mother would be regarded as an orphan; a pearl will be called an orphan which is all by itself in the oyster.
3.The guardian of the orphan can spend the wealth of the orphan from which profit can accrue to him, but cannot spend the orphan's wealth which will be a loss to him. From this thousands of issues can be deduced.
There is no zakaat on the wealth of the orphan.

357. By this is meant do not weigh less. When giving weigh more and when taking weigh less, as this is not prohibited. In these matters do not cause harm or loss to the next person. To sustain loss to yourself is at times a praiseworthy quality.

358. By this is meant if there is a discrepancy in weight and measurement which is unintentional, or if wealth of the orphan has come in your use unintentionally, it would be forgiven. If done intentionally it would become a heavy burden which would be beyond the capacity of man to bear. Intention plays an important part in the reward and punishment of deeds.

359. Whether you testify, give a written verdict or give a judgement from position of authority, it should be done justly. Family relation or position of status should not influence this judgement. Allah be praised! The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم life and that of the Four Righteous Caliphs is the living commentary of this blessed verse. This is the scale of justice and impartiality which had distinguished the believers but which we have lost today. In short, justice is something else, and social treatment and behaviour is something else.

360. Whether one takes an oath in Allah Almighty, or in His name makes a solemn promise with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or your Sheikh (Religious guide), or with any other person, is incumbent to fulfil it. It is for this reason that the bride and bridegroom at the time of nikah are made to recite the Kalimahs or Codes of Covenant, so that their promise becomes the Covenant of Allah Almighty.

361. Will or testament are those words of the dying person which are connected with matters after his death. Because the Arabs fulfilled these wills with great enthusiasm and earnestness, all emphatic and urgent instructions are being declared as will or testament. Otherwise Allah Almighty is pure and beyond the literal meaning of a will as He is pure and beyond death. Thus this means that this is such an urgent instruction, just like you regard a will.

153. And this is My Straight Path. So, follow it [362]. And follow not other paths, for they will deviate you from [363]. His path. This He has ordered you that perhaps you may be self restrained.

وَ اَنَّ هٰذَا صِرَاطِیْ مُسْتَقِیْمًا فَاتَّبِعُوْهُ ۚ وَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا السُّبُلَ فَتَفَرَّقَ بِكُمْ عَنْ سَبِیْلِهٖ ؕ ذٰلِكُمْ وَصّٰىكُمْ بِهٖ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۳﴾

362. From this we learn that rectification of beliefs, performance of worship, purity in dealings and granting of people's rights is the Straight Path. Any one who neglects any of these, he is not on the straight path. Acts of worship and social and business matters are two indivisible sides. One cannot make any headway in life without the other.

363. The pious Saints of Allah Almighty say that the corruption in social and business matters can lead to the ruination of one's acts of worship, while defects in worship can sometimes become the cause of evil beliefs. Omission of Mustahab or desirable acts, becomes the means of the omission of acts of Sunnah, and omission of Sunnah can become the means of omission of obligatory acts. Apprehend the burglar at the doorstep! This verse indicates the above.

154. Again We gave the Book [364] to Musa for doing full favour upon him who is righteous. And the details [365] of everything, and a guidance and mercy so that they may believe in the meeting of their Lord.

ثُمَّ اٰتَیْنَا مُوْسَی الْكِتٰبَ تَمَامًا عَلَی الَّذِیْۤ اَحْسَنَ وَ تَفْصِیْلًا لِّكُلِّ شَیْءٍ وَّ هُدًی وَّ رَحْمَةً لَّعَلَّهُمْ بِلِقَآءِ رَبِّهِمْ یُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۴﴾

364. By this is meant the Taurah was the first Divine Book revealed to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). Prior to this the Prophets were given scrolls (Sahifa). Here the word 'then' is used for narrational sequence i.e. and then remember this, that before you the Israelites were given the Taurah for such guidance, so that those who acted upon these, Allah's complete bounty would have been bestowed upon them.

Marfat.com

365. It should be remembered, that at first the Taurah contained full details about everything. Later when Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) angrily threw down the tablets (slates) much of it was taken away. Now only the commandments remained, the details were removed. Says Allah Almighty: "He took up the tablets, and in their writing there is guidance and mercy." (S7:V154) Here mention is not being made of detail. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the two verses. Our Holy QUR'AAN is revealed giving details of everything and is preserved for eternity.

SECTION 20

155. And this blessed Book We have sent down [366]. So, follow it and be pious, so that you may receive mercy [367].

وَهٰذَا كِتٰبٌ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ مُبٰرَكٌ فَاتَّبِعُوْهُ وَ اتَّقُوْا لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۵﴾

366. The Holy QUR'AAN is sacred because it was brought down by a sacred angel in the sacred month of Ramadaan and revealed to a sacred being. It is a mediator between the Sustainer (Rab) and the Sustained (Marboob) i.e. between Allah Almighty and we, His Creation. On whatever His sacred verses are recited it will become blessed.

367. By this is meant that if you desire the mercy of your Lord, then rectify both the heart and its mould or structure. The structure will be rectified through following the QUR'AAN and the heart through piety and fear of Allah. It should be remembered that obeying the Ahadith and the learned Ulama is indirectly obeying Allah Almighty: "Obey Allah and obey the Messenger, and those who have power of command amongst you" (S4:V59). Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. Also remember Shariat constitutes of four things: the Holy QUR'AAN, Ahadith Nabawi, Consensus of Ummah and Analogy of Jurists.

156. Lest you should say: "The Book was revealed to two groups of people before us, and we were unaware of their reading and teaching "[368].

اَنْ تَقُوْلُوْٓا اِنَّمَآ اُنْزِلَ الْكِتٰبُ عَلٰى طَآئِفَتَيْنِ مِنْ قَبْلِنَا ۪ وَ اِنْ كُنَّا عَنْ دِرَاسَتِهِمْ لَغٰفِلِيْنَ ﴿۱۵۶﴾

368. By this is meant the Holy QUR'AAN is revealed in Arabic so you will not have the chance of saying that no prophet had come to Arabia. The previous revealed books, the Taurah and Injeel were in Hebrew which you were unable to understand. Hence, how would you have obtained guidance. Now that the guidance has come to you in Arabic you will have no excuse. Further, you would not be dependant on the Jews and Christians for Divine Guidance.

157. Or, lest you should say: "If the Book had been revealed to us, then We would have been better guided [369] than them".

اَوْ تَقُوْلُوْا لَوْ اَنَّآ اُنْزِلَ عَلَيْنَا الْكِتٰبُ لَكُنَّآ اَهْدٰى مِنْهُمْ ۚ فَقَدْ جَآءَكُمْ بَيِّنَةٌ

مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ وَهُدًى وَّ رَحْمَةٌ ۚ فَمَنْ اَظْلَمُ
مِمَّنْ كَذَّبَ بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ وَصَدَفَ عَنْهَا ؕ
سَنَجْزِى الَّذِيْنَ يَصْدِفُوْنَ عَنْ اٰيٰتِنَا
سُوْٓءَ الْعَذَابِ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَصْدِفُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۷﴾

So, there has come to you a luminous argument from your Lord, and guidance and a mercy [370]. Who is then more unjust [371], than he who belies the signs of Allah and turns his face [372]. from them? Soon We shall punish those with great torment [373], who turn away their faces from Our signs, the recompense for turning away their faces.

369. Reason for Revelation:
One group from the infidels of Arabia had said that Taurah and Injeel were revealed to the Jews and Christians respectively, but these foolish people were unable to obtain guidance through them. If a Divine Book had been revealed to us we would have greatly benefitted from it because we are not foolish like them. This verse was revealed as a reply to them (Khazainul Irfaan). From this we learn that one should not rely too much on ones intelligence. It is absolutely important to trust and rely on Allah Almighty. These infidels who were boasting of their intelligence gained nothing from it as they did not accept Islam and remained infidels.
370. From this emerge a few issues:
1. The Holy QUR`AAN is a clear proof, a source of guidance and a mercy just as the Holy Prophet is bestowed with all these qualities.
2. The Holy QUR'AAN is sent to all and for all, likewise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is sent as a Messenger unto entire mankind.
371. By this is meant the biggest tyrant is he who rejects the miracles of the Prophets and their books, because he is really speaking causing injury to himself which would be a means of his eternal punishment. This means infidelity is the gravest of all sins.
372. By 'belies the signs' means not accepting them. This means that one who belies the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the one who rejects him are equal in infidelity. By falsifying means to say that he is false, while not accepting means he neither calls him false nor true, but refrains from obeying him. Thus both are infidels.
373. By great torment either means punishment in this world e.g. the defeat in the Battle of Badr, etc or punishment in the grave or the punishment in the Hereafter.

هَلْ يَنْظُرُوْنَ اِلَّاۤ اَنْ تَاْتِيَهُمُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ
اَوْ يَاْتِيَ رَبُّكَ اَوْ يَاْتِيَ بَعْضُ اٰيٰتِ
رَبِّكَ ؕ يَوْمَ يَاْتِيْ بَعْضُ اٰيٰتِ رَبِّكَ لَا
يَنْفَعُ نَفْسًا اِيْمَانُهَا لَمْ تَكُنْ اٰمَنَتْ
مِنْ قَبْلُ اَوْ كَسَبَتْ فِيْٓ اِيْمَانِهَا خَيْرًا ؕ
قُلِ انْتَظِرُوْٓا اِنَّا مُنْتَظِرُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۸﴾

158. Are they waiting for the angels to come to them, or the torment of your Lord [374], should come, or a sign of your Lord would come? The day when that one sign of your Lord will come, believing will not profit [375], any soul that did not believe before or had not earned any good in its [376]. belief. Then please declare: "Wait, we also wait" [377].

Marfat.com

374. Here 'angels' refer to angel of death who appears before the deceased at the time of death. The 'signs' refers to the rising of the sun from the west. At that point in time everybody will declare their faith but their faith at that time will not be accepted.

375. By this is meant the person who had remained an infidel but now brings faith at seeing the sun rising from the west, his faith will not be reliable. Otherwise the faith of all his children who are to be born after this incident should be given credibility and their faith should be worthy of trust. In some traditions it is reported that after this incident there will be no birth, and women would become barren. In the light of this no objection can be raised about this verse.

376. This means after seeing this sign the infidel will not benefit by declaring faith or doing good deeds like offering repentance, etc. But those who had been believers prior to this event will benefit from their good deeds. (Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan)

377. This means Oh infidels await our destruction. We are waiting for the punishment to come to you. Time will tell whose expectation was true and whose was false. Thus through the Grace of Allah Almighty the infidels were destroyed and Muslims were victorious.

159. Surely, those who have created separate paths in their religion [378], and have become different sects [379], O Beloved Prophet! You have no concern at all with them [380]. He will inform them what they used to do.

إِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ فَرَّقُوْا دِيْنَهُمْ وَ كَانُوْا شِيَعًا لَّسْتَ مِنْهُمْ فِيْ شَيْءٍ ؕ اِنَّمَآ اَمْرُهُمْ اِلَى اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ يُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَفْعَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۹﴾

378. This means that they abandoned the path of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and invented new ways in religion according to their fancy. From this we learn that to innovate new beliefs and regard them as Islamic is a serious form of faithlessness.

379. The Jews were divided into seventy one sects, the Christians into seventy two but the Muslims would be divided into seventy three sects. Only one of them will be entering Paradise and the rest would be the inmates of Hell, as is reported in the Hadith Shareef. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is totally disgusted with all these condemned sects. It is for this reason that no saint is born from them. Any branch which is not connected with the root will not bear any flowers or fruit. The sect which would gain salvation is connected with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and Saints of Allah would continue to be born from them.

380. This means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is also disgusted with those Jews and Christians who had brought up these different sects in religion and as such they too are going to be the inmates of Hell, with the exception of those who had chosen the path of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by becoming true Muslims.

160. Whoso brings one virtue, then for him there are [381]. ten credits. And whoso brings an evil, he shall not be recompensed but to its equal [382]. And they shall not be wronged [383].

مَنْ جَآءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهٗ عَشْرُ اَمْثَالِهَا ۚ وَ مَنْ جَآءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَلَا يُجْزٰۤى اِلَّا مِثْلَهَا وَ هُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۰﴾

381. The reward of ten for one good deed is the law, but rewarding same innumerable times is the Bounty of Allah Almighty. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse.

382. It should be remembered that the sin of the one who leads others astray is being equal to those who are led astray, is an example of his crime. An example is that which is accepted as such by law. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

383. By unjust means giving them punishment in excess of their crime, or punish them when they are innocent. From this we learn that the minor children of the infidels who die in their infancy will not be sent to Hell because they had not sinned. There are two meanings of unjust acts:

1. To use a thing belonging to someone else without his permission.

2. To punish an innocent person or to take out work from a person without paying for his labour. However in verses of this type the word unjust has other meanings too. It is stated in a Hadith that if Allah Almighty sends all creations into Hell He will not be called unjust. There the first meaning will be applicable, i.e. Allah Almighty will not wrong the innocent by sending them into Hell.

161. Please declare: "Surely, My Lord has shown me the Straight Path [384], a true religion, the creed of Ebrahim, who was aloof from every falsehood and he was not a polytheist[385].

قُلْ اِنَّنِیْ هَدٰىنِیْ رَبِّیْۤ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِیْمٍ ۚ۬ دِیْنًا قِیَمًا مِّلَّةَ اِبْرٰهِیْمَ حَنِیْفًا ۚ وَ مَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِیْنَ ﴿۱۶۱﴾

384. From this two issues emerge:

1. Allah Almighty bestowed guidance on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم directly, of beliefs, of deeds, etc.

2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was on the path of guidance at all times. Not even for a second was he away from guidance. If anybody believes the Holy Prophet was slightly away from guidance is denying the veracity of this verse. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is everyones guide and nobody's follower.

385. From this we learn that to remove the accusations of the infidels from the Prophets is the way of Allah Almighty. Those who shower their wealth, their lives, their writings and their speech to uphold the respect, dignity and greatness of the Prophets are indeed held in high esteem by Allah Almighty. Allah Almighty absolved Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) from the taunting of the infidels that the great Prophet of Allah (May Allah forbid) was a polytheist.

162. Please declare: "Surely, My prayer and my sacrifice [386], and my living and my dying are all for Allah Who is the Lord of all the worlds" [387].

قُلْ اِنَّ صَلَاتِیْ وَ نُسُكِیْ وَ مَحْیَایَ وَ مَمَاتِیْ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِیْنَ ۙ﴿۱۶۲﴾

386. This means that physical worships like Salaah, are superior to monetary worships. Thus Allah Almighty has mentioned Salaah before sacrifice.

387. This means my life is not a worldly life but a religious life. Worldly life is that which makes you unmindful from the remembrance of Allah Almighty and keeps you engrossed in material and commercial matters. Life dedicated to Allah Almighty is that which is set aside for Allah's works. You live in service of religion and remembrance of Allah Almighty,and die serving Allah Almighty.From this emerge two issues:

1. To reveal your purity and piety to people is no hypocricy. In fact it is important to declare this.

2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had full knowledge about future life and death, and who would be on truth. This is from the five knowledge's of the unseen.

لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ ۚ وَ بِذٰلِكَ اُمِرْتُ وَ اَنَا اَوَّلُ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۶۳﴾

163. There is none associated to Him, so I have been commanded so. And I am (Muhammad) the first Muslim[388].

388. We learn that our Holy Prophet is the very first testifier of Truth in the entire creation of Allah Almighty. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not only a worshipper but in fact a Prophet before Hazrat Jibraeel and Hazrat Mikaeel. In response to Divine question, "Am I not your Lord?" it was our Holy Prophet who replied: "Indeed," then by other Prophets and then the rest of the people.

قُلْ اَغَيْرَ اللّٰهِ اَبْغِيْ رَبًّا وَّ هُوَ رَبُّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ ؕ وَ لَا تَكْسِبُ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ اِلَّا عَلَيْهَا ۚ وَ لَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِّزْرَ اُخْرٰى ۚ ثُمَّ اِلٰى رَبِّكُمْ مَّرْجِعُكُمْ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ فِيْهِ تَخْتَلِفُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۴﴾

164. Please declare: "Shall I seek a lord other than Allah [389], while He is the Lord of everything? And whatever a person earns, it is on his own account [390]. And no bearer of burden will bear the burden of another [391]. Then, you have to return to your Lord. He will inform you of that in which you used to differ" [392].

389. Reason for its revelation:
Waleed Bin Mugheerah asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to come into the fold of the religion of their forefathers. If this instituted a sin he would be responsible for it, and you would be free of its responsibility. In reply to this the above verse was revealed.

390. This means that it is forbidden to convey the punishment of your evil doings to others. This cannot be assumed with piety. To convey the rewards of good deeds is not only lawful but is Sunnat to do so.

391. By this is meant by making the criminal free of his crime, otherwise the transgressor will be held guilty with the transgressors. Says Allah Almighty: "And undoubtedly, they shall surely bear their burdens...." (S29:V13).But that would be his own burden for committing the transgression, not of others. Likewise the perpetrator of crime will be punished with the rest of the criminals, but that punishment too would be as a result of his crime. It could also mean that no person would be happy to accept the burden of sins of others. This would be placed upon him from Allah Almighty. Thus there is no inconsistency between these verses, nor between the verses and Ahadith.

392. Allah's practical judgement will take place on the Day of Judgement, His verbal judgement has already taken place in this world.

وَ هُوَ الَّذِيْ جَعَلَكُمْ خَلٰٓئِفَ الْاَرْضِ وَرَفَعَ بَعْضَكُمْ فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ دَرَجٰتٍ لِّيَبْلُوَكُمْ فِيْ مَاۤ اٰتٰىكُمْ ؕ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ سَرِيْعُ الْعِقَابِ ۖۚ وَ اِنَّهٗ لَغَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۱۶۵﴾ ع ۲۰ ۱۱

165. And it is He Who has made you vicegerents in the earth [393], and has raised one over the other in degrees among you [394]. that He may try you in what He has given you. Undoubtedly, your Lord is quick in tormenting [395], and He is surely, Forgiving and Merciful.

393. This means that since you come after all the previous Ummahs you are the final Ummah (People). You are the leaders of all the people, they are not appointed as your leaders.

394. This means that from the point of religion and the world man is not equal, they differ from one another. Though man, the prophets, saints and ordinary people are not the same. To believe in these distinctions of man is one of the conditions of faith. Says Allah Almighty: "These are Messengers, that in them We have caused one to excell upon the other." (S2:V253)

395. This is the description of His Power, while delaying and not sending punishment despite man's sins is His Mercy. Power is something else and Mercy is something else. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah is not one to chastise them till (O Beloved Prophet) you are in their midst."(S8:V33).

SURAH AL-A'RAAF (THE HEIGHTS) (MAKKAN)

Revealed Before Hijrah

206 VERSES, 24 SECTIONS, 3325 Words , 14010 Letters

1I begin in the Name of Allah, Who is Most Compassionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

SECTION 1

الٓمّٓصٓ ۚ ①

1. (O Beloved Prophet) Alif, Laam, Meem Saad.

كِتٰبٌ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ فَلَا يَكُنْ فِيْ صَدْرِكَ حَرَجٌ مِّنْهُ لِتُنْذِرَ بِهٖ وَ ذِكْرٰى لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ②

2. (O Beloved Prophet) A Book has been revealed to you, so let there be no impediment in your heart[1] because of it, so that you may warn therewith, and an admonition to the Muslims [2]

اِتَّبِعُوْا مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكُمْ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ وَ لَا تَتَّبِعُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِهٖٓ اَوْلِيَآءَ ؕ قَلِيْلًا مَّا تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ③

3.Follow what has been revealed to you from your Lord, and do not follow other masters [3], leaving Him. Verily, there is very little that you understand.

وَ كَمْ مِّنْ قَرْيَةٍ اَهْلَكْنٰهَا فَجَآءَهَا بَاْسُنَا بَيَاتًا اَوْ هُمْ قَآئِلُوْنَ ④

4. And many a town We have destroyed. Then Our punishment came upon them by night [4], or while they slept at noon [5].

1. By "no impediment" is meant not to waver in its propagation or worry about the opposition of the infidels. Outwardly this too is addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but, in truth, it is addressed to all the propagationists of the Ummah, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in the matters of propagation did not worry about anybody. His dignity is too lofty and exalted.

2. By this is meant the Holy QUR`AAN only exhorts the Muslims towards good deeds. The infidels are not entrusted with this. Or, it means only Muslims would benefit from its exhortation. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. Its guidance is there for the entire universe.

3. The commentary of this verse is the following verse: "The supporters of infidels are devils". (S2 : V257) By this is meant Satan is a friend from those besides Allah Almighty. It is open infidelity to accept him as a friend or guardian, while not making the Friends of Allah Almighty as your guardians, is an act of faithlessness. Allah Almighty states in Hadith-e-Qudsi;"He who harbours enmity against My friends (the saints of Allah) I declare war on him". In another place Allah Almighty states: "Undoubtedly, We have made the devils friends of those who do not believe". (S7:V27) In any case the devil is the guardian of the infidels besides Allah Almighty. In most places the meaning of those besides Allah Almighty is what is referred above. In a third place it is stated: "They have taken the devils as guardians leaving Allah."(S7:V30)

4. This is during the last portion of the night, just before dawn when everybody is in deep slumber when people are unable to escape. From this we learn that the last portion of the night is a time of obtaining Divine Mercy for those engrossed in the remembrance of Allah Almighty, and for the negligent the descent of Divine punishment. It is for this reason that the performance of Tahajjud Prayer is most appropriate with which to extinguish the fire of

5.Then nothing came out from their mouths when Our punishment came upon them, but they said: "We were unjust people" [6].

6. From this we learn that repentance and Faith would not be accepted at the coming of punish-

6. Then, most certainly We shall question those to whom Messengers were sent, and surely, We shall question [7] the Messengers as well (about the transmission of their mission).

7. By this is meant that these peoples would be asked whether these Prophets had preached to them the Religion of Allah Almighty or not, and the Prophets would be asked the reply of the people. However, this question and answer will not be put to our Holy

7. Then, surely We shall tell them with Our Knowledge and We were never absent (in their life span) [8].

8. By this is meant Allah Almighty's interrogation of the infidels and the Prophet on the Day of Judgement is for the purpose of conducting a legal procedure not because Allah Almighty is unaware of the truth of the matter.

8. And the weighing [9] on that day is certain. Then those whose scales are heavy [10], they are to attain their goal.

9.Good and evil deeds are going to be weighed. There would be pearls and rubies there. Or, the bundles of deeds would be weighed. In any case there is no inconsistency

Divine wrath.

5. In short, punishment was sent upon them at such a time when they had least suspected it. On most it came during the last portion of the night and on some during their afternoon rest time. There was not a slightest sign of the impending punishment. It would come suddenly and unexpectedly. Otherwise they would not have been resting.

فَمَا كَانَ دَعْوٰىهُمْ اِذْ جَآءَهُمْ بَاْسُنَآ
اِلَّآ اَنْ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّا كُنَّا ظٰلِمِيْنَ ۝٥

ment. Faith of despondency is not accepted, but to repent with regret at one's sins is accepted.

فَلَنَسْـَٔلَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اُرْسِلَ اِلَيْهِمْ وَ
لَنَسْـَٔلَنَّ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ ۝٦ۙ

Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Says Allah Almighty: "You shall not be questioned about the inmates of Hell." (S2:V118) Neither will any evil minded infidel be able to say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not preach Islam to them.

فَلَنَقُصَّنَّ عَلَيْهِمْ بِعِلْمٍ وَّمَا كُنَّا غَآئِبِيْنَ ۝٧

From this we learn that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم investigation concerning the allegation against Hazrat Aisha Sidiqqa (May Allah be pleased with her) was a legal procedure to educate the Ummah.

وَ الْوَزْنُ يَوْمَئِذِ ِۨالْحَقُّ ۚ فَمَنْ ثَقُلَتْ
مَوَازِيْنُهٗ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُوْنَ ۝٨ in the verse. Remember, one's deep passion and love for Allah Almighty and the Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not be weighed. These are not deeds but the devotional nature of one's heart. Similarly, the deeds of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not be weighed because no scale can ever weigh the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم deeds, just as the scales of the world cannot weigh the waters of the oceans nor winds. The blessed name of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will carry so much weight that it would, with the permission of Allah Almighty, neutralise the weight of the bundles of sins of millions of sinners like myself.

10. On the Day of Judgement the going up of the scale will signify its heaviness while going down will be due to the lightness of the weight of the deeds. This is because generally material things fall downwards while auspicious and saintly things moves upwards. Say Allah Almighty: "Towards Him ascends all pure words." (S35:V9)

9. And as for those whose scales are light, then they are the persons who have put their souls at loss [11]. The recompense for those excesses which they did with Our signs [12].

11. Some Ulema say that only their deeds will be weighed who have good deeds as well as sins. In such cases deeds will be weighed with deeds. Hence, there is no weighing of deeds for the infidels. Says Allah Almighty: "And We shall not establish any weight for them on the Day of Judgement " (S18:V105) Similarly, there is no weighing of deeds for the Prophets and all the selected pious persons.

Says Allah Almighty: "They shall enter Paradise and they shall be provided there in without count." (S40:V39) This is so because the infidels will have no good deeds while these pious persons will have no sins. One narration has it that the deeds of the infidels will be weighed. The present verse is a proof for this. Hence, in the pan of pious deeds of the infidels will be placed their charities, but they will have no weight because the weight of piety comes from faith and sinceroty.

12. In that they deny the recompense of these excesses.

10. And verily, We established you in the earth [13] and have provided therein the means of your livelihood [14]. But, you are seldom thankful.

وَ لَقَدْ مَكَّنّٰكُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَ جَعَلْنَا لَكُمْ فِيْهَا مَعَايِشَ ؕ قَلِيْلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُوْنَ ۝١٠ ع ١٠ ٨

13. From this we learn that man's abode is the earth, man's flying in the air for a little while, or the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ascension to Heaven, or Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) staying in the Fourth Heaven, are all temporary in nature. Hence, from this verse one cannot reject Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) going to the heavens because his staying in the heavens is just as temporary as a person who stays for a few days at sea or when travelling by air.

14. Oh man We have provided nourishment, water, air, sunlight on the earth so that you don't have to go to the heaven or in the sea for them.

SECTION 2

11.And undoubtedly, We created you, and then made your shapes [15]. Then We said to the angels: "Prostrate before Adam " [16].

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنٰكُمْ ثُمَّ صَوَّرْنٰكُمْ ثُمَّ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اسْجُدُوْا لِاٰدَمَ ۖ فَسَجَدُوْٓا

Marfat.com

إِلَّآ إِبْلِيسَ ۖ لَمْ يَكُنْ مِّنَ السّٰجِدِينَ ﴿١١﴾

Then all of them prostrated except Iblis (Shaitaan). He was not of those who prostrated [17].

to Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) only. If this prostration was for Allah Almighty and Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was the direction, then the word used would have been "To Adam" (On whom be peace). Hence, prostration of respect is not polytheism. However, now, this if forbidden.

17.By this is meant he did not stand in the group of angels who offered prostration because he did not regard this prostration incumbent. Thus, one learns that a person does not leave the fold of the Muslims by not reading Salaah, yes, if he rejects the obligation of Salaah he will be out of the fold of Islam.

قَالَ مَا مَنَعَكَ أَلَّا تَسْجُدَ إِذْ أَمَرْتُكَ ۖ
قَالَ أَنَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْهُ ۖ خَلَقْتَنِي مِن نَّارٍ
وَخَلَقْتَهُ مِن طِينٍ ﴿١٢﴾

12.He said: "What prevented you (O Shaitaan) that you did not fall in prostration when I commanded you". Said he: "I am better than him. You created me of fire and made him of clay" [18].

15. From this we learn that the deeds of pious persons are deeds of Allah Almighty. To form the foetus in the mother's womb is done by the angels, but Allah Almighty refers to it as My work. If this is taken to mean Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) as can be understood from the discussion which follows, then this is the direct work of Allah Almighty because Allah Almighty designed Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) with His Providential Power. Hence, he called him human - a creation designed through His Providential Power

16. Thus, one learns that this prostration (SAJDAH) was a prostration of respect, limited

18. By this is meant fire is superior to sand and that which is born from the superior thing will be regarded superior. Both these assumptions are incorrect, i.e. neither is fire superior, nor a thing made of a superior thing is superior. Thus, it is clear that to give conjecture priority over a categorical order is the work of the Devil.

قَالَ فَاهْبِطْ مِنْهَا فَمَا يَكُونُ لَكَ أَن
تَتَكَبَّرَ فِيهَا فَاخْرُجْ إِنَّكَ مِنَ الصّٰغِرِينَ ﴿١٣﴾

13. He (Allah) said: "Get you down [19] from here. It is not for you that you may behave proudly [20] living here. Get out, you are amongst the degraded ones" [21].

19. "From here' is meant from Paradise. From this we learn that Paradise is there from before. Also that Paradise is above or in the upper region and not below the earth, because one comes down from the upper region. Remember that from the time when he refused to prostrate Satan has been expelled out of Paradise though he would secretly try to go there. After the blessed coming of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Satan is completely stopped from going to Paradise.

20. From this we learn that before Satan became accursed he was dwelling in Paradise, otherwise what does it mean to be expelled from it. In addition, he was given respect as well, otherwise what meaning does disgrace have regarding him. It is well known that he was the teacher of the angels, therefore he is called MUALLIMUL MALAKOOT. Allah Almighty and His Beloved صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم know best.

21. From this we learn that an answer should not be given to every word and every proof provided by the opponent! Allah Almighty did not give reply to the proofs of Satan but declared him accursed and expelled him from Paradise. The end result of pride is disgrace.

14.He (Shaitaan) said: "Give me time till the day they (mankind) are raised up" [22].

قَالَ اَنْظِرْنِیْٓ اِلٰی یَوْمِ یُبْعَثُوْنَ ﴿۱۴﴾

22. Until the blowing of the second trumpet, i.e. until the Day of Qiyamah, so that I (Satan) do not experience death, as that would not be time of death at all.

15.He (Allah) said: "You are given time" [23].

قَالَ اِنَّكَ مِنَ الْمُنْظَرِیْنَ ﴿۱۵﴾

23. By this is meant you (Satan) have respite until the blowing of the first trumpet. When the first trumpet would be blown you would be destroyed with the rest of creation. Allah Almighty accepted the prayer of Satan with some modification. From this emerge two issues: 1. Some prayers of the infidels are accepted. Observe, Satan's prayer was accepted, though with some modification.

2. Prayer increases one's span of life. If an accursed Satan's life was increased through prayer, then is it any wonder if the prayers of Prophet's and Saints and some good deeds can lengthen one's period of life?. For greater detail on the subject as well as for change in predestination (TAQDEER) consult the books ASRARUL AHKAAM and TAFSEER NAEEMI.

16. He (Shaitaan) said: "I swear that because you seduced [24] me, I shall necessarily sit to block them from Your Straight Path in wait for them" [25].

قَالَ فَبِمَآ اَغْوَیْتَنِیْ لَاَقْعُدَنَّ لَهُمْ صِرَاطَكَ الْمُسْتَقِیْمَ ﴿۱۶﴾ لا

24. From this we learn that sometimes speaking the truth results in infidelity. Allah Almighty causes this misguidance, but to say this, is infidelity and disrespectful. Satan became more accursed because of this. When Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) said: "O our Lord, we have wronged ourselves," (S7:V22) he has been pardoned.

25. By this is meant by taking revenge on the children for the deeds of the father, I will place temptations and lurking fears in their hearts. I will incline them towards sin and stop them from doing good deeds. I will make some into infidels and polytheists so that I do not have to go alone into Hell, but in a big group. From this, two issues emerge:

1. Show of false piety is so disgraceful that even Satan did not profane this in the presence of Allah Almighty. Whatever he wanted to do he said it openly.
2. Satan is, in reality, an enemy of man and those jinns who would bring faith, because they too have declared faith like man. He is not the enemy of angels and Hoories, Hence, the use of "for them."

17."Then, surely I will come near them, from before them and from behind them, and from their right and from their left [26]. And You will not find most of them, thankful" [27].

ثُمَّ لَاٰتِیَنَّهُمْ مِّنْۢ بَیْنِ اَیْدِیْهِمْ وَ مِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ وَ عَنْ اَیْمَانِهِمْ وَ عَنْ شَمَآىِٕلِهِمْ ؕ وَ لَا تَجِدُ اَكْثَرَهُمْ شٰكِرِیْنَ ﴿۱۷﴾

Marfat.com

26. Here, mention is not made of before and behind because an oncomer can only come through these four sides.
27. From this we learn that Satan too has been given knowledge of the unseen. Hence, most pupils are ungrateful. Says Allah Almighty: "And there are few in my bondsmen that are thankful" (S34:V13). Satan is a disease, and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the cure. If the disease is so strong the+n the knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be far stronger.

18. He (Allah) said: "Get out from here, rejected and banished [28]. Surely, those who follow you, I will fill Hell with them" [29].

قَالَ اخْرُجْ مِنْهَا مَذْءُوْمًا مَّدْحُوْرًا ؕ لَمَنْ تَبِعَكَ مِنْهُمْ لَاَمْلَـَٔنَّ جَهَنَّمَ مِنْكُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ⑱

28. Today you are disgraced in the presence of the angels, in future you will be disgraced everywhere as you will be struck severely through the curses of people. This shows that the enmity of Prophet's are greater than every form of infidelity. Despite being so pious and learned, why was Satan so disgraced? Simply because of his enmity for Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace). Those who utter words of insult regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should take lessons from this.

29. From this we learn that Satan as well as some jinns and some human beings would go into Hell. Those jinns would feel the pain from fire just as human beings feel the pain after being hit by lumps of sand and bricks. Paradise is only for human beings according to the narration of Hazrat Imam Abu Hanifah (May Allah be pleased with him)

19."And O Adam! Dwell you and your wife in Paradise [30], then eat there from whenever you will [31] and approach not this tree [32]. Otherwise, you will be among the transgressors" [33].

وَيٰٓاٰدَمُ اسْكُنْ اَنْتَ وَ زَوْجُكَ الْجَنَّةَ فَكُلَا مِنْ حَيْثُ شِئْتُمَا وَ لَا تَقْرَبَا هٰذِهِ الشَّجَرَةَ فَتَكُوْنَا مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ⑲

30. By 'stay' is meant stay temporarily because he was created for the vicegerency of the earth. He was kept in Paradise for giving him training so that he should set out everything in the world as per what he sees in Paradise, and teach and train his progeny to do likewise.
31. One thus learns that the fruits of Paradise are already created, and some devotees of Allah Almighty have already tasted them e.g. Hazrat Mariam (On whom be peace) ate them while living in this world

32. By "this tree" is meant wheat or another type of tree which is best known to Allah Almighty.
33. Here the word 'trangressors' does not mean infidels because infidelity is brought about through the influence of evil beliefs.

20.Then the devil put evil suggestions in their hearts [34] so that he may open to them the things of their shame [35] which were hidden from them and said: "Your Lord has forbidden you from this tree only because you may not become two angels or become immortals [36].

فَوَسْوَسَ لَهُمَا الشَّيْطٰنُ لِيُبْدِيَ لَهُمَا مَا وٗرِيَ عَنْهُمَا مِنْ سَوْاٰتِهِمَا وَقَالَ مَا نَهٰىكُمَا رَبُّكُمَا عَنْ هٰذِهِ الشَّجَرَةِ اِلَّآ اَنْ

تَكُوْنَا مَلَكَيْنِ اَوْ تَكُوْنَا مِنَ الْخٰلِدِيْنَ ﴿٢٠﴾

34. From this we learn that no person is safe from the temptations of the devil at any place. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was the true devotee of Allah Almighty, and Paradise was indeed a safe and secure place, yet even there Satan succeeded in misleading Hazrat Adam and Bibi Hawa (May Allah be pleased with them). Thus, do not frequent any evil places, and constantly seek refuge from the devil from Allah Almighty. Never ever think yourself safe from Satan. From this one learns that even Prophets can become victims of temptation, but they do not commit sins or acquire evil faith. Thus, there is no inconsistency in this verse.

35. From this we learn that up to that point Hazrat Adam and Bibi Hawwa (May Allah be pleased with them) had nor seen one another exposed. From this we learn that it is better for a husband and the wife not to expose their nakedness to one another.

36. By this is meant that one of the peculiarities of this tree was that whoever ate its fruit would become an angel, and remain protected from death. When you Oh Adam (On whom be peace) were born you did not possess the capacity to eat its fruit Hence, you were stopped from doing so. That prohibition was of a temporary nature, it is no longer applicable. Now you have the capacity to digest it. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse that Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) had harboured mistrust regarding Allah Almighty, that he was deliberately kept away from something which was good.

21.And he swore to them both that I wish well for both of you [37].

وَقَاسَمَهُمَآ اِنِّيْ لَكُمَا لَمِنَ النّٰصِحِيْنَ ﴿٢١﴾

37. From this we learn that the very first pretentious piety was shown by Satan because though he inwardly had enmity for Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), outwardly he feigned friendship.

22.Then he caused them to fall with delusion [38]. Then when they tasted the tree, the things of their shame became manifest [39] to them. And they began to cover themselves with leaves of Paradise on their bodies [40]. And their Lord said to them: "Did I not forbid you from that tree [41] and tell you that the devil is your open enemy [42]?

فَدَلّٰىهُمَا بِغُرُوْرٍ ۚ فَلَمَّا ذَاقَا الشَّجَرَةَ
بَدَتْ لَهُمَا سَوْاٰتُهُمَا وَ طَفِقَا يَخْصِفٰنِ
عَلَيْهِمَا مِنْ وَّرَقِ الْجَنَّةِ ؕ وَ نَادٰىهُمَا
رَبُّهُمَآ اَلَمْ اَنْهَكُمَا عَنْ تِلْكُمَا الشَّجَرَةِ وَ
اَقُلْ لَّكُمَآ اِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ لَكُمَا عَدُوٌّ مُّبِيْنٌ ﴿٢٢﴾

38. This shows that Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) did not commit a sin. For sin, intention is necessary. Whatever happened was due to an error, therefore Satan was held reponsible for it. Thus, if anyone regards Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) a sinner, he has gone astray.

39. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) did not even suspect that any servant of Allah Almighty can swear a false oath on Him. Nevertheless, he did not eat the wheat or whatever it was, but merely tasted a little at which he was stripped of his heavenly clothes.

40. Prior to this, his entire body was covered in a dress of nails, but due to this error those nails shrunk from the entire body and remain on the tips of the fingers (TAFSEER ROOHUL BAYAAN). Thereafter this pious pair covered their bodies with fig leaves. From this we learn that even from the time of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) the act of undressing is regarded indecent. Human intelligence regards it as shameless. Otherwise, laws concerning covering of the privacy had not been revealed on Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) at that time. However, those people who do not regard nakedness as a 23.Both of them submitted: "O our Lord, We have wronged ourselves. If you forgive us not, and have not mercy on us, then certainly we will be among the losers [43]".

43. From this two issues come to light:
1. Repentance and seeking forgiveness is the inheritance of our forefather Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) and as such we should practice them in our daily lives.
2. Error and transgression should be linked

24.He (Allah) said: "Get down [44], in you one is the enemy [45] of the other, and you are to stay on earth till a fixed time and there is provision for a time [46].

44. From this we learn that both Hazrat Adam and Bibi Hawa (May Allah be pleased with them) had offered this dua "Oh our Lord, we have wronged ourselves..." (S7:V23) while they were in Paradise. Then, after being sent in the world they cried with remorse for hundreds of years. Thereafter they received some inspirational words of Prayer from Allah Almighty through which their repentance was accepted. These words of prayer were those sought through the intercession of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which is being mentioned in this verse: "Then Adam (On whom be peace) learnt certain words from his Lord, so Allah Almighty accepted penitence" (S2:V37) Those who deduce these words shameful act are indeed rebelling against human nature. It should be remembered that there is no veil or privacy from the angels, but there is modesty and shame from Allah Almighty.

41. The coming of the prohibition after tasting the wheat and not before it, is based on Divine wisdom which appears after him.
42. But you forgot and could not make the distinction between the friend and an enemy. From this we learn only that person would remain successful who can make the distinction between friend and foe.

قَالَا رَبَّنَا ظَلَمْنَآ اَنْفُسَنَاۖ وَ اِنْ لَّمْ تَغْفِرْلَنَا وَ تَرْحَمْنَا لَنَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْخٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿۲۳﴾ with the devil, while piety and good deeds should be linked to Allah Almighty. This is the Sunnah or way of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Satan linked his heresy and misguidance to Allah Almighty by saying: "You have misguided me", and thus, became a heretic.

قَالَ اهْبِطُوْا بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ ۚ وَ لَكُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ مُسْتَقَرٌّ وَّ مَتَاعٌ اِلٰى حِيْنٍ ﴿۲۴﴾ to mean: "Oh our Lord, we have wronged," are in opposition to the above verse i.e. (S2:V37), because these words of prayer were offered by both of them while still in Paradise.

45. The devil is to man, or man is to the devil, an open enemy, or some human beings are enemies of others, or the believers are enemies of the infidels or vice versa.
46. By this is meant the place of abode of man and the devils is the earth, but of a temporary nature. Then after death the permanent place of abode of the devils and their followers would be Hell. The permanent place of abode of the believers would be Paradise.

قَالَ فِيْهَا تَحْيَوْنَ وَفِيْهَا تَمُوْتُوْنَ وَ مِنْهَا تُخْرَجُوْنَ ﴿٢٥﴾ ع ١٥ ٢ ٩

25.He (also) said: "You will live in it and you will die in it, and there from you will be raised" [47].

47. Raising mankind from the earth is the Divine principle which would be effected on the Day of Qiyamah. However, this, too, is Allah Almighty's Power that some would not be raised from the earth on the day like Hazrat Idrees (On whom be peace) who is already taken to Paradise after his wordly demise and is now physically alive there and will not be taken out of it. Says Allah Almighty: "And We have raised him up to a lofty place." (S19:V57) Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. You should further remember that Hazrat Isa's (On whom be peace) dwelling in the heaven is of a temporary nature. He will return to the earth, will experience demise on it and will be raised from it on the Day of Judgement.

يٰبَنِيْٓ اٰدَمَ قَدْ اَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكُمْ لِبَاسًا يُّوَارِيْ سَوْاٰتِكُمْ وَرِيْشًا ؕ وَ لِبَاسُ التَّقْوٰى ۙ ذٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ ؕ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ اٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَذَّكَّرُوْنَ ﴿٢٦﴾

26.O Children of Adam! Undoubtedly, We have sent down to you a dress that may cover your shameful parts and that may be an adornment [48] to you. And the dress of righteousness, which is the best [49]. This is one of Allah's signs, that they may be admonished.

48. From this we learn that dressing or clothes are made for humans only. Angels and other creation of Allah Almighty are excluded from it. If jinns are wearing clothes it is due to man. Further, we learn that it is obligatory to wear clothes for the sake of covering one's privacy, while wearing clothes for the sake of elegance and beauty is desirable.

49. By this is meant Allah Almighty sent down three types of dress, two are physical and one is spiritual. In the physical dress some are to cover one's privacy while others are for elegance and beauty, both of these are acceptable. The spiritual dress includes faith, piety and good deeds. All these dresses have been sent down from heaven. Wool, cotton, silk etc. are produced due to rain which comes down from the sky. Piety is bestowed through the grace of Revelation which too comes from the heaven.

يٰبَنِيْٓ اٰدَمَ لَا يَفْتِنَنَّكُمُ الشَّيْطٰنُ كَمَآ اَخْرَجَ اَبَوَيْكُمْ مِّنَ الْجَنَّةِ يَنْزِعُ عَنْهُمَا لِبَاسَهُمَا لِيُرِيَهُمَا سَوْاٰتِهِمَا ؕ اِنَّهٗ يَرٰىكُمْ هُوَ وَ قَبِيْلُهٗ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا تَرَوْنَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّا جَعَلْنَا الشَّيٰطِيْنَ اَوْلِيَآءَ لِلَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿٢٧﴾

27.O Children of Adam [50]! Beware! Let not the devil tempt you, as he brought your parents out from paradise, stripping them of their dress that they may see their shameful parts [51]. Surely, he and his tribe see you [52], where, you see them not. Certainly, We have made the devils friends [53] of those who do not believe [54].

Marfat.com

50. In here, the believer, the infidel, the learned, the pious, all are being addressed, none must ever regard himself protected from the guiles of the devil.

51. By this is meant the privacy of Hazrat Adam and Bibi Hawwa (On them be peace) was seen by one another without any covering. From this two issues emerge:

1. There is no veil or covering from angels and jinns. Veil or covering is from human beings.

2. Husband and wife too should not expose themselves freely in the presence of one another. Even when one is alone one should keep oneself covered to be shy of Allah Almighty.

52. By this is meant Satan and his progeny can see all the people of the world, but people cannot see them. Wherever anyone intends doing good deeds, Satan becomes aware of his intention and immediately tries to mislead him. If Allah Almighty has granted so much knowledge to one that is gone astray by being omnipresent and omniscient, then He has blessed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, the absolute guide of the entire universe, with these qualities, too, so that the cure should not be weaker than the ailment. It is a shame on those people who are prepared to accept the extent of knowledge and vision of Satan, but denying the same when it comes to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

53. From this one learns that Satan is from friends other than those of Allah Almighty. Wherever wickedness or evil is mentioned of friends from those other than godly persons, reference is made to Satan, and not the true friends of Allah Almighty. These verses are a commentary of those verses wherein the above is discussed.

54. By this it means the devil is only an outward friend of the infidels, while the infidels are true friends of the devil. Otherwise, truly speaking Satan is not really a friend of the infidels, as he is an enemy of every human being. Thus, this verse is not opposing that verse in which Satan is declared an open enemy of man. There the true nature of the devil is being described, here his outward condition is being mentioned.

28.And when they commit any indecency [55], they say: "We found our forefathers [56] on it and Allah commanded us to do so" [57]. Then please declare: "Allah does not enjoin indecency. Do you say against Allah what you do not know?"

وَ اِذَا فَعَلُوْا فَاحِشَةً قَالُوْا وَجَدْنَا
عَلَيْهَآ اٰبَآءَنَا وَ اللّٰهُ اَمَرَنَا بِهَا ؕ قُلْ
اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَاْمُرُ بِالْفَحْشَآءِ ؕ
اَتَقُوْلُوْنَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۲۸﴾

55. Like making tawaaf in a state of nakedness by men and women, or indulging in immoral and indecent deeds in public.

56. From this we learn that to emulate an ignorant or immoral person is the work of the infidels. Emulation of the pious Ulema is the work of the believer.

57. This is their obvious and blatant deception because since the polytheists of Makkah did not believe in any prophet or revealed Book how did the Commandments of Allah Almighty reach them? Mention of this is being made in the verse that follows.

29. Please declare: "My Lord has commanded justice [58] and set your face aright at the time of each prayer, and worship Him being exclusively [59] His bondsmen. As He originated you, so will you return" [60].

قُلْ اَمَرَ رَبِّيْ بِالْقِسْطِ ۫ وَ اَقِيْمُوْا وُجُوْهَكُمْ
عِنْدَ كُلِّ مَسْجِدٍ وَّادْعُوْهُ مُخْلِصِيْنَ
لَهُ الدِّيْنَ ؕ كَمَا بَدَاَكُمْ تَعُوْدُوْنَ ﴿۲۹﴾ ؕ

Marfat.com

58. The term justice refers to condition of moderation which is in between maximum and minimum. This term includes all affairs concerning beliefs, deeds as well as affairs of personal and national nature. Thus, description of worship follows this. The word Mosque is the noun of infinitive acts denoting SAJDAH. The word Sajdah denotes Salaah while by 'Pray to Him' means to worship Him. From this we learn that facing the Ka'abah in Salaah is obligatory. The word Mosque could mean Mosque in the physical sense. In that case this would mean the Mosque is the best place for congregational prayers. Congregation is obligatory for Fard prayers, while offering it in the Mosque is sometimes obligatory, at times not (TAFSEER ROOHUL BAYAAN).

59. In this word 'call upon him' does not only mean to pray but it means worship. Thus, it means worship Allah Almighty alone.

60. Like you were first non-existent, then He brought you into existence. Similarly, He will once again make you non-existent then bring you back into existence. The purpose of this is since you have to return to your Lord, you should always worship Him. It could also mean that just as you came into this world naked and un-circumsized, so will you be raised on the Day of Judgement.

30.Some of them He has guided to the Right Path and some others He had left in proven [61] error. They have taken the devil as guardians leaving [62] Allah and they think that they are guided.

فَرِيْقًا هَدٰى وَ فَرِيْقًا حَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الضَّلٰلَةُ ؕ اِنَّهُمُ اتَّخَذُوا الشَّيٰطِيْنَ اَوْلِيَآءَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَيَحْسَبُوْنَ اَنَّهُمْ مُّهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۳۰﴾

61. This means everyone will not become believers, some will remain infidels. Those whose infidelity is in Divine intent, how will they become believers?

62. This verse is the distribution of "guardians besides Allah". In most instances where a guardian besides Allah Almighty is used, Satan is signified. There is a big difference between friends of Allah and friends besides those connected to Allah Almighty. Friends of Allah Almighty are true, while friends besides those connected with Allah Almighty are false. To believe that friends of Allah Almighty are His sons is believing in friends other than Allah Almighty.

31. O Children of Adam! Take your adornment whenever you go to the mosque [63] and eat and drink and do not cross the limit [64]. Surely, the sons crossing the limits are not liked by Him.

يٰبَنِيْۤ اٰدَمَ خُذُوْا زِيْنَتَكُمْ عِنْدَ كُلِّ مَسْجِدٍ وَّ كُلُوْا وَ اشْرَبُوْا وَ لَا تُسْرِفُوْا ۚ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُحِبُّ الْمُسْرِفِيْنَ ﴿۳۱﴾ ع

63. From this we learn that as far as possible perform your Salaah in good clothes and come to the Mosque in a neat and tidy manner. Do not come to the Mosque with stenched clothes and an offensive mouth odour. Similarly, do not enter the mosque without covering the body as per the laws of Shariah.

64. During the period of Hajj the infidels of Makkah did not have meat. In addition, they would eat simple food of minimum quantity. The Muslims too sought permission to do the same. As a reply to their question this verse was revealed. From this one learns that to forsake the world is no act of worship, but refraining from sins is true worship. Many things are included in "Do not cross the limit", e.g. eating in excess of one's appetite, spending wealth without any reason, to regard a lawful thing as unlawful, are all part of abuse of or extravagance. (KHAZAINUL IRFAAN)

قُلْ مَنْ حَرَّمَ زِيْنَةَ اللّٰهِ الَّتِيْٓ اَخْرَجَ لِعِبَادِهٖ وَ الطَّيِّبٰتِ مِنَ الرِّزْقِ ؕ قُلْ هِيَ لِلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا خَالِصَةً يَّوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ نُفَصِّلُ الْاٰيٰتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَّعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۳۲﴾

32. Please declare: "Who has prohibited you from wearing the beautiful adornment of Allah which He brought forth for His bondsmen[65] and the pure foods "66. Please declare: "That is for the believers [67] in the life of this world and is exclusively for them on the Day of Resurrection" [68]. Thus, We explain fully the signs for the people who have knowledge.

65. From this we learn that a thing which is not declared unlawful by Shariah is lawful. Proof is required for prohibition, but not for its lawfulness.

66. From this it is understood that piety does not mean that one should give up eating tasty and lawful things. Abstention from unlawful things is true piety. Eat wholesome and lawful things to your heart's delight, but at the same time keep away from the prohibited things.

67. This makes it clear that Allah Almighty has created the many good things for the benefit of the believer. The infidels are getting these for the sake of the believers. Thus, if anyone says that poverty and saintliness lies in abstention from good food, good clothes, etc. he is a liar. In contrast, one should eat good food, wear good clothes and do good deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "Eat pure things and do good deeds." (S23:V51)

68.This means that although the infidels are enjoying good things in this world for the sake of the believers, in the Hereafter they will not receive anything

قُلْ اِنَّمَا حَرَّمَ رَبِّيَ الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَ مَا بَطَنَ وَ الْاِثْمَ وَ الْبَغْيَ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَ اَنْ تُشْرِكُوْا بِاللّٰهِ مَا لَمْ يُنَزِّلْ بِهٖ سُلْطٰنًا وَّاَنْ تَقُوْلُوْا عَلَى اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۳۳﴾

33.Please declare: "My Lord has forbidden indecencies [69] which are open and which are hidden [70]. And sins, and unjust excesses, and that you associate with Allah that for which He has not sent down any warrant [71], and that you say of Allah what you know not [72].

69. In this verse, too, those polytheists of Arabia are being addressed who would circumambulate the Ka'bah (TAWAAF) in the nude and were making the Bounties of Allah Almighty unlawful for themselves.

70. Indecencies, is the plural of indecency. Obscenity is that sin which is deplored by the mind, and its depravity reaches extreme proportion, like polytheism, infidelity, adultery, etc. To practise these openly is indecency in its most apparent form e.g. the infidelity of the infidels, and doing these secretly is concealed indecency e.g. adultery. Besides these other prohibited things too are included in the word 'Sin' be they major or minor. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

71. Allah Almighty has not revealed permissibility concerning any form of polytheism. Hence, all forms of polytheism and infidelity are included herein. This is not an evasion of restriction but a description of fact.

72. From this we understand that to explain an issue without having knowledge about it, to deliver a lecture and accept any beliefs without having knowledge are strictly forbidden. This would be equal to slander and false accusation in respect of Allah Almighty. This verse includes all the above.

وَ لِكُلِّ اُمَّةٍ اَجَلٌ ۚ فَاِذَا جَآءَ اَجَلُهُمْ لَا يَسْتَاْخِرُوْنَ سَاعَةً وَّ لَا يَسْتَقْدِمُوْنَ ﴿۳۴﴾

34.And for every nation there is a promise of a (fixed) term [73]. Then when their turn will come, they cannot remain behind for a moment, nor can they get ahead of it [74].

73. The promise of their punishment or their respite. Before this they had not been destroyed. Hence, there is a time set for the destruction of the infidels of Makkah.

74. In this verse mention is made of an ordinance, while in the verse about change of faith Allah Almighty's power is mentioned. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah establishes what He pleases, and the real writing is with Him." (S13:V39) Thus, through the dua of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) Hazrat Dawood's (On whom be peace) life increased by forty years. Thus, these incidents are in no contradiction to this verse. Through Satan's prayer his life span was increased. Says Allah Almighty: "You are among those who is given time." (S15:V37) If life span can be increased through the dua or prayer of a reprobate like Satan, then certainly through the prayer or good deeds of the pious life spans can also increase, and the unfavourable fates of people can also change.

يٰبَنِيْٓ اٰدَمَ اِمَّا يَاْتِيَنَّكُمْ رُسُلٌ مِّنْكُمْ يَقُصُّوْنَ عَلَيْكُمْ اٰيٰتِيْ ۙ فَمَنِ اتَّقٰى وَ اَصْلَحَ فَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ لَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُوْنَ ﴿۳۵﴾

35.O Children of Adam! If the Messengers come to you [75] from amongst you, reciting to you My signs, then whoso refrains [76] from evil and amends, on them there is neither fear nor any grief.

75. By Messenger is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because he is the Prophet of not only the humans but the entire creation of Allah Almighty. Hence, the plural form of the word is used for reverence. Or, by prophets would mean all the Prophets of Allah. In any case in this verse reference is being made to the pledges and assurances of the Day of the Convenant in which Allah Almighty took the pledge from all regarding the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم just as he took the declaration from all about his Godhead.

76. By piety is meant inculcating pious deeds, while by correction is meant abstention from evil deeds. Or, piety could also mean doing good deeds in the future and correction and reformation means to give compensation for sins to obtain rectification of oneself. Hence, there is no repetition here.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَاسْتَكْبَرُوْا عَنْهَآ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ النَّارِ ۚ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿۳۶﴾

36.And those who have belied Our signs and become arrogant against them [77], they are the people of Hell wherein they will remain forever.

77. It should be remembered that to assume pride as an opposition to the infidels is an act of worship, but as an opposition to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it is infidelity. Here, a third type of arrogance is purported, which was practised by Satan and everyone is aware of its consequences. Hence, those who practise this evil are declared as peo-

37.Then who is more unjust than him who has forged a lie against Allah or has belied His signs? They will receive what is written in their lot [78] till when Our Messengers (angels) come to them for taking away their souls [79]. Then they say to them: "Where are those whom you used to worship besides Allah? " [80]. They say: "They are lost from us". And they bear witness against their own souls that they were infidels [81].

78. By this is meant whatever sentence and age is written for them in the Tablet of Destiny and Fate, will be given to them. Then punisment would follow. By this is meant the original or actual sustenance and age. Otherwise, evil deeds cause the decrease of age and sustenance, just as good deeds cause age and sustenance to increase. Hence, there is no contradiction in the verse and the Hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

79. From this, two issues emerge:

1. That not only Hazrat Israael (On whom be peace) comes to take out the soul, other angels who are under him, come as well. The coming of the Angel of Death is being mentioned in this verse: Say you, the angel of death who has been appointed over causes you to die." (S32:V11). While coming of those is being mentioned in the verse under discussion.

2. The second issue is that if the angels of death can come on time at all places to take out the souls of these people, then the pious sages of Allah Almighty can be present at several places through His permission. The same is the le of Hell in which they would abide. Both of these are the particular condition of the infidels.

فَمَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا
اَوْ كَذَّبَ بِاٰيٰتِهٖ ؕ اُولٰٓئِكَ يَنَالُهُمْ نَصِيْبُهُمْ
مِّنَ الْكِتٰبِ ؕ حَتّٰٓى اِذَا جَآءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُنَا
يَتَوَفَّوْنَهُمْ ۙ قَالُوْٓا اَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَدْعُوْنَ
مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ قَالُوْا ضَلُّوْا عَنَّا وَشَهِدُوْا
عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِهِمْ اَنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا كٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿۳۷﴾

position of those angels who are appointed to question the people in the womb of mothers. Hence, being omnipresent and omniscient is the peculiar quality of certain servants of Allah Almighty.

80. This question would be put to the polytheists regarding their idols, while believers at the time of death are most certainly given help. For this reason the last part of the verse is "they were infidels". Muslims are ordered to sit with the dying person and recite the Kalima so that he can recite it before he dies. This is the believers' help. Thus, this verse is in no way connected with the believers or the friends of Allah Almighty. In any case, the deprivation of assistance of the infidels at their time of death or after it is their Divine punishment.

81. This acceptance will be at a separate time, and the rejection of their infidelity will be at another time. Hence, there is no inconsistency in this verse and the following verse: "By Allah, our Lord, we were not polytheists." (S6:V23)

38.He (Allah) will say to them, enter the same fire where other communities (Ummahs) went [82] before you. When a community enters it, it curses [83] the other until

قَالَ ادْخُلُوْا فِيْٓ اُمَمٍ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ
قَبْلِكُمْ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ وَ الْاِنْسِ فِي النَّارِ ؕ
كُلَّمَا دَخَلَتْ اُمَّةٌ لَّعَنَتْ اُخْتَهَا ؕ

when all have arrived therein, the last will say to the first [84]: "O our Lord! These led us astray. Award them double punishment of the Fire" [85]. He will say: "All have double [86], but you know not [87].

حَتّٰٓى اِذَا ادَّارَكُوْا فِيْهَا جَمِيْعًا ۙ قَالَتْ اُخْرٰىهُمْ لِاُوْلٰىهُمْ رَبَّنَا هٰٓؤُلَآءِ اَضَلُّوْنَا فَاٰتِهِمْ عَذَابًا ضِعْفًا مِّنَ النَّارِ ؕ قَالَ لِكُلٍّ ضِعْفٌ وَّ لٰكِنْ لَّا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۳۸﴾

82. From this we learn that on the Day of Judgement everyone will be with the one with whom his heart was connected, irrespective of the difference in place and time.

83. By this is meant every type of infidel would be cursing an infidel of his kind, i.e. a Hindu will be cursing a Hindu, a Christian another Christian, a Jew another Jew etc. From this we also learn the Muslims would be protected from this cursing as they would be under a cover.

84. By first and last is meant the off-spring of their ancestors, or the followers of their leaders. From this we learn that one form of the punishment of Hell is the disunity amongst its inmates, just as love and unity is one of the rewards amongst the inmates of Paradise. Those homes of believers in which there is unity, are heavenly homes

85. Because we committed only one sin, viz. our infidelity. They have committed two sins; they themselves had gone astray and they led us astray. Thus, let the punishment of their double sin be such that we are able to see it.

86. Because all of you are misguided and heretical. Every misguided person leads his wife, children and friends astray. Thus, the same degree and intensity of punishment which you desire for others will be exacted to you.

87. That you will not know the persons and the extent of their punishment. From this we learn that every inmate of Hell is caught up in such a form of punishment that he thinks that his form is worse than the rest.

39.And the first will say to the last: "You have then not been better than us [88]. Taste therefore the punishment in return for what you did [89]".

88. By this is meant in this world, because if we had in us infidelity, wickedness and heresy then you had infidelity and the emulation of the infidels. Thus, you had been responsible for leading your children to infidelity. Hence, in crime we were both equal. This verse does not refute the following verse: "And undoubtedly, they shall surely bear their burdens" (S29:V13).

89. By this is meant you should taste the fruit of your actions, and we of our actions, in infidelity, evil deeds, insulting and scorning the Prophets, ill-treating the Muslims, both of us were guilty. From this we learn that the minor children of the infidels who died in this condition would not be sent to Hell because they did not commit any evil.

SECTION 5

40.Those who belied Our signs and become arrogant against them, the gates of heaven will not be opened for them [90],

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَاسْتَكْبَرُوْا عَنْهَا لَا تُفَتَّحُ لَهُمْ اَبْوَابُ السَّمَآءِ وَ لَا يَدْخُلُوْنَ

Marfat.com

الْجَنَّةَ حَتّٰى يَلِجَ الْجَمَلُ فِيْ سَمِّ الْخِيَاطِ ؕ وَكَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۰﴾

nor will they enter Paradise until the camel enters through the eye of a needle [91]. And thus, We punish the guilty.

90. By "not be opened" is meant their good deeds during their life do not reach Allah Almighty because they are non-acceptable to Him, at their time of death the door of heaven does not open for their souls. For a believer his good deeds reach Allah Almighty in his life and after death the door of heaven opens to welcome his soul as is reported in the Hadith Shareef.

91. And this is impossible, as here is a combination or co-existence for it. And of that which is dependent on an impossibility too becomes impossible. The camel is big, but the eye of the needle is small, then it is impossible for the camel to pass through it. However, if the eye of the needle is enlarged or the camel is decreased in size, then it is another matter. Hence, there is nothing objectionable in the verse.

لَهُمْ مِّنْ جَهَنَّمَ مِهَادٌ وَّ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ غَوَاشٍ ؕ وَكَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۱﴾

41.To them, Fire will be the bed and Fire will be the covering [92]. And Thus, We punish the unjust [93].

92. Mention is being made here regarding the position of the fire e.g. up or down, because right and left is self-understood, viz. the fire will not be covering from all sides.

93. One thus understands that the covering by fire in Hell from all sides is for the infidels. Although sinful Muslims will be placed in Hell, it will be for a little while, and it will not cover them from all sides. Hazrat Abu Talib, too, is exempted from this four sided covering of Hell, as outlined in a Hadith.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ لَا نُكَلِّفُ نَفْسًا اِلَّا وُسْعَهَآ ۚ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ الْجَنَّةِ ۚ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾

42.And those who believe and do good [94] deeds, We do not burden anybody beyond his strength [95]. They are Companions of Paradise wherein they are to live forever.

94. From this emerge a few issues:
1. Faith supercedes deeds. First become a true believer, then do good deeds.
2. No one is exempted from doing good deeds. No matter from whatever category or group he may be.

95. By this is meant every Muslim who does good deeds according to his capacity would become deserving of Paradise. A wealthy believer will enter Paradise through his charities, while a poor believer will enter Paradise through his acceptance of pious, wholesome charities. None who enter Paradise will be taken out of it as is understood from 'abide therein'

وَ نَزَعْنَا مَا فِيْ صُدُوْرِهِمْ مِّنْ غِلٍّ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهِمُ الْاَنْهٰرُ ۚ وَ قَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ هَدٰىنَا لِهٰذَا ۫ وَمَا كُنَّا لِنَهْتَدِيَ

43.And We have taken out the rancour from their breasts [96]. Beneath them will flow rivers and they will say: "All praise belongs to Allah Who has guided us to this [97] and we could not have found the way if Allah had not guided us to that. Undoubtedly, the Messengers of our Lord brought the Truth "[98]. And it was proclaimed that: " This is the Paradise you have inherited [99] as the rewards of your deeds".

لَوْ لَآ اَنْ هَدٰىنَا اللّٰهُ ۚ لَقَدْ جَآءَتْ
رُسُلُ رَبِّنَا بِالْحَقِّ ؕ وَ نُوْدُوْٓا اَنْ تِلْكُمُ
الْجَنَّةُ اُوْرِثْتُمُوْهَا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۴۳﴾

96. Reason for its Revelation:
It is reported in SAWAIQE MUHARRIQAH that this verse was revealed in favour of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq (May Allah be pleased with him). Allah Almighty had cleansed his heart from malice towards anyone. Hazrat Alli Murtaza (May Allah be pleased with) says that this verse was revealed concerning those who participated in the Battle of Badr which included Hazrat Abu Bakr, Hazrat Uthman, Hazrat Talha (May Allah be pleased with them). In any case, it cuts off the root of the Rafzi sect.

97. By this is meant Allah Almighty gave us guidance to hold such good beliefs and do such good deeds in the world which has blessed us to this position. From this we learn that opportunity to express gratitude to Allah Almighty and singing His praises would be provided in Paradise as well. But other acts of worship like Salaah, Saum, Hajj, Zakaat, Jihad, etc. would have ceased by then. We further know guidance is not received due to one's strength, knowledge or worships. This is a special Bounty bestowed upon a person. If worship is a criterion for this, then Satan would have been a staunch believer, because all those qualities were present in him.

98. The believers had accepted guidance after listening to its verification from Allah Almighty's Prophet, while the observation of Paradise they would make through their visual confirmation.

99. Paradise has been declared one's legacy or property for two reasons:

1. They will inherit Paradise which would have been the property of the infidels, just as Hell would become the property of the infidels which would have been the legacy of the believers.

2. Paradise would be obtained through the Bounty and Blessing of Allah Almighty and not through one's personal ability. Just as one inherits wealth through blood relations, good deeds too became a means of inheriting Paradise.

44. And the companions of Paradise will call the companions of Hell [100]: "We have surely achieved what our Lord had promised us to be true. Then, have you, too, found what your Lord promised you [101] to be true?" They will say: "Yes". And in between them an announcer will announce: "The curse of Allah be upon the unjust" [102].

وَ نَادٰٓى اَصْحٰبُ الْجَنَّةِ اَصْحٰبَ النَّارِ
اَنْ قَدْ وَجَدْنَا مَا وَعَدَنَا رَبُّنَا حَقًّا
فَهَلْ وَجَدْتُّمْ مَّا وَعَدَ رَبُّكُمْ حَقًّا ؕ
قَالُوْا نَعَمْ ۚ فَاَذَّنَ مُؤَذِّنٌۢ بَيْنَهُمْ اَنْ
لَّعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ عَلَى الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۴﴾

100. Here, inmates of Hell refer to infidels who are condemned to Hell, and not sinful believers because the Muslim in Paradise will not taunt the sinners but through their intercession take them out of Hell, as is reported in the Hadith Shareef.

101. By this is meant your and our Lord had promised Paradise for doing good deeds and warned you of being sent to Hell for disobedience and rebellion. Has this promise been made good? From this we learn that to put fear is being equated with promises i.e.

threat is being interpreted as promise. Furthermore, we learn that the warnings and promises of the Prophets are warnings and promises of Allah Almighty, because it was the Prophet who had directly communicated with them.

102. The caller will be Hazrat Israfeel (On whom be peace) or another angel who will be given this duty, while the unjust are the infidels as is being ascertained from the next verse.

45. Who hinder (people) from the Path of Allah and desire to make it crooked [103] and (who) disbelieve in the Hereafter [104].

الَّذِيْنَ يَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ يَبْغُوْنَهَا عِوَجًا ۚ وَ هُمْ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ كٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿۴۵﴾

103. Although to bar from the path had taken place in this world, and since the result of it is being revealed today, it is being explained in the present, as if they are doing the same on the Day of Judgement.

104.From this we learn that the reason of all types of infidelity, enmity and evil deeds is the rejection of the Day of Judgement. If a person has fear of Qiyamah in his heart he will not have the strength to do evil.

46. And between the two (Heaven and Hell) there shall be a veil [105] and on the Heights [106] there shall be some men who will recognize both groups by their foreheads [107] and they will call the people of Paradise (saying): "Peace be upon you" [108]. They shall not have entered (Paradise) but are greedy for it [109].

وَبَيْنَهُمَا حِجَابٌ ۚ وَ عَلَى الْاَعْرَافِ رِجَالٌ يَّعْرِفُوْنَ كُلًّا بِسِيْمٰهُمْ ۚ وَ نَادَوْا اَصْحٰبَ الْجَنَّةِ اَنْ سَلٰمٌ عَلَيْكُمْ ۫ لَمْ يَدْخُلُوْهَا وَ هُمْ يَطْمَعُوْنَ ﴿۴۶﴾

105. So that the effect of Hell will not be felt in Paradise and that of Paradise will not be felt in Hell. The truth of the matter is that this veil or covering is A'RAAF -Heights. Because this veil will be very high, it is called A'RAAF. Only men will be here who have reached the age of puberty as is deduced from the word 'MEN'.

106. Tha'lbi has narrated from Hazrat ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) that the men of Araaf are Hazrat Abbas, Hazrat Hamzah, and Hazrat Ali ibn Abi Talib (May Allah be pleased with them) who will recognise the devotees from the whiteness on their faces and the foes from the blackness on their faces (SAWA-IQ). Some have said that these men will be the Prophets of Allah, while others have said that these are people whose good and evil deeds would be equal. There are some other sayings in this matter as well.

107.By this is meant they will recognize one another before entering Paradise and Hell, Hence, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too will be able to recognize the fortunate and the wretched.

108. From this we understand the saintly and refulgent creation can hear ordinary sound emanating from millions of miles because paradise is much brighter than the skies, while Hell is intensely deep. In spite of this, the inmates of Paradise would be hearing the wailing and screams of the inmates of Hell. Similarly, such saintly people in the world too listen to the calls of people who are far away from them. Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) from far listened to the conversation of ants. Says Allah Almighty: "There upon he smilingly laughed at her work and said." (S27:V19). Likewise, people of Araaf would see the condition of people and listen to the talk of people far away from them.

109. From this we learn that the inmates of Araaf will be having lesser status than the inmates of Paradise, or else what is their purpose of greed? Hence, the tradition which states that these are people whose good and evil deeds are equal lends more strength to the argument.

47. And when their eyes will turn towards the people of Hell, they will say: "O our Lord! Keep us not with the unjust people" [110].

وَ اِذَا صُرِفَتْ اَبْصَارُهُمْ تِلْقَآءَ اَصْحٰبِ النَّارِ ۙ قَالُوْا رَبَّنَا لَا تَجْعَلْنَا مَعَ الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۷﴾ ع ۵ ۸ ۱۲

110. By this is meant "Oh our Lord do not make us from the inmates of Hell". This prayer will be merely for blessing, because that is not the place for offering prayer. Prayer and worships are offered in the world.

SECTION 6

48.And the people of the Heights will call out to certain men whom they will recognize by their foreheads [111] and will say to them: "What did your multitude benefit you and that in which you took pride?"

وَ نَادٰۤى اَصْحٰبُ الْاَعْرَافِ رِجَالًا يَّعْرِفُوْنَهُمْ بِسِيْمٰهُمْ قَالُوْا مَاۤ اَغْنٰى عَنْكُمْ جَمْعُكُمْ وَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَكْبِرُوْنَ ﴿۴۸﴾

111. From this is understood the infidels and the criminals would be recognized from a symbol, enquiry from anyone for this purpose would not be necessary. In terms of this how is it possible that the Holy Prophet would not be distinguishing the hypocrites from the believers on the Day of Qiyamah?

49.Are these the people [112] on whom you would swear that Allah would not bestow His Mercy on the least on them? [113] They were rather told: "Enter Paradise. No fear will be upon you, nor shall you grieve" [114].

اَهٰۤؤُلَآءِ الَّذِيْنَ اَقْسَمْتُمْ لَا يَنَالُهُمُ اللّٰهُ بِرَحْمَةٍ ؕ اُدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ لَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَاۤ اَنْتُمْ تَحْزَنُوْنَ ﴿۴۹﴾

112. This question will be asked for the purpose of reproof and displeasure and not for enquiry.
113. By 'on whom you used to swear' means that in the world you would swear at the poverty of these inmates of Paradise that even in the Hereafter they would be deprived of the mercy and blessings of Allah Almighty. Look ! in what comfort and luxury they are today and see in what pain and grief you find yourself. This tells us that one should not be deceived by the poverty of the believer and wealth of the infidel in this world
114. In Paradise there will be no fear of the future nor grief of the past. There will be no illness nor hardship, no fear nor disunity, no enmity nor hatred for one another. In this one sentence negation is made of things that cause hardship and difficulties.

وَ نَادٰۤى اَصْحٰبُ النَّارِ اَصْحٰبَ الْجَنَّةِ اَنْ اَفِيْضُوْا عَلَيْنَا مِنَ الْمَآءِ اَوْ مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللّٰهُ ؕ قَالُوْۤا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ حَرَّمَهُمَا عَلَى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ۙ﴿۵۰﴾

50.And the inmates of Hell will call upon the dwellers of Paradise to pour to them some benefit of the water [115] of Paradise or of that which Allah has provided for you as food. They will say: "Surely, Allah has forbidden both of these to the infidels" [116].

115. When the inmates of Hell would see the people of A'RAAF entering Paradise they will ask Allah Almighty for permission to see some of their relatives who are in Paradise and talk to them. Their request would be granted. The inmates of Hell would be able to recognise the inmates of Paradise but the inmates of Paradise will not be able to recognise the inmates of Hell because their faces would have been totally disfigured. These inmates of Hell would be calling out to the inmates of Paradise by their names and begging them for water and food, to pour water on their burnt forms. The reply to this by the inmates of Paradise follows in the next verse. From this it is understood that Paradise is in the upper region and Hell is below, because the word 'some benefit' is derived from 'to benefit' which means to be shifted from top to below.

116. From this we learn that the believer from Paradise will have no love or regard for the infidel of Hell, nor will he have mercy on him even though he may be his father, son or friend. Because they would refuse to pour water on them despite their begging. It should be remembered that by unlawful, here, is meant things which are unlawful, in Islam because no Islamic laws would be promulgated there. In unlawful, here, means total deprivation. Says Allah Almighty: "And it is forbidden to a town which we have destroyed that they return" (S21:V95). In this verse too, unlawful signifies deprivation.

الَّذِيْنَ اتَّخَذُوْا دِيْنَهُمْ لَهْوًا وَّ لَعِبًا وَّغَرَّتْهُمُ الْحَيٰوةُ الدُّنْيَا ۚ فَالْيَوْمَ نَنْسٰىهُمْ كَمَا نَسُوْا لِقَآءَ يَوْمِهِمْ هٰذَا ۙ وَ مَا كَانُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا يَجْحَدُوْنَ ﴿۵۱﴾

51.Those who made their religion as an object of play and amusement [117] and the life of the world has deceived them [118]. Therefore, today We shall leave them as they had left the concept of meeting this Day and as they used to deny Our signs [120].

117. By 'play and amusement' means these infidels took things they fancied to be lawful and those they did not like, regarded them forbidden, and made fun of the believers.

118. They became totally engrossed in the delights of the world and forgot the Hereafter, and due to this love they could not establish contact with the Beloved of Allah Almighty.

119. By this is meant leaning in respect of Hell or punishment, or Allah Almighty will show no mercy on them. It does not mean that this reprieve is absolute, because they will be eternally in the clutches of Divine punishment without any reprieve. Further, it is apparent that the word forgetfulness is not used literally, because this is not possible with Allah Almighty.

120. By this is meant they wilfully and intentionally rejected the Day of Judgement. Here, the word forgetfulness does not mean to forget but meaning related to forgetfulness, because the infidels were deliberately rejecting the Day of Qiyamah.

Marfat.com

وَلَقَدْ جِئْنٰهُمْ بِكِتٰبٍ فَصَّلْنٰهُ عَلٰى عِلْمٍ هُدًى وَّ رَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُّؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۵۲﴾

52. And certainly We have bestowed upon them a Book[121], which We have enriched with great knowledge[122], a guidance and mercy for the people who believe [123].

121. By this is meant the Holy QUR'AAN which was revealed in their own language and in their own land, through which great respect was bestowed upon them, so much so, that the entire world became dependent on them. This tells us the Holy QUR'AAN is a great bounty to all in general, and to the Arabs in particular.

122. From this we learn that every knowledge is described in detail in the Holy QUR'AAN. Those whom Allah Almighty has blessed with heavenly powers can obtain all types of knowledge from it.

123. The general mercy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Holy QUR'AAN is there for the whole world. Due to their blessings all outward punishment has been stoppped from befalling mankind, etc. However, special and distinctive mercy and guidance is set aside for the believers only. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses. Says Allah Almighty regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم: "Mercy unto the worlds" as well as "To the believers he is most kind and Merciful". (S9:V128).

هَلْ يَنْظُرُوْنَ اِلَّا تَاْوِيْلَهٗ ؕ يَوْمَ يَاْتِيْ تَاْوِيْلُهٗ يَقُوْلُ الَّذِيْنَ نَسُوْهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ قَدْ جَآءَتْ رُسُلُ رَبِّنَا بِالْحَقِّ ۚ فَهَلْ لَّنَا مِنْ شُفَعَآءَ فَيَشْفَعُوْا لَنَآ اَوْ نُرَدُّ فَنَعْمَلَ غَيْرَ الَّذِيْ كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ ؕ قَدْ خَسِرُوْٓا اَنْفُسَهُمْ وَ ضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿۵۳﴾ ع ۶ ۱۳

53. Do they look [124] for the fulfilment of the interpretations thereof? On the day when the foretold results will occur [125]. Those who had forgotten before will say: "Surely the Messengers of our Lord had brought the truth [126]. Then is there any intercessor for us who could intercede on our behalf? [127] Or, could we be sent back so that we might do deeds other than we did before? [128] Surely, they put their souls at a loss [129], and have been lost from those who used to calumniate [130].

124. From this we learn if anyone does not receive faith through the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he will most certainly not receive it from any other source. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the final source of guidance. Now, no other prophet would come after our Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

125. By 'the day' is meant the day of their death on which they will say this at seeing the angels. It can also mean the Day of Qiyamah. But the second probability is more weighty and in accordance with the subject that follows.

126. The coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to coming of all the Prophets. Observe, no prophets came to Arabia since Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) besides our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Nonetheless the plural form being used here.

127. When the infidels would see on the Day of Judgement that Prophet's Saints, the learned Ulema infants, Ramadaan, the Holy Ka'bah, etc. have interceded for the believers, they will express regret and out of bitter disappoint utter these words. From this emerge a few issues:

1. Muslims would receive intercession.
2. The infidels would not receive intercession
3. There would be many intercessors. Hence, they would be speaking in the plural form. However, at the beginning of the Day of Judgement when everyone would be helpless no one would be interceding besides the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hence, the title given to the Messenger of Allah Almighty is "Intercessor of the sinners". The major intercession will be that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The door of intercession will be opened by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hence, there is no inconsistency in this verse.

128. By this is meant they should adopt faith and good deeds and abstain from infidelity and evil deeds. From this is learnt Faith itself is from action i.e. the action of the heart. Wherever action is mentioned with faith there physical actions are meant.

129. By this is meant they wasted the opportunity of declaring faith and doing good deeds and have regretted thereafter.

130. It is thus, understood that therein false gods would be forsaking them, while the Beloveds of Allah Almighty would not be abandoning us. If they were to abandon than what difference would there be between their position and our position?

SECTION 7

54.Surely, your Lord is Allah, Who created the heavens and earth within six days [131], then established Himself on the Throne befitting to His Dignity. He covers the night and day by each other [132] following it swiftly [133]. And He made the sun and moon and stars subservient to His command. Behold! His is the creation and command [134]. Blessed is Allah, the Lord of the worlds [135].

إِنَّ رَبَّكُمُ اللّٰهُ الَّذِیْ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ
الْاَرْضَ فِیْ سِتَّةِ اَیَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوٰی عَلَی
الْعَرْشِ یُغْشِی الَّیْلَ النَّهَارَ یَطْلُبُهٗ
حَثِیْثًا وَّ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ وَالنُّجُوْمَ
مُسَخَّرٰتٍ بِاَمْرِهٖ اَلَا لَهُ الْخَلْقُ وَ
الْاَمْرُ تَبٰرَكَ اللّٰهُ رَبُّ الْعٰلَمِیْنَ ﴿۵۴﴾

131. So that the servants are not hasty in the performance of their duties but do these slowly. By six days is meant the period of six days because during the time the phenomenon of day and night did not exist, and the sun was not in existence.

132. Here the word 'to cover' means make it vanish i.e. the darkness of the night makes the light of the day to vanish, thereafter light of the day causes the darkness of the night to disappear. Here, the formal meaning of covering of the outline is not intended i.e. it would be there but concealed in a cover. Just as there is no night during the day, there is no day during the night. Otherwise this would lead to the co-existence of two opposite things which is not possible.

133. The phenomenon of day and night is established in such a way that there is no inconsistency in it. The sun and the moon too will neither be stationary nor experience any defect that they should be sent to some factory for any repairs. Man can change his own things but not those belonging to Allah Almighty.

134. This could also mean that to Allah Almighty belongs the world of creation and the world of command. In the world of command are all those things which came into being through the command of "Be!" e.g. angels, souls, etc. while the world of creation constitutes of things which are created through matter e.g. the physical world and world of bodies which are created from clay, water, etc. The world of command is also known as angelic world, while the world of matter is called physical world. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty is called Lord of the Dominions and Angelic world.

135. A world is that besides Allah Almighty. Sometimes every species is referred to as useparate world, e.g. human world, animal world, plant world, etc. Due to this the world is represented as a plural entity, like knowledge (singular) and Uloom (plural of knowledge). Knowledge is a thing or material but due to differing types and differing nature it is used in the plural.

55.Call on your Lord in humility and secretly [136]. Undoubtedly, He likes not [137] those who cross the limit [138].

اُدْعُوْا رَبَّكُمْ تَضَرُّعًا وَّ خُفْيَةً ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُحِبُّ الْمُعْتَدِيْنَ ۚ﴿۵۵﴾

136. It is understood that DUA (Prayer) and Zikr as a matter of fact, should be recited silently. Everyone accepts that both these can be offered and recited silently or vocally, but there is a difference in opinion as to which form is superior. The truth of the matter is that if reciting vocally it would lead to show, then it is better to recite them silently, but if the object of the exercise is to create a desire for dua and Zikr in others then they should be recited vocally. Says Allah Almighty: "If you give charity openly, then what a good thing it is" (S2:V271) The QUR'AAN further states: "So Remember Allah Almighty as you used to remember your father" (S2:V200). If vocal remembrance of Allah Almighty was prohibited then Azaan, Talbiya of Hajj, recitation of Qirat aloud in audible Salaahs like Fajr, Maghrib, Jumuah, Eid, etc. reciting Takbeer-e-Tashreek would not have been recited aloud. For further information on the subject refer to JAA-AL HAQ.

137. From this there is a hint that even in the audible Zikr one should not keep the recitaion very loud as this is undesirable. For this reason the jurists have stated that not to recite the Qira't in Salaah louder than necessary. Thus, Salaah on loudspeakers is not recommended because this leads to loud sound than is unnecessary. These issues are extracted from this verse. Says Allah Almighty: "And neither offer your prayer with loud voices nor with too low a voice and seek a way in between." (S17:V110).
138. There are many ways of exceeding the limits to seek dua for forbidden things e.g. Oh Allah Almighty make me a Prophet; or death must not come to me at all, to recite dua or zikr aloud where it is better to recite them silently like during Jihaad, etc. When a secret attack on the enemy is intended; to bring about undue restrictions in due like Oh Allah Almighty grant me a white palace in Paradise in which there are fifty grape vines, etc.

56.And do not spread mischief on the earth [139] after it has been set right [140] and call on Him fearing and longing [141]. Surely, the Mercy of Allah is nearest to the good-doers [142].

وَ لَا تُفْسِدُوْا فِى الْاَرْضِ بَعْدَ اِصْلَاحِهَا وَادْعُوْهُ خَوْفًا وَّطَمَعًا ؕ اِنَّ رَحْمَتَ اللّٰهِ قَرِيْبٌ مِّنَ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۵۶﴾

139. Do not commit infidelity, impiety and sins as these cause the calamities of the world to descend upon you, lead to wide spread mischief. Drought is caused because of miserliness, pestilence and epidemics are caused due to adultery.
140. This means that since there is faith, piety, justice and fair play are established in the world due to the blessings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم You should now abstain from infidelity, polytheism, tyranny, oppression and injustice. Thus, we learn that though spreading mischief is evil under all conditions, but spreading this wherever reformation has taken place is wickedness of the highest order.

Marfat.com

صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم, too, is Mercy of Allah Almighty, and very close to the good doers. Says Allah Almighty: "And We sent you not but as a mercy for all the worlds." (S21:V107).

141. This tells us that Dua (Prayer) and worships should reflect both fear and hope, then if Allah Almighty wills, they will be accepted without delay.

142. Like Allah Almighty, the Holy Prophet

وَهُوَ الَّذِيْ يُرْسِلُ الرِّيٰحَ بُشْرًۢا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ رَحْمَتِهٖ ؕ حَتّٰۤى اِذَاۤ اَقَلَّتْ سَحَابًا ثِقَالًا سُقْنٰهُ لِبَلَدٍ مَّيِّتٍ فَاَنْزَلْنَا بِهِ الْمَآءَ فَاَخْرَجْنَا بِهٖ مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرٰتِ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ نُخْرِجُ الْمَوْتٰى لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ۝۵۷

57.It is He Who sets forth winds[143] bearing good tidings of His Mercy till they have carried heavy clouds [144]. We drive it towards any dead land [145], then send down water therewith, then cause varied fruit [146] to grow therewith. Thus, shall We bring forth the dead [147], so that perhaps you may accept admonition.

143. The Holy QUR'AAN refers to wind of mercy and benefit as RIYAH and that which causes calamities as Reeh.

144. From the ocean. From this we learn that the wind itself does not change into clouds, but the water of the oceans change into vapour and reaches the atmospheric regions. Then from here it is carried to other places by the wind. From this we also learn vapour has weight because clouds is a name given to condensed vapour. Thus, the Holy QUR'AAN refers to it as a substance of weight.

145. This means those places where rain had not been falling over a lengthy period the ground would become dry. This tells us that different things experience different types of death.

146. This means that there will be no fruit or flowers without rain water. Water of the wells or seas cannot be used as substitutes for rain water.

147. By this is meant just as dry wood becomes green and laden with flowers due to the blessing of the rain, in a like manner, Allah Almighty will bring dead bodies to life with the sound of the trumpet.

وَالْبَلَدُ الطَّيِّبُ يَخْرُجُ نَبَاتُهٗ بِاِذْنِ رَبِّهٖ ۚ وَالَّذِيْ خَبُثَ لَا يَخْرُجُ اِلَّا نَكِدًا ؕ كَذٰلِكَ نُصَرِّفُ الْاٰيٰتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَّشْكُرُوْنَ ۝۵۸

58. And the land which is fertile, its vegetation comes out with the permission of its Lord, but that which is saline produces nothing but hardly [148] very little. Thus, We explain signs variedly for those who are grateful [149].

148. This means just as rain does not change the earth or the seeds sown in it, the Holy QUR'AAN too does not change ones nature. Some become ever faithful while others become heretics through it.

149. From this one learns that those with lesser ability and intelligence become misguided and heretics due to their misinterpretation of the QUR'AAN and Hadith: Says Allah Almighty: "And guides many by it" (S2:V26). The neglectful and unmindful do not derive any benefit from it, because the Holy QUR'AAN is a spiritual rain.

SECTION 8

59.Undoubtedly, We sent [150] Nuh towards his people. Then he said: "O my people! Worship Allah [151]. You have no god to worship besides Him. Surely, I fear for you the punishment of the Mighty Day".

لَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا نُوْحًا اِلٰى قَوْمِهٖ فَقَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ اِلٰهٍ غَيْرُهٗ ؕ اِنِّيْٓ اَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيْمٍ ۝

150. Hazrat Nuh's (On whom be peace) name is Yashkar or Abdul Ghaffar ibn al Malik ibn Mutawaslikh ibn Akhnooq. The name of Hazrat Idrees (On whom be peace) is Akhnooq. Hazrat Nuh's (On whom be peace) age was approximately fifteen hundred years. Because he was always weeping and lamenting due to the fear of Allah Almighty he was given the title Nuh or one who laments. It was during his period that marriage between brother and sister became forbidden.

151. First declare Faith then perform your worship. The reason being worship is not obligatory upon an infidel.

60.The leaders of his people said: "Undoubtedly, we see you in apparent error" [152].

قَالَ الْمَلَاُ مِنْ قَوْمِهٖٓ اِنَّا لَنَرٰىكَ فِيْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ۝

152. From this emerges two issues:

1. It is mostly the poor and destitute who become obedient followers of the Prophets while the wealthy and the leaders become their opponents. In contrast, the followers of Mirza Ghulam Qadiyani were all the rich and influential people. The poor remained away from him.

2. To say that the Prophets are gone astray is the way of the polytheists.

61.He (Nuh) said: "O my people! There is no misguidance [153] in me, I am but a Messenger of the Lord of the worlds"[154].

قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ لَيْسَ بِيْ ضَلٰلَةٌ وَّ لٰكِنِّيْ رَسُوْلٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝

153. From this we learn that Prophethood and misguidance cannot be together, and no Prophet can ever go astray for even a moment, because if a statement is separated by a conjunction but, what is to follow after it will not be included with what is said before it. Thus, if the Prophets themselves go astray then who would give them guidance. appoint ministers and governors who are incapable, uneducated and unintelligent then how would it be possible for Allah Almighty, the Lord of the Worlds , to appoint anyone to the position of prophethood who is gone astray or is uneducated? This would be an insult to Allah Almighty, that His choice of persons is wrong and inappropriate.

154. If the kings of the world do not

62. I deliver to you the Messages of my Lord and wish you good. And I know that from Allah, which you know not [155].

اُبَلِّغُكُمْ رِسٰلٰتِ رَبِّيْ وَ اَنْصَحُ لَكُمْ وَاَعْلَمُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝

155. From this we learn that the status of the prophets is not that of a mere postman of just delivering the messages, but their purpose is to convey the message, they establish and promulgate them among people and get them accepted to the people in accordane with prophetic advice. They are also sent with special knowledge from their Lord which is not given to ordinary people. The plural use of prophethood indicates that these Prophets convey all issues pertaining to beliefs, deeds and mysticism e.g. Shariah, Tareeqat, etc.

63.And has this surprised you that an admonition has come to you from your Lord through a man from amongst [156] you, so that he may warn you and you may become God-fearing, and thus, you may be shown mercy [157].

أَوَ عَجِبْتُمْ أَنْ جَآءَكُمْ ذِكْرٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ عَلٰى رَجُلٍ مِّنْكُمْ لِيُنْذِرَكُمْ وَلِتَتَّقُوْا وَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُوْنَ ﴿٦٣﴾

156. This tells us that Prophethood is restricted to males alone. No woman was appointed to the position of prophethood. Says Allah Almighty: "And We sent not before you any but men to whom We revealed." (S16:V43) Also. Prophethood is given to humans and not jinns or angels. Futhermore, we learn that Prophethood has always been granted to superior people from most dignified families so. that no one can look down upon them in any way. Thus, Allah Almighty sent seven years of drought to cleanse from His beloved Yusuf (On whom be peace) the stain of slavery and made the entire world his slaves. For the sake of dignity and respect of one prophet He plunged the entire world into difficulty.

157. From this we learn that the coming of the Prophet to man is undoubtedly Allah Almighty's special favour and blessings upon man of which mankind would always be proud.

64.Then they belied him, so We delivered him and those with him in the Ark and drowned [158] those who belied Our signs. Certainly that was a blind group [159].

فَكَذَّبُوْهُ فَاَنْجَيْنٰهُ وَالَّذِيْنَ مَعَهٗ فِي الْفُلْكِ وَ اَغْرَقْنَا الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا ؕ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا قَوْمًا عَمِيْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾ ع ۸ ۱۵

158. From this we learn that the enemies of Allah Almighty are not plunged into punishment until they do not begin to disobey the Prophet. Says Allah Almighty: "And We are not to torment until We have sent a Messenger (S16:V15). There were forty males and females in the ark of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace), but besides his own children there were no off-spring from any others. It is for this reason that Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) is known as Hazrat Adam II (On whom be peace)

159. By this is meant they did not possess the eye with which they could see the position of prophethood . Their hearts were dead although their eyes were open. It is for this reason that many blind people became Companions and many having sight did not become believers after seeing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم let alone being listed among his Companions.

SECTION 9

65.And to Aad [160] (We) sent Hud from their brethren. He said: "O my people! Worship Allah [161]. You have no god other than Him". Then do you not fear?

وَاِلٰى عَادٍ اَخَاهُمْ هُوْدًا ؕ قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ اِلٰهٍ غَيْرُهٗ ؕ اَفَلَا تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿٦٥﴾

Marfat.com

160. The people of Aad are divided into two Aad I whose Prophet was Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) and were inhabitants of Yemen and Aad II are known as Thamud. Their Prophet was Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace). There is a difference of one hundred years between these two. Aad I are the descendants of Aad ibn Iram ibn Saam ibn Nuh (On whom be peace). The geneology of Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) was Hud ibn Abdullah ibn Rabah ibn Khalood ibn Aad ibn Aus ibn Iram ibn Saam ibn Nuh (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

161. By worship here is meant to declare Faith as this is the origin of every form of worship.

66. The leaders of his people said: "Surely, we find you foolish [162], and we surely take you to be one of the liars".

قَالَ الْمَلَاُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْ قَوْمِهٖٓ اِنَّا لَنَرٰىكَ فِيْ سَفَاهَةٍ وَّ اِنَّا لَنَظُنُّكَ مِنَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾

162. Anyone who believes a prophet to be less in intelligence and knowledge is an infidel. The Prophets are pinnacles of knowledge and intelligence. The description of the infidelity of the people of Aad is that they regarded themselves more intelligent than Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace).

67.He (Nuh) said: "O my people! There is no concern of foolishness with me. I am indeed a Messenger from the Lord of the worlds" [163].

قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ لَيْسَ بِيْ سَفَاهَةٌ وَّ لٰكِنِّيْ رَسُوْلٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

163. From this we learn that prophethood and foolishness cannot come under one banner. Accomplished Prophets are intelligent people and always on the path of guidance. They are never unmindful of their Lord for even a second, otherwise the meaning of the conjunction 'but' would not be accurate. It should be remembered that the intelligence of the entire world in comparison to the Prophets is like that of a drop in comparison to the ocean. Likewise, the intelligence of all the Prophets in comparison to our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too, is like a drop in the ocean.

68."I deliver to you the messages of my Lord and I am your trusted well-wisher"[164].

اُبَلِّغُكُمْ رِسٰلٰتِ رَبِّيْ وَ اَنَا لَكُمْ نَاصِحٌ اَمِيْنٌ ﴿٦٨﴾

164. From this emerge two issues:

1. To exercise patience at the insolence of the ignorant people is the way of life of the Prophets. Observe, Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) did not answer the offensive and insulting conversation of these ignorant people in the same manner, but he was civil and tolerant towards them.

2. To describe your own good qualities for the sake of propagation and for seeking the pleasure of Allah Almighty is also the way of the Prophets. However, to do this out of pride is forbidden

69.And has this surprised you that an admonition has come to you from your Lord through a man from amongst you, so that he may warn you. And remember [165] when He appointed you successors of the tall and a big sized person was a hundred feet tall. They were all very strong and powerful. Their heads were as big as a tent and their eyes like the nests of the birds.

167. From this we learn that to remember the Bounties of Allah Almighty at all times is an act of worship. Holding Meelad Shareef is included in it as in it the blessed events of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are being discussed, and the blessed birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the greatest Bounty of Allah Almighty.

165. From this we learn that knowledge of History is also good to have, provided it is authentic, and its purpose is to take lessons from the lives of the previous people. Also, to ponder and reflect on the Bounties of Allah Almighty is an act of worship and means of deriving admonition.

166. Allah Almighty had granted them kingdom and a strong physique. Thus, the huge King Shaddad ibn Aad was born from them. A small sized person among them was sixty feet teachings of the Prophets is the way of life of the polytheists. Every person of the world is insignificant in opposition to the commands of the Prophets. Prophets are all true and majority of opinion does not hold true in front of them.

قَالُوْٓا اَجِئْتَنَا لِنَعْبُدَ اللّٰهَ وَحْدَهٗ وَ نَذَرَ مَا كَانَ يَعْبُدُ اٰبَآؤُنَا ۚ فَاْتِنَا بِمَا تَعِدُنَآ اِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿۷۰﴾

170. By this is meant that we will not accept you as a true Prophet by seeing your pious character and mannerism and your miracles, but by seeing the Divine punishment. It is true that when Allah Almighty takes your religion, He seizes your intelligence as well.

168. Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) would go out of the village to worship Allah Almighty. Whenever he received a propagational revelation he would come to the village to preach it to the people. On hearing it, this would be the reply of the people. Thus, 'coming here' meant coming from the jungle to the village.

169. By 'them' is meant idols. From this we learn that to adhere to the evil customs and traditions of your ancestors in opposition to the

قَالَ قَدْ وَقَعَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ رِجْسٌ وَّ غَضَبٌ ؕ اَتُجَادِلُوْنَنِيْ فِيْٓ اَسْمَآءٍ سَمَّيْتُمُوْهَآ اَنْتُمْ وَ اٰبَآؤُكُمْ مَّا نَزَّلَ اللّٰهُ بِهَا مِنْ سُلْطٰنٍ ؕ فَانْتَظِرُوْٓا اِنِّيْ مَعَكُمْ مِّنَ الْمُنْتَظِرِيْنَ ﴿۷۱﴾

71.He said: "Certainly there have befallen upon you the torment and wrath of the Lord [171]. Are you disputing with me only about those names which you and your fathers have named [172], for which Allah has not sent down any authority [173]? Wait then; I will also wait with you"[174].

171. The future true events in the Holy QUR'AAN are explained in the past tense. Because the coming of the punishment was a certainty that they should regard the torment or punishment to have befallen upon them.
172. There is no real truth or substance in these names, they are merely fictitious. From this we learn that the names which the polytheists of India have invented for their idols, like MAHADEO, GANESH, HANUMAN, etc are all fictitious. They were neither a creation at any time nor will they ever be in the future. The tail on the buttocks of HANUMAN, the trunk in GANESH's mouth, horns in the heads of some, are all fictitious tales as such persons never existed. For any ignorant Muslim to call these as saints and Prophets is foolishness of the highest kind. Since there is no proof of their creation or their existence, then there is no possibility of them being saints and prophets.
173. No Prophet has ever mentioned about such creation. Likewise, no Prophet or Messenger has given prophecy about the Hindu idols Krishna, Ramchandar, etc. Thus, there is no proof concerning these.
174. You too should await the coming of your destruction and punishment, as I am awaiting it.

فَاَنْجَيْنٰهُ وَ الَّذِيْنَ مَعَهٗ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِّنَّا وَ قَطَعْنَا دَابِرَ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ مَا كَانُوْا مُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٧٢﴾ ع ٩ ٨ ١٦

72.Then We saved him and those with him, by showing a great mercy [175] from Us, and cut off the roots [176] of those who used to belie Our signs. And they were not believers [177].

175. From this emerge two issues:
1. No Prophet, saint or a believer is ever independent of or indifferent to Almighty Allah's Mercy. All are dependent and in want of His Divine Mercy. 2. Muslims receive bounties as a result of the mercy and their association with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. For this reason the words of the verse are "and those with him". Through this we learn that association and companionship with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a means of obtaining salvation.
176. By "cut off their roots" means not a single person of theirs survived and their off-spring was discontinued. No one was left to make mention of them again.
177. Therefore, in the first three years they were afflicted by drought. When rain was withheld from them one group from them went to the Holy ka'abah to pray for rain. On their return two types of clouds were sent upon them - black and white, from which they were asked to choose one. They chose black clouds. The black clouds, instead of giving off rain, blew such a severe dust and wind that every infidel was destroyed by it. Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) came to Makkah Muazzamah with the remaining Muslims His demise took place here, and is buried near the Holy Ka'ba under the Mataaf. (Place where Tawaaf is made.)

sign for you. So leave her that she may graze on Allah's earth, and touch [181] her not with evil, lest a painful punishment overtakes you.

he is a true Prophet he must create a she-camel of this description out of the stone of this mountain. If they were shown this miracle they would believe in him. After receiving their promise Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) prayed to Allah Almighty. In the presence of everybody that stone burst asunder and from it appeared a young she-camel of their description. Immediately after coming into being it gave birth to a baby of her own kind. On seeing this miracle Jundah and his close associates declared faith, but the rest went against their promise and continued being infidels. This she-camel then remained at this same place. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

178. Thamud, too, was an Arab tribe. These people were from the off-spring of Thamud ibn Iram ibn Saam ibn Nuh (On whom be peace). They were inhabitants of HAJAR, a place situated between Arabia and Syria.

179. His name is Saleh ibn Ubaid, ibn Asif, ibn Fasih, ibn Ubaid, ibn Hazar, ibn Thamud. Because he was from the people of Thamud, he was referred to as the brother of his people. Otherwise, a prophet is never called a brother of his people. He is far superior in status and dignity than a father. Thus, the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are not the sister-in-laws of the Ummah but their mothers. Says Allah Almighty: "And his wives are their mothers." (S33:V6) The people of Thamud came after the people of Aad, and Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) came after Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace). (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

180. The she-camel is a sign from Allah Almighty, because it was created through the power of Allah Almighty, without mother and father. This does not mean that this she-camel was Almighty Allah's riding animal as is foolishly understood by Dayanand Saraswati Jundah. Ibn Amar, the leader of the Thamud asked Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) that if

181. From this, we learn that if eating a lawful thing causes harm one should abstain from it. The flesh of the camel is lawful to eat, but because there was a fear of Divine Punishment at slaughtering this she-camel, abstention from it had become absolutely necessary. Even today, experience has shown that the animal hunted from the jungle of the pious had proven harmful. Fish, etc. from the pond of the pious though not unlawful, prove to be harmful. Thus, abstention from them is equal to abstention from rheumatic things by a phlegmatic person.

وَ اذۡكُرُوۡۤا اِذۡ جَعَلَكُمۡ خُلَفَآءَ مِنۡۢ بَعۡدِ عَادٍ وَّ بَوَّاَكُمۡ فِى الۡاَرۡضِ تَتَّخِذُوۡنَ مِنۡ سُهُوۡلِهَا قُصُوۡرًا وَّ تَنۡحِتُوۡنَ الۡجِبَالَ بُيُوۡتًا ۚ فَاذۡكُرُوۡۤا اٰلَآءَ اللّٰهِ وَ لَا تَعۡثَوۡا فِى الۡاَرۡضِ مُفۡسِدِيۡنَ ﴿۷۴﴾

74.And remember when He made you successors of Aad [182] and assigned you a place in the land that you build palaces [183] on its plains, and hack out houses in its mountains. Then remember the bounties of Allah and wander not on the earth spreading mischief [184].

of Allah Almighty is an act of worship because in it Allah Almighty's greatest Bounty is being remembered.

182. In that he established you after destroying the people of Aad. From this we learn that rememberance of the Bounties

Marfat.com

183. The People of Thamud built places in the village for the summer and erected warm houses in the mountains for the winter, as is the case nowadays with the wealthy people. Their ages were so big that these homes used to be destroyed in their lifetime (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

184. By this is meant do not commit infidelity and sins upon the earth, because these result in Divine punishment causes mischief to spread. This could also mean abstain from stealing, banditry, alcohol, gambling, etc.

75.The proud leaders[185] of his people said to the weak Muslims: "Do you know [186] that Saleh is the Messenger of his Lord [187]?" They said: "We believe in what has been revealed to him"[188].

قَالَ الْمَلَاُ الَّذِيْنَ اسْتَكْبَرُوْا مِنْ قَوْمِهٖ لِلَّذِيْنَ اسْتُضْعِفُوْا لِمَنْ اٰمَنَ مِنْهُمْ اَتَعْلَمُوْنَ اَنَّ صٰلِحًا مُّرْسَلٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّهٖ ؕ قَالُوْۤا اِنَّا بِمَاۤ اُرْسِلَ بِهٖ مُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۷۵﴾

185. This means though they were not really great in fact, but regarded themselves as great. Whenever man is referred to as arrogant and proud the above is meant, but when the same word is used for Allah Almighty it means the Greatest Being beyond our imaginations.

186. This tells us some of the weak and poor persons from his people declared faith in him, but the leaders and the wealthy did not believe in him. At all times this is how the people behaved with the Prophets i.e. only the poor and destitute became followers.

187. The questions asked by these wretched people was reflected as jest and derision, Hence, Allah Almighty had mentioned it under their infidelity.

188. From this we learn that Faith in joint form is accepted e.g. we have declared faith in all the Prophets jointly, though we are not certain as to their exact number. Likewise, we have jointly believed in all the laws brought by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم though we are not certain about their exact number.

76.The boastful ones said: "In that which you believe we surely disbelieve"[189].

قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ اسْتَكْبَرُوْۤا اِنَّا بِالَّذِيْۤ اٰمَنْتُمْ بِهٖ كٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿۷۶﴾

189. In this matter we see strange kindness, that when the believer declares his faith based on prophethood saying that with whatever laws he is sent we have declared faith in it, but when the infidels declared their infidelity based on their faith on which you have faith. Allah Almighty rejects it. In this there is a hint that Faith should be like that of general Muslims.

77.Then they chopped the legs of the she-camel [190] and rebelled against the command of their Lord and said: "O Saleh! Bring upon us that which you are threatening, if you are surely a Messenger".

فَعَقَرُوا النَّاقَةَ وَ عَتَوْا عَنْ اَمْرِ رَبِّهِمْ وَقَالُوْا يٰصٰلِحُ ائْتِنَا بِمَا تَعِدُنَاۤ اِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ ﴿۷۷﴾

190. Although the hamstrings to the she-camel were cut off by one person, Qaidar, it was connected to everybody, because it was done through everybody's decision. From this we learn that suggestion and opinion concerning infidelity, too, is infidelity. They cut off the hamstring on Wednesday. Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) informed them that they would be destroyed after three days. On the first day their faces would turn yellow, on the second day they would become red and on the third day they will become black. The same took place as predicted. Then just before Sunday afternoon they first became victims of frightening screams which tore apart their hearts, destroying them totally. Then a terrible earthquake took place. The author of Roohul Bayaan writes among the Thamud was a very pretty and wealthy lady called Sadook. Her daughters, too, were very pretty. Because the she-camel of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) was causing problems to her animals she sent for Masda ibn Dahar and told him that if he can slaughter this she-camel, she would give the choice of marrying any daughter of her he likes. Masda and Qaidar both set out in search of the she-camel and on finding it they slaughtered it. However, Qaidar slaughtered the animal while Masda aided him in the slaughtering.

78.Then the earthquake[191] overtook them. They fell down face on earth in their homes in the morning.

191. In that, first Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) screamed due to which there was a severe earthquake which destroyed them.

Hence, there is no inconsistency with the verse of scream and verse of earthquake.

79.Then he (Saleh) turned back [192] his face from them and said: "O my people! Verily I did deliver to you the messages of my Lord, and wished you good. But you do not love those who are your well-wishers [193]".

فَتَوَلّٰى عَنْهُمْ وَ قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ لَقَدْ اَبْلَغْتُكُمْ رِسَالَةَ رَبِّيْ وَ نَصَحْتُ لَكُمْ وَ لٰكِنْ لَّا تُحِبُّوْنَ النّٰصِحِيْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾

192. After their destruction, Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) with the believers first left the village and proceeded to the jungle. After the death of these believers, he proceeded for Makkah Muazzamah. At the time of departure, when Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) walked past these corpes he addressed them as appears in verse 79.

193. From this we learn that corpses can hear because Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) spoke to them after their death. In fact, these special pious servants after their demise can hear far and near of things. Thus, every worshipper in Tashahood sends Salaam upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In terms of Islamic law it is forbidden to greet one who cannot hear the greeting e.g. one asleep or unconsious, etc. Likewise, it is forbidden to greet one who is incapable of returning the greeting e.g. one engrossed in Salaah or one in the toilet.

80. And We sent Lut [194], when he said to his people: "Do you commit that indecency[195] which was not committed by anyone in the world before you [196]?"

وَ لُوْطًا اِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهٖۤ اَتَاْتُوْنَ الْفَاحِشَةَ مَا سَبَقَكُمْ بِهَا مِنْ اَحَدٍ مِّنَ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۸۰﴾

194.Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) was the nephew of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). He was the Prophet in Sadoom while Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was a Prophet in Syria and Palestine. He had migrated with Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and came to Syria, and was of great service to Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and was made a Prophet through the prayer of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace).

195. By 'indecency' is meant sodomy which is explained in the next verse. Indecency is that sin which is regarded a evil by ones mind. Although infidelity is the worst of the major sins, yet Allah Almighty did not describe it as indecent, because the human mind does not show aversion to it. Many intellectuals are involved in infidelity. On the other hand, sodomy is such a repulsive act, that even animals are repugnant about it besides the pig.

196. From this emerge a few issues:

1. Sodomy is the invention of the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace), for this reason it is called LAWAATAH or Sodomy.
2. Sodomy with boys is absolutely forbidden and one who does not reject it as an unlawful act is an infidel.
3. Even the infidels are duty bound by these laws because these are behavioural laws. However they are duty bound by laws concerning worship.

81.You rather approach males for lust, instead of females [197]. On the contrary, you cross the limits.

اِنَّكُمْ لَتَاْتُوْنَ الرِّجَالَ شَهْوَةً مِّنْ دُوْنِ النِّسَآءِ ؕ بَلْ اَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّسْرِفُوْنَ ﴿۸۱﴾

197. By 'instead of women' means they would not touch their wives, or that they are no longer fit for them because a sodomite man is no longer fit for his wife.

82.And there was no answer of his people, but they only said: "Turn them out of your town [198], surely these people aspire to be pure".

وَ مَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهٖۤ اِلَّاۤ اَنْ قَالُوْۤا اَخْرِجُوْهُمْ مِّنْ قَرْيَتِكُمْ ۚ اِنَّهُمْ اُنَاسٌ يَّتَطَهَّرُوْنَ ﴿۸۲﴾

198. From this we learn that whenever anyone is to be afflicted he begins to think lopsidedly. The habitation of any pious servant of Allah Almighty is a means of peace and security for those inhabitants while their departure from that place is a means of punishment for them. By forcing these pious people out of their village these people were inviting the punishment of Allah Almighty upon themselves. Further, we learn that in Arabic the word QARYAH 'Town' refers to big city as well, because SADOOM was a big city. Thus, the Hadith Shareef which mentions that Salaatatul Jumuah was performed in the town of Jawatha refers to the city of Jawatha because Jumuah Salaah is not valid in a village. Those people who claim that Jumuah Salaah is permissible in terms of this word QARYAH are basing their argument on an incorrect proof because Qaryah is a city, not a village.

83.Then We delivered him and his family [199], except his wife, she was of those who remained behind [200].

فَاَنْجَيْنٰهُ وَ اَهْلَهٗۤ اِلَّا امْرَاَتَهٗ ۫ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغٰبِرِيْنَ ﴿۸۳﴾

199. From this we learn that the children, wives, etc. are all part of the family of the Prophet, Hence, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم pious wives and children are all family of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and therefore his AHLE BAIT(people of his household).

200. That woman's name was Wahila. She did not declare faith in him, but instead was an informer for the people. This tells us that a Prophet's wife can be an infidel but not an adulteress. Says Allah Almighty: "Dirty women are for dirty men" (S24:V26) He had two daughters from her, Raooz and Reenta. These two as well as all the Muslims were saved, everyone else was destroyed.

be peace) were as a result of this sent such a punishment which was not sent on any other people deserving of punishment. Even today the punishment of adultery in Islam is worse than that of murder, that is, stoning to death.

2. To read the historical accounts of criminal and sinful people and to ponder and reflect over them is an act of worship as this will create hatred for sin in one's heart. Similarly to ponder over life history of beloved nation is also beloved. So that motivation of obedience may emerge.

201. By this is meant at first the earth was rolled into a board in which Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) raised the entire board skywards then threw it upside down. Thereafter such stones fell down which were made of sulphur and fire. Some of the learned Ulema say that the inhabitants of that place were sunk into the earth, and those who were on a journey were destroyed by rain

202. From this, emerges two issues:

1. Immorality is the worst form of sin. Observe the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom Undoubtedly, there has come to you bright proofs from your Lord. Then give full measures [204] and full weights properly and do not give the people their things in reduction. And do not spread mischief on the earth after setting its fair management. This is good for you, if you believe [206]".

command resulted in Divine punishment descending upon these people. The infidels too would be punished on the Day of Judgement for their ommision of Salaah. Says Allah Almighty: "They said, we were not used to offering prayer" (S74:V43). However, in terms of Islamic law worship is not obligatory upon the infidels.

205. Because Prophets of Allah Almighty came upon it. He instituted prophetic laws upon it which helped to rectify and reform the village. Now you must not cause mischief and rebellion through infidelity and sin.

206. By this is meant if you remain accurate in your weight and measurement after declaring faith, refrain from causing mischief,

203. By this is meant Allah Almighty sent Hazrat Shuaib ibn Makeel, ibn Yashjar ibn Madian. Madian married Hazrat Lut's (On whom be peace) daughter Reena. From this marriage many children were born which filled the village. This village was named Madian. Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) was handsome and possessed a commanding personality. His daughter, Hazrat Safoora, was given in marriage to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

204. This tells us that the infidels too are duty bound by some laws, because Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) had given orders to his infidel people to be accurate with the scale and measurement. Their disregard to this that would be better for you because you would be rewarded in the Hereafter for this . The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says that on the Day of Judgement the honest merchant will be in the company of the Prophet of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that the infidels will not gain any benefits form their honesty in business in the Hereafter. The rewards of the Hereafter are only for the believers.

86. And sit not on every path [207] threatening and barring from Allah's ways to the wayfarers who have believed in Him, desiring crookedness in it. And remember when you were few, He multiplied [208] you. And behold! What was the end of the mischief-makers [209].

وَ لَا تَقْعُدُوْا بِكُلِّ صِرَاطٍ تُوْعِدُوْنَ وَ تَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اٰمَنَ بِهٖ وَتَبْغُوْنَهَا عِوَجًا ۚ وَ اذْكُرُوْٓا اِذْ كُنْتُمْ قَلِيْلًا فَكَثَّرَكُمْ ۪ وَانْظُرُوْا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُفْسِدِيْنَ ﴿۸۶﴾

207. These people would sit in the roads of Madyan and would tell all travellers coming to it that there is a magician in Madyan whom they must avoid meeting. The name of the magician is Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace). They further said that some of his followers lost the travellers coming to Madian.

208. That at the beginning you were few in number, He increased you numerically; you were poor but He made you rich, you were weak, but He made you strong. These bounties demand that you should express your appreciation and gratitude to Me by declaring faith in Me.

209. Outwardly it seems that these, too, are words of Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace). He is telling his people that ponder over the historical events of the previous people to take lessons from them. It is possible that this is being addressed to the Arabs. From this we learn that to learn historical events of nations, and to gain lessons from our ups and downs is an order from Allah Almighty. Likewise, the biographies of the pious especially that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an excellent act of worship. This helps to inculcate piety, fear of Allah Almighty and the taste for worship.

87.And if there is a party of you who believe in that with which I have been sent and a party of you who believe [210] not, then wait till Allah decides between us. And Allah's decision is the best [211].

وَ اِنْ كَانَ طَآئِفَةٌ مِّنْكُمْ اٰمَنُوْا بِالَّذِيْٓ اُرْسِلْتُ بِهٖ وَ طَآئِفَةٌ لَّمْ يُؤْمِنُوْا فَاصْبِرُوْا حَتّٰى يَحْكُمَ اللّٰهُ بَيْنَنَا ۚ وَ هُوَ خَيْرُ الْحٰكِمِيْنَ ﴿۸۷﴾

210. Just as every area of the earth does not become green from the rain, some portion is left deprived, every human does not come on the path of guidance from the teachings of the Prophet of Allah Almighty, some are deprived of it. In fact, through the rain of Prophethood condition of the heart is revealed. Whatever seed the power of Allah Almighty has sowed in the heart, the same will be rewarded.

211. Rulers of the world too are HAAKIM but they are of metaphorical or apparent nature as these are rulers who can err. Allah Almighty is the absolute ruler in whose order there is no possibility of an error nor is there appeal at His decision. Hence, this verse is absolutely true, without any room for objection.

قَالَ الْمَلَاُ الَّذِيْنَ اسْتَكْبَرُوْا مِنْ قَوْمِهٖ لَنُخْرِجَنَّكَ يٰشُعَيْبُ وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مَعَكَ مِنْ قَرْيَتِنَآ اَوْ لَتَعُوْدُنَّ فِيْ مِلَّتِنَا ؕ قَالَ اَوَ لَوْ كُنَّا كٰرِهِيْنَ ﴿۸۸﴾

88.The proud chiefs [212] of his people said: "O Shuaib! We swear that we will certainly throw you out of our town along with those Muslims [213] who are with you or you come back to our faith". He said: "What! Even though we hate it [214]?"

212. From this we learn that it is the leaders of the nation who become the cause of its destruction. If they are reformed they can elevate the nation to the highest plain of progress. The leaders of the people of Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) were destroyed due to their impudence and disrespect.

213. By this is meant the true purpose and object was to take you out, and because of you your believing companions too would be taken out with you. This tells us that even the infidels knew that there is a difference between a prophet and general believers. Prophets are not included in the word believers. It should be remembered that the word "With you" is connected to taking out i.e. they too would be taken out with you. The believers are not equal to the Prophets in faith, as Prophets are superior in faith than all.

214. By this is meant it cannot happen that inwardly we become disgusted with your religion and outwardly we feign acceptance thereof. This shows that hypocrisy is an evil thing.

قَدِ افْتَرَيْنَا عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا اِنْ عُدْنَا فِيْ مِلَّتِكُمْ بَعْدَ اِذْ نَجّٰىنَا اللّٰهُ مِنْهَا ؕ وَمَا يَكُوْنُ لَنَآ اَنْ نَّعُوْدَ فِيْهَآ اِلَّآ اَنْ يَّشَآءَ اللّٰهُ رَبُّنَا ؕ وَسِعَ رَبُّنَا كُلَّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا ؕ عَلَى اللّٰهِ تَوَكَّلْنَا ؕ رَبَّنَا افْتَحْ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ قَوْمِنَا بِالْحَقِّ وَاَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْفٰتِحِيْنَ ﴿۸۹﴾

89.Certainly we shall forge a lie against Allah, if we returned to your faith after Allah has delivered us from it [215]. And if it is not for us Muslims that we should come back in your faith, but that Allah Who is our Lord so willed [216]. The knowledge of our Lord comprehends everything [217]. We put our trust in Allah. O our Lord! Decide between us and our people with truth [218]. And Your decision is the best [219].

215. By this is meant Allah Almighty had from the outset protected me from infidelity, and took my companions out of it and guided them towards faith, because Prophets cannot be sinners, let alone be perpetrators of infidelity.

216. Prophets are absolved from misleading a believer because they are totally innocent and cannot in any way be misguided. Misguidance either comes from ones baser self or from the deception of the devil. The Prophets of Allah Almighty do not have a baser self. They only have the contented self. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt the soul is wont to command evil but that on whom my Lord has mercy" (S12:V53). Thus, the devil is unable to mislead them. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt those who are my bondsmen, you have no control over them" (S17:V65). From this there is a hint that the infidelity of the infidels is due to the will and intention of Allah Almighty, but not due to His Pleasure.

verses in which it is said that Allah Almighty has encompassed everything through His knowledge and Power, because Allah Almighty is physically pure from encompassing and beseiging. فَاَخَذَتْهُمُ الرَّجْفَةُ فَاَصْبَحُوْا فِيْ دَارِهِمْ جٰثِمِيْنَ ﴿۹۱﴾

221. By 'fell prostrate' is meant first they were shattered by a loud scream, then an earthquake, as it is stated in Surah Hud: "And the roaring noise overtook the unjust." (S11:V94) Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) has said that the door of Hell was opened upon them from which came severe heat. They ran into the dungeons, but the heat was there as well.

Coming out of there they ran towards the jungles where a piece of cloud appeared. They all assembled under it. Suddenly that cloud blazed into fire burning and destroying all of them. Thus, the meaning of the word 'homes' is their village and not their homes because they ran out of their homes into the jungle where they were destroyed. Says Allah Almighty: "Therefore, the torment of the day of shadow overtook them" (S26:V189).

Marfat.com

222. By this is meant after the destruction of the people when Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) was going pass a safe place to which he restricted himself. Here he walked over the corpses and directed these words to them. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, etc) From the letter FA-'then' it appears this speech is after death.
223. From this we learn that dead bodies have the ability to hear because Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) spoke to his people after their destruction. The Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) too had spoken to the dead bodies of Abu Jahl and his mates slain in the Battle of Badr.
224.By this is meant you are not worthy people over whom one can bereave. From this one learns that it is totally forbidden to express grief at the death of an infidel, like those Muslims who had worn black clothes and recited dirges at the death of Gandhi and Tillak. Contrary to this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم offered Sajda of gratitude when receiving the news of Abu Jahl's death. The joy is not at the person's death but at him being no longer a mischief for the world. How can one be grieved at the loss of a rotten limb.

SECTION 12

94. And We have not sent any Prophet in any town, but We seized the people thereof with adversity and suffering [225] that any way they might lament [226].

وَ مَآ اَرۡسَلۡنَا فِیۡ قَرۡیَۃٍ مِّنۡ نَّبِیٍّ اِلَّاۤ اَخَذۡنَاۤ اَہۡلَہَا بِالۡبَاۡسَآءِ وَالضَّرَّآءِ لَعَلَّہُمۡ یَضَّرَّعُوۡنَ ﴿۹۴﴾

225. In this verse the word 'people' refers to the infidels, severity refers to poverty and other outside calamites and difficulties refer to disease, torment, etc. This means these calamities were sent upon them so that they could accept faith.
226. From this we learn that comforts and problems in this world are a test. One should be patient in tribulation and grateful in comforts. Gaining comforts despite one's sins is a form of severe punishment, while calamities on the pious is a form of Divine mercy, if he is able to accept these with patience.

95.Then We changed the place of evil with good [227] until they grew in number and said: "No doubt, sufferings and comforts visited our fathers". Then We seized them suddenly while they were unmindful[228].

ثُمَّ بَدَّلۡنَا مَکَانَ السَّیِّئَۃِ الۡحَسَنَۃَ حَتّٰی عَفَوۡا وَّقَالُوۡا قَدۡ مَسَّ اٰبَآءَنَا الضَّرَّآءُ وَالسَّرَّآءُ فَاَخَذۡنٰہُمۡ بَغۡتَۃً وَّہُمۡ لَا یَشۡعُرُوۡنَ ﴿۹۵﴾

227. Or, so that they can accept faith in gratitude for receiving these bounties, or so that they can commit more sins due to their negligence. In the first instance these bounties were a means of Divine mercy, in the second they were a form of punishment.
228. This tell us that turning to Allah Almighty in the face of diffuculties, or believing in Him just by the way is a sign of the negligent and callous people. Whenever the Noble Companions were ill they would always think which fault of theirs caused this difficulty upon them, and always feared at receiving blessings and bounties thinking whether this was not a divine punishment for them. This is the sign of a heart that is alert and alive. May Allah Almighty grant us this type of a heart.

وَ لَوْ اَنَّ اَهْلَ الْقُرٰٓى اٰمَنُوْا وَ اتَّقَوْا لَفَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ بَرَكٰتٍ مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَلٰكِنْ كَذَّبُوْا فَاَخَذْنٰهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ ﴿۹۶﴾

96.And had the people of the town believed and become pious, then We would surely have opened upon them blessings [229] from the heavens and the earth. But they had falsified. So We seized them on account of their doings [230].

229. From this we learn piety is a means of obtaining mercy of Allah Almighty, in this world as well as in the Hereafter. Says Allah Almighty: "And he who fears Allah, Allah will make a way for his deliverance." (S65:V2) We further learn that in order to remove wordly calamities one is allowed to do good deeds. Thus, one performs Salatul Istisqa for rain and Salatul Kusoof for protection during the eclipse.

230. By this is meant Allah Almighty has seized the sane and adult infidels in different types of punishments due to their evil doings, while their children, animals etc. as their subordinates. Weevil is also ground with the wheat. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

اَفَاَمِنَ اَهْلُ الْقُرٰٓى اَنْ يَّاْتِيَهُمْ بَاْسُنَا بَيَاتًا وَّ هُمْ نَآئِمُوْنَ ﴿۹۷﴾

97.Do the people of the towns not fear Allah that Our punishment may come upon them at night while they remain asleep [231]?

231. Here "people of the towns" refers to the people of Makkah and its surroundings, while 'not fear' means to become fearless due to lack of fear of Allah Almighty which is an act of infidelity. Thus, this verse is not in opposition to "And Allah Almighty is not one to chastise them while your are in their midst". (S8:V33) i.e. Oh My Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. while you are in their midst no punishment will come to them. The awe and fear of Allah Almighty are proofs of Faith. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would show fear when seeing the clouds. To fear breach of promise by Allah Almighty is an act of infidelity. Also, to remove the fear of Allah Almighty out of one's heart is a proof of infidelity. The same is meant here.

اَوَ اَمِنَ اَهْلُ الْقُرٰٓى اَنْ يَّاْتِيَهُمْ بَاْسُنَا ضُحًى وَّ هُمْ يَلْعَبُوْنَ ﴿۹۸﴾

98.Or, do the people of the town not fear that our punishment may come upon them in the daylight while they are playing [232]?

232. Because punishment of Allah Almighty usually comes at the time of negligence, which mostly comes during the latter part of the night or in the afternoon.

اَفَاَمِنُوْا مَكْرَ اللّٰهِ ۚ فَلَا يَاْمَنُ مَكْرَ اللّٰهِ اِلَّا الْقَوْمُ الْخٰسِرُوْنَ ﴿۹۹﴾ ع ۱۲/۶/۲

99.Are they unaware of the secret plan of Allah? And none becomes fearless against the secret plan of Allah, but the losers [233].

233. One thus learns that the emptiness of the heart of the fear of Almighty Allah and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the means of being in severe loss. Allah Almighty's slackness and not punishing any person for committing sins is the secret devise of Allah Almighty.

100.And do those who inherited the land after the owners of it did not get so much guidance [234] that if We please, We would have afflicted them for their sins. And We put a seal upon their hearts so that they hear nothing [235].

أَوَ لَمْ يَهْدِ لِلَّذِيْنَ يَرِثُوْنَ الْاَرْضَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ اَهْلِهَآ اَنْ لَّوْ نَشَآءُ اَصَبْنٰهُمْ بِذُنُوْبِهِمْ ۚ وَ نَطْبَعُ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۰﴾

234. This means they should ponder that just as this would not remain with their legators; they died, making them heirs of their estates, they too will not own these things permanently viz. someone else will become the owners of these things. It should be remembered that the residents of Makkah were not sent with outward Divine punishment. Companions of the Elephants were devastated by such punishment, but they were not citizens of Makkah. Examples of such punishment are undergoing metamorphosis or total mutilation, etc. In whichever towns and places such punishment comes, it is forbidden to stay there, drink its water or even make a stop there. Thus, we have provided an emphatic commentary of this verse, that here death of the legators is envisaged after which their heirs become legal owners of their wealth.

235. From this we learn that not taking a lesson from another's death, and remaining engrossed in sins are signs of a negligent heart. Visiting the graves is Sunnat so that one can take a lesson from this.

101.These are the towns, the news of which We relate to you [236]. And undoubtedly, there came to them their Messengers with bright proofs, but they were not able to believe what they had first rejected [237]. Thus, Allah put the seal upon the hearts of the infidels [238].

تِلْكَ الْقُرٰى نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ اَنْۢبَآئِهَا ۚ وَلَقَدْ جَآءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنٰتِ ۚ فَمَا كَانُوْا لِيُؤْمِنُوْا بِمَا كَذَّبُوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۱﴾

236. From this one learns that reading about the events which caused the destruction of nations is an excellent way of taking a warning or learning a lesson. Likewise reading about the lives of the Prophets and saints of Allah Almighty are necessary to inculcate a desire for worshipping Allah Almighty.

237. From this one learns that insulting Allah Almighty's Prophet or harbouring enmity about him becomes a means of stamping a seal on the heart. May Allah Almighty save us from this.

238. It is understood that opposition of the Prophet of Allah Almighty results in a person's heart becoming hard and then does not have the capacity to receive guidance. Thus, now those who have no connection with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم their understanding of the QUR'AAN too becomes lopsided. May Allah Almighty protect us.

This seal is like how the iron becomes eroded by rust.

102.And We did not find most of them true to their words [239] and certainly We found most of them transgressors.

وَ مَا وَجَدْنَا لِاَكْثَرِهِمْ مِّنْ عَهْدٍ ۚ وَ اِنْ وَّجَدْنَآ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَفٰسِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۲﴾

Marfat.com

239. Whenever the infidels of Makkah were caught up in a difficulty they would make a solemn promise that if they obtain salvation, they would accept faith. However, when they had obtained salvation, they went back on their promise. This is what is being discussed here.

ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا مِنْۢ بَعْدِهِمْ مُّوْسٰى بِاٰيٰتِنَآ اِلٰى فِرْعَوْنَ وَ مَلَا۟ئِهٖ فَظَلَمُوْا بِهَا ۚ فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُفْسِدِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۳﴾

103.Then after them We sent Musa towards Firaun and his chiefs with Our signs [240], but they did injustice to these signs. See how was the end of these mischief-mongers.

240. By this is meant those Prophets before Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). After them Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was sent. Because Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is a high ranking Prophet of the Israelites, the first Prophet upon whom a Book was revealed, he is therefore discussed with a great deal of importance. Otherwise, he too has been included among all the Prophets. By verses here, is meant the miracles of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) and not to the verses of Tauraat, because Tauraat was revealed to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) after the destruction of the Pharaoh. Also, infidels do not hold themselves responsible for believing in the revealed Book, they become dutybound to believe in the Prophet. In those days every king of Egypt assumed the title of Pharaoh. Before that they were called the 'Aziz' of Egypt. The name of the Pharaoh in the time of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was Musab Bin Rayyan. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was a Prophet for the entire Egypt, whether they were Qibti, Sibti or Israelite. Now the kings of Egypt are called Khadyu of Egypt

وَ قَالَ مُوْسٰى يٰفِرْعَوْنُ اِنِّيْ رَسُوْلٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۙ﴿۱۰۴﴾

104.And Musa said: "O Firaun! I am the Messenger from the Lord of the Worlds" [241].

241. From this we learn that the first obligatory thing is the recognition of a Prophet, then other things. It is for this reason that our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in his very first preaching said: "Recognize me. How do you find me?"

حَقِيْقٌ عَلٰٓى اَنْ لَّآ اَقُوْلَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ اِلَّا الْحَقَّ ؕ قَدْ جِئْتُكُمْ بِبَيِّنَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ فَاَرْسِلْ مَعِيَ بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ ؕ﴿۱۰۵﴾

105."It is my duty not to say anything about Allah, but the truth[242]. I have come to you all with signs from your Lord. Then let the children of Israel go with me" [243].

242. This tells us that a prophet is totally innocent of all falsehood. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) said: "Rather this big one of them would have done this," (S21:V63) was preaching not a lie. Likewise, his calling sister for his wife too is literary a device of concealing the real feeling. The connection between prophethood and falsehood is like that between light and darkness. Falsehood from them is an impossibility, while falsehood concerning Allah Almighty is an impossibility with His personality.

243. By this is meant first emancipate them from their slavery so that they can go to Syria with me.

day, therefore he was blessed with the miracles of giving sight to the blind, cure the lepers, giving life to the dead. If Mirza Ghulam Qadiyani was a prophet he should have been given miracles of scientific inventions because presently this is the prevailing power.

245. From this we learn that prophets are given such astonishing miracles which held great weight in their days. Because magic was the prevalent power of those days, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was given these miracles. During the time of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) medicine was the force of the

He stayed for a short while with Bibi Halima (Allah be pleased with her) so that no wretched person could get an opportunity to make such allegations.Thus, Pharaoh did not make this allegation against Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace).

246. Because he was gone from Egypt for some time, the followers of Pharaoh thought that he had gone to study witchcraft and excelled in this field by acquiring this knowledge from an experienced magician. For this reason Allah Almighty had kept our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم amongst the Makkans.

قَالَ نَعَمْ وَ اِنَّكُمْ لَمِنَ الْمُقَرَّبِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۴﴾

114.Pharaoh said: "Yes, and then you shall become near [248] to me".

248. Allah Almighty made true words to come from the mouth of the Pharaoh, as a result of which these magicians became victorious as believers and became pious servants of Allah Almighty. These magicians were seventy thousand in total and had four leaders. Shaboor, Aadoor, Hittatah and Sham'oon. When they came to know that the stick of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) guards him in the form of a snake while he is asleep, they realised that this was not magic because magic can only work when the magician is awake, not when he is asleep. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

قَالُوْا يٰمُوْسٰۤى اِمَّاۤ اَنْ تُلْقِيَ وَ اِمَّاۤ اَنْ نَّكُوْنَ نَحْنُ الْمُلْقِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

115.They said: "O Musa! Will you throw first or will we be the first to cast?"

قَالَ اَلْقُوْا ۚ فَلَمَّاۤ اَلْقَوْا سَحَرُوْۤا اَعْيُنَ النَّاسِ وَ اسْتَرْهَبُوْهُمْ وَ جَآءُوْ بِسِحْرٍ عَظِيْمٍ ﴿۱۱۶﴾

116.Musa said: "You throw" [249]. When they threw they enchanted the eyes of the people [250] and frightened them and brought forth a great magic [251].

249. This tells us that it is not forbidden to give permission to nullify infidelity or sins, because Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) gave them permission to cast their magic, not to nullify it. We further know that one receives faith by respecting the Prophet of Allah Almighty. It is due to this respect for Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) that these magicians were guided towards faith and testification - that cast their magic after seeking permission.

250. This makes it apparent that usually there is not much truth attached to magic. People only become victims of optical illusion. However, what one sees through a miracle is the actual thing seen. The same is the condition of KARAMAT or a miracle shown by a saint. Says Allah Almighty: "Now We shall restore it to its former condition." (S20:V21)

251. The sticks were loaded on three hundred camels which were shown in the form of snakes.The entire ground was filled with snakes.

وَ اَوْحَيْنَاۤ اِلٰى مُوْسٰۤى اَنْ اَلْقِ عَصَاكَ ۚ فَاِذَا هِيَ تَلْقَفُ مَا يَاْفِكُوْنَ ۚ ﴿۱۱۷﴾

117.And We revealed to Musa, throw your staff. Then suddenly it began to swallow their false shows [252].

Marfat.com

252. From this we learn that whenever a thing is changed to another form, some of its characteristics too come to pass in it. The walking-stick was a stick. A stick does not eat or drink, but when it assumed the form of a snake it began to eat and drink. This helps to solve many issues, e.g. appearing of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) in human form in 118.Then the truth was established and their works proved in vain [253].

253. This tells us that magic cannot withstand the power of Prophetic miracle. The magic which affected our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not pitted against a miracle. It was done

119.Then they were laid vanquished here and returned humiliated.

120. And the magicians were made to prostrate [254].

254. The magicians did not go into prostration. by themselves but Divine Guidance helped them and they were made to prostrate to their 121.They said: "We believe in the Lord of the Worlds".

122."Who is the Lord of Musa and Harun" [255].

255. This tells us that Prophets are the proof and recognition of Allah Almighty viz. Lord of the worlds is He who is described by these two Prophets, and not whom the Pharaoh

123. Pharaoh said: "You have believed in Him before I gave you leave [256]. This is indeed a big plot, which you all have plotted [257] in the city, that you may drive forth its people there from. So now you shall know".

256. In this verse the word 'before' means without i.e.without my permission why did you declare faith? An example of this is "Then the sea would be exhausted but not my Lord " clothes, the loss of an eye of the Angel of Death through the clout of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), etc. who behaved according to the nature of the shape. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Light of Allah Almighty but when in human form he would eat and drink, enter into marriage, keep continuos fasts without any difficulty, being the manifestation of light.

(S18:V109). From this we learn that there is no need to seek permission of parents or king in order to declare faith. In fact, obligatory duties like Salaah, Hajj etc. are necessary to be performed without the permission of parents, kings etc.

257. By this is meant that all of you are pupils and Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is your teacher. You secretly conspire to confront him but you were decisively defeated. This confrontation took place in the area of Alexandria.

124. I shall certainly cut off your hands and your feet on alternate sides, then I shall crucify you all [258].

لَاُقَطِّعَنَّ اَيْدِيَكُمْ وَ اَرْجُلَكُمْ مِّنْ خِلَافٍ ثُمَّ لَاُصَلِّبَنَّكُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۴﴾

258. Crucify them on the banks of the river on the palm trees so that it may serve as a lesson for the people. The author of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, had said that Pharaoh is the inventor of crucifixion. Now, the punishment in Islam of a robber is execution or death by hanging.

125. They said: "We are surely to return to our Lord" [259].

قَالُوْٓا اِنَّآ اِلٰى رَبِّنَا مُنْقَلِبُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۵﴾ ج

259. From this we learn that in the heart of a believer there is no fear for anyone besides Allah Almighty. Further we learn that a person can become an instant saint through the company of the Prophet. Observe, that the day these magicians declared faith on Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), that very day they acquired so much spiritual strength that they no longer feared crucifixion.

126."And what do you see bad in us, save that we have believed in the signs of our Lord [260] when they came to us. O our Lord! Pour upon us patience and cause us to die as Muslims [261].

وَمَا تَنْقِمُ مِنَّآ اِلَّآ اَنْ اٰمَنَّا بِاٰيٰتِ رَبِّنَا لَمَّا جَآءَتْنَا ؕ رَبَّنَآ اَفْرِغْ عَلَيْنَا صَبْرًا وَّتَوَفَّنَا مُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۶﴾ ع ۱۴ ۱۸ ۴

260. This tells us that the recognition of a complete believer is that infidels are displeased with him. The displeasure of the infidels is a proof of the strength of faith. Those with whom both the Muslims and infidels are happy, are hypocrites. Even to date the infidels are expressing disapproval of the Noble Companions.

261. This makes it clear that nearness of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) in just one day made those old infidels pass the different stages of faith, companionship and martyrdom. The beneficience of companionship is greater than everything else.

SECTION 15

127.And the chiefs of the people of Pharaoh said: "Do you leave Musa and his people to cause mischief in the land and reject [263] you and your gods?" He said: "Now we will kill their males and keep alive their daughters [264]. And surely we are dominant over them [266]".

وَ قَالَ الْمَلَاُ مِنْ قَوْمِ فِرْعَوْنَ اَتَذَرُ مُوْسٰى وَ قَوْمَهٗ لِيُفْسِدُوْا فِى الْاَرْضِ وَيَذَرَكَ وَاٰلِهَتَكَ ؕ قَالَ سَنُقَتِّلُ اَبْنَآءَهُمْ وَ نَسْتَحْيٖ نِسَآءَهُمْ ۚ وَ اِنَّا فَوْقَهُمْ قٰهِرُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۷﴾

262. When six hundred thousand declared faith on seeing the magicians falling into prostration, these leaders became scared and said: "Why don't you kill (Hazrat) Musa (On whom be peace)?"
263. Those who came to the court of the Pharaoh would all worship him, while those who lived far were given his idol carved from stone and wood which they would worship. This is what is meant by the words 'your gods'.
264. The word 'Nisaa' in Arabic is used to denote young girls, but here it is used for small girls because in future they would be growing into young girls. Hence, it is used metaphorically, just as students are sometimes called an Aalim (a learned man).
265. By this is meant our elevation is undoubtedly better than that of the Israelites. They were merely saying this verbally but their hearts were pounding.
266. From this one learns that Pharaoh was overawed by Musa (On whom be peace), therefore he did not oppose him but continued to torture the children of the people.

128.Musa said to his people: "Seek the help of Allah and have patience [267]. No doubt, Allah is the Master of the earth. He makes as successor whomsoever He pleases from His bondsmen. And the end is in the hand of the God-fearing [268].

قَالَ مُوْسٰى لِقَوْمِهِ اسْتَعِيْنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَ اصْبِرُوْا ۚ اِنَّ الْاَرْضَ لِلّٰهِ ۙ يُوْرِثُهَا مَنْ يَّشَآءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهٖ ؕ وَ الْعَاقِبَةُ لِلْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۸﴾

267. When the Israelites came to know that now their sons would be executed they were full of anxiety. It should be remembered this cruel act of Pharoah now was only to maintain his prestige, because the purpose of killing the thousands of infants in an effort to prevent the birth of the child was over because that holy child was already born. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) exhorted the Israelites to be patient.
268. In this there is a hint that lead a life of piety, if Allah Almighty wills, you yourselves would become the masters of Egypt. It should be remembered that from his life of four hundred years, he spent three hundred and twenty years in complete comfort, without as much as a headache. Later, Divine punishment came upon him.

129.They said: "We were oppressed before your coming [269] to us and since you have come to us". He said: "It is near that your Lord may destroy your enemy and make you a successor [270] in the land to see how you act.

قَالُوْۤا اُوْذِيْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ تَاْتِيَنَا وَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا جِئْتَنَا ؕ قَالَ عَسٰى رَبُّكُمْ اَنْ يُّهْلِكَ عَدُوَّكُمْ وَ يَسْتَخْلِفَكُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرَ كَيْفَ تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۹﴾

269. By this is meant that we had hoped that after your appearance the Pharaoh will stop the killing of our children, because the reason for this killing is now over, but upto now our children are subjected to this inhuman act, when will we be relieved of this?
270. We thus learn that Allah Almighty had blessed Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) with the knowledge of the unseen, because here the Prophet of Allah Almighty is informing them about events that were still to come without withholding anything. Everything took place as was foretold, the Pharaoh was drowned with his people, and the Israelites became the masters of Egypt.

وَ لَقَدْ اَخَذْنَآ اٰلَ فِرْعَوْنَ بِالسِّنِيْنَ وَ نَقْصٍ مِّنَ الثَّمَرٰتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَذَّكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۰﴾

130.And surely We had seized the people of Pharaoh with years of calamity and scarcity of fruit [271], that they may accept admonition [272].

271. The Pharaoh spent three hundred and twenty years in absolute comfort. Then he was subjected to severe drought because he was ignorant of the pangs of hunger so that those pangs may enable him to accept faith, but to no avail. This tells us that worldly difficulties are warrants from Allah Almighty.

272. By this is meant the tilling lands of Pharaoh's rural people as well as the gardens of the urban people were rendered without fruit and leaves. The grain in the fields decreased. The same was the case with the fruit in the gardens. This was done so that they could repent.

فَاِذَا جَآءَتْهُمُ الْحَسَنَةُ قَالُوْا لَنَا هٰذِهٖ ۚ وَاِنْ تُصِبْهُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ يَّطَّيَّرُوْا بِمُوْسٰى وَ مَنْ مَّعَهٗ ؕ اَلَآ اِنَّمَا طٰٓئِرُهُمْ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ وَ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۱﴾

131.But when affluence came to them they used to say: "This is due to our own efforts". And when their evil deeds put them at a loss, they considered it as a bad omen [273] due to Musa and those with him. Behold, their ill fate is with Allah alone, but most of them do not know [274].

273. From this we learn that to regard the pious servants of Allah Almighty as inauspicious and the good deeds as evil is the work of the infidels. Our sins are evil, but these pious persons are auspicious. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had said: "And He made me blessed wherever I may be". (S19:V31) Even their relics, too, are auspicious and full of blessings.

274. Here the word 'most' is used because some of the Qibtees had declared faith in Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), though they were few in number.

وَ قَالُوْا مَهْمَا تَاْتِنَا بِهٖ مِنْ اٰيَةٍ لِّتَسْحَرَنَا بِهَا ۙ فَمَا نَحْنُ لَكَ بِمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۳۲﴾

132.And they said: "Whatever type of a sign you may bring to us to enchant us therewith, we are not at all to believe you [275].

275. At that point in time Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) cursed Pharaoh and his people saying: "Oh Almighty Allah now their rebellion and waywardness is gone beyond the limits. Afflict them with various misfortunes." Thus, five or six types of misfortunes and punishments were sent upon them, which is being mentioned in the following verse.

فَاَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الطُّوْفَانَ وَالْجَرَادَ وَالْقُمَّلَ وَالضَّفَادِعَ وَالدَّمَ اٰيٰتٍ مُّفَصَّلٰتٍ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوْا وَ كَانُوْا قَوْمًا مُّجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۳۳﴾

133.Then We sent upon them the flood [276] and the locusts [277], and the lice [278], and the frogs [279] and the blood [280], distinct signs, but they became boastful, as they were sinful people.

Marfat.com

276. So much rain came down upon them that every home of theirs was flooded, whoever was sitting got drowned and whoever was standing got sunk upto his neck. The Israelites however were saved from this. This punishment continued from Saturday to Saturday after which the Pharoah came to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) and promised to declare faith.
277. After the storm had subsided, when these rebellious failed to become believers, the Qibtees within a month were punished with a swarm of locusts which devoured their grain, roofs, their goods and even their nails. Once again they came to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) with a promise to accept faith at which point prayer was made to relieve them of this punishment. They were subjected to seven days of this punishment as well.
278. After relief they once again turned on their promise. So after a month's ease they were punished with weevil rancour or lice. These worms began to lick and consume the bodies of these people. After crushing ten bags of grains they would hardly obtain three kilos of flour. Once again they came ashamedly to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) as this punishment too lasted for a week.
279. After the relief from this punishment they once again turned from their promise. Thus, after a month's respite they were punished with frogs. Wherever the people of Pharoah would sit there would be just frogs- in their food, in their water, their clay stoves, and in their wells, which also lasted for a week. After becoming fed up they once again came back to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) crying and with a promise of declaring faith. They were relieved of this punishment as well.
280. After this relief they again broke their promise at which they were punished with blood - there was fresh blood in their wells, fountains, curry, bread etc. At this the Pharoah decreed the Qibtees and Israelites should eat from one dish. When they would sit to eat there would be curry on the Israelites and blood from where the Qibtees ate. If water was poured from the Israelite's jug it would immediately turn to blood when it reached the Qibtee's jug. Even the gargle of the Israelites when reaching the mouth of the Qibtees turned to blood.

134. And whenever the punishment fell upon them, they used to say: "O Musa, pray for us to your Lord, because of that covenant of His, which is with you [281]. No doubt, if you would remove from us this torment [282], we would certainly believe in you and will send with you the children of Israel [283].

وَلَمَّا وَقَعَ عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّجْزُ قَالُوْا يٰمُوْسَى
ادْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ بِمَا عَهِدَ عِنْدَكَ ۚ لَئِنْ
كَشَفْتَ عَنَّا الرِّجْزَ لَنُؤْمِنَنَّ لَكَ
وَلَنُرْسِلَنَّ مَعَكَ بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ ۚ ﴿۱۳۴﴾

281. That your Lord has promised you to accept your prayer. This tells us that inwardly the Pharaoh had acknowledged the Prophethood of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). It also seems that going to the courts of the pious for the acceptance of one's prayer is the natural inclination of a person. Anyone who stops you from this is obstructing nature and he will not succeed in this. Observe that Pharaoh was an infidel, but in times of difficulties he would request prayers from Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). This was the demand of nature.
282. From this we learn that Divine works can be attributed to human beings because to terminate punishment is Allah Almighty's work, but it is attributed to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) and Allah Almighty did not raise any objection to this, nor say that since the Pharaoh has requested help from Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), he is therefore a polytheist.
283. This tells us that even the Pharaoh had acknowledged the mediation of the Prophet. Anyone who rejects mediation is more misguided than even the Pharaoh.

135. But whenever We removed the torment [284] from them for a term to which they were to reach [285], they broke it.

فَلَمَّا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمُ الرِّجْزَ اِلٰٓى اَجَلٍ هُمْ بٰلِغُوْهُ اِذَا هُمْ يَنْكُثُوْنَ ﴿١٣٥﴾

284. These punishments were terminated through the blessings of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). From this we learn that the prayers of the pious can benefit the infidels as well. Then why will we sinful believers not receive their benefits?

285. By this is meant the repulsion of the punishment was of a temporary nature. Allah Almighty says He is aware that these people would remain infidels and would be destroyed through drowning.

136.We then took vengeance [286] on them and drowned them in the river [287], because they falsified Our signs and were careless of them [288].

فَانْتَقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَاَغْرَقْنٰهُمْ فِى الْيَمِّ بِاَنَّهُمْ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ كَانُوْا عَنْهَا غٰفِلِيْنَ ﴿١٣٦﴾

286. Revenge either on behalf of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) or the Israelites. From this we learn that Allah Almighty Himself takes revenge on behalf of His Prophet while the revenge of the oppressed is taken by the powers of nature, though there may be a delay in this.

287. In the Red Sea. In Arabic the word 'Yumm' is used to indicate a deep sea, the depth of which is not easy to fathom.

288. By this is meant they were not pondering over it intentionally. The meaning here of 'unaware' is not the usual or commonly known meaning. This is because Allah Almighty does not punish those who are unaware of things. Thus, it is said 'they believed' i.e. to believe is the work of that person who is fully aware of things.

137.And We made a people, who were already suppressed, inheritors of the eastern and western parts of that land [289] in which We put Our blessings [290]. And the gracious promise of your Lord was fulfilled for the Children of Israel [291], the reward of their patience. And We destroyed whatever Pharaoh and his people made and what they used to erect [292].

وَ اَوْرَثْنَا الْقَوْمَ الَّذِيْنَ كَانُوْا يُسْتَضْعَفُوْنَ مَشَارِقَ الْاَرْضِ وَمَغَارِبَهَا الَّتِىْ بٰرَكْنَا فِيْهَا ؕ وَ تَمَّتْ كَلِمَتُ رَبِّكَ الْحُسْنٰى عَلٰى بَنِىْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ ۙ بِمَا صَبَرُوْا ؕ وَ دَمَّرْنَا مَا كَانَ يَصْنَعُ فِرْعَوْنُ وَ قَوْمُهٗ وَ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْرِشُوْنَ ﴿١٣٧﴾

289. In that the Israelites were made the owners of entire Egypt after the Pharaoh was drowned. Here, the word earth denotes Egypt or Syria, while North and South indicates its entire territory. By inheritance is meant becoming owner after the Pharaoh. Thus, there can be no objection in this verse which some ignorant people have raised, due to their lack of understanding.

290. Blessing of both this world and the Hereafter because in the Syrian territory fruit and vegetables are found in abundance, as well as the resting place of many Prophets of Allah Almighty, and the staircase for our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Heavenly Journey (Al Me'raj) which began from here.

291. Because Allah Almighty fulfilled all the promises of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) which He had made to the Israelites. This tells us that Allah Almighty fulfils the promises of His Prophets.

292. From this we learn that the Israelites, settled in Egypt after a long time. When the building and gardens of Pharaoh's people had been destroyed, they did not use these. Remember, this destruction came as a result of desolation, otherwise Divine punishments had not been sent to Egypt.

138.And We brought the Children of Israel across the river [293]. Then they came upon a people sitting devotedly before their idols [294]. They said: "O Musa, make for us a god for worship, just as they have so many gods". He said: "Surely, you are an ignorant people" [296].

وَ جٰوَزْنَا بِبَنِیْۤ اِسْرَآءِیْلَ الْبَحْرَ فَاَتَوْا
عَلٰی قَوْمٍ یَّعْكُفُوْنَ عَلٰۤی اَصْنَامٍ لَّهُمْ ۚ
قَالُوْا یٰمُوْسَی اجْعَلْ لَّنَاۤ اِلٰهًا كَمَا لَهُمْ
اٰلِهَةٌ ؕ قَالَ اِنَّكُمْ قَوْمٌ تَجْهَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۸﴾

293. By sea is meant Red Sea and not River Nile. Qulzoom is a city situated between Makkah Muazzama and Egypt, very near Sinai. This sea flows through this city Hence, its name. The Israelites crossed the sea on Friday, tenth Muharram, as a result of which fasting on this day is Sunnat.

294. These people were from the descendants of Kan'aan and from the tribe of AMALIQAH. Hazrat Musa (On him be peace) was ordered to wage war against these people. These idols were in the shape of cows which really created in the hearts of the Israelites the desire for calf-worship which later gave rise to cow - worship.

295. This was not said by the entire Israelites because amongst them were Hazrat Harun (On him be peace) and other pious servants of Allah Almighty, but by those masses who as yet had not declared faith. From this we learn that mere thought and suspicion about infidelity is not infidelity. Yes, desire of infidelity is infidelity. Hazrat Musa (On him be peace) on hearing these masses did not declare them as apostates, nor were they entitled to be punished, or asked them to repent from their infidelity which was the least he could have done.

296. After having seen so many miracles you have not as yet realised that Allah Almighty is the only Being worthy of worship. This tells us that man is very forgetful.

139.Surely conditions in which they fell were of destruction and whatever they are doing is fully void [297].

اِنَّ هٰۤؤُلَآءِ مُتَبَّرٌ مَّا هُمْ فِیْهِ وَ بٰطِلٌ
مَّا كَانُوْا یَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۳۹﴾

297. By this is meant very soon these idol worshippers and their idols would be destroyed by us. You are not an idol-worshipper but a breaker of idols. In this there is a prophecy which later became true as foretold by Hazrat Musa (On him be peace).

Marfat.com

قَالَ اَغَيْرَ اللّٰهِ اَبْغِيْكُمْ اِلٰهًا وَّ هُوَ فَضَّلَكُمْ عَلَى الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۰﴾

140. He said: "Shall I seek for a god [298] other than Allah, whereas He has exalted you above all the peoples [299] of the world?"

298. By this is meant He is not God who is made by searching, but Allah Almighty is He who has bestowed greatness upon you, who is capable of having power of bestowing so many favours upon this world. Only He is worthy of worship.

299. From this emerge two issues:

1. To be from the descendants of a Prophet and from his people is a means of blessings. The greatness of the Israelites was that they were descendants of the Prophets. In a like manner the Sayyeds today, too, are distinguished people, provided they are believers. After forsaking Faith they are no longer Sayyed. It should be remembered that at that point in time the Israelites were superior to other people in the world.
2. The thought of infidelity is not infidelity, otherwise these people would not have been honoured like this.

وَ اِذْ اَنْجَيْنٰكُمْ مِّنْ اٰلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَسُوْمُوْنَكُمْ سُوْٓءَ الْعَذَابِ ۚ يُقَتِّلُوْنَ اَبْنَآءَكُمْ وَ يَسْتَحْيُوْنَ نِسَآءَكُمْ ؕ وَ فِيْ ذٰلِكُمْ بَلَآءٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿۱۴۱﴾ ع ۱۶/۱۲/۲

141.And remember when We delivered you [300] from the people of Pharaoh, who had inflicted you with severe punishment, slaughtering your sons and letting your daughters live [301]. And therein [302] was the great bounty of your Lord.

300. Either this is addressed to the Yahud living during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or to those Yahud through Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). From this we learn that disciples too are refered to as descendants, because it was the Pharaoh's policemen who were serving out this punishment, not the children of Pharaoh.

301. By this is meant the Pharaoh is sparing your daughters so that when they are big they would be able to render service to him.

302. By providing you with this salvation, or in this difficulty Allah Almighty is bestowing His bounty upon you or putting you through a test. Then Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was ordered to fast for a month at Mount Sinai before Tauraat could be given to him. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) fasted the whole of Zil-Qaidah. Thereafter, when he brushed his teeth with Miswaak and appeared in front of Allah Almighty, a Divine Voice said the fragrance of the Fast is not emanating from your mouth. Now keep ten more fasts so that its fragrance would be able to emanate from your mouth. He did exactly as ordered, and was given the Tauraat on the tenth of Zil-Hajj. From this we learn that the number forty is an excellent means of obtaining Almighty Allah's blessings. It should be remembered that prohibition of miswaak during fasting, and keeping ten extra fasts for infringing this order is the distinctive feature associated with Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) only. Thus, we cannot prohibit anyone from using the miswaak during fasting, nor does the use of miswaak break the fast.

SECTION 17

وَ وٰعَدْنَا مُوْسٰى ثَلٰثِيْنَ لَيْلَةً وَّاَتْمَمْنٰهَا
بِعَشْرٍ فَتَمَّ مِيْقَاتُ رَبِّهٖۤ اَرْبَعِيْنَ
لَيْلَةً ۚ وَقَالَ مُوْسٰى لِاَخِيْهِ هٰرُوْنَ

سَبِيْلَ الْمُفْسِدِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۲﴾

142.And We made Musa a promise of thirty nights and [303] completed adding ten more in them. So the promise off his Lord was completed with forty nights [304]. And Musa said to his brother Harun: "Be my vicegerent among my people and [305] do right and follow not the way of mischief-makers" [306].

303. From this the forty days seclusion of a saint is derived. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too, initially spent six months of seclusion in the Cave of Hira before the commencement of Revelation. We futher learn that night is better than the day because although Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) stayed at Mount Sinai day and night, but mention is being made of the night only.

304. After fasting thirty days when Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) went to receive the Tauraat, he had felt a smell emanating from his blessed mouth. Therefore he made miswaak. When he was in the presence of Allah Almighty, He said don't you know that We love the smell emanating from the mouth of the one who fasts more than musk? Well, you must now keep ten more fasts.

305. At the time of going to Mount Sinai for bringing the Tauraat, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) appointed Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) as his temporary successor like how the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم appointed Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) as his deputy before setting out for a certain battle. In this there is no proof of succession without separation because Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) was not the permanent successor of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). In fact, his demise was before that of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

306. By this is meant some of the Israelites were rebellious. Thus. no one should act upon their advice, instead you should try to reform them. It should be remembered that for Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) to become the successor of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is like the Prime Minister becoming successor of the king. Otherwise, Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) was a permanent Prophet of Allah Almighty but the minister of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). The pious sages say that at though Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) appointed Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) as his successor, the people became engrossed in idol - worshipping, but our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "Allah Almighty is the successor upon my followers" and through the blessing of this, Muslims to date are steadfast on Islam. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

وَلَمَّا جَآءَ مُوْسٰى لِمِيْقَاتِنَا وَ كَلَّمَهٗ

143.And when Musa came to Our appointed time and his Lord spoke to him, he submitted: "O my Lord! Show me [307] Your Exalted Vision, that I may behold You". Marfat.com

خَرَّ مُوْسٰى صَعِقًا ۚ فَلَمَّآ اَفَاقَ قَالَ سُبْحٰنَكَ تُبْتُ اِلَيْكَ وَاَنَا اَوَّلُ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿١٤٣﴾

His light to shine [309] on the mountain, He broke it into pieces and Musa fell down unconscious [310]. Then, when he came to his senses, he said: Hallowed be You. I turn towards You [311] and I am the first of the Believers" [312].

307. This prayer of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was in his desire for the Vision of Allah Almighty, while the demand by the Israelites for Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to let them have the glimpse of Allah Almighty was due to their rebllious nature and their lack of trust in the Prophet of Allah Almighty. Thus, Hazrat Musa's (On whom be peace) desire reached the heights of excellence while theirs became the source of Divine anger.

308. This is because the door to Allah Almighty's Vision would be opened by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Only after he beholds the Vision of Allah Almighty then the others will have the opportunity for this. Thus, on the Day of Judgement every believer will behold the vision of Allah. Allah Almighty blessed Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) with conversation at Mount Sinai and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the vision.

309. By this is meant Allah Almighty out of His qualities of resplendent manifestations cast a tiny manifestion of His Light on Mount Sinai because had He not cast this Personal Light of His Resplendence, we would not have understood His manifestation of splendour and resplendence.

310. This makes it clear that a Prophet can become temporarily unconscious. Thus, the utterance of the Noble Companions at the incidence of the request for the paper by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was based on this same issue. The actual objective of the Companions was to determine whether the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was saying this in a state of subconscious mind or in a state of consciousness. This verse also serves as a proof of saints lost in divine meditation in their meditative state. These saints are on the Mosaic sainthood, and when they are in such a state, they are not bound by laws of Shariah. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was in a state of unconsciousness from Thursday 9th Zil-Haj to Friday 10th Zil-Hajj, and during this period he did not perform any religious duties. When the ladies of Egypt, became totally charmed by the beauty of Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) they cut their hands in a state of sub-consciousness without regarding this as criminal so what is the condition of those sincere ecstatic devotees who are charmed by the Beauteous Vision of Allah Almighty. In short, this verse is the unmistakeable proof of meditative loss of such saints.

311. By this is meant I will not show such a desire in the future. Thus, repentance was not due to any sin or transgression, but based on the above boldness. The repentance of the mystics is different to that of the lovers.

312. From this incident we learn Allah Almighty fulfils the demands of those beloved to Him, even when they insist for things which are not possible to provide. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had desired to behold the Vision of Allah Almighty with his naked eyes which was not an easy thing. Says Allah Almighty: "Eyes comprehend him not....." (S6:V103) Despite this Allah Almighty fulfilled his desire, and then made him declare that he will not express such a desire again. These noble persons accept the decision of Allah Almighty, and Allah Almighty listens to their wishes. The commentary of this verse is the following Hadith Sahreef: "If they swear upon Allah Almighty for anything, then Almighty Allah fulfils it". Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is the first believer from his people.

him. It could also mean prophethood, and the honour of direct conversation with Allah Almighty in this world was bestowed only upon him, while our Holy Prophet beheld the vision of Allah Almighty and conversed with Him in another world.

313. By this is meant among the present people Prophethood, Shariah, and the honour of conversing with Allah Almighty was only bestowed upon him. His deputy, Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) was neither given a new code of laws nor was a Book revealed unto

وَ كَتَبْنَا لَهٗ فِى الْاَلْوَاحِ مِنْ كُلِّ شَىْءٍ مَّوْعِظَةً وَّتَفْصِيْلًا لِّكُلِّ شَىْءٍ ۚ فَخُذْهَا بِقُوَّةٍ وَّاْمُرْ قَوْمَكَ يَاْخُذُوْا بِاَحْسَنِهَا ؕ سَاُورِيْكُمْ دَارَ الْفٰسِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۵﴾

145.And We wrote for him on the Tablets every instruction and details [314] of everything and said: "O Musa! Observe them with steadfastness and advise your people to follow [315] what is best in them. Soon I shall show the abode of those who are disobedient" [316].

315. By this is meant you should accept everything found in the Tauraat because they are all beneficial. From this we learn that from the Revealed Book one obtains guidance and mystical knowledge of the Prophet. Hence, it is said: "bid your people".

314. The sacred Tauraat was on the slates of topaz on which the commandments as well as the knowledge of the unseen were written. However, when these slates fell down from the hands of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), the Commandments remained but the sciences of the unseen disappeared. Says Allah Almighty: "He took up the tablets, and in their writing there is guidance and mercy". (S7:V154). Here a detailed discussion is not mentioned.

316. By this is meant now you would be journeying to Egypt where you will see the houses and buildings of the Pharoah, or you will witness the deserted towns and villages of the Aad and Thamud during the journey.

سَاَصْرِفُ عَنْ اٰيٰتِىَ الَّذِيْنَ يَتَكَبَّرُوْنَ فِى الْاَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ ؕ وَ اِنْ يَّرَوْا كُلَّ اٰيَةٍ لَّا يُؤْمِنُوْا بِهَا ۚ وَ اِنْ يَّرَوْا سَبِيْلَ الرُّشْدِ لَا يَتَّخِذُوْهُ سَبِيْلًا ۚ وَ اِنْ يَّرَوْا سَبِيْلَ الْغَىِّ يَتَّخِذُوْهُ سَبِيْلًا ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمْ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ كَانُوْا عَنْهَا غٰفِلِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۶﴾

And if they see the path of error, they will be ready to adopt it. This is so, because they belied Our Signs and posed themselves of those who were unaware" [319].

Marfat.com

317. Greatness can be both justified and unjustified. During the battle to elevate yourself in opposition to the infidels is justified greatness and an act of worship. But to display arrogance against Muslims is unjustified and unlawful, and to display this against the Prophets and Saints is an act of infidelity and a way of the devil. Here, the third type of arrogance is meant.

318. This tells us that arrogance is that fire which burns and desolates all inner abilities and qualities, especially when this arrogance is displayed in opposition to the pious servants of Allah Almighty. Not everyone can seek refuge from Allah Almighty through the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith Shareef. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah sends astray many by it, and guides many by it". (S2:V26). It was arrogance which blazed the fire of envy in the devil and lay waste all his worships.

319. Here, verses and symbols refer to the Prophets and their miracles. Hence, distance and period are not necessarily incumbent in the verses, i.e because they had belied our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his miracles, they could not obtain any benefit from this verse of Almighty Allah 's Book. It is for this reason an infidel is converted to Islam by making him recite the sacred Kalimah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and not by making him recite the Holy QUR'AAN. First the one who is QUR'AAN personified must become the seat of his heart, thereafter, the QUR'AAN will come into his hands.

147.And as to those who have belied Our Signs and the meeting of the Hereafter, all their deeds will be wasted [320]. What they will get in reward is but what they used to do".

وَ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ لِقَآءِ الْاٰخِرَةِ حَبِطَتْ اَعْمَالُهُمْ ؕ هَلْ يُجْزَوْنَ اِلَّا مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۴۷﴾ ع ۱۷ ۶ ۷

320. This tells us that infidelity destroys all pious deeds, but it keeps all the sins intact, just as accepting faith wipes out all sins but keeps the pious deeds intact.

SECTION 18

148.And after the absence of Musa his people made a calf [321] out of their ornaments, a lifeless body, producing a living sound [322]. Did they not see that it neither talked [323] to them, nor guided them to any way [324]? They took it (for worship) and were unjust[325].

وَ اتَّخَذَ قَوْمُ مُوْسٰى مِنْۢ بَعْدِهٖ مِنْ حُلِيِّهِمْ عِجْلًا جَسَدًا لَّهٗ خُوَارٌ ؕ اَلَمْ يَرَوْا اَنَّهٗ لَا يُكَلِّمُهُمْ وَ لَا يَهْدِيْهِمْ سَبِيْلًا ۘ اِتَّخَذُوْهُ وَكَانُوْا ظٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۸﴾ وقف لازم

321. Because Samari had made the calf through the advice and help of the entire people he had been declared the maker of the nation. Similarly, because the jewels were in the possession of the Israelites they are called as their jewels. Otherwise, really speaking these belonged to the Pharaoh..

322. This means Samari placed in the mouth of the golden calf the dust of the hoof of Hazrat Jibraeel's (On whom be peace) horse which bequeathed life in it.

323. By this is meant the Israelites fully knew that the true Lord is He who is All-Powerful, All-Knowing, Omniscient and a True Guide and speaks to the creation through the medium of the Prophet. Despite this, they still took the golden calf as their god.

324. Although the sand from the hoof of Hazrat Jibraeel's (On whom be peace) was pure and good yet Pharaoh's gold was impure. Thus, the sound emanating from the golden calf led the people astray. Likewise, the knowledge of the wicked and evil people can cause good people to go astray. If this gold was pure and clean, its sound should have provided guidance for the people, not lead them astray. The Holy QUR'AAN and the Hadith are the box of the spiritual radio. If the heart is connected with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then only will the Holy QUR'AAN become a source of guidance for him, but if it is connected with the devil the learned will recite the QUR'AAN but will teach transgression. May Allah Almighty keep the connection of the heart correct. Any compartment which is cut off from the engine has no value nor can earn any rental.

325. Because they had worshipped other than Allah Almighty e.g. they were dancing and singing in front of the golden calf. The author of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan says music, dancing, singing, etc. is the way of life of the worshippers of the golden calf. The enrapturing of the noble saints of Allah Almighty is spontaneous and uncontrolable. He who gets into a fit of frenzy consciously and for show is perpetuating this way of the Israelites.

وَ لَمَّا سُقِطَ فِيْٓ اَيْدِيْهِمْ وَرَاَوْا اَنَّهُمْ

وَيَغْفِرْ لَنَا لَنَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْخٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۴۹﴾

149.And when they regretted [326] and understood that they had gone astray, they said: "If our Lord does not have mercy on us and does not forgive us, then we will be ruined".

326. The fall on one's hands is an allusion brought about by remorse and regret. This is the very essence of repentance, regret at the previous sins and a promise of not committing them in the future.

وَ لَمَّا رَجَعَ مُوْسٰٓى اِلٰى قَوْمِهٖ غَضْبَانَ
اَسِفًا ۙ قَالَ بِئْسَمَا خَلَفْتُمُوْنِيْ مِنْۢ
بَعْدِيْ ۚ اَعَجِلْتُمْ اَمْرَ رَبِّكُمْ ۚ وَ اَلْقَى
الْاَلْوَاحَ وَ اَخَذَ بِرَاْسِ اَخِيْهِ يَجُرُّهٗٓ
اِلَيْهِ ؕ قَالَ ابْنَ اُمَّ اِنَّ الْقَوْمَ
اسْتَضْعَفُوْنِيْ وَ كَادُوْا يَقْتُلُوْنَنِيْ ۪ فَلَا
تُشْمِتْ بِيَ الْاَعْدَآءَ وَ لَا تَجْعَلْنِيْ مَعَ
الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۵۰﴾

150.And when Musa returned to his people full of anger [327] and sorrowful, he said: "How badly you (Harun) acted in my place after [328] me. Did you not hasten from the Commands of your Lord?" And he threw down the Tablets [329] and began to pull his brother (Harun) towards him [330], catching hold of his brother's beard. He (Harun) said: "O son of my mother! The people deemed me to be weak and were about to kill me [331]. So do not make the enemies to laugh at me and place me not with the unjust people".

327. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was angry and enraged at Samari and not at Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) because Allah Almighty had already informed Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) that Samari had led the people astray. Therefore, this in no way reveals the lack of knowledge of the great Prophet of Allah Almighty.

328. This is being addressed to Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) and the rest of the believers who had not been involved in the worshipping of the golden calf. From this we learn that it is not enough to reform oneself, but it is important to guide others.

329. This throwing of the tablets was not intended to show disrespect to them but it took place out of anger e.g. pulling his brother Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) by his beard and hitting him. Otherwise, showing disrespect to the Book of Allah Almighty and the insult of a Prophet are acts of infidelity. Hazrat Musa's (On whom be peace) anger was for the sake of Allah Almighty and not for personal reasons. From this we learn that when in such a rage a person becomes disabled and beside oneself, he is not subjected to laws of Shariah. Observe, the Egyptian ladies who cut their hands when being beside themselves caused injury to themselves, but were not held responsible for it.

330. This tells us to become enraged for the sake of Allah Almighty is the way of the Prophets. In this type of anger there is no distinction between big and small. In rank Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was greater than Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace), but in age Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) was elder. Despite this difference, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) still seized Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) by his beard with the understanding that his brother had been negligent in his preaching. We further learn when a person becomes beside himself out of rage, laws of Shariah do not become applicable to him. Observe, the showing of disrespect by Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to his elder brother who was also a Prophet, the throwing of the tablets of Tauraat, was done in a fit of anger without being conscious of it, Hence, he was not held responsible for it. From this many issues about the Majzoob (Lost in the love of Allah)saints are deduced.

331. This tells us that when a situation is delicate to the extent of endangering one's life then one is allowed to refrain from preaching. Observe, when Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) saw that conditions were deteriorating, he sought total seclusion. We further understand that rank, dignity and domination is from Allah Almighty which is bestowed upon some. Obesrve, the people were awe-struck by Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), but not by Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace).

151. He submitted: "O my Lord! Forgive me [332] and my brother and cause us to enter Your mercy and You are the Most Merciful of the Merciful [333]".

قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ وَلِاَخِيْ وَ اَدْخِلْنَا فِيْ رَحْمَتِكَ ۖ وَ اَنْتَ اَرْحَمُ الرّٰحِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۵۱﴾ ع

332. This prayer is taught for the forgiveness of the Ummah, otherwise Prophets are free from sins. Thus, he included the brother in this, though outwardly no error was committed by him. From this we learn if the teacher or religious mentor hits the pupil or devotee without any apparent reason, there is no retaliation for it.

333. By this is meant Allah Almighty is more compassionate than one's parents, brothers, and other kith and kin. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) made this dua so that it should not give cause for people to be happy to think that there is ill-feelings between the two brothers, and that it should help to remove the grief of Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace).

SECTION 19

152.Surely, those who had already taken the calf for themselves (as an idol to worship), the wrath of their Lord and disgrace are to reach them in the life of this world. And thus, We recompense those who cast aspersions [334].

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اتَّخَذُوا الْعِجْلَ سَيَنَالُهُمْ غَضَبٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّهِمْ وَ ذِلَّةٌ فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ؕ وَكَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُفْتَرِيْنَ ﴿۱۵۲﴾

334. Thus, Samari died in a state of terrible disgrace, while he will still be subjected to the torment of the Hereafter.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ عَمِلُوا السَّيِّاٰتِ ثُمَّ تَابُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِهَا وَ اٰمَنُوْۤا ۙ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۱۵۳﴾

153.And those who committed evils and repented thereafter and accepted faith, then after that your Lord is Forgiving, Merciful.

وَ لَمَّا سَكَتَ عَنْ مُّوْسَى الْغَضَبُ اَخَذَ الْاَلْوَاحَ ۖۚ وَ فِيْ نُسْخَتِهَا هُدًى وَّ رَحْمَةٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ هُمْ لِرَبِّهِمْ يَرْهَبُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۴﴾

154.And when the anger of Musa was appeased, he took up the Tablets[335], and in their writing there is guidance and mercy for those who fear their Lord [336].

335. From this we learn that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was so infuriated that it created a condition of utter absorption, and whatever came to pass was in this condition. As soon as this condition was over Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) picked up the tablets with a great deal of respect. This tells us that during a state of total absorption if the sacred Book of Allah were to fall out of one's hand one will not be a sinner.

336. This tells us that after this throwing of the tablets when Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) picked up the Tauraat, details of everything was erased, only guidance and mercy remained. Otherwise when the Tauraat was given to him at Mount Sinai it contained details of everything as was explained earlier. We also learn that the Holy QUR'AAN had been revealed not only to provide detail on everything, but it has been preserved for all times as well. while the Tauraat was first an exposition of detail, but it did not remain. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

وَ اخْتَارَ مُوْسٰى قَوْمَهٗ سَبْعِيْنَ رَجُلًا لِّمِيْقَاتِنَا ۚ فَلَمَّاۤ اَخَذَتْهُمُ الرَّجْفَةُ قَالَ رَبِّ لَوْ شِئْتَ اَهْلَكْتَهُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلُ وَ اِيَّايَ ؕ اَتُهْلِكُنَا بِمَا فَعَلَ السُّفَهَآءُ مِنَّا ۚ اِنْ هِيَ اِلَّا فِتْنَتُكَ ؕ تُضِلُّ بِهَا مَنْ تَشَآءُ وَتَهْدِيْ مَنْ تَشَآءُ ؕ اَنْتَ وَلِيُّنَا فَاغْفِرْ لَنَا وَ ارْحَمْنَا وَاَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْغٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۵۵﴾

155.And Musa chose seventy men of his people for Our promised appointment [337]. Then when an earthquake overtook [338] them, Musa submitted: "O my Lord! Had You wished, You would have destroyed them and me before [339]. Will You kill us for what our foolish ones have done? That is nothing but Your test [341] whereby You cause those to go astray whom You will, and guide whom You will [342]. You are our Protector. You forgive us and have mercy upon us. And You are the Best of Forgivers".

337.On the occasion when Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) went for the first time to receive the Tauraat and offer supplication to Allah Almighty, he was accompanied by seventy people which included criminals and cow-worshippers. Because the Israelites were divided into twelve groups, and six people were chosen from each group, there were two extra. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) said that I am ordered to take seventy and since two are extra those two should remain behind here as those who will remain behind will receive a similar reward. But no one was happy to remain behind. On hearing this Kaasib and Yusha (On whom be peace) opted to remain behind. Thus, seventy people accompanied the Prophet of Allah Almighty (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

338. On reaching Mount Sinai Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was engrossed in conversing with Allah Almighty, while those seventy men were struck by such a quake that they all died. The author of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan states that the earthquake took place because these seventy men had desired to behold the vision of Allah Almighty. The author of Tafseer Khazin states that some of the believers who were with the cow-worshippers had not seperated themselves from this group as a result of which all of them were destroyed by the earthquake. The same is the statement of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him).

339. This means prior to coming here, and appearing before the Israelites so that now I would not have been accused of their death. Now that I would be returning all alone the Israelites would claim that I [Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace)] am responsible for their death. Oh my Lord, my honour is in Your Hands.

340. The purpose for this was not to raise any objection with Almighty Allah but to offer supplication. From this we learn that these seventy people were not struck unconscious but they were really dead. It further informs that the transgression which had caused this earthquake was not perpetrated by all seventy, but by some of them, i.e. desire to behold the vision of Allah Almighty or being with the cow worshippers.

341. By this is meant to let them listen to his conversation, or their staying with the cow-worshippers, or their staying at this place are all Your Tests. This means all do not pass your tests. Only those whom You desire to pass, will pass.

342. From this verse a few issues emerge:

1. Sometimes the transgression of the few bring about calamities on the innocent. The weevil is also crushed with wheat.
2. Intercession of the Prophets صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a certainty which helps to ward off calamities of this world and the Hereafter. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) interceded on behalf of these seventy as a result of which they were brought back to life.

156."And prescribe for us in this world [343] good and also in the Hereafter, no doubt, we have to return to You"[344]. He said: "My punishment I inflict on whom I will [345] and My Mercy encompasses all things [346]. Then soon, I shall prescribe it for those who are pious and pay the Zakaat and believe in Our signs [347].

وَاكْتُبْ لَنَا فِيْ هٰذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ اِنَّا هُدْنَآ اِلَيْكَ ؕ قَالَ عَذَابِيْٓ اُصِيْبُ بِهٖ مَنْ اَشَآءُ ۚ وَرَحْمَتِيْ وَسِعَتْ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ ؕ فَسَاَكْتُبُهَا لِلَّذِيْنَ يَتَّقُوْنَ وَ يُؤْتُوْنَ الزَّكٰوةَ وَ الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ بِاٰيٰتِنَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ۚ﴿۱۵۶﴾

343. Oh Allah Almighty let our destiny abound in good of this world and the Hereafter, or in the scrolls of the angels. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) mentions the writing in the unwaning and undeclining Book because what is written is given greater credence. By good of this world means guidance towards doing good, to be remembered well in the creation, and to be held in honour above all the nations; while the good of the Hereafter refers to the granting of forgiveness and dignity on the Day of Judgement.

344. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) said this on behalf of this group of seventy or on behalf of his people. From this one learns that Prophets have full authority over their people, as they present the repentance on their behalf.

345. By this is meant that Allah Almighty says Oh Musa (On whom be peace) your supplication has been accepted with some modification. You are requesting the good of this world and the Hereafter for the entire nation, but the good of the Hereafter will not be granted for all.

346. Mercy of this world, sustenance, etc. will be granted to all creation, believers and non-believers. This does not in any way tell that Hazrat Musa's (On whom be peace) prayer was rejected but that it was accepted with certain modification.

347. This means Oh Musa (On whom be peace) this is the special rank of the pious and god fearing followers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on whom My special Mercy and Bounties would be bestowed in the Hereafter. All those distinguished virtues would be written about them. From this we learn that Allah Almighty has already informed the previous people (Ummahs) about the good deeds of the followers of Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but not of their evil deeds, because although this Ummah may be sinful, it is the Ummah of His Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

157. And those who follow the unlettered Messenger (the communicator of hidden news), when they will find with them [348] written in the Tauraat and Injeel [349]. He will bid them to do good and forbid them from doing evil, and will make lawful for them [350] clean things and will forbid for them unclean things [351], and will take off from them that burden and shackles [352] which were upon them. Then those who believe in him and honour him and help [353] him and follow that Light which has been sent down [354] with him. They are the people who have attained their objects [355].

اَلَّذِيْنَ يَتَّبِعُوْنَ الرَّسُوْلَ النَّبِيَّ الْاُمِّيَّ
الَّذِيْ يَجِدُوْنَهٗ مَكْتُوْبًا عِنْدَهُمْ فِي

348. From this we learn that the praiseworthy and distinguished qualities of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were mentioned in the Tauraat and Injeel, and the Israelites came to know about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In addition even the virtues of his Noble Companions and the followers too were described in detail in them. At this place Allah Almighty describes to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) seven qualities of our Beloved Rasool (On whom be peace): he is a Prophet, he is unlettered, but the possessor of all knowledge before birth from the mother, exhorter of good, maker of all evil as unlawful, remover of all difficulties, the provider of all needs, the repeller of all calamities, bestower of generosity, as can be understood from "take off from them".

349. Thus, after thousands of distortions in the Injeel there are still numerous verses in it which prophesize the glad tidings about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Thus, in the New Testament of Yuhanna, Chapter Fourteen, verse sixteen the following is stated: "When I request my Father, He will provide for you another Helper who will live with you eternally". (Published by British and Foreign Bible Society, Lahore, 1931). The word Helper in the margin is explained as 'Pleader' and 'Intercessor'. It is quite apparent that after Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) no intercessor came into the world besides our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم whose Religion is not abrogated. Further, verses 29-30 state: "After this I shall not speak to you for much longer, because the true leader of the universe would be coming of whom I have nothing in me". It is stated in Chapter Sixteen, verse of this same: "But I am speaking the truth My leaving this world is benefical for you, because if I do not leave, this Helper will not come unto you. Only if I leave, will I be able to send him to you". (Tafseer Khazain ul Irfaan).

350. By this is meant all those lawful and wholesome things which became unlawful upon the Israelites due to their disobedience, would be made lawful by the Final Prophet of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم while he will declare all things wicked and filthy as unlawful. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty had made just a few things unlawful e.g. flesh of the swine, flesh of the dead, etc. The rest of the unclean and wicked things were made unlawful by our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم e.g. dog, cat, etc.

351. By this is meant, that the Prophet would declare these wicked and filthy things unlawful, of which some were lawful in the previous codes of Law e.g. alcohol, etc. This tells us that Allah Almighty has empowered our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to declare things lawful or unlawful, because here the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is made the declarer of unlawful things.

352. By this is meant he would nullify the severe laws of the Tauraat, like death as a pre-requisite for repentance, burning all clothes which become dirty, cutting off that part of the body which becomes dirty.

353. From this we learn that the honour and respect of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is obligatory upon us verbally and practically, in fact, this is part of faith. Any form of respect which is not forbidden should be accorded to the Messenger of Allah Almighty, without seeking a proof for it. Besides making Sajdah (prostrating to him), accord him every form of respect.

354. By this is meant QUR'AAN and Hadith, because Hadith, too, is Divine Revelation. Obedience to this is just as obligatory as obedience to the QUR'AAN. It is for this reason that Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddq (May Allah be pleased with him) did not distribute the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم legacy, as is stated in the Hadith.

355. From this we learn that the supplication made by Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to write the good for this world and the Hereafter was for his Ummah. In response to this Allah Almighty said this is the status of the Ummah of Nabi Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which your followers will not receive. Allah Almighty be praised! At the same time the virtuous qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his followers were made mentioned. From this we learn that the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was known earlier as well, but only its good deeds were publicised, not its sins. Even the Noble Companions, too, were made well known. Says Allah Almighty: "This description of theirs is in the Tauraat and their description in the Injeel". (S48: V29).

قُلْ يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنِّيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ اِلَيْكُمْ جَمِيْعًا الَّذِيْ لَهٗ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ۚ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيٖ وَيُمِيْتُ ۠ فَاٰمِنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَ رَسُوْلِهِ النَّبِيِّ الْاُمِّيِّ الَّذِيْ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَ كَلِمٰتِهٖ وَ اتَّبِعُوْهُ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۸﴾

158. Please say you [356]: "O mankind! I am a Messenger to you all from Allah to Whom [357] belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth [358]. None is to be worshipped except Him. He gives life and causes death. Believe then in Allah and His Messenger, the unlettered [359] Communicator of hidden news, who only believes [360] in Allah and His Words. So follow him that you may be guided".

356. Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Prophet for the entire creation, but here mention is made of man, because he is the most superior in the creation, every other thing is subservient to him Says Allah Almighty: "That he may be a warner to the entire world". (S25:V1)

357. In this address are included all those who were there at that point in time as well as all those who would be born until the Day of Qiyamah. upon everyone The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم obedience is obligatory. If this is stretched to people beyond that time it will make no difference, because it was obligatory U0pon everyone to declare faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. From this we learn that the Prophethood of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not restricted to time and place. Therefore, Allah Almighty had taken the promise of obedience from all the Prophets to him: "And remember when Allah Almighty took from all the prophets their covenant" (S81:V83). It should be remembered, that only man is hereby addressed, while at another place "That he may be a warner to entire mankind" (S25:V1), as is used, from which we learn that he who believes in Allah Almighty, the Holy Prophet will be for him.

358. By this is meant that just as the Kingdom of Allah Almighty covers everything between the heavens and the earth, my Prophethood, too, is like that because the power of the Prime Minsiter, too, extends to all the places.

359. Here, the meaning is a learned being born from the mother who was not tutored by any man, but who is the teacher of all mankind. The meaning of the word Ummi means of the mother i.e. being born learned from the stomach of the mother (May peace and blessing of Allah Almighty be upon her).

360. By this is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمdeclared faith in Allah Almighty directly, while you must declare your faith in Him through his medium and mediation. This means there is a difference in the essence of faith between ours and that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. By obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is meant to follow him unthinkingly, and unconditionally. One should give oneself into his hands as the corspe is in the hands of those giving Ghusul (bath) to him.

وَمِنْ قَوْمِ مُوْسٰٓى اُمَّةٌ يَّهْدُوْنَ بِالْحَقِّ وَ بِهٖ يَعْدِلُوْنَ ﴿۱۵۹﴾

159.And of the people of Musa there is a community that guided others with truth and did justice therewith [361].

Marfat.com

361. By this is meant after Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) many of his followers went astray, but at the same time one group remained firmly on Truth. Hazrat Sayyedina Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) says that these religious people secretly moved away from the rest of these disobedient wretches and settled down in a region of China. On the Night of Me'raj the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم met these people who conveyed the greetings of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to him and became Muslims at his hands (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

160. And We divided them into twelve tribes[362] as various communities. And We revealed to Musa, when his people asked him for water [363]: "Strike with your staff this rock". Then there gushed forth from it twelve springs [364]. Every community recognized its drinking place. And We made clouds to provide shade over them and sent down manna and salwa [365] upon them. Eat of the clean things We have provided for you. And they harmed Us not, but they harmed their ownselves [366].

وَ قَطَّعْنٰهُمُ اثْنَتَیْ عَشْرَةَ اَسْبَاطًا
اُمَمًا ؕ وَ اَوْحَیْنَاۤ اِلٰی مُوْسٰۤی اِذِ
اسْتَسْقٰىهُ قَوْمُهٗۤ اَنِ اضْرِبْ بِّعَصَاكَ
الْحَجَرَ ؕ فَانْۢبَجَسَتْ مِنْهُ اثْنَتَا
عَشْرَةَ عَیْنًا ؕ قَدْ عَلِمَ كُلُّ اُنَاسٍ
مَّشْرَبَهُمْ ؕ وَ ظَلَّلْنَا عَلَیْهِمُ الْغَمَامَ وَ

مِنْ طَیِّبٰتِ مَا رَزَقْنٰكُمْ ؕ وَمَا ظَلَمُوْنَا وَ
لٰكِنْ كَانُوْۤا اَنْفُسَهُمْ یَظْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۰﴾

362. This is a second incident, where the entire followers of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is intended, not those special group of believers who had settled down in China. Because these were the descendants of the twelve children of Hazrat Yaqub (On whom be peace), each of the tribes were separated for the purpose of distinction, and each was given a separate place on the plains of Teeh.

363. This tells us that it is permissible to seek the Bounties of Allah Almighty from His beloved servants. To provide water is the work of Allah Almighty, but the Israelites requested Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to provide it at which Allah Almighty did not raise any objection.

364. In this reference is made to the major miracle of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) when the great Prophet of Allah Almighty provided twelve fountains from the stones by striking his walking stick on them. This took place at Teeh. However, our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم made five fountains to run from his blessed fingers.

365. MANNA is a name of a sweetmeat which would freeze at night like dew. Because the bounty was obtainable without any effort, the MANNA was the Favour and Bounty of Allah Almighty. SALWA on the other hand were the salty" of the natural birds.

366. These people did not know the value of MANNA and SALWA therefore they requested for other types of food. Thus, due to their ungratefulness MANNA and SALWA discontinued to descend. From this we learn that Bounties of Allah Almighty are snatched away by the evil influence of sins.

وَ اِذْ قِيْلَ لَهُمُ اسْكُنُوْا هٰذِهِ الْقَرْيَةَ وَ كُلُوْا مِنْهَا حَيْثُ شِئْتُمْ وَقُوْلُوْا حِطَّةٌ وَّ ادْخُلُوا الْبَابَ سُجَّدًا نَّغْفِرْ لَكُمْ خَطِيْٓـَٔتِكُمْ ؕ سَنَزِيْدُ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۶۱﴾

161. (And remember) when it was said to them: "Dwell [367] in this town and eat from it whatever you like [368] and say; 'Our sins may be removed'. And enter the gate prostrating. We shall forgive you [369] your sins. Soon We shall provide for the righteous ones".

367. By this city is meant Jerusalem which is the city of Prophets. This tells us that to stay in a sacred place is a Blessing and Bounty from Allah Almighty. The people of Madina are very fortunate as they are residing in the sacred Court of the Beloved Rasool of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Even to die in this sacred city is a blessing of Allah Almighty.

368. This city was either Jerusalem or Areeha. The Jabbareen were the inhabitants of Areeha. The leader of the Amaliqa was Auj bin Unaq (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). By this is meant you are granted a general permission to eat and drink from their fields and gardens. There will neither be a religious restriction nor restriction from any other source. This is because Muslims soldiers can enjoy the wealth of the defeated infidel combatants. Or, eat everything purchased from Jerusalem. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

369. This tells us that cities of the pious must be shown great respect, the nearness of the pious are a means of receiving forgiveness for the sins. One should travel to the cities of the pious to have one's sins forgiven. We further learn that repentance and worships receive greater acceptance in the cities of the pious because they were told to go there and say 'our sins may be removed'. These Israelites instead of reciting HITTATOON, recited HINTATOON at the time of entering the place, which means 'give us wheat'. The order was to ask for forgiveness, but they went on asking for wheat.

فَبَدَّلَ الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْا مِنْهُمْ قَوْلًا غَيْرَ الَّذِيْ قِيْلَ لَهُمْ فَاَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِجْزًا مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَظْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۲﴾

162.Then the unjust of them [370] changed the words contrary to that what was ordered to them. Then We sent down upon them punishment from heaven [371], the recompense for their injustice.

370. From this we learn that the words of the Wazeefas (incantations) given by the religious mentor should not be changed, otherwise they will not have the desired effect. In whatever form you receive the Wazeefa from your Shaikh, read it as it is.

371. That punishment was in the form of bubonic plague by which twenty four thousand Israelites died at one time. Now, this disease is a mercy to the believers. Anyone who patiently bears this and dies from it is a martyr. Refrain from going to any place which is infested with bubonic plague. But if it comes to your city do not run away from it, as is reported in the Hadith Shareef.

tion) their fish came swimming before them, and the day on which they did not keep the Sabt, they did not come. Thus, We used to try them on account of their disobedience [374].

372. That settlement was the city of Eelah, situated on the banks of the river between Madyan and Sinai, or Tibriya (Syria) or Madyan itself. In any case it was a large city. In Arabic the word 'settlement' is also used to denote a city. The staple diet of these people was fish, but they were forbidden to fish on Saturday. Through the Grace and Power of Allah Almighty, on Saturday fish would be found in abundance, but less on other days. These Israelites could not bear this with patience and many began to fish on Saturday as a result of which this punishment came upon them.

373. Just as Friday is a sacred day in Islam, Saturday was regarded sacred by the Yahud. On this day hunting and commerce were made unlawful for them. In Islam commerce is only unlawful on those Muslims on whom Salatul Jumuah is obligatory, from the time of the Azaan until the completion of the Friday Salaat. This is a special Mercy of Allah Almighty on the Muslims.

374. The people of Eelah were divided into three groups, one group was guilty of fishing on a Saturday; the second group separated themselves from this group. They tried their best to stop them from this activity, but to no avail, so they went to live in a separate part of the city constructing a wall to separate themselves from this group, the third group was one which decided to remain silent in the matter, they neither caught fish nor prevented those who were fishing.

وَاِذْ قَالَتْ اُمَّةٌ مِّنْهُمْ لِمَ تَعِظُوْنَ قَوْمًا ۙ اللّٰهُ مُهْلِكُهُمْ اَوْ مُعَذِّبُهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيْدًا ؕ قَالُوْا مَعْذِرَةً اِلٰى رَبِّكُمْ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۴﴾

164.When a group among them said 375: "Why do you admonish those whom Allah is to kill or to inflict upon them severe torment[376]?" They said: "This is an excuse before your Lord and it may be that they fear".

375. This discussion is regarding the third group who had remained silent. From this we learn these people were happy to accept this but were disappointed and despondent with them. Thus, the probable view is that they too may have achieved salvation because to be happy with infidelity is infidelity.

376. This tells us that if there is no hope of a person accepting the faith, preaching to him or remaining aloof from him will not be regarded as sinful, though preaching to him will be better.

فَلَمَّا نَسُوْا مَا ذُكِّرُوْا بِهٖۤ اَنْجَيْنَا الَّذِيْنَ يَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ السُّوْٓءِ وَ اَخَذْنَا الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْا بِعَذَابٍۭ بَـِٔيْسٍۭ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَفْسُقُوْنَ ﴿۱۶۵﴾

165.Then when they forgot what they had been admonished, We saved those who forbade others [377] from evil and seized the unjust in a vile torment [378], the recompense for their disobedience.

Marfat.com

377. The third group, or those who had remained silent, is not being mentioned. It is quite apparent that they too achieved salvation because only the wicked and tyrants were being censured. They were neither tyrants nor did they approve of the tyrants.

378. In that, Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) cursed them as a result of which when they went to their homes at night, all of them turned into monkeys. In the morning when the believers climbed the wall to investigate they saw that the entire place was full of monkeys. When they went towards them these monkeys gathered around them. On recognizing each of them they would cry but they could not speak. On the third day all were destroyed. The present day monkeys are not their descendants because a mutilated people do not leave behind any offspring.

166. Then again when they rebelled against the command of prohibition, We said to them: "Be you monkeys, driven away [379].

فَلَمَّا عَتَوْا عَنْ مَّا نُهُوْا عَنْهُ قُلْنَا لَهُمْ كُوْنُوْا قِرَدَةً خٰسِئِيْنَ ﴿۱۶۶﴾

379. By this is meant that though their faces became like that of the monkeys but their body, faculty of speech, and their soul remained like that of a human being. Hence, this is not a proof for the Aryan theory of re-incarnation because in the transmigration of the soul one has to accept the change in the body and the soul while change of the soul is an impossibility. The walking stick of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) turning into a snake, the transformation of nations into swines can be attributed to the same category.

167.And behold when your Lord proclaimed that necessarily till the Day of Resurrection He would continue to send such [380] ones against them who would make them taste evil punishment [381]. Surely, your Lord is swift in retribution [382] and undoubtedly He is Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful.

وَ اِذْ تَاَذَّنَ رَبُّكَ لَيَبْعَثَنَّ عَلَيْهِمْ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيٰمَةِ مَنْ يَّسُوْمُهُمْ سُوْٓءَ الْعَذَابِ ؕ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَسَرِيْعُ الْعِقَابِ ۖۚ وَ اِنَّهٗ لَغَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۱۶۷﴾

380. Thus, Allah Almighty brought upon the Yahud kings like Bakht Nasar, Sanjarib and Roman and Nasara kings who in their own eras severely tormented and tortured the Yahud. Thereafter they were being ruled by Muslim Governors. Then they were under British control. Now, if there is a Jewish rule established in Palestine it is, by the Will of Allah Almighty, going to be a temporary one. In fact, this rule is going to have a disgraceful consequence, just like how a weak wrestler is pitted against a strong opponent in order to enjoy the outcome of defeat and disgrace.

381. By this is meant from time to time the Yahud would be placed under the rule of cruel rulers, until the Day of Judgement, who would be tormenting and persecuting them severely. From this we learn that sometimes the adverse consequences of sins of the forefathers have to be tasted by the off-spring, especially when these children have approved their deeds. Remember, fishing and hunting was carried out by a special group, but until the Day of Qiyamah punishment would be sent to their descendants.

382. By this is meant the Yahud would be sent more punishment than this which will be set for them at the time of death, in the grave and on the Day of Judgement.

168.And We scattered them into communities in the earth [383]. Some of them are righteous, and some of them are otherwise [384]. And We tried them with good [385] things and evil that perhaps they may return.

383. By this is meant they were not kept together in the world but were dispersed in various parts. This for them was Divine punishment as well, as their weakness was their power. Thus, their groups have been divided into different communities so that they will be eternally plunged into disaray.

384. By this is meant Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم there are some pious people in the present Yahud as well e.g. Abdullah ibn Salaam, Ka'ab Ahbaar, etc. who have brought faith in you. Some are bad and evil as well, who are constantly determined to change their faith, e.g. the present day Yahud in general.

385. By 'tested' means that at times the doors of gratuity, health, wordly honour were opened to them, and sometimes drought, diseases, calamities, disgrace, etc. were set upon them. This is because some turn to Allah Almighty when in difficulties and others when they are in comfort.

169.Then in their place came such degenerate successors [386] who inherited the Book. They took the goods of this world [387] and said: "Now we shall be forgiven [388] our sins. But if more fortunes like that came to them, they would take them [389]. Was not the covenant of the Book taken from them, that they should say nothing concerning Allah, but the truth [390], and they have read that? And, undoubtedly, the final abode is better for the God-fearing. Have you then no wisdom [391]?

386. By this is meant Yahud present during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who abused the knowledge of the Tauraat after acquiring it.

387 .By this is meant they would take bribes in order to change the laws of Religion, they were issuing false issues. However, printing and selling the QUR'AAN, and receiving a salary for teaching the QUR'AAN is not included in this issue.

388.This tells us that it is an act of infidelity to use Allah Almighty as an agent of security in matters of dealing. There is a hope of Faith in Him, this was attaching security to Almighty Allah. In hope man strives to repent for his sins, security emboldens him to commit more sins. Remember, that to commit sins thinking that you will repent tomorrow is also attaching a type of security to Allah Almighty.

389. There wasn't a single judge amongst the Yahud who was not accepting bribery. Others were reprimanding them for it, but at the death of these judges when they were appointed to this post they, too, would start accepting bribes.
390. By this is meant that these unfortunate wretches had read in the Tauraat that those who remained steadfast on sins would not be forgiven. After knowing this they are still firm in accepting bribery saying that this, sin would also be forgiven by Allah Almighty. This is a deliberate and wilful accusation on Allah Almighty. It should be remembered, that every minor sin if continued unabated turns into a major sin. Says Allah Almighty: "And do not persist knowing in what they have done." (S3:V135) From this we can understand that the sin of the learned in comparison to the ignorant is far more serious and dangerous because usually when the learned commit a sin they try to justify it as a permissible act. On seeing this his followers then join in the sin.
391. This tells us that death, grave, Day of Qiyamah, Pulsiraat and all other future happenings are blessings from Allah Almighy to the pious servants but a punishment to the evil doers.

170. And those who hold strictly to the Book [392] and establish prayer; We waste not the reward of the righteous.

وَالَّذِيْنَ يُمَسِّكُوْنَ بِالْكِتٰبِ وَ اَقَامُوا الصَّلٰوةَ ؕ اِنَّا لَا نُضِيْعُ اَجْرَ الْمُصْلِحِيْنَ ﴿۱۷۰﴾

392. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed in favour of Jewish scholars like Abdullah ibn Salaam who neither distorted nor concealed the verses of Tauraat. Due to the blessing of this they were able to bring faith in the Holy Prophet and became great and honoured Companions (May Allah Almighty be pleased with them).

171. And when We raised [393] a mountain upon them as a canopy and they feared that it will fall upon them [394]. Hold firmly on to what We have given to you, and remember what is therein, that perhaps you may become God-fearing [395].

وَ اِذْ نَتَقْنَا الْجَبَلَ فَوْقَهُمْ كَاَنَّهٗ ظُلَّةٌ وَّظَنُّوْۤا اَنَّهٗ وَاقِعٌۢ بِهِمْ ۚ خُذُوْا مَاۤ اٰتَيْنٰكُمْ بِقُوَّةٍ وَّاذْكُرُوْا مَا فِيْهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿۱۷۱﴾ ع

393. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) uprooted that mountain and pitched it upon them like a canopy, but because the work of His Beloved are Allah Almighty's work, hence, He says it is He who uprooted it.
394. Seeing this every Israelite went down in prostration but in such a way that their left cheek was on the ground, and with their right eye they were looking at the mountain, hoping that it does not fall down upon them. Thus, Yahud to date perform their prostration in this manner. They never place their forehead on the ground. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).
395. When Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) brought the entire Tauraat at one time to his people, they became frightened at looking at the restrictions placed upon them and refused to accept it. In response to this, a mountain from Sinai or Palestine whose startling appearance was a kilometer long, was uprooted and pitched upon them in the form of a canopy and were told accept this or it will fall upon you. From this one learns that the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN over a period of twenty three years is Allah Almighty's Mercy as this made acting upon these laws easier. A free thinking temperament finds it difficult to act upon all the laws with such control.

SECTION 22

172.And (Oh Beloved Prophet) remember when your Lord brought forth from the loins of Adam's children their seed [396] and made themselves witnesses [397] against their ownselves saying: "Am I not your Lord?" All will say: "Why not, we all bear witness [398]". Lest you should say on the Day of Resurrection, that we were not aware of it [399].

وَ اِذْ اَخَذَ رَبُّكَ مِنْۢ بَنِيْۤ اٰدَمَ مِنْ ظُهُوْرِهِمْ ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ وَاَشْهَدَهُمْ عَلٰۤى اَنْفُسِهِمْ ۚ اَلَسْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ ؕ قَالُوْا بَلٰى ۛ شَهِدْنَا ۛ اَنْ تَقُوْلُوْا يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ اِنَّا كُنَّا عَنْ هٰذَا غٰفِلِيْنَ ۙ﴿۱۷۲﴾

396. By brought forth is meant the children of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) from his loins, their children from their loins and up to the Day of Qiyamah this process would continue, whereby mankind are spread in the form of ants.

397. By this is meant he appointed some witnesses over others, in a manner whereby He first placed the admission of Tauheed or Unity of Allah Almighty in their hearts, then he made others witnesses over them.

398. This covenant and agreement was taken from all the souls which included the Prophets, Saints, believers, infidels and hypocrites. The first person to utter: 'Why not' was the blessed soul of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Having heard the reply of our most Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the same was repeated by the souls of all the Prophets, from the reply of the Prophets the other creation repeated it, but the infidels replied this out of compulsion, and the believers out of joy.

399. By this is meant Tauheed and the proofs regarding Tauheed. Here, Allah Almighty took acceptance of this. Thereafter He will convey to you this acceptance through His Prophets. Just like how a mother reminds her child about the forgotten incident of his early childhood which he then accepts, the Prophets have reminded us of our forgotten promise. Thus, you will not be able to say that you had no knowledge about it. This acceptance is there to obliterate any denial regarding Tauheed.

173. Or, lest you may say, our forefathers before committed polytheism, and we are their offspring. Will you then destroy us for what was done by the wrongdoers [400]?

اَوْ تَقُوْلُوْۤا اِنَّمَاۤ اَشْرَكَ اٰبَآؤُنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَ كُنَّا ذُرِّيَّةً مِّنْۢ بَعْدِهِمْ ۚ اَفَتُهْلِكُنَا بِمَا فَعَلَ الْمُبْطِلُوْنَ ﴿۱۷۳﴾

400. By this is meant after this covenant and agreement you will not be able to justify that you are innocent of infidelity and polytheism because our forefathers were such, and we became polytheists because of them. The real culprits in this are them not us. From this we learn that playing ignorant in matters of religious laws would not be accepted. We further learn that religion must not be accepted on the basis of mere emulation.

174.And Thus, We explain Our Signs variedly and in order that they may return [401].

verses are mentioned in the QUR'AAN so that everyone can accept it out of whatever means is at his disposal.

401. By this is meant because the Holy QUR'AAN has come down as a guidance, some accept it out of fear, some out of covetousness and others out of reason. Thus, all types of

وَ اتْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ نَبَاَ الَّذِيْٓ اٰتَيْنٰهُ اٰيٰتِنَا فَانْسَلَخَ مِنْهَا فَاَتْبَعَهُ الشَّيْطٰنُ فَكَانَ مِنَ الْغٰوِيْنَ ﴿۱۷۵﴾

175.And (O Beloved Prophet) relate to them the story of him to whom We gave Our Signs [402], then he stepped away clearly from [403] them. Then Shaitaan followed him and he became of the misguided [404].

404.Bal'am bin Bawoora was a great scholar and worshipper of the Israelites, he knew the cherished word, his dua was accepted, he was in the neighborhood of the Jabbareen. When Hazrat Yusha (On whom be peace) attacked the Jabbareen, a group from this people came to him and requested that as our neighbour you should pray for our victory and curse Hazrat Yusha (On whom be peace). At first he refused to listen to them but after receiving gifts from the people, and on the insistence of his wife he climbed on top of the hill and began cursing. While cursing, instead of Hazrat Yusha (On whom be peace) the name of his people was coming on his lips. Then his tongue came out up to his chest and he began to pant like a dog, and died in this very condition.

402. This refers to Bal'am bin Bawoora who was a great scholar and pious devotee of the Israelites. This tells us that Faith is not obtained from knowledge but from the Bounty of Allah Almighty. We further learn that to obtain faith is one thing but to take care of it is another matter. May Allah Almighty keep us firm on faith. AMEEN.

403. This tells us he who is no longer a devotee of the Prophet is out of the fold of the Book of Allah Almighty, Mercy of Allah Almighty, Bounty of Allah Almighty, Faith and Mystical Knowledge of Allah Almighty. In short, is truly out of the fold of Islam. When Bal'am tried to curse Hazrat Yusha (On whom be peace) he lost out on everything mentioned above.

وَ لَوْ شِئْنَا لَرَفَعْنٰهُ بِهَا وَلٰكِنَّهٗٓ اَخْلَدَ اِلَى الْاَرْضِ وَاتَّبَعَ هَوٰىهُ ۚ فَمَثَلُهٗ كَمَثَلِ الْكَلْبِ ۚ اِنْ تَحْمِلْ عَلَيْهِ يَلْهَثْ اَوْ تَتْرُكْهُ يَلْهَثْ ؕ ذٰلِكَ مَثَلُ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا ۚ فَاقْصُصِ الْقَصَصَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۱۷۶﴾

176.And if We had willed, we would have exalted him on account of Our Signs [405]. But, he changed to the earth and followed his desires [406]. Then his condition is like a dog. If you attack him, he brings his tongue [407] out. This is the condition of those who belied Our Signs. So you relate to them the story so that they may ponder [408].

Marfat.com

405. This tells us that one does not achieve greatness by merely reciting and knowing the QUR'AAN. This is obtained through the Grace and Bounty of Allah Almighty. The hypocrites, too, were reciting the QUR'AAN. Observe, Allah Almighty said, if we wanted we could have granted them greatness by reading the verses of the Tauraat.

406. The learned scholars should not become slaves to their sensual desires. Allah Almighty has chosen divine scholars, not satanic and sensual scholars who could go about reciting the QUR'AAN to the people by harbouring enmity against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

407. From this we learn that a scholar who is the insulter of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

177.What a bad example are those who falsify Our Signs. And thus, they wrong their ownselves.

178.Whoso Allah guides, he is on the right path and whoso Allah leads astray they remain in loss [409].

409. This tells us that knowledge and intelligence only aid to perform good deeds when it includes the Mercy and Bounty of Allah Almighty. The intelligence and knowledge of Satan proved harmful to him because it was bereft of the Mercy and Bounty of Allah Almighty. Divine misguidance for them is due to their own evil intentions which leads them to go astray e.g. at the time of murder Allah Almighty creates death for the one being murdered. Thus, in this misguidance the person is guilty of the crime, like in the case of murder, the murderer is entitled for punishment.

179.Certainly We have created many jinn [410] and men for Hell. They have hearts but they understand not therewith, and eyes with which they see not and ears with which they hear not [411]. They are like cattle, nay, more misguided [412]. They are indeed lying, heedless.

410.This tells us that infidel jinns will go into Hell, but there is no clear verse which states they would go to Paradise.

408. By this is meant until the Day of Judgement the condition of the enemies of the Prophet and those who reject the verses of the revealed Books will be like these dogs. Do not think that there was one Bal'am bin Bawoora only who died, until the Day of Judgement such Bal'ams will continue to appear.

In fact, the truth of the matter is that pious jinns will like the animals, become sand. Their reward is that they will be saved from punishment.
411. This tells us that the tongue which is bereft of reciting the praises of Allah Almighty and the praises of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is mute, those ears which do not hear the verses of Allah Almighty's Book are deaf and those eyes which do not see the proofs of guidance of this Book are blind. This is so because they are not fulfilling the objectives for which they were created. We further learn among the jinns and humans few are on 180.And to Allah belongs all the best names [413], so call Him by them, and leave alone those who go out from truth with regard to His Names [414]. They will soon get (punished) for what they have done [415].

413. Reason for its Revelation:
Abu Jahl would say that Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says that Allah Almighty is One, but he calls upon Allah Almighty, and Ar Rahman (the Merciful) - meaning he is calling upon two. In reply, Allah Almighty revealed this verse. It is stated in the Hadith Shareef that Allah Almighty has ninety nine qualitative names. He who remembers Him by any one of these, he will enter Paradise. It should be remembered that the names of Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are one thousand. The true meaning of the above Hadith Shareef is that remembering Allah Almighty by these names is the means of obtaining Paradise, it does not mean that Almighty only has ninety-nine names.

181.And for those whom We have created, guide people with truth and do justice therewith [416].

416. From this, three issues are understood:
1. If Allah Almighty wills only the groups who are on truth will remain in this world.
2. On whatever decision of the people on truth guidance and more are misguided. Thus, on the Day of Judgement Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) will be told by Allah Almighty that he should make space in Jannat for one out of every thousand of his children, and nine hundred and ninety in hell. plus 990 animals.
412. This tells us that if man can lead a pious life he can excel the angels, but if he leads an evil life he will become worse than the animals, because animals can realise what is good or bad for them but man fails to realise this. A dog only puts his mouth after smelling the thing, but man eats everything lawful and unlawful without investigating it.

وَ لِلّٰهِ الْاَسْمَآءُ الْحُسْنٰى فَادْعُوْهُ بِهَا ۪ وَذَرُوا الَّذِيْنَ يُلْحِدُوْنَ فِيْٓ اَسْمَآئِهٖ ؕ سَيُجْزَوْنَ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۰﴾

414. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty does not have a name, but a translation of the true Master, as if this is His attribute of praise. Thus, He can be addressed as Allah Almighty, but not Raam, Parbhoo, etc. (like the translation of Sattaar is conniver of the faults).
415. From this we learn to remember Allah Almighty with those names which are not worthy of His high rank and status, or its one meaning is good while the other is evil and not permissible. Do not refer to him as MIA, do not address Him as Raam, Krishan, etc. The truth of the matter is Allah Almighty's names are real, factual and can only be understood through the Laws of Islam.

وَ مِمَّنْ خَلَقْنَآ اُمَّةٌ يَّهْدُوْنَ بِالْحَقِّ وَ بِهٖ يَعْدِلُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۱﴾ ع ۲۲ ۱۲ are unanimous that decision is undoubtedly true and correct

SECTION 23

وَالَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا سَنَسْتَدْرِجُهُمْ مِّنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۲﴾

182.And those who falsify Our Signs; We lead them step-by-step towards punishment about which they will have no knowledge.

وَاُمْلِيْ لَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّ كَيْدِيْ مَتِيْنٌ ﴿۱۸۳﴾

183.And I will let them have respite. Certainly, My secret Plan is the firmest [417].

417. This tells us that receiving of wordly Bounties by an evil doer is indeed Allah Almighty delaying in His retribution towards him which makes him more bold and rebellious in his action.

اَوَ لَمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوْا ۗ مَا بِصَاحِبِهِمْ مِّنْ جِنَّةٍ ؕ اِنْ هُوَ اِلَّا نَذِيْرٌ مُّبِيْنٌ ﴿۱۸۴﴾

184.Do they not ponder that the companion has not at all an unsound mind? He (Muhammad) is a warner manifest [418].

418. This tells us that a Prophet cannot be demented, mute or deaf because they have been sent into this world to propagate the Message of Allah Almighty, while these disabilities are detrimental to propagation. The Beautiful Vision of Allah Almighty brought about temporary unconsciousness on Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) just as sleep brings about this condition during the night. Mirza Ghulam Qadiyani himself writes that he is suffering from a kind of madness called melancholia. Thus, through his own admission he is false in his claim to prophethood.

اَوَ لَمْ يَنْظُرُوْا فِيْ مَلَكُوْتِ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَمَا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ ۙ وَّ اَنْ عَسٰۤى اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ قَدِ اقْتَرَبَ اَجَلُهُمْ ۚ فَبِاَيِّ حَدِيْثٍ بَعْدَهٗ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۵﴾

185.Why do they not look into the kingdom of the heavens and the earth [419] and whatever things Allah has made [420], that perhaps due to their term may have drawn near [421]. Then in what discourse will they believe thereafter [422].

419. Here, the word sight either means to see with ones eyesight or to ponder with the inner sight, while dominion is the name given to that property of Genesis which is possessed by Allah Almighty alone. Thus, the kings of the world are called rulers of the world but not the owners of dominion. From this we learn that it is rewardable to study science and astronomy if the object of this is to obtain the mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty. We further learn just as it is important to perform Salaah, fasting, etc. it is equally important to ponder and reflect on the wordly phenomena as these become a means of obtaining mystical knowing of Allah Almighty Therefore Allah Almighty has mentioned this in various parts of the Holy QUR'AAN.

420. Besides the heavens and the earth Our knowledge penetrates everything in creation like the moon, the stars, vegetation, mountains, trees etc. including man.

421. From this we learn that man should think that every moment is his last moment and thus not leave any good deed for the future. Mere lengthy hope without action is indeed the negligent way of the infidels.

422. This tells us that the Holy QUR'AAN is the Final Book of Allah Almighty and the

Marfat.com

Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Final Prophet. He who does not obtain faith from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Holy QUR'AAN will not get it anywhere.

186.Whomsoever Allah leads astray [423], none is to guide him. And He leaves them to wander in their contumacy [424].

423. In that his misguidance has come within the knowledge of Allah Almighty. Due to his evil doing Allah Almighty has sealed his heart. Thus, he cannot come to the path of guidance. He whose misguidance is of a temporary nature can come to the straight path through the company of the pious e.g. the coal cannot become white, but casual blackness can be removed by washing.

424. This tells us that if Allah Almighty

187.They ask you concerning the Hour, that when it shall come [425]. Please declare: "The knowledge of it is only with My Lord [426]. He alone will disclose it at the proper [427] time. It is lying heavy [428] on the heavens and the earth. It shall not come upon you but of a sudden [429]. They ask you as [430] if you have already investigated it. Please declare: "Its knowledge [431] is only with Allah. But most people do not know"[432].

425. Reason for its Revelation:
Once the Yahud came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and asked when would Qiyamah be taking place, because we know its date. This verse was revealed to refute their claim. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, Khazainul Irfaan). The Yahud deliberately talked this lie to test Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that they knew the date.

426. In this verse there is no refusal of giving the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knowledge about Qiyamah but to maintain silence about it. One learns from Ahadith that Allah Almighty has given full knowledge about Qiyamah to the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself says the Qiyamah and I are as close as two fingers. Further he said Qiyamah will take place on a Friday. In addition, he has given thousands of signs of it. For this reason Allah Almighty says here: "but most people do not know" (S7:V187), and not you don't know.

427. Thus, before Qiyamah takes place I am stopped from revealing its day. From this one also learns that though the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does have knowledge about Qiyamah, he is not permitted to reveal it.

428. By this is meant that the Day of Judgement will be a burden to the inmates of the earth and the heavens, because every

He who is deprived from the doors of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is deprived from the House of the Almighty.

مَنْ يُّضْلِلِ اللّٰهُ فَلَا هَادِيَ لَهٗ ؕ وَ يَذَرُهُمْ فِيْ طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۶﴾

forsakes a person that is a Divine punishment for him, e.g. a person's continued indulgence in infidelity, polytheism and transgression is left unchecked. On the other hand someone does something trivial and he is checked for it. This is the Mercy of Allah Almighty for him. He checked Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) for unintentional error. That was His special blessing upon His Prophet.

يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ عَنِ السَّاعَةِ اَيَّانَ مُرْسٰىهَا ؕ قُلْ اِنَّمَا عِلْمُهَا عِنْدَ رَبِّيْ ۚ لَا يُجَلِّيْهَا لِوَقْتِهَاۤ اِلَّا هُوَ ؕ ثَقُلَتْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ لَا تَاْتِيْكُمْ اِلَّا بَغْتَةً ؕ يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ كَاَنَّكَ حَفِيٌّ عَنْهَا ؕ قُلْ اِنَّمَا عِلْمُهَا عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ وَ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۷﴾ himself says the Qiyamah and I are as close as two fingers. Further he said Qiyamah will take place on a Friday. In addition, he has given thousands of signs of it. For this reason Allah Almighty says here: "but most people do not know" (S7:V187), and not you don't know.

427. Thus, before Qiyamah takes place I am stopped from revealing its day. From this one also learns that though the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does have knowledge about Qiyamah, he is not permitted to reveal it.

428. By this is meant that the Day of Judgement will be a burden to the inmates of the earth and the heavens, because every human, jinn, angel, believers, animals, etc. shiver with fear about it.

429. By this is meant it is Divine intention that Qiyamah should take place suddenly, and if I were to reveal this day then the element of surprise will not be there about it. Thus, revealing knowledge about it is against Divine intention. In this there is a negation of given information about this day. We also learn from this verse that Qiyamah will occur suddenly for you but not for me i.e. to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم I am fully aware of it but not you Oh man.

430. By this is meant you have not been given the knowledge of Qiyamah by way of argument or certainty but it is bestowed spiritually and through inspired knowledge. Rational knowledge can be fully made known

188. Please declare: "I am not independent [433] for doing good and bad to my own self, but as Allah pleases [434]. And if I have known the Unseen [435], then I would have gathered ample good [436], and no evil would have touched [437] me. I am only a warner and a giver of glad tidings to people who believe [438].

433. Reason for its Revelation:
While returning from the Battle of Bani Mustaliq a strong wind was blowing on the way which caused the horses and the camels of the Muslim soldiers to run away. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم first informed about the death of Rafa'ah then asked for the where abouts of his she-camel. At this Abdullah ibn Ubay, chief of the hypocrites said that it is strange that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is giving information about what is happening in Madina but does not know the whereabouts of his she-camel. This babbling of Abdullah ibn Ubay soon came to the ears of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who said that some hypocrites are criticising our knowledge. Listen, our she-camel is in that riverside or wharf where its halter is entangled in a tree. On investigation it was as described.

or publicised, but inspired knowledge need not necessarily be made public. Reveal the laws of Shariah, but conceal matters of mystical nature. Therefore the word used here is "Already investigated" and not "all knowing". With regard to this part of the verse, it is stated in Tafseer Saawi that Allah Almighty has given His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم every knowledge of the unseen, but he has been prohibited from revealing some of these.

431. No one can claim to have knowledge of supposition by means of mere conjecture, estimation or rational sciences, but it is obtained only through Divine inspiration.

432. Knowledge of Qiyamah is from the Mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty which no one should question. Thus, they are enquiring about it from you Oh My Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

قُلْ لَّآ اَمْلِكُ لِنَفْسِىْ نَفْعًا وَّ لَا ضَرًّا
اِلَّا مَا شَآءَ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَ لَوْ كُنْتُ اَعْلَمُ
الْغَيْبَ لَاسْتَكْثَرْتُ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ ۛۚ وَ مَا
مَسَّنِىَ السُّوْٓءُ ۛؕ اِنْ اَنَا اِلَّا نَذِيْرٌ وَّ
بَشِيْرٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُّؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۸۸﴾ ع

This verse was revealed to confirm this. (Tafseer ibn Kabeer, Khazain ul Irfaan)

434. By this is meant I am the provider of benefit and harm because of Divine approval, not without it. Thus, our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the master of the entire creation as bestowed upon him by Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "O beloved! undoubtedly, We have betowed you abundance of good" (S108:V1). Thus, the Holy Prophet says that Allah Almighty has given me the keys of all the treasures of the earth. He further states that if I so desire mountains of gold would walk with me. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah Almighty and His Messenger has enriched them out of His Grace" (S9:V74). Hazrat Rabecah asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for Paradise which was given to him.

Marfat.com

435. By this is meant that if I had knowledge of the unseen by myself for which Divine power is necessary then I should have brought everything together. This verse can serve as a proof for those who deny knowledge of the unseen for those other than Allah Almighty, because they themselves accept certain unseen knowledge which is bestowed.

436.Here, the word 'ample good' signifies comforts of the world, its felicitations, outward victory over your enemies, etc otherwise Allah Almighty has already provided abundance of good to His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Says Allah Almighty "And he who got wisdom indeed got abundant good." (S2: V269)

Whosoever is granted wisdom, is granted abundance of good, while our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is made distributor of wisdom.

437.But worldly calamities do come of me, meaning on my own I do not possess unseen knowledge about anything. If this would be used to reject the endowment of knowledge of the unseen then it would out of necessity mean that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not have knowledge of the unseen about a single thing and this is totally against categorical injunctions.

438. Because only the believers will benefit from my warnings and prophecies.

SECTION 24

189.It is He Who created you from a single soul [439], and made for you therefrom a mate that you may find rest in her. Then, when the male covers her, she bears a light burden and moves about keeping it (conception). Then, when she grows heavy, both pray to their Lord [440]: "If you give us a good child, we shall surely be grateful"[441].

هُوَ الَّذِیْ خَلَقَكُمْ مِّنْ نَّفْسٍ وَّاحِدَةٍ
وَّجَعَلَ مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا لِیَسْكُنَ اِلَیْهَا ۚ
فَلَمَّا تَغَشّٰىهَا حَمَلَتْ حَمْلًا خَفِیْفًا فَمَرَّتْ
بِهٖ ۚ فَلَمَّاۤ اَثْقَلَتْ دَّعَوَا اللّٰهَ رَبَّهُمَا لَىِٕنْ
اٰتَیْتَنَا صَالِحًا لَّنَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الشّٰكِرِیْنَ ﴿۱۸۹﴾

439. Oh people of Quraish! you were created from one person i.e. you are all descendants of Qusay and out of Qusay's or kind be created his wife so that he could derive tranquility and peace of mind.

440. By this is meant both Qusay and his wife were grateful to their Creator.

441. We will express our gratitude and appreciation to you for blessing us with good children.

190.Then when He gave them a befitting child, they associated with Him associates [442] in respect of what He bestows upon them. But Allah is exalted above their polytheism [443].

فَلَمَّاۤ اٰتٰىهُمَا صَالِحًا جَعَلَا لَهٗ شُرَكَآءَ
فِیْمَاۤ اٰتٰىهُمَا ۚ فَتَعٰلَى اللّٰهُ عَمَّا یُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿۱۹۰﴾

442. Some scholars have said that here the Quraish are being addressed that Allah Almighty made you progeny of Qusay who named his four sons Abd Manaf, Abdul Uzza, Abd Qusay and Abdud Daar.

443. From plural form of polytheism we understand that this does not refer to Hazrat Adam and Hazrat Hawa (On whom be peace) but rather it is desribing the condition of polytheist parents in general. Also, Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) is the Prophet of Allah Almighty and Prophets can never be polytheists because just as their obedience is obligatory upon us, so is the abhorrence of the polytheists. If any person is a prophet and a polytheist it would constitute combination of two contraries. Allah Almighty has purified His Prophets from all types of sins. Thus, no form of polytheism can be committed by them.

191.Do they equate with Him those who make nothing? They are themselves created ones [444].

اَيُشْرِكُوْنَ مَا لَا يَخْلُقُ شَيْـًٔا وَّ هُمْ يُخْلَقُوْنَ ﴿۱۹۱﴾

444. Here, the verb 'He created' is used to denote to shape and to form and not to create i.e. these idols are shaped by these idols-worshippers so how come their own designing became an object of their worship. Because these polytheists were regarding these idols as intelligent and wise, the plural form of wise is used which is "themselves created", otherwise they are totally lifeless and without intelligence. Therefore, the conjunction 'which' appears here which is used for the unintelligent. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

192.And neither have they any power to give help to anyone, nor can they help themselves [445].

445. By this is meant how can they help you when they are not in the position to protect themselves if any one tries to break them or if a dog tries to drag them away. It should be remembered that the honour and respect accorded to the shrines of the Saints is like the honour and respect accorded to the Holy Ka'bah, the Black Stone, the Maqaame-Ebrahim and the Holy QUR'AAN. As all these are connected to Allah Almighty, they are held in high esteem and honour. This verse is in no way connected to believers because no one makes the pious sages as an object of worship.

193.And if you call them towards guidance, they will not follow you. It is same to you whether you invite them or you remain silent [446].

446. By this is meant they neither have the strength and ability to walk about, nor the power to laugh and understand. Then on what grounds can they be taken as object of worship It should be remembered that Allah Almighty is All-Powerful and Almighty. We have come to perceive His Power through the creation of this world, although we have not seen Him directly.

194.Undoubtedly those who you worship besides Allah, are bondsmen like you [447]. Therefore, call upon them and let them respond to you, if you are truthful [448].

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ تَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ عِبَادٌ اَمْثَالُكُمْ فَادْعُوْهُمْ فَلْيَسْتَجِيْبُوْا لَكُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۹۴﴾

447. By this is meant that in being creation of Allah Almighty are they similar to you, otherwise man is superior to these man-made gods. like the moon, the starts, etc. or LAAT, MANAAT, stones, etc. From this we learn that we are not like the Prophets though it is said about them "a man like you." Just as we cannot say that humans are similar to stones, although they too are said 'like you'. One is surprised to hear that some people would claim to be like a Prophet, but they never say we are like Abu Jahl or Abu Lahab! Why this double standard? If due to your faith you are not like Abu Jahl, then the Prophet by virtue of his Prophethood cannot be like you.

448. In that they can listen to you and fulfil your needs. Thus, they are worthy of being worshipped by you. But this is not the case.

اَلَهُمْ اَرْجُلٌ يَّمْشُوْنَ بِهَآ اَمْ لَهُمْ اَيْدٍ يَّبْطِشُوْنَ بِهَآ اَمْ لَهُمْ اَعْيُنٌ يُّبْصِرُوْنَ بِهَآ اَمْ لَهُمْ اٰذَانٌ يَّسْمَعُوْنَ بِهَا ؕ قُلِ ادْعُوْا شُرَكَآءَكُمْ ثُمَّ كِيْدُوْنِ فَلَا تُنْظِرُوْنِ ﴿۱۹۵﴾

195.Have they feet to walk with? Or, have they hands with which to hold? Or, have they eyes with [449] which to see? Or, have they ears with which to hear? Please declare: "Call upon your associates and then try your tricks on me and give me no respite" [450].

449. The purpose of this verse is not to show that anyone who can walk about, is able to hear, hold, etc. can become an object of worship. Monkeys and cows too have power to do these things. The true purpose of this verse is to make you aware that since these stones and trees are bereft of these powers which you have, then how can you make them an object of your worship? This verse is crystal clear without any doubt or ambiguity. This could also mean that these idols cannot harm you because they are lifeless and powerless.

450. This tells us that Allah Almighty provides the Prophets unlimited valour and courage, that despite being alone they can summon all to oppose him in this manner. If Mirza Ghulam Qadiyani was a prophet he too should be bold like this, but he feared people so much that due to this he was unable to even perform his Hajj. This verse was revealed at a time when polytheists tried to instil fear in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم via their idols.

اِنَّ وَلِيِّۦَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِىْ نَزَّلَ الْكِتٰبَ ۖ وَهُوَ يَتَوَلَّى الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿۱۹۶﴾

196.Undoubtedly, my Protector [451] is Allah Who sent down the Book, and He befriends the righteous.

451. It should be remembered that the True Guardian and Helper is Allah Almighty only. But His special servants are the Manifestors of His natural phenomenon, and they too on the superficial level become guardians and helpers. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah is your friend and His Messenger and the believers" (S5:V55). Just as the true granter of cure and the true Master is Allah Almighty, yet some medicines are called reliever of fever and indigestion, some are called redresser of complaints, and the king is called master of the country, a person is called the master of his property, etc. Thus, neither is there anything objectionable in the verses, nor are the Prophets and Saints, polytheists. If the going of the thirsty person to the well is not polytheism, then in what way is the sinner's seeking the door of mercy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم regarded as polytheistic?

Marfat.com

وَ الَّذِيْنَ تَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ لَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ نَصْرَكُمْ وَ لَاۤ اَنْفُسَهُمْ يَنْصُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۹۷﴾

197.And those, whom you worship besides Him, cannot help you, nor can they help themselves [452].

452. By this is meant that if the dog tries to take away their sacrificed things they are unable to snatch it away from it, and if flies are humming on them they are unable to chase them away.

وَ اِنْ تَدْعُوْهُمْ اِلَى الْهُدٰى لَا يَسْمَعُوْا ؕ وَ تَرٰىهُمْ يَنْظُرُوْنَ اِلَيْكَ وَ هُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُوْنَ ﴿۱۹۸﴾

198.And if you call them towards guidance, they do not hear, and you see them looking at you and they see nothing [453].

453. By this is meant the eyes of those idols are open and it seems as if they are looking at you, but what can the eyes of stones see? They appear to be looking at you but in truth they cannot see. The great Sufi scholars say that physically the infidels do see the Prophets, but in truth they fail to see them because they only see their human form, not their prophethood. Only those who saw the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with their inner eye are his Noble Companions, not those who have merely seen him with their physical eye. Some of these noble persons were physically blind, but were his Companions because they had possessed the inner sight. One pious person had stated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said who has seen me will enter Paradise. To this someone replied that if Abu Jahl had not become an inmate of Paradise after seeing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم how will I become the inmate of Paradise by looking at you. The great man replied Abu Jahl merely saw Muhammad bin Abdullah and not Muhammadur Rasoolullah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, thereafter he recited this verse (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

خُذِ الْعَفْوَ وَ اْمُرْ بِالْعُرْفِ وَ اَعْرِضْ عَنِ الْجٰهِلِيْنَ ﴿۱۹۹﴾

199.(O Beloved Prophet) Adopt forgiveness and advise to do good and turn away from the ignorant [454].

454. By this is meant you should forgive your personal enemies, and those who show ignorance in the treatment of your personality you should overlook them without paying any attention to them, but not those who are the enemies of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hence, this verse is not abrogated but firm in its place. It teaches excellent moral precepts which will help to change an enemy into a friend.

وَ اِمَّا يَنْزَغَنَّكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطٰنِ نَزْغٌ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۲۰۰﴾

200.And (O listener)! If the devil gives you any pricking [455] then seek refuge in Allah. Undoubtedly, it is He Who is Most Hearing, the Knowing.

455. By this is meant if the devil instils anger in you and forces you to fight with your enemy, you should recite "I seek protection in Allah Almighty". You should remember, that recitation of "I seek refuge in Allah Almighty" is an excellent form of getting rid of your anger. Here, common believers are being addressed because Allah Almighty has protected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from the evil effects of the devil. In fact, the devil connected to him has become a believer as stated in the Hadith Shareef.

Marfat.com

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا إِذَا مَسَّهُمْ طَٰٓئِفٌ مِّنَ الشَّيْطَٰنِ تَذَكَّرُوا فَإِذَا هُم مُّبْصِرُونَ ﴿٢٠١﴾

201.Surely, those who fear Allah when the temptation of the devil touches them, they begin (Allah's) rememberance. At the same time, their eyes are opened [456].

456. This tells us that a sin through which one obtains repentance is better than that good deed which makes a person proud and arrogant. Hazrat Adam's (On whom be peace) inadvertent eating of the wheat was better than the worship of Satan. We further learn that one should express remorse and guilt immediately at the time of committing, the sin. One should not delay in repenting because Allah Almighty, here, mentions this quality of pious servants.

وَإِخْوَٰنُهُمْ يَمُدُّونَهُمْ فِى الْغَىِّ ثُمَّ لَا يُقْصِرُونَ ﴿٢٠٢﴾

202.And their brethren (Shaitaan) drag them towards error, then they relax not.

وَإِذَا لَمْ تَأْتِهِم بِـَٔايَةٍ قَالُوا لَوْ لَا اجْتَبَيْتَهَا ۚ قُلْ إِنَّمَآ أَتَّبِعُ مَا يُوحَىٰٓ إِلَىَّ مِن رَّبِّى ۚ هَٰذَا بَصَآئِرُ مِن رَّبِّكُمْ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٢٠٣﴾

203.And (O Beloved Prophet) when you do not bring to them any Sign, they say [457]: "Why have you not made it yourself?" Please declare: "I follow only what is revealed to me from my Lord". This is an eye-opener from your Lord, and a guidance and mercy for the Muslims [458].

457. Here the word 'verse' denotes QUR'ANIC verse. Whenever Revelation would be stopped for a few days, the infidels would say this is a joke. Also, at times the infidels would mockingly say that a certain type of a verse should be revealed in the QUR'AAN in which such and such laws should be found. When this would not be forthcoming, they would treat this as a joke.

458. Because only Muslims derive benefit from it. The QUR'AAN is a mercy unto all mankind i.e. to provide guidance in the world, as well as to provide peace from punishment. However, the special mercy and providing of faith, etc. and the blessings of the Hereafter are for Muslims only. Thus, there is no inconsistencey in the verse. The same is the condition about the Beloved Possessor of the Holy QUR'AAN صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who too is the Mercy unto mankind, as well as a benevolence unto the believers.

وَإِذَا قُرِئَ الْقُرْءَانُ فَاسْتَمِعُوا لَهُۥ وَأَنصِتُوا لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ﴿٢٠٤﴾

204.And when the QUR'AAN is recited, hear it patiently [459] and be silent so that you may obtain mercy[460].

459.This verse serves as a proof for the validity of vocal Zikr because listening and maintaining silence can only take place when the Holy QUR'AAN is being recited aloud. It should be remembered that the instruction regarding recitation of the QUR'AAN is different to the instructions regarding teaching of the QUR'AAN. Many children can collectively learn the QUR'AAN even if they recite it aloud, because this is teaching of the QUR'AAN, not recitation of it. Mere reciting aloud of the QUR'AAN on collective basis is not permissible. In fact the correct procedure is to listen to the recitation silently. Some people who recite the QUR'AAN aloud, collectively, in a Khatam Shareef, should know that this is not allowed.

460. From this verse we learn that recitation of Surah Fateha for the Muqtadee behind the Imam is not permissible, no matter whether the Imam recites the QUR'AAN loudly or silently. If recitation of Surah Fateha for the Muqtadee was obligatory, then joining the Imaam in Ruku would not have made it possible to save the raka'at. This was the school of thought of the majority of the Companions. In fact this verse is there to stop the Muqtadee from reciting Surah Fateha because the following verse abrogated talking in Salaah: "And stand before Allah Almighty with devotion." (S2:V238). (Hanafi)

205.And remember your Lord within yourself, humbly and fearfully and without uttering a sound [461] from the tongue, morning and evening [462] and be not among the heedless.

وَ اذْكُرْ رَّبَّكَ فِيْ نَفْسِكَ تَضَرُّعًا وَّ خِيْفَةً
وَّ دُوْنَ الْجَهْرِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ بِالْغُدُوِّ
وَالْاٰصَالِ وَ لَا تَكُنْ مِّنَ الْغٰفِلِيْنَ ﴿۲۰۵﴾

461. This tells us that under certain circumstances the silent Zikr is better than the vocal Zikr as there is no possibility of any show. If you wish to engage yourself in Zikrullah while the QUR'AAN is being recited you should do so quietly without raising your voice, because command is given after the previous verse. If these obstacles are not found, then the vocal Zikr would be regarded superior. Says Allah Almighty: "Remember Allah as you used to remember your father." (S2:V199)

462. Because Nafl prayers after Fajr and Asr are not permissible, one is pursuaded to recite Zikr during these times so that no time of the believer is wasted.

206.Surely, those who are with your [463] Lord do not become boastful of His worship, but glorify Him and to Him they prostrate.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُوْنَ عَنْ
عِبَادَتِهٖ وَ يُسَبِّحُوْنَهٗ وَ لَهٗ يَسْجُدُوْنَ ﴿۲۰۶﴾ ع

سجدة

463.By favourite angels near your Lord does not mean nearness of place but nearness of rank. The object of this is if those angels near to Allah Almighty are constantly engaged in prayers and prostrations, O man you should do the same.

SURAH AL-ANFAAL (SPOILS OF WAR)
(MADANI) REVEALED AFTER HIJRAH
10 SECTIONS 75 VERSES 1075 Words , 5080 Letters

I begin in the Name of Allah, the Most Compassionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ عَنِ الْاَنْفَالِ ؕ قُلِ الْاَنْفَالُ لِلّٰهِ وَ الرَّسُوْلِ ۚ فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَ اَصْلِحُوْا ذَاتَ بَيْنِكُمْ ۪ وَ اَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗۤ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝١

1. O Beloved Prophet they question you regarding the spoils [1] of war. Say You: "The spoils belong to Allah and His Messenger [2]. So fear Allah [3], and keep things right among yourselves. And obey Allah and His Messenger, if you believe [4].

1. The word Anfaal is the plural of NAFAL, which means excess. Because the spoils of war are additional to the reward of a Ghazi - A returning soldier, and this wealth had become permissible for Muslims only, while it was unlawful for the previous Ummahs, it is called ANFAAL. The permissibility of sacrificial meat and spoils of war is the speciality of this Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Hazrat Ubadah bin Saamit (May Allah be pleased with him) says that this verse was revealed after the Battle of Badr when the distribution of the spoils of war became a contentious issue. To solve this difference Allah Almighty makes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the sole master of the distribution, who distributed this wealth equally amongst the Muslim soldiers.

2. The connection of the spoils of war to Allah Almighty is made for the purpose of respect and honour, and to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for the purpose of authority Tafseer Roohul Bayaan . This means that this wealth was not only good and pure because it is the bounty of Allah Almighty, but because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is commanded as the sole distributor of it. Allah Almighty is our absolute Master. He can give any command He so desires. From this we learn that to connect remembrance of Allah Almighty with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not an act of polytheism but a source of Faith. Just as we received Faith from Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم have bestowed wealth upon us.

3. By this is meant in the distribution of the spoils of war do not bring about disputes or arguments, but abide by the decision of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم without question.

4. It should be remembered the obedience to Allah Almighty is in matters of Divine Commands, while obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is in respect of his commands and his blessed practices. It is for this reason Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are mentioned after obedience, while mention is being made of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in matters of following and carrying out in the verse "Then follow me" (S3:V31) . We learn from this verse that obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the demand of Faith.

2. Only they are believers whose hearts tremble when Allah is mentioned [5], and when His verses are recited to them. And their faith gets increased [6], and in their Lord they put their trust [7].

إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِرَ اللَّهُ وَجِلَتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَ إِذَا تُلِيَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتُهٗ زَادَتْهُمْ اِيْمَانًا وَّ عَلٰى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُوْنَ ۚ﴿۲﴾

5. The verse of Divine Personality and Qualities should instil in the heart dread of Allah Almighty, while the verses of punishment should instil fear, verses of mercy should create desire and fervour, pour tears from the eyes. From this we learn that whose heart is bereft of love, he is not a complete believer. We further learn that the Holy QUR'AAN should be recited with a great deal of zeal, fervour, fear of Allah Almighty and presence of mind. Furthermore, the fear of Allah Almighty shown by believers in this world is a means of future fearlessness. Says Allah Almighty:

3. They establish Salaah prayer and spend something of what We have provided for them [8].

الَّذِيْنَ يُقِيْمُوْنَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَ مِمَّا رَزَقْنٰهُمْ يُنْفِقُوْنَ ؕ﴿۳﴾

8. This verse includes many issues: Salaah should be performed regularly, punctually, correctly, and lovingly. Every Fard and Wajib Salaah must be performed. All these issues become evident from "Those who establish prayer". We must spend our wealth in the path of Allah Almighty, which is lawfully

4.They are true [9], believers. For them are exalted ranks with their Lord, forgiveness and the honourable provisions.

اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ حَقًّا ؕ لَهُمْ دَرَجٰتٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ وَّرِزْقٌ كَرِيْمٌ ۚ﴿۴﴾

9. All the above qualities are found in the lives of every Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Thus they are true

5. O Beloved Prophet As your Lord brought you forth from your house with truth [10]. And surely even a group of believers were unhappy over it [11].

كَمَآ اَخْرَجَكَ رَبُّكَ مِنْۢ بَيْتِكَ بِالْحَقِّ ۪ وَ اِنَّ فَرِيْقًا مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ لَكٰرِهُوْنَ ۙ﴿۵﴾

"There is no fear nor any grief for them." (S10:V62).

6. From this emerge two issues:

1. In faith there can be an increase in feeling and ecstasy;

2. Deeds are the means of perfecting one's faith.

7. Trust is of two types: with provisions; and without provisions. Here both types are meant. The trust of the common people is with provisions, that of the special people is without provisions.

earned. Give some of the wealth in charity, keep some of it for your children, spend on all good deeds not just for Zakaat, spend continuously, not just once. All these issues become evident from :"What We have provided". For detail explanation of this refer to our Tafseer Naeemi.

believers evidenced by the Holy QUR'AAN. Anyone who doubts the faith of anyone of them is in fact denying the veracity of this faith.

10. By this is meant the departure of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with his noble Companions from Madinatul Munawwarah for the Battle of Badr. At the time when Abu Sufyan was returning with mercantile caravan from Syria to Makkah Mukkarramah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم set out with his Noble Companions to halt this caravan. When the people of Makkah received this news that their caravan was about to be attacked, Abu Jahl set out with a big fully equipped army where the first battle between the Believers and the infidels was fought at Badr. The Muslims were only 313 in number while the non-believers were about one thousand in number. Muslims were ill equipped and poorly armed, while the infidels were well armed and richly equipped. In the meantime Abu Sufyaan escaped through another path, arriving safely into Makkah. Here at Badr some Muslims were telling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that they had come to stop the caravan, they were not prepared for such a battle. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not like the tone and manner in which they had said this. On hearing these people Hazrat Abu Bakr and Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with them) said: "Oh Messenger of Allah, we will never go against your blessed command. We are prepared to go wherever Allah's Messenger commands us to go. If you command us we are even prepared to jump in the ocean." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "Let us go placing our trust in Allah Almighty. Victory will be yours." A day before the battle the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم marked on the ground the position where each of the infidels would be killed, and it happened as was prophesised.

11. From this we learn that this detestation and argument was not against faith. For this reason Allah Almighty had addressed them as believers. This detestation should be looked upon as personal dislike and not in respect of confrontation and war. Thus the differences that arose amongst those in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم at the time of the famous Paper incident too was not against faith. To give your opinion is no infidelity, infidelity is to fight over the differences. Similar is the basis of difference between, Hazrat Ali and Hazrat Muawiya May Allah be pleased with them these were differences of opinion not of beliefs. If differences of opinion with the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not an act of infidelity, then how can difference in opinion with Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) be an act of infidelity. For further details see our book:'ONE GLANCE AT AMIR MUAWIYA'.

6. They were disputing with you concerning the truth, after it had become clear, as if they were driven towards death with their eyes open[12].

يُجَادِلُوْنَكَ فِي الْحَقِّ بَعْدَ مَا تَبَيَّنَ كَاَنَّمَا يُسَاقُوْنَ اِلَى الْمَوْتِ وَ هُمْ يَنْظُرُوْنَ ۝٦

12. By this is meant that they were regarding the confrontation with the non-believers of the Quraish as something dreadful.

7. And remember when Allah promised you that in both these parties [13], one group is yours, and you wished that you should have that one which has no weapons [14]. And Allah willed that truth be proven by His Words. And the roots of the infidels [15], be cut off.

وَ اِذْ يَعِدُكُمُ اللّٰهُ اِحْدَى الطَّآئِفَتَيْنِ اَنَّهَا لَكُمْ وَ تَوَدُّوْنَ اَنَّ غَيْرَ ذَاتِ الشَّوْكَةِ تَكُوْنُ لَكُمْ وَ يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ اَنْ يُّحِقَّ الْحَقَّ بِكَلِمٰتِهٖ وَ يَقْطَعَ دَابِرَ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ۝٧

13. The mercantile caravan of Abu Sufyaan and the army led by Abu Jahal.
14. On the occasion of the Battle of Badr the Muslims had not set out from Madinatul Munawwarah with the intention of being engaged in a military confrontation with the Non-believers but with the intention of confronting and overpowering the caravan of Abu Sufyan and seizing the equipment and the wealth found in it so that they would not use this wealth for waging future wars with the Muslims. However, this caravan escaped through another route and resulted in bringing the non-believers to wage war on the Muslims. By 'that in which there is no rankle' denotes this caravan of Abu Sufyan.
15. By this is meant that the Battle of Badr should take place in which Quraishi leaders should be slained at the hands of Muslim youth, and a great deal of spoils of war should come in Muslim hands, many infidels should come as captives in Muslim hands who would eventually become Muslims. From this we learn that sometimes worldly difficulties end in a splendid and dignified way.

8. That He may establish the truth and abolish falsehood, although the guilty might dislike it [16].

لِيُحِقَّ الْحَقَّ وَيُبْطِلَ الْبَاطِلَ وَ لَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُجْرِمُوْنَ ۚ ﴿٨﴾

16. The word criminals denote the polytheists ie. the victory of the Muslims at Badr proved very burdensome, hurtful and unpalatable to the infidels.

9. When you were calling your Lord for help, He responded to you that I am going to help you [17], with a series of a thousand angels [18].

اِذْ تَسْتَغِيْثُوْنَ رَبَّكُمْ فَاسْتَجَابَ لَكُمْ اَنِّيْ مُمِدُّكُمْ بِاَلْفٍ مِّنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ مُرْدِفِيْنَ ﴿٩﴾

17. On seeing the numerical superiority of the infidels at Badr the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم made dua to Allah Almighty that if the weak and helpless group of Muslims are destroyed, there will be no one left in the world to take Your Name. Allah Almighty accepted this dua of His Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This verse was revealed in response to this plea. From this we learn that the dua of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the dua of his entire people, because the dua was made by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, but Allah Almighty said: "You were crying for help from Your Lord" ie. you were all earnestly engaged in making the dua.
18. Thus in reply to the dua Allah Almighty first sent a group of one thousand angels to help the Muslims at Badr, then another three thousand, then five thousand. The Companions saw with their eyes the infidels running in front of them. Then suddenly a sound of whip lash was heard and the infidel falling down dead by himself.

10. And Allah did this but for your pleasure [19], and in order that your hearts might find contentment. And there is no help, but from Allah[20]. Surely, Allah is Dominant, Wise.

وَ مَا جَعَلَهُ اللّٰهُ اِلَّا بُشْرٰى وَ لِتَطْمَئِنَّ بِهٖ قُلُوْبُكُمْ ۚ وَ مَا النَّصْرُ اِلَّا مِنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿١٠﴾ ع ۱۰/۱۵

Marfat.com

19. This tells us that these angels had not come for the destruction of the infidels, because one angel would have been sufficient for that, but the purpose of their coming was to aid the Muslims.
20. From this emerges two issues:
1. The Companions who fought at Badr are persons of such great magnitude that angels fought side by side with them against the infidels.
2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too is a prophet of such grandeur that angels came to serve under his supervision, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was the commander in chief, and these angels were his subordinates.

SECTION 2

إِذْ يُغَشِّيكُمُ النُّعَاسَ أَمَنَةً مِّنْهُ وَيُنَزِّلُ عَلَيْكُم مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً لِّيُطَهِّرَكُم بِهِ وَيُذْهِبَ عَنكُمْ رِجْزَ الشَّيْطَانِ وَلِيَرْبِطَ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِكُمْ وَيُثَبِّتَ بِهِ الْأَقْدَامَ ﴿١١﴾

11. When He covered you with drowsiness, it was a security from Himself [21], and sent down water upon you from heaven that He might cleanse you therewith [22], and remove from you the filth of the devil [23], and might give courage to your hearts and make your steps firm therewith[24].

21. In the Battle of Badr the Muslims were feeling drowsy in a natural way, while the hypocrites were feeling uneasy. This tells us that in a debate or in a battle the feeling of drowsiness is a mercy of Allah Almighty, as this is a sign of contentment of the heart and being fearless about the enemy. However, drowsiness in Salaah is effected by the devil.
22. So that you would be able to make ablution and Ghusal with this water. The area which was occupied by the Muslims at Badr was critically short of water. Some of the commentators are of the opinion by TAHARAT is meant being without wudu, while 'filth of the devil' denotes being without Ghusal eg. state of Ihtilaam -nocturnal emission etc. because Ihtilaam is induced by the devil. TAFSEER RUIIUL BAYAAN
23. By this impurity is meant evil suggestions or devilish thoughts, not evil beliefs because the noble Companions can never have had evil beliefs. This tells us that a box was sent to the Israelites but angels came to the aid of the believers.
24. On the day of the Battle of Badr the polytheists had controlled the area with water, while the Muslims had camped at the sandy area which was causing their feet to sink. Here some were in need of making wudu and some were in need of Ghusal, while every soldier was extremely thirsty. The devil placed evil suggestions in some of these that if you were on the path of truth you would not have been placed in such difficulties and the infidels would not have occupied such comfortable area. What hope do you have of future success! In response to this Allah Almighty sent rain which made this sandy ground fit for walking, people were able to perform their wudu and Ghusal, their utensils were filled with water and everyone's thirst was quenched. This calmed the hearts of the believers and this rain became the prophecy of their future victory, all devilish thoughts dissipated and their hearts became joyous. This verse hints towards all this.

إِذْ يُوحِي رَبُّكَ إِلَى الْمَلَائِكَةِ أَنِّي مَعَكُمْ فَثَبِّتُوا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا ۚ سَأُلْقِي فِي قُلُوبِ

12. O Beloved Prophet when your Lord was revealing to the angels [25]: "I am with you, keep the Muslims [26], firm.

Marfat.com

الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوا الرُّعْبَ فَاضْرِبُوْا فَوْقَ الْاَعْنَاقِ وَ اضْرِبُوْا مِنْهُمْ كُلَّ بَنَانٍ ﴿١٢﴾

Soon I shall cast terror [27] in the hearts of the infidels. Therefore strike above the necks of the infidels and strike off every fingertip of theirs" [28].

25. Here the word 'revelation' signifies divine inspiration, or placing in one's heart, while by angels are meant those angels who came to assist the Muslims at Badr. Also, the object of this word is not to suggest that the angels were afraid which Allah Almighty removed from them by saying that We are with you, but its object is to show that Oh angels! your participation in this Battle has elevated you, so that you have hereby gained our company. It should be remembered that just as the Companions of Badr are superior to other Companions, those angels who were at Badr enjoy similar superiority among all the other angels.

26. This tells us that during battles angels provide steadfastness and contentment of the heart. Similarly the meditation of the Holy Prophet becomes the means of obtaining all the Bounties of Allah Almighty.

27. They would develop a natural fear for the Muslims. This means that through the blessings of Allah Almighty no fear of the infidels set in the hearts of the believers. Instead the infidels dreaded the believers. Faith is a powerful weapon of the believers.

28. In here the Muslims are being addressed that strike the infidels on all their joints. This verse reveals the proof of the beauty of Prophethood which teaches us to strike the enemy on its every joint.

ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمْ شَآقُّوا اللّٰهَ وَ رَسُوْلَهٗ ۚ وَمَنْ يُّشَاقِقِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ شَدِيْدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿١٣﴾

13. This is because they opposed Allah and His Messenger [29], and whoso opposes Allah and His Messenger then, undoubtedly, severe is the punishment of Allah.

29. This tells us that during a battle a believer should show anger at the infidel because the infidel is the enemy of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and not for any personal reasons. A war should not be for territorial gains but for the sake of religion. Battle for worldly gains is mischief, but for the sake of religion it is a Jihad.

ذٰلِكُمْ فَذُوْقُوْهُ وَ اَنَّ لِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ عَذَابَ النَّارِ ﴿١٤﴾

14. This, taste [30], it then and know that for the infidels is the punishment of the fire.

30. By this is meant the punishment of defeat at Badr. From this two issues emerge:
1. The worldly punishment of the infidels will not lesson their punishment of the Hereafter. That will be in addition of this punishment.
2. The punishment of this world in comparison to the Hereafter is insignificant, therefore the word here is 'to taste'.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اِذَا لَقِيْتُمُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا زَحْفًا فَلَا تُوَلُّوْهُمُ الْاَدْبَارَ ﴿١٥﴾

15. O believers! When you encounter the infidels in the battlefield, turn not your backs to them [31].

Marfat.com

31. The word "ZAHFAN" in Arabic is used to indicate a big army. In this word infidels, polytheists, Jews and Christians are also included. This command is in respect of waging war against infidels. In the worldly, wars of the Muslims, those who take to their heels and make peace, are entitled for reward. Infact to make peace too is worthy of reward.

16. And whosoever will turn his back to them that day, except as a war tactic or for joining his company, then he returns in the wrath[32], of Allah and his abode is Hell. And what an evil place that is to return to[33].

وَ مَنْ يُّوَلِّهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ دُبُرَهٗۤ اِلَّا مُتَحَرِّفًا لِّقِتَالٍ اَوْ مُتَحَيِّزًا اِلٰى فِئَةٍ فَقَدْ بَآءَ بِغَضَبٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَمَاْوٰىهُ جَهَنَّمُ ؕ وَ بِئْسَ الْمَصِيْرُ ﴿۱۶﴾

32. By this is meant to run away is a major sin, but do not turn your backs with the intention of running even if the infidels may be many in number and the Muslims are less. Nevertheless, this is the command. The last thing is death which for a believer is martyrdom.

33. In this verse three kinds of nature of 'turning your back' in a war are described:

1. Military strategy ie. initially taking to the heels, then suddenly turn and attack.
2. A Muslim warrior who is separated from his own army and finds himself surrounded by the enemy runs to join his own army.
3. To take to the heels from the battlefield.

The first two are acceptable, the third is rejected. From this we learn that to turn one's back to Jihad is a major sin. However, if this is done due to extreme circumstances it would be treated in a different light. Those soldiers who took to their heels in the Battle of Uhad and Hunain have been given an amnesty already: Said Allah Almighty: "Allah has granted them forgiveness." Now if anyone speaks ill of them he is indeed a faithless person. There are approximately seventy types of major sins, one of which is running away from Jihad. (Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan).

17. Therefore you did not slay them, but Allah slew [34] them. And O Beloved Prophet the dust that you did throw, actually it was not thrown by you, but Allah threw [35], it, in order [36], that He might confer on the believers a better reward[37]. than it. Undoubtedly, Allah is Hearing, Most Knowing.

فَلَمْ تَقْتُلُوْهُمْ وَ لٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ قَتَلَهُمْ ۪ وَ مَا رَمَيْتَ اِذْ رَمَيْتَ وَ لٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ رَمٰى ۚ وَلِيُبْلِيَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ مِنْهُ بَلَآءً حَسَنًا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۱۷﴾

34. Reason for its revelation:

When returning from the Battle of Badr the Muslims were talking that he had killed a certain infidel, another said he had killed a certain infidel. In response this verse was revealed in which Allah Almighty is saying that you should not think that this success was due to your effort and strength. Regard this victory as coming from Allah Almighty for which you should express your gratitude. This should be the dignified approach of the Muslims.

35. From this we learn that the action of the beloved is the action of Allah Almighty, and that believers work on the Strength of Allah Almighty. In his limbs strength has been placed by Allah Almighty.

Marfat.com

36.Here the difference in action between the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his Noble Companions is that killing has been totally negated from the Companions but the casting of a handful of dust by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not negated, instead Allah Almighty establishes its truth with the words "the dust that you did throw." In the Battle of Badr the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم threw a handful of dust on which he prayed in the direction of the infidels for the disgrace of the infidels, which fell in the eyes of all the infidels. This incident is being described here.

37. All the incidents of Badr took place so that Muslims would be given victory and spoils of war. Here the word 'Balaan' is used to show reward, and a reward which is of great magnitude, because just as calamity is a test, so is reward, a severe test .

ذٰلِكُمْ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ مُوْهِنُ كَيْدِ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿١٨﴾

18. This, take it [38], and with it Allah weakens the plot of the infidels.

38. Allah be praised! What a beautiful address! ie. Oh the devotees of My Beloved for the time being accept this victory and spoils of war because you will also be given many bounties of this world and the Hereafter, as well as dignity and honour.

اِنْ تَسْتَفْتِحُوْا فَقَدْ جَآءَكُمُ الْفَتْحُ ۚ وَ اِنْ تَنْتَهُوْا فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ ۚ وَ اِنْ تَعُوْدُوْا نَعُدْ ۚ وَ لَنْ تُغْنِيَ عَنْكُمْ فِئَتُكُمْ شَيْـًٔا وَّ لَوْ كَثُرَتْ ۙ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿١٩﴾ ع ٩ ٢ ١٦

19. (O infidels!) If you demand judgment, then this judgment has come to you [39], and if you desist it is better [40], for you, but if you again repeat the mischief, then We shall again punish you. And your party [41]. shall be of no help to you, however numerous. Surely Allah is with [42]. the believers.

39. When the infidels of Makkah set out for the Battle of Badr they clung to the covering cloth of the Holy Kabah and prayed that Oh Allah Almighty grant victory to the one from us who is on truth. As a result, victory was given to the Muslims. At that point this verse was revealed stating that whatever you had requested has been fulfilled which reveals the truth about Islam.

40. By this is meant that if you desist from your infidelity and military confrontation with the Muslims, it would be beneficial to you. From this we learn that our good deeds should indeed prove beneficial to ourselves. This is no favour upon Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

41.In here there is a prophecy about the unseen which Allah Almighty fulfilled. During the blessed period of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the reign of the four Caliphs, lesser Muslims had overpowered infidels greater in number. In the Battle of Yarmuk, fought during the rule of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) the Christians numbered seven hundred thousand while Muslims were only forty thousand, yet victory was granted to the Muslims. Even today, if Muslims participate in holy war sincerely, victory would be granted to them by Allah Almighty, even if they are numerically and otherwise inferior to the infidels.

42. The nearness of Allah Almighty is not in respect of place but is associated with His Bounty. It is not a special thing that Knowledge of Allah Almighty should be with the Muslims, because His Knowledge is with everything. Thus His Wrath is with the infidels, His Blessings are with the believers but His Knowledge is with all.

SECTION 3

20. O believers! Obey the command of Allah and His Messenger [43] and turn not away from him after hearing him [44].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ وَلَا تَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ وَاَنْتُمْ تَسْمَعُوْنَ ﴿٢٠﴾

43. It should be remembered that though obedience to Allah Almighty is obligatory, so is the obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and under the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم vigilancy of the religious scholars as well. Obedience to the parents too is obligatory upon the children. However total emulation in action is obligatory of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم only. Obedience is only in respect of command, and i.e. do what you see the Messenger of Allah is doing, because every tradition or Hadith cannot be literally followed. We cannot carry out those things which were the speciality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

e.g. keeping. Obedience of a command is obligatory, but there is a choice in respect of consultation.

44. By this is meant from the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The personal pronoun is attached to the noun it describes which in this case is His Prophet. This tells us that disobedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is in reality disobedience to Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that the singular form of the pronoun is used in 'from him', although prior to this, mention is being made of both Allah Almighty and His Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

21. And be not like those who say: "We hear" and they hear not [45].

وَلَا تَكُوْنُوْا كَالَّذِيْنَ قَالُوْا سَمِعْنَا وَهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُوْنَ ﴿٢١﴾

45. This is like the hypocrites who would verbally say to the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم we have heard it, but they would not act upon it. They remained worse than the infidels.

22. Surely, the worst of animals in the sight of Allah are those who are deaf and dumb, who have no sense [46].

اِنَّ شَرَّ الدَّوَآبِّ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ الصُّمُّ الْبُكْمُ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿٢٢﴾

46. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning Bani Abduddaar Bin Qusa who would say that whatever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has brought we are totally deaf and blind to it. This tells us that those who do not benefit from a Prophet are worse than animals. Observe, Hazrat Nooh (Upon whom be peace) was commanded to the animals in the ark, but not the infidels. Further we learn that any tongue, eye, ear and intelligence which does not obtain the inner knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed mute, blind and deaf respectively, and that intelligence is indeed unintelligent. Every member of Bani Abduddaar was killed in the Battle of Uhad. Only two from them had accepted Islam, Hazrat Musa'ib bin Umair and Suwait Bin Harmalah (May Allah be pleased with them) . Khazainul Irfaan

Marfat.com

وَ لَوْ عَلِمَ اللّٰهُ فِيْهِمْ خَيْرًا لَّاَسْمَعَهُمْ ؕ وَلَوْ اَسْمَعَهُمْ لَتَوَلَّوْا وَّهُمْ مُّعْرِضُوْنَ ﴿۲۳﴾

23. And if Allah had known any good in them, He would have caused them to listen [47]. And if He had made them to hear, even then in the end, they would have turned away their faces [48].

47. By this is meant that if they have faith in their hearts they would have been guided to hear the truth and act upon it. Faith has priority over everything.

48. By this is meant that even if these infidels were to listen to what is said without necessary love and dignity to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they would not remain firm on it. And unfortunate is he who becomes an apostate even after accepting Islam.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اسْتَجِيْبُوْا لِلّٰهِ وَلِلرَّسُوْلِ اِذَا دَعَاكُمْ لِمَا يُحْيِيْكُمْ ۚ وَ اعْلَمُوْۤا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَحُوْلُ بَيْنَ الْمَرْءِ وَ قَلْبِهٖ وَاَنَّهٗۤ اِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُوْنَ ﴿۲۴﴾

24. O believers! Respond to the call of Allah and the Messenger [49], when the Messenger calls [50], you for a thing that will give you life [51]. And know that Allah's command comes between man and his heart's desire [52], and you are to be gathered towards Him.

49. From this emerge a few issues:
1. The call of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the call of Allah Almighty, because Allah Almighty does not call anyone directly.
2. In whatever state and condition a Muslim may be he must respond immediately to the call of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم even if he is engaged in offering Salaah, and do whatever the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم tells him to do in the same state, as this would not in any way invalidate his Salaah. He would only be required to complete the remaining Rakaats. In Salaah if one's wudu breaks, Salaah does not break as one may refresh wudu and continue with Salaah. Greeting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in Salaah does not break Salaah.

50. It should be remembered that even Allah Almighty calls through his Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . as QUR'AAN and Hadith are both expressed through one tongue, ie. through the tongue of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which he declared as Holy QUR'AAN, and we accepted it as the Holy QUR'AAN and which he declared as Hadith we accepted as the Hadith. Language is one but the nature of expression are two. Thus the caller would be the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sometimes by himself, sometimes in the Name of Allah Almighty, sometimes by the Command of Allah. For this reason in the words 'Calls you' call is used singularly. From this we learn that to act upon the Hadith is just as important as the Holy QUR'AAN.

51. By 'a thing' is meant either the Kalima Tayyibah, or the discourse of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or Holy War or the Holy QUR'AAN. The purpose of this verse is to show that since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم calls upon you towards that which is beneficial to you, always respond to his call whenever you are being called by him. This is not a restriction of abstention but a statement of fact.

52. Sometimes in a manner when death comes suddenly, sometimes the heart gives birth to a good intention without reaching fruition. In short, thousands of obstacles can be created. Therefore one should hasten to the obedience of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

Marfat.com

وَاتَّقُوْا فِتْنَةً لَّا تُصِيْبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْا مِنْكُمْ خَآصَّةً ۚ وَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ شَدِيْدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٢٥﴾

25. And fear the calamity, which will not fall exclusively [53], upon those among you who do wrong. And know Allah is severe in retribution.

53. When sins become numerous, when the leaders discontinue to give commands to do good and to abstain from evil then general punishment descends. The Islamic scholars should not adopt the attitude that if the people are becoming misguided it is no concern of theirs, as long as they are doing good deeds. If there is a single hole in a ship, everyone in it will eventually be destroyed.

وَاذْكُرُوْٓا اِذْ اَنْتُمْ قَلِيْلٌ مُّسْتَضْعَفُوْنَ فِى الْاَرْضِ تَخَافُوْنَ اَنْ يَّتَخَطَّفَكُمُ النَّاسُ فَاٰوٰىكُمْ وَاَيَّدَكُمْ بِنَصْرِهٖ وَرَزَقَكُمْ مِّنَ الطَّيِّبٰتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿٢٦﴾

26. And remember when you were few downtrodden in the land, and were fearful, lest the people should snatch [54], you away. Then he gave you shelter and strengthened you with His help, and provided you with good things [55], that perhaps you might be thankful.

54. This is being addressed to the believing Immigrants who are being reminded of their condition prior to the migration. From this we learn that to remember the bounties of Allah Almighty and to recall your past is worship of the highest kind, because this enables you to be thankful to Allah Almighty, ie. you had feared that the infidels would destroy you or they would expell you from Makkah.

55. By this is meant Allah Almighty granted you place in Madinatul Munawwarah and provided you a share from the wealth of the Ansaar - The Helpers from Madinah , then provided you from the spoils of war. From this one learns that to reside in the sacred city of Madinah is from the Bounties of Allah Almighty, and that spoils of war is the highest form of pure and wholesome wealth or provision.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَخُوْنُوا اللّٰهَ وَالرَّسُوْلَ وَتَخُوْنُوْٓا اَمٰنٰتِكُمْ وَاَنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٢٧﴾

27. O believers! Do not betray Allah and the Messenger [56], and do not betray in your trusts knowingly [57].

56. In the word 'trust', wealth, secrets, honour, all are included, ie. do not cheat or steal anyone's wealth placed in your trust, do not divulge anyone's secrets entrusted to you, do not disgrace anyone.

57. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed in respect of the Companion of the Holy Prophet Peace be upon you Hazrat Abu Lubabah (May Allah be pleased with him) who divulged one secret of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to the Jewish tribe of Madinah, the Banu Quraizah who had been besieged or restrained to their homes. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم told them to abide by the decision of Sa'ad Ibn Ma'az. To this they said that Abu Lubabah should be sent to them as they would like to consult the matter with him. When Abu

Lubabah came he was asked how Sa'ad Ibn Ma'az would be deciding their case. Placing a finger on his throat indicating he would command to put all of you to death. On realising his error Abu Lababah felt ashamed that he had breached the trust which the Holy Prophet had placed in him. He then tied himself to a pillar in Masjidun Nabawi and took an oath on Allah Almighty that he would not untie himself until such time that the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does not free him.When this incident was presented to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he said that had Abu Lubabah come to me I would have prayed for his forgiveness. But, now that he has tied himself in the Masjid I would not untie him until Allah Almighty does not accept his repentance. He remained tied like this for seven days. On the eighth day his repentance was accepted. When the people brought the good news to him he said I will only free myself if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم unties me. Mention is being made of the above incident in this verse. From this we learn that to divulge the secrets of your nation to another is a serious criminal offence.

28. And know that your wealth and your children are all a trial [58] and with Allah is the great reward [59].

وَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّمَآ اَمْوَالُكُمْ وَ اَوْلَادُكُمْ فِتْنَةٌ ۙ وَّ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عِنْدَهٗٓ اَجْرٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿۲۸﴾ ع ۳ ۹ ۱۷

58. By this is meant it is a test from Allah Almighty. Do not become unmindful of your Lord by becoming engrossed in it, but make your wealth and children a provision for the Hereafter. Spend your wealth in the way of Allah Almighty and guide your children towards piety so that they can pray for you after your death.

59. It is for those who obey Him, or it could mean your children are a test for you but if you are intelligent then these very things can become a means of obtaining reward. Thus the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم children and wealth are means of great reward for him, as well as for his followers.

SECTION 4

29. O believers! If you fear Allah, He will grant you that by which you may be able to distinguish between right and wrong [60], and will remove your evils [61], and will forgive you. And Allah is the Greatest, Most Bounteous.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اِنْ تَتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ يَجْعَلْ لَّكُمْ فُرْقَانًا وَّيُكَفِّرْ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّاٰتِكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيْمِ ﴿۲۹﴾

60. This tells that Allah Almighty grants the believer such an understanding that he can distinguish between one who is sincere and one who is a hypocrite. How then will the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم not be able to recognize a hypocrite. Similarly a believer, through the light of Faith, would be able to distinguish between truth and falsehood. The heart of a believer has natural aversion towards falsehood and is inclined towards truth.

61. Because sins had been forgiven through the blessings of good deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt, good deeds obliterate evil deeds." (S11:V114) Piety is indeed a great thing.

Marfat.com

وَاِذْ يَمْكُرُ بِكَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لِيُثْبِتُوْكَ اَوْ يَقْتُلُوْكَ اَوْ يُخْرِجُوْكَ ؕ وَيَمْكُرُوْنَ وَيَمْكُرُ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ خَيْرُ الْمٰكِرِيْنَ ﴿٣٠﴾

30. And O Beloved Prophet! remember when the infidels were plotting against you, to confine you or to slay [62], you or to drive you forth. And while they were planning (according to there understanding, Allah was planning secretly [63] and Allah is the Best of Planners.

62. The infidels of Makkah gathered in their civic hall, Darun Nadwa, to plot against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . During their consultation Satan came in the guise of an old man saying that he was Sheikh Najdi who has come to give them wise counselling. The infidels included him too in their deliberations. Abul Bukhtari suggested that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be imprisoned in a very strong place so that he would be destroyed therein without anyone coming into contact with him. Sheikh Najdi rejected this suggestion saying that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم family and Companions would rescue him from there. Hisham Bin Am'r suggested that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be banished from Makkah. To this Satan replied that if banished he will spread and propagate the faith elsewhere and after gaining big support will come back and attack you. Finally Abu Jahl said that a few strong men from each tribe, with sharp swords in their hands should surround the house of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . to attack him at once and martyr him. In this way the Banu Hashim would not be able to place the blame on any one tribe or attack all the tribes. They will have to be satisfied with accepting blood-money in compensation. Sheikh Najdi and the rest unanimously accepted this suggestion. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) was immediately instructed by Allah Almighty to inform His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about this decision of the infidels saying that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on that night should not sleep in his bed but should migrate to Madinatul Munawwarah. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم made Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) sleep in his bed wearing his bed-sheet and comforted him by saying "be at ease as no harm would come to you". On leaving the house he saw it was surroundedby the infidels. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then recited: "We have put on their necks chains..." (S36:V8) and took a handful of sand recited on it then threw it in the direction of those besieging the house. With the miraculous power of the sand all became so blind that they did not see the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم walking out. From here the Messenger of Allah proceeded to the house of Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) and both proceeded to the cave of Thawr. Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) was instructed to return the belongings of the people kept in trust with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then come to Madinatul Munawwarah. The polytheists stood guard the entire night at the door of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . In the morning when they dashed in with the intention of attacking they found Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) in the bed instead of the Messenger of Allah . They frantically set out to look for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم reaching the cave of Thawr. There they saw that its entrance was covered in cobwebs. On seeing this they decided not to investigate further. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his friend stayed in the cave for three days after which they set out for Madinatul Munawwarah. This full incident is mentioned in the above verse. From this we learn that if Allah wills, even a thin cobweb of a spider can prove to be a strong fortress.

63. By 'Allah was devising His own Plan' is meant He informed the Holy Prophet through Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) about their secret plan and saved him through the web of the spider.

31. And when Our Verses are recited to them, they say: "Yes, we have heard [64]. If we wished, we could certainly utter the like of this. These contain nothing but the stories of the ancients".

وَ اِذَا تُتْلٰى عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتُنَا قَالُوْا قَدْ سَمِعْنَا لَوْ نَشَآءُ لَقُلْنَا مِثْلَ هٰذَآ ۙ اِنْ هٰذَآ اِلَّاۤ اَسَاطِيْرُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ﴿۳۱﴾

64. Reason for its revelation:
Nadzar Bin Harith was babbling that the Holy QUR'AAN is the word of man. If we so desire we too can compose these words. In response to it this verse was revealed. This was just a meaningless babbling because the Holy QUR'AAN had challenged all the infidels of Arabia to produce a few verses like it. All the literary men did their very best but could not produce a single verse like that of the Holy QUR'AAN.

32.And when they said: "O Allah! If this (QUR'AAN) is indeed truth from You, then pour down upon us stones [65], from the sky and bring down upon us any painful punishment".

وَ اِذْ قَالُوا اللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ كَانَ هٰذَا هُوَ الْحَقَّ مِنْ عِنْدِكَ فَاَمْطِرْ عَلَيْنَا حِجَارَةً مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ اَوِ ائْتِنَا بِعَذَابٍ اَلِيْمٍ ﴿۳۲﴾

65. Reason for its revelation:
Nadar bin Harith and his friends would impress their followers by reciting this prayer to make the people believe that they have full confidence about the truth of their claim and the falseness of the Holy QUR'AAN. Therefore they are offering such a prayer with such a determination. This verse was revealed concerning them.

33. And Allah is not one to punish them, while O Beloved Prophet you are in their midst [66]. And also, Allah will not punish them while they are seeking forgiveness [67].

66. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is with every believer at all times. It is for this reason that we are not being punished for our sins because the reason for the withholding of punishment is the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Says Allah Almighty: "Surely the Mercy of Allah is near to the believers."
S7:V56 It is further stated: "And We sent you not but as a mercy for all the worlds." (S21:V107) The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the mercy of Allah Almighty and is nearest to everybody. We further learn that there is no punishment in the graves of Hazrat Abu Bakr and Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with them) because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is near them and they are sleeping in his blessed lap. If anyone still thinks that these two beloveds of Allah Almighty are being punished are denying this verse.

67. By this is meant in their neighbourhood and place there are poor Muslims who are engaged in offering prayers of forgiveness, or there are Muslim children in the progeny of these infidels who would be born in the future and would be reciting words of Istighfaar or forgiveness. If these people are destroyed then how are these children going to be born, or it means some from them would accept faith and would be reciting the words of forgiveness. From this we learn that through the blessings of Istighfaar Divine punishment is removed. Hazrat Alli Murtaza (May Allah be pleased with him) states that in this world there are two sources of Protection; one is the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the other is Istighfaar - seeking forgiveness The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is physically no longer with us, but Istighfaar would remain with us until the Day of Judgement.

34. And what excuse do they have that Allah should not punish them, when they are hindering you from the Sacred Mosque [68], and they are not its guardians. Its guardians are the pious ones [69], only, but most of them know it not.

وَ مَا لَهُمْ اَلَّا يُعَذِّبَهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَهُمْ يَصُدُّوْنَ عَنِ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ وَمَا كَانُوْٓا اَوْلِيَآءَهٗ ؕ اِنْ اَوْلِيَآؤُهٗٓ اِلَّا الْمُتَّقُوْنَ وَلٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٣٤﴾

68. By this is meant Divine punishment would most certainly come to them because they have mentioned all these sins although the nature of sins may be different. Thus Allah Almighty defeated the infidels, while their punishment of the Hereafter would be in addition to this. This tells us that to bar a Muslim from the Masjid without any valid reason is a serious offence.
69. From this we learn that no infidel or sinner can become a saint. Just as there are four catergories of piety, there are four types of sainthood as well: Abstention from infidelity; abstention from sin; abstention from doubtful things and abstention from those other than Allah. By those other than Allah means those who keep you unmindful of Allah Almighty. If Salaah and other worships are performed for show these would be included in those other than Allah, and if the food is eaten for the sake of Allah Almighty it would not be part of other than Allah. However, some people regard every hemp and pot addict as a saint. This is wrong, while others mistake irreligious people to be saints which too is deception.

35. And their prayer at the Holy House is nothing but whistling and clapping [70]. Then taste the punishment [71]. for your infidelity.

70. The Quraish of Makkah would come to the Kabah where they would whistle and clap hands and regard that as worship. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was engaged in worship they would cause disturbance through this and become happy that they too were performing Salaah. This verse was revealed to condemn this act of theirs.
From this we learn that whistling and clapping of hands is the way of the infidels. Even today the Christians clap hands in their gatherings to express their joy and Muslims too are imitating this practise of theirs which we should not do. Imitation of the infidels too is evil.
71. This means the infidels should taste the defeat at Badr, as well as the punishment of defeat and imprisonment. This tells that defeat is a punishment for the infidels. Further, some punishment of evil deeds and infidelity is given in this world, but this would not in any way decrease the punishment of the Hereafter.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُنفِقُونَ أَمْوَالَهُمْ لِيَصُدُّوا عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ۚ فَسَيُنفِقُونَهَا ثُمَّ تَكُونُ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَةً ثُمَّ يُغْلَبُونَ ۗ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ يُحْشَرُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾

36. Undoubtedly, the infidels spend their wealth [72], to deter from the path of Allah. They will surely continue to spend it now, then again they will regret [73]. about it. Then they will be overpowered [74]. The infidels shall be gathered towards Hell [75].

72. By spending their wealth is meant spending the wealth on the army of the infidels to oppose the Muslims at the Battle of Badr. Reason for its revelation: This verse is revealed regarding those twelve people of Quraish who had taken upon themselves to meet all the expenses of the entire army of Badr. Thus "10" camels were being slaughtered daily. Allah Almighty declared this expense of theirs as spending for opposing Islam. From this we learn that to spend on schools and Madaris to spread evil and faithless beliefs, etc are all included in this.

73. Because wealth will be spent but nothing would be achieved through it, so to say their own wealth would become a source of grief and regret for them. This is being said with exaggeration.

74. In this there is an information of the unseen, that the infidels would suffer a defeat at Badr, or that the infidels would be given some outward success, but the decisive victory will be for the Muslims. The same happened as was prophesised.

75. This tells that even if believing sinners were to be sent into Hell, they would be sent separately and not altogether so that they are not disgraced in front of one another. Gathering of a huge crowd of infidels towards Hell on the Day of Reckoning is a punishment of those infidels, from which Allah Almighty would protect the Muslims.

لِيَمِيزَ اللَّهُ الْخَبِيثَ مِنَ الطَّيِّبِ وَيَجْعَلَ الْخَبِيثَ بَعْضَهُ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ فَيَرْكُمَهُ جَمِيعًا فَيَجْعَلَهُ فِي جَهَنَّمَ ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ ع ٩ ١٨

37. Thus will Allah separate the impure from the pure [76]. And He will pile the impure upon each other, and piling them together He will cast them into Hell [77]. It is they who are the losers.

76. The success of Muslims is sifting between infidelity and Islam as well as between the believers and infidels. Infidelity is filth, Faith is purity; infidelity is darkness, Islam is light. Every infidelity is false, Islam is truth. Thus all can unite with one another but not with Islam. Despite all this, if Allah Almighty wills. Islam would overpower falsehood.

77. From this we learn that the infidels are united in their opposition to Islam. Christians, Jews and Hindus all unite to destroy Islam.

SECTION 5

38. Say you to the infidels; if they now desist, that which is past will be forgiven [78]. But if they repeat the same, then the precedence of (punishing) their forefathers is already recorded.

قُلْ لِّلَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا اِنْ يَّنْتَهُوْا يُغْفَرْ لَهُمْ مَّا قَدْ سَلَفَ ۚ وَاِنْ يَّعُوْدُوْا فَقَدْ مَضَتْ سُنَّتُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ﴿٣٨﴾

78. From this we learn that due to the blessings of Islam the infidelity of the infidels and all the sins of the period of infidelity are forgiven, so much so that even the religious deficiency in the rights of man or rights of Allah Almighty which are not met can be forgiven, but rights of man on their own will not be forgiven. If a polytheist becomes a Muslim without settling a loan of a non-believer, he will not be absolved of his debt.

39. And fight with them till there remains no mischief [79], and the entire religion is only for Allah [80]. And then if they desist, then Allah is aware of their deeds.

وَقَاتِلُوْهُمْ حَتّٰى لَا تَكُوْنَ فِتْنَةٌ وَّ يَكُوْنَ الدِّيْنُ كُلُّهٗ لِلّٰهِ ۚ فَاِنِ انْتَهَوْا فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ بِمَا يَعْمَلُوْنَ بَصِيْرٌ ﴿٣٩﴾

79. From this we learn that the purpose of Holy War is not to compel the infidels to accept Islam but to break the power of infidelity so that it is no longer an obstacle for Islam.

80. Remember, that mischief here does not mean infidelity itself, but the power of infidelity, because Holy War is not for obliterating infidelity but to crush the power of infidelity. In another place Allah Almighty says: "Until they pay the poll tax with their own hands being brought low." (S9:V29) The same thought is expounded by this verse, because when the infidels accepted to pay the poll tax (Jizyah) it broke their power. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: "I have been commanded to wage war so that people would declare the Oneness of Allah." Hence the conjunction "HATTA" means 'so that' and not 'until' viz. the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says that he has been commanded to wage war against the infidels so that they accept Islam. This means that war is not declared with the intention of obtaining spoils of war but with the intention of propagating Islam. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse of the Holy QUR'AAN and the Hadith. The purpose of war thus is to enable Islam to flourish so that no infidel may forcefully stop a believer from practising pious deeds. The sword clears the way for the QUR'AAN, and the QUR'AAN is there to stop the misuse of the sword.

40. But if they turn back, then know that Allah is your Protector, what an excellent Protector and what an excellent Helper [81] (He is) .

وَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ مَوْلٰىكُمْ ؕ نِعْمَ الْمَوْلٰى وَ نِعْمَ النَّصِيْرُ ﴿٤٠﴾

81. With the availibility of Allah Almighty's help you do not require anyone's help. The help of the Prophets and the saints is indeed help from Allah Almighty.

PART 10

وَ اعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّمَا غَنِمْتُمْ مِّنْ شَیْءٍ فَاَنَّ لِلّٰهِ خُمُسَهٗ وَ لِلرَّسُوْلِ وَ لِذِی الْقُرْبٰی وَ الْیَتٰمٰی وَ الْمَسٰكِیْنِ وَ ابْنِ السَّبِیْلِ ۙ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ اٰمَنْتُمْ بِاللّٰهِ وَ مَاۤ اَنْزَلْنَا عَلٰی عَبْدِنَا یَوْمَ الْفُرْقَانِ یَوْمَ الْتَقَی الْجَمْعٰنِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰی كُلِّ شَیْءٍ قَدِیْرٌ ﴿۴۱﴾

41. And know that whatever spoils of war you take [82], one fifth of it belongs exclusively to Allah [83], and the Messenger, and to the kindred [84], and the orphans and the needy [85], and the wayfarer [86], if you have believed in Allah [87] and what We had revealed to Our servant on the Day of the Decision [88], the day when the two armies met. And Allah has power over everything [89].

82. Any wealth which is forcefully taken from the infidels in a war are spoils of war, whether it be just a little or much. Spoils of war are divided into five sections, four of which belong to the soldiers. The fifth portion too is divided into five further sections.

83. From this we learn that the share of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the share of Allah Almighty. If by share of Allah is meant another share other than that of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم it would have been six shares not five. In any case connecting this share to Allah Almighty is for the purpose of blessing, while connection towards the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is for the purpose of claim. From this we understand the closeness of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم to Allah Almighty.

84. By this is meant that the progeny of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم during his lifetime will receive it due to family ties and after his demise will receive it due to indigence and poverty, ie. from this fifth share the indigent people from the Banu Muttalib, the Banu Hashim, etc would be given a portion. During the Holy Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم lifetime this fifth share was divided into further five portions from which one portion, ie. 1/25th of the entire spoils of war was given to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم , one portion was given to his family, and three portions were distributed among the poor and needy.

After the Holy Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم departure, the portion of the progeny would be distributed among the poor. Now this portion would be received by the poor and needy descendents of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم . The same is the view of Hazrat Imam Abu Hanifa (May Allah be pleased with him) .

85. It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is Muhammad Ibn Abdullah ibn Abdul Mutallib, ibn Hashim ibn Abde Manaf. Abde Manaf had four sons, Hashim, Muttalib, Abd Shams, Nawfal. Hazrat Uthman -e- Ghani (May Allah be pleased with him) was from the children of Abd Shams and Jubairr ibn Mut'am was from the children of Nawfal. After the Battle of Khaiber when the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم did not give them anything from the fifth share of the spoils they asked for a reason for this. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم replied the children of Hashim and Muttalib had provided great assistance to Islam. From this we learn that mere family ties is not the cause of claim. Providing assistance is also a cause of it which has come to an end after the Holy Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم departure from this world.

86. A traveller who may be wealthy at his home is also entitled to this if circumstances make him needy. Such a traveller may be from the progeny of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم or an ordinary Muslim. It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم progeny are the Banu Hashim and Banu Muttalib. The children of Abd Shams and Nawfal, though they are Quraish but they are not entitled to his fifth share.

87. Here the word "if" is not for the sake of doubt and hesitation but to express the importance of the speech, eg. when a father tells his obedient son that if you are my son you must always remain obedient. Because the Noble Companions were not just true and pious believers but are leaders of the believers, Allah Almighty says: "If this QUR'AAN is from Allah and yet you reject it."(S41:V52)

88. Here 'Day of decision' refers to the day of the Battle of Badr, while the groups are the believers and the infidels. The Battle of Badr took place on the 17th of Ramadaan 2 A.H.

89. Thus, this all powerful Lord granted you victory over the infidels who were greater than you in number despite your small numbers. This is an excellent proof of His Power.

42. And remember when you camped at the near side of the valley and the infidels on the further side, and the caravan was below [90] on the plain . And if you had made any mutual promise, then surely you should not have reached on the appointed time [91]. But, this had happened in order that Allah might fulfill the work which is to be done [92], so that whoever was to perish might perish with proof; and whoever was to survive might survive with proof [93]. And undoubtedly, Allah is Hearing, Knowing [94].

إِذْ أَنْتُمْ بِالْعُدْوَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَ هُمْ
بِالْعُدْوَةِ الْقُصْوٰى وَ الرَّكْبُ أَسْفَلَ
مِنْكُمْ ؕ وَ لَوْ تَوَاعَدْتُّمْ لَاخْتَلَفْتُمْ فِي
الْمِيْعٰدِ ۙ وَ لٰكِنْ لِّيَقْضِيَ اللّٰهُ أَمْرًا كَانَ
مَفْعُوْلًا ۙ لِّيَهْلِكَ مَنْ هَلَكَ عَنْۢ بَيِّنَةٍ
وَّ يَحْيٰى مَنْ حَيَّ عَنْۢ بَيِّنَةٍ ؕ وَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ
لَسَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ۙ﴿٤٢﴾

90. By this is meant in the Batttle of Badr you had occupied the ground which in position was nearest to Madina, and the infidels were on the other side which was nearer to Makkah, while the caravan of Abu Sufyaan escaped along the shore of the sea about three miles from the Muslims. This is as if Allah Almighty is describing the actual picture of the war in this verse that this is how the two armies took up position.

91. By this is meant had you and the infidels wilfully determined the time of the battle you would have become frightened by their superior strength and your weakness and thereby not arrived at the battlefield in time. But it was Our Desire that the battle should take place suddenly so that the world can witness the victory of Islam.

92. So that He made you and the infidels to advance towards one another without prior arrangement, then He granted you victory which will serve as a remembrance until the Day of Judgement.

93. By this is meant the incident of Badr is a proof of the truth of Islam. Now a believer will remain on faith through seeing the truth while the infidel despite seeing this will remain an infidel due to his stubborness and enmity. Here life denotes faith and destruction refers to infidelity.

94. Allah Almigthy does listen to everyone but does not respond to everyone's call. He responds to those who turn to their Lord. Observe, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prayed for the victory of Islam in the Battle of Badr and, how beautifully the Almighty responded to it.

Marfat.com

اِذْ يُرِيْكَهُمُ اللّٰهُ فِيْ مَنَامِكَ قَلِيْلًا ؕ وَلَوْ اَرٰىكَهُمْ كَثِيْرًا لَّفَشِلْتُمْ وَلَتَنَازَعْتُمْ فِي الْاَمْرِ وَلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَلَّمَ ؕ اِنَّهٗ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُوْرِ ﴿۴۳﴾

43. O Beloved Prophet Remember when Allah made the infidels appear few to you in your dream [95]. And if He had shown then a big army, then certainly the Believers would have lost courage [96], and you would have quarreled [97], about the matter, But Allah saved you [98]. Surely, He knows what is in the hearts.

95. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saw in his dream that the infidels were few and related this to his Companions which gave them a great deal of encouragement. It should be observed, that only those infidels were shown to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who were to die as infidels. Thus the dream of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was absolutely correct. The dream of a prophet is like a revelation.

96. From this we learn that on the day of Badr even the Muslims perceived the infidels to be less in number.

97. By this is meant some among you were in favour of the Battle, others were suggesting against it. This tells if difference is from a prophet it is not infidelity nor contemptible. It is important to obey the command.

98. He saved you from fear and difference of opinion. This is the wisdom behind showing the smaller number of the infidels.

وَ اِذْ يُرِيْكُمُوْهُمْ اِذِ الْتَقَيْتُمْ فِيْٓ اَعْيُنِكُمْ قَلِيْلًا وَّيُقَلِّلُكُمْ فِيْٓ اَعْيُنِهِمْ لِيَقْضِيَ اللّٰهُ اَمْرًا كَانَ مَفْعُوْلًا ؕ وَ اِلَى اللّٰهِ تُرْجَعُ الْاُمُوْرُ ﴿۴۴﴾ ع

44. And when at the time of encounter, the infidels were shown to you as few, and made you appear few in their eyes [99], so that Allah might accomplish the work which was to be done [100]. And towards Allah is the return of all affairs [101].

99. Thus it appeared to the Muslims that the infidels were either seventy or even less, while Abu Jahl and the rest of the infidels felt that the Muslims were not more than twenty. If the Muslims had appeared more in the eyes of the infidels they would have run from the battlefield without fighting, had this happened the greatness of Islam would not have been revealed. After the battle began, the infidels began to see the Muslims in huge numbers which made them awe-stricken. Praise be to Allah Almighty!

100. By this is meant the victory of Islam and superiority of Islam and inferiority and humiliation of infidelity.

101. Success and victory comes from Allah Almighty. Thus, Oh Muslims in future do not just look at the availibility of resources, but place your trust in the Provider of the resources.

SECTION 6

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اِذَا لَقِيْتُمْ فِئَةً فَاثْبُتُوْا وَاذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ كَثِيْرًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿۴۵﴾ ج

45. O believers! When you encounter any army [102], then stand firm, and remember Allah much [103], that you may attain the goal [104].

Marfat.com

102. From this it is hinted that do not pray for war, but if it is declared do not run way from it. Never under estimate the strength of your enemy. Always be fully prepared.

103. This tells us that one should be engrossed more in the remembrance of Allah Almighty during war. Let the sword be in the hand and the QUR'AAN on your tongue. Similarly obedience to the Holy Prophet is so vitally important during this time, as well as your unity.

104. This informs us that the victory of a Muslim in a battle is dependent upon three factors:

1. To remain firm and steadfast;
2. Abundance in the remembrance of Allah Almighty;
3. Sincerity of intention, war should not be for territorial gains but for the sole pleasure of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . During war not only Salaah but the Jama'at for Salaah should as far as possible not be missed. During such times the QUR'AAN has taught us about Salaah of Fear.

46. And obey Allah and His Messenger [105], and do not dispute not with one another, otherwise you will show timidity and your tied strength will depart [106], from you, and be patient. Verily Allah is with the patient [107].

وَاَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ وَلَا تَنَازَعُوْا فَتَفْشَلُوْا وَتَذْهَبَ رِيْحُكُمْ وَاصْبِرُوْا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَ الصّٰبِرِيْنَ ۚ﴿٤٦﴾

105. From this we learn that since Holy War is an elevated form of worship, it should not be for name or fame. Its intention should be for the protection and safety of Islam, without any form of arrogance. However, brave talks in the presence of the infidels is not pride, but a good act.

106. From this emerge a few issues:

1. Personal squabbles are a cause of one's weakness;
2. To remove disunity one should show greater obedience to Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This leads to unity.
3. During the battle, Allah Almighty sends the wind of success and victory called SABA. If the above mentioned instructions are not carried out, this wind will not come. (Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan) Or, by tied strength could mean lifting of one's awe and fear

107. From this we learn that although obedience of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is important under all circumstances, but it is more important during Holy War, so that due to its blessings success and victory would be obtained. It is for this reason Jama'at is not excused even in the midst of a battle. Here Salaah of Fear should be offered as already mentioned in the QUR'AAN. How unfortunate are those who miss their Salaah without any reason.

47. And be not like those who came out of their homes, boastfully, and showing off to men [108], and hindering men from Allah's way [109]. All their deeds are under the control of Allah [110].

وَلَا تَكُوْنُوْا كَالَّذِيْنَ خَرَجُوْا مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ بَطَرًا وَّ رِئَآءَ النَّاسِ وَيَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا يَعْمَلُوْنَ مُحِيْطٌ ﴿٤٧﴾

108. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning those infidels of the Quraish who marched to Badr with great deal of arrogance, even when Abu Sufyaan had sent a message to Abu Jahl that his caravan had escaped safely and thus he should return to Makkah. But he paid no heed to this and eventually all of them were killed in the battle. Oh Muslims take a lesson from this and do not be arrogant in war.

109. By this is meant the infidels come to the battlefield with the intention of forcing the Muslims away from Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . You should thus participate in the battle to elevate the name of Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم so that the nature in war between you and them can be differentiated.

110. Thus the infidels would be punished for all their evil deeds, some in this world and all others in the Hereafter. It should be remembered that the infidels are not duty bound to religious laws in this world, but they would be duty bound to punishment in the Hereafter.

48. And when the devil decked out their work fair in their sight [111], and said: "No man is to prevail against you today [112], and you are under my protection". Then when both armies confronted each other, he ran upon his heels and said: "I have nothing to do with you [113]. I see what you do not see. I fear Allah [114]". And severe is the punishment of Allah.

وَاِذْ زَيَّنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطٰنُ اَعْمَالَهُمْ وَقَالَ
لَا غَالِبَ لَكُمُ الْيَوْمَ مِنَ النَّاسِ وَاِنِّيْ
جَارٌ لَّكُمْ ۚ فَلَمَّا تَرَآءَتِ الْفِئَتٰنِ نَكَصَ
عَلٰى عَقِبَيْهِ وَقَالَ اِنِّيْ بَرِيْٓءٌ مِّنْكُمْ اِنِّيْٓ
اَرٰى مَا لَا تَرَوْنَ اِنِّيْٓ اَخَافُ اللّٰهَ ؕ
وَاللّٰهُ شَدِيْدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٤٨﴾ ع ٦

111. By this is meant whatever the Arab infidels did against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , Satan's coming in the form of a human being, praised them a great deal for it and created a strong desire in them to stand firmly to it. From this we learn whoever praises over faults or creates a desire in us for sins, is a devil, even though he may be in human form.

112. On the day of the Battle of Badr Satan appeared with a group of devils, in the form of Suraqah bin Malik, leader of Banu Kananah and told the infidels that they had nothing to fear from Banu Kananah, and that my group and I are fully behind you. When the battle began, his hand was in the hands of Harith bin Hisham. When the accursed devil saw the descent of angels he quickly withdrew his hand and began to run. When Harith enquired about his running the devil replied I am seeing what you are unable to see. This incident is being described here. From this we learn that evil friends always give way after they ensnare people in difficulties. Therefore they should not be followed. Further, we also learn the devil can appear in human and other form. The angels too have similar power, the only difference is they are created out of light, the devil out of fire.

113. The devil disappeared saying to the infidels that I have brought you up to here. From here onwards you can see for yourselves about the Muslims. This is the battlefield comprising of you and your opposition.

114. This tells us that every type of Allah Almighty's fear is not enough for the purpose of faith, unless it helps to inculcate Divine obedience. Even the devil fears Allah Almighty.

Marfat.com

SECTION 7

49. When the hypocrites and those in whose hearts there is a disease [115], used to say: "These Muslims are proud of their religion [116]". And whoso relies upon Allah, then surely Allah is Honourable, Wise [117].

إِذْ يَقُوْلُ الْمُنٰفِقُوْنَ وَالَّذِيْنَ فِيْ قُلُوْبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ غَرَّهٰٓؤُلَآءِ دِيْنُهُمْ ؕ وَمَنْ يَّتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٤٩﴾

115. When the hypocrites and some new converts of weak belief arrived at Badr and saw the numerical strength and superior preparation of the infidels they became frightened and uttered the above after becoming apostates.
116. By this is meant that these Muslims take so much pride in Islam that despite being few and ill-equipped they have come to oppose such a poweful army.
117. These are words of Allah Almighty which were spoken to refute what was said by these apostates.

50. And if you could see when the angels take away the souls of the infidels [118], striking their faces and their backs [119], (saying) "You now taste the punishment of burning" [120].

وَلَوْ تَرٰٓى اِذْ يَتَوَفَّى الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوا ۙ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ يَضْرِبُوْنَ وُجُوْهَهُمْ وَ اَدْبَارَهُمْ ۚ وَ ذُوْقُوْا عَذَابَ الْحَرِيْقِ ﴿٥٠﴾

118. Here in 'if you could see' Muslims in general are being addressed, while by infidels is meant all those infidels who were slain in the Battle of Badr, and by angels is meant Hazrat Izraeel and angels under him, because all of them take out the souls.
119. This tells us that the hiding by the angels to the dying infidels is due to Divine punishment. Believers are protected from this.
120. From this we learn that punishment of fire is meted out to the infidels at the time of death and in their graves. However they will only be sent into Hell at the Day of Qiyamah. Thus this can serve as a proof for the punishment of the grave. This is proven from other verses as well.

51. This is in recompense of what your hands have sent forward before. And Allah is not unjust to His bondsmen [121].

ذٰلِكَ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ اَيْدِيْكُمْ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَيْسَ بِظَلَّامٍ لِّلْعَبِيْدِ ﴿٥١﴾

121. By this is meant punishment of the grave is due to your evil deeds. It is stated in the Hadith that those who do not protect themselves from the tiny drops of urine and one who backbites would be caught up in this punishment in the darkness of the grave. Similarly, the one who lights up the Mosque will have light in his grave.

52. Their case is like the people of Pharaoh [122], and those before them. They disbelieved in the signs of Allah. Therefore Allah destroyed them for their sins [123]. Undoubtedly, Allah is strong and severe in punishment.

كَدَاْبِ اٰلِ فِرْعَوْنَ ۙ وَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ ؕ كَفَرُوْا بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ فَاَخَذَهُمُ اللّٰهُ بِذُنُوْبِهِمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ قَوِيٌّ شَدِيْدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٥٢﴾

Marfat.com

122. From this we learn the followers are also referred to as family. Pharoah who was childless who was responsible for the cruelty of his police and soldiers. This army was called people of Pharoah. Thus according to this meaning every Companion and follower of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is family of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The meaning of children or progeny is so common that it can include progeny of the Holy Prophet

53. This is so because Allah does not change the favour that He confers upon a people until they change themselves [124]. And surely Allah Hears and Knows [125].

124. Allah Almighty provided the infidels sanctuary, sustenance and honour while in their homes in Makkah. Eventually He even sent them His final Prophet, who is the highest Bounty of Allah Almighty. But these infidels became ungrateful for receiving these bounties by becoming polytheists, evil doers and opponents of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . As a result Allah Almighty took away their peace and sustenance. Bounty increases with expression of gratitude, ungratefulness results in Divine punishment.

125. The present verse is the commentary of this verse: "Verily Allah alters not His blessings from any people until they themselves alter their condition." (S13:V11) The purpose of this verse too is to intimate that

54. The manner of the people of Pharaoh and those before them [126] was that they had falsified the signs of their Lord. Then We destroyed them for their sins. And We drowned the people of Pharaoh, and they were all unjust [127].

126. Nations before the Pharoah, eg. the Aad, the Thamood, etc. were all blessed with numerous bounties by Allah Almighty, but due to their ingratitude they were destroyed. From this we learn that it is important to read صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم all his noble Companions and all his followers.

123. By sending punishment in the world and by holding them captive in the punishment of the grave and the Hereafter. In this verse the Holy Prophet is being comforted that he should not feel dejected by the refusal of the infidels to accept Islam. This type of thing will always happen.

ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَمْ يَكُ مُغَيِّرًا نِّعْمَةً اَنْعَمَهَا عَلٰى قَوْمٍ حَتّٰى يُغَيِّرُوْا مَا بِاَنْفُسِهِمْ ۙ وَاَنَّ اللّٰهَ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ۙ﴿۵۳﴾

Allah Almighty does not snatch His bounties from any nation or people until such time that they change their conditions. They left obedience punishment comes as a result of our evil doings. Hazrat Moulana Rum says: "Our capability is not a condition for Him to bestow bounties but His Grandeur is the condition for His Bounties." Allah Almighty had blessed the people of Makkah with numerous bounties. What good deeds were they performing from before? Allah Almighty had blessed Sayeda Miriam with sainthood from birth, Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was blessed with prophethood and made an object of prostration of angels at birth. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse.

كَدَاْبِ اٰلِ فِرْعَوْنَ ۙ وَالَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ ؕ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِ رَبِّهِمْ فَاَهْلَكْنٰهُمْ بِذُنُوْبِهِمْ وَاَغْرَقْنَاۤ اٰلَ فِرْعَوْنَ ۚ وَكُلٌّ كَانُوْا ظٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۵۴﴾ historical events of disobedient and ungrateful people as a means of obtaining a lesson. Likewise reading biographies of saints too is important as it is a means of creating a desire to worship Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty has included all types of stories in the Holy QUR'AAN.

127. Although Pharoah's people were all very cruel and those under him were less in cruelty, yet punishment descended on all of them.

إِنَّ شَرَّ الدَّوَآبِّ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا فَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿٥٥﴾

55. Undoubtedly, the worst of living creatures in the sight of Allah are those who disbelieve, then they do not believe [128].

128. From this we learn that the infidels are animals, nay even worse because no animal is guilty of infidelity or polytheism, although they do not possess any intelligence, yet these infidels oppose Allah Almighty despite their intelligence. Thus punishment will be meted out to non-believing humans but not for animals.

اَلَّذِيْنَ عٰهَدْتَّ مِنْهُمْ ثُمَّ يَنْقُضُوْنَ عَهْدَهُمْ فِيْ كُلِّ مَرَّةٍ وَّ هُمْ لَا يَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿٥٦﴾

56. Those with whom you had entered into a covenant, then they break their covenant every time and they do not fear [129].

129. Reason for its revelation:
These verses are revealed in respect of Banu Quraizah of Madinah with whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had a treaty on the following conditions:
1. That they shall not wage war on the Muslims.
2. They shall not aid those waging war on the Muslims.
However, they aided the polytheists of Makkah in one war and afterwards said that it was an error on their part and requested to reinstate this treaty, only to aid the infidels later. The object of this verse is to explain firstly that infidelity in itself is defective but when it is coupled with breach of promise its defect is that much greater. It is obligatory on the believer too to fulfil his promise. Says Allah Almighty: "And fulfil the promise, undoubtedly the promise is to be questioned of." (S17:V34)

فَاِمَّا تَثْقَفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْحَرْبِ فَشَرِّدْ بِهِمْ مَّنْ خَلْفَهُمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَذَّكَّرُوْنَ ﴿٥٧﴾

57. Therefore, if you find them anywhere in the war, kill them in such a manner that the remaining ones may be put to flight [130]. Then perhaps they may become mindful.

130. In such a way that in future they must have no courage to fight against you. From this we learn that every permissible means is acceptable to use in war which would break the strength of the infidels. However, Islamic law does not grant permission to kill their animals, destroy their gardens and farms, their properties, etc. or to kill the women and children.

وَ اِمَّا تَخَافَنَّ مِنْ قَوْمٍ خِيَانَةً فَانْۢبِذْ اِلَيْهِمْ عَلٰى سَوَآءٍ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْخَآئِنِيْنَ ﴿٥٨﴾ ع

58. If you fear treachery from any people, throw back to them their covenant on equal basis [131]. Surely, the treacherous are not liked by Allah.

Marfat.com

131. By this is meant that if you had entered into any agreement with an infidel nation and later through some signs and expectations you come to know that they would break this agreement, then you should first inform them that on a certain day you would attack, which you should then carry out. This means before the cobra strikes you must crush its head. From this we learn that under such circumstances it is not permissible to attack without prior notice, as this would amount to breach of promise.

SECTION 8

وَ لَا يَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا سَبَقُوْا ؕ
اِنَّهُمْ لَا يُعْجِزُوْنَ ﴿۵۹﴾

59. And let not the infidels boast that they have gone out of hand [132]. Undoubtedly, they cannot escape.

132. By this is meant that those infidels who succeeded in escaping from the battlefield at Badr, should not think themselves beyond Our power and grip. We have power to exercise every control. Those who are cured from their sickness, those who are relieved from their difficulties, should also not regard themselves beyond the control of Allah Almighty. From this verse one can take a lesson.

وَ اَعِدُّوْا لَهُمْ مَّا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِّنْ قُوَّةٍ وَّ
مِنْ رِّبَاطِ الْخَيْلِ تُرْهِبُوْنَ بِهٖ عَدُوَّ
اللّٰهِ وَعَدُوَّكُمْ وَ اٰخَرِيْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِهِمْ ۚ لَا
تَعْلَمُوْنَهُمْ ۚ اَللّٰهُ يَعْلَمُهُمْ ؕ وَ مَا
تُنْفِقُوْا مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ يُوَفَّ
اِلَيْكُمْ وَ اَنْتُمْ لَا تُظْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۶۰﴾

60. And make ready for them the strength [133], you can gather and of steeds of war by which you may frighten the enemies of Allah and your enemies [134], and in the hearts of some others besides them whom you know [135]. not. Allah Knows them [136]. And whatever you will spend in the path of Allah shall be repaid to you in full and in no way will you be at loss [137].

1. To instil fear in the infidels, to threaten them, to show them your strength, to carry out talks of bravery are all permissible. So much so that even the worshipper can dye his white beard black in order to instil awe in the infidels. Generally the use of black hairdye is forbidden in Islam.

2. The enemy of the pious servants of Allah Almighty is the enemy of Allah Almighty, because these infidels were accepting Allah Almighty as their Lord, but they were the enemies of the Muslims. As a result Allah Almighty had declared them as His enemies.

133. This tells us that the preparation of war too is part of worship, and like war, at its right time is obligatory, like Wudu is for Salaah. We also learn that requirements and reasons of worship are part of worship and together the requirements of sins is an act of sin. The journey for the obligatory performance of Hajj is obligatory. To undertake a journey for burglary is unlawful. Those who take part in the preparation of war would be protected from the reckoning of the grave, and if Allah Almighty wills, will raise on the Day of Judgement with the soldiers of Islam. In fact the desire for participating in a Holy War is an act of worship.

134. From this emerge two issues:

135. Thereafter the Noble Companions too were able to recognise the hypocrites as taught to them by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم so that to this day people like Abdullah ibn Ubay are regarded as well known hypocrites. The meaning of this verse is Oh believers you have two types of enemies: the one is open enemy ie. the infidels and the other is the hidden enemy ie. the hypocrites who to date are not known by you; safeguard yourselves from both of them.

136. By this is meant your hidden enemy, the hypocrites, who become awe-stricken through your severity on the infidels. It is stated in Tafseer Roohul Bayaan that this includes even the infidel jinns who too are awe-struck by the sound of horses of the Muslim Warriors. Here address is made to the Muslims in general.

137. By this is meant spending on Holy War, etc. will not be regarded as wastage but the capital will be accrued with dividends. Thus Allah Almighty made the Noble Companions wealthy through the blessings of Holy War in this world, which excludes the blessings of the Hereafter.

61. And if they incline towards peace, then you also incline to it and put trust in Allah. Surely, He is the One Who is Hearing, Knowing [138].

وَ اِنۡ جَنَحُوۡا لِلسَّلۡمِ فَاجۡنَحۡ لَهَا وَ تَوَكَّلۡ عَلَى اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ السَّمِيۡعُ الۡعَلِيۡمُ ﴿۶۱﴾

138. By this is meant accept their peace offer. This order will apply when accepting peace is of advantage to the Muslims as is being known through circumstantial evidence. Remember, it is permissible to make peace with polytheists and infidels and to receive JIZYAH - poll-tax from them, but not from the apostates, from them only war is allowed, or their re-accepting of Islam. Says Allah Almighty: "You shall fight them or they shall become Muslims". S48:V16

62. And If they intend to deceive you, then Allah is sufficient for you [139]. It is He Who gave you strength with His help and the believers [140].

وَ اِنۡ يُّرِيۡدُوۡۤا اَنۡ يَّخۡدَعُوۡكَ فَاِنَّ حَسۡبَكَ اللّٰهُ ؕ هُوَ الَّذِىۡۤ اَيَّدَكَ بِنَصۡرِهٖ وَ بِالۡمُؤۡمِنِيۡنَ ۙ﴿۶۲﴾

139. By this is meant if the infidels try to offer peace to deceive you, Allah Almighty will protect you from their deception, by making this apparent to you through some means.

140. In the Battle of Badr the help from Allah Almighty was that which was sent through the angels, while the help of the believers was received through the combined effort of the Muhajereen and the Ansaars.

From this we learn that to take assistance from the servants of Allah Almighty is no polytheism, instead, it is a way of the Prophets. Neither is this contrary to 'we beg you alone for help' (S1:V 4) During time of difficulty Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had said: "Who will be my helpers in the cause of Allah Almighty." (S3 : V52)

63. And He put affection in their hearts. If you had spent all that is in the earth, you could not have put affection in their hearts [141]. But Allah united their hearts [142]. Surely, He is Mighty, Wise.

وَاَلَّفَ بَيۡنَ قُلُوۡبِهِمۡ ؕ لَوۡ اَنۡفَقۡتَ مَا فِى الۡاَرۡضِ جَمِيۡعًا مَّاۤ اَلَّفۡتَ بَيۡنَ قُلُوۡبِهِمۡ وَ لٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ اَلَّفَ بَيۡنَهُمۡ ؕ اِنَّهٗ عَزِيۡزٌ حَكِيۡمٌ ﴿۶۳﴾

Marfat.com

141. By this is meant there should be two groups of the Ansaar - Helpers of Madina. For centuries such enmity existed between the Aus and the Khazraj which could not be overcome through any plan. But through your blessings Allah Almighty had cleansed their hearts of this malice. This is a special miracle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This tells us that unity between people is the bounty of Allah Almighty.

142.Oh My Beloved صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم through your blessings it is easy to change the direction of the sea, or remove the mountains from their places, but to unite the displeased and waring people and befriend those who are disunited is a difficult task. This great feat was achieved by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on first coming to Madinatul Munawwarah. Within just ten years the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had united the ever waring barbarous tribes into a single entity. "The evil became pious, the everwaring became united . Oh remover of all quarrels your sagacity cannot be contested."

64. O Prophet! The Communicator of the hidden news! Allah is sufficient for you and for such believers who follow you [143].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ حَسْبُكَ اللّٰهُ وَ مَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾ ع ٨

143. This tells that reliance on the creation is not contrary to placing trust in Allah Almighty because here it is said that Allah Almighty and the believers are sufficient for you. Also, it is not polytheism to remember the pious and beloved servants of Allah Almighty together with Allah Almighty. Thus it is permissible to say this i.e. May Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم grant us goodness, because the Holy QUR'AAN states that Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah Almighty and your followers i.e. the Noble Companions, are sufficient for you. This verse was revealed at the time of Hazrat Umar's (May Allah be pleased) with him conversion to Islam. The same is the opinion of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) regarding this verse. Hence this verse is revealed in Makkah, while the words "those who followed you" are joined together with the word Allah Almighty. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). The conversion of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) increased the number of Muslims to forty. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had prayed for his conversion to Islam on a Wednesday and by Thursday he had accepted Islam. At the time of conversion Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) was twenty six years of age.

SECTION 9

65. O Prophet! The Communicator of the hidden news! Urge the Muslims to wage Holy War [144]. If there are twenty of you steadfast, they will overcome two hundred [145], and if there are a hundred of you, they will overcome a thousand infidels because they are a people who do not understand [146].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ حَرِّضِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ عَلَى الْقِتَالِ ؕ اِنْ يَّكُنْ مِّنْكُمْ عِشْرُوْنَ صٰبِرُوْنَ يَغْلِبُوْا مِائَتَيْنِ ۚ وَ اِنْ يَّكُنْ مِّنْكُمْ مِّائَةٌ يَّغْلِبُوْٓا اَلْفًا مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا بِاَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَّا يَفْقَهُوْنَ ﴿٦٥﴾

144. From this emerge two issues:
1. Participation in the Holy War is a highest form of worship.The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was ordered to instill in the people desire for it. Thus who ever stops you from Holy War is a devil eg. Mirza Goolam Qadyani.
2. Every possible means of instilling this desire for Holy War is permissible. This includes to set salaries for the soldiers, to take care of their wives and children, to appreciate and value the brave etc.

145. In this verse there is a glad tiding as well as a special command. The glad tidings is that the Muslim warriors out of the grace of Allah Almgithy would overpower infidels ten times their number. Allah Almighty had fulfilled this promise. Secondly, it becomes incumbent upon the Muslims that a single soldier should not take to his heels of opposing ten enemies, but remain steadfast. However this command was abrogated by the next verse "Now Allah Almighty has lightened your burden." Thus abrogation is not giving glad tidings but it is a command.

146. Because they are fighting like this not for the pleasure of Allah Almighty but to boost their own ego, just like how the animals fight amongst themselves. Hence they would not be able to remain steadfast against such opposition which fights for the sole pleasure of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that to fight for national and territorial gains is sheer ignorance. The believer fights only for the sake of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

66. Now Allah has lightened your burden, and He knows that you are weak [147]. Therefore, if there are a hundred of you steadfast, they shall overcome two hundred; and if there are a thousand of you, they shall overcome two thousand by the command of Allah [148]. And Allah is with those who are steadfast.

اَلْـٰٔنَ خَفَّفَ اللّٰهُ عَنْكُمْ وَ عَلِمَ اَنَّ فِيْكُمْ ضَعْفًا ؕ فَاِنْ يَّكُنْ مِّنْكُمْ مِّائَةٌ صَابِرَةٌ يَّغْلِبُوْا مِائَتَيْنِ ۚ وَ اِنْ يَّكُنْ مِّنْكُمْ اَلْفٌ يَّغْلِبُوْٓا اَلْفَيْنِ بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ مَعَ الصّٰبِرِيْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾

147. By this is not meant weakness of faith but rather physical weakness, ie. at first ten Muslims were obliged to face hundred infidels, now this obligation has been changed to fifty Muslims opposing hundred infidels

148. This tells that victory and success is only achieved through the help of Allah Almighty, and not through our own bravery. If He so wills He can kill the elephant through a swallow.

67. It is not befitting to any Prophet [149], that he should take captives, until he has shed their blood [150], in the land. You desire the goods of the world [151], and Allah desires the Hereafter [152]. And Allah is Honourable, Wise.

مَا كَانَ لِنَبِيٍّ اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ لَهٗٓ اَسْرٰى حَتّٰى يُثْخِنَ فِى الْاَرْضِ ؕ تُرِيْدُوْنَ عَرَضَ الدُّنْيَا ۖ وَ اللّٰهُ يُرِيْدُ الْاٰخِرَةَ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٦٧﴾

149. It was the desire of the Noble Companions that the equipment of Abu Sufyaan should be seized without a fight but it took a form of a war. In respect of this Allah Almighty mentions the wisdom of war, that without it, it would be beyond the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to take the infidels as prisoners of war. War reveals the bravery and strength of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

Marfat.com

150. Reason for its Revelation:
In the Battle of Badr seventy infidels were taken captives. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sought advice from the Companions about them, Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) counselled that they should be freed upon receipt of a ransom in the hope that they may embrace Islam some time later, and their ransom money would help to strengthen the Muslims. Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) advised to put all of them to sword because they are the symbols and foundation of infidelity. Their death would weaken the infidels and lend strength to Islam. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم giving preferance to the advise of Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) freed all the prisoners to highlight the above incident.

68. And if Allah had not prescribed a thing before [153], then (O Muslims) a great punishment would have come to you for what you took as ransom from the infidels.

لَوْ لَا كِتٰبٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيْمَآ اَخَذْتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿٦٨﴾

153. By this is meant Allah Almighty will not punish those who erred with interpretation of laws, or that the Companions of Badr will not be punished. From this we learn that there will be no punishment on the Companions of Badr, either in this world or in the Hereafter. Also that the error of the jurists is forgiven, no matter in whatever form it may be. The seeking of advice by the Holy Prophet

69. Then eat of what you have obtained as spoils of war. Those are lawful and pure [154], and remain fearing Allah [155]. Verily, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful [156].

فَكُلُوْا مِمَّا غَنِمْتُمْ حَلٰلًا طَيِّبًا ۖ وَّ اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿٦٩﴾ ع

154. In this word "took from them" those Companions are being addressed who had agreed to take ransom, but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is excluded from this. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said that if Divine punishment had come because of this, Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with receipt of a ransom. This verse was revealed to highlight the above incident.

151. Here all Muslims are being addressed. By the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and wealth is meant the wealth obtained through ransom money i.e. your gaze is on ransom money while we want to grant you great reward in the Hereafter. It should be remembered that the desire of this wealth was not a sinful act because those who advised for it did so with the aim of strengthening the Muslim war effort. For this reason Allah Almighty did not declare this as transgression.
152. That He may bless you with a great reward in the Hereafter. The ransom determined for the prisoners of Badr was forty Uqiah of gold per head which is equivalent to the customary sixteen hundred dirham.

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from his Noble Companions, and accepting ransom for the prisoners of Badr on Hazrat Abu Bakr's (May Allah be pleased with him) advise is boldly proclaiming the permissibility of authoritative interpretaion of Islamic Law. If this was totally forbidden, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم most certainly would not have done this.

him) would have been saved from it because his advice was against stipulating high ransom. This verse is amongst those verses which were revealed in accordance with the wishes of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) It should be remembered that such errors of the Noble Companions became the cause of great bounty because many of those who bought their freedom eventually embraced Islam. The creation of the entire universe became the blessing of one error of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) . The embracing of Islam of these noble persons, gaining the status of a Companion, their service to Islam are all due to blessing of this error of Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) . In this verse an impossible is being suspended over an impossible like in "There had been a son to the Most Affectionate" (S43:V81). Otherwise it was impossible for punishment to have come on the Noble Companions, because the promise of Allah Almighty is true, and He has already promised them forgiveness. Hence this verse is in respect of mercy.

155. From this we learn that the ransom that was taken from the infidels at Badr was lawful and pure. This taking of the ransom was not unlawful, and the Divine censure was for not waiting for the revelation. Thereafter what took place here then became the law. Says Allah Almighty: "And afterwards leave them, either by grace or by ransom." (S47:V4) If is was forbidden to accept ransom, then whatever wealth was accrued from it would have been unlawful like wealth accrued from stealing and gambling.

156. After the revelation of the above mentioned verse, the Noble Companions pulled back from the ransom and did not want to use it. In response to it this verse was revealed.

SECTION 10

70. O Prophet! The Communicator of the hidden news! Say to the prisoners in your hand: "If Allah will find any good in your hearts [157], then He will give you better than what He has taken from you. and He will forgive you, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful [158].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّمَنْ فِيْٓ اَيْدِيْكُمْ مِّنَ الْاَسْرٰٓى ۙ اِنْ يَّعْلَمِ اللّٰهُ فِيْ قُلُوْبِكُمْ خَيْرًا يُّؤْتِكُمْ خَيْرًا مِّمَّآ اُخِذَ مِنْكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ۭ وَاللّٰهُ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۝٧٠

157. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) too was with the infidels at this Battle and one day's food of the army was his responsibility for which he had brought twenty uqiyah 800 Dirham gold. But the day on which it was his turn to provide the food, the battle coincidentally began and there was no opportunity for food. After the battle Hazrat Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) was one of the captives. When ransom was made incumbent on the prisoners he said that this gold should be used for the payment of his ransom. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said that ransom should be paid separately. To this Hazrat Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) replied: "Oh Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم do you so desire that your uncle should go out begging in the streets of Makkah for his living?" To this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: Where is that gold which you had left with my aunt Ommul Fadzal before your departure, which your wife has buried at such a place. In astonishment Hazrat Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) said: How do you know about this? The reply was "My Lord informed me about it" Hazrat Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) then accepted Islam secretly. This verse was revealed concerning the above incident. (Tafseer Khazain) On the day of Conquest of Makkah he revealed about his faith.

158. Allah Almighty fulfilled this promise. Thus when eighty thousand rupees came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from Bahrain, he made wudu for Zohr Salaah and distributed every thing before the Salaah. He gave Hazrat Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) so much that he could not lift it. To this Hazrat Abbas (May Allah be pelased with him) requested: What ever ransom was taken from me I have been given much more in return, now I am hopeful of the other promises i.e. that of forgiveness.

وَ اِنْ يُّرِيْدُوْا خِيَانَتَكَ فَقَدْ خَانُوا اللّٰهَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَاَمْكَنَ مِنْهُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿۷۱﴾

71. And O Beloved Prophet! If they intend to be treacherous to you [159], then they have already dealt treacherously with Allah before. Therefore, He gave so many under your control [160]. And Allah is Knowing, Wise.

159. By this is meant that if any prisoner accepts Islam now and later becomes an apostate you should not feel sorry because on the Day of Covenant they had pledged their loyalty and have deviated from it after coming in the world. Breach of promise of such fickle persons is nothing surprising. From this we learn that those who cannot fulfil their promise to Allah Almighty their pledges and assurances are not reliable because they can easily break their pledges with their fellowmen.

160. By this is meant that just as Allah Almighty made you overpower so many infidels of whom some were killed and some were captured, in future too if those prisoners become apostates. He will once again bring them under your control as He is All Powerful.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَهَاجَرُوْا وَ جٰهَدُوْا بِاَمْوَالِهِمْ وَاَنْفُسِهِمْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰوَوْا وَّنَصَرُوْٓا اُولٰٓئِكَ بَعْضُهُمْ اَوْلِيَآءُ بَعْضٍ ؕ وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَلَمْ يُهَاجِرُوْا مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ وَّلَايَتِهِمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ حَتّٰى يُهَاجِرُوْا ۚ وَاِنِ اسْتَنْصَرُوْكُمْ فِي الدِّيْنِ فَعَلَيْكُمُ النَّصْرُ اِلَّا عَلٰى قَوْمٍ بَيْنَكُمْ وَ بَيْنَهُمْ مِّيْثَاقٌ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ بَصِيْرٌ ﴿۷۲﴾

72. Undoubtedly, those who believed and migrated for Allah [161], and fought with their wealth and their lives in the Way of Allah, and those who gave shelter and helped, they are heirs [162]. of one another. And those who believed and did not migrate, you have no duty to their inheritance, unless they migrate [163]. If they seek help from you in the matter of religion, then it is obligatory upon you to help them, but against people between whom and you there is an agreement [164]. And Allah is Aware of your actions.

161. From this there is a hint that in Islamic law a Muhajir emigrant is he who leaves his home and possessions for the sake of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and not for any other purpose. The same is the commandment regarding Holy war, i.e. one who wages war against the infidels solely for the sake of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is Mujahid crusade . Those who fight a national or territorial war are not Mujahids. Holy War can be with your life as well as with your wealth.

162. This verse has been abrogated from the verse on inheritance. The Muhajir and the Ansaar were heirs among themselves even if there had been no blood relation between them, and a non-emigrant father was not the heir of an emigrant son. Now this law does not exist anymore. Now inheritance will be received only on the basis of blood-ties, on condition that there is no difference of religion between them.

163. From this we learn that in the beginning there were two conditions for receiving inheritance. Unity of religion and migration. The following verse abrogated this: "And the blood relations are nearer to one another." (S8:V75) . It should be remembered that this abrogation came about after the conquest of Makkah when migration was no longer obligatory. (Tafseer Ruhul Bayaan) .

164. From this emerge three issues:

73. And the infidels are friends unto one another [165]. If you will not do such, then there shall be mischief and great disorder [166]. in the land.

165. From this we learn that there is no inheritance between a believer and an infidel - an infidel is an heir of an infidel only. In terms of this a polytheist should not become an heir of the Christian and vice versa, as there is a religious difference between them. Infact, even between infidels too, difference of nationality prevents this i.e. an infidel of one country cannot become an heir of an infidel of another country.

166. By this is meant if Muslims do not lend assistance to one another, by remaining silent at the destruction of the other, this would lead to an outbreak of mischief and disturbance making the existence of Muslims there insecure and difficult.

74. And those who believed and migrated and fought in the way of Allah, and those who gave shelter and helped, they are true believers [167]. For them there is forgiveness and honourable provision [168].

167. By this is meant those Ansaar Helpers who established ties of brotherhood with the Emigrants in Madinatul Munawwarah by giving them half of all their possessions and assisted them in every respect are the true believers. From this emerge a few issues.

1. The help of Allah Almighty's servants is without doubt a truism.
2. The service to the pious is a sign of true faith.
3. All the Ansaars are true believers.
4. The assistance of the Emigrants is placed on a high pedestal, while the Ansaar are a truly elevated people.
5. To take assistance from the servants of Allah Almighty is not an act of polytheism nor

1. If a non-emigrant believer engaged in holy war against any infidels requests your assistance you should accede to his request. Thus it is the duty of every Muslim to give assistance to his believing brother who is involved in a religious war against the infidels.
2. It is obligatory to give assistance in holy war, and not only in wordly quarrels.
3. If the Muslims are at war with that infidel nation with whom you have a bilateral treaty you will not give assistance against them, as this will amount to breach of promise. The right thing for you is to try and bring about peace between them. If this is not possible than you should remain neutral. Allah Almighty be Praised! What a beautiful teaching!

وَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا بَعْضُهُمْ اَوْلِيَآءُ بَعْضٍ ؕ

an act of infidelity but a way of the prophets. It is for this reason these people are called Ansaar or Helpers while the helpers of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) are called NASARA.

168. This verse had proven beyond any shadow of doubt that the Emigrants and the Helpers are true believers and persons of elevated positions. To reject the piety and faith of any one of them is an act of infidelity. Furthermore, every Companion is a personification of justice, none of them is a transgressor. If anyone may have transgressed in any way he has been forgiven and absolved from it.

75. And those who believed afterwards [169], and migrated and waged holy war with you, they are also from you. And the blood relations are nearer to one another in the Book of Allah [170]. Surely, Allah Knows everything.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدُ وَهَاجَرُوْا وَ
جٰهَدُوْا مَعَكُمْ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ مِنْكُمْ ؕ وَاُولُوا
الْاَرْحَامِ بَعْضُهُمْ اَوْلٰى بِبَعْضٍ فِيْ كِتٰبِ
اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٧٥﴾ ع ١٠ ٢٢ ٦

169. There are a few categories of Emigrants:
1. Those who migrated to Madina for the first time. They are in the first category.
2. Those who migrated to Abysinia and from there to Madina. They are known as the people of two migrations.
3. Those who migrated to Madina after the Treaty of Hudaibiya. they are known as the people of the second migration. In this verse reference is made to the first category.

170. From this emerge a few issues:
1. Part of the laws of inheritance have been abrogated due to migration or HIJRAH.
2. Now inheritance is dependent on blood ties who are being referred to here as 'blood relations', because one cannot be an heir due to foster relation. From the family of the in-laws only the husband and wife are one another's heirs.
3. Uncles and aunts of blood relation are also heirs, as per Hanafi school of thought.

SURAH AT-TAUBAH

(MADANI) Revealed after Hijrah

129 Verses , 16 Sections 4078 Words, 10488 Letters

بَرَآءَةٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَ رَسُوْلِهٖۤ اِلَى الَّذِيْنَ عٰهَدْتُّمْ مِّنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ۝١

1. By this proclamation a disassociation of Allah and His Messenger is made from the polytheists with whom you O Prophet had entered into an agreement and they did not keep it [1].

1. Because this Surah mentions the acceptance of repentance of Companions like Hazrat Kaib ibn Malik, etc it is given this name. Surah Taubah does not begin with BISMILLAH because Hazrat Jibra'eel Ameen did not recite BISMILLAH with it and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not command the scribes to write BISMILLAH its beginning. Hazrat Alli Murtaza (May Allah be pleased with him) says the BISMILLAH is protection, while this Surah was revealed to raise protection, hence BISMILLAH was not written here. Hazrat Bara' says amongst the revealed Surahs this was the last Surah. (Khazainul Irfaan, Roohul Bayaan)

فَسِيْحُوْا فِى الْاَرْضِ اَرْبَعَةَ اَشْهُرٍ وَّاعْلَمُوْۤا اَنَّكُمْ غَيْرُ مُعْجِزِى اللّٰهِ ۙ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ مُخْزِى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ۝٢

2.Then go about in the land for four months and know that you cannot weaken Allah, and Allah will disgrace the infidels [2].

2. There were treaties and agreements between the MUSLIMS and the idolators of Arabia. But besides the Bani Hamzah and Bani Kananal all other infidels had broken these agreements. As a result Muslims were ordered to give these infidels four months notice to review these agreements carefully or be ready to defend themselves. Within this period they would have to accept Islam or take up swords. This Surah was revealed in ninth Hijri, a year after the conquest of Makkah. During the Hajj of the same year Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique and Hazrat Alli Murtaza (May Allah be pleased with them) were sent to Makkah Muazzamah to announce about this Surah and declare to the infidels that as from the following year the polytheists are forbidden from performing Hajj none would be allowed to perform Tawaaf in the nude; that after four years the period of this declaration would terminate. Therafter either the infidels accept Islam or arms would be taken up against them. From this is understood no poll tax (JIZYAH) is acceptable from these infidels: they should either accept Islam or face the swords of the believers.

وَ اَذَانٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَ رَسُوْلِهٖۤ اِلَى النَّاسِ يَوْمَ الْحَجِّ الْاَكْبَرِ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ بَرِىْٓءٌ مِّنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ۙ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ ؕ فَاِنْ تُبْتُمْ فَهُوَ

3.And there is a declaration from Allah and His Messenger to all people on the day of the Great Pilgrimage [3], that Allah and His Messenger are free from any liability

خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ ۚ وَاِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّكُمْ
غَيْرُ مُعْجِزِى اللّٰهِ ۗ وَبَشِّرِ الَّذِيْنَ
كَفَرُوْا بِعَذَابٍ اَلِيْمٍ ۝٣

to the polytheists. If you [4], then repent, it is good for you, and if you turn your face then know that you cannot weaken [5]. Allah. And announce to the infidels of a painful torment [6].

3. In this there is a hint if the Day of Hajj fall on a Friday it would be Hajje Akbar, because Hajj falling on a Friday is equal to seventy Hajj. The Farewell Hajj of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too fell on a Friday. We further learn the work of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed Allah Almighty's work because the announcement made on the Day of Hajje Akbar was on behalf of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but says Allah Almighty that it is form Allah Almighty and His Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Furthermore to mention Allah Almighty in close proximity with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the way of Allah Almighty. Thus it is correct to say that Allah Almighty and Rasool are providers. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah and his Messenger will make them rich with their blessings". (S9:V74) We further learn that he with whom The Holy Prophet is disgusted, Allah Almighty too is disgusted with him. Hence he with whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is pleased, Allah Almighty too is pleased.

4. It is better for you not for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. You are totally dependent on him for your success in this world and the Hereafter, he is not in need of you. If we take light from the sun it is for our benefit and not for that of the sun.

5. By this is meant if you polytheists of Arabia and Oh you infidels who have broken the agreement! If now you dont repent from your infidelity and accept Islam you will not be able to frustrate or make Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم helpless because you will be put to the sword. Jizyah (Poll tax) can be accepted from infidels of other countries, but from the polytheists of Arabia only Islam is acceptable.

6. In the world these infidels would be subjected to the punishment of death and destruction and in the Hereafter the punishment of the fire of Hell. From this is understood all these punishments are set out for the infidels and Allah Almighty will protect the believers from those. The killing or capacity of Muslims at the hands of the infidels is a test from Allah Almighty and a means of obtaining high status and not as punishment.

اِلَّا الَّذِيْنَ عٰهَدْتُّمْ مِّنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ثُمَّ

مُدَّتِهِمْ ۗ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ ۝٤

4. Except those of the polytheists with whom you had an agreement, and they did not detract from the contract, and did not help [7]. anyone against you. Then fulfill their agreement till the promised term. Undoubtedly, Allah loves the pious ones.

They too are included among those who broke their agreement.

7.An example of this is when the tribe of Banu Bakr assisted the enemies of Banu Khaza'a, allies of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

سَبِيْلَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۝٥

5. Then when the sacred [8], months have passed, then slay [9], the infidels wherever [10], you find them for violation and catch them and confine them and sit in wait [11]. for them at every place. Again, if they repent and establish prayer and give Zakaat then open the way [12]. for them. Surely Allah is Forgiving, Merciful [13].

8. The writer of Roohul Bayaan has stated that in this verse by sacred months is meant those months of security of the infidels which were four consecutive months. Hence this verse is not abrogated, while this means in which War be forbidden before Islam are Rajab, Zil-Qaidah, Zil-Hajj and Muharram. Now war during these months is permissible. Because war against the infidels was forbidden during those months of security they have been called "the sacred months".

9. Thus there were nine months of agreement had remaining of Bani Hamzah. This period was allowed to be completed. From this we learn that four months were allowed for these infidels who themselves had violated this agreement.

10. Neither time nor place will give protection or security even if they seek the sanctuary of the sacred Mosque nor any other sacred place. (Roohul Bayaan, Khazainul Irfaan) .

11. From this we learn that everything is permissible in war which is not forbidden by Islam, because it is said here to sit and wait for them in every possible way i.e. inflict defeat on them through every possible means.

12. From this verse emerges a few issues:

1. The faith of one in dire straits is acceptable as can be understood from "if they repent" eg. if the infidels offer repentance from their infidelity it would be accepted voluntary or out of fear;

2. Salaah and Zakaat are signs of accepting Islam and offering sincere repentance from infidelity because both these deed are the foundation of all pious deeds.

3. Any infidel who declares faith when in captivity but does not offer his Salaah is not entitled for his freedom because his release is made largely dependent on his establishment of Salaah.

13. By this is meant due to the blessings of repentance, Salaah and Zakaat infidelity and acts of infidelity of this period would be forgiven. Religious Issue: If any one was compelled to accept Islam becomes an apostate should not be slain. Rather he should be forced to accept Islam once again viz. an apostate woman. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

وَ اِنْ اَحَدٌ مِّنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ اسْتَجَارَكَ
فَاَجِرْهُ حَتّٰى يَسْمَعَ كَلٰمَ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ اَبْلِغْهُ
مَاْمَنَهٗ ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَّا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝٦ ع

6. And O Beloved Prophet! if any of the polytheists ask your protection [14], then give him protection that he may hear the word of Allah. Then send him to his place of security. This is because they are the ignorant people.

14. By this is meant after these four months are over on if some from these polytheists who are condemned to death ask for protection, they should be given the protection for a brief period. From this a few issues emerge:

Marfat.com

1. An infidel is protected in an Islamic state like the non-believer granted temporary protection, so that he should neither be killed nor his possession seized.
2. Such a person shall not be granted permanent residence in the Islamic state.
3. After the period of protection he should be granted safe passage from the Islamic state, if he does not wish to accept Islam or pay the poll tax.
4. Islam should be preached to such a refugee in the hope that he may accept Islam.

SECTION 2

7. How can there be any covenant [15], for the polytheist with Allah and His Messenger, except those with whom you made a covenant [16] near the Sacred Mosque? Then as long as they keep it for you, you should also stand for them [17]. Surely, Allah loves the pious ones [18].

كَيْفَ يَكُوْنُ لِلْمُشْرِكِيْنَ عَهْدٌ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ وَ
عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِهٖٓ اِلَّا الَّذِيْنَ عٰهَدْتُّمْ عِنْدَ
الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ ۚ فَمَا اسْتَقَامُوْا لَكُمْ
فَاسْتَقِيْمُوْا لَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ ۝٧

15. There shall be no covenant for them, because they had repeatedly broken their agreement or covenant. From this we learn those who violate their covenant, we too are not committed to their covenant.
16. By this is meant the agreement you entered into with Bani Hamzah on the occasion of the Treaty of Hudaibiya, you should fulfil its period because they had not violated the terms of this contract.
17. This means if they do not breach any terms of their contract within its prescribed period you too should uphold the treaty. However if they break the covenant then you too should wage war against them.
18. From this we learn that any Muslim who breaches promises with an infidel is not a pious person. He is a woeful person who does not refrain form being treacherous and unfaithful to the believer. Worship and obligation towards your fellow human being are two wings of piety. Just as the birds depend on their two wings so are the pious in need of these two activities.

8. How will it be that they will prevail against you? Then neither would they care [19] for relationship nor for any agreement. They please you from their mouths, but refuse you from their hearts. And most of them are disobedient [20].

كَيْفَ وَاِنْ يَّظْهَرُوْا عَلَيْكُمْ لَا يَرْقُبُوْا
فِيْكُمْ اِلًّا وَّ لَا ذِمَّةً ؕ يُرْضُوْنَكُمْ بِاَفْوَاهِهِمْ
وَ تَاْبٰى قُلُوْبُهُمْ ۚ وَاَكْثَرُهُمْ فٰسِقُوْنَ ۝٨

19. In the opposition of the Muslim they do not consider family ties nor do they remain faithful to the Muslims in respect of promises and agreements. In these matters they had always been the same and will always remain the same. Thus to trust them is uncharacteristic of a Muslim. An intelligent person is always once bitten twice shy. It is obligatory upon a believer that he should not fear or consider any one when it comes to the execution of Allah Almighty's commands.
"Obey not the creation to disobey the Creator".
If your parents, religious guide MURSHID teachers or commanding officers stop you from offering Salaah, do not obey them. Likewise do not consider any family member in matters of religion.

20. From this we learn that some infidels too stand firm on their principles and promises. For this reason the words "most of them" are being used here. Here the 'disobedience' denotes breach of promise.

9. They have sold the verses of Allah for a meagre [21], price, and then they barred others from His Path. Surely, they do very evil deeds.

اِشْتَرَوْا بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ ثَمَنًا قَلِيْلًا فَصَدُّوْا عَنْ سَبِيْلِهٖ ؕ اِنَّهُمْ سَآءَ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ۝٩

21. By this is meant that due to their greed for material gains they did not accept Islam, and due to a little covetousness of Abu Sufyaan they broke their agreement with you. By signs of Allah Almighty is either meant verses of the Holy QUR'AAN, or Covenant/Treaty with the Holy Prophet , fulfilment of which is found in the Holy QUR'AAN.

10. They neither have any regard for any kinship nor for any agreement with any believers. And they are the transgressors [22].

لَا يَرْقُبُوْنَ فِيْ مُؤْمِنٍ اِلًّا وَّ لَا ذِمَّةً ؕ وَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُعْتَدُوْنَ ۝١٠

22. This means these infidels for a meagre sum distort Divine verses, stop the people from following the Straight Path, show no consideration for family ties with the believers, etc. They annoy and trouble them. These are people who have overstepped beyond their limits. From this we learn that to mislead anyone or become the cause of his misguidance, to desicate anyone from doing good deeds or advice anyone towards sin are all criminal acts and are included under this verse.. From it those people should take heed who are unnecessarily stopping Muslims from holding Meelad Shareef, Khatmi of the pious sages eg. KHATME KHAWAJAGAAN, and other good deeds. This too is part of stopping people from the Path of Allah Almighty, because all these deeds are performed for the pleasure of Allah Almighty.

11. And if they repent and establish [23], prayer and pay Zakaat, then they are brothers in faith [24]. And We explain the verses in detail for the people who know [25].

فَاِنْ تَابُوْا وَ اَقَامُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَ اٰتَوُا الزَّكٰوةَ فَاِخْوَانُكُمْ فِي الدِّيْنِ ؕ وَنُفَصِّلُ الْاٰيٰتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَّعْلَمُوْنَ ۝١١

23. This means one should regard Salaah and Zakaat as obligatory and carry them out properly and regularly e.g. establish Salaah as an institution of action and belief. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

24. From these few issues are gleaned.

1. Brotherhood refers to the global Islamic brotherhood. National and communal brotherhood is temporary and limited.

2. A Muslim is a brother of his fellow Muslim but not of the Prophet as understood from "your brother".

3. The blood of a Muslim is forbidden to shed for another Muslim as he is your brother.

25. From this verse emerges two issues:

1. An Alim - a learned man is he who views and ponders over the details of the verse. Without this he will not be considered a learned man, even though he may be well versed in the other branches of knowledge.

Marfat.com

2. The knowledge of the QUR'AAN and Hadith is obligatory upon the learned, while obedience to the learned is obligatory upon the com-mon people. If the ignorant begins to deduce and extract laws from the QUR'AAN and Had-ith then Religion itself will become an object of mockery. You will obtain polished pearls from the jewellery shop and not from the sea.

12. If they break their oaths after their agreement and openly taunt at your religion [26], then fight with the leaders of infidelity. Undoubtedly, their oaths are nothing. Thus, they may desist [27].

وَ اِنۡ نَّكَثُوۡۤا اَيۡمَانَهُمۡ مِّنۡۢ بَعۡدِ عَهۡدِهِمۡ
وَ طَعَنُوۡا فِىۡ دِيۡنِكُمۡ فَقَاتِلُوۡۤا اَئِمَّةَ الۡكُفۡرِ ۙ
اِنَّهُمۡ لَاۤ اَيۡمَانَ لَهُمۡ لَعَلَّهُمۡ يَنۡتَهُوۡنَ ﴿۱۲﴾

26. This means if a non-Muslim citizen in the Islamic state insults the dignity of the Holy Prophet or begins to raise objections about Islam it will be regarded as a breach of contract on his part. He will no longer be a protected citizen and becomes liable for death penalty. This is so because it is the responsibility of these protected citizen to respect Islam and its ideals.

27. This means declare war on those who insult the dignity of Islam and harass the Muslims. From this one learns that the purpose of Holy War is not to destroy the infidels or compel them to accept Islam, but its real objective is to crush the power of these infidels.

13. Will you not fight with a people who have broken their oaths and resolved [28], to expel the Messenger, although they made the commencement of hostility against you? Do you fear [29] them? But Allah is most worthy of being feared, if you believe in Him [30].

اَلَا تُقَاتِلُوۡنَ قَوۡمًا نَّكَثُوۡۤا اَيۡمَانَهُمۡ
وَهَمُّوۡا بِاِخۡرَاجِ الرَّسُوۡلِ وَ هُمۡ بَدَءُوۡكُمۡ
اَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ ؕ اَتَخۡشَوۡنَهُمۡ ۚ فَاللّٰهُ اَحَقُّ اَنۡ
تَخۡشَوۡهُ اِنۡ كُنۡتُمۡ مُّؤۡمِنِيۡنَ ﴿۱۳﴾

28. This refers to the Jews of Madina who had broken their treaty with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and had made every effort to force the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , to leave the city. It could also refer to the polytheists who tried to do this on the occasion of the Battle of the Trench or those polytheists who had violated the treaty of Hudaibiya and earlier had forced the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to leave Makkah and migrate to Madina. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

29. It should be remembered that it is forbidden for us to initiate war with those infidels with whom there is a peace treaty as this is equal to breach of agreement. On other infidels Muslims can declare war if needed. Thus this verse cannot be used as a proof by the Qadayani.

30. From this we learn that there is no fear in the heart of a believer for anyone besides Allah Almighty. It should be remembered that one type of fear is that which inculcates a desire for the obedience of Allah Almighty. The second type is that which helps to create antagonism or dislike eg. fear of the king; fear of the snake. The believer does not diaplay the first type of fear due to which he abandons faith in Allah Almighty or His obedience. He could have the second type of fear, e.g. Hazrat Musa (on whom be peace) had shown fear for the snake.

14. Then fight with them. Allah will punish them at your hands and will humiliate them and He will help[31], you against them and will heal the hearts of the believers [32].

قَاتِلُوْهُمْ يُعَذِّبْهُمُ اللّٰهُ بِاَيْدِيْكُمْ وَيُخْزِهِمْ وَيَنْصُرْكُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ يَشْفِ صُدُوْرَ قَوْمٍ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ۙ﴿١٤﴾

31. Allah Almighty had fulfilled all those promises as testified by history. These verses serve as miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

from the infidels for the sake of appeasing the anger of the believers is permissible provided it is not inhuman or in excess. Infact taking revenge at times becomes a necessity.

32. It is understood from this that to seek

15. And He will remove the anger of their hearts. And Allah accepts the repentance of whomsoever He pleases[33]. And Allah is All Knowing, Wise.

وَيُذْهِبْ غَيْظَ قُلُوْبِهِمْ ؕ وَ يَتُوْبُ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿١٥﴾

33. This means some of the Makkans will repent afterwards and accept Islam. Thus Abu Sufyaan, Ikrama, Hazrat Abbas, (May Allah be pleased with them) all became Muslims. This Divine prophecy too became true.

16. Do you think that you would be left alone? And Allah has not yet made known [34], those of you who will fight in His way and will not take anyone as a confidant except Allah and His Messenger and the believers. Allah is aware of what you do [35].

اَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ اَنْ تُتْرَكُوْا وَ لَمَّا يَعْلَمِ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ جٰهَدُوْا مِنْكُمْ وَ لَمْ يَتَّخِذُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَ لَا رَسُوْلِهٖ وَ لَا الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَلِيْجَةً ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ خَبِيْرٌۢ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿١٦﴾ ع

34. Allah Almighty be praised! What refine translation! The purpose of this translation is to make us aware that to understand the servants, of Allah Almighty is to understand Allah Almighty. It is through these strivings that Muslims will be able to distinguish between the sincere and the hypocrites. Otherwise, Allah Almighty is All knowing and Omniscient.

35. This means Oh People! Do you so desire that Holy War should not be obligatory upon you! This will not be. Holy War is a distinguishing factor between the sincere and the hypocrite. Believers are ever ready to show spirit of sacrifice, while the hypocrite on these occasions act as spies for the infidels.

SECTION 3

17. The polytheists have no right to visit [36], the Mosque of Allah, bearing witness [37]. of their infidelity against themselves. Their entire deeds are destroyed [38], and they

مَا كَانَ لِلْمُشْرِكِيْنَ اَنْ يَّعْمُرُوْا مَسٰجِدَ اللّٰهِ شٰهِدِيْنَ عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِهِمْ بِالْكُفْرِ ؕ اُولٰٓئِكَ حَبِطَتْ اَعْمَالُهُمْ ۖۚ وَفِي النَّارِ هُمْ shall remain in the Fire of Hell forever.

Marfat.com

خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿١٧﴾

36. From this we learn the infidels are not permitted to worship in the Muslim mosques, nor should donation be taken from them in respect of the mosques. This is so because construction of the mosques and to perform Salaah therein are all part of establishing the mosques, and only Muslims are entitled to carry out these activities. Likewise, only Muslims should be employed for mosque duties. The permission which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم granted a Jewish youth to sweep the mosque was based in the hope of his conversion to Islam. Worship in the Masjid-e-Nabawi by a group of Christians from Najraan was not done at the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم permission but on their own accord. However, once they had began worshipping they were not stopped, just as when one Bedoin had started urinating in the mosque was not stopped but was allowed to complete this vile deed after which the mosque was throughly washed.

37. This means idolatory and precincts of the mosque cannot become one attachment, nor can their people be brought together. This law is pertaining to all the infidels, even though they may be including themselves with the Muslims like the , Mirzais, etc or those who are excluded like the Jews, etc.

38. From this we learn that good deeds of the infidels like rending service at the mosque, building guest houses (MUSAFIR KHANA) , providing wells, etc. are of no benefit to them, as none of these will be rewardable. However, there would be a reduction in punishment for some of the infidels resulting from their good deeds eg. Hazrat Abu Talib, etc who are given light punishment.

18. Only they shall inhabit[39] the mosques of Allah, who believe in Allah and the Last Day, and who establish prayer and pay the poor-due and fear none but Allah. So these are the people who are among the guided ones [40].

اِنَّمَا يَعْمُرُ مَسٰجِدَ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اٰمَنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ
الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَ اَقَامَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَ اٰتَى

اُولٰٓئِكَ اَنْ يَّكُوْنُوْا مِنَ الْمُهْتَدِيْنَ ﴿١٨﴾

39. By 'inhabit the mosques' means they are involved in the construction of the mosques, cleanliness of the mosques, lighting up the mosques, flooring and carpeting the mosques, etc. From this emerge two issues:

1. Construction and maintenance of the mosques is the duty of Muslims only. A mosque constructed by infidels is no mosque at all eg. Masjid-e-Daraar.

2. The desire of establishing a mosque is a sign of true faith. Similarly, dislike for a mosque and the urge to destroy and desecrate it is a sign of infidelity. Furthermore, to recite the entire QUR'AAN during Taraweeh Prayer, to illuminate the mosques in Ramadaan are acts of great reward as they too are part of establishing mosques. Hazrat Sulaiman (on whom be peace) would brighten the Sacred Mosque BAITUL MUQADDAS in such a way ladies living far away from it were able to spin their wheels from its light; Hazrat Dahya Kalbi (May Allah be pleased with him) would light up Masjid-e-Nabawi. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

40. Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) was the first person to have top quality flooring done in Masjidun Nabawi. Prior to this there was gravel flooring. Hazrat Uthman (May Allah be pleased with him) was the first person to built this sacred Mosque in a beautifully designed structure. Hazrat Tameem Dari was the first person to provide brightly lit lamp in it. During the reign of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) he had the sacred Mosque brightly lit in Ramadaan for Taraweeh Prayer at which Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) prayed to Allah Almighty to illuminate the grave of Hazrat Sulaiman had brightened the sacred Mosque in Jerusalem with a light from red sulphur which was seen from twelve square miles. He had decorated this with gold and silver. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan) . All these great personalities were beloved of Allah Almighty.

19. Then do you consider the offering of water to the pilgrims and service of the Sacred Mosque equal[41], to one who believes [42] in Allah and the Last Day and fights in the path of Allah? They are not equal in the sight of Allah. And Allah does not guide the unjust people [43].

اَجَعَلْتُمْ سِقَايَةَ الْحَآجِّ وَعِمَارَةَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ كَمَنْ اٰمَنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَ جٰهَدَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ؕ لَا يَسْتَوٗنَ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ لَا يَهْدِى الْقَوْمَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿١٩﴾

41. Reason for its Revelation:
The polytheists of Makkah were taunting the migrant Muslims saying that these people left Makkah by deserting the Sacred Ka'bah yet they would proudly say that they are the servants of the Holy Ka'bah. In reply to the Polytheists Allah Almighty revealed this verse. From this one learns that Allah Almighty defends His sincere servants in such a way that He Himself replies their critics Allah be praised. This is the height of obtaining nearness to Allah Almighty.
42. From this we learn that obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is highest form of worship eg. He called the Emigrant Muslims superior to those other in Makkah who remained their to render service to the Sacred Ka'bah. The reason being those Makkan remained by the Holy Ka'bah, but the Emigrants to Madina remained in service of the Pride of the Ka'bah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم The observer of the Ka'bah becomes a Haji - Pilgrim but the observer of the Pride of the Ka'bah becomes a SAHABI - Companion. Millions of pilgrims are not equal to the dust of the foot of a single Companion.
43. This tells us that without Faith no worship, service of the Ka'bah providing drinking water for the pilgrims, etc. is reliable in the sight of Allah Almighty. Faith is the main condition for the acceptability of worship. Just as there is no Salaah without Wudu, there is no worship without Faith.

20. Those who believe and migrate and fight [44] with their wealth and lives in the path of Allah [45] have the highest rank with Allah. And they are the ones who reach their goal.

اَلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ هَاجَرُوْا وَ جٰهَدُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ بِاَمْوَالِهِمْ وَ اَنْفُسِهِمْ ۙ اَعْظَمُ دَرَجَةً عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْفَآئِزُوْنَ ﴿٢٠﴾

44. There are three categories of Holy War (JIHAD) - Striving with ones life only, as was the case with the poor Muslims, the second type is striving with ones wealth as was the case of the wealthy but disabled believers who would provide horses and other equipment to the soldiers; the third is the combination of both i.e. those who would strive with their lives and wealth by physically fighting and providing equipment for the poorer soldiers. All three types of soldiers are included in this verse. From this there is a hint that the Emigrants MUHAJIREEN are superior to the Helpers - ANSAAR though both are beloved of Allah Almighty.
45. They are superior to other Muslims, and not merely to non-believers. The infidels hold no position in the sight of Allah Almighty to say that they hold superior position to the Muslim warrior. These infidels are held more disgraced than dogs and cats. Animals were permitted to come into the Arc of Hazrat Nooh (on whom be peace) but not an infidel. Regarding the infidels Allah Almighty says: "They are the worst of creatures". S98:V6.

21. Their Lord gives [46], them glad tidings of His Mercy and of His Pleasure and of such Paradise wherein there is lasting bliss for them.

يُبَشِّرُهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِّنْهُ وَ رِضْوَانٍ وَّ جَنّٰتٍ لَّهُمْ فِيْهَا نَعِيْمٌ مُّقِيْمٌ ۙ﴿۲۱﴾

46. From this we learn that the deeds of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are deeds of Allah Almighty observe, giving glad tidings to the Believers is the work of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hence his name is BASHEER - the giver of good tidings. Yet Allah Almighty says We are giving the glad tidings. We further learn that obtaining salvation and heavenly bounties on the Day of Qiyamah are not the results of ones good deeds but this is due to the grace and bounty of Allah Almighty. Good deeds are a means of obtaining Divine grace. Furthermore to obtain Divine pleasure is the highest bounty of Allah Almighty. May Allah Almighty grant us this Amin.

22.They will abide therein forever. Undoubtedly, there is great reward with Allah [47].

خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَآ اَبَدًا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عِنْدَهٗٓ اَجْرٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿۲۲﴾

47. Outwardly this verse seems to be concerning the Emigrant Companions. Paradise for these revered believers is a certainty. From them some have been proclaimed by name as inmates of Paradise eg. the ASHRA E MUBASSHARAH, etc. Anyone who denies their belief and piety is rejecting the veracity of this verse .

23. O believers! Take not your fathers and brothers over friends [48], if they prefer infidelity to faith. And whoso of you will befriend them, then they are the unjust [49].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوْٓا اٰبَآءَكُمْ وَ اِخْوَانَكُمْ اَوْلِيَآءَ اِنِ اسْتَحَبُّوا الْكُفْرَ عَلَى الْاِيْمَانِ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّتَوَلَّهُمْ مِّنْكُمْ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۲۳﴾

48. This tells us that of all the rights and obligation the greast obligation is that towards Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet . If opposed to them , a father is not a father, a mother is not a mother, a brother is not a brother.

49. From this we learn that is any infidel remains in infidelity unknowingly he will not be subjected to this command. You should try with kindness to win him towards Islam. However, if he insists remaining an infidel you should separate from him.

24. Please declare: "If your fathers and your sons and your brothers and your wives [50], and your clan [51],

قُلْ اِنْ كَانَ اٰبَآؤُكُمْ وَاَبْنَآؤُكُمْ وَ اِخْوَانُكُمْ وَ اَزْوَاجُكُمْ وَ عَشِيْرَتُكُمْ وَ and the wealth of your earnings[52], and the trade of which you fear loss, and the houses of your choice, are things [53], dearer [54], to you than Allah and His Messenger, and the striving in His Path, then wait till Allah sends His Command. And Allah guides not the disobedient.

50. From this we learn that you are allowed to fulfil family rights as outlined by Shariah to the infidel wife and parents, but whole heartedly love for them is unlawful because inclination of the heart should not be towards the enemies of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Further, it should be remembered it is infidelity to love an infidel wholeheartedly. Also, when the right of the Creator and the creation are in opposition priority must at all times be given to rights of the Creator.

51. In the word 'your claim' all the inlaws, family relations blood brothers, are included.

52. Earning has been mentioned with wealth to show that wealth earned through your hard work is better than inherited wealth because it is acquired through your effort.

53. From this we learn that love for material things is not prohibited as long as they are not given preferance over Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, in which case it would be prohibited. Similarly, unlawful love relations too are prohibited.

54. The commentary of this verse is that Hadith which states none of you is a believer until I do not becomes more beloved to him than his parents, his children and everyone else. From this we learn that we should have natural love for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and not just common or rational love. Man has natural love for his children. Here natural love is contrasted with rational love. Further, we learn the type of love we have for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be similar to that we have for Allah Almighty i.e. the love based on greatness and obedience. Also, to love the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with Almighty Allah is no polytheism, but it is part of faith. We also learn that to keep the heart bereft of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم love is infidelity as this is being denounced as deserving of severe punishment.

55. As was the case in the Battles of Badr, Khaiber, Treaty of Hudaibiya, Conquest of Makkah and against Bani Quraizah and Bani Nadheer.

56. Between Hunain, Taif and Makkah Muazzamah is a jungle wherein after the conquest of Makkah a great battle was fought between the Muslims and the tribes of Hawazin and Thaqeef. The Muslim army for this battle was twelve thousand, while the infidels numbered four thousand. Some of the Muslim seeing their numerical strength expressed confidence of a certain victory. But Lo! and Behold! Allah Almighty did not like this boast for nature! At first the Muslims gained success and became engaged in collecting the spoils of war. The fleeing enemy seeing this turned back and sent a shower of arrows upon the Muslim who could not withstand this attack

26. Then Allah sent down His Tranquility upon His Messenger and upon the Muslims [58]. And He sent down the forces that you did not see[59], and He chastised the infidels. And that is the punishment for the infidels.

58. From this we learn that those Muslim soldiers who fled from the Battle of Hunain remained believers as Allah Almighty had pardoned them. Allah Almighty sent down His Calm upon them. Thus if any one now raises any objections or criticism against them they are denying the veracity of this verse. Thus it is these very fleeing soldiers who gained

27. Thereafter Allah will accept the repentance of those whom He pleases[60]. And Allah is Most Forgiving, Merciful.

60. Thus remainder of the people of Hawazin were guided by Allah Almighty towards Islam. They came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and accepted Islam. The and fled. Only Hazrat Abba's and Hazrat Abu Sufyaan (May Allah be pleased with them) remained by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. On that day the true valour of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was seen. The entire infidels had surrounded the mule of the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but when he got down from the mule with a sword in his hand the entire enemy force dissipated like grains of coffee.

57. This is a discription of the earth becoming straitened i.e. that vast land despite its broad area became so narrow and compressed that you were unable to stop there.

ثُمَّ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ سَكِيْنَتَهٗ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِهٖ وَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَاَنْزَلَ جُنُوْدًا لَّمْ تَرَوْهَا وَ عَذَّبَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ؕ وَذٰلِكَ جَزَآءُ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٢٦﴾ control over themselves and turned back to inflict a defeat on the enemy. Thus this victory became an atonement for their past.

59. By this is meant the angels who had come at Hunain to raise the Muslim pride. The angels did not take any active part in the battle. They only fought in the Battle of Badr.

ثُمَّ يَتُوْبُ اللّٰهُ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ عَلٰى مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿٢٧﴾

Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم also freed their prisoners. Because they were from the people of HALEEM SA'DIN this favour was shown to them.

Allah shall enrich you with His bounty, if He pleases [63]. Verily, Allah is All Knowing, Wise [64].

63.By this is meant do not think that if the polytheists did not attend the Hajj it will in any way affect your trade. Allah Almighty will place so much blessing and good in the Muslim community that all the business of Makkah will be able to prosper through the Muslim pilgrims. Allah Almighty has fulfilled this promise the fruit of which can be seen up to today! 'If He pleases' is used so that the trust of the believers should be in Allah Almighty and not in the pilgrims to the Holy city.

64. Thus the command of Allah Almighty is to prohibit the polytheists from attending Hajj is based on Divine wisdom which would soon become apparent to you.

61. It should be remembered that here the idolators signifies all non-believers. There is a Zabar on the word NAJS to mean extremely unclean, altogether unclean and nauseating. By unclean means of unclean and impure beliefs as well as physical aversion because the infidels do not take a ghusal after JANAABAT (sexual intercourse). They regard impurities to be clean eg. the idolators of India regard the urine of the cow to be pure.

62. From this we learn that the infidels and the polytheist have no right of worship in Muslim Mosques because here not being near signifies not being near for worship and all the mosques in veneration are like the sacred Mosque in Makkah.

قَاتِلُوا الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ لَا بِالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَ لَا يُحَرِّمُوْنَ مَا حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ وَ لَا يَدِيْنُوْنَ دِيْنَ الْحَقِّ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوا الْكِتٰبَ حَتّٰى يُعْطُوا الْجِزْيَةَ عَنْ يَّدٍ وَّ هُمْ صٰغِرُوْنَ ﴿٢٩﴾ ع unlawful in the Holy QUR'AAN are done so by Allah Almighty eg. the swine, the carrion, etc. and those things which are declared unlawful in the Hadith have been declared unlawful by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم eg. dog, cat, etc. From this we learn that Allah Almighty has empowered the Holy Prophet to declare things unlawful.

67. Here Truth signifies either the true Religion or non-abrogated, everlasting religion, or it signifies name of Allah Almighty i.e. true religion or everlasting religion which would not be abrogated, or the Religion of Allah Almighty. In the first case truth is the attribute of Religion while in the latter case it is the

65. This tells us that he who is not a Muslim does not believe in Allah Almighty in the true sense of the word even though he may claim to do so. True knowledge about Allah Almighty can only be obtained through knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Christian, Jews, the infidels, etc. do not believe in Allah Almighty and Jihad Holy War would be waged against them. We also learn Jihad, like Salaah, Zakaat, would continue to exist until the Day of Judgement. Anyone who accepts it as abrogated is an apostate eg. the Qadyanis. The reason being in this verse absolute command and is given with regard to Jihad which is not restricted to any time limit.

66. Those things which are declared possessive noun of Religion (Roohul Bayaan) It could also mean that Truth refers to the personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the Religion of Hazrat Muhammadur Rasoolullah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

68. 'Kill' is a descriptive command which is the descriptive of "those who do not believe" i.e. fight with those non-believing people of the Book - wage holy war against them.

69. From this verse a few issues emerge:

1. From the infidels of Arabia Jizyah – (Poll tax) will only be accepted from the People of the Book. For the polytheist of Arabia there is either death or acceptance of Islam.
2. Poll tax will be collected in cash, not on credit.
3. The infidel must pay his poll tax personally and not through his servant or any one else as indicated by "their own hands".
4. The infidel must go to the tax collector on foot as indicated by "being brought low".

It should be remembered that according to the Hanafi school the polytheists non-Arab states would pay poll tax like the People of the Book. But this is not the case with the Shafa'ee school according to which no polytheists is entitled to pay a poll tax. He must either accept Islam or be liable for death penalty. This verse serves as proof for both.

70. This poll tax would be payable by all the non-Arab polytheists. It should be remembered that the tax is for their protection because the head of the Islamic state protects the infidels, provides for their comfort and convenience for which they are entitled to a small amount eg. the tax levied by present day governments on their subjects. In comparison the Muslims are duty bound to pay Zakaat on their livestock and other types of wealth.

SECTION 5

وَ قَالَتِ الْيَهُوْدُ عُزَيْرُ ۨ ابْنُ اللّٰهِ وَ قَالَتِ
النَّصٰرَى الْمَسِيْحُ ابْنُ اللّٰهِ ؕ ذٰلِكَ قَوْلُهُمْ
بِاَفْوَاهِهِمْ ۚ يُضَاهِـُٔوْنَ قَوْلَ الَّذِيْنَ
كَفَرُوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ ؕ قٰتَلَهُمُ اللّٰهُ ۚ اَنّٰى
يُؤْفَكُوْنَ ﴿۳۰﴾

30. And the Jews said: "Uzair [71]. is the son of Allah". And the Christians said: "Mesih Isa is the son of Allah". These things they utter with their mouths [72]. They imitate the sayings of the infidels before them [73]. May Allah curse them [74].

71. Reason for its revelation: A group of Jews came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and said how can we believe in you, for you have abandoned our Qiblah. Secondly, you do not believe in Hazrat Uzair (Alaihis Salaam) as the son of God. In response this verse was revealed. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan)

72. By this is meant they have no proof regarding their claim, they are merely uttering nonsense.

73. This refers to the polytheists of Arabia who would say that the angels are daughters of Allah Almighty, while the people of the Book made the Prophets sons of Allah. So what difference is there between the two. However because these people of the Book believe in one Prophet, despite their polytheism, they are called People of the Book, and their laws became less burdensome.

74. This address is to express anger and displeasure and not as a curse. Allah Almighty is free from uttering a curse.

اِتَّخَذُوْۤا اَحْبَارَهُمْ وَرُهْبَانَهُمْ اَرْبَابًا their sins pardoned through them. Therefore the words 'besides Allah' are being used here. A Muslim does not have such a belief regarding any saint or religious leader.

76. They have taken Hazrat Isa (Alaihis Salaam) as God by accepting him as son of God. The son has the same genus of the father.

77. This means they were given similar commands in the Taurah and Injeel.

78. This tells us these people of the Book are polytheists, even though rules regarding them are different.

يُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ يُّطْفِـُٔوْا نُوْرَ اللّٰهِ بِاَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَ يَاْبَى اللّٰهُ اِلَّاۤ اَنْ يُّتِمَّ نُوْرَهٗ وَ لَوْ كَرِهَ الْكٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿٣٢﴾

32. They desire to extinguish the light of Allah with their mouths and Allah will not agree, but to perfect His Light, although the infidels may dislike it [79].

79. Here Light could mean our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because the verse that follows discusses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and is a commentary of this verse. Hazrat Mulla Alli Qari (May Allah be pleased with him) states at the end of his book "Mauzooat e Kabir" Wherever light is mentioned in the QUR'AAN it always signifies the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم In this verse extinguishing the light means destroying the Religion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, or preventing the printing of the Holy QUR'AAN, or stopping the remembrance and discussion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and become offended at hearing the praiseworthy qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم though their offence makes no difference to the dignity and honour of the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

هُوَ الَّذِیْۤ اَرْسَلَ رَسُوْلَهٗ بِالْهُدٰى وَ دِیْنِ الْحَقِّ لِیُظْهِرَهٗ عَلَى الدِّیْنِ كُلِّهٖ ۙ وَ لَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿٣٣﴾

33. It is He Who has sent [80], His Messenger [81], with guidance and true religion that He may make it prevail [82], over all religions, although the polytheists may dislike it [83].

80. This tells us the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the reflection of Divine honour. If you desire to know your Creator then His true knowledge is that He is the Lord who has sent Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as His true Messenger. Thus the Holy Prophet is the reflection of the Personality and Attributes of Allah Almighty.

81. This tell us that true Religion and guidance is connected with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, just as light is connected with the sun., and thatTrue Religion and guidance cannot be obtained by abandoning the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This is clarified by the use of connecting letter BA with Guidance to emphasize that the personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and guidance are connected with one another, that is one is inseparable from the other. If guidance can be obtained through the Holy QUR'AAN alone, then it was not necessary to send the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Secondly at no time was the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم separated from true Religion and Guidance because both of these are sent with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. If anyone regards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم without guidance for even a second, he is out of the fold of Islam.

82. By this is meant that Allah Almighty should abrogate all earlier heavenly religions through the Religion of the Holy Prophet , that his religion should over whelm and prevail upon every religion. Even today the Holy QUR'AAN is dominant over all religious scriptures, the mosques have the mastery over other places of worship and the publicity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is prevalent over that of every other religious leader. It is clearly seen today, when Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) comes to earth, Islam will be the only prevaling Religion, all other religions will be non-existant.

83. This tells us that anyone who dislikes the greatness and honour of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a polytheists.

34. O believers! Many of the priests and the monks [84], devour [85], the wealth of the people wrongfully and then bar them from the Path of Allah. And those who hoard [86], up gold and silver and spend it not in the path of Allah, give them the good news of a painful punishment.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اِنَّ كَثِيْرًا مِّنَ الْاَحْبَارِ وَ الرُّهْبَانِ لَيَاْكُلُوْنَ اَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَ يَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ الَّذِيْنَ يَكْنِزُوْنَ الذَّهَبَ وَ الْفِضَّةَ وَ لَا يُنْفِقُوْنَهَا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ۙ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ اَلِيْمٍ ۙ﴿۳۴﴾

84. Ahbaar was title of the Jewish monks and Rohban was the title of the their priests. Religious guides of the Muslims and their scholars are not included in this verse, as is eroneouly understood by some present day Wahabis. The reason being, this verse was revealed during the time of the Noble Companions. These illustrious persons had never devoured anyone's wealth unlawfully, nor had stopped any one from the path of Allah Almighty.

85. This tells that the payment for unlawful work and for work obligatory upon oneself is null and void. Likewise, it is unlawful to earn money through singing, false legal practice, receive payment for leading obligatory prayers, propagational work which is obligatory upon oneself, etc. RADDUL MUKHTAR, etc . Payment for lawful work is lawful eg teaching the Holy QUR'AAN,. Imamet, delivering a lecture in another locality, where ther are others who can do these works Thus at that point in time these works are not obligatory upon him.

86. This means hoarding unlawfully i.e. they do not pay the obligatory charity and Zakaat therefrom. From this we learn that accumulation of wealth is permissible as long as the dues upon this wealth is paid. If it was unlawful to accumulate wealth then how would Zakaat become obligatory. Zakaat only becomes obligatory after the wealth has been in one's possession for a complete year. Also, how would Hazrat Uthaman, Hazrat Zubair ibn Awaam and other Companions had become wealthy, unnecessary spending has been condemned as unlawful so as to avoid ruination of it.

يَّوْمَ يُحْمٰى عَلَيْهَا فِيْ نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ فَتُكْوٰى بِهَا جِبَاهُهُمْ وَ جُنُوْبُهُمْ وَظُهُوْرُهُمْ ؕ هٰذَا مَا كَنَزْتُمْ لِاَنْفُسِكُمْ فَذُوْقُوْا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْنِزُوْنَ ﴿٣٥﴾

35. On the day that their treasures shall be heated in the fire [87], of Hell. Then their foreheads and sides and backs [88] shall be branded therewith. This is what you had hoarded [89] for yourselves. Now taste the penalty of such hoarding.

87. It would be heated in the fire of Hell to such an extent that it will turn white KHAZAIN.

88. Because the wealthy misers would frown at the poor, then they would turn away from them, then would show their back towards them. Thus all three limbs of theirs would be branded.

89. From this we learn that which is hoarded for the sake of Allah Almighty would not be regarded as bad. Thus there is no Zakaat on wealth that is given in trust, even though they may run into thousands of Rands. Hoarded for oneself includes accumulating for ones children, kith and kin etc, when this is not intented for gaining the soul pleasure of Allah Almighty.

اِنَّ عِدَّةَ الشُّهُوْرِ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ اثْنَا عَشَرَ شَهْرًا فِيْ كِتٰبِ اللّٰهِ يَوْمَ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضَ مِنْهَآ اَرْبَعَةٌ حُرُمٌ ؕ ذٰلِكَ الدِّيْنُ الْقَيِّمُ ۙ۬ فَلَا تَظْلِمُوْا فِيْهِنَّ اَنْفُسَكُمْ وَ قَاتِلُوا الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ كَآفَّةً كَمَا يُقَاتِلُوْنَكُمْ كَآفَّةً ؕ وَ اعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿٣٦﴾

36. Undoubtedly, the number of months with Allah is twelve [90], in the Book of Allah [91], since the day He made the heavens and the earth. Four of them are sacred [92]. This is the right religion. Therefore, do not wrong [93]. yourselves in the calculation of these months. And fight the infidels at all times, as they fight [94], with you, at all times. And know that Allah is with the pious ones [95].

90. This tells the lunar months are held in good esteem by Allah Almighty because the honoured months were all lunar months. Thus all our worship like Zakaat, Fasting, Hajj are performed in lunar months.

91. From this we learn that the practice of the polytheists to extend some years to thirteen months is base and misleading. The year should be made up of twelve months, and the days of the month should be either twenty nine or thirty. These people have changed this order for seasonal conformity.

92. Three months are sequential eg. Zil-Qaida, Zil-Hajj and Muharram, and one is separate i.e. Rajab. These four months were regarded sacred even before the advent of Islam. Islam too has accorded them sanctity. However, Holy War in these months is no longer unlawful. Nevertheless, respect of them has remained up to now. Much worship should be done in these months, every effort should be made to abstain from sins in them. From this we learn that every month, every day, every moment are not equal in status. If they are not the same in honour and greatness how will all the human beings be the same.

93. This means special care must be taken to abstain from sins in these four months because committing sins in them is an act of cruelty. It could also mean do not be cruel to one another.
94. This means fight every infidel at all times and at every place who wants to fight with you eg. combatant, a soldier. Through this the prohibition of war in the prohibited months is abrogated. From this we learn that it is unlawful to wage war on non-Muslim citizen in a Muslim state as well as peace living non-believers; their blood is like our blood.
95. Thus at the time of Holy War adopt piety and purity these are your best weapons.

37. Surely their postponement of sacred months is nothing but an increase in infidelity [96], with which the infidels are misguided [97]. They make it lawful in one year [98], and forbid [99], it in another year, that they may make up the number which Allah has sanctified [100], and make lawful what Allah has forbidden. Their vile deeds seem fair [101]. in their eyes. And Allah guides not the infidels[102].

اِنَّمَا النَّسِیٓءُ زِیَادَةٌ فِی الْكُفْرِ یُضَلُّ بِهِ
الَّذِیْنَ كَفَرُوْا یُحِلُّوْنَهٗ عَامًا وَّ
یُحَرِّمُوْنَهٗ عَامًا لِّیُوَاطِـُٔوْا عِدَّةَ مَا
حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ فَیُحِلُّوْا مَا حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ ؕ زُیِّنَ
لَهُمْ سُوْٓءُ اَعْمَالِهِمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ لَا یَهْدِی
الْقَوْمَ الْكٰفِرِیْنَ ﴿۳۷﴾ ع ۵ ۸ ۱۱

96. The infidels of Arabia were great upholders of the dignity of the respected months viz. Rajab, Zil-Qaidah, Zil-Hajj and Muharram, and regarded fighting in this period as prohibited. However if any of these would come in between during a battle they would feel quite offended by this. They would then try to substitute Muharram with Safar and would make Safar to Muharram. Or whenever a need was felt to divert unlawfulness they would exchange these months in like manner. In this way the months of honour and prohibition would keep changing in the course of the year. This process of postponement is called NASI which has been condemned here. As the appointment and setting of months and days is done by Allah Almighty, any change therewith is an act of extreme transgression. Thus if any person today tries to change Monday to Friday and performs Friday Salaah in it, or change Rabiul Awwal to Zil-Hajj and offers Qurbani or Hajj in it would be regarded as an infidel like the one who rejects Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Such an act violates Divine Laws and Divine arrangement.
97. From this emerges two issues:
1. Bringing about sequencial change in months and days is the way of the infidels.
2. There can be an increase or decrease in the intensity of infidelity i.e. some infidels are worse than the others. But this increase can be the nature of infidelity, not in its quantity.
98. Even today the polytheists of India add on an intercalary month after every few years. The pregnancy of Bibi Amina (May Allah be pleased with her) occured in the month of Rajab but the polytheists that year made it into Zil-Hajj and performed pilgrimage in it. For this reson it is narrated that confirmation of the blessed conception took place at Mina after the Ramee of Jamarat. This is the explanation that can be given for it, otherwise this does not complete the nine months of the blessed pregnancy.
99. Because the year in which the infidels fight in Muharram by regarding it as Safar, then in that year they had made an unlawful battle lawful for them.
100. By this is meant that these infidels in each year always regard four months to be sacred and unlawful for waging war and they uphold them strictly. But they differ in their fixed order.

101. By this is meant it is a sin to bring about change in the order of the months but the devil explained to them that it is a good act. Now they do this, thinking it to be a pious act.

102. By this is meant Allah Almighty does not guide the infidels towards doing good deeds.

As long as they are infidels He does not show them the path towards Him. It could also mean that He will not show them the path towards Paradise on the Day of Judgement. Under all circumstances there can be no objection raised about the verse because thousands of infidels receive guidance to become Muslims.

SECTION 6

38. O believers! What has happened to you that when it is said to you [103]: "Go forth in the way of Allah"; you sit down [104]. on the earth heavily? Have you chosen the life of this world in preference to the Hereafter? And the goods of the living world in comparison with that of the Hereafter is nothing but little[105].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مَا لَكُمْ اِذَا قِيْلَ لَكُمُ انْفِرُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اثَّاقَلْتُمْ اِلَى الْاَرْضِ ؕ اَرَضِيْتُمْ بِالْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا مِنَ الْاٰخِرَةِ ۚ فَمَا مَتَاعُ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ اِلَّا قَلِيْلٌ ﴿٣٨﴾

103. From this we learn that a Muslim does not become an infidel on sinning because Allah Almighty called those who were lazy in Jihad as believers, although negligence in Jihad is a sin.

104. Reason for its Revelation:

This verse was revealed on the occasion of the Battle of Tabuk to instil in the Muslims the desire for Jihad - Holy War. This battle was fought in Rajab 9th Hijri after the Battle of Taif. Tabuk is situtated several kilometres out of Madina Muanawwarah in the direction of Syria. The Holy Prophet saw put great effort on this battle. At that piont in time there was a severe drought which was placing much strain on the Muslims. Severe heat too was adding to this problems of the Muslims. For this battle Hazrat Uthman Ghani (May Allah be pleased with him) generously donated military equipment for ten thousand soldiers, ten thousand gold coins, nine hundred camels and hundred fully saddled horses. Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) gave everything he had at home and Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) donated half his possessions. Leaving behind Hazrat Alli Murtaza (May Allah be pleased with him) as his deputy in Madina, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم marched to Tabuk at the head of a thirty thousand army. Abdullah ibn Ubayy and the rest of the hypocrites turn back from this army at Thaniyatul Wuda. On the occasion of this battle the well of Tabuk which had very little water became full with the blessed gargle water of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which sufficed the needs of all the soldiers and animals. No actual fighting took place in this battle because Herculis, Emperor of Rome became overawed by the Muslims. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم after imposing poll tax on the governors of Doomatul Jandal and Eila, returned to Madina. After this battle Hazrat Ka'ab bin Malik, Hilal ibn Umayyah and Murarah ibn Rabee had been boycotted, details of which are to follow.

105. This means all these would perish while the Hereafter is eternal, the goods of the living world are but little, while the Hereafter is abundant.

إِلَّا تَنْفِرُوْا يُعَذِّبْكُمْ عَذَابًا اَلِيْمًا ۙ وَّيَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ وَلَا تَضُرُّوْهُ شَيْـًٔا ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَىْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿٣٩﴾

39. If you will not march forth, He will punish [106]. you with a severe punishment and will replace you by another people [107]. and you can do no harm to Him. And Allah has full power to do everything.

106. By 'punishment' is meant Allah Almighty will destroy you through severe drought and other calamities. This tells us that sins are the cause of wordly calamities just as good deeds are a means of obtaining mercy.

107. Those obedient followers of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who would be giving the Hereafter preference over the world

اِلَّا تَنْصُرُوْهُ فَقَدْ نَصَرَهُ اللّٰهُ اِذْ اَخْرَجَهُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ثَانِىَ اثْنَيْنِ اِذْ هُمَا فِى الْغَارِ اِذْ يَقُوْلُ لِصَاحِبِهٖ لَا تَحْزَنْ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَنَا ۚ فَاَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ سَكِيْنَتَهٗ عَلَيْهِ وَاَيَّدَهٗ بِجُنُوْدٍ لَّمْ تَرَوْهَا وَجَعَلَ كَلِمَةَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوا السُّفْلٰى ؕ وَكَلِمَةُ اللّٰهِ هِىَ الْعُلْيَا ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٤٠﴾

40. If you help [108], him not, then no doubt Allah has already aided him, when on account [109], of the mischief of the infidels, he was to go out with only two [110], souls, when they were both in the Cave [111], and when he said to his Companion [112]: "Grieve [113], not, surely Allah is with us [114]". Then Allah sent down His satisfaction [115], on him and helped him with armies which you did not see [116], and put down the words of the infidels [117]. It is the word of Allah alone which is supreme[118]. And Allah is Dominant, Wise.

108. Allah Almighty would assist them from unknown sources as He did so on the occasion of the Hijrah. Thus the Letter FA is the word FAQAD - 'No doubt' is not for expressing a condition but it is a proof of a concealed condition or requital. What it means is even if you would not help the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then Allah Almighty had most certainly helped him. Thus no objection can be raised concerning the blessed verse.

109. Allah be praised! What a pure and refined translation! Here the connection by the action or verb is shown towards the cause because the infidels were the cause of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم migration, like the people of Yemen and Persia. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan) From this we learn that the Religion of Allah Almighty is no way dependent on us. It is we who are dependent on it. Also, propagation of Islam is not only endowed upon us; Islam existed before us and would be in existence after us.

though migration itself took place at the express command of Allah Almighty.

110. It should be remembered that if Allah Almighty who had taken the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم out of the holy city of Makkah, and not the polytheists whose intention was to martyr him. However, because the polytheists were the cause of the migration, they are declared as the doers. Further, it should be remembered that if the letter HA is used to show the present or the condition of the personal pronoun 'he' in "he was to go out with only two souls" then its meaning would be that the polytheists took him out in such a state that he was one of the two, i.e. Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him).

111. By 'both' means the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his companion in the cave, Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) . The word 'companion in the cave' is derived from this verse. Even today to a protector a sincere friend and a faithful companion is referred as Companion of the Cave.

112. From this emerges two issues:

1. The companionship of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) is based on absolute faith and the Holy QUR'AAN, hence its rejection is infidelity.

2. After the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the status of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique is greater than everyone else, because Allah Almighty has called him the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Companion second to the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. I is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم honoured him to lead the believers in Salaah on his blessed Musalla. He is a companion of four generations, he is a Companion, his parents are Companions, all his children are Companions and their children too are Companions, just as Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) too is the Prophet of four generations. This is the special quality and distinctive feature of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him).

We further learn that after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique would be his immediate successor or Caliph. If Allah Almighty has made him second to His Messenger then who is there to make him third or fourth. In the grave too he is next to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and on the Day of Judgement too he will be second to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

113. Do not grieve over me, because at that point in time Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique was not worried about himself as he himself was already bitten by the snake, he had already sacrified himself over the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The fear he had was for the safety ofhis Beloved Companion of the Cave, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. If he had fear about himself he would not have carried the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on his shoulders and climbed the hill of twelve miles height, he would not have entered the dark cave alone, he would not have allowed himself to be bitten by a snake. This grief of Hazrat Siddique Akbar too is an act of worship so is the worldly rest of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم an act of worship. Therefore Allah Almighty saved both these great personages through the web of the spider and the eggs of the pigeon.

114. Hazrat Moosa on whom be peace had said:

"Undoubtedly my Lord is with me" S26:V62 . Allah is with me i.e. Allah is not with you, but with me alone. But the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "Allah is with us" i.e. He is with me and with you. The one with whom Allah Almighty is can never go astray. Allah Almighty was with Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) at all times as He was with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

115. This tells us that Allah Almighty sent down His satisfaction and calm on Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique May Allah be pleased with him because at that moment he was the one who was restless. The blessed heart of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was already calm and tranquil. Also prior to this mention is being made of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) . In the words like 'his Companions' the pronoun usually is placed nearest to the noun to which it is connected. Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) thought the infidels had come to the mouth of the cave and if they become aware of their where about they would harm and cause pain to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

116. By seeing the help means like Divine help given in the Battle of Badr, Hunain, Ahzab, etc. In other words like in these battles, Allah Almighty helped His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم during the migration

HIJRAH, as well. This help for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was direct, while to the rest of the Believers it was through the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or it could mean that Allah Almighty aided the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم through the angels, making the angels to divert the attention of the infidels from the cave, making them to stop or investigate in the cave, also not making them hear the conversation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique May Allah be pleased with him .

117. In that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) stayed in the Cave of Thaur for three days. Every night Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) would appraise them of the day's activities of the infidels, while the slave of Hazrat Siddique Akbar, Hazrat Malik bin Faheera would supply them with the milk of Hazrat Abu Bakr's (May Allah be pleased with him) goats. As a last desparate measure to arrest them the infidels made an announcement that anyone who kills them or captures them will be given a reward of one hundred camels. Suraqa bin Malik actually tracked down the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but instead of capturing him he himself became the captive of the Blessed Messenger and was blessed with the light of Faith. this is a historically well known event. Thus every effort of the infidels was in vain.

118. By this is meant the glory of Allah Almighty is eternally sung and His Divine word is supreme at all times. Likewise the success and fame of His beloved devotees too are, were it would be for all times as they enjoy eternal honour.

41. March forth with light self-defence or with heavy arms [119]. And strive in the way [120] of Allah with your wealth and lives. It is better for you, if you know.

اِنْفِرُوْا خِفَافًا وَّ ثِقَالًا وَّ جَاهِدُوْا بِاَمْوَالِكُمْ وَ اَنْفُسِكُمْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ؕ ذٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۴۱﴾

119. Whether they are young or old, rich or poor, riding or on foot, healthy or ill, whether you like it or not, whether unoccupied or fully occupied in bussiness activities, whether alone or occupied in domestic chores, in whatever circumstances you may find yourself you will have to march with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to Tabuk for this holy war. In this regard this verse is abrogated from

"There is not any fault on the weak and on the sick". S9:V91 Ibn Abbas(Roohul Bayaan)

120. This tells us Jihad or Holy War is of different types: with one's life, with one's money, with one's pen, with one's speech, depending on the circumstances. Blessed is he who is given the opportunity to participate in all these forms of Jihad.

42. If there had been immediate gain or an average [121], journey, they would have certainly gone [122]. with you. But, the hard journey seemed too long [123]. to them. And they will swear [124], by Allah, that if we had been able to do so then we would surely have gone with you. They ruin [125], their souls, and Allah knows that undoubtedly, they are the liars.

لَوْ كَانَ عَرَضًا قَرِيْبًا وَّسَفَرًا قَاصِدًا لَّاتَّبَعُوْكَ وَ لٰكِنْۢ بَعُدَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الشُّقَّةُ ؕ وَ سَيَحْلِفُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ لَوِ اسْتَطَعْنَا لَخَرَجْنَا مَعَكُمْ ۚ يُهْلِكُوْنَ اَنْفُسَهُمْ ۚ وَاللّٰهُ يَعْلَمُ اِنَّهُمْ لَكٰذِبُوْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾ ع ۶ ۵ ۱۲

121. This means if the battlefield of Tabuk was nearby, and there was a hope of obtaining spoils of war with ease then these pretentious hypocrites would certainly have participated in the battle. From this we learn that to show fear in matters of religion and to look for easy way out is the sign of hypocrites. Furthermore, hypocrites too would participate in holy war - but not for obtaining the pleasure of Allah Almighty, rather for gaining spoils of war.

122. This tells us that obedience of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be that which stems from the inner heart based on love and sincerety. Otherwise obedience based on worldly greed was displayed even by the hypocrites. Therefore Allah Almighty has said that if you do love Allah Almighty, then obey the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then only will Allah Almighty love you and forgive all your sins. May Allah Almighty grant us all this type of obedience. Amin.

123. This tells us that true love eases all difficulties. The hypocrites were bereft of true love for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. To them the Battle of Tabuk and its long road appeared to be difficult and cumbersome.

124. This teaches us that taking false and excessive oaths is a sign of hypocrites. The learned scholars of Islam mention taking excessive oaths decreases one's sustenance. This verse contains information about the unseen, eg. that after reaching Madina Munuwwarah the hypocrites will express excuses by swearing false oaths. The same happened as prophesized.

125. That is by swearing false oaths. From this we learn that false oath is not only a major sin but a means of destruction of the swearer, and a sign of a hypocrite.

SECTION 7

43. Allah forgive[126], you for accommodating them in staying back, till the true one had not become manifest [127] to you. And you knew the liars [128] clearly.

عَفَا اللّٰهُ عَنْكَ ۚ لِمَ اَذِنْتَ لَهُمْ حَتّٰى يَتَبَيَّنَ لَكَ الَّذِيْنَ صَدَقُوْا وَ تَعْلَمَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ﴿٤٣﴾

126. This is an expression of love and kindness, as spoken to the dear ones during a conversation eg May Allah Almighty increase your lifespan; May He strengthen your faith, etc, because granting of permission by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was no error on his part, as prior to this he was not prohibited to grant such permission.

127. This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم always had full knowledge of the infidels, but he had concealed their identity. What is being said here is why did he not humiliate them. Had you not given them permission to stay away from the war, and despite that they had not gone, they would be humiliated. By knowledge is meant worldly knowledge. Says Allah Almighty: "And you will certainly recognize them by the manner of their speech". S47:V30

128. On the occasion of the Battle of Tabuk the hypocrites began to seek permission of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to stay at home using illness and weakness, as an excuse. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم granted them permission. This verse discusses this issues. this permission of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not due to any incorrect information but because of some far sighted considerations.

44. And those who believe in Allah and the Last Day [129] would not ask leave of you from Jihad with their wealth and their lives.

لَا يَسْتَاْذِنُكَ الَّذِيْنَ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ اَنْ يُّجَاهِدُوْا بِاَمْوَالِهِمْ وَ

Marfat.com

And Allah knows the pious ones well.

اَنْفُسِهِمْ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِالْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿۴۴﴾

129. Bringing faith in Allah Almighty is included in declaring faith in the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. By faith is meant having correct faith with regard to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Mere faith in Allah Almighty was declared by the hypocrites too. The essence of true faith is the personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. From this we learn that making excuses to dodge Holy War was the sign of a hypocrite.

45. Only they ask you exemption who do not believe [130], in Allah and the Last Day, and their hearts are in doubt [131]. Then in their doubts they waver.

اِنَّمَا يَسْتَاْذِنُكَ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَ ارْتَابَتْ قُلُوْبُهُمْ فَهُمْ فِيْ رَيْبِهِمْ يَتَرَدَّدُوْنَ ﴿۴۵﴾

130. This means seeking permission to stay away from holy war on lame excuses is the sign of a hypocrite. From this we learn that not declaring faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم amounts to rejection of Allah Almighty, because though the hypocrites had believed in Allah Almighty, but they had rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Yet it is clearly stated here that they do not declare faith in Allah Almighty.

131. By doubt here means these hypocrites do not have firm conviction about the truth of Islam and the falsehood of infidelity nor in the consequences thereof. If Muslims would gain victory they would say perhaps Islam is a true Religion, and if the infidels would gain victory they would say that perhaps these infidels are on the path of truth, otherwise they would not have been victorious. Or it could mean they have no trust in the promises of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In addition they have no confidence in prophecies told by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This tells us that anyone who tries to waver and show hesitation in respect of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knowledge of the unseen shows doubts in the truth of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prophecies is a hypocrite. We further learn that Allah Almighty blesses a believers inner satisfaction - the degree of satisfaction will be in accordance with the degree of faith "Behold, in the remembrance of Allah alone there is the satisfaction of hearts". (S13:V28)

46. Had they willed to go forth, they would have made some preparation [132]. for it. But, Allah disliked their such rising. So, He made them lethargic. And it was said [133], to them: "Remain sitting with those who sit" [134].

وَ لَوْ اَرَادُوا الْخُرُوْجَ لَاَعَدُّوْا لَهٗ عُدَّةً وَّلٰكِنْ كَرِهَ اللّٰهُ انْۢبِعَاثَهُمْ فَثَبَّطَهُمْ وَ قِيْلَ اقْعُدُوْا مَعَ الْقٰعِدِيْنَ ﴿۴۶﴾

132. The hypocrites were outwardly trying to make it appear they were prepared to participate in the Battle of Tabuk but due to the sudden occurrence of illness and difficulties we were unable do so. However they are false in their claim because they had at no stage made any preparation for undertaking this military journey. From the beginning their hearts were not inclined towards this. From this we learn that military preparation is an act of worship.

133. By this is meant advise was given to them by their children or companions or the devil, or Allah Almighty placed this in their hearts in an unseen way. In the first instance this means expressing it outwordly or literally while the second instance suggests it is said to impress in the heart because Allah Almighty had commanded them to participate in the holy war. The latter meaning is more powerful. Thus the latter meaning is in accordance with Divine intention. Therefore the word 'said' is used in translation.

134. Inclusive of the women, the aged, the children and the sick.

47. If they would have come out along with you, they would have aided? [135], you nothing except corruption and would have run to and fro in your midst, seeking to cause sedition among you by their spies [136]. And Allah Knows well the unjust.

لَوْ خَرَجُوْا فِيْكُمْ مَّا زَادُوْكُمْ اِلَّا خَبَالًا وَّلَاْوْضَعُوْا خِلٰلَكُمْ يَبْغُوْنَكُمُ الْفِتْنَةَ ۚ وَ فِيْكُمْ سَمّٰعُوْنَ لَهُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِالظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۷﴾

135. In that they would have frightened you through the infidels, caused you to fight amongst yourself's heaped praises of the infidels in your presence and hurled insults upon the Muslims. From this we learn that a hypocrite does a good deed with an evil intention he goes to the mosque with the intention of stealing people's shoes.

136. Those who listen to your discussion with the intention of informing the infidels with it are the hypocrites. This tells us that for a believer to become an informer of a hypocrite is a sign of hypocrisy or playing double standards. In this case the pronominal suffix 'them' is used to indicate the infidels. Ot it could also mean Oh Muslim some new converts amongst you are so simple and have weak belief that they easily accept what the hypocrites tell them, and they become inflamed at their instigation.

48. No doubt, they already sought to create disorder [137], before and turn the plans upside down [138], for you O Beloved , till the truth came and Allah's command appeared [139]. And they disliked.

لَقَدِ ابْتَغَوُا الْفِتْنَةَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَقَلَّبُوْا لَكَ الْاُمُوْرَ حَتّٰى جَآءَ الْحَقُّ وَ ظَهَرَ اَمْرُ اللّٰهِ وَهُمْ كٰرِهُوْنَ ﴿۴۸﴾

137. In the Battle of Uhud, prior to the Battle of Tabuk, Abdullah ibn Ubay, in an effort to weaken you, took his three hundred associates from the battlefield at at time when the Muslims were really hard pressed. From this we learn that in the case of such a treacherous person one must be ever alert least one falls prey to their deception again. A believer can never be bitten twice by one serpent.

138. By this is meant that all the schemes of the hypocrites through the grace of Allah Almighty were rendered in vain. They did their best to make the infidels victorious over the believers but through the bounty of Allah Almighty their effort had the opposite effect: At Uhud the objective of the infidels was not achieved, and at Tabuk they became eager to accept peace, etc. Even today, if the Muslims of the world can become staunch in their beliefs and unity, every scheme of the infidels against them will be rendered useless by the will of Allah Almighty.

139. From this we learn that the infidels and the hypocrites show meaningles joy at our happiness, insincerely congratulate the Muslims, but inwardly their hearts burn at the success of the Muslims.

Marfat.com

وَ مِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّقُوْلُ ائْذَنْ لِّيْ وَ لَا تَفْتِنِّيْ ؕ اَلَا فِي الْفِتْنَةِ سَقَطُوْا ؕ وَ اِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمُحِيْطَةٌۢ بِالْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿۴۹﴾

49. And among them is he who submits before you like this: "Give me leave, and do not put me to trial[140]". Listen, they have already fallen down into trial [141]. And surely, Hell has surrounded the infidels.

140. Reason for its revelation:
The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had instructed Jud bin Qais, a hypocrite, to get ready to participate in the Battle of Tabuk. He replied that my people are aware of how much passion I have for women. If I go to fight the Romans there is a danger that I could become infatuated with their beautiful women, which could prove problematic for me. Thus kindly do not take me there lest I fall prey to any mischief and temptation. In response this verse was revealed.
141. By this is meant not participating in the battle, disobeying the order of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to mock at him, etc. are grave forms of mischief.

اِنْ تُصِبْكَ حَسَنَةٌ تَسُؤْهُمْ ۚ وَ اِنْ تُصِبْكَ مُصِيْبَةٌ يَّقُوْلُوْا قَدْ اَخَذْنَاۤ اَمْرَنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَيَتَوَلَّوْا وَّ هُمْ فَرِحُوْنَ ﴿۵۰﴾

50. If good befalls you then it hurts [142], them, and if any misfortune [143], comes to you then they say: "We had already taken precautions to set our works before [144]". And they turn back rejoicing.

142. Though this is hinted that showing joy at any difficulty of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the work of the infidels. Likewise, expressing sadness at the happiness of the Muslims is the sign of hypocrites. Muslims always share the joy and misfortune of their fellow Muslims. At the illness of one limb every limb becomes restless. Any one who remains unmoved is really useless and completely withered.
143. By misfortune is meant, death, injury or defeat. Outwardly this is addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but in truth it is addressed to all the Muslims. In no battle did the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ever turn his back. If any one says this he should be ordered to seek repentance. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the bravest of the brave. There has been no one more brave like him.
144. This means they had not participated in the battle. From this we learn that not undergoing difficulties in the Path of Allah Almighty is a form of loss, while hearing the hardship is beneficial. He who spends much in the path of Allah Almighty is indeed in gain who he spends less in on a loss. The affairs of Allah Almighty are totally opposite to our worldly affairs.

قُلْ لَّنْ يُّصِيْبَنَاۤ اِلَّا مَا كَتَبَ اللّٰهُ لَنَا ۚ هُوَ مَوْلٰىنَا ۚ وَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۵۱﴾

51. Please declare: "Nothing shall reach us but what Allah has ordained [145] for us. He is our Protector, and the believers should keep trust in Allah only".

Marfat.com

145.If the preposition 'for' in the word 'for us' is used to indicate benefit then its meaning would be every grief and comfort which is beneficial for us.

52. Please declare: "Do you wait for us, but for one of the two excellent goods [146]. And we are waiting for you that Allah afflict you from Himself [147] or with our hands. So wait, we also are waiting with you".

قُلْ هَلْ تَرَبَّصُوْنَ بِنَآ اِلَّآ اِحْدَى الْحُسْنَيَيْنِ ؕ وَ نَحْنُ نَتَرَبَّصُ بِكُمْ اَنْ يُّصِيْبَكُمُ اللّٰهُ بِعَذَابٍ مِّنْ عِنْدِهٖٓ اَوْ بِاَيْدِيْنَا ۚ فَتَرَبَّصُوْٓا اِنَّا مَعَكُمْ مُّتَرَبِّصُوْنَ ﴿۵۲﴾

146. They await either for blessing or martyrdom. This tells that the misfortune of a believer too is a mercy from Allah Almighty for him. He earns great reward by bearing this with patience. There are various categories of martyrdom. The example of a believer is: when he is struck by an enemy he becomes a warrior, when he is killed by him he becomes a martyr, when he is inflicted by misfortune he is in a state of fasting, when he overcomes this it is like Eid for him. Thus in all conditions he stands to gain.

147. By afflict you with torment means you will die an infidel. and you would be caught up in the punishments of the grave and the Hereafter. Some commentators have said that like Thamood and Aad, punishment from unknown sources shall come upon you because cases of punishments of MASAKH metamorphosed into lower species and KHASF to be partially submerged in the ground can still come. After the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم common punishments of unknown sources have been discontinued but not the special forms of punishments. Thus prior to the Day of Judgement some people's faces would undergo metarmorphoses and some would partially submerged in the ground.

53. Please declare: "Spend willingly or unwillingly, it shall not be accepted from you. No doubt, you are a disobedient people [148]".

قُلْ اَنْفِقُوْا طَوْعًا اَوْ كَرْهًا لَّنْ يُّتَقَبَّلَ مِنْكُمْ ؕ اِنَّكُمْ كُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا فٰسِقِيْنَ ﴿۵۳﴾

148. Reason for its Revelation:
On the occasion of the Battle of Tabuk Juda bin Qais, the hypocrite, tendered in an apology that though he would not be able to participate in the battle personally, he is prepared to donate wealth towards the cost of the battle. In response to it this verse was revealed. It should be remembered that here 'you spend' cannot be for an obligatory command but it is used as an expression of information, and not be accepted means the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not be accepting it, or that Allah Almighty will not be accepting it. The commentator of Roohul Bayaan has said that after that Juda bin Qais accepted Islam sincerely and died during the Caliphate of Hazrat Uthman May Allah be pleased with him Allah Almighty knows best.

54. And what they spend, its acceptance was not barred, but because they rejected [149], Allah and

وَ مَا مَنَعَهُمْ اَنْ تُقْبَلَ مِنْهُمْ نَفَقٰتُهُمْ اِلَّآ اَنَّهُمْ كَفَرُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَ بِرَسُوْلِهٖ وَ لَا

Marfat.com

His Messenger. And they come to Salaah lazily [150] and spend unwillingly [151].

يَأْتُوْنَ الصَّلٰوةَ اِلَّا وَ هُمْ كُسَالٰى وَلَا يُنْفِقُوْنَ اِلَّا وَ هُمْ كٰرِهُوْنَ ﴿۵۴﴾

149. This tells us that the worship of an infidel is unacceptable. Only that branch will bear fruit which is connected with the root. The pre-conditions for acceptance of one's good deeds is servitude of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

150. From this we learn that to perform Salaah negligently is the way of the hypocrites. From this many juristic issues can be deduced: to perform Salaah on the eleventh hour, to become accustomed to perform it without congregation, to perform it bare-headed, to perform it with opened shirt buttons and folded sleeves - all these are undesirable factors of Salaah as they reflect signs of negligence.

151. Because the hypocrites do not believe in the reward of such a charity. They merely spend to conceal their hypocrisy. From this we learn that any donation which is given to seek favours, or to conceal any ones taunting or for the sake of pride shall not be rewardable.

55. Then let not their wealth and children surprise [152]. you. Allah only intends to punish [153], them with these things in the life of the world, and that their souls may depart while they are infidels [154].

فَلَا تُعْجِبْكَ اَمْوَالُهُمْ وَ لَآ اَوْلَادُهُمْ ؕ اِنَّمَا يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ بِهَا فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَ تَزْهَقَ اَنْفُسُهُمْ وَ هُمْ كٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿۵۵﴾

152. Here Muslims are being addressed that you should not express any amazement at the wealth of the hypocrites i.e. if they are accursed people then why are they blessed with so much wealth. Infact in the eyes of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم their wealth was less significant than the wing of a mosquito.

153. By this is meant accummulate it through your effort, guard it through hard work and die regretfully leaving it behind.

154. This tells us that any wealth or children that make you unmindful of Allah Almighty is a punishment from the Almighty. May Allah Almighty protect us from them.

Further we learn that the wealthy experience a painful death as he is faced with two diificulties, leaving the world, and leaving the wealth. The believer experiences an easy death as he regards it as a means of meeting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. For this reason his day of death is called Urs - a re-unionn - the wedding day of meeting the groom. Death is a train which transports the criminal to his place of hanging, and the groom to the place of wedding procession leading to the bride's house. for the believer it is the day of meeting, for the infidel it is the day of separation.

56.They swear by Allah that they are amongst you. And they are not from amongst [155] you. Yes, they are afraid.

وَيَحْلِفُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ اِنَّهُمْ لَمِنْكُمْ ؕ وَ مَا هُمْ مِّنْكُمْ وَ لٰكِنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ يَّفْرَقُوْنَ ﴿۵۶﴾

155. From this emerges a few issues:
1. To feign piety is the work of the hypocrites and not of the believers.
2. To give proof of your faith by swearing oaths is a sign of the hypocrite, the believer is not in need of this. People will accept him as a believer without swearing an oath. These signs are seen in both even today.

Marfat.com

3. When your action is not in accordance with your speech, it will not hold any credence. The hypocrites swear oaths to prove their faith but Allah Almighty said that they are not from the believers,

4. Muslims are of two types: religious Muslims and nationalistic Muslims. The hypocrites were from the second group. They were not religious Muslims. They were permitted to perform their Salaah in the mosques because of their claim to be Muslims, and they were not put to the sword like the infidels. However, they were not recognized as believers by Allah Almighty. This is exactly what is meant by "And they are not from amongst you".

Presently too Muslims are divided into seventy three sects of nationalistic Muslims. Every sect is not made up of religious Muslims, though all these sects are statistically considered to be Muslims.

57. If they find a place of refuge, or cave, or a place to creep into, they would certainly have turned to it rushing headlong [156].

لَوْ يَجِدُوْنَ مَلْجَاً اَوْ مَغٰرٰتٍ اَوْ مُدَّخَلًا لَّوَلَّوْا اِلَيْهِ وَ هُمْ يَجْمَحُوْنَ ﴿٥٧﴾

156. This means they should run away from you in such a way that they should not be able to look at you again. From this we learn that every person is inclined to his own kind. A hypocrite amongst the Muslims is just as out of place as if he is a crow amongst the parrots.

58. And of them are some who blame[157]. you with regard to the distribution of charities. Then, if they get something of it, they are pleased, and if they get nothing, then they are angry [158].

وَ مِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّلْمِزُكَ فِي الصَّدَقٰتِ ۚ فَاِنْ اُعْطُوْا مِنْهَا رَضُوْا وَ اِنْ لَّمْ يُعْطَوْا مِنْهَآ اِذَا هُمْ يَسْخَطُوْنَ ﴿٥٨﴾

157. Reason for its revelation:
On one occasion the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was distributing the spoils of war. During the distribution Harqoos ibn Zaheer Tameemi who was known Zul Khu said "Oh Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم exercise justice". This infuriated Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) who sought permission to behead him but the Holy Prophet stopped him saying: From his progeny will be born such people who will excell you in performance of Salaah and recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN but they would go out of the fold of Islam like a bow leaves the arrow. e.g. The Khawarij, Wahabis, etc. In response to ibn Tameemi this verse was revealed. From this we learn that raising an objection against any blessed act of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is infidelity.

158. This tells us that being pleased with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in ones worldly gain and being displeased when incuring a loss is a special sign of the hypocrite. Such a person never really declared faith in the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but merely brought faith on his own selfish wishes. Such a person is worse than a dog because after being beaten by his master he does not abandon him.

59. What good would it have been if they had been pleased [159], with what Allah and His Messenger had given them and would have said:

وَ لَوْ اَنَّهُمْ رَضُوْا مَآ اٰتٰىهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَ رَسُوْلُهٗ ۙ وَ قَالُوْا حَسْبُنَا اللّٰهُ سَيُؤْتِيْنَا

Marfat.com

اللّٰهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ وَ رَسُوْلُهٗٓ ۙ اِنَّآ اِلَى اللّٰهِ رٰغِبُوْنَ ﴿٥٩﴾ ع ١٢/١٣

"Sufficient [160] for us is Allah. Allah gives us of His Bounty [161] and so the Messenger of Allah. To Allah, only, we turn in submission.

160. Whether we obtain material wealth or not, for us the bounty and blessing of Allah Almighty is sufficient. This type of conviction is a sign of a true believer.

161. This tells us that every blessing and bounty is being distributed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because here the distribution of bounty of both Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is being mentioned without any restriction.

159. From this we learn that it is absolutely correct to say that Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed us with faith, saved us from the fire of Hell, etc. We further learn that Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم shower their bounties upon us and will continue to do so. Infact whatever Allah Almighty gives, does so through the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

اِنَّمَا الصَّدَقٰتُ لِلْفُقَرَآءِ وَ الْمَسٰكِيْنِ وَ الْعٰمِلِيْنَ عَلَيْهَا وَالْمُؤَلَّفَةِ قُلُوْبُهُمْ وَ فِي الرِّقَابِ وَ الْغٰرِمِيْنَ وَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيْلِ ؕ فَرِيْضَةً مِّنَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٦٠﴾

60. The poor-due is only for those who are poor and needy, and those who collect [162], it, and for those whose hearts are to be conciliated [163], for Islam, and for the freeing [164], of slaves and for debtors and for spending in the way of Allah [165], and for the traveller [166]. This has been ordained by Allah [167]. And Allah is All Knowing, Wise.

162. Collectors of Zakaat are those who are appointed for this purpose by a Muslims ruler. Their salaries would be paid by the money collected, even if they may be wealthy, provided they are not Hashimi Sayyeds - i.e. descendents of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. If these collectors are Sayyeds their salary should be paid from separate wealth, and not from Zakaat money. It should be remembered that Zakaat on cash, animals, fresh produce was usually collected by Muslim emperors, while Zakaat on latent wealth eg gold and silver was paid in by their owners. However, now Zakaat on both types of wealth should be paid on by the owners themselves because there is so much that the kings and rulers would not be absolutely fair in this regard.

163. By this is meant those infidels about whose faith there is hope, or those new converts in whose hearts the seeds of faith have not yet fully seeped, or those staunch infidels from whose mischief there is a grave danger. The first and third conditions are now eliminated. The second type is still relevant for the receipt of Zakaat.

164. By this is meant that money from the Zakaat should be given to a slave to buy his freedom from his master. A listed slave is he whose master has stipulated an amount for the purchase of his freedom.

165. By this is meant he should be a destitute warrior. By this is meant Zakaat should only be paid to those who are mentioned in this verse, and they should be made owners of the money given to them. Hence it should not be given for the mosque, for religious shrines. for the shroud of the deceased because they are excluded from the eight already meantioned. Also, no one can claim ownership in these instances.

166. Even if the traveller is wealthy in his own land and becomes destitute on t he journey, Zakaat can be given to him to relieve him of his difficulty.

167. By this is meant these rules are fully settled and as such they should be carried out.

Religious issue:

The person giving Zakaat is fully empowered to either give all his Zakaat to just one person or distribute it amongst all those who are entitled to receive it.

61. And of them some are those who hurt the Prophet and say: "He gives an ear [168], to all things he hears", Please declare: "He is an ear for the good [169]. of you. He believes in Allah and believes [170], the words of the believers, and he is a mercy [171]. for those who are believers among you". And those who hurt [172], the Messenger, for them there is a painful torment [173].

وَمِنْهُمُ الَّذِيْنَ يُؤْذُوْنَ النَّبِيَّ وَيَقُوْلُوْنَ هُوَ اُذُنٌ ؕ قُلْ اُذُنُ خَيْرٍ لَّكُمْ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَيُؤْمِنُ لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَ رَحْمَةٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مِنْكُمْ ؕ وَالَّذِيْنَ يُؤْذُوْنَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿٦١﴾

168. These are those who accept whatever is said without verifying it Reason for its revelation:

The hypocrites would say a great deal of nonsense about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in their gatherings. Some of them would say if the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم got wind of what they were saying he would be angered by it. To this Jallas bin Saeed said: it does not matter, if he does come to know of it we will deny it in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. We will take an oath and because he is pure and unsuspecting he accepts whatever is spoken before him. In response to the prattle of these hypocrites this blessed verse was revealed.

169. By this is meant Oh hypocrites! it is better for you to not verify everything he says. If he was in the habit of revealing your secrets it would have been disastrous for you. Indeed the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the keeper of secrets.

170. This means although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم remains silent at whatever anyone says but he only believes what the believers say. Even his silence is a mercy and a blessing.

171. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم general mercy is for the entire universe, but his special mercy is for Muslims alone. Hence this verse is in no way contrary to the mercy unto the universe

172. By 'hurt' means hurt the Holy Prophet through their word, deed or movement.

173. From this emerge two issues:

1. Any work which is hurtful to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is forbidden. If anyone's Salaah causes hurt to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it is forbidden, while if making Qaza of a Salaah at a given time makes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم happy, then making Qaza at that time is an act of worship.

2. To cause harm to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is infidelity because painful punishment is given to the infidels only. It should be remembered that to cause harm to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is different to some ones deeds causing him hurt. To cause harm is infidelity. Our sinful deeds too cause hurt to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but this does not make us infidels. It also means to sin deliberatley so as to cause hurt to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too is an act of infidelity.

يَحْلِفُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ لَكُمْ لِيُرْضُوْكُمْ ۚ وَاللّٰهُ وَ
رَسُوْلُهٗۤ اَحَقُّ اَنْ يُّرْضُوْهُ اِنْ كَانُوْا
مُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٦٢﴾

62. They swear by Allah before you that you may be pleased [174]. And Allah and the Messenger had a greater right, that they should please[175], him, if they had faith.

174. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding those hypocrites who would mock at Islam and the Muslims when they were alone and then they would come to the Muslims and take a false oath that they had never done this.

175. From this we learn two issues:
1. In the acts of worship intention of pleasing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with Allah Almighty would not be regarded as polytheism, instead it is completion of faith.
2. To worship Allah Almighty in the name of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a means of gaining divine rewards, just as offering sacrifice and performing pilgrimage for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are all acts to gain his pleasure. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had offered sacrifice on behalf on his followers.

اَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوْۤا اَنَّهٗ مَنْ يُّحَادِدِ اللّٰهَ
وَرَسُوْلَهٗ فَاَنَّ لَهٗ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدًا
فِيْهَا ؕ ذٰلِكَ الْخِزْیُ الْعَظِيْمُ ﴿٦٣﴾

63. Are they not aware [176], that whoso opposes Allah and His Messenger, for such a person is the fire of Hell, in which he will abide forever[177]. This is a great humiliation.

176. By this is meant opposing them by taking their laws to be false. Thus those sinful Muslims are not included in this who transgress the laws of Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in the knowledge that what they are doing is contrary to these divine laws. Rejection is infidelity, transgression is sin.

177. This tells us that eternal stay in Hell and its humilation is for the infidels only. Even if the sinful believers would be sent into Hell it will be for a temporary period to cleanse them of their sins, just as impure gold is placed into the furnace to purify it and coal is placed in the same furnace to burn it, the infidels are the coal of Hell while the sinful Muslims are impure gold. Further we learn that slightest opposition to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is infidelity. We also learn that the position of opposing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the same as opposing Allah Almighty. The opposing to any word or religious works of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is infidelity.

يَحْذَرُ الْمُنٰفِقُوْنَ اَنْ تُنَزَّلَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُوْرَةٌ
تُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا فِيْ قُلُوْبِهِمْ ؕ قُلِ اسْتَهْزِءُوْا ۚ
اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مُخْرِجٌ مَّا تَحْذَرُوْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾

64. The hypocrites fear, lest a Surah (chapter) should be revealed to them informing them of what is in their hearts [178]. Please declare: "Mock [179], on, truly Allah is about to reveal what you fear [180]".

Marfat.com

178. It should be remembered that the pronominal suffixes of 'to them' and 'informing them' are connected with the Muslims, and in their heart's is connected to the hypocrites. From this emerges three issues:

1. The revealing of the Holy QUR'AAN to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is like being revealed to his followers because the purpose of the Holy QUR'AAN is giving guidance to the followers of the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم already had full knowledge of the hypocrites; the revelation of the verses regarding them was to make the believers aware of them. For this reason the plural form of the pronoun is used in 'informing them'.

3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is concealer of faults and as far as possible would not humiliate the hypocrites. It is the Holy QUR'AAN which reveals the secrets of these unfortunate wretches.

179. In matters of Religious laws or in matters concerning Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet The objective of this is to chide or scold the hypocrites and not to give them permission to hurt or insult at the above.

180. Allah Almighty fulfilled this promise in that the hypocrites were eventually completely disgraced.

65. And O Beloved Prophet if you question them, they will say [181]: "We are only joking and playing". Please declare: "Do you mock at Allah?" Were you mocking at Allah and His Verses and His Messenger.

وَ لَئِنْ سَاَلْتَهُمْ لَيَقُوْلُنَّ اِنَّمَا كُنَّا
نَخُوْضُ وَنَلْعَبُ ؕ قُلْ اَبِاللّٰهِ وَ اٰيٰتِهٖ وَ
رَسُوْلِهٖ كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ﴿٦٥﴾

181. Reason for its revelation:
While going to the battle of Tabuk two of the three hypocrites were conversing between themselves that the Holy Propeht صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم thinks that we would be victorious over the Romans. This assessment is totally incorrect. Though the third hypocrite remained silent he was laughing. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sent for the three and asked them to explain what they had said. At this the three replied that we were merely joking to lighten the journey. At this occasion this verse was revealed. From this emerge few issues:

1. Allah Almighty has blessed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the knowledge of the unseen. What people would say in their privacy the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was made aware of it.

2. Approval through silence and laughing at talk of infidelity too is infidelity because approval of infidelity is in itself infidelity.

3. Insult of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed insult of Allah Almighty. Here the hypocrites had insulted the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but Allah Almighty says: "Say you 'Do you mock at Allah and His signs and His Messenger?" meaning, mocking at the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is mocking at Allah Almighty and all His signs. Thus respect of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed respect of Allah Almighty.

66. Make no excuses, you have already become infidels after becoming Muslims [182]. If We forgive [183], some of you, then We shall punish others, because they were guilty.

لَا تَعْتَذِرُوْا قَدْ كَفَرْتُمْ بَعْدَ اِيْمَانِكُمْ ؕ
اِنْ نَّعْفُ عَنْ طَآئِفَةٍ مِّنْكُمْ نُعَذِّبْ
طَآئِفَةً بِاَنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا مُجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾

182. From this we learn that insulting the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an act of infidelity even if it is done unintentionlaly because mockery has been declared as infidelity. We further learn that the one who insults the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an apostate.

183. In there is a prophecy that of the three the one who remained silent would be able to repent and he would not be granted forgiveness. The other two would not be able to repent and would thus be punished in Hell. Thus this third person sincerely repented. His name was Yahya ibn Hameer Ashjaee. He was martyred in the Battle of Yamamah during the rule of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) but his body was never found. At the repentance he prayed to Allah Almighty "Oh Allah grant me martyrdom in Your path in such a way that there shall be no one to give me Ghusal and Kafan and no one to bury me". *KHAZAIN UL IRFA*AN Oh Allah grant through his medium forgiveness to the sinners and repentance for all of us. Amin.

SECTION 9

67. The hypocrites, men and women, are birds [184] of the same feathers. They bid evil and forbid from doing good [185] and keep their hands closed [186]. They have left Allah, so Allah has left them. No doubt, the hypocrites are the confirmed disobedient [187].

اَلْمُنٰفِقُوْنَ وَالْمُنٰفِقٰتُ بَعْضُهُمْ مِّنْۢ
بَعْضٍ ۘ يَاْمُرُوْنَ بِالْمُنْكَرِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ
الْمَعْرُوْفِ وَيَقْبِضُوْنَ اَيْدِيَهُمْ ؕ نَسُوا اللّٰهَ
فَنَسِيَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّ الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ هُمُ الْفٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

وقف لازم

184. By this is meant all are equal in hypocrisy, though some are leaders and others are underlings. But none from them is a believer.

185. This tells us to stop people from good and pious talk is the way of the infidels. The Wahabies should take a lesson from this as they continuously stop people from doing good deeds and indulging in good activities. Says Allah Almighty: "Forbidder of good, transgressor, sinful". (S68:V12) The Wahabies do not lend support for stopping worthless games and entertainment. But instead they will, stop people from activities which cater for the remembrance of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, and from gatherings in which the Saints of Allah Almighty are being discussed. May Allah grant them good understanding.

186. In that, they do not spend their weatlh in Allah's way and they stop others from doing this. From this those people should take a lesson who stops others from holding Fatihas of the pious servants of Allah Almighty without any apparent reason. This type of spending too is spending in Allah's way.

187. By transgressor is meant one holding evil beliefs eg. the infidel, and not one who commits sinful deeds because such a person is still a Muslim. There are three types of sinfulness and impiety in which sinfulness of beliefs is the most detestable type.

68. Allah has promised the hypocrites men and women and the infidels the fire of Hell, wherein they will abide forever. That is sufficient for them. And the curse of Allah is

وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ وَ الْمُنٰفِقٰتِ وَ الْكُفَّارَ
نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا ؕ هِيَ حَسْبُهُمْ ۚ
وَ لَعَنَهُمُ اللّٰهُ ۚ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّقِيْمٌ ﴿٦٨﴾ لا

upon them. And for them is the lasting torment [188].

188. This tells us by Allah Almighty the command regarding the hypocrite and an infidel is same. In Shariah there is no war

69. Even all those before you were mightier than you in strength and more abundant[189]. in wealth and children. They enjoyed their share. So you enjoy your share just as those before you enjoyed theirs. And you indulged in absurdity just as they indulged. Their deeds are wasted [190]. in the world and the Hereafter [191]. And they are the losers.

189. The example of this is the people of Aad and Thamood who were extremely powerful. Despite this strength when they opposed a Prophet of Allah Almighty they were destroyed. Likewise Oh hypocrites be mindful of your end. From this we learn that materialistic power is always defeated by spiritual power. Observe seventy thousand magicians were defeated single handedly by Hazrat Moosa (May Allah be pleased with him) . The entire forces of the world will fail not only against a Prophet but against one saint.

190. From this we learn two issues:

1. Good deeds are nullified through opposition to Allah's Prophet's but remain unchanged. Infidelity is the cause of confiscation of good deeds
